IV. 'And whereas there is now standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court, 'to the Credit of the Account intituled "Account of Monies placed out to provide for the Officers of the 'High Court of Chancery," the Sum of Two hundred and one thousand and twenty-eight Pounds Two 'Shillings and Threepence Bank Three Pounds per Cent. Annuities, and the Amount of Cash which has 'arisen from Dividends thereon: And whereas under the Act passed in the Session of Parliament 'holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Ninety-four, Section 'Thirty-six, the Dividends arising from the Fund standing to the Credit of the said last-mentioned 'Account are directed or authorized to be invested in the Purchase of Parliamentary or Government 'Securities in the Name of the said Accountant General, to be by him placed to the Credit of the said 'last-mentioned Account: And whereas it is unnecessary to continue the Accumulation of the Dividends 'on the Funds so as aforesaid standing to the Credit of the said last-mentioned Account, and it is 'expedient that such Dividends should from Time to Time be applied in aid of the Fund called the 'Suitors Fee Fund:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Dividends and annual Produce which have arisen and which shall arise from the Monies placed out on the Account intituled "Account of Monies placed out to provide for the Officers of the High Court of Chancery" shall be carried over by the said Accountant General, and be placed to the said Account intituled "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," and shall thereupon become Part of the Fund standing to such Account, and be dealt with accordingly.

Reduced Stamp Duties to be payable hereafter on Powers of Attorney, &c.

V. 'And whereas it is expedient to reduce the Stamp Duties payable on Letters or Powers of Attorney 'to be used in the Office of the said Accountant General upon the Receipt of Cheques, Notes, or Drafts 'for small Sums of Money:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Stamp Duties which if this Act had not been passed would have been payable on Letters or Powers of Attorney to be used in the Office of the said Accountant General for the Receipt of Cheques, Notes, or Drafts for gross Sums of Money not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds, or periodical Payments not exceeding the annual Sum of Five Pounds, shall cease to be payable, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed, and in lieu and instead thereof there shall be granted, raised, levied, and collected in respect of every such Letter or Power of Attorney, or for or in respect of the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper upon which the same shall be written, the Sum of Five Shillings.

Stamp Duties to be under the Management of Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

VI. The said Duties hereby directed or authorized to be raised, levied, and collected shall be denominated and deemed to be Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, Exemptions, Fines, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties contained in or imposed by the several Acts relating to any Stamp Duties now payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively shall respectively be in full Force and Effect with respect to the Duties by this Act directed or authorized to be raised, levied, or collected, and to the Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and to the Persons liable to the Payment of the said Duties, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, and shall be observed, applied, allowed, enforced, and put in execution for and in the raising, levying, and collecting of the said Duties, and otherwise in relation thereto, so far as the same shall not be superseded by and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted.

Accountant General may be empowered to act on Powers of Attorney in Receipt of future Monies.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, whenever it shall seem expedient to him so to do, to empower and direct the Accountant General of the said Court to receive and act upon Letters or Powers of Attorney granted by any Person to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall by any Order in any Cause or Matter be directed to be paid, authorizing the Attorney of such Person to receive, not only a Cheque, Note, or Draft for the Sum or Sums of Money so ordered to be paid, but all Cheques, Notes, or Drafts for any further or other Sum or Sums of Money which by any Order or Orders to be thereafter made in the same Cause or Matter, or any Cause or Matter connected therewith, shall be ordered to be paid to such Person or Persons by or out of any Fund then or thereafter to be standing to the Credit of such Cause or Matter; and the Lord Chancellor shall by Order make such Provision as he may deem necessary for satisfying the Accountant General of the Identity of the Person named in Two or more Orders.

Compensation Allowances may be applied to making good Monies improperly withheld

VIII. 'And whereas under various Acts of Parliament now in force, or under Orders made in 'pursuance of such Acts, Compensation Allowances have been granted and are payable to various 'Officers of the said Court, which have been made to cease upon such Officers obtaining other Offices or 'Employments, during the Continuance of such Officers in the same: And whereas it has happened that 'Officers of the said Court entitled to Compensation Allowances have obtained other Offices or Employ-or abstracted by Parties entitled to such Allowances.

'ments in the said Court or the Offices thereof, and by reason of Malversation in such Offices or 'Employments have been dismissed therefrom or have resigned the same, and it is expedient that any 'Monies improperly withheld by any such Officer should be made good to the Fund to which the same 'ought to have been applied:' It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by any Order or Orders to be by him from Time to Time made for that Purpose, to direct that the whole or any Part of the Compensation Allowance payable to any Person who shall have held any Office or Employment in the said Court by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament heretofore passed or hereafter to be passed, or any Order or Orders in pursuance thereof, shall be applied in Payment to the Fund from which such Monies as aforesaid shall have been abstracted, for the Purpose of making good the same, with such Interest thereon from the Time the same may have been received as the Lord Chancellor may think proper, and with the Costs of making and acting upon the said Orders; and any Order or Orders so to be made shall overreach any Assignment or Assignments which after the Tenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three shall have been made of any such Compensation Allowance, whether made voluntarily or for a good and valuable Consideration.

Orders may be annulled or altered.

IX. Any Order or Orders for the Time being made under this Act may from Time to Time be annulled, altered, or varied by the like Authority by which any such Order or Orders shall have been made, and new Orders from Time to Time be made for any of the Purposes of this Act by the Authority by which Orders are hereby authorized to be made.

As to the Term "Lord Chancellor."

X. In the Construction of this Act, unless such Meaning be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context, the Expression Lord Chancellor shall mean and include the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of the United Kingdom for the Time being.

Officers of the Court of Chancery, who were formerly Officers of the Court of Exchequer, enabled to compute the Period during which they were such Officers for the Purposes of retiring Pensions.

XI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present 'Majesty, Chapter Eighty-seven, Section Forty-six, Provision was made for granting Superannuation 'Allowances to any Person holding any Office or Appointment in the Court of Chancery who should be 'afflicted with some permanent Infirmity disabling him from the due Execution of his Office, or should 'have continued in any Office or Offices for Twenty Years, and should be desirous of resigning the 'same: And whereas by the Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Five, 'certain of the Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks of the Court of Exchequer were appointed Registrars and 'Clerks to Registrars of the Court of Chancery, and it is expedient that the Time during which they 'had held the Offices of Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks of the said Court of Exchequer should for the 'Purposes herein-after mentioned be added to the Time during which they have been Registrars and 'Clerks to Registrars of the Court of Chancery:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in ascertaining and awarding the Amount of any Superannuation Allowance under the Authority of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Eighty-seven, to any Registrars and Clerks to Registrars of the Court of Chancery who shall have been Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks in the Court of Exchequer, shall take into consideration the whole Period during which they shall have been such Sworn Clerks and Side Clerks, and the same shall be added to the Time during which they shall have held the Offices of Registrars and Clerks to the Registrars of the Court of Chancery.

CAP. XCIX.

An Act to substitute, in certain Cases, other Punishment in lieu of Transportation.

[20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by reason of the Difficulty of transporting Offenders beyond the Seas it has become expedient to substitute, in certain Cases, other Punishment in lieu of Transportation:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

No Person to be transported, except for Life or for 14 Years or upwards.

I. After the Commencement of this Act no Person shall be sentenced to Transportation who if this Act had not been passed would not have been liable to be transported for Life, or for a Term of Fourteen Years or upwards; and no Person shall be sentenced to Transportation for any Term less than Fourteen Years.

Sentence of Penal Servitude.

II. Any Person who if this Act had not been passed might have been sentenced to Transportation for a Term of less than Fourteen Years shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be kept in Penal Servitude for such Term as herein-after mentioned.

Persons liable to Transportation for 14 Years, &c. may still be sentenced to Transportation, &c.

III. Any Person who if this Act had not been passed might have been sentenced to Transportation for a Term of Fourteen Years or upwards or for Life shall, after the Commencement of this Act, be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be sentenced either to such Transportation for Fourteen Years or upwards or for Life, or to be kept in Penal Servitude for such Term as under this Act may be awarded instead of such Transportation.

Terms of Penal Servitude which are to be awarded instead of the present

IV. The Terms of Penal Servitude to be awarded instead of the Transportation to which any Offender would have been liable if this Act had not been passed shall be as follows; (that is to say,)

Instead of Transportation for Seven Years or for a Term not exceeding Seven Years, Penal Servitude for the Term of Four Years:

Instead

Instead of any Term of Transportation exceeding Seven Years and not exceeding Ten Years, Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Four and not exceeding Six Years : Terms of Transportation.

Instead of any Term of Transportation exceeding Ten Years, and not exceeding Fifteen Years, Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Six and not exceeding Eight Years :

Instead of any Term of Transportation exceeding Fifteen Years, Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Six and not exceeding Ten Years :

Instead of Transportation for the Term of Life, Penal Servitude for the Term of Life :

And in every Case where, at the Discretion of the Court, One of any Two or more of the Terms of Transportation herein-before mentioned might have been awarded, the Court shall have the like Discretion to award One of the Two or more Terms of Penal Servitude herein-before mentioned in relation to such Terms of Transportation.

V. Whenever Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, shall be pleased to extend Mercy to any Offender convicted of any Offence for which he may be liable to the Punishment of Death, upon Condition of his being kept to Penal Servitude for any Term of Years or for Life, such Intention of Mercy shall have the same Effect and may be signified in the same Manner, and all Courts, Justices, and others shall give Effect thereto and to the Condition of the Pardon in like Manner, as in the Cases where Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time, is or are now pleased to extend Mercy upon Condition of Transportation beyond Seas, the Order for the Execution of such Punishment as Her Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, may have made the Condition of Her, his, or their Mercy being substituted for the Order for Transportation. Conditional Pardons to be allowed with reference to the substituted Punishment, as in Cases of Pardons on Condition of Transportation.

VI. Every Person who under this Act shall be sentenced or ordered to be kept in Penal Servitude may, during the Term of the Sentence or Order, be confined in any such Prison or Place of Confinement in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in any River, Port, or Harbour of the United Kingdom, in which Persons under Sentence or Order of Transportation may now by Law be confined, or in any other Prison in the United Kingdom, or in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, or in any Port or Harbour thereof, as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from Time to Time direct; and such Person may during such Term be kept to Hard Labour and otherwise dealt with in all respects as Persons sentenced to Transportation may now by Law be dealt with while so confined. Persons under Sentence or Order of Penal Servitude how to be dealt with.

VII. All Acts and Provisions of Acts now applicable with respect to Persons under Sentence or Order of Transportation shall, so far as may be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, be construed to extend and be applicable to Persons under any Sentence or Order of Penal Servitude under this Act; and all the Powers and Provisions contained in the Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-four, authorizing the Appointment by Her Majesty from Time to Time of Places of Confinement as therein mentioned for Male Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and authorizing Her Majesty to order Male Offenders convicted in Great Britain and under Sentence or Order of Transportation to be kept to Hard Labour in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of England, shall extend and be applicable to and for the Appointment by Her Majesty of like Places of Confinement in any Part of the United Kingdom for Offenders (whether Male or Female) sentenced under this Act in any Part of the United Kingdom, and to and for the ordering of such Offenders to be kept to Hard Labour in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of England; and all the Provisions of the said Act concerning the Removal to or from and Confinement in the Places of Confinement in or out of England, appointed under the said Act, of the Offenders therein mentioned, and all Acts and Provisions of Acts now in force concerning or relating to the Regulation and Government of such Places of Confinement, and the Custody, Treatment, Management, and Control of or otherwise in relation to the Offenders confined therein, shall, so far as the same may be consistent with the express Provisions of the Act, extend and be applicable to and for the Removal to and from and Confinement in the Places of Confinement appointed under this Act of the Offenders sentenced in any Part of the United Kingdom, and otherwise be applicable to and in respect of such Places of Confinement and the Offenders to be confined therein. All Acts, &c. concerning Convicts sentenced to Transportation, made applicable for the Purposes of this Act.

VIII. Provided always, That all the Powers vested under this Act, expressly or by reference to any other Act, in One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, shall in relation to Places of Confinement in Ireland, or where such Powers are otherwise to be exercised in Ireland, be exercised by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; and where the Signature of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State would be necessary in relation to the Exercise of such Powers, the Signature of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors, or his or their Chief Secretary, shall be sufficient in the Case of the Exercise of such Powers by such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors. Powers of Secretary of State to be exercised in Ireland by Lord Lieutenant.

IX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by an Order in Writing under the Hand and Seal of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to grant to any Convict now under Sentence of Transportation, or who may hereafter be sentenced to Transportation, or to any Punishment substituted for Transportation by this Act, a Licence to be at large in the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands, or in such Part thereof respectively as in such Licence shall be expressed, during such Portion of his or her Term of Transportation or Imprisonment, and upon such Conditions in all respects as to Her Majesty shall seem fit; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to revoke or alter such Licence by a like Order at Her Majesty's Pleasure. Her Majesty may grant Licences to be at large to Convicts under Sentence of Transportation.

X. So

Holder of Licence not to be imprisoned, &c.

X. So long as such Licence shall continue in force and unrevoked, such Convict shall not be liable to be imprisoned or transported by reason of his or her Sentence, but shall be allowed to go and remain at large according to the Term of such Licence.

If Licence revoked, the Convict may be apprehended, and committed to Prison.

XI. Provided always, That if it shall please Her Majesty to revoke any such Licence as aforesaid it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to signify to any One of the Police Magistrates of the Metropolis that such Licence has been revoked, and to require such Magistrate to issue his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the Apprehension of the Convict to whom such Licence was granted, and such Magistrate shall issue his Warrant accordingly, and such Warrant shall and may be executed by the Constable to whom the same shall be delivered for that Purpose in any Part of the United Kingdom, or in the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, and shall have the same Force and Effect in all the said Places as if the same had been originally issued or subsequently endorsed by a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, or other lawful Authority having Jurisdiction in the Place where the same shall be executed; and such Convict when apprehended under such Warrant shall be brought, as soon as he conveniently may be, before the Magistrate by whom the said Warrant shall have been issued, or some other Magistrate of the same Court, and such Magistrate shall thereupon make out his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for the Recommitment of such Convict to the Prison or Place of Confinement from which he was released by virtue of the said Licence, and such Convict shall be so recommitted accordingly, and shall thereupon be remitted to his or her original Sentence, and shall undergo the Residue thereof as if no such Licence had been granted.

On Conviction for Larceny after previous Conviction for Felony.

XII. No Person shall, after the Commencement of this Act, be liable to be transported by reason only of a Conviction for Larceny after a previous Conviction for Felony, but every such Person so convicted may be punished by Penal Servitude for any Term not less than Four Years and not more than Ten Years.

Queen's Prerogative.

XIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner affect Her Majesty's Royal Prerogative of Mercy, or any Prerogative of Mercy vested in the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being.

Discretion of Courts as to alternative Punishments not to be affected.

XIV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall interfere with or affect the Authority or Discretion of any Court in respect of any Punishment which such Court may now award or pass on any Offender other than Transportation, but where such other Punishment may be awarded at the Discretion of the Court, instead of Transportation, or in addition thereto, the same may be awarded instead of or (as the Case may be) in addition to the Punishment substituted for Transportation under this Act.

"Transportation."

XV. For the Purposes of this Act, the Term "Transportation" shall include Banishment beyond the Seas.

Commencement of Act.

XVI. This Act shall commence from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

CAP. C.

An Act further to extend and make compulsory the Practice of Vaccination.

[20th August 1853.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 29. 4 & 5 Vict. c. 32.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to extend the Practice of Vaccination: And whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth 'Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act to amend an Act to extend the Practice of Vaccination: And 'whereas it is expedient that the Practice of Vaccination should be still further extended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Parishes or Unions to be divided into Districts for the Purpose of Vaccination, and Places appointed for the Performance of Vaccination.

I. Within Six Weeks after the passing of this Act the Guardians of every Parish or Union, and the Overseers of every Parish in which Relief to the Poor shall not be administered by Guardians, in England and Wales, shall, subject to the Approval of the Poor Law Board, divide such Parish or Union, if need be, into convenient Districts for the Purpose of affording increased Facilities for the Vaccination of the Poor, and shall appoint a convenient Place in each such District for the Performance of such Vaccination, and shall take the most effectual Means for giving from Time to Time to all Persons resident within such District due Notice of the Days and Hours at which the Medical Officer or Practitioner contracted with for such Purpose will attend at such Place to vaccinate all Persons not already successfully vaccinated who may then appear there, and also of the Days and Hours at which such Medical Officer or Practitioner will attend at such Place to inspect the Progress of such Vaccination in the Persons so vaccinated.

Parents and Guardians of Children born after 1st August 1853 to have such Children vaccinated within Three or Four Months after Birth.

II. The Father or Mother of every Child born in England or Wales after the First Day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three shall within Three Calendar Months after the Birth of the said Child, or in the event of the Death, Illness, Absence, or Inability of the Father and Mother, then the Person who shall have the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child shall within Four Calendar Months after the Birth of such Child, take or cause to be taken the said Child to the Medical Officer or Practitioner appointed in the Union or Parish in which the said Child is resident according to the Provisions of the first-recited Act for the Purpose of being vaccinated, unless he shall have been previously vaccinated by some duly qualified Medical Practitioner, and the Vaccination duly certified, certified, and the said Medical Officer or Practitioner so appointed shall and he is hereby required thereupon, or as soon after as it may conveniently and properly be done, to vaccinate the said Child.

Children to be taken for Inspection by Medical Officer on Eighth Day after Operation.

III. Upon the Eighth Day following the Day on which any Child has been vaccinated as aforesaid the Father or Mother, or other Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child, shall again take or cause to be taken the said Child to the Medical Officer or Practitioner by whom the Operation was performed, in order that such Medical Officer or Practitioner may ascertain by Inspection the Result of such Operation.

Certificate of successful Vaccination to be delivered.

IV. Upon and immediately after the successful Vaccination of any Child the Medical Officer or Practitioner who shall have performed the Operation shall deliver to the Father or Mother of the said Child, or to the Person who shall have the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child, a Certificate under his Hand, according to the Form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (A.), that the said Child has been successfully vaccinated, and shall also transmit a Duplicate of the said Certificate to the Registrar of Births and Deaths of the Sub-district in which the Operation was performed; and such Certificate shall, without further Proof, be admissible as Evidence of the successful Vaccination of such Child in any Information or Complaint which shall be brought against the Father or Mother of the said Child, or against the Person who shall have had the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child as aforesaid, for Noncompliance with the Provisions of this Act.

If the Child be not in a fit State for Vaccination, Medical Officer to deliver a Certificate to that Effect, to be in force for Two Months.

V. If any Medical Officer or Practitioner shall be of opinion that any Child is not in a fit and proper State to be successfully vaccinated, he shall thereupon and immediately deliver, without Fee or Reward, to the Father or Mother of such Child, or the Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child, a Certificate under his Hand according to the Form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (B.), that the Child is in an unfit State for successful Vaccination, and such Certificate shall remain in force for Two Calendar Months from its Delivery as aforesaid; and the Father or Mother of the said Child, or the Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child, shall, unless they shall within each succeeding Period of Two Months have obtained from a Medical Officer or Practitioner a Renewal of such Certificate, within Two Months next after the Delivery of the said Certificate as aforesaid, and if the said Child be not vaccinated at or by the Termination of such Period of Two Months then during each succeeding Period of Two Calendar Months until such Child has been successfully vaccinated, take or cause to be taken to the said Medical Officer or Practitioner such Child to be vaccinated by him; and if the said Medical Officer or Practitioner deem the said Child to be then in a fit and proper State for successful Vaccination, he shall forthwith vaccinate it accordingly, and shall deliver to the Father or Mother of such Child, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child, a Certificate under his Hand according to the Form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (A.), that such Child has been successfully vaccinated; but if the said Medical Officer or Practitioner be of opinion that the Child is still in an unfit State for successful Vaccination, then he shall again deliver to the Father or Mother of such Child, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child, a Certificate under his Hand, according to the said Form of Schedule (B.), that the Child is still in an unfit State for successful Vaccination; and the said Medical Officer or Practitioner, so long as such Child remains in an unfit State for Vaccination, and unvaccinated, shall at the Expiration of every succeeding Period of Two Calendar Months deliver, if required, to the said Father or Mother of such Child, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child, a fresh Certificate under his Hand, according to the said Form of Schedule; and the Production of such Certificate shall be a sufficient Defence against any Complaint which shall be brought against the said Father or Mother, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child, for Noncompliance with the Provisions of this Act.

Rates of Payment for Vaccination in Contracts by Guardians or Overseers.

VI. In all Contracts to be hereafter made under the Provisions of the first-recited Act by any Guardians or Overseers of the Poor with any Medical Officers or Practitioners for the Vaccination of the Persons resident in their respective Unions or Parishes the Sums contracted to be paid shall not be less than the following Rates; that is to say, for every Person successfully vaccinated at the Residence of such Medical Officer or Practitioner, or within Two Miles therefrom by the nearest public Road, a Sum not less than One Shilling and Sixpence, and for every Person successfully vaccinated at any Place more than Two Miles distant from such Residence any Sum not less than Two Shillings and Sixpence.

Child's Incapacity to receive the Vaccine Disease to be certified.

VII. In the event of any Medical Practitioner acting under the Provisions of this Act being of opinion that any Child that has been vaccinated by him is insusceptible of the Vaccine Disease, he shall deliver to the Father or Mother, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child, a Certificate under his Hand according to the Form of Schedule herein-after inserted, marked (D.); and the Production of such Certificate shall be a sufficient Defence against any Complaint which may be brought against the said Father, Mother, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child for Noncompliance with the Provisions of this Act.

Registrars of Births, &c. to keep Register of Cases of Vaccination, and allow Searches, &c.

VIII. The Registrar of Births and Deaths in every Sub-district in which the Operation has been performed shall keep a Register of the Persons of whose successful Vaccination a Certificate shall have been transmitted to him as above provided by the said Medical Officer or Practitioner, and shall at all reasonable Times allow Searches to be made of any such Register Book in his Keeping, and shall give a Copy, certified under his Hand, of any Entry or Entries in the same, on Payment of the Fee of One Shilling for each Search, and Sixpence for each Certificate.

Notice to be given of the Requirement of Vaccination.

IX. The Registrar of Births and Deaths in every Sub-district shall, on or within Seven Days after the Registration of the Birth of any Child not already vaccinated within the said Sub-district, give Notice in Writing in manner herein-after directed, and according to the Form of Schedule herein-after inserted, and on Failure of Parent or Guardian to comply therewith, Penalty.

inserted, marked (C.), to the Father or Mother of such Child, or in the event of the Death, Illness, Absence, or Inability from Sickness or otherwise of the Father and Mother, then to the Person upon whom the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child shall have devolved, that it is the Duty of such Father or Mother, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child as aforesaid, to take care that the said Child shall be vaccinated in the Manner directed by this Act, and shall together therewith deliver to such Person a Notice of the Days, Hours, and Places within the District of such Registrar at which the Medical Officer or Practitioner as herein-before provided will attend for the Purpose of Vaccination; and if after such Notice the Father or Mother of the said Child, or the Person so having as aforesaid the Care, Nurture, or Custody of the said Child, shall not cause such Child to be vaccinated, or shall not on the Eighth Day after the Vaccination has been performed take or cause to be taken such Child for Inspection according to the Provisions in this Act respectively contained, then such Father or Mother, or Person having the Care, Nurture, or Custody of such Child as aforesaid, so offending, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings.

Fee to Registrar.

X. A Fee of Threepence shall be paid to such Registrar for each Child vaccinated in respect of which he shall have performed the Duties required in this Act; and he shall keep a Book, to be provided as herein-after directed, containing a Minute of his having duly given such Notice as herein-before directed; and the said Fee shall be payable in the same Manner as the Fee now payable to such Registrar for registering the Birth of such Child as aforesaid is paid.

Registrar General to provide Books and Forms for carrying out the Provisions of this Act.

XI. The Registrar General for England and Wales shall and he is empowered and directed, within Two Months after the passing of this Act, to frame and provide such Books, Forms, and Regulations as he may deem requisite for carrying into full Effect the Provisions of this Act, and shall transmit the same to the Superintendent Registrars of each District in England and Wales, who shall deliver to the Medical Officers so appointed as aforesaid, and other duly qualified Medical Practitioners in the said District, such of the said Books, Forms, and Regulations as they may require for the Performance of the Duties imposed upon them by this Act; and the Expenses to be incurred by the Registrar General under the Provisions of this Act shall be defrayed in the same Manner as the Expenses under the Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-five.

Recovery of Penalties.

XII. All Penalties by this Act imposed shall be recoverable before any Two Justices of the Peace for the County, City, Borough, or Place where the Offence may have been committed; and the Provisions of the Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, shall be applicable to the Recovery of such Penalties.

Application of Penalties.

XIII. All Penalties recovered under this Act shall be applied in aid of the Funds applicable to the Relief of the Poor in the Parish or Place maintaining its own Poor wherein the Offence may have been committed.

CAP. CI.

An Act to extend the Public Libraries Act, 1850, to Ireland and Scotland. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by the Public Libaries Act, 1850, Town Councils of Municipal Boroughs in England the Population of which exceeds Ten thousand Persons are enabled to adopt certain Proceedings for establishing Public Libraries and Museums: And whereas it is expedient that Town Councils of the same Class of Boroughs in Ireland and Scotland should have the same Powers as are by that Act conferred on Town Councils in England:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That 13 & 14 Vict. c. 65.

Provisions of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 65. extended to Ireland and Scotland.

I. The "Public Libraries Act, 1850," shall extend to the Municipal Boroughs in Ireland, and the Royal and Parliamentary Burghs in Scotland, the Population of which, according to the last preceding Census taken by Authority of Parliament, exceeds or shall exceed Ten thousand Persons.

Provost in Scotland to act instead of Mayor.

II. In Scotland the Chief Magistrate shall exercise the Powers and perform the Functions appointed by the said recited Act to be exercised and performed by the Mayor; and the Parties entitled to vote shall be the registered Electors entitled to vote for the Election of Members of Parliament within the Parliamentary Boundaries of or attached to such Burghs.

CAP. CII.

An Act to prevent the defacing of the current Coin of the Realm. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS a Practice has arisen of defacing the Coin of the Realm by stamping the same for advertising Purposes, and bending the same, and it is expedient to make Provision for preventing the Coin from being so defaced and bent:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Penalty for defacing the Coin by stamping Words thereon or bending the same.

I. If any Person shall deface any of the Queen's current Gold, Silver, or Copper Coin, by stamping thereon any Names or Words, whether such Coin shall or shall not be thereby diminished or lightened, or shall use any Machine or Instrument for the Purpose of bending the same, every such Offender shall in England and Ireland be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and in Scotland of a Crime or Offence, and being convicted thereof shall be liable to Fine or Imprisonment, or Fine and Imprisonment, at the Discretion of the Court.

Tender of Coin so defaced not to be a legal Tender, and Penalty for uttering same.

II. No Tender of Payment in Money made in any Gold, Silver, or Copper Coin so defaced or stamped as aforesaid shall be allowed to be a legal Tender; and if any Person shall tender, utter, or put off any Coin so defaced, stamped, or bent as aforesaid, he shall, on summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices, be liable to forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Person to proceed for any such Penalty as last aforesaid without the Consent (in England or Ireland) of Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland respectively, or (in Scotland) of the Lord Advocate.

CAP. CIII.

An Act to amend and continue certain Acts relating to Linen, Hempen, and other Manufactures in Ireland. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to continue and amend certain Regulations for the Linen and Hempen Manufactures in Ireland: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Frauds and Abuses committed by Weavers, Sewers, and other Persons employed in the Linen, Hempen, Union, Cotton, Silk, and Woollen Manufactures in Ireland, and for the better Payment of their Wages, for One Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend, and continue to the Twenty-seventh Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and to the End of the next Session of Parliament, an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, for the more effectual Prevention of Frauds and Abuses committed by Weavers, Sewers, and other Persons employed in the Linen, Hempen, Union, Cotton, Silk, and Woollen Manufactures in Ireland, 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 27. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 91. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 68.

'Ireland, and for the better Payment of their Wages: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of 'Parliament holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled
7 & 8 Vict. c. 47. 'An Act to amend, and continue for Five Years, and to the End of the next Session of Parliament, certain Acts relating to Linen, Hempen, and other Manufactures in Ireland: And whereas an Act was 13 & 14 Vict. c. 48. 'passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present 'Majesty's Reign, Chapter Forty-eight, whereby the said herein-before recited Acts were continued as 15 & 16 Vict. c. 13. 'therein mentioned: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fif- 'teenth and Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty's Reign, Chapter Thirteen, whereby the said 'herein-before recited Acts were further continued as therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient 'that the first herein-before recited Act, and the secondly and thirdly and fourthly herein-before recited 'Acts, should be further continued, subject to the respective Amendments thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said first herein-before recited Act, except as to such Parts thereof as have been repealed by the said secondly herein-before recited Act, and subject to the Amendments thereof in the said subsequent recited Acts contained, and the said secondly and thirdly and fourthly herein-before recited Acts, subject to the respective Amendments thereof, shall be further continued and shall be and remain in force from the passing of this Act for One Year.

CAP. CIV.

An Act further to regulate the Employment of Children in Factories. [20th August 1853.]

3 & 4 W. 4. c. 103. 'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act 'to regulate the Labour of Children and young Persons in Mills and Factories of the United
7 & 8 Vict. c. 15. 'Kingdom, and an Act passed in the Seventh Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws 'relating to Labour in Factories, and an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, intituled
10 & 11 Vict. c. 29. 'An Act to limit the Hours of Labour of young Persons and Females in Factories, and an Act passed in 13 & 14 Vict. c. 54. 'the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Acts relating to 'Labour in Factories, the Labour of Children, young Persons, and Females in Factories has been regu- 'lated, and by the said last-recited Act no young Person, and no Female above the Age of Eighteen 'Years, can be employed in any Factory before Six of the Clock of the Morning or after Six of the 'Clock of the Evening, save as therein otherwise provided: And whereas it is expedient that Children 'should not be employed in Factories at Times during which young Persons and Women may not now 'by Law be employed therein:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

No Child to be employed before Six in the Morning nor after Six in the Evening.

I. After the Commencement of this Act no Child shall be employed in any Factory before Six of the Clock in the Morning or after Six of the Clock in the Evening of any Day (save to recover lost Time, as herein-after provided), and no Child shall be employed in any Factory either to recover lost Time or for any other Purpose on any Saturday after Two of the Clock in the Afternoon.

Power to employ Children in the Hours between Seven in the Morning and Seven in the Evening from 30th Sept. to 1st April, under certain Regulations.

II. Provided always, That during all or Part of the Period between the Thirtieth Day of September of any Year and the First Day of April of the following Year Children may be employed in any Factory, except on Saturday, after Six until Seven of the Clock of the Evening, under the following Regulations and Conditions; (that is to say,) Notice signed by the Occupier of any Factory or his Agent of the Intention to employ Children under this Provision, specifying the Period, not being less than One Month, during which they are to be so employed in such Factory, shall be given to One of the Inspectors of Factories; and a Notice to the like Effect, in such Form as shall be approved by such Inspector, and signed by such Occupier or his Agent and by such Inspector, shall be hung or fixed up, according to the Directions for other Notices in the said secondly-recited Act, in such Factory, and during the Period specified in such Notice Children may be employed in such Factory after Six of the Clock and not later than Seven of the Clock of any Day except Saturday, and during the Period specified in such Notice (save to recover lost Time, as herein provided,) no Child shall be employed in such Factory before Seven of the Clock in the Morning of any Day except Saturday.

Children not to be employed, under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 15. s. 36., in recovering lost Time, after Seven in the Evening.

III. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty it was enacted, 'that in any Factory in which any Part of the Machinery was moved by the Power of Water the Time 'which should have been lost by Stoppages from Want of Water or from too much Water might be reco- 'vered within Six Months next after the Stoppage between the Hours specified in the said firstly-recited 'Act as those within which Time lost by Drought or Excess of Water might be recovered, and that in 'order to recover Time so lost any Child or young Person might be employed One Hour in each Day 'more than the Time to which the ordinary daily Labour of Children and young Persons respectively 'was restricted by Law, except on Saturday:' Be it therefore enacted, That no Child shall, in order to recover Time so lost as aforesaid, be employed after Seven of the Clock in the Evening of any Day; and the Times before Six of the Clock in the Morning and after Six of the Clock in the Evening during which any such Child is so employed in any Day shall not together exceed One Hour.

Hours of Employment of Children not to be extended.

IV. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the Employment of any Children in any Factory for any longer Time in any Day than is now authorized under the said recited Acts, or to interfere interfere with or affect the Provisions of the said Acts as to Meal Times or Holidays, or any other Provisions whatsoever of the said Acts, save so far as the same authorize the Employment of Children between any other Hours of the Day than are limited by this Act.

Acts to be construed as One Act.

V. The herein-before recited Acts, as amended by this Act, and this Act, shall be construed together as One Act.

Commencement of Act.

VI. This Act shall commence and take effect on the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

CAP. CV.

An Act to continue the Exemption of Inhabitants from Liability to be rated as such in respect of Stock in Trade or other Property to the Relief of the Poor. [20th August 1853.]

[3 & 4 Vict. c. 89. continued until the 1st October 1854, and to the End of the then next Session.]

CAP. CVI.

An Act for consolidating Customs Duties Acts. [20th August 1853.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Instead of all other Duties, &c. of Customs there shall be paid and allowed Duties, &c. in Tables annexed.

I. In lieu and instead of all other Duties and Drawbacks of Customs there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon Goods imported into or exported from any Part of the United Kingdom, the several Duties of Customs, and there shall be allowed the several Drawbacks, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Table (A.) to this Act annexed.

Manufactures of Gibraltar, &c. from Foreign Materials deemed Foreign.

II. All Manufactures of Gibraltar, Malta, and Heligoland made of Materials of Foreign Produce liable to Duty upon Importation into the United Kingdom, upon which no such Duty has been paid, or upon which Drawback of such Duty has been allowed in the United Kingdom, shall, for the Purposes of Duty, be deemed and taken to be the Produce of and imported from a Foreign Country.

Commissioners of Customs to provide Samples of White-clayed and Brown-clayed Sugar.

III. For facilitating the due Assessment of Duties on White-clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to White-clayed, with reference to Colour, Grain, and Saccharine Matter, and on Brown-clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to Brown-clayed Sugar, the Commissioners of Customs shall provide and renew from Time to Time Samples of White-clayed and Brown-clayed Sugar respectively, which shall be deemed to be standard Samples, for the Purpose of comparing therewith Sugars entered for Home Consumption; and no Sugar shall, as regards the Payment of Duty, be deemed to be White-clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to White-clayed Sugar, unless equal to the standard Sample of White-clayed Sugar, or be deemed to be Brown-clayed Sugar, or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to Brown-clayed Sugar, unless equal to the standard Sample of Brown-clayed Sugar.

Duties in Table to be levied on Goods imported into Isle of Man.

IV. In lieu of all Duties of Customs now payable by Law upon the Importation of Goods into the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively set forth in Figures in Table (B.) to this Act annexed.

Power to the Treasury to remit and re-impose the Duties levied on unenumerated Articles.

V. The Commissioners of the Treasury may from Time to Time, by any Order or Orders under their Hands, declare that all or any Articles legally importable into the Isle of Man, and not enumerated in the said Table, and upon which the said Duty of Fifteen Pounds for every Hundred Pounds Value is hereby imposed, shall and may, from and after any Day or Days named in such Order or Orders, be imported from the Places and in the Manner therein mentioned into the Isle of Man Duty-free during such Time or Times as shall be therein named, or until such Order or Orders respectively, or any of them, shall be rescinded, and such Articles shall be imported Duty-free accordingly so long as any such Order or Orders, or any of them, shall continue unrescinded; and the said Commissioners may at any Time, by any Order under their Hands, revoke the whole or any Part of any previous Order or Orders, or any of them, for such Time and in such Manner as they may see fit; and all Orders of the Commissioners of the Treasury made in pursuance of this Enactment shall be duly published in the London and Dublin Gazettes twice at least within Fourteen Days from the Date of such Orders respectively, and a Copy of every such Order shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the Date of such Order if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, then within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Orders to be published in the Gazette, and laid before Parliament.

Free Goods.

VI. And all Goods described as Free in the said Table (A.) shall be exempt from Duty on the Importation thereof into the United Kingdom, and those described as Free in the said Table (B.) shall be exempt from Duty on the Importation thereof into the Isle of Man.

Metage Dues on Fruit.

VII. The Metage Dues now payable upon Fruit imported into the Port of London shall not be increased in consequence of the Duties upon such Fruit being levied by the Bushel.

Commencement of Act.

VIII. This Act shall commence from the Time of the passing thereof; and in citing it in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Customs Tariff Act, 1853."

CAP. CVII.

An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Customs of the United Kingdom and of the Isle of Man, and certain Laws relating to Trade and Navigation and the British Possessions. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Acts now in force for the Management and Regulation of Customs, the Prevention of Smuggling, the Encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation, the Warehousing of Goods, the granting of Drawbacks and Allowances of Customs, the Regulation of the Trade of the British Possessions abroad and of the Isle of Man, should be consolidated into One Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. Appointment of Officers, Ports, &c.

As to the Appointment of Officers of Customs, Ports, &c.:

Appointment of Officers, &c.

Appointment of Officers.

Salaries and Securities.

Salaries, &c. not subject to Duties.

Superannuation Allowances not assignable.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, or, under their Authority, the Commissioners of Customs, to appoint proper Persons for the Management and Collection of the Customs, and the Performance of all Duties connected therewith, under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, and to grant to such Persons such Salaries or Allowances, or to permit them to receive such Emoluments for executing the Duties of their respective Offices, as may be proper, and to require of such Persons such Securities for their good Conduct as the said Commissioners of the Customs shall deem necessary; and such Persons shall hold their Offices during the Pleasure of the Commissioners of the Treasury or of the Commissioners of Customs; and all Salaries or Allowances granted to any Officer or other Person in the Service of the Customs shall be paid without any Deduction on account of any Duties imposed by any Act of Parliament, unless expressly charged thereon; and when any Sum of Money shall have been or shall be granted annually or otherwise to any Person who has been or shall have been employed in the Service of the Customs as a Superannuation Allowance upon the Retirement of such Person from such Service, or as a Compensation for past Services, it shall not be lawful for the Grantee of such Allowance or Compensation to assign or dispose of the same to any Person or Persons whomsoever, and any such Assignment or Disposition shall be void to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be enforced in any Court of Law or Equity.

Persons employed on Service of the Customs to be deemed Officers for such Service.

II. Every Person employed on any Duty or Service relating to the Customs, Trade, or Navigation, either in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, or any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, by the Orders or with the Concurrence of the Commissioners of Customs (whether previously or subsequently expressed), shall be deemed to be the Officer for that Duty or Service; and every Act required by Law to be done by or with any particular Officer nominated for such Purpose, if done by or with any Person appointed by the Commissioners of Customs to act for such particular Officer, shall be deemed to be done by or with such particular Officer; and every Act required by Law to be done at any particular Place within any Port, if done at any Place within such Port appointed by the Commissioners of Customs for such Purpose, shall be deemed to be done at the particular Place so required by Law; and all Commissions, Deputations, and Appointments granted to any Officers of the Customs in force at the Commencement of this Act shall continue in force as if the same had been granted under the Authority of this Act, and all Bonds or other Securities which shall have been given by or for any such Officers and their respective Sureties for good Conduct or otherwise shall remain in full Force.

Existing Appointments and Securities for good Conduct to remain in force.

Officers taking Fee or Reward not authorized by Law, to be dismissed.

III. If any Officer, Clerk, or other Person acting in any Office or Employment in or belonging to the Customs shall accept any Fee, Perquisite, or Reward, whether pecuniary or otherwise, directly or indirectly, from any Person (not being a Person appointed to some Office in the Customs) on account of anything done or omitted to be done by him in or in any way relating to his said Office or Employment, except such as he shall receive under Permission of the Commissioners of the Treasury, such Officer, Clerk, or other Person so offending shall, on Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, be dismissed from his Office.

Declaration on Admission to Office.

IV. Every Person who shall be appointed to any Office or Employment in the Customs, under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, shall on his Admission thereto make the following Declaration:

'I A.B. do declare, That I will be true and faithful in the Execution, to the best of my Knowledge and Power, of the Trust committed to my Charge and Inspection in the Service of Her Majesty's Customs; and that I will not require, take, or receive any Fee, Perquisite, Gratuity, or Reward, whether pecuniary or of any Sort or Description whatever, either directly or indirectly, for any Service, Act, Duty, Matter, or Thing done or performed or to be done or performed in the Execution or Discharge of any of the Duties of my Office or Employment, on any Account whatever, other than my Salary and what is or shall be allowed me by Law, or by any special Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs for the Time being.'

Hours of Attendance; Division of Duties.

V. The Commissioners of the Treasury may, by their Warrant, from Time to Time appoint the Hours of general Attendance of the Commissioners and Officers of Customs, and of other Persons in the Customs Service, at their proper Offices and Places of Employment; and the Commissioners of Customs may appoint the Times during such Hours at which any particular Parts of the Duties of any such Officers and other Persons shall be performed.

VI. No

Appointment of Officers, Ports, &c.

VI. No Day shall be kept as a public Holiday by the Customs except every Christmas Day and Good Friday, and such other Days as may be appointed to be kept as such by Her Majesty's Proclamation, and, so far as regards Scotland, such Days as shall be appointed to be so kept by Authority of the General Assembly, and also such Days as shall have been or may be appointed for the Celebration of the Birthdays of Her Majesty and of Her Successors, and such Days shall be kept as public Holidays by the Officers and Servants of the Dock Companies in the United Kingdom.

Holidays.

Officers of Customs not to serve in public Offices.

VII. No Commissioner, Officer, Clerk, or other Person acting in the Management or Collection of the Customs shall be compelled to serve in the Militia, or on any Jury or Inquest, or to assume the Office of a Mayor or Sheriff, or to act in any corporate, parochial, or other public Office.

What shall be deemed Orders, &c. of Commissioners of Customs.

VIII. Every Order, Document, or Instrument required by Law to be under the Hands of the Commissioners of Customs, but not required to be signed by Two or more of them, being attested by the Signature of any One of such Commissioners, and every Order, Document, or Instrument required by any Law to be under the Hands or under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners of Customs, being attested by the Hands or the Hands and Seals of Two or more of such Commissioners, shall be deemed to be an Order, Document, or Instrument under the Hands, or under the Hands and Seals, as the Case may be, of the Commissioners of Customs; and all Orders and Regulations made by the Commissioners of Customs under any Act or Acts relating to the Customs, now repealed, shall remain in force until altered, revoked, or rescinded, or others made by them in lieu thereof, and all Acts done in pursuance of any such Orders and Regulations shall be and are hereby declared to be valid.

Appointment of Ports.

As to the Appointment of Ports, Quays, Warehouses, Sufferance Wharfs, Landing and Boarding Stations:

Treasury may appoint Ports and Quays, and alter or annul the same.

Existing Ports, &c. to continue.

IX. The Commissioners of the Treasury may, by their Warrant, appoint any Port or Sub-Port in the United Kingdom, or in the Channel Islands, and declare the Limits thereof, and appoint proper Places within the same to be Legal Quays for the lading and unlading of Goods, and declare the Bounds and Extent of any such Quays, or annul the Limits of any Port, Sub-Port, Haven, Creek, or Legal Quay, already appointed or to be hereafter set out and appointed, and declare the same to be no longer a Port, Sub-Port, Haven, Creek, or Legal Quay, or alter or vary the Names, Bounds, and Limits thereof; and all Ports, Havens, and Creeks, and the respective Limits thereof, and all Legal Quays, appointed, set out, and existing as such at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall continue to be such Ports, Havens, Creeks, and Quays until annulled, varied, or altered; and any Port, Haven, Creek, or Quay, or the Limits thereof, now annulled or altered, shall continue so annulled or altered until otherwise varied or altered as aforesaid.

Treasury may appoint Warehousing Ports.

Commissioners may appoint Warehouses, &c., and Premises for refining Sugar for Exportation, and approve Security.

X. The Commissioners of the Treasury may, by their Warrant, from Time to Time appoint the Ports in the United Kingdom which shall be Warehousing Ports for the Purposes of this Act, and, subject to their Directions, the Commissioners of Customs may by their Order from Time to Time approve and appoint Warehouses or Places of Security in such Ports, and direct in what different Parts or Divisions of such Warehouses or Places, and in what Manner, any Goods, and what Sort of Goods, may and may only be warehoused, kept, and secured without Payment of Duty upon the First Entry thereof, or for Exportation only, in Cases where the same may be prohibited to be imported for Home Use, and may approve of any Premises as Bonded Sugar Houses for the refining of Sugar for Removal to the Isle of Man or for Exportation, and may direct in what Cases, and with what Sureties, and to what Amount, Security by Bond shall be required in respect of any Warehouse so approved or appointed as aforesaid, or in respect of any Goods deposited therein, or for the Security of the Duties due thereon, or in respect of any Bonded Sugar House so approved as aforesaid, or in respect of any Sugar removed thereto, or the due Refinement and Return thereof to the Warehouse, the Removal to the Isle of Man, or the Exportation thereof, within such Period as the Commissioners of Customs shall direct, or for Security of the Duties due on such Sugar; and the Commissioners of Customs may, out of the Monies arising from Duties of Customs, provide Warehouses for the warehousing of Tobacco at the Ports into which Tobacco may be legally imported, and may, for every Package of Tobacco so warehoused, charge the Importer or Proprietor of such Tobacco any such Sum or Sums for Warehouse Rent as they may see fit, not exceeding what is now payable; and the Commissioners of Customs may also fix the Amount of Rent which shall be payable in respect of any Goods deposited or secured in any of the Queen's Warehouses; and all such Sums shall be paid, received, and appropriated as Duties of Customs.

Commissioners of Customs to provide Warehouses for Tobacco, and to charge Rent.

Warehouse Keeper to give general Security.

XI. The Proprietor or Occupier of every Warehouse (except existing Warehouses of special Security, in respect of which Security by Bond has heretofore been dispensed with), or some One on his Behalf, shall give or procure to be given Security by Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, or by Two Bonds each with One sufficient Surety, or such other Security as the Commissioners of the Treasury or of Customs may approve, for the Payment of the full Duties of Importation on or for the due Exportation of all such Goods as shall at any Time be warehoused therein; and no Goods shall be warehoused in any such Warehouse after the passing of this Act until such Security shall have been given.

Existing Appointments, Approvals, and Bonds to continue in force.

Importer's Bonds dispensed with.

XII. All existing Appointments and Approvals of Warehouses for the Warehousing of Goods and of Bonded Sugar Houses, in respect of which Security shall have been given by the Proprietor or Occupier thereof as aforesaid, shall continue in force as if the same had been made under the Authority of this Act, unless and until the same shall be revoked as herein-after provided; and no Bond shall, after the passing of this Act, be required to be given by the Importer of any Goods on the warehousing thereof, but all existing Bonds given in respect of any Goods warehoused or entered to be warehoused in any Warehouse prior to the passing of this Act shall continue in force as if given under this Act.

XIII. The

Appointment of Officers, Ports, &c.

Commissioners may appoint Stations and Sufferance Wharves, &c.

XIII. The Commissioners of Customs may from Time to Time, by Order under their Hands, appoint Stations or Places for Ships arriving at or departing from any Port or Place to bring to for the boarding or landing of Officers of the Customs, and may also appoint Places to be Sufferance Wharves for the lading and unlading of Goods by Sufferance, in such Cases, under such Restrictions, and in such Manner as they shall see fit, and may also direct at what particular Part or Parts of any Harbour, Dock, Quay, or other Place in any Port, Ships laden with Tobacco or any particular Cargo shall moor and discharge such Cargo; and the Commissioners of Customs, or the Collector or Comptroller of any Port under their Directions, may station Officers on board any Ship while within the Limits of any Port in the United Kingdom.

Power to revoke or alter former Warrants or Orders.

XIV. The Commissioners of the Treasury by their Warrant, and the Commissioners of Customs by their Order, may from Time to Time revoke any former Warrant or any former Order, or make any Alteration in or Addition to any former Warrant or any former Order made as aforesaid by them respectively.

Licensing Agents.

As to the licensing of Agents for the Transaction of Business relating to the Entry and Clearance of Ships, Goods, and Baggage, and of Lightermen for the Carriage of Goods to and from importing and exporting Ships:

Treasury to appoint in what Ports Agents shall be licensed.

XV. The Commissioners of the Treasury may by their Warrant appoint and declare in what Ports or Places in the United Kingdom Persons acting as Agents in the Entry or Clearance of any Ships, or of any Goods or Baggage, or any Business relating thereto, shall be required to be duly licensed for that Purpose, and may from Time to Time revoke such Warrants or Appointments, and make others in lieu thereof, when and as they may see fit; and such Warrants, if they relate to Ports or Places in Great Britain, shall be published in the London Gazette, if to Ports or Places in Ireland in the Dublin Gazette, and if to Ports and Places in Great Britain and Ireland in both those Gazettes: Provided always, that the Appointments already made as to London, Dublin, Dover, Folkestone, Southampton, and Shoreham shall continue as if such Appointments had been made under this Act, until the same shall be revoked.

Existing Appointments not to be altered.

Commissioners to grant Licences to Agents.

XVI. The Commissioners of Customs may and they are hereby authorized to grant Licences, in such Form and Manner and to such Persons as they shall think fit, to act as Agents for transacting Business which shall relate to the Entry or Clearance of any Ship, or of any Goods or of any Baggage, in any of the Ports or Places in respect of which such Appointments as aforesaid now are or hereafter shall be made, so long as such Appointments shall remain in force, and, by Order under their Hands, may cancel or revoke any Licence so granted to any such Person for Fraud or Misconduct; a Copy of such Order stating the Cause of Dismissal shall de delivered to such Person, or to his Clerk, or left at his usual Place of Abode or Business, but such Person shall be at liberty to appeal to the Commissioners of Customs in manner provided by Sections Thirty-three and Thirty-four of this Act for an Investigation and Reconsideration of the Case; and if no such Appeal be made within Three Days after the Delivery of a Copy of such Order, or if such Order shall be confirmed, such Licence shall be void; and the Commissioners of Customs on granting any such Licence are hereby empowered to require Bond to be given by every Person to whom such Licence shall be granted (not being One of the Sworn Brokers of the City of London, and acting as such Agent in the Port of London), with One sufficient Surety, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds, for the faithful and incorrupt Conduct of such Person and of his Clerks, acting for him, both as regards the Customs and his Employers; and all Licences heretofore granted by the Commissioners of Customs to any Persons to act as Agents shall be valid until revoked, and all Bonds taken for the faithful and incorrupt Conduct of such Persons shall remain in full Force: Provided always, that any Person, or any Persons in Copartnership, may, with the Approval of the Commissioners of Customs, appoint a Clerk or Servant to transact such Business on his or their Behalf, and the Name, Residence, and Date of Appointment of such Clerk or Servant shall thereupon be endorsed on the Licence of such Person or Persons, and shall be signed by him or them in the Presence of and attested by the Collector or Comptroller of Customs at the Port for which such Licence is granted, and all such Appointments shall be recorded in a Register to be kept at the Custom House for that Purpose; and no Person shall act as such Clerk or Servant unless so appointed, endorsed, and recorded, nor act for or on behalf of any other than the Person or Persons so appointing him; and every such Appointment may be revoked by the Commissioners of Customs at any Time, by Order under their Hands.

Bond to be given for faithful Conduct.

Agents may appoint Clerks to act for them under certain Conditions.

Commissioners may order in what Ports Goods may be carried or water borne by authorized Persons; and may grant Licences and require Bonds.

Existing Licences to continue in force.

XVII. The Commissioners of Customs may order and direct in what Ports or Places in the United Kingdom Goods cleared for Drawback or from the Warehouse shall be carried or water-borne to be put on board any Ship for Exportation, or Goods carried or water-borne from any importing Ship to, or to be landed at any Wharf, Quay, or other Place, shall be so carried or water-borne only by Persons authorized for that Purpose by Licence under the Hands of the Commissioners of Customs, and may revoke any such Orders or Directions, or make others in lieu thereof, when and as they may deem expedient; and the Commissioners of Customs may grant such Licences in such Form and Manner and to such Persons as they may deem proper, and may revoke the same when and as they shall think fit; and before granting any such Licence the Commissioners may require such Security by Bond for the faithful and incorrupt Conduct of such Person as they shall deem necessary; and all such Licences in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall continue in force as if the same had been granted under the Authority of this Act.

Collection of Duties, &c.

As to the Collection and Management of Duties of Customs, Drawbacks, and Allowances:

Duties, Drawbacks, &c. to

XVIII. All Duties of Customs, or other Duties under the Management, Collection, or Control of the Commissioners of Customs, Drawbacks and Allowances, now imposed and allowed, or which may hereafter be imposed or allowed by Law, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs for for the Time being, and shall be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, paid, recovered, allowed, and applied or appropriated, under the Provisions of the Laws for the Time being in force relating thereto; and all Duties and Drawbacks imposed and allowed according to any specified Quantity or any specified Value shall be deemed to apply in the same Proportion to any greater or less Quantity or Value, and shall be paid and received in every Part of the United Kingdom in British Currency, and according to Imperial Weights and Measures.

be under the Management of Commissioners of Customs.

XIX. In all Cases where any new Duties of Customs, or other Duties under the Management, Collection, or Control of the Commissioners of Customs, are or may be imposed by any Act or Acts, in lieu of any former Duties payable at the Time of the passing of such Act or Acts, such former Duties shall be and continue payable until such new Duties imposed in lieu thereof shall become chargeable, save and except in Cases where the Act or Acts imposing such new Duties shall otherwise provide; and all Monies arising from any Duties of Customs, or any Arrears thereof, on account of any Goods whatever imported into or exported from the United Kingdom under any former Act, although computed under such former Act, and whether secured by Bond or otherwise, shall be levied and appropriated in the same Manner as if the same had been made payable by this Act, or any other Act in force for the Time being; and all Drawbacks or Allowances payable under any former Act shall be paid or allowed under this or such other Act as may be in force for the Time being.

Former Duties to continue until new Duties become chargeable, except in certain Cases.

Duties due before the passing of this Act to be levied, &c. as if payable by this Act.

XX. All Goods whatsoever which now are or may be deposited in any Warehouse or Place of Security under any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed for the Warehousing of Goods without Payment of Duty upon the First Importation thereof, or which may be imported and on board any Ship, shall, upon being entered for Home Consumption, be subject to such and the like Duties as may at the Time of passing such Entry be due and payable on the like Sort of Goods under any Act or Acts passed for imposing any Duty or Duties of Customs which shall or may be in force at the Time of passing such Entry, save and except in Cases where special Provision shall be made in any such Act or Acts to the contrary.

Goods in Warehouse, when entered for Home Consumption, to be chargeable with existing Duties on like Sort of Goods.

As to the Receipt and Payment of Monies arising from the Duties of Customs, and the keeping of the Account thereof:

Receipts and Payments.

XXI. All Monies, Bills, Notes and Drafts received by or coming to the Hands of the Receiver General of the Customs in England on account of the Revenue of Customs in Great Britain shall be paid by him into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and all other Monies arising by the Duties of Customs in Great Britain (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and shall be placed to an Account to be raised in the Books of the said Company, intituled "The Account of the Public Monies of the Receiver General of Customs," inserting the Name of such Receiver General for the Time being, and all Monies arising from the Duties of Customs in Ireland (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same and all other Deductions allowed by Law or by the Orders and Regulations of the Treasury for the Time being excepted) shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer.

All Monies, &c. received by Receiver General of Customs to be paid into Bank of England.

All Monies arising in Ireland to be paid into the Exchequer.

XXII. The Commissioners of the Treasury may from Time to Time establish such Rules and Regulations as they may think necessary for keeping the Accounts of the Receiver General of the Customs with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England in relation thereto, and also for Payment and Appropriation of the Monies arising from the Duties of Customs, and so brought to Account for Her Majesty's Service, and from Time to Time to alter or revoke such Rules and Regulations, and make others in lieu thereof, and the Rules and Regulations now in force shall remain and continue to be acted upon until the same shall be so altered or revoked or others established by the said Commissioners of the Treasury in lieu thereof, and the said Receiver General, observing the Rules and Regulations so prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money, Bills, Notes, or Drafts which he shall have so paid or caused to be paid into the Bank of England; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies, Bills, Notes and Drafts which shall be actually received by them from and on account of such Receiver General as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be held in any way to alter or affect the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourth and Fifth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifteen.

The Treasury may make Rules for keeping the Accounts of the Revenue of the Customs, and for Appropriation thereof.

Responsibility for Monies, &c.

XXIII. The Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or some Person duly authorized in that Behalf, shall daily, upon receiving any Money, Bills, Notes or Drafts from such Receiver General of the Customs, make an Entry of the Money, Bills, Notes and Drafts so received in a Book to be provided by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, which Book shall be forthwith re-delivered to the Persons making the Payments for the Customs, for which Monies, Bills, Notes and Drafts the Entry in the Book herein-after mentioned shall be a sufficient Discharge; and such Book shall be inspected daily after its Return by the Comptroller General of the Customs or his Clerk (such Clerk being first duly authorized by him, and for whose Conduct he shall be answerable), who shall compare the same with the Account of Monies, Bills, Notes and Drafts received by the said Receiver General, for the Purpose of ascertaining that the Receiver General constantly pays into the Bank all the Money, Bills, Notes and Drafts, as required under the Provisions of this Act; and any Default which such Comptroller General or his Clerk may discover in that Behalf shall be immediately reported by him to the said Commissioners of Customs, who shall report the same, unless it shall appear to them to have arisen from Mistake or Inadvertence, to the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

Bank to keep an Account, to be returned to the Customs, for Inspection by the Comptroller General.

Any Default to be reported to the Treasury.

Appointment of Officers, Ports, &c.

Bank of England not to dispose of Monies, &c. except for a specified Purpose.

XXIV. The Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall not pay, or transfer, apply or dispose of any Part of the Money, Notes, Bills of Exchange or Drafts which may be paid in and placed to the Account of such Receiver General from such Account, except in accordance with the Rules and Regulations for the Time being of the Commissioners of the Treasury, unless any such Notes, Bills of Exchange or Drafts shall be required by the Solicitor of Customs for the Purpose of taking out an Extent for the Security of the Money for which the same shall have been given, in which Case such Notes, Bills of Exchange or Drafts, or any of them, shall be delivered to such Solicitor or his Clerk, on the Order of the Commissioners of Customs for that Purpose, and such Delivery shall be entered in the Book herein directed to be provided.

In London, Debentures and Orders to be paid by Receiver General; at any other Port by the Collector.

Time for Return of Duties overpaid extended to Six Years.

XXV. Every Sum of Money which shall be due in the Port of London upon any Debenture, Certificate, or other Instrument for the Payment of any Money out of the Duties of Customs shall be paid by the Receiver General of the Customs out of any Money so paid into the Bank of England on account of the Receiver General of Customs, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations for the Time being in respect thereof, and every such Payment shall be allowed by the Commissioners for the better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom in the settling or auditing of the Accounts of the Receiver General of the Customs; and when any such Payment shall become due at any other Port in the United Kingdom the same may be paid by the Collector at such Port out of any of the Monies in his Hands arising from the Duties of the Customs under the Directions of the Commissioners of Customs; and as it is expedient to extend the Period within which Over-payments of Duty may be returned, the Commissioners of Customs are hereby authorized, at any Time within Six Years after the Over-payment of any Duties, on its being proved to their Satisfaction that the same were over-paid in error, to return such Duties; but no such Return shall be made, nor any Claim allowed, unless made and established within such Period of Six Years.

Commissioners of Customs may close Accounts of Collectors.

XXVI. The Commissioners of Customs shall and may finally settle and close the Accounts of any Collectors or Receivers of any Part of the Revenue of the Customs, or other Duties, under their Management, notwithstanding an erroneous Appropriation of any Duties of Customs received by such Collectors or Receivers, and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to correct such Appropriation, in order to prevent the Accounts of any such Collectors or Receivers from being kept open, and all such Corrections shall be allowed by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in passing the general Accounts of Customs.

On the Death or Removal of Receiver General the Balance to vest in his Successor.

XXVII. Upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present and of every other Receiver General of the Customs hereafter to be appointed, the Balance of Cash for which he shall at that Time have Credit on his Account as such Receiver General with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the said Office, vest in such Successor, and until such Successor shall be appointed, in such Person or Persons as shall for the Time being be duly authorized to execute the Duties of the said Office, in trust for the Service of the Public, and be forthwith transferred, carried over, and placed to the Account of such Successor or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, to be applied to the Service accordingly.

Punishment for Forgery on Receiver General, Transportation for Life.

XXVIII. If any Person or Persons shall knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging or counterfeiting, the Name or Handwriting of any Receiver General of the Customs, or of any Comptroller General of the Customs, or of any Person acting for them respectively as aforesaid, to any Draft, Instrument or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money in the Hands or Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on account of the Receiver General of the Customs, or shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Draft, Instrument or Writing in Form of a Draft made by such Receiver General or Person as aforesaid, or shall utter or publish any such knowing the same to be forged and counterfeited, with an Intention to defraud any Person whomsoever, every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof convicted, shall be declared and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall be transported beyond the Seas for Life.

Disputes between Importer and Officers.

As to Disputes and Controversies between the Importer of Goods and the Officers of Customs as to the Duty due on such Goods:

In case of Dispute, Importer to deposit the Dutydemanded.

On Payment of such and passing Entries for Goods, Importer to have Delivery.

XXIX. If any Dispute shall arise as to the proper Rate of Duty payable in respect of any Goods imported into the United Kingdom, and admissible for Home Consumption, the Importer or Consignee, or his Agent, shall deposit in the Hands of the Collector of the Customs at the Port of Importation the Amount of Duty demanded by such Collector; and such Deposit shall be deemed and taken to be the proper Duty payable in respect of such Goods, unless an Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced by the Importer of such Goods within Three Months from the Time of making such Deposit, in One of Her Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, against such Collector, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether any and what Amount of Duty is due and payable upon such Goods; and, upon Payment of such Deposit, and passing a proper Entry for such Goods, by the Importer, Consignee, or Agent, such Collector shall thereupon cause the said Goods to be delivered in virtue of such Entry.

Deposits to be carried to Consolidated Fund.

XXX. Where such Deposit shall have been made as aforesaid the same shall be paid by the said Collector to the Receiver General of Customs, to be by him carried to the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and in case no Action shall be brought within the Time hereinbefore before limited for that Purpose, such Deposit shall be retained and applied to the Use of Her Majesty, in the same Manner as if the same had been originally paid and received as the Duty due and payable on such Goods; and in case such Action shall be so brought, and it shall thereupon be determined by due Course of Law that the Duty so demanded and deposited was not the proper Duty due and payable upon such Goods, but that a less Duty was payable thereon, then the Difference between the Sum so deposited and the Duty so found to be due, or the whole Sum so deposited, as the Case may require, shall forthwith be returned to such Importer, with Interest thereon after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum for the Period during which the Sum so paid or returned shall have been so deposited; and such Payment shall be accepted by such Importer in satisfaction of all Claims in respect of the Importation of such Goods and the Duty payable thereon, and of all or any Damages and Expenses incident thereto, except Costs of Suit, as next herein-after provided; that is to say, Provided always, that the Party to such Action or Suit in whose Favour a Verdict shall be given shall be entitled to his Costs of Suit as between Party and Party against the other Party to such Action or Suit, such Costs to be taxed by the proper Officer of the Court in which such Action shall be brought, in the usual Way; and if such Verdict shall be given against the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit the Costs so taxed as aforesaid shall be recoverable and recovered against the Plaintiff in the same Manner as Damages and Costs in an ordinary Action or Suit in such Court are recoverable by Law; but if such Verdict shall be given against the Collector as Defendant in such Suit, the Costs so taxed as aforesaid shall be paid by the Commissioners of Customs out of any Monies arising from the Duties of Customs.

If no Action brought within the Three Months, Deposit to be retained as Duties.

If Action brought, and determined against the Revenue, Importer to be indemnified.

By whom Costs of Suit payable.

As to Complaints and Disputes between Merchants and others and the Officers of Customs, the public Investigation thereof, and Inquiries touching Matters relating to the Customs, and the Conduct of Officers or others concerned therein:

Complaints, &c.

XXXI. If in the Port of London any Dispute shall arise between any Masters or Owners of Ships, Merchants, Importers, Consignees, Shippers, or Exporters of Goods, or their Agents, or Licensed Agents, and any Officer of Customs, with reference to the Seizure or Detention of any Ship or Goods, or to any apparently accidental Omission, Inadvertence, or Noncompliance with the Laws or Regulations relating to the Customs, or touching the Withdrawal of Agents Licences, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to dispose of or determine such Dispute in such Manner as they may deem just.

Disputes and Inquiries in London.

XXXII. If upon Consideration of the Facts and Circumstances out of which such Dispute shall have arisen the Commissioners of Customs shall be of opinion that any Penalty or Forfeiture has been incurred by any such Master, Owner, Merchant, Importer, Consignee, Shipper, Exporter, or Agent, the said Commissioners may, in case they shall be of opinion that the Penalty ought to be remitted, remit and forego the same accordingly, or, in case they shall be of opinion that a mitigated Penalty should be imposed and enforced, mitigate any such Penalty or Forfeiture to such Amount as they may deem a sufficient Satisfaction for the Breach of Law or Regulation complained of.

Power to remit or mitigate Penalties.

XXXIII. In case any such Master, Owner, Merchant, Importer, Shipper, Exporter, or Agent shall feel himself aggrieved by the Determination of the Commissioners of Customs in any of the Cases aforesaid, or have any Ground of Complaint against any Officer of Customs in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by such Officer in or about the Execution of his Duty, the Party so feeling himself aggrieved shall, upon an Application in Writing to the Commissioners of Customs, which Application shall state the Substance of his Complaint, or the Reasons of his Dissatisfaction with such Determination, be entitled to have the Facts and Circumstances of such Complaint or Determination inquired into by One of the said Commissioners in the Manner following:

Appeal to open Court.

XXXIV. Upon Receipt of such Application as aforesaid the Commissioners of Customs shall depute One of such Commissioners to inquire into the Subject Matter of such Application, for which Purpose a suitable Apartment shall be provided, to which the Parties complaining and the Parties complained against, and their Agents and Witnesses, and all other Persons interested or desirous of attending, shall have free Access; and the Commissioner so deputed shall receive the Statement of the Complainant or his Agent or Attorney, and hear any Reasons which he or they may advance in Support of his Complaint, and the said Commissioner shall take or cause to be taken any Evidence on Oath which the said Complainant may offer and adduce in support of his Complaint, and write down or cause to be written down and report the Substance of such Evidence in a narrative Form, and his Opinion thereon and on the Arguments, if any, adduced on the Hearing of the Case, for the Information of the said Commissioners, and in like Manner the Commissioner so deputed as aforesaid shall take and write down or cause to be taken down and written, and report, for the Information of the said Commissioners of Customs, any Evidence which may be offered in support of such Determination of the Commissioners, or in case of a Complaint against an Officer such exculpatory Evidence as the Officer complained against may offer or adduce; and the Course of Proceeding with respect to the taking of such Evidence and the Conduct of such Inquiry shall be in as close Conformity as the Nature of such Inquiry will admit with the Practice adopted before Justices on Inquiries had before such Justices.

Commissioner to conduct public Inquiry.

XXXV. The Commissioners of Customs, upon the Evidence so reported to them, shall either determine to prosecute, if they deem it a proper Case for Prosecution, or decide the Case upon such Evidence, and make their Order thereon accordingly, which Order shall be communicated by a Commissioner in open Court either on the same Day or a future Day to be appointed at the Hearing for that Purpose; and every Order of the Commissioners of Customs, made upon Consideration of the Facts, Circumstances, and Evidence so reported by the Commissioner by whom such Inquiry shall have been holden, shall, in case any Penalty or mitigated Penalty or Forfeiture shall be adjudged by such Order to be paid or enforced, be of equal Force, Validity, and Effect as any Conviction for Penalties which any Justice or Commissioners to prosecute or decide.

Award may be enforced.

Appointment of Officers, Ports, &c.

Warrant for landing.

LXII. Such Entry being delivered to the Collector or Comptroller, and signed by him, shall be the Warrant for provisionally landing such Goods to be examined by such Importer in presence of the proper Officers, and the Importer shall within Three Days after the Landing thereof, and before the same shall be delivered, make full and perfect Entry thereof by endorsing upon such Bill of Sight such Particulars of such Goods as are herein-before required on making perfect Entry of Goods, whether for Payment of Duty, or for warehousing, or for Delivery free of Duty, as the Case may be, and to such Endorsement he shall affix the Date thereof, together with his Signature and Place of Abode, and such Endorsement, when signed by the Collector or Comptroller, shall be taken as the perfect Entry for such Goods.

Before Delivery Importer to make perfect Entry.

Goods entered by Bill of Sight not to be delivered, unless Duty is paid or deposited.

LXIII. Where an Entry for the Landing and Examination of Goods for Delivery on Payment of Duty shall be made by Bill of Sight, such Goods shall not be delivered until perfect Entry thereof shall have been made and the Duties due thereon paid, unless the Importer or his Agent shall have deposited with the proper Officer of the Customs a Sum of Money sufficient in Amount to cover the Duties payable thereon; and if the Sum deposited on a Bill of Sight shall not be equal in Amount to the Duties payable upon all the Goods contained in any single Package landed or examined thereby, no Part shall be delivered until a perfect Entry or Entries is or are made, and the Duties paid or deposited for the whole of the Goods contained in such Package.

LXIV. If

Goods to be taken to Queen's Warehouse in default of perfect Entry within Three Days, and sold within One Month after Landing.

LXIV. If full and perfect Entry of any Goods landed by Bill of Sight as aforesaid be not made within Three Days after the Landing thereof, such Goods shall be taken to the Queen's Warehouse by the Officers of the Customs; and if the Importer shall not within One Month after such Landing make perfect Entry or Entries of such Goods, and pay the Duties thereon or on such Parts as can be entered for Home Use, together with the Charges of Removal and of Warehouse Rent, such Goods shall be sold for the Payment of such Duties and Charges, (or for Exportation if they be such as cannot be entered for Home Use or shall not be worth the Duties,) and the Overplus, if any, after Payment of such Duties and Charges, or the Charges if sold for Exportation, shall be paid to the Importer or Proprietor thereof: Provided always, that when Entry be at any Time made as and for a full and perfect Entry for any Goods provisionally landed by Bill of Sight or deposited in the Queen's Warehouse, as aforesaid, if such Entry shall not be made in manner herein required for the due Landing of the Goods, the same shall be deemed to be Goods landed without Entry, and shall be forfeited.

If Entry not in manner required by Law, Goods forfeited.

As to the Entry of Goods re-imported into the United Kingdom as Foreign or by Bill of Store:

Re-importation of British Goods.

LXV. All British Goods re-imported into the United Kingdom shall be deemed and taken to be and be entered as Foreign, and shall be liable to the same Duties, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as such Goods, if Foreign, would be liable to on the First Importation thereof, unless the same shall be re-imported within Ten Years after the Exportation thereof, and it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs that the Property in such Goods has continued and still remains in the Person by whom or on whose Account the same have been exported, in which Case the same may be entered as British Goods, by Bill of Store containing such Particulars and in such Form and Manner as the said Commissioners may direct: Provided always, that the following Goods shall, on Re-importation be deemed and taken to be Foreign Goods, namely, Corn, Grain, Meal, Flour, and Hops, and also all Goods for which any Drawback of Excise shall have been received on Exportation, unless by special Permission of the Commissioners of Customs, and on Repayment of such Drawback, and also all Goods for which a Bill of Store cannot be issued in manner directed by the said Commissioners, except Remnants of British Goods, with Permission of the Commissioners of Customs.

Entry by Bill of Store.

Exceptions.

Entries generally.

As to Entries of Goods in any of the foregoing Cases:

Bill of Entry to be in duplicate.

LXVI. Upon the Entry of any Goods, the Importer, his Agent, or the Consignee of the Ship, as the Case may be, shall deliver Two or more Duplicates of the Bill of Entry thereof, as the Case may require, in which Duplicates all Sums and Numbers may be expressed in Figures; and the Number of Duplicates shall be such as the Collector or Comptroller may require.

Penalty on Importer, &c. not complying with Regulations.

LXVII. Every Importer, Agent, or other Person entering any Goods who shall wilfully fail to comply with the foregoing Regulations, so far as they are respectively applicable to the Goods so entered by him, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

No Entry or Warrant valid unless Goods properly described therein.

LXVIII. No Entry or Warrant for the landing of any Goods shall be deemed valid unless the Goods shall have been properly described in such Entry by the Denominations and with the Characters and Circumstances according to which such Goods are charged with Duty or may be imported, either to be used in the United Kingdom, or to be warehoused for Exportation only.

Goods concealed in Packages or delivered without Entry forfeited.

LXIX. If any Package or Parcel shall have been landed by or in pursuance of any Entry, and any Goods or other Things shall be found in such Package or Parcel concealed in any way or packed to deceive the Officers, such Package or Parcel and all the Contents thereof shall be forfeited; and if any Goods be taken or delivered out of any Ship or out of any Warehouse, not having been duly entered, the same shall be forfeited: Provided always, that no Entry shall be required in respect of the Baggage of Passengers, which may be examined, landed, and delivered under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, but if any prohibited or uncustomed Goods shall be found concealed therein either before or after landing, the same shall be forfeited, together with the other Contents of the Package containing the same.

Passengers Baggage.

Surplus Stores not excessive may be entered for private Use or Warehouse.

LXX. The proper Officer may permit any surplus Stores, not being Merchandise, nor by him deemed excessive, to be entered for private Use under and subject to the same Duties, Rules, and Regulations as the like Sort of Goods would be subject to on Importation as Merchandise, or permit the Master, Owner, Purser, or other Officer of any Ship, or any Passenger of such Ship, to whom any surplus Stores belong, to enter and warehouse such surplus Stores for future Use as Ship's Stores, although the same could not be legally imported by way of Merchandise.

Entry of Goods by Agents without Licence or by unauthorized Persons not permitted.

Not to extend to Persons acting by proper Authority.

LXXI. If at any Port where Persons acting as Agents for transacting any Business relating to the Clearance of any Ship or Goods or Baggage shall be required to be licensed, any Person not so licensed, or not being the duly appointed Clerk to any Person so licensed, shall act as such Agent or Clerk, or if any Person, whether so licensed or appointed or not, shall make or cause to be made Entry of any Goods without being duly authorized for that Purpose by the Proprietor or Consignee of such Goods, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; but no such Penalty shall extend to any Person acting under the Directions of the several Dock Companies, or to any Person otherwise authorized by Law to pass Entries, nor to any Merchant, Importer, or Consignee of any Goods, acting himself in respect thereof, or any Clerk or Servant exclusively employed by him or by any such Persons in Copartnership.

Agent to produce Authority if required.

LXXII. Whenever any Person shall make Application to any Officer of the Customs to transact any Business on behalf of any other Person, such Officer may require of the Person so applying to produce a written Authority from the Person on whose Behalf such Application shall be made, and in default of the Production of such Authority refuse to transact such Business.

LXXIII. The

Importation and Warehousing.

Officers may take Samples.

LXXIII. The Officers of Customs may on the Entry of any Goods, or at any Time afterwards, take Samples of such Goods for Examination, or for ascertaining the Duties payable on such Goods, or for such other Purpose as the Commissioners of Customs may deem necessary, and such Samples shall be disposed of and accounted for in such Manner as the Commissioners of Customs may direct.

As to the Time within which Goods shall be entered and landed after the Arrival of the importing Ship:

Entry, Time for.

Goods not entered within 14 Days may be taken to Queen's Warehouse; and also small Packages or Quantities of Goods.

If Duties and Charges on such Goods be not paid within Three Months the Goods may be sold.

LXXIV. If the Importer of any Goods shall not, within Fourteen Days (exclusive of Sundays and Holidays), after the Arrival of the Ship importing the same, make perfect Entry or Entry by Bill of Sight of such Goods, or if, having made such Entry, he shall not land such Goods within such Fourteen Days, or within such further Period as the Commissioners of Customs shall direct, the Officers of the Customs may convey such Goods to the Queen's Warehouse; and whenever the Cargo of any Ship shall have been discharged within such Fourteen Days, with the Exception only of a small Quantity of Goods, the Officers of the Customs may forthwith convey such remaining Goods to the Queen's Warehouse; and also at any Time after the Arrival of such Ship may convey any small Packages or Parcels of Goods therein to the Queen's Warehouse, there to remain for due Entry during the Remainder of such Fourteen Days; and if the Duties due upon any Goods so conveyed to the Queen's Warehouse shall not be paid within Three Months afterwards, or within such further Period as the said Commissioners may direct, together with all Charges of Removal and Warehouse Rent, such Goods may be sold, and the Produce thereof applied, first to the Payment of Freight and Charges, next of Duties, and the Overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Proprietor of the Goods on his Application for the same; but if such Goods or any of them shall be of a perishable Nature, the Commissioners of Customs may forthwith direct Sale thereof, and apply the Proceeds in like Manner: Provided always, that for this Purpose, if the importing Ship and Goods be liable to the Performance of Quarantine, the Time for Entry and Landing of such Goods shall be computed from the Time at which such Ship and Goods shall have been released from Quarantine: Provided always, that if Forty-eight Hours or any earlier Period after the Report of any Ship is specified in the Bills of Lading for the Discharge of her Cargo or any Part thereof, and the Importer, Owner, or Consignee of such Goods, or his Agent shall neglect to enter and land the same within such Forty-eight Hours at any Port or Place approved by the Commissioners of Customs, the Master or Owner of such Ship may immediately, on the Expiration of such Forty-eight Hours, enter and land such Goods.

If Goods remain on board importing Ship beyond 14 Days, such Ship may be detained.

LXXV. Whenever any Goods shall remain on board any importing Ship beyond the Period of Fourteen Days after the Arrival of such Ship, or beyond such further Period as the Commissioners of Customs may allow, such Ship shall be detained by the proper Officer of Customs until all Expenses of watching or guarding such Goods beyond such Fourteen Days, or such further Time, if any allowed as aforesaid, not exceeding Five Shillings per Diem, and of removing the Goods, or any of them, to the Queen's Warehouse in case the Officers shall so remove them, be paid.

Abatement for Damage.

As to Goods upon which any Abatement for Damage on the Voyage or by Wreck may be claimed:

Abatement of Duty on damaged Goods.

Proof required.

LXXVI. No Claim for any Abatement of Duty in respect of any Goods imported into the United Kingdom shall be allowed on account of Damage, unless such Claim shall be made on the First Examination thereof, and in such Form and Manner as the Commissioners of Customs shall direct, nor unless it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs or their Officers that such Damage was sustained after such Goods had been shipped in the importing Ship and before the landing thereof in the United Kingdom; and all Goods derelict, jetsam, flotsam, and wreck brought or coming into the United Kingdom, and all Droits of Admiralty sold in the United Kingdom, shall at all Times be subject to the same Duties as Goods of the like Kind on Importation into the same Part of the United Kingdom are subject to, unless it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs that such Goods are the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country or Place by virtue whereof the same may be entitled to be admitted at less than the Foreign Duty, or Duty-free, or that the same, if liable to Duty, are entitled to an Abatement in respect of such Damage; and the Damage sustained by such Goods, whether so imported or derelict, jetsam, flotsam, or wreck as aforesaid, shall be assessed by the Officers of the Customs, if competent thereto, but if not, or if the Commissioners of Customs or the Collector or Comptroller of the Port into which the same shall be imported or brought as aforesaid shall entertain any Doubt as to the Amount of such Damage, they may call upon Two indifferent Merchants to examine the Goods and certify to what Extent in their Judgment the same are lessened in Value by such Damage, whereupon the Officers of the Customs may make an Abatement not exceeding Three Fourths of the Duty originally chargeable thereon, but no Allowance shall be made for Damage on Coculus Indicus, Nux Vomica, Rice, Guinea Grains, Lemons, Spirits, Corn, Grain, Meal and Flour, Opium, Sugar, Cocoa, Oranges, Tea, Coffee, Pepper, Tobacco, Currants, Raisins, Wine, and Figs.

Goods derelict, &c., and Droits of Admiralty, to be treated as Foreign Goods.

Exceptions.

Damage to be assessed by competent Persons.

Abatement not to exceed Three Fourths of Duty, and not to apply to certain Goods.

Production of Certificates.

As to the Production of Certificates of Origin in respect of Goods claiming any Benefit thereby on Importation:

Goods from Possessions abroad.

Master to deliver Certificate.

LXXVII. No Goods shall be entered as being of or from any British Possessions abroad, (if any Benefit attach to such Distinction,) except the Territories subject to the Government of the Presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay respectively, unless the Master of the Ship importing the same shall have delivered to the Collector or Comptroller a Certificate, under the Hand of the proper Officer of the Place where such Goods were taken on board, of the due Clearance of such Ship from thence, containing an Account of such Goods.

LXXVIII. The

Importation and Warehousing.

Power to Lords of Treasury to require Certificates of Production.

LXXVIII. The Commissioners of the Treasury may by Order under their Hands declare that a Certificate of Production shall be required upon the Exportation of any Goods from any British Possession abroad or other Place, or upon the Importation of such Goods into the United Kingdom, and frame such Regulations respecting such Certificates and Goods as they may think fit; and if any Goods in respect of which such Certificates are required be imported without such Certificate they shall be deemed to be Foreign Goods and liable to any Duty attaching to them as such; and such Orders of the Treasury shall be published in the London and Dublin Gazettes Three Times at least within Three Months from the Date thereof respectively.

Certificate of Growth of Sugar and Spirits from British Possessions in America and the Mauritius.

LXXIX. Before any Spirits or Sugar, so long as any Benefit shall attach to the Distinction, shall be entered as being of the Produce of any British Possession in America or the Island of Mauritius, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller a Certificate, under the Hand of the proper Officer of the Place where such Goods were taken on board, testifying that Proof had been made in manner required by Law that such Goods are of the Produce of some British Possession in America or of the Island of Mauritius, stating the Name of the Place where such Goods were produced, and the Quantity and Quality of the Goods, and the Number and Denomination of the Packages containing the same, and the Name of the Ship in which they are laden and of the Master thereof.

Certificate of Sugar from Limits of East India Company's Charter.

LXXX. Before any Sugar shall be entered as being the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall, so long as any Benefit attach to such Distinction, deliver to the Collector or Comptroller a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the proper Officer at the Place where such Sugar was taken on board, testifying that a Declaration in Writing, the Contents of which he believed to be true, had been made and signed before him by the Shipper of such Sugar, that the same was really and bonâ fide the Produce of the British Possession.

East India Sugar warehoused at the Cape of Good Hope and imported from thence.

LXXXI. If any Sugar, the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, so long as any Benefit attaches to such Distinction, shall have been imported into the Cape of Good Hope from the Place of its Production, accompanied by such a Certificate of Origin as would be sufficient for its Admission into the United Kingdom at the Rate of Duty payable upon such Sugar, if imported direct from the Place of its Production, and shall have been warehoused at the Cape of Good Hope under the Regulations there in force for the Warehousing of Goods, and shall have been exported from such Warehouse, accompanied by a Certificate from the proper Officer of Customs at the Cape of Good Hope, setting forth the Particulars of the Importation, and of the Warehousing, and of the Exportation of the same, and also setting forth the Substance of the Certificate of Origin before mentioned, and if on the Arrival in the United Kingdom of the Ship importing such Sugar, the Master of such Ship shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller at the Port of Importation such Certificate from the Officer of the Customs at the Cape of Good Hope, such Sugar shall be admitted at such Port of Importation in the United Kingdom at the same Rate of Duty as would be payable if the same had been imported direct from the Place of its Production.

Goods of Guernsey, Jersey, &c.

Duty free.

With Exceptions.

LXXXII. Any Goods of the Growth of the Channel Islands, and any Goods manufactured in the said Islands from Materials of the Growth of the said Islands, or from Materials not subject to Duty in the United Kingdom, or from Materials upon which the Duty has been paid in the United Kingdom, and upon which no Drawback has subsequently been granted, may be imported into the United Kingdom from the said Islands respectively without Payment of any Duty, and such Goods shall not be deemed to be included in any Charge of Duties imposed by any Act on the Importation of Goods generally from Parts beyond the Seas; but such Goods shall be charged with any Proportion of such Duties as shall fairly countervail any Duties of Excise payable on the like Goods the Produce or Manufacture of the Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be imported, or payable upon any of the Materials from which such Goods are manufactured; and all Goods manufactured in any of the said Islands from any other Materials than the Materials aforesaid shall be declared and taken to be Foreign Goods.

Master to deliver Certificate of Produce.

LXXXIII. Before any Goods shall be entered as being the Produce of the said Islands, (if any Benefit attach to such Distinction,) the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller of Customs a Certificate from the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander-in-Chief of the Island from whence such Goods were imported, that Proof had been made in manner required by Law that such Goods were of the Produce of such Island, stating the Quantity and Quality of the Goods, and the Number and Denomination of the Packages containing the same.

Inwards Entry. Certificate of Wine from British Possessions.

LXXXIV. Before any Wine shall be entered as being the Produce of any of the British Possessions abroad, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer of such Possession, testifying that Proof had been made in manner required by Law that such Wine is the Produce of such Possession, stating the Quantity and Sort of such Wine, and the Number and Denomination of the Packages containing the same.

Unshipping, Landing, and Examination.

As to the Unshipping, Landing, Examination, Warehousing, and Custody of Goods:

Unshpping, &c., Goods to be at Expense of the Importer.

LXXXV. The unshipping, carrying, and landing of all Goods, and bringing them to the proper Place for Examination, and weighing, putting them into the Scales, opening, unpacking, repacking, bulking, sorting, lotting, marking, and numbering, where such Operations respectively are necessary or permitted, and removing to and placing them in the proper Place of Deposit until duly delivered, shall be performed by or at the Expense of the Importer; and the Importer or Person entering any Timber or Wood to be charged with Duty by Measurement shall, at his Expense, pile, sort, frame,

Timber to be piled at the Ex-

or otherwise place the same in such Manner as the Commissioners of Customs may deem necessary to enable the Officers to measure and take the Account thereof; and in all Cases when the same is measured in Bulk, the Measurement shall be taken to the full Extent of the Pile, and no Allowance shall be made by the Officers on account of any Interstices; but Battens, Boards, Deals, and Planks exceeding Twenty-one Feet in Length may be measured by the Piece, and the Account thereof taken separately.

pense of the Importer, so as to enable Officer of Customs to measure it.

LXXXVI. If any Goods shall be removed from any Ship, Quay, Wharf, or other Place previous to the Examination thereof by the proper Officer of Customs, unless under the Care or Authority of such Officer, or if any Goods entered to be warehoused, or to be re-warehoused, shall be carried into the Warehouse, unless with the Authority or under the Care of the proper Officer of Customs, and in such Manner, by such Persons, within such Time, and by such Roads or Ways as such Officer shall direct, such Goods shall be forfeited.

Goods removed or carried into the Warehouse without Examination or Authority, forfeited.

LXXXVII. Upon the Entry and Landing of any Goods to be warehoused, or within such Period as the Commissioners of Customs shall direct with respect to the same or any of them, the Landing Waiter or other Officer of Customs shall take a particular Account of such Goods at the Quay or Wharf at which they shall be so landed, or in the Warehouse, if they be Goods of which the Account is permitted to be taken in the Warehouse, and shall cause to be marked on each Package of which such Account shall be taken the Contents thereof, and shall enter in a Book prepared for that Purpose, containing the Name of the import Ship, and of the Person in whose Name they are entered, the Marks, Numbers, and Contents of each such Package, the Description of the Goods, and the Warehouse or Place in the Warehouse in which the same shall be deposited, and when the same shall have been so deposited with the Authority of such Officer he shall certify that the Entry and Warehousing of such Goods is complete, and such Goods shall from that Time be considered Goods warehoused; and if any such Goods shall be delivered, withheld, or removed from the proper Place of Examination before the same shall have been duly examined and certified by such Officer, such Goods shall be deemed to be Goods not duly entered or warehoused, and shall be forfeited.

Landing Waiter to take Account of Goods for Warehouse.

Contents of Packages to be marked thereon, and entered in Landing Book.

LXXXVIII. The Account of the Goods so taken as aforesaid shall be the Account upon which the Duties payable upon such Goods shall be ascertained when the same shall ultimately come to be delivered upon due Entry for that Purpose, and the same shall be entered and the full Duties due thereon be paid according to the Quantity taken in such Account, without any Abatement for any Deficiency, except as herein-after provided.

Goods to be entered and Duties paid according to Landing Account.

LXXXIX. All Goods warehoused shall be deposited in the Packages in which the same shall have been imported, except as to such Goods as are permitted to be skipped on the Quay, or bulked, sorted, lotted, packed, or repacked in the Warehouse after the landing thereof, in which Case they shall be deposited in the Packages in which the same shall be when the Account thereof is taken by the proper Officer; and if such Goods are not so deposited, or if any Alteration shall afterwards be made in the Goods so deposited, or in the packing thereof in the Warehouse, or if the same shall be removed from the Room in the Warehouse in which the same are deposited, without the Presence or Sanction of the proper Officers, except for Delivery under the proper Warrant, Order, or Authority for that Purpose, they shall be forfeited.

Warehoused Goods to be deposited in original Packages, or those of which Account is taken.

XC. The Commissioners of Customs may direct what Goods may be skipped on the Quay, or bulked, sorted, lotted, packed, or repacked, and determine in respect of what Goods the Account may be taken in any Warehouse approved by them for that Purpose, and within what Time after the landing thereof, and on such Conditions as they may deem necessary.

Commissioners to direct what Goods may be bulked, &c.

XCI. If the Occupier of any Warehouse shall neglect to stow the Goods warehoused therein so that easy Access may be had to every Package and Parcel thereof he shall for every such Neglect forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds.

Penalty, on neglecting to stow Goods properly,

XCII. If the Occupier of any Warehouse shall not produce to any Officer of Customs on his Request any Goods deposited in such Warehouse which shall not have been duly cleared and delivered therefrom, such Occupier shall for every such Neglect forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds in respect of every Package or Parcel not so produced, besides the Duties due thereon.

or not producing Goods when required.

XCIII. If any Goods entered to be warehoused shall not be duly warehoused in pursuance of such Entry, or being duly warehoused shall be fraudulently concealed in or removed from the Warehouse, or abstracted from any Package, or transferred from one Package to another, or otherwise, for the Purpose of illegal Removal or Concealment, they shall be forfeited.

Goods not duly warehoused, &c. forfeited.

XCIV. If the Importer or Proprietor of any Goods warehoused, or any Person in his Employ, shall clandestinely open the Warehouse, or, except in the Presence of the proper Officer of Customs acting in the Execution of his Duty, gain Access to the Goods, such Importer or Proprietor shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Penalty on clandestinely gaining Access to warehoused Goods.

XCV. If any Goods shall be taken out of any Warehouse without due Entry of the same with the proper Officer of Customs, the Occupier of such Warehouse shall forthwith pay the Duties due upon such Goods; and every Person so taking out any Goods without Payment of Duty, or who shall aid, assist, or be concerned therein, and every Person who shall wilfully destroy or embezzle any Goods duly warehoused, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall, upon Conviction suffer the Punishment by Law inflicted in Cases of Misdemeanor; but if such Person shall be an Officer of Customs or Excise not acting in the due Execution of his Duty, and shall be prosecuted to Conviction by the Importer, Consignee, or Proprietor of such Goods, no Duty shall be payable for or in respect of such Goods, and the Damage occasioned by such Waste, Spoil, or Embezzlement shall, with the Sanction of the Commissioners missioners of the Treasury, be repaid or made good to such Importer, Consignee, or Proprietor by the Commissioners of Customs.

Duty on Goods taken out without Entry to be paid by Warehouse Keeper.

No Compensation for Goods damaged by Fire, &c.

XCVI. No Compensation shall be made by the Commissioners of Customs to any Importer, Proprietor, or Consignee of any Goods by reason of any Damage occasioned thereto in the Warehouse by Fire or other inevitable Accident.

Duties on warehoused Goods lost or destroyed may be remitted.

XCVII. If any Goods warehoused or entered to be warehoused, or entered to be delivered from the Warehouse, shall be lost or destroyed by unavoidable Accident, either on Shipboard or in landing, or in receiving into the Warehouse, or in the Warehouse, the Commissioners of Customs may remit or return the Duties due thereon.

Removal.

As to the Removal of warehoused Goods:

Goods may be removed from one Port to another; or from one Warehouse to another in same Port.

XCVIII. Any Goods warehoused at any Port in the United Kingdom may be removed by Sea or by inland Carriage to any other Port in which the like Kind of Goods may be warehoused on Importation, to be re-warehoused at such other Port, and again as often as may be required at any other such Port, to be there re-warehoused, or, with the Permission of the proper Officers of Customs, from any Warehouse in any Port to any other Warehouse in the same Port, under such Regulations and with such Security as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, on the Delivery to the proper Officer by the Person requiring such Removal of a Request Note, stating the Particulars of the Goods required to be removed, the Name of the Port, or of the Warehouse if in the same Port, to which the same are intended to be removed, and with such other Information and in such Manner and Form as the Commissioners of Customs or the proper Officer may direct or require.

Regulations for Removal

Officers at Port of Removal to transmit Account of Goods to Officers at Port of Destination.

Remover to give Bond.

Bond may be given at either Port.

Bond, how to be discharged.

XCIX. On the Delivery of any Goods for Removal, an Account containing the Particulars thereof, shall be transmitted by the proper Officers of the Port of Removal to the proper Officers of the Port or Place of Destination, and the Person requiring the Removal thereof shall enter into Bond, with One sufficient Surety, in a Sum equal at least to the Duty chargeable on such Goods, for the due Arrival and re-warehousing thereof at the Port or Place of Destination within such Time as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, such Bond to be taken by the Collector, Comptroller, or other proper Officer, either of the Port or Place of Removal, or the Port or Place of Destination, as shall best suit the Residence or Convenience of the Parties interested in such Removal; and if such Bond shall have been given at the intended Port or Place of Destination, a Certificate thereof, under the Hand of the Collector or Comptroller or other proper Officer of such Port, shall, at the Time of the entering of such Goods, be produced to the Collector, Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Port of Removal; and such Bond shall not be discharged unless such Goods shall have been produced to the proper Officer, and duly re-warehoused at the Port of Destination, within the Time allowed for such Removal, or shall have been otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, nor until the full Duties due upon any Deficiency of such Goods not so accounted for shall have been paid; but any Remover may enter into General Bond, with such Sureties, in such Amount, and under such Conditions as the Commissioners of Customs may approve, for the Removal from Time to Time of any of the Goods from one Warehouse to another, and for the due Arrival and re-warehousing of the same at the Place of Destination within such Time or Times as the said Commissioners may direct.

General Removal Bond may be given.

Goods, on Arrival, to be subject to same Regulations as on first Importation;

C. Upon the Arrival of such Goods at the Port or Place of Destination the same shall be entered and warehoused in the same Manner, and under and subject to the same Laws, Rules, and Regulations, so far as the same are or can be made applicable, as are required on the Entry and Warehousing of Goods on the First Importation thereof.

and may, after formal re-warehousing, be entered for Exportation or Home Use, on Payment of Duties.

CI. If upon the Arrival of Goods so removed as aforesaid at the Port of Destination the Parties shall be desirous forthwith to export the same, or to pay Duty thereon for Home Use, without actually lodging the same in the Warehouse for which they have been entered and examined to be re-warehoused, the Officers of Customs at such Port may, after all the Formalities of entering and examining such Goods for re-warehousing have been duly performed, permit the same to be entered and shipped for Exportation, or to be entered and delivered for Home Use, upon Payment of the Duties due thereon, as if such Goods had been actually lodged in such Warehouse; and all Goods so exported or for which the Duties have been so paid, shall be deemed to have been duly cleared from the Warehouse.

No Spirits which shall have been imported into the United Kingdom shall be removed except from Warehouse.

CII. No Spirits which shall have been imported from Parts beyond the Sea into the United Kingdom upon which a higher Duty is payable on their Importation into England than on their Importation into Scotland or Ireland, shall be brought from Scotland or Ireland into England; nor shall any such Spirits upon which a higher Duty is payable on their Importation into Scotland than on their Importation into Ireland, be brought from Ireland into Scotland, except such as shall have been duly warehoused upon the First Importation thereof, according to the Laws in force for the Warehousing of Goods, and which shall be in the Warehouse at the Time of such intended Removal, and which shall be removed from one Warehousing Port to another Warehousing Port, according to the Regulations required by Law; and all such Spirits, when so removed, shall be liable to the Duty payable thereon in that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be so removed, if they be entered for Home Consumption therein; and all Spirits removed contrary hereto shall be forfeited, and all Persons concerned in such Removal, or knowingly receiving or harbouring any Spirits so removed, shall forfeit the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, or Treble the Value of such Spirits, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue.

Penalty for Removal of Spirits contrary hereto.

Warehoused Goods, if not cleared for Home Use or Expor-

CIII. All warehoused Goods shall be cleared either for Home Use or Exportation at the Expiration of Five Years from the Day on which the same were so warehoused, or within such further Period and in such Cases as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct, unless the Owner or Proprietor of such Goods

Goods shall be desirous of re-warehousing the same, in which case the same shall be examined by the proper Officers, and the Duties due upon any Deficiency or Difference between the Quantity ascertained on landing and the Quantity found to exist on such Examination, together with the necessary Expense attendant thereon, shall, subject to such Allowances as are by Law permitted in respect thereof, be paid down, and the Quantity so found shall be re-warehoused in the Name of the then Owner or Proprietor thereof in the same Manner as on First Importation.

tation within 5 Years, must be re-warehoused.

Duties on Deficiencies, and Expenses, to be paid down.

CIV. If any warehoused Goods shall not be duly cleared, exported, or re-warehoused, and the Duties ascertained to be due on the Deficiencies as aforesaid shall not be paid down at the Expiration of Five Years from the previous Entry and warehousing thereof, or within such further Period as shall be directed as aforesaid, the same, if worth the Duty due thereon, shall, after One Month's Notice to the Warehouse Keeper, with all convenient Speed be sold either for Home Use or Exportation, with or without the Consent of the Warehouse Keeper, and the Proceeds thereof shall be applied to the Payment of the Duties, Warehouse Rent, and Charges, and the Surplus, if any, shall be paid to the Owner or Proprietor of such Goods, if known, but if such Owner or Proprietor cannot be found, such Surplus shall be carried to the Crown's Account, to abide the Claim of such Owner or Proprietor on his appearing and making good his Claim thereto; and if such Goods shall not be worth the Duty, then the same, after such One Month's Notice as aforesaid, may be exported or destroyed, with or without the Concurrence of the Owner thereof, or the Proprietor of the Warehouse in which the same were so warehoused, as the Commissioners of Customs shall see fit; and the Duties due upon any Deficiency thereof not allowed by Law shall be forthwith paid by the Proprietor of the Warehouse.

Goods in Warehouse not cleared or re-warehoused, or Duties paid on Deficiencies, after 5 Years, to be sold.

Proceeds, how to be applied.

Goods not worth the Duty may be exported or destroyed.

CV. With the Sanction of the Commissioners of Customs, and after such Notice given by the respective Importers or Proprietors, and at such Times and under such Regulations and Restrictions as the Commissioners of Customs shall from Time to Time require and direct, it shall be lawful in the Warehouse to sort, separate, pack, and repack any Goods, and to make such Alterations therein as may be necessary for the Preservation, Sale, Shipment, or Disposal thereof; provided that such Goods be repacked in the Packages in which they were imported, or in such other Packages as the Commissioners shall permit (not being less in any Case, if the Goods be to be exported or to be removed to another Warehouse, than is required by Law on the Importation of such Goods); and also to draw off any Wine or any Spirits into reputed Quart or Pint Bottles for Exportation only; and to draw off and mix Brandy with any Wine, not exceeding the Proportion of Ten Gallons of Brandy to One hundred Gallons of Wine; and also to fill up any Casks of Wine or Spirits from any other Casks of the same respectively secured in the same Warehouse; and also to rack off any Wine from the Lees, and mix any Wines of the same Sort, erasing from the Cask all Import Brands, unless the whole of the Wine so mixed be of the same Brand; and also to take such Samples of Goods as may be allowed by the Commissioners of Customs, with or without Entry, and with or without Payment of Duty, except as the same may eventually become payable as on a Deficiency of the original Quantity; and the Duty on the Surplus, if any, of such Goods as may be delivered for Home Use shall be immediately paid, and such Surplus shall thereupon be delivered for Home Use accordingly; and after such Goods have been so separated and repacked in proper or approved Packages, the Commissioners of Customs may, at the Request of the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, cause or permit any Refuse, Damage, or surplus Goods occasioned by such Separation or repacking, or, at the like Request, any Goods which may not be worth the Duty, to be destroyed, and may remit the Duty payable thereon.

Goods in Warehouse may be sorted, repacked, &c.

To be repacked in the original or other legal sized Packages.

Wine or Spirits may be bottled for Exportation only. Brandy may be mixed with Wine.

Casks of Wine or Spirits may be filled up or racked off.

Wines may be mixed, and Samples taken.

After repacking, damaged Parts may be destroyed.

CVI. No Foreign Packages or Materials whatsoever shall be used in the repacking of any Goods in the Warehouse, except such as shall have been used in the Importation of warehoused Goods, unless the full Duties thereon shall have been first paid.

What Packages to be used in repacking.

CVII. The Commissioners of Customs may permit any Goods to be taken out of the Warehouse without Payment of Duty, for such Purpose or for such Period as to them may appear expedient, and in such Quantities, and under such Regulations and Restrictions, and with such Security by Bond for the due Return thereof or the Payment of the Duties due thereon, as they may direct or require; and the Officers of Customs of any Port where any Premises shall be approved as a Bonded Sugar House may deliver any Quantity of Sugar, on the Application of the Proprietor or Occupier of such Bonded Sugar House, and on Entry of such Sugar with the proper Officer of Customs, for the Purpose of being there refined, under the Locks of the Crown, for Removal to the Isle of Man or for Exportation; and all Sugars so delivered shall be lodged and secured in such Premises, under such Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the Commissioners of Customs shall from Time to Time direct.

Goods in Warehouse may be taken out, under Regulations, and with Security for Duties.

Delivery of Sugars Duty-free to be refined for Exportation only.

CVIII. Upon the Entry of any Sugar to be refined in any Premises approved under this Act, the Proprietor or Occupier shall give Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Officers of the Customs, in a Sum equal to double the Amount of the Duty payable upon a like Quantity of Sugar, with a Condition that the whole of such Sugar shall be actually subjected to the Process of Refinement upon the said Premises, and that within Four Months from the Date of such Bond the whole of the refined Sugar and Treacle produced by such Process shall be either duly removed to the Isle of Man or exported from the said Premises, or delivered into an approved Bonded Warehouse under the Locks of the Crown, for the Purpose of being eventually so removed or exported.

Refiner to give Bond.

Entry for Home Consumption and Exportation.

As to the Entry of warehoused Goods for Home Consumption and Exportation, and the Delivery thereof:

CIX. No warehoused Goods shall be taken or delivered from the Warehouse, except upon due Entry, and under the Care of the proper Officers, for Exportation, or upon due Entry and Payment of the full Duties

Entry for Exportation or Home Use.

Importation and Warehousing.

Duties payable thereon for Home Use, except Goods delivered into the Charge of the Searchers to be shipped as Stores, in such Quantities as the Collector or Comptroller shall allow, subject to the Directions of the Commissioners of Customs, and under such Regulations as they may see fit to make.

Persons entering warehoused Goods for Home Use to deliver Bill of Entry, and pay down Duties.

CX. Upon the Entry of any Goods to be cleared from the Warehouse for Home Use the Person entering such Goods shall deliver a Bill of Entry, and Duplicates thereof, in like Manner and Form, containing the same Particulars, as are herein-before required on the Entry of Goods to be delivered for Home Use on the landing thereof, as far as the same may be applicable, and shall at the same Time pay down to the proper Officer of Customs the full Duties payable thereon, not being less in Amount than according to the Account of the Quantity taken by the Landing Waiter or other proper Officer on the First Entry and Landing thereof, except as to the following Goods; viz., Tobacco, Wine, Spirits, Figs, Currants, Raisins, and Sugar, the Duties whereon, when cleared from the Warehouse for Home Use, shall be charged upon the Quantity of such Goods ascertained by Weight, Measure, or Strength at the Time of actual Delivery thereof, unless there is reasonable Ground to suppose that any Portion of the Deficiency or Difference between the Weight, Measure, or Strength ascertained on landing and First Examination of any such last-mentioned Goods, and that ascertained at the Time of actual Delivery, has been caused by illegal or improper Means, in which Case the proper Officer of Customs shall make such Allowance only for Loss as he may consider fairly to have arisen from natural Evaporation or other legitimate Cause.

Duties to be paid according to Landing Account, except in certain Cases.

Duties on certain Goods how to be charged.

Value of Deficiencies, how to be estimated.

CXI. When any Deficiency occurs in Goods chargeable to pay Duty according to the Value thereof, the Value thereof shall be estimated as nearly as conveniently may be by the Officers of Customs according to the Market Price of the like Sort of Goods.

Deficiencies in Goods entered for Exportation.

CXII. No Duty shall be charged in respect of any Deficiency in Goods entered and cleared from the Warehouse for Exportation, unless the Officers of Customs have reasonable Ground to suppose that such Deficiency or any Part thereof has arisen from illegal Abstraction.

Entries for Wood Goods restricted.

CXIII. No Entry for Home Consumption shall from and after the passing of this Act be received for or in respect of any Timber or Wood Goods deposited in any Warehouse for Security of Duties, for any less Quantity at any One Time than Five Loads of such Timber or Wood Goods, unless such Wood Goods shall be delivered by Tale, in which Case such Entry may be passed for any Quantity thereof not being less than Two hundred and forty Pieces, or Two Great Hundreds of such Wood Goods; and no less Quantity of such Timber or Wood Goods shall be delivered in virtue of any such Entry at any One Time than One Load of such Timber or Wood Goods, or Ninety Pieces of such Wood Goods if delivered by Tale.

Cards imported not to be sold without a Wrapper provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

CXIV. No Pack or Parcel of Playing Cards imported into any Part of the United Kingdom shall be sold or exposed or kept for Sale without being separately enclosed in a Wrapper provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, with such Device thereon as they shall direct, and securely fastened round or over the same by means of some adhesive Substance, and so and in such Manner that such Wrapper cannot be opened without being destroyed; and if any Person shall sell, or offer or expose or keep for Sale, any Pack or Parcel of Playing Cards, not being a Pack of Cards within the Meaning of an Act passed in the present Session, Chapter Fifty-nine, and enclosed in a Wrapper of a licensed Maker of Playing Cards approved by the said Commissioners, and the same not being bonâ fide Waste Cards within the Meaning of the same Act, without the same being enclosed in a Wrapper provided by the last-mentioned Commissioners in pursuance of this Act, and fastened as herein-before in that Behalf mentioned, he shall for every such Pack or Parcel of Cards forfeit, if he shall not be a licensed Maker of Playing Cards, the Sum of Ten Pounds, and if he shall be such licensed Maker the Sum of Twenty Pounds, whether such Cards shall have been made in the United Kingdom or imported; which Penalty, as well as any Penalty relating to Playing Cards imposed by the said last-mentioned Act, may be recovered, either in Her Majesty's Superior Courts or before any Justice of the Peace, in like Manner as any Penalty under any Act relating to Stamp Duties; and all such Cards so offered, exposed, or kept for Sale may be seized and taken by any Officer of Customs or Inland Revenue, and shall be disposed of as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall direct; and in any Proceedings for the Recovery of any such Penalty by this Act imposed it shall be sufficient to allege that the Person charged with the Offence did sell, or offer or expose or keep for Sale, as the Case may be, a Pack or any Number of Packs of Playing Cards, without the same being enclosed in a Wrapper required by Law, and it shall not be necessary further or otherwise to charge or describe the Offence.

Penalty 10*l.* if not a Maker, 20*l.* if a Maker.

Cards kept for Sale without Wrapper forfeited.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue to provide Wrappers to enclose therein Cards imported.

CXV. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall provide Wrappers for enclosing Cards imported into the United Kingdom, in such Form and with such Device and with any Words and Figures thereon as they shall think proper, and shall appoint an Officer, at any Port or Place where the same shall be required, to enclose in such Wrappers any Cards imported; and every such Officer, on reasonable Notice and upon Delivery to him of a Certificate, under the Hand of the proper Officer of Customs at the Port where any Cards shall be imported, that the Duties by Law charged on such Cards imported have been duly paid, and specifying such Particulars as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall direct, shall enclose every Pack of such Cards in One of such Wrappers, and securely fasten the same by means of some adhesive Substance, in such Manner as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall direct; and no such Cards shall be delivered out of the Custody of the Officers of Customs until they shall be enclosed in such Wrappers as aforesaid; and if any such Cards, or any Cards made in the United Kingdom and purporting to be or intended to be represented as Cards imported, or which shall not be bonâ fide Waste Cards as aforesaid, or Packs of Cards in respect of which the Stamp Duties shall have been paid, shall same Corporate Body, the Owner, Charterer, Consignee, Broker, Agent, or other Person acting in the loading and Clearance of the exporting Ship shall also prepare a full and accurate List or Manifest of all such Goods from the Bills of Lading and Freight List thereof, and shall sign and leave with the Collector of the Customs, within Fourteen Days after such Ship shall have cleared Outwards, a correct Transcript of such last-mentioned List or Manifest, with the Addition of the Value of such Goods, if any, as shall have been previously chargeable with Duty, at Value, and of British Goods, distinguishing therein the Names of the several Shippers of such Goods, according to the Bills of Lading; and on Failure to prepare such List or Manifest, and to sign and deliver such Transcript as aforesaid, such Owner, Charterer, Consignee, Broker, or other Person as aforesaid shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Shipping Bill signed by Searcher to be the Clearance for the Goods.

CXXVI. The Shipping Bill or Bills, when filled up, and signed by the Exporter or his Agent, or the Consignee of the Ship, as the Case may be, in such Manner as the proper Officer may require, and countersigned by the Searcher, shall be the Clearance for all the Goods enumerated therein; and if any of such Goods shall consist of Tea, Spirits, or Tobacco, the Exporter or his Agent shall furnish to the Searcher an Account thereof, containing the Number and Description of the Packages, and the respective Quantities contained therein, which, when certified by the Searcher, shall accompany the Ship, and have the same Force and Effect as the Cocket in use prior to the passing of this Act; and if the Exporter or his Agent shall require a similar Certificate in respect of any other Goods shipped for Exportation, the Searcher shall, on its being presented to him for that Purpose, certify the same in like Manner: Provided always, that if any such Certificate be required to be in any particular Form for Goods destined for the Zolverein or any other Foreign State, or under the Name of Cocket, such Certificate may be so prepared and denominated.

Licensed Lighterman to carry Goods.

CXXVII. If any Goods cleared for Drawback or from the Warehouse shall be carried or water-borne to be put on board any Ship for Exportation by any Person not at the Time duly licensed and authorized to act as a licensed Lighterman, either in the Port of London or any other Port at which Lightermen are required to be so licensed, or by any Person not being in the Employ of such Lighterman at the Time duly authorized to act as such, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Warehoused Goods removed or shipped, &c. without Authority, forfeited.

CXXVIII. If any Goods taken from the Warehouse for Removal or for Exportation shall be removed or shipped, except with the Authority or under the Care of the proper Officer of Customs, and in such Manner, by such Persons, within such Time, and by such Roads or Ways as such Officer shall permit or direct, such Goods shall be forfeited.

Commissioners may remit Duty on warehoused Goods lost or destroyed, &c.

CXXIX. If any Goods duly entered for Delivery from the Warehouse for Removal or Exportation shall be lost or destroyed by unavoidable Accident, either in the Delivery from the Warehouse or the shipping thereof, the Commissioners of Customs may remit the Duties due thereon.

As to the Issue of Debentures for and Payment of Drawback on Goods exported:

Payment of Drawback.

Issuing and passing Debenture.

CXXX. For the Purpose of computing and paying any Drawback claimed and payable upon any Goods duly entered, shipped, and exported, a Debenture shall in due Time after such Entry be prepared by the Collector or Comptroller, certifying in the first instance the Entry Outwards of such Goods, and so soon as the same shall have been duly exported, and a Notice containing the Particulars of the Goods shall have been delivered by the Exporter to the Searcher, the Shipment and Exportation thereof shall be certified to the Collector or Comptroller upon such Debenture by the Searcher, and the Debenture shall thereupon be computed and passed with all convenient Despatch.

Declaration as to Exportation and Right to Drawback.

Name of Person entitled to be declared.

CXXXI. The Person entitled to any Drawback on any Goods duly exported, or his Agent duly authorized by him for that Purpose, shall make and subscribe a Declaration upon the Debenture that the Goods mentioned therein have been actually exported, and have not been relanded, and are not intended to be relanded, in any Part of the United Kingdom, and that such Person at the Time of Entry and shipping was and continued to be entitled to the Drawback thereon, and the Name of such Person shall be stated in the Debenture, which shall then be delivered to such Person or his Agent, and the Receipt of such Person on the Debenture, countersigned by the Holder of such Debenture, if the same shall have been transferred in the meantime, shall be the Discharge for such Drawback when paid.

Payment within Two Years.

CXXXII. No Debenture for any Drawback allowed upon the Exportation of any Goods shall be paid after the Expiration of Two Years from the Date of the Shipment of such Goods.

Warehouse or Debenture Goods not exported, or if relanded, or carried to Guernsey, &c. without Entry, forfeited.

CXXXIII. If any Goods which have been cleared to be exported for any Drawback shall not be duly exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or shall be unshipped or relanded in any Part of the United Kingdom (such Goods not having been duly relanded or discharged as short-shipped under the Care of the proper Officers), or shall be carried to any of the Channel Islands (not having been duly entered, cleared, and shipped to be exported or carried directly to such Islands), the same shall be forfeited, together with any Ship, Boat, or Craft which may have been used in so unshipping, relanding, landing, or carrying such Goods from the Ship in which the same were shipped for Exportation; and the Master of such Ship, and any Person by whom or by whose Orders or Means such Goods shall have been so unshipped, relanded, landed, or carried, or who shall aid, assist, or be concerned therein, shall forfeit a Sum equal to Treble the Value of such Goods, or a Penalty of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

Drawbacks of Duties on Wine allowed for Officers in the Navy.

CXXXIV. A Drawback of the whole of the Duties of Customs shall be allowed for Wine intended for the Consumption of Officers of Her Majesty's Navy on board such of Her Majesty's Ships in actual Service as they shall serve in, not exceeding the Quantities of Wine in any One Year for the Use of such Officers herein-after respectively mentioned; that is to say, Gallons.

For every Admiral	1,260
„ Vice-Admiral	1,050
„ Rear-Admiral	840
„ Captain of the 1st and 2d Rate	630
„ Captain of the 3d, 4th, and 5th Rate	420
„ Captain of an inferior Rate	210
„ Lieutenant and other Commanding Officer, and for Marine Officer, Master, Purser, and Surgeon	105

unless such Wine be taken from the Warehouse without Payment of Duty under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Customs may direct: Provided always, that in either Case such Wine be shipped at Ports approved of by the Commissioners of Customs.

Persons entering such Wine for Drawback to declare the Name and Rank of Officer claiming the same.

CXXXV. The Person entering such Wine, and claiming the Drawback for the same, shall state in the Entry and declare on the Debenture the Name of the Officer for whose Use such Wine is intended, and of the Ship in which he serves; and such Wine shall be delivered into the Charge of the Officers of the Customs at the Port of Shipment, to be shipped under their Care; and the Commanding Officer for the Time being of such Ship, having certified upon the Debenture the Receipt of such Wine into his Charge, and the proper Officer of the Customs having certified to the Shipment on the Debenture, the same shall be computed and passed, and be delivered to the Person entitled to receive the same.

Officers leaving the Service, &c. such Wine permitted to be transferred to others.

CXXXVI. If any such Officer shall leave the Service, or be removed to another Ship, the Officers of the Customs may permit the Transfer of any such Wine from one Officer to another, as Part of his Proportion, whether on board the same Ship or another, or the Transhipment from one Ship to another for the same Officer, or the relanding and warehousing for future Reshipment; and the Officers of Customs at any Port may receive back the Duties for any of such Wine, and deliver the same for Home Use; but if any of such Wine be not laden on board the Ship for which the same was intended, or be unladen from such Ship without Permission of the proper Officer of Customs, the same shall be forfeited.

Pursers of Her Majesty's Ships of War may ship Tobacco for the Use of Crew free of Duty, on giving Bond.

CXXXVII. The Purser of any of Her Majesty's Ships of War in actual Service may enter and ship, at any Port approved of by the Commissioners of Customs, in the Proportions herein-after mentioned, any Tobacco there warehoused in his Name, or transferred into his Name for the Use of the Ship in which he shall serve, provided such Purser shall deliver to the Collector or Comptroller of such Port a Certificate from the Captain of such Ship, stating the Name of the Purser, and the Number of Men belonging to the Ship, and shall also give Bond, with One sufficient Surety, in Treble the Duties payable on the Tobacco, that no Part thereof shall be relanded without Leave of the Officers of Customs.

Purser removed from one Ship to another may tranship Tobacco, with Permission of Collector.

CXXXVIII. If any Purser shall be removed from one Ship to another, the Collector or Comptroller of any Port may permit the Transhipment of the Remains of any such Tobacco, for the Use of such other Ship, upon due Entry of such Tobacco by such Purser, setting forth the Time when and the Port at which such Tobacco was first shipped; and if any such Ship shall be paid off, the Collector or Comptroller of the Port may permit the Remains of any such Tobacco to be landed, and to be entered by the Purser of such Ship, either for Payment of Duties, or to be warehoused for the Term of Six Months, for the Supply of some other such Ship, in like Manner as any Tobacco may be warehoused and supplied at any such Port, or for Payment of all Duties within such Six Months; and all Tobacco warehoused for the Purpose of so supplying Her Majesty's Ships of War shall be subject to the Provisions of any Act in force relating to the warehousing of Tobacco generally, as far as the same are applicable, and are not expressly altered by any of the Provisions herein particularly made.

Limiting the Quantity of Tobacco.

CXXXIX. No greater Quantity of such Tobacco shall be allowed to any Ship of War than Two Pounds by the Lunar Month for each of the Crew of such Ship, nor shall any greater Quantity be shipped at any One Time than sufficient to serve the Crew of such Ship for Six Months after such Rate of Allowance; and the Collector or Comptroller of the Port at or from which any such Tobacco shall be supplied to any such Ship, or landed from any such Ship, or transferred from one such Ship to another, shall transmit a particular Account thereof to the Commissioners of Customs, in order that a general Account may be kept of all the Quantities supplied to and consumed on board each of such Ships under the Allowances before granted.

Shipping of Stores.

As to the shipping of Stores for the Use of Foreign-bound Vessels:

Victualling Bill for Stores.

CXL. The Master of every Ship of the Burden of Fifty Tons or upwards, departing from any Port in the United Kingdom upon a Voyage to Parts beyond the Seas, the Duration of which out and home shall not be less than Forty Days, shall, upon due Application made by him, and upon such Terms and Conditions as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, receive from the Searcher an Order for the Shipment of such Stores as may be required and allowed by the Collector or Comptroller for the Use of such Ship, with reference to the Number of the Crew and Passengers on board, and the probable Duration of the Voyage on which she is about to depart; and all Demands for such Stores shall be made in such Form and Manner as such Collector or Comptroller shall require, and shall be signed by the Master or Owner of the Vessel; and after such Stores are duly shipped the Master or his Agent shall make out an Account of the Stores so shipped, together with any other Stores then already on board, and the same, when when presented to the Searcher, signed by him, and countersigned by the Collector or Comptroller, shall be the Victualling Bill; and no Stores shall be shipped for the Use of any Ship, nor any Articles taken on board any Ship be deemed to be Stores, except such as shall be borne upon such Victualling Bill.

Clearance of Ship out.

As to the Clearance of Ships Outwards:

If Inward Cargo reported for Exportation, Copy of Report to be delivered to Searcher.

CXLI. If there be on board any Ship any Goods, being Part of the Inward Cargo reported for Exportation in the same Ship, the Master shall, before Clearance Outwards of such Ship from any Port in the United Kingdom, deliver to the Searcher a Copy of the Report Inwards of such Goods, certified by the Collector or Comptroller; and if such Copy be found to correspond with the Goods so remaining on board, the Searcher shall sign the same, to be filed with the Certificates or Cockets, if any, and Victualling Bill of the Ship.

Before Clearance, Master to deliver Content.

CXLII. Before any Ship shall be cleared Outwards from the United Kingdom with any Goods shipped or intended to be shipped on board the same, the Master shall deliver a Content of such Ship to the Searcher, in the Form or to the Effect following, and containing the several Particulars therein required, as far as the same can be known by him, and shall make and subscribe the Declaration at the Foot thereof, in the Presence of the Collector or Comptroller, and shall answer such Questions as shall be demanded of him concerning the Ship, the Cargo, and the intended Voyage, by such Collector or Comptroller:

(Date of Clearance). (Signature) _____ Searcher.
(Signature) _____ Collector or Comptroller.

Label signed, Authority to depart.

And such Label, when filled up, and signed by the Searcher and the Collector or Comptroller, shall, as to the Goods comprised therein, be the Clearance and Authority for the Departure of the Ship; and the Shipper of any British Goods and such Goods as were previously chargeable with Duty at Value laden in such Ship shall, under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds, deliver to the Broker, Agent, or other Person clearing such Ship, a Duplicate of the Bill of Lading thereof at the Time of signing thereof, with an Endorsement thereon of the Quantity and Value of such Goods, and such Broker, Agent, or other Person as aforesaid shall, within Fourteen Days after such final Clearance of the Ship, sign and deliver to the Collector or Comptroller of Customs a full and accurate List of all such Goods, with the Quantities and Value thereof, from the Bills of Lading so delivered to him, with such Bill or Bills of Lading annexed thereto, and on Failure thereof such Broker, Agent, or other Person as aforesaid shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and for this Purpose the Duplicate Bill of Lading so required shall not be liable to any Stamp Duty.

Goods on board to correspond with Content.

CXLIII. If any Goods liable to Duty on Importation, or taken from the Warehouse to be exported, or entitled to Drawback on Exportation, which are enumerated in the Content of any Ship, shall not be duly shipped before the Departure of such Ship, or shall not be duly certified by the proper Officer as short-shipped, such Goods shall be forfeited; or if any such Goods shall be taken on board such Ship, not being enumerated in such Content, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds in respect of every Package of such Goods; and if any Goods duly shipped on board such Ship shall be landed at any other Place than that for which they shall have been cleared, unless otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit a Sum equal to Treble the Value of the Goods so landed.

Goods shipped contrary to Provisions forfeited.

CXLIV. If any Goods shall be shipped, put off or water-borne to be shipped, without being duly cleared, or otherwise contrary to the Provisions of this Act, the same shall be liable to Forfeiture.

In Ballast. Clearance notified on Victualling Bill. Master to answer Questions. Ships, laden or in Ballast, to clear out. Penalty 100*l.*

CXLV. Before any Ship shall depart in Ballast from the United Kingdom for Parts beyond the Seas, not having any Goods on board, except Stores from the Warehouse borne upon the Victualling Bill of such Ship, nor any Goods reported Inwards for Exportation in such Ship, the Collector or Comptroller shall clear such Ship in Ballast, by notifying such Clearance and the Date thereof on the Victualling Bill, and deliver the same to the Master of such Ship as the Clearance thereof; and the Master of such Ship shall answer to the Collector or Comptroller such Questions touching her Departure and Destination as shall be demanded of him; and Ships having only Passengers with their Baggage on board, and Ships laden only with Chalk or Slate, shall be deemed to be in Ballast; and if any such Ship, whether laden or in Ballast, shall depart without being so cleared, if she have any such Stores on board, the Master shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Boarding of Ships.

As to the boarding of Ships after Clearance Outwards:

Officers may board any Ship after Clearance. Uncertificated Goods on board; Penalty on such Goods missing.

CXLVI. Any Officers of Customs may go on board any Ship after Clearance Outwards within the Limits of any Port in the United Kingdom, or within Four Leagues of the Coast thereof, and may demand the Ship's Clearance; and if there be any Goods on board in respect of which Certificates are required, not contained in such Certificates, or any Stores not endorsed on the Victualling Bill, such Goods or Stores shall be forfeited; and if any Goods contained in such Certificates be not on board, the Master shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every Package or Parcel of Goods contained in such Certificates, and not on board.

If Officers put Seals on Stores from Warehouse Outwards, and such Seals be broken, Master to forfeit 20*l.*

CXLVII. If any Officer of Customs shall place any Lock, Mark, or Seal upon any Goods taken from the Warehouse without Payment of Duty as Stores on board any Ship or Vessel departing from any Port in the United Kingdom, and such Lock, Mark, or Seal be wilfully opened, altered or broken, or if any such Stores be secretly conveyed away, either while such Ship or Vessel remains at her First Port of Departure, or at any other Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or on her Passage from One such Port or Place to another, before the final Departure of such Ship or Vessel on her Foreign Voyage, the Master shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Ships not bringing to at Stations, Penalty 20*l.*

CXLVIII. If any Ship departing from any Port in the United Kingdom shall not bring to at such Stations as shall be appointed by the Commissioners of Customs for the landing of Officers from such Ships, or for further Examination previous to such Departure, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Exportation.

Time of Exportation and Departure defined.

CXLIX. The Time at which any Goods shall be shipped on board any Export Ship shall be deemed to be the Time of Exportation of such Goods, and the Time of the last Clearance of any Ship shall be deemed to be the Time of Departure of such Ship.

Goods prohibited by Proclamation.

Forfeiture.

CL. The following Goods may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, be prohibited either to be exported or carried Coastwise: Arms, Ammunition, and Gunpowder, Military and Naval Stores, and any Articles which Her Majesty shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the Quantity of Military or Naval Stores, Provisions, or any Sort of Victual which may be used as Food by Man, and if any Goods so prohibited shall be exported from the United Kingdom or carried Coastwise, or be water-borne to be so exported or carried, they shall be forfeited.

IV. Coasting Trade.

As to the Coasting Trade of the United Kingdom:

All Trade by Sea from one Part of the United Kingdom to another to be deemed Coastwise.

CLI. All Trade by Sea from any one Part of the United Kingdom to any other Part thereof shall be deemed to be a Coasting Trade, and all Ships while employed therein shall be deemed to be Coasting Ships, and no Part of the United Kingdom, however situated with regard to any other Part, shall be deemed in Law, with reference to each other, to be Parts beyond the Seas; and if any Doubt shall at any Time arise as to what or to or from what Parts of the Coast of the United Kingdom shall be deemed a Passage by Sea, the Commissioners of the Treasury may determine and direct in what Cases the Trade by Water from One Port or Place in the United Kingdom to another of the same shall or shall not be deemed a Trade by Sea within the Meaning of this or any Act relating to the Customs.

Coasting Trade of United Kingdom.

CLII. No Goods or Passengers shall be carried Coastwise from One Part of the United Kingdom to another, except in British Ships.

Coasting Ship confined to Coasting Voyage.

CLIII. No Goods shall be carried in any Coasting Ship, except such as shall be laden to be so carried at some Port or Place in the United Kingdom, and no Goods shall be laden on board any Ship to be carried Coastwise until all Goods brought in such Ship from Parts beyond the Seas shall have been unladen; and if any Goods shall be taken into or put out of any Coasting Ship at Sea or over the Sea, or if any Coasting Ship shall touch at any Place over the Sea, or deviate from her Voyage, unless forced by unavoidable Circumstances, or if the Master of any Coasting Ship which shall have touched at any Place over the Sea shall not declare the same in Writing under his Hand to the Collector or Comptroller at the Port in the United Kingdom where such Ship shall afterwards first arrive, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Times and Places for landing and shipping.

CLIV. If any Goods shall be unshipped from any Ship arriving Coastwise, or be shipped or water-borne to be shipped to be carried Coastwise, on Sundays or Holidays, or unless in the Presence or with the Authority of the proper Officer of the Customs, or unless at such Times and Places as shall be appointed or approved by him for that Purpose, the same shall be forfeited, and the Master of the Ship shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

Master of Coasting Vessel to keep a Cargo Book.

CLV. The Master of every Coasting Ship shall keep or cause to be kept a Cargo Book, stating the Names of the Ship, the Master, and the Port to which she belongs, and of the Port to which she is bound on each Voyage, and shall at every Port of Lading enter in such Book the Name of such Port, and an Account of all Goods there taken on board such Ship, stating the Descriptions of the Packages and the Quantities and Descriptions of the Goods therein, and the Quantities and Descriptions of any Goods stowed loose, and the Names of the respective Shippers and Consignees, so far as such Particulars are known to him, and shall at every Port of Discharge of such Goods note the respective Days on which the same or any of them are delivered out of such Ship, and the respective Times of Departure from every Port of Lading and of Arrival at every Port of Discharge; and such Master shall, on Demand, produce such Book for the Inspection of any Officer of Customs, who shall be at liberty to make any Note or Remark therein; and if upon Examination any Package entered in the Cargo Book as containing Foreign Goods shall be found not to contain such Goods, such Package, with its Contents, shall be forfeited, or if any Package shall be found to contain Foreign Goods not entered in such Book, such Goods shall be forfeited; and if such Master shall fail correctly to keep such Cargo Book, or to produce the same, or if at any Time there be found on board such Ship any Goods not entered in such Book as laden, or any Goods noted as delivered, or if any Goods entered as laden or any Goods not noted as delivered be not on board, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for false Entries in such Book.

Account previous to Departure to be delivered to Collector.

CLVI. Before any Coasting Ship shall depart from the Port of Lading, an Account, with a Duplicate thereof, in the Form or to the Effect following, and signed by the Master, shall be delivered to the Collector or Comptroller; and the Collector or Comptroller shall retain the Duplicate, and return the original Account, dated and signed by him; and such Account shall be the Clearance of the Ship for the Voyage, and the Transire or Pass for the Goods expressed therein; and if any such Account be false, the Master shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Forfeiture of Goods.

CLVIII. Any Officer of the Customs may go on board any Coasting Ship in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or at any Period of her Voyage search such Ship, and examine all Goods on board, and all Goods then lading or unlading, and demand all Documents which ought to be on board such Ship; and the Collector or Comptroller may require that all or any such Documents shall be brought to him for Inspection, and the Master of any Ship refusing to produce such Documents, on Demand, or to Officer may go on board and examine any Coasting Ship.

V. British Possessions.

bring the same to the Collector or Comptroller when required, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

As to particular Provisions relating to the Channel Islands and British Possessions abroad:

Absolute Prohibitions.

CLIX. Gunpowder, Ammunition, Arms, or Utensils of War, except from the United Kingdom or any British Possession, and base or counterfeit Coin, are hereby absolutely prohibited to be imported or brought, either by Sea or Inland Carriage or Navigation, into the British Possessions in America and the Mauritius.

Restrictions.

Sugar (not being refined in Bond in the United Kingdom) and Molasses until Fifth of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and Rum, such Sugar, Molasses, and Rum being the Produce or Manufacture of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter (except as herein-after provided), or being of Foreign Produce or Manufacture, are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought into any of the British Possessions in the Continent of South America or in the West Indies (the Bahama or Bermuda Islands not included), or into the Mauritius, except to be warehoused for Exportation only, and may also by Her Majesty's Order in Council be prohibited to be imported into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands; and if any Goods shall be imported or brought into any of the British Possessions in America or the Mauritius, contrary hereto, the same shall be forfeited:

Sugar and Rum may be imported into the British Possessions in the West Indies and South America, and the Mauritius, in certain Cases.

Provided always, that it shall be lawful to import into any British Possessions in the West Indies and South America, and into the Mauritius, any Sugar or Rum the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter into which the Importation of Sugar or Rum the Produce of any Foreign Country, or of any British Possession into which Foreign Sugar or Rum may be legally imported, has been prohibited; provided that no such Sugar or Rum shall be so entered unless the Master of the importing Ship shall deliver to the proper Officer of Customs a Certificate of Origin under the Hand of the proper Officer at the Place where the same shall have been taken on board, stating the Name of the District in which such Sugar or Rum was produced, the Quantity and Quality or Strength thereof, as the Case may be, the Number and Denomination of the Packages containing the same, and the Name of the Ship in which they were laden, and of the Master thereof, and of the Officer giving the same; the Shipper of such Sugar or Rum shall likewise certify that there had been produced a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Collector or Assistant Collector of the Land or Customs Revenue of the District within which such Sugar and Rum was produced, that such Sugar or Rum was the Produce of such District, and that the Importation into such District of Foreign Sugar and Rum, or Sugar and Rum the Growth of any British Possession into which any Foreign Sugar or Rum can be legally imported, is prohibited, and the Master shall subscribe a Declaration that such Certificate was received by him at the Place where the Goods were taken on board, and that they are the Goods therein mentioned.

Foreign Reprints of Books under Copyright prohibited.

CLX. Any Books wherein the Copyright shall be subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other Country, shall be and are hereby absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British Possessions abroad: Provided always, that no such Books shall be prohibited to be imported as aforesaid unless the Proprietor of such Copyright, or his Agent, shall have given Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of Customs that such Copyright subsists, and in such Notice shall have stated when the Copyright will expire; and the said Commissioners shall cause to be made, and to be publicly exposed at the several Ports in the British Possessions abroad, from Time to Time, printed Lists of Books respecting which such Notice shall have been duly given, and all Books imported contrary thereto shall be forfeited; but nothing herein contained shall be taken to prevent Her Majesty from exercising the Powers vested in Her by the Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Ninety-five, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to the Protection in the Colonies of Works entitled to Copyright in the United Kingdom, to suspend in certain Cases such Prohibition.

Foreign Manufactures with British Marks.

CLXI. If any Articles of Foreign Manufacture, and any Packages of such Articles, bearing any Names, Brands, or Marks being or purporting to be the Names, Brands, or Marks of Manufacturers resident in the United Kingdom, shall be imported into any of the British Possessions abroad, the same shall be forfeited.

Sugar, &c., though British, deemed Foreign in certain Cases.

CLXII. All Sugar and Molasses, until the Fifth of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and Rum (although the same may be of British Plantations), exported from any of the British Possessions in America into which the like Goods of Foreign Production can be legally imported, shall, upon subsequent Importation from thence into any of the British Possessions in America or the Mauritius into which such Goods being of Foreign Production cannot be legally imported, or into the United Kingdom, be deemed to be of Foreign Production, and shall be liable on such Importation respectively to the same Duties or the same Forfeitures as Articles of the like Description being of Foreign Production would be liable to, unless the same shall have been duly warehoused, and exported from the Warehouse direct to such other British Possession, or to the United Kingdom, as the Case may be.

Coasting Trade of the British Possessions.

CLXIII. No Goods or Passengers shall be carried from One Part of any British Possession in Asia, Africa, or America to another Part of the same Possession, except in British Ships.

Ship and Cargo to be reported on Arrival. Particulars of Report.

CLXIV. The Master of every Ship arriving in any of the British Possessions in America or the Channel Islands, whether laden or in Ballast, shall come directly, and before Bulk be broken, to the Custom House for the Port or District where he arrives, and there make a Report in Writing to the proper Officer of Customs, in the same Form and Manner as herein-before provided on the Arrival of any Ship Ship in the United Kingdom, so far as the same may be applicable; and if any Goods be unladen from any Ship before such Report be made, or if the Master fail to make such Report, or make an untrue Report, or do not truly answer the Questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and if any Goods be not reported such Goods shall be forfeited. British Possessions. Penalty for false Report.

CLXV. The Master of every Ship bound from any British Possessions abroad, except the Territories subject to the Government of the Presidencies of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, shall deliver to the proper Officer of Customs an Entry Outwards under his Hand of such Ship, and also subscribe and deliver to such Officer a Content of the Cargo of such Ship, if any, or state that she is in Ballast, as the Case may be, and answer such Questions concerning the Ship, Cargo, if any, and Voyage, as shall be demanded of him, in the same Manner, as nearly as may be, as is prescribed to be observed on the Entry and Departure of any Ship from the United Kingdom, and thereupon the proper Officer shall give to the Master a Certificate of the Clearance of such Ship for her intended Voyage; and if the Ship shall depart without such Clearance, or if the Master shall deliver a false Content, or shall not truly answer the Questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds. Entry Outwards of Ship or Cargo. Penalty for not clearing, 50*l.*

CLXVI. Any Person entering Goods shall deliver to the proper Officer a Bill of Entry thereof, containing the Name of the Ship and of the Master, and of the Place to or from which bound, and the Particulars of the Quality and Quantity of the Goods, and the Packages containing the same, stating whether such Goods be the Produce of the British Possessions in America or not, and the proper Officer shall thereupon grant his Warrant for the lading or unlading of such Goods. Entry of Goods Inwards and Outwards.

CLXVII. No Goods shall be laden or water-borne to be laden on board any Ship, or unladen from any Ship, in any of the British Possessions in America or in the Channel Islands, until due Entry shall have been made of such Goods, and Warrant granted for the lading or unlading of the same; and no Goods shall be so laden or water-borne or so unladen in the said Channel Islands, except at some Place at which an Officer of the Customs is appointed to attend the lading and unlading of Goods, or at some Place for which a Sufferance shall be granted by the proper Officer of Customs for the lading and unlading of such Goods, and in the Presence or with the Permission of such Officer; but the Commissioners of Customs may make such Regulations for the carrying Coastwise of any Goods, or for the removing of any Goods for Shipment in the said Islands, as to them shall appear expedient; and all Goods laden, water-borne, or unladen contrary hereto, or to any Regulations to be so made, shall be forfeited. Entry of Goods to be laden or unladen. Regulations Inwards and Outwards. Regulations Coastwise. Forfeiture.

CLXVIII. No Goods shall be stated in such Certificate of Clearance of any Ship from any British Possessions to be the Produce of such Possession, unless such Goods shall have been so expressed in the Entry Outwards of the same; and all Goods not expressly stated in such Certificate of Clearance to be the Produce of such Possession shall, at the Place of Importation in any other such Possession, or in the United Kingdom, be deemed to be of Foreign Production. Goods not the Produce of British Possession to be Foreign Production.

CLXIX. Where there is no Officer of Customs, the principal Officer in the Civil Service of Her Majesty, or his Representative, shall be deemed to be the proper Officer for the Performance of all such Duties with respect to such Goods as are hereby required to be performed by the Collector or other Officer of Customs. Where no Officer of Customs Certificate by whom to be granted.

CLXX. Before any Clearing Officer permits any Ship, wholly or in part laden with Timber or Wood Goods, to clear out from any British Port in North America or in the Settlement of Honduras for any Port in the United Kingdom, at any Time after the First Day of September or before the First Day of May in any Year, he shall ascertain that the whole of the Cargo of such Ship is below Deck, and shall give the Master of such Ship a Certificate to that Effect; and no Master of any Ship so laden shall sail from any of the Ports aforesaid for any Port of the United Kingdom, at any such Time as aforesaid, until he has obtained such Certificate from the Clearing Officer. Clearing Officers to certify that Cargo is below Deck. Captains not to sail without Certificate.

CLXXI. No Master of any Ship in respect of which such Certificate as aforesaid has been obtained shall place, or permit or cause to be placed or remain, upon or above the Deck of such Ship, any Part of the Cargo thereof, until such Ship has arrived at the Port of her Destination: Provided always, that if the Master of any such Ship consider that it is necessary, in consequence of the springing a Leak or of other Damage received or apprehended during the Voyage, to remove any Portion of the Cargo upon Deck, he may remove or cause to be removed upon the Deck of such Ship so much of the Cargo, and may permit the same to remain there for such Time, as he considers expedient; provided also, that the Store Spars or other Articles necessary for the Ship's Use shall not be taken to be the Cargo for the Purposes of this Act. No Part of Cargo to be on Deck. Removal of Cargo in Cases of Leakage. Stores not Cargo.

CLXXII. If any Master of any Ship for which such Certificate as aforesaid is required sails or attempts to sail without having obtained such Certificate, or places or permits, or causes to be placed or to remain or be, upon or above the Deck of such Ship, any Part of the Cargo thereof, except in the Cases in which the same is not hereby forbidden, he shall for every Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding One hundred Pounds. Penalty for Default.

CLXXIII. The same Tonnage Duties shall be paid upon all Ships or Boats of the United States of America importing any Goods into either of the Provinces of Upper or Lower Canada as are or may be for the Time being payable in the United States of America on British Vessels or Boats entering the Harbours of the State from whence such Goods shall have been imported. As to Dues in Canada on American Boats.

CLXXIV. The Treaty concluded between Her Majesty and the United States of America, dated the Ninth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-two, stipulates that all the Produce of the Forest in Logs, Lumber, Timber, Timber Boards, Staves, or Shingles, or of Agriculture, not Certain Produce of the State of Maine to be treated as Produce of New Brunswick.

British Possessions.

not being manufactured, grown on any of those Parts of the State of Maine watered by the River Saint John or by its Tributaries, of which Fact reasonable Evidence shall, if required, be produced, shall have free Access into and through the said River, and its said Tributaries, having their Source within the State of Maine, to and from the Seaport at the Mouth of the River Saint John, and to and round the Falls of the said River, either by Boats, Rafts, or other Conveyance, and that when within the Province of New Brunswick the said Produce shall be dealt with as if it were the Produce of the said Province; and it being the Intention of the High Contracting Parties to the said Treaty that the aforesaid Produce should be dealt with as if it were the Produce of the Province of New Brunswick, the Produce in the said recited Treaty and herein-before described shall, so far as regards all Laws relating to Duties, Navigation, and Customs in force in the United Kingdom or in any of Her Majesty's Dominions, be deemed and taken to be and be dealt with as the Produce of the Province of New Brunswick; provided, that in all Cases in which Declarations and Certificates of Production or Origin and Certificates of Clearance would be required in respect of such Produce if it were the Produce of New Brunswick, similar Declarations and Certificates shall be required in respect of such Produce, and shall state the same to be the Produce of those Parts of the State of Maine which are watered by the River Saint John or by its Tributaries.

Newfoundland Fishing Certificates in lieu of Clearance during Fishing Season.

CLXXV. Whenever a Ship shall be cleared out from any Port in Newfoundland or in any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions for the Fisheries on the Banks or Coasts of Newfoundland or Labrador or the Dependencies thereof, without having on board an Article of Traffic (except only such Provisions, Nets, Tackle, and other Things as are usually employed in and about the said Fishery, and for the Conduct and carrying on of the same), the Master of any such Ship shall be entitled to demand from the principal Officer of Customs at such Port a Certificate under his Hand that such Ship hath been specially cleared out for the Newfoundland Fishery, and such Certificate shall be in force for the Fishing Season for the Year in which the same may be granted, and no longer; and upon the First Arrival in any Port in the said Colony of Newfoundland or its Dependencies of any Ship having on board any such Certificate as aforesaid, a Report thereof shall be made by the Master of such Ship to the principal Officer of Customs at such Port; and every Ship having such Certificate which has been so reported, and being actually engaged in the said Fishery, or in carrying Coastwise, to be landed or put on board any Ship engaged in the said Fishery, any Fish, Oil, Salt, Provisions, or other Necessaries for the Use and Purposes thereof, shall be exempt from all Obligation to make an Entry at or obtain any Clearance from any Custom House at Newfoundland, upon Arrival or Departure from any of the Ports or Harbours of the said Colony or its Dependencies, during the Continuance of the Fishing Season for which such Certificate may have been granted; and previously to obtaining a Clearance at the End of such Season for any Voyage at any of such Ports the Master of such Ship shall deliver up the before-mentioned Certificate to the principal Officer of the Customs of such Port: Provided always, that in case any such Ship shall have on board during the Time the same may be engaged in the said Fishery any Goods or Merchandise whatsoever other than Fish, Seals, Oil made of Fish or Seals, Salt, Provisions, and other Things, being the Produce of or usually employed in the said Fishery, such Ship shall forfeit the said Fishing Certificate, and shall thenceforth become and be subject and liable to all such and the same Rules, Restrictions, and Regulations as Ships in general are subject or liable to.

At the End of the Season the Certificate to be delivered up.

Ships trading to forfeit Certificate.

Certificate of Production for Sugar or Spirits.

Declaration of Grower.

CLXXVI. Persons in Her Majesty's Service detained, to be secured on board until Warrant procured.

CCXXXVII. Where any Person or Persons, being Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or of any Ship or Vessel in Her Majesty's Employment or Service, and liable to Detention, shall have been detained under any Law relating to the Customs, such Person or Persons, upon Notice thereof by the detaining Officer to the Commanding Officer of the Ship or Vessel, shall be placed in Security by such Commanding Officer on board such Ship or Vessel, until such detaining Officer shall have obtained a Warrant from a Justice for bringing such Person or Persons before him or any other Justice or Justices, to be dealt with according to Law, which Warrant such Justice is required to grant upon Complaint made to him by such Officer of Customs stating the Offence for which such Person or Persons is or are liable to Detention.

Any Person escaping may afterwards be detained.

CCXXXVIII. If any Person liable to be detained under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall not be detained at the Time of committing the Offence for which he is so liable, or shall after Detention make his Escape, such Person shall and may at any Time afterwards be detained, and taken before any Justice, to be dealt with as if detained at the Time of committing such Offence.

CCXXXIX. When-

Smuggling.

Magistrates to proceed to Conviction of Smugglers in certain Cases without an Order of Customs.

CCXXXIX. Whenever any Person shall have been detained, and taken before any Justice, for being found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, such Ship or Boat having on board or having had on board Spirits or Tobacco in such Casks or Packages as would under this or any other Act relating to Customs subject the same to Forfeiture, or for unshipping or for aiding or being concerned in the unshipping of any Spirits or Tobacco liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, or for carrying, conveying, or concealing, or for aiding or being concerned in the carrying, conveying, or concealing of any such Spirits or Tobacco, and it shall appear to such Justice that the Quantity of Spirits in respect of which such Person has been so detained does not exceed Two Gallons, or that the Quantity of Tobacco in respect of which such Person has been so detained does not exceed Ten Pounds Weight, such Justice may proceed summarily upon the Case without any Information, and although no Direction shall have been given by the Commissioners of Customs, and convict such Person of such Offence, and adjudge that such Person shall, in lieu of any other Penalty, forfeit any Sum not less than the single Value nor more than Treble the Value of such Goods, including the Duties of Importation due thereon, and in default of Payment of such Sum of Money commit such Person to any of Her Majesty's Gaols for any Time not exceeding One Month.

Where Persons are taken before a Justice for any Offence under any Act relating to the Customs, such Justice may order them to be detained, &c.

CCXL. When any Person shall have been detained for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and taken before any Justice, such Justice may, if he see reasonable Cause, order such Person to be detained in Gaol, or in the Custody of the Police or Constabulary Force, a reasonable Time, to obtain the Order of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue, and to prepare the necessary Informations, Convictions, and Warrants of Commitment, and at the Expiration of such Time to be brought before him, or any other Justice or Justices, who may then finally hear and determine the Matter; but any Person so detained may be liberated, on giving, by Recognizance, Security to the Satisfaction of such Justice in the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or in the Amount of the Penalty sought to be recovered, to appear at such Time and Place as shall be appointed by such Justice for hearing the Case.

Penalty on Persons offering Goods for Sale under Pretence of being run, &c.

CCXLI. If any Person shall offer for Sale any Goods under Pretence that the same are prohibited, or have been unshipped and run on Shore without Payment of Duties, all such Goods (although not liable to any Duties or prohibited) shall be forfeited, and every Person so offering the same for Sale shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods.

No Persons, except Officers, to take up Spirits in small Casks sunk or floating.

CCXLII. No Subject of Her Majesty, other than Officers of the Navy, Customs, or Excise, shall intermeddle with or take up any Spirits, being in Casks of less Content than Twenty Gallons, which may be found floating upon or sunk in the Sea within One hundred Leagues of the United Kingdom; and if any Spirits shall be so intermeddled with or taken up the same shall be forfeited, together with any Ship or Boat in which they are found.

Commissioners may mitigate or remit Punishments, &c.

CCXLIII. The Commissioners of the Treasury or Customs may mitigate or remit any Penalty or Fine, or any Part of any Penalty or Fine, incurred under this or any Act relating to the Customs, or release from Confinement any Person committed under this or any Act relating to the Customs, on such Terms and Conditions as to them shall appear proper.

Persons signaling Smuggling Vessels may be detained, and forfeit 100*l.*, or be kept to Hard Labour for One Year.

CCXLIV. No Person shall, after Sunset and before Sunrise between the Twenty-first Day of September and the First Day of April, or after the Hour of Eight in the Evening and before the Hour of Six in the Morning at any other Time of the Year, make, aid, or assist in making any Signal in or on board or from any Ship or Boat, or on or from any Part of the Coast or Shore of the United Kingdom, or within Six Miles of any Part of such Coast or Shore, for the Purpose of giving Notice to any Person on board any Smuggling Ship or Boat, whether any Person so on board of such Ship or Boat be or not within Distance to notice any such Signal; and if any Person, contrary to this Act, shall make or cause to be made, or aid or assist in making, any such Signal, such Person so offending shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and any Person may stop, arrest, and detain the Person so offending, and convey him before any Justice, who, if he see Cause, shall commit the Offender to the next County Gaol, there to remain until delivered by due Course of Law; and it shall not be necessary to prove on any Indictment or Information in such Case that any Ship or Boat was actually on the Coast; and the Offender, being duly convicted, shall, by Order of the Court before whom he shall be convicted, either forfeit the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, or, at the Discretion of such Court, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for any Term not exceeding One Year.

Proof of a Signal not being intended on Defendant.

CCXLV. If any Person be charged with or indicted for having made or caused to be made, or for aiding or assisting in making, any such Signal as aforesaid, the Burden of Proof that such Signal so charged as having been made with Intent and for the Purpose of giving such Notice as aforesaid was not made with such Intent and for such Purpose shall be upon the Defendant against whom such Charge is made or such Indictment is found.

Any Person may prevent Signals, &c.

CCXLVI. Any Person whatsoever may prevent any Signal being made as aforesaid, and may go upon any Lands for that Purpose, without being liable to any Indictment, Suit, or Action for the same.

Persons assembling, to the Number of Three or more, to run Spirits, Tobacco, &c., or obstructing prohibited to be imported, or the Duties for which have not been paid or secured, and every Person who shall obstruct any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, or any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, or any Person acting in his or their Aid or Assistance, or duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, in the Execution of his or their Duty, or in the due seizing of any Goods liable to Forfeiture by this Act or any Act relating to the Customs, or who shall rescue, attempt or endeavour to rescue, or cause to be rescued, any Goods which have been duly seized, or who shall before or at or after any Seizure stave, break, or otherwise destroy, or attempt, or endeavour to break, stave, or otherwise destroy, any Goods, to prevent the Seizure thereof or the securing of the same, shall, upon being duly convicted of any of the said Offences before any Justice of the Peace, be adjudged by such Justice for the First Offence to be imprisoned in any House of Correction, and there kept to Hard Labour, for any Term not less than Six nor more than Nine Months, and for the Second Offence for any Term not less than Nine nor more than Twelve Months, and for the Third or any subsequent Offence for Twelve Months.

Officers, to be sent to House of Correction to Hard Labour.

CCXLVIII. If any Persons, to the Number of Three or more, armed with Firearms or other offensive Weapons, shall, within the United Kingdom, or within the Limits of any Port, Harbour, or Creek thereof, be assembled in order to be aiding and assisting in the illegal landing, running, or carrying away of any prohibited Goods, or any Goods liable to any Duties which have not been paid or secured, or in rescuing or taking away any such Goods as aforesaid after Seizure from the Officer of the Customs, or other Officer authorized to seize the same, or from any Person or Persons employed by or assisting them, or from the Place where the same shall have been lodged by them, or in rescuing any Person who shall have been apprehended for any Offence made Felony by this or any Act relating to the Customs, or in the preventing the Apprehension of any Person who shall have been guilty of such Offence, or in case any Persons, to the Number of Three or more, so armed as aforesaid, shall, within the United Kingdom, or within the Limits of any Port, Harbour, or Creek thereof, be so aiding or assisting, every Person so offending, and every Person aiding, abetting, or assisting therein, shall, being thereof convicted, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court before which he shall be convicted, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his natural Life, or for any Term not less than Fifteen Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

Three or more armed Persons assembled to land or rescue smuggled Goods, guilty of Felony.

CCXLIX. If any Person shall maliciously shoot at any Vessel or Boat belonging to Her Majesty's Navy, or in the Service of the Revenue, within One hundred Leagues of any Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or shall maliciously shoot at, maim, or wound any Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marines, being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or any Officer of Customs or Excise, or any Person acting in his Aid or Assistance, or duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, in the Execution of his Office or Duty, every Person so offending, and every Person aiding, abetting, or assisting therein, shall, upon Conviction, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court before which he shall be convicted, to be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of his natural Life, or for any Term not less than Fifteen Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years.

Shooting at Boats belonging to Navy or Revenue Service, Felony.

CCL. If any Person, in company with more than Four others, be found with any Goods liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, or in company with One other Person, within Five Miles of the Sea Coast or of any Tidal River, and carrying offensive Arms or Weapons, or disguised in any Way, every such Person shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall, on Conviction of such Offence, be transported as a Felon for the Term of Seven Years.

Five Persons in company, having smuggled Goods, or Two armed or disguised, Felony.

CCLI. If any Person shall, by Force or Violence, assault, resist, or obstruct any Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marines, being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or any Officer of Customs or Excise, or other Person duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, in the due Execution of his or their Duty, or any Person acting in his or their Aid, every Person so offending, being thereof convicted, shall be transported for Seven Years, or sentenced to be imprisoned in any House of Correction or Common Gaol, and kept to Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Three Years, at the Discretion of the Court before whom such Offender shall be tried and convicted as aforesaid.

Persons assaulting Officers by Force or Violence may be transported.

CCLII. The Commanding Officer for the Time being of any Vessel or Boat employed for the Prevention of Smuggling may haul any such Vessel or Boat upon any Part of the Coasts of the United Kingdom, or the Shores, Banks, or Beaches of any River, Creek, or Inlet of the same, (not being a Garden or Pleasure Ground, or Place ordinarily used for any Bathing Machine or Machines,) which shall be deemed most convenient for that Purpose, and moor any such Vessel or Boat on such Part of the aforesaid Coasts, Shores, Banks, and Beaches below High-water Mark, and over which the Tide flows on ordinary Occasions, and to continue such Vessel or Boat so moored as aforesaid for such Time as the said Commanding Officer shall deem necessary and proper; and such Commanding Officer, or Person or Persons acting under his Direction, shall not be liable to any Indictment, Action, or Suit for so doing.

Commanding Officers may haul their Vessels on shore without being liable to Suit.

CCLIII. Any Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marines, being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or any Officer of Customs or Excise, or any Person acting in his or their Aid, or duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, when on Duty, may patrol upon and pass freely along and over any Part of the Coasts of the United Kingdom, or any Railway, or the Shores or Banks of any River, Creek, or Inlet of the same (not being a Garden or Pleasure Ground); and any such Officer or Person so patrolling shall not be liable to any Indictment, Action, or Suit for so doing.

Officers of Army, &c. may patrol Coasts without being liable to Suit.

Smuggling.

Compensations and Rewards.

As to Compensations and Rewards:

Officers wounded to be provided for, &c.

CCLIV. If any Officer or Seaman employed in the Service of the Customs or Inland Revenue shall be killed, maimed, wounded, or in any way injured in the due Execution of his Office, or if any Person acting in his Aid, or duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, shall be so killed, maimed, wounded, or in any way injured while so aiding such Officer or Seaman, or so employed, the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue respectively may, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, make such Provision for such Officer or Person, or for the Widows and Families of such as shall be killed, as they may see fit.

Rewards for detaining Smugglers.

CCLV. The Commissioners of Customs may award to any Officer or other Person detaining any Person liable to Detention under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, if convicted, such Reward as they may think fit, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each Person.

Rewards out of Penalties.

CCLVI. The Commissioners of Customs may order such Reward as they see fit out of any pecuniary Penalty or Composition to any Officer or other Person by whose Means the same is recovered.

Rewards to Officers making Seizures.

CCLVII. The Commissioners of Customs may order to be paid in respect of any Seizure made under this or any Act relating to the Customs, to the Person or Persons making the same, such Rewards as they may see fit, not exceeding the Value of the Goods or Things so seized, and for this Purpose the Value of Spirits and Tobacco seized as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to be such as the Lords of the Treasury or the Commissioners of Customs may think fit.

How Value is to be ascertained.

CCLVIII. In all Cases where any Penalty the Amount of which is to be determined by the Value of any Goods is directed to be sued for under any Act relating to the Customs or Excise, such Value shall, as regards Proceedings in any Court or before Justices, be estimated and taken according to the Rate and Price for which Goods of the like Kind but of the best Quality upon which the Duties of Importation shall have been paid were sold at or about the Time of the Offence, or according to the Rate and Price for which the like sort of Goods were sold in Bond at or about the Time of the Offence, with the Duties due thereon added to such Rate or Price in Bond, except as to Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, and Snuff Work, the Value of which shall, for the Purpose of any Suit or Proceeding under this or any Act relating to the Customs, be estimated at the same Rate as that of unmanufactured Tobacco upon which the Duties of Importation shall have been paid.

All Rewards to Officers of Army, Navy, or Marines to be regulated by Order in Council.

CCLIX. Every Reward or Share of any such Seizure, or of the Value thereof, payable to any Officer or Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Petty Officers, Seamen, or Privates of Her Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or acting under the Orders of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners of the Admiralty, shall be divided and distributed in such Proportions, and according to such Rules, Regulations, and Orders, as Her Majesty shall by Her Order or Orders in Council or by Her Royal Proclamation in that Behalf be pleased to direct and appoint.

Commissioners may distribute Officers Shares of Seizure so as to reward Persons not actually present.

CCLX. The Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue respectively may, in case af any Seizure of Ships, Boats, or Goods, or of the Apprehension of any Parties, under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, direct the Distribution of the Seizor's Share of such Ships, Boats, or Goods, or of any Penalties or Rewards that may be recovered on account of any Seizure, so that any other Person through whose Information or Means such Seizure shall have been made or Penalty recovered or Party apprehended, and who may by them be deemed to be so entitled, may participate in such Proportions as the said Commissioners shall respectively deem expedient.

Rewards to Persons giving Information of Goods floating or sunk in the Sea.

CCLXI. If any Person shall discover any Spirits in Casks of less Content than Twenty Gallons found floating upon or sunk in the Sea, and shall give Information to any Officer of the Customs, or other Person duly authorized to make Seizure of such Spirits, so that Seizure shall be made of the same, the Person giving such Information shall be entitled to and shall receive such Reward as the Commissioners of Customs may direct.

Collusive Seizures.

As to collusive Seizures:

Penalty on Officers and Persons making collusive Seizures, or taking Bribes, and on Persons offering them.

CCLXII. If any Officer of Customs or Excise, or of the Army, Navy, or Marines, duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, shall make any collusive Seizure, or deliver up, or make any Agreement to deliver up or not to seize any Vessel or Boat, or any Goods liable to Forfeiture, or shall take any Bribe, Gratuity, Recompence, or Reward for the Neglect or Nonperformance of his Duty, or conspire or connive with any Person to import or bring into the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, or any of the British Possessions abroad, or be in any way concerned in the Importation or bringing into the United Kingdom, or the said Islands or Possessions, of any Goods prohibited to be imported or liable to Duties of Customs for the Purpose of seizing any Ship, Boat, or Goods, and obtaining any Reward for such Seizure or otherwise, every such Officer or other Person shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and be rendered incapable of serving Her Majesty in any Office whatever, either civil or military; and every Person who shall give or offer, or promise to give or procure to be given, any Bribe, Recompence, or Reward to, or shall make any collusive Agreement with, any such Officer or Person as aforesaid to induce him in any way to neglect his Duty, or to do, conceal, or connive at any Act whereby any of the Provisions of any Act of Parliament relating to the Customs may be evaded, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

As

As to the Course of Procedure for recovering Penalties and enforcing Forfeitures under this or any other Act relating to the Customs:

Legal Proceedings generally.

IX. Jurisdiction. Penalties and Forfeitures, how to be sued for.

CCLXIII. In all Suits or Proceedings at the Suit of the Crown for the Recovery of any Duty or Penalty, or the Enforcement of any Forfeiture under this or any Act relating to the Customs, the Parties thereto shall be entitled to recover Costs against each other in the same Manner as if such Suits or Proceedings were conducted and had between Subject and Subject, and the like Amendments may be made in all such Proceedings by the Judge or Court as may now be made in Civil Actions; and all Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures incurred under or imposed by this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and the Liability to Forfeiture of any Goods seized under the Authority thereof, shall and may, except as is herein-after provided, be sued for, prosecuted, determined, and recovered by Action of Debt, Information, or other appropriate Proceeding in the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, or in the Royal Courts of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, in the Name of the Attornies General for England or Ireland respectively, or of the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or of some Officer of Customs or Excise, and for the Recovery or Enforcement of any Penalty or Forfeiture, by Information in the Name of some Officer of Customs or Excise, before One or more Justice or Justices in the United Kingdom, or before any Governor, Deputy Governor, or Deemster, or other Magistrate, in the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands: Provided always, that where any Goods shall have been seized in the United Kingdom, with regard to which the Amount of Duties or Penalties claimed by the Crown shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, such Seizure or Penalties shall not be sued for or enforced in any of the said Superior Courts, but by Information before any One or more Justice or Justices, Governor, Deputy Governor, Deemster, or other Magistrate as aforesaid, or by Information, Suit, or other appropriate Proceeding in the County Courts, if in England, the Assistant Barristers Courts, if in Ireland, and the Sheriffs Courts, if in Scotland, for which Purposes the said Courts respectively shall have Jurisdiction in such Cases to the Extent of One hundred Pounds, with Power to enforce or mitigate any Penalty sought to be recovered, unless upon Consideration of the Facts and Circumstances of, or the Questions of Law involved in, any Case so excepted from the Jurisdiction of the Superior Courts of Common Law, it shall appear to the Commissioners of Customs desirable that such Case should be tried in a Superior Court, in which Case the said Commissioners shall certify their Opinion that it is a proper Case to be tried in the said Superior Courts to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may thereupon make and issue an Order to the said Commissioners of Customs, authorizing them to bring such Case in such Superior Court, and the Purport of such Order shall be endorsed on any Process to be issued out of such Court in such Case at the Suit or Prosecution of the Crown in the Words following: "By Order of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's "Treasury, this Case appearing to them to be a fit Case to be tried in Her Majesty's Court of "Exchequer," and the same shall confer Jurisdiction on such Superior Court to try such Case.

Proviso where the Duties and Penalties sought to be recovered shall not exceed 100*l.*

Where Suits for Recovery of Duties and Penalties, though not exceeding 100*l.*, may be prosecuted before a Superior Tribunal.

CCLXIV. It shall be optional for the Defendent in any Case, except as herein-after provided, where the Amount of Duties or Penalties claimed by the Crown shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to require that, instead of proceeding against him on account thereof by Information before any Justice or Justices as aforesaid, the Proceedings shall be brought in a Superior Court of Law, and upon the Request in Writing of such Defendant, delivered to the Officer by whom the Goods shall have been seized, or to the Solicitor of Customs, such Proceedings may be instituted in a Superior Court, for which Purpose, on Notice by the Defendent to the Justice or Justices if Proceedings have been already commenced before them, such Justice or Justices shall adjourn the Case for One Week to afford the Defendant an Opportunity of delivering such Request; and in order to confer Jurisdiction on such Superior Court it shall be sufficient to state such Request on the Back of any Process to be issued in such Case, in the Words following, "On the Requisition of Defendant, who prefers a Trial by One of Her Majesty's "Superior Courts of Law to a Trial before Justices," and such Endorsement on the Process, signed by the Solicitor of Customs, shall be Evidence to the Court of the same, notwithstanding the Provisions herein-before contained: Provided that in any Case where Proceedings shall have been already commenced before any Justice or Justices, and the Defendant shall be under Bail or Recognizance to appear before such Justice or Justices, or in Custody for Default of such Bail, such Proceedings shall not be removed, but such Justice or Justices shall hear and determine the Case.

Proceedings at the Option of Defendant to be instituted in Superior Courts, though the Sum claimed for Duties and Penalties does not exceed 100*l.*

CCLXV. If any Suit or Prosecution for the Recovery or Enforcement of any Penalty or Forfeiture, in which the Amount of Duties or Penalties claimed by the Crown shall exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds, shall have been commenced in any of the said Superior Courts, the Commissioners of Customs, at their Discretion, may, on the Defendant's Request in Writing to the Solicitor of Customs, order such Suit or Prosecution to be brought by Information before any Justice or Justices, whereupon such Suit or Prosecution in such Superior Court shall cease, and on the Production of an Order of any Two or more Commissioners of Customs directing the bringing such Proceeding before such Justice or Justices, they shall receive such Information, and in due Course proceed to hear and determine the same.

CCLXVI. Whenever the Commissioners or the proper Officer of Customs shall in any Case proceed by Information against any Person or Persons for any Offence under this or any other Act relating to the Customs before any Justice or Justices, instead of instituting such Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer, and in which Case, if such Proceedings were had in such Court, a Capias might issue for the Purpose of arresting and holding the Offender or Offenders to Bail, any such Justice or Justices shall and may, on sufficient Information on Oath being given before him that the Offence charged has been committed,

Where Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer by Capias is waived in favour of the Subject, Justices may issue Warrant and admit to Bail committed, issue his or their Warrant to apprehend and bring such Offender or Offenders before him or any other Justice, and on his or their being so brought to require him or them to give by Recognizance Security to the Satisfaction of any such Justice in such Amount as he may deem sufficient to appear before him or any other Justice or Justices at a Time and Place appointed by him or them for the Hearing of the Case, and in the meantime in default of such Security to commit such Offender or Offenders to Gaol, or to the Custody of the Police or other Constabulary Force.

Penalties joint and several may be sued for by joint and several Information.

CCLXVII. When by any Act relating to the Customs a Penalty jointly and severally incurred by any Number of Persons, such Persons may be proceeded against jointly by One Information, or severally by separate Informations, as Her Majesty's Attornies General for England and Ireland, and as the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or the Commissioners of Customs, may deem expedient; and in case of a Proceeding against such several Persons by joint Information for Recovery of the Penalty or Penalties so severally incurred by each, the Penalty or Penalties shall be recoverable against each, notwithstanding that any One or other of such Persons so jointly proceeded against may have allowed Judgment to go by Confession or Default, or that the Penalty adjudged to be paid by any One or other of the Defendants so jointly sued may be for a different Amount from that of the Penalty in which any One or other of such several Persons may be convicted, or that any One or other of such several Persons so jointly prosecuted may be acquitted, and no Judgment on any such Information shall be reversed or avoided, or Error in Law alleged therein, on the Ground of any such Judgment being obtained by Confession, or Default of any of the Persons, nor on account of any Difference in the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties in which any One or more of such Persons may be convicted, or the Acquittal of any such Persons; but every such Judgment shall be valid and effectual against any or all of the said several Persons so jointly proceeded against, and for the full Amount of the Penalty or Penalties in which such Person or Persons shall have been severally or respectively convicted.

Persons previously convicted may, on Verdict, be imprisoned in House of Correction.

CCLXVIII. When any Verdict shall pass against any Person in any Court of Record for any Offence for which any pecuniary Penalty shall have been inflicted by any Act relating to the Customs, and it shall be made to appear that such Person had been previously convicted of any similar Offence, the presiding Judge or Judges may order that such Person shall, in lieu of Payment of any Penalty, be imprisoned in any House of Correction for a Period not less than Six nor more than Twelve Months, and the Governor or Keeper of such House of Correction is hereby required to receive any Person committed under such Order.

Proceedings before Justices.

As to Proceedings before Justices for Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures, and the Prosecution of Offences:

Informations, Convictions, &c. to be in Form, &c. in Schedule.

CCLXIX. All Informations exhibited before any Justice or Justices for any Offence committed against or Forfeiture incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and all Summonses, Convictions, and Condemnations for such Offences, and Forfeitures, and all Warrants of any Justice or Justices founded upon such Convictions, may be in the Form or to the Effect in Schedule (B.) to this Act; and the Form of Information given in the said Schedule, and the Counts therein contained, with reference to any Offences created by or punishable under the several Sections of this Act to which the same or any of them relate, shall be applicable to and sufficient for all Purposes in the Prosecution of such Offences and Forfeitures; and where Two or more Counts are given upon the same Section those Counts may be used which apply most nearly to the Circumstances of the Case; and any One or more of the said Counts may be included in the same Information together with any other Count or Counts; and in any Case or for any Offence or Forfeiture for which no Count is given in the said Schedule, such Count or Counts may be substituted or added as Circumstances may require; and every such Information and every Conviction and Warrant of Commitment or Condemnation for such Offence or Forfeiture shall be deemed valid and sufficient in which the Offence or Forfeiture is set forth either in the Words of the Act or Acts by which the Penalty for such Offence has been inflicted or under which any Forfeiture has been incurred, or in the Words of the Information by this Act prescribed, and where in any such Forms the Word "Customs" is used to describe the Commissioners or Officers of Customs, the Words "Inland Revenue" or "Excise" may be substituted, as the Case may require, and the like Counts shall be applicable to and sufficient for the like Purposes, and be used in like Manner in any Information filed in any Court having Jurisdiction in such Cases under this or any Act relating to the Customs; and no Conviction, Warrant of Commitment, or Condemnation shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein; and no Party shall be entitled to be discharged out of Custody on account of such Defect, provided it be alleged in such Warrant that the said Party has been convicted of such Offence, and that it shall appear to the Court or Judge before whom such Warrant is returned that such Conviction proceeded upon good and valid Grounds; and every such Warrant may be executed by any Officer of Customs, and in any Part of the United Kingdom, without further Endorsement or Sanction than that of the Justice issuing the same; and no Objection shall be taken or allowed to any Information, Complaint, or Summons for any alleged Defect therein in Substance or in Form, or for any Variance between such Information, Complaint, or Summons and the Evidence adduced on the Part of the Informant or Complainant at the hearing of such Information or Complaint.

Justices may summon Offender.

CCLXX. Upon the exhibiting of any Information or Complaint before any Justice or Justices for any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs, for which Offence the Party charged is not liable to be detained, or by which Information any Penalty or Forfeiture shall be sought to be recovered, or any Punishment of Hard Labour sought to be inflicted, and where such Information shall have been exhibited exhibited before such Justice or Justices within Three Years next after the Date of the Offence committed, such Justice or Justices or any other Justice or Justices having Jurisdiction in that Behalf from Time to Time and at any Time afterwards may issue his or their Summons directed to such Party, stating shortly the Matter of such Information or Complaint, and requiring him personally to appear at a certain Time and Place before the same or any other Justice or Justices to answer to the said Information or Complaint, and to be further dealt with according to Law; and every such Summons shall be served by any Officer of Customs or Excise, or by any Person to whom the same shall be delivered for that Purpose, upon the Party to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the Party personally, or by leaving the same at his last known Place of Abode, or on board any Ship or Vessel to which such Party may belong or may have lately belonged, and every such Summons so served shall be deemed sufficiently served.

Legal Proceedings generally.

Summons how to be served.

On Attendance of the Party on the Day and at Place appointed, Justices may hear and determine the Case.

CCLXXI. If on the Day and at the Place appointed in such Summons as aforesaid the Party so summoned shall appear before the Justice or Justices who are to hear and determine such Complaint or Information, then such Justice or Justices shall proceed to hear and determine the same, and upon Proof of the Matter contained in such Complaint or Information, either upon the Confession of the Party or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, shall convict the Party charged in such Complaint or Information.

If Party summoned to answer do not appear, Justice to proceed as if he had appeared.

CCLXXII. If upon the Day and at the Place appointed in and by such Summons for the Appearance of the Party so summoned, in case he shall fail to appear in obedience to such Summons, then and in every such Case, if it be proved upon Oath or Affirmation to the Justice or Justices then present that such Summons was duly served upon such Party a reasonable Time before the Time appointed for his Appearance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices to proceed ex parte to the Hearing of such Information or Complaint, and to adjudicate thereon as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Party had personally appeared before him or them in obedience to such Summons.

Justices may condemn Goods liable to Forfeiture.

CCLXXIII. When any Information shall have been exhibited before any Justice for the Forfeiture of any Goods whatsoever seized under this or any Act relating to the Customs, it shall be lawful for such Justice and he is hereby required to summon the Party to whom such Goods belonged, or from whom they were seized, to appear before him or any other Justice or Justices, and such Summons directed to the Party being left at his last Place of Abode, or on board any Ship to which such Party may belong or have lately belonged, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently served, and upon his or their Appearance or Default such Justice or Justices may proceed to the Examination of the Matter, and upon due Proof that the Goods are liable to Forfeiture under this or any Act relating to the Customs may condemn the said Goods.

Justices may summon Witnesses.

Service of Summons.

CCLXXIV. Any Justice before whom any Complaint or Information under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be judicially brought may summon any Person required as a Witness, wherever in the United Kingdom such Person shall be or reside, to appear before him or any other Justice or Justices to testify what he shall know concerning the Matter of such Complaint or Information; and if any Person so summoned shall refuse or neglect to appear at the Time and Place appointed by such Summons, and no just Excuse shall be offered for such Neglect or Refusal, then, after Proof upon Oath or Affirmation that such Summons was duly served upon such Person, either personally or by leaving the same at his last or usual Place of Abode, or on board any Ship to which such Person may belong, or who having appeared according to the Exigency of such Summons shall refuse to take Oath, or, if a Quaker or other Person having legal Power to make Affirmation, refuse to affirm, or shall refuse to give Evidence or to answer according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief any legal Question required of him, such Person shall for every such Default or Offence forfeit such Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds as such Justice shall see fit.

Penalty for neglecting to attend.

Offences on the Waters, &c., and Jurisdiction.

CCLXXV. Where any Offence shall be committed in any Place upon the Water not being within any County of the United Kingdom, or where the Officers have any Doubt whether such Place is within the Boundaries or Limits of any such County, such Offence shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed and taken to be an Offence committed on the High Seas; and for the Purpose of giving Jurisdiction under this Act every Offence shall be deemed to have been committed, and every Cause of Complaint to have arisen, either in the Place in which the same actually was committed or arose, or in any Place on Land where the Offender or Person complained against may be or be brought.

Justice of adjoining County may act when required.

CCLXXVI. When the Attendance of a Justice having Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence is committed cannot be conveniently obtained, it shall be lawful for any Magistrate of any neighbouring or adjoining County to that in which the Offence was deemed to have been committed to hear and determine any Information exhibited before him, and to have the same Powers and Authorities in all respects as to any Proceedings under this or any other Act relating to the Customs as if he were a Justice for the County in which the Offence was committed or deemed to be committed.

Justice of Counties to have concurrent Jurisdiction in Cities, Boroughs, &c. situate in such Counties.

CCLXXVII. Where any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs shall be committed in any City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, any Justice or Justices having Jurisdiction therein, and any Justice or Justices of any County within which the same is or are situated, shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine the same; and all Powers vested in any Justice or Justices of the Peace by virtue of this Act shall be and the same are hereby vested in and may be exercised in the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands by any Governor, Deemster, or other Magistrate of the said Isle or Islands; and for the Purposes of this Act the Jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the Borough of Gravesend

Legal Proceedings generally.

Gravesend in the County of Kent shall be deemed to extend on the River Thames from Yantlet Creek to Broadness Point in the Northfleet Hope, and shall include every Part of the said River between those Limits respectively.

ustice may commit in default of Payment of Penalty until paid.

CCLXXVIII. In case of the Nonpayment of any Penalty incurred for any Offence in respect of which the Offender is not liable to Detention, such Justice or Justices or any other Justice or Justices may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, commit such Party to any of Her Majesty's Gaols within his or their Jurisdiction, there to remain until the Penalty shall be paid.

Officers of Customs may execute Warrants of Commitment.

CCLXXIX. Such Warrants may be executed in any Part of the United Kingdom by any Officer of Customs, and such Justice or Justices are hereby also authorized and required, when such Party is convicted of any Offence for which the Punishment of Hard Labour is inflicted, to commit such Party by such Warrant to any House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for such Time as may be authorized by this or any other Act relating to the Customs.

Justices may mitigate Penalties in certain Cases to One Fourth.

CCLXXX. Where any Person shall or may be convicted before any Justice or Justices as aforesaid in any Penalty or Penalties incurred as aforesaid, and except as is herein-after provided, the said Justice or Justices may, in Cases where upon Consideration of the Circumstances they shall deem it expedient so to do, and for a First Offence only, mitigate the Payment of the said Penalty or Penalties so as the Sum to be paid by such Person be not less than One Fourth Part of the Amount of the Penalty in which such Person shall have been convicted.

Persons detained and convicted to be committed to Gaol for Nonpayment without Mitigation, or to Hard Labour where required by this Act.

CCLXXXI. Any Justice or Justices before whom any Person liable to be detained and who shall have been detained for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be brought may either on the Confession of such Person of such Offence, or on Proof thereof upon Oath, convict such Person of any such Offence, and every Person so convicted shall immediately upon such Conviction pay, without any Mitigation, into the Hands of such Justice or Justices, for the Use of Her Majesty, the Penalty imposed for such Offence, or in default thereof the said Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, commit such Person so convicted as aforesaid and making such Default as aforesaid to any Gaol or Prison, there to remain until such Penalty shall be paid; and such Justice or Justices may also, when any such Person is convicted of any Offence for which the Punishment of Hard Labour is inflicted, commit such Person to any House of Correction, there to be kept to Hard Labour for such Time as they shall be authorized to do by this or any other Act or Acts relating to the Customs.

Penalties and Forfeitures to be paid to Commissioners.

CCLXXXII. All Penalties and Forfeitures recovered under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be paid to the Commissioners of Customs, and all Penalties and Forfeitures recovered under any Act relating to the Excise shall be paid to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or to the Persons appointed by such Commissioners respectively to receive the same, and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be applied by such Commissioners respectively in such Manner as the Law directs.

Commitment and Punishment.

As to the Commitment and Punishment of Offenders after Conviction, and the Mitigation or Increase of such Punishment under certain Circumstances:

Any Person committed in default of Payment of a less than 100*l.* to be discharged in Six Months.

CCLXXXIII. Where any Person shall have been committed by any Justice or Justices to any Prison for Nonpayment of any Penalty incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs less than One hundred Pounds, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison is hereby authorized and required to discharge such Person at the End of Six Months from the Commencement of his Imprisonment.

Justices may imprison in default of Payment of Penalty, and if Party previously convicted may sentence to Hard Labour.

CCLXXXIV. Where any Person shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justices of any Offence for which any Penalty of One hundred Pounds or upwards shall have been inflicted by this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the said Justice or Justices may, if he or they shall think fit, adjudge that such Person shall in default of paying such Penalty be imprisoned for such Offence, if it be a first one, in any Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction for a Period of not less than Six nor more than Nine Months; and if it shall appear that such Party had been before convicted of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice or Justices, if he or they shall think fit, to order and adjudge that such Person shall in lieu of such Penalty be imprisoned in any House of Correction, and there kept to Hard Labour for any Period not less than Six nor more than Twelve Months.

Justices may commit to nearest House of Correction, if none in their Jurisdiction.

CCLXXXV. When any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs for which such Person is liable to be sentenced to Hard Labour, and such Conviction shall take place before any Justice or Justices within whose Jurisdiction there is no House of Correction, such Justice or Justices shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals, commit such Offender to any Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction wherein the Sentence of Hard Labour is or can be executed, or to the House of Correction nearest to the Place where such Offender is convicted, for such Time as has herein-before been limited for a first or subsequent Offence respectively; and the Governor or Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction is hereby required to receive such Offender and to obey such Warrant in all respects as if such Gaol or House of Correction was within the Jurisdiction of such Justice or Justices.

Justices may commute Hard Labour where Offender is a Female, &c.

CCLXXXVI. Where any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs for which such Person would be liable to be committed to Hard Labour, it shall and may be lawful for the Justice or Justices before whom such Person is so convicted, if such Person be a Female or if a Male from physical Infirmity incapable of Hard Labour, to order and adjudge that that such Person shall, in lieu of being subjected to Hard Labour, be imprisoned in any Gaol within their Jurisdiction for the Period during which such Person would have been liable to be kept to Hard Labour, but in all such Cases the Cause of Mitigation shall be stated in the Warrant of Commitment.

Legal Proceedings generally.

CCLXXXVII. Where any Person shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justices of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs for which such Person is liable to be committed to Hard Labour, and it shall at any Time during the Imprisonment of such Person be made to appear to the said or any other Justice or Justices that such Person had before been convicted of a similar Offence, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices and he and they are hereby required to commit such Offender to some House of Correction to be kept to Hard Labour for any Period not less than Nine nor more than Twelve Months in the whole from the Date of the First Commitment, and to amend the Warrant of Commitment accordingly, and without including in such Amendment any Reference to the former Conviction; and any Gaoler in whose Custody such Person shall be is hereby required upon a written Order, signed by any Justice, to produce such Person before such last-mentioned Justice.

If Prisoner be found to have been previously convicted, Imprisonment may be extended.

CCLXXXVIII. Where any married Woman shall be convicted before any Justice or Justices of any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs she shall, in default of paying any Penalty she may have incurred, be liable to be committed to Prison.

Married Women may be committed.

CCLXXXIX. The actual Expenses incurred by any County, City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, in consequence of the Commitment of any Person to Hard Labour under this or any Act or Acts relating to the Customs, shall be repaid out of the Consolidated Customs by an Order of the Commissioners of Treasury in such Manner and to such Amount as they shall direct; and for the necessary Subsistence of any poor Person confined in any Prison in the United Kingdom under or by virtue of any Exchequer or other Process for the Recovery of any Duties or Penalties, either upon Bond or otherwise, under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the Commissioners of Customs may allow any Sum, not exceeding Sevenpence Halfpenny per Diem, to be made for any such poor Person out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs.

Expenses incurred by Commitment of Smugglers to Hard Labour to be paid out of Consolidated Customs.

As to the Removal of Proceedings before Justices under the Customs Laws:

Removal of Proceedings.

CCXC. No Writ of Certiorari shall issue to remove any Proceedings before any Justice or Justices under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, nor shall any Writ of Habeas corpus issue to bring up the Body of any Person who shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justices under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, unless the Party against whom such Proceeding shall have directed, or who shall have been so convicted, or his Attorney or Agent, shall state by Affidavit in Writing duly sworn the Grounds of Objection to such Proceedings or Conviction; and upon the Return to such Writ of Certiorari or Habeas corpus, no Objection shall be entertained by the Court other than such as shall have been stated in such Affidavit; and any Justice or Justices shall and may amend any Information, Conviction, or Warrant of Commitment for any Offence under this or any such Act at any Time, whether before or after Conviction.

Writs of Certiorari and Habeas corpus not to issue except on Affidavit.

CCXCI. No such Writ shall issue without Notice in Writing to the Solicitor for the Customs, and no Return to any such Writ shall be considered by any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, or the Judges thereof, unless there shall be produced to such Court or Judge an Affidavit in Writing duly sworn stating that Notice of the issuing of such Writ was given to the Solicitor of Customs or left at his Office Four clear Days before the Return of such Writ; and with respect to all such Writs there shall be an Interval of Four clear Days at least between the Day of Issue and the Day of the Return thereof, and any such Writ issuing without Notice, or not in conformity with the Directions herein contained, shall be void to all Intents and Purposes.

No Writ of Habeas without Notice to Solicitor of Customs.

As to Justice Clerks Fees in Prosecutions under the Customs Laws:

Justices Clerks Fees.

CCXCII. The Fees to Justices Clerks shall be regulated and governed by the Table of Fees to this Act annexed, and shall be allowed to and taken by such Clerks in respect of the Matters therein mentioned, in lieu of all other Fees heretofore chargeable for the like Matters.

Justices Clerks Fees.

As to Proceedings in the Superior Courts for Penalties:

Superior Courts.

CCXCIII. All Suits, Prosecutions, or Informations for Recovery of Penalties under this or any Act relating to the Customs in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh may be commenced either by Writ of Subpœna or Capias as the First Process at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs, in which shall be specified the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties sued for, and if by Capias the Person against whom such Capias shall issue shall be bound with Two sufficient Sureties to the Party to whom such Capias shall be directed to appear in the Court out of which such Capias shall issue at the Day of the Return of such Writ to answer such Information, and shall likewise at the Time of such appearing be bound to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, with Two sufficient Sureties, or, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, more than Two, to be acknowledged in the same Court, to answer and pay all the Penalties so sued for, or such other Sum, not exceeding the Penalty or Penalties sought to be recovered, as the Commissioners of Customs, or the Judge upon whose Fiat such Capias shall issue, may see fit, in case such Person shall be convicted thereof, or to yield the Body of such Person to Prison, and in default of being bound by such respective Sureties the Person against whom such Capias shall issue shall be taken to Prison.

Procedure for Penalties.

Service of Subpœna.

CCXCIV. In any Case where the Commissioners shall waive the Right of issuing Writ of Capias, and elect to proceed by Subpœna, Service of a Copy of such Subpœna, either on the Defendant personally or by leaving the same at his last known Place of Abode, or on board any Ship or Vessel to which such Defendant may belong or have lately belonged, shall be deemed to be sufficiently served.

Judgment by Default if Persons in Gaol do not appear, and plead to Information served.

CCXCV. Any Person arrested under such Capias and imprisoned for Want of sufficient Bail shall be served with a Copy of the Information filed against him either personally or by Delivery of a true Copy thereof to the Gaoler, Keeper, or Turnkey of the Prison in which such Person shall have been confined; and in default of such Person's appearing or pleading to such Information for the Space of Twenty Days, to be computed from the Date of such Service, Judgment shall be entered by Default; and in case Judgment shall be obtained against any such Person by Default, Verdict, or otherwise, and such Person shall not pay the Sum recovered against him, Execution shall thereupon issue, not only against the Body of the Person so imprisoned as aforesaid, but against all the Real and Personal Estate of such Person, or any other Person in trust for him, for such Sum or Sums of Money so as aforesaid recovered against him, together with the Costs, Poundage, Fees, and Expenses of Execution over and above the Sum recovered.

Execution may issue to Sheriff of any County without reference to Venue.

CCXCVI. Every such Execution may be directed in the first instance to the Sheriff of any County or County of a City or other Shrievalty as the Party suing out the same may think fit, without reference to the County in which the Venue is laid, and without any Suggestion of the issuing of any prior Writ of Execution into such County.

Impoverished Persons may sue in formâ Pauperis.

CCXCVII. Where any Person so arrested and imprisoned as aforesaid by virtue of any Writ of Capias shall be disabled by Poverty from making Defence to any such Information, it shall be competent for such Person to petition the Court on Affidavit verifying such Disability; and the Court on being satisfied of the Truth of the Facts alleged in such Affidavit may assign Counsel and Attorney to such Person, and the Counsel and Attorney so assigned are hereby required to act for such Person without Fee.

Sheriff to grant special Warrant on Writ of Capias endorsed by Solicitor of Customs.

CCXCVIII. Every Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, and other Person accustomed to execute the Process of the Courts, and every Under Sheriff, Deputy, or Agent of such Sheriff, Mayor, or Bailiff, is hereby required (on the Request of the Solicitor or Assistant Solicitor of Customs, or of any Person acting on his Behalf, such Request to be endorsed on the Back of any Writ of Capias or other Process issuing as aforesaid, and signed by such Solicitor or by such other Person stating his Authority,) to grant a special Warrant to such Persons as shall be named to them by such Solicitor or other Person for apprehending the Person against whom such Process shall issue, or in default thereof every such Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Under Bailiff, and other Person shall be liable to such Process of Contempt, Fines, and Penalties as they or any of them are now by any Law or Custom liable to in case of refusing to execute similar Process where the Defendant might have been taken thereupon in the usual Course of proceeding.

Sheriff indemnified for Escape if Warrant granted at Request of Customs.

CCXCIX. Every Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Under Sheriff, and other Person granting such special Warrant shall be indemnified from all Liability for the Escape of any Person who shall be arrested by virtue of such Warrant, which Escape shall happen from the Time of taking such Person, until he shall be committed to the proper Prison, or be tendered to the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison, who is hereby required to receive every Person so arrested as aforesaid, and give a Receipt for his Body.

When Offenders are arrested and give Bail to the Sheriff, the Bail Bond to be assigned to Her Majesty.

CCC. If any Person shall be arrested under or by virtue of any Writ of Capias ad respondendum, and the Sheriff or other Officer shall take Bail from such Person, such Sheriff or other Officer, at the Request and Costs of the Prosecutor, shall assign to the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the Bail Bond taken from such Person, by endorsing and attesting the same under his Hand and Seal in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, which may be done without any Stamp, provided the Assignment so endorsed be duly stamped before any Suit be commenced thereupon, and if such Bail Bond be forfeited such Process shall thereupon issue as on Bonds originally made to the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Prosecutions, &c.

As to Prosecution by Indictment or Information for Offences against the Customs Laws:

Indictment to be preferred by Order of the Commissioners, and Suits to be in the Name of the Attorney General, &c.

CCCI. No Indictment shall be preferred for any Offence against this or any other Act or Acts relating to the Customs or Excise, nor shall any Suit be commenced for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture for any such Offence, except in the Cases of Persons detained and carried before One or more Justices in pursuance of such Act or Acts as aforesaid, unless such Indictment shall be preferred under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue, or unless such Suit shall be commenced in the Name of Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, or in the Name of the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or in the Name of some Officer of Customs or Excise, under the Direction of the said Commissioners respectively.

The Attorney General or Lord Advocate may enter a Nolle prosequi.

CCCII. In any Prosecution for Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, Her Majesty's Attorney General for England, Her Majesty's Attorney General for Ireland, or the Lord Advocate of Scotland, if satisfied that such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, or that it may be inexpedient to proceed in the said Prosecution, may enter a Nolle prosequi or otherwise on such Information as well with respect to the Share of such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture to which any Officer or Officers may be entitled as to the Queen's Share thereof.

Within what Time Suits, &c., are to be exhibited.

CCCIII. All Suits, Indictments, or Informations brought or exhibited for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs in any Court, or before any Justice or Justices, shall be brought or exhibited within Three Years next after the Date of the Offence committed.

CCCIV. Any

Indictments or Informations may be tried in any County in England, Scotland, or Ireland respectively.

CCCIV. Any Indictment, Prosecution, or Information which may be instituted or brought under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs relating to the Customs shall and may be inquired of, examined, tried, and determined in any County of England when the Offence is committed in England, and in any County of Scotland when the Offence is committed in Scotland, and in any County in Ireland when the Offence is committed in Ireland, in such Manner and Form as if the Offence had been committed in the said County where the said Indictment or Information shall be tried.

Proofs in Proceedings.

As to Proofs in Proceedings under the Customs Laws in any of the Courts or before Justices:

Defendant's Proofs in Smuggling Cases.

CCCV. If in any Prosecution under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs in respect of any Goods seized for Nonpayment of Duties, or any other Cause of Forfeiture, or for the recovering any Penalty or Penalties under this or any Act relating to the Customs, any Dispute shall arise whether the Duties of Customs or Excise have been paid in respect of such Goods, or the same have been lawfully imported or lawfully unshipped, or concerning the Place from whence such Goods were brought, then and in every such Case the Proof thereof shall be on the Defendant in such Prosecution.

Averments in Smuggling Cases.

CCCVI. The Averment that the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue have directed or elected that any Information or Proceedings under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise shall be instituted, or that any Ship or Boat is Foreign or belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects, or that any Person detained or found on board any Ship or Boat liable to Seizure is or is not a Subject of Her Majesty, or that any Goods thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed were so thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed to prevent Seizure, or that any Goods thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed when chased by any Ship or Boat in Her Majesty's Service, or in the Service of the Revenue, were so thrown overboard, staved, or destroyed to avoid Seizure or that any Person is an Officer of Customs or Excise, or that any Person was employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, or that the Offence was committed within the Limits of any Port, or where the Offence is committed in any Port of the United Kingdom the naming of such Port in any Information or Proceedings, shall be deemed to be sufficient, without Proof of such Fact or Facts, unless the Defendant in any such Case shall prove to the contrary.

Vivâ voce Evidence may be given that a Party is an Officer.

Witness competent although entitled to Part of Seizure or Reward.

CCCVII. If upon any Trial a Question shall arise whether any Person is an Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marines being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or an Officer of Customs or Excise, his own Evidence thereof, or other Evidence of his having acted as such shall be deemed sufficient, and such Person shall not be required to produce his Commission or Deputation unless sufficient Proof shall be given to the contrary; and every such Officer and any Person acting in his Aid or Assistance shall be deemed a competent Witness upon the Trial of any Suit or Information on account of any Seizure or Penalty as aforesaid, notwithstanding such Officer or other Person may be entitled to the whole or any Part of such Seizure or Penalty, or to any Reward upon the Conviction of the Party charged in such Suit or Information.

What shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of an Order of the Treasury or of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue.

CCCVIII. Upon the Trial of any Issue, or upon any Judicial Hearing or Investigation touching any Seizure, Penalty, or Forfeiture, or other Proceeding under any Law or Laws relating to the Customs or Excise, or incident thereto, where it may be necessary to give Proof of any Order issued by the Commissioners of the Treasury, or by the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue respectively, the Order, or any Letter or Instructions referring thereto, which shall have been officially received by any Officer of Customs or Excise for his Government, and under which he shall have acted as such Officer, shall be admitted and taken as sufficient Evidence and Proof of such Order.

Entry of Appearances.

As to the Entry of Appearances and Claims by the Owners of Vessels or Goods seized by Officers of the Customs:

Claim to be in Name of bonâ fide Owners.

CCCIX. No Claim nor Appearance shall be permitted to be entered to any Information filed for the Forfeiture of any Ship or Goods seized for any Cause of Forfeiture and returned into any Court unless such Claim or Appearance be made by or in the true and real Name or Names of the Owner or Proprietor of such Ship or Goods, describing the Place of Residence and the Business or Profession of such Owner or Proprietor; and if such Person shall reside at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or within the Liberties thereof, Oath shall be made by him before One of the Judges of the Court into which the said Ship or Goods are returned, or in which such Information is filed, that the said Ship, Boat, or Goods was or were his Property at the Time of Seizure; but if such Person shall reside elsewhere, then Oath shall be made by the Attorney by whom such Claim or Appearance shall be entered that he has full Authority from such Owner to enter the same, and that to the best of his Knowledge and Belief such Ship or Goods were at the Time of the Seizure thereof the bonâ fide Property of the Person in whose Name such Claim or Appearance is entered; and on failure of making such Proof of Ownership the Ship or Goods shall be condemned, and Judgment shall be entered thereon by Default according to the usual Practice of the Court as if no Claim or Appearance had been made.

Verified by Oath of Ownership.

If Goods owned by more than Five Co-proprietors, Two may make the Oath.

CCCX. When any such Ship or Goods shall at the Time of the Seizure thereof be the bonâ fide Property of any Number of Proprietors exceeding Five, it shall not be necessary for more than Two of such Proprietors resident as aforesaid to enter such Claim or Appearance on the Part of themselves and their Co-proprietors, or to make such Oath as aforesaid.

If Goods owned by a Company or Copartnership, the Oath, how to be made.

CCCXI. When any such Ship or Goods shall at the Time of the Seizure thereof be the Property of any Joint Stock Company or of Partners in any Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in any Part of the United Kingdom, such Claim and Appearance may be entered and Oath made by the public Officer of such Joint Stock Company, or by any Agent for or any One of the Partners in any such Co-partnership; and every Person who shall be convicted of taking a false Oath as to any or either of the Facts herein-before required to be sworn to shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and liable to the Pains and Penalties thereof.

Legal Proceedings generally.

In Suits on Seizure Judge may certify probable Cause in Bar.

CCCXII. In case any Information or Suit shall be tried for any Cause of Forfeiture, and a Verdict shall be found for the Claimant, and it shall appear to the Judge before whom such Trial was had that there was a probable Cause of Seizure, such Judge shall certify on the Record that there was such probable Cause, and such Certificate shall be a Bar, and may be pleaded as such, to any Action, Indictment, or other Proceeding against the Party making such Seizure; and in case any Action, Indictment, or other Proceeding shall be brought to Trial against any Person whatsoever on account of any Seizure (whether any Information shall have been or shall be brought to Trial for the Condemnation of the same or not), and a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff, if the Court or Judge before whom such Action, Indictment, or other Proceeding shall be tried shall certify, on the Record or other written Proceedings, that there was probable Cause for such Seizure, then the Plaintiff shall not be entitled to more than Twopence Damages nor to any Costs, nor shall the Defendant or Defendants in any such Prosecution be fined more than One Shilling; and the Production of such Certificate, or a Copy thereof, verified by the Signature of the Officer of the Court having Charge thereof, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Certificate.

Actions against Officers.

As to Actions against Officers of Customs:

One Month's Notice of Action to Officer before Process.

CCCXIII. No Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Officer of the Army, Navy, Marines, Customs, or Excise, or against any Person acting under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, for anything done in the Execution of or by reason of his Office, until One Month next after Notice in Writing shall have been delivered to him or left at his usual Place of Abode by the Attorney or Agent of the Plaintiff, in which Notice shall be clearly stated the Cause of Action, the Name and Place of Abode of the Plaintiff, and the Name and Place of Abode or Business of such Attorney or Agent, and the Attorney or Agent mentioned in such Notice shall be entitled to a Fee of Ten Shillings for preparing and serving such Notice; and if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any such Officer or other Person, and no such Notice shall have been given, such Officer or other Person may call upon the Plaintiff to establish, to the Satisfaction of the Court, on Affidavits on both Sides, that such Action or Suit is brought for some Act, Matter, or Thing not done in the Execution of or by reason of his Office, and if the Plaintiff shall fail so to satisfy the Court, such Action or Suit shall discontinue: Provided always, that if the Plaintiff shall so satisfy the Court, he shall not be allowed on the Trial of such Action to give Evidence of any Cause of Action other than such as shall have been disclosed in his said Affidavit.

Evidence limited to Subject in Notice.

CCCXIV. Upon the Trial of any Action brought in pursuance of such Notice the Plaintiff shall not be entitled to a Verdict without proving on the Trial that such Notice had been duly served, and in default of such Proof the Defendant in such Action shall receive a Verdict, with Costs, nor shall any such Plaintiff be at liberty to produce any Evidence of any Cause of Action, except such as has been distinctly stated in such Notice.

Officer may tender Amends.

CCCXV. It shall be lawful for any Officer or other Person to whom such Notice shall be given, at any Time within One Month after Service of such Notice as aforesaid, to tender Amends to the Plaintiff or his Agent or Attorney, and in case such Amends be not accepted to plead such Tender in Bar of the Action, together with the Plea of "Not Guilty," and other Pleas, with Leave of the Court, where such Leave must be obtained pursuant to the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852;" and if upon the Trial of such Action the Jury shall find the Amends so tendered sufficient they shall give a Verdict for the Defendant, and in such Case, or in case the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited or discontinue his Action, or in case Judgment be given for such Defendant on Demurrer, then such Defendant shall be entitled to the like Costs as he would have been entitled to if he had pleaded the General Issue only; but if upon Issue joined the Jury shall find that no Amends were tendered, or that the same were insufficient, or shall find against the Defendant on such Plea or Pleas, then they shall give a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and such Damages as they shall think proper, together with Costs of Suit.

Officer omitting to tender Amends may pay Money into Court.

CCCXVI. In case any such Officer or other Person as aforesaid shall neglect to tender Amends, or shall not have tendered sufficient Amends, before the Action brought, it shall be lawful for him, by Leave of the Court in which such Action shall be brought, at any Time before the Trial of the said Action, to pay into Court a Sum of Money by way of Amends, and such Proceedings shall be had and taken thereupon, and in relation to the Monies so paid into Court, as are prescribed by the Seventieth, Seventy-first, Seventy-second, and Seventy-third Sections of an Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Seventy-six.

Actions against Officers to be brought within Two Months after Cause arises.

CCCXVII. Every such Action against any Officer of Customs or other such Person as aforesaid shall be commenced within Two Months after the Cause of Action shall have arisen; and if such Action be brought in respect of any Seizure made by such Officer or other Person, such Cause of Action shall not be deemed to have arisen until the Day after the Trial of the Information with respect to such Seizure, and the Venue in such Action shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause thereof is alleged to have occurred; and the Defendant may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence on the Trial thereof; and if the Plaintiff shall be non-suited or discontinue, or if upon a Verdict or Demurrer Judgment shall be given against him, the Defendant shall be entitled to Costs, and have such Remedy for recovering the same as any other Defendant now has in other Cases where Costs are legally recoverable.

CCCXVIII. Any

Legal Proceedings generally.

Actions for illegal Seizures may be tried in County Court.

CCCXVIII. Any Party complaining of any illegal Seizure of any Boat, Vessel, or Goods may, after Service of the Notice in Writing to the Effect, and within the Time herein-before provided in respect to the bringing of any Action or Actions in the Superior Court of Common Law, and in case no such Amends as herein-before provided shall have been tendered, proceed against the Officer by whom such Seizure shall have been made by Plaint in the County Courts in England, or by Civil Bill in the Assistant Barrister's Court in Ireland, or by Summons in the Sheriff's Courts in Scotland: Provided always, that the Sum claimed for Damages by the Party so complaining, shall not exceed the Amount to which the Jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively is limited.

Venue confined to District where Action arises.

CCCXIX. In the event of any Party so complaining as aforesaid resorting for Redress to the County Courts in England, the Action shall be brought within the District where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and the Proceedings and Conduct of the Suit shall be regulated as nearly as the Circumstances of the Case shall allow in conformity with the Provisions of the Acts and Orders which govern the Procedure and Practice of the said Courts; and such Right of Appeal shall be allowed to the Parties as is provided by the County Courts Acts in other Actions now triable by such Courts: Provided always, that in every such Suit or Plaint the County Court Judge shall hear and determine such Case without the Assistance of a Jury, and that no Order for the Trial thereof by a Jury shall be made by any County Court Judge, except upon the written Consent of the Plaintiff and Defendant.

Action brought in Civil Bill Court, Ireland.

CCCXX. Where the Party so complaining as aforesaid shall be desirous to bring his Suit in the Civil Bill Court in Ireland, he shall bring the same at a General Sessions of the Peace for the Division of the County within which the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and the Proceedings and Conduct of the Suit shall in like Manner be regulated as nearly as the Circumstances of the Case will allow in conformity with the Provisions of the Acts and General Rules and Orders which govern the Procedure and Practice of the Civil Bill Courts: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Party who shall think himself aggrieved by any Decree or Decision pronounced by any Assistant Barrister on the Hearing of any such Civil Bill to appeal therefrom to the next or any other Judge of Assize, but in lieu of such Right of Appeal it shall be lawful for the Chairman, Recorder, or Assistant Barrister, in case he shall be of opinion that a Question of Law only is involved in such Proceeding, by Consent of the Parties respectively, to state a Special Case under his Hand for the Opinion of the Chief or any other Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland upon any Question of Law, and thereupon like Proceedings shall be had and a like Decision given upon such Appeal and Special Case, and subject, as nearly as the Circumstances will allow, to the like Provisions as in other Cases of Appeal, save that without further Proof of the Facts of the Case the Decision of the Judge shall be given upon such Special Case.

Action in Sheriff's Court in Scotland.

CCCXXI. In case the Party so complaining as aforesaid shall desire to bring his Action in the Sheriff's Court in Scotland, it shall be lawful for him to proceed in the said Court, in which Case the Proceedings and Conduct of the Suit shall be regulated as nearly as may be in accordance with the Provisions of the Acts and Orders of Court which govern the Procedure and Practice of the said Court.

Where 20*l.* only is recovered, no Costs to be allowed unless Judge certifies.

CCCXXII. If in any Action commenced after the passing of this Act in any of the Superior Courts of Record in England, Ireland, or Scotland, in which the Plaintiff shall seek to recover Damages for any alleged illegal Seizure or Detention of any Ship or Goods, the said Plaintiff shall recover a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, such Plaintiff shall have Judgment to recover such Sum only and no Costs, unless at the Trial of such Cause the Judge shall certify on the Back of the Record either that the Case was one that could not be tried, if in England, in the County Court, if in Ireland in the Civil Bill Court, or if in Scotland in the Sheriff's Court, or that although within the Jurisdiction of those Courts respectively it nevertheless was a fit Case to be tried in One of such Superior Courts, or (in case there shall be no Trial) unless the Court or Judge shall make an Order to that effect, and it shall not be necessary to enter any Suggestion on the Record to deprive such Plaintiff of Costs.

Solicitors Clerks and Officers of Customs may conduct Cases.

CCCXXIII. Any Person appointed to be Solicitor or Assistant Solicitor of Her Majesty's Customs, or any Clerk duly appointed to act on his Behalf or under his or their Directions, shall and may in any Case relating to the Customs, or under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury or Customs, act as Counsel, Solicitor, Attorney at Law, Advocate, or Writer to the Signet in the Prosecution, Conduct, or Defence of any such Case in any Court, Jurisdiction, or Place in which such Case may be instituted, and any such Solicitor, Assistant Solicitor, or Clerk, and any Officer or Officers of Customs, under the Order and Directions of the Commissioners of Customs, may prosecute, defend, or conduct any Proceeding before any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justices or Justice of the Peace, in any Matter relating to the Customs, to be heard or determined by him or them.

X. Reciprocity.

Queen may restrict the Privileges of Foreign Ships in certain Cases.

As to Reciprocity in Commerce between British and Foreign Countries:

CCCXXIV. If it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty that British Vessels are subject in any Foreign Country to any Prohibitions or Restrictions as to the Voyages in which they may engage, or as to the Articles which they may import into or export from such Country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty (if She think fit), by Order in Council, to impose such Prohibitions or Restrictions upon the Ships of such Foreign Country, either as to the Voyages in which they may engage or as to the Articles which they may import into or export from any Part of the United Kingdom or of any British Possession in any Part of the World, as Her Majesty may think fit, so as to place the Ships of such Country on as nearly as possible the same Footing in British Ports as that on which British Ships are placed in the Ports of such Country.

Reciprocity.

And may impose additional Duties.

CCCXXV. If it shall be made to appear to Her Majesty that British Ships are either directly or indirectly subject in any Foreign Country to any Duties or Charges of any Sort or Kind whatsoever from which the national Vessels of such Country are exempt, or that any Duties are imposed upon Articles imported or exported in British Ships which are not equally imposed upon the like Articles imported or exported in national Vessels, or that any Preference whatsoever is shown either directly or indirectly to national Vessels over British Vessels, or to Articles imported or exported in national Vessels over the like Articles imported or exported in British Vessels, or that British Trade and Navigation is not placed by such Country upon as advantageous a Footing as the Trade and Navigation of the most favoured Nation, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty (if She think fit), by Order in Council, to impose such Duty or Duties of Tonnage upon the Ships of such Nation entering into or departing from the Ports of the United Kingdom, or of any British Possession in any Part of the World, or such Duty or Duties on all Goods or on any specified Classes of Goods, imported or exported in the Ships of such Nation, as may appear to Her Majesty justly to countervail the Disadvantages to which British Trade or Navigation is so subjected as aforesaid.

Order in Council to specify Ships to which it applies.

CCCXXVI. And in every such Order Her Majesty may, if She so think fit, specify what Ships are to be considered as Ships of the Country or Countries to which such Order applies, and all Ships answering the Description contained in such Order shall be considered to be Ships of such Country or Countries for the Purposes of such Order.

The Queen may regulate the Trade of certain Colonies.

CCCXXVII. Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from Time to Time, may give such Directions and make such Regulations touching the Trade and Commerce to and from any British Possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter (excepting the Possessions of the said Company), as to Her Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Goods shall be imported or exported in any Manner contrary to any such Order of Her Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship importing and exporting the same.

Queen in Council may regulate Coasting Trade of Colonies on their Address.

CCCXXVIII. If the Legislature or proper legislative Authority of any of the British Possessions abroad shall present an Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorize or permit the Conveyance of Goods or Passengers from One Part of such Possession to another Part thereof in other than British Ships, or if the Legislatures of any Two or more Possessions, which for the Purposes of this Act Her Majesty in Council shall declare to be neighbouring Possessions, shall present Addresses or a joint Address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to place the Trade between them on the Footing of a Coasting Trade, or of otherwise regulating the same, so far as relates to the Vessels in which it is to be carried on, it shall thereupon be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorize the Conveyance of such Goods or Passengers, or so to regulate the Trade between such neighbouring Possessions, as the Case may be, on such Terms and under such Conditions as to Her Majesty may seem good.

Coasting Trade of India to be regulated by Governor General in Council.

CCCXXIX. And with regard to the Coasting Trade of India, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to make any Regulations authorizing or permitting the Conveyance of Goods or Passengers from One Part of the Possessions of the East India Company to another Part thereof in other than British Ships, subject to such Restrictions or Regulations as he may think necessary; and such Regulations shall be of equal Force and Effect with any Laws and Regulations which the said Governor General in Council is now or may hereafter be authorized to make, and shall be subject to Disallowance and Repeal in like Manner as any other Laws or Regulations made by the said Governor General in Council, under the Laws from Time to Time in force for the Government of the British Territories in India, and shall be transmitted to England, and be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in the same Manner as any other Laws or Regulations which the Governor General in Council is now or may hereafter be empowered to make.

Orders to be published in "Gazette," and to be laid before Parliament.

CCCXXX. Every such Order in Council as aforesaid shall, within Fourteen Days after the issuing thereof, be twice published in the London Gazette, and that a Copy thereof shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the issuing the same, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Orders may be revoked.

CCCXXXI. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from Time to Time to revoke any Order or Orders in Council made under the Authority of this Act.

XI. Acquisition of Lands, &c.

As to the Acquisition and Disposal of Lands, &c. for the Service of the Customs:

Acquisition and Disposal of Lands, &c.

Lands and Buildings to be vested in the Secretary of the Customs and his Successors.

CCCXXXII. All Lands which have heretofore been or which shall hereafter be purchased or taken for the Use of Her Majesty's Customs, together with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, except such Lands as may be of Copyhold Tenure, shall be and continue vested in the Secretary for the Time being to the Commissioners of Customs and his respective Successors in such Service, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Lands, and the several Estates and Interests in the same respectively, in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Service of Her Majesty's Customs; and upon the Death of any Secretary, Collector of Customs, or other Officer or Person in whom any Lands or Interest therein were vested as a Trustee for the Crown, all the Estate and Interest therein of such deceased Trustee shall vest in the Secretary for the Time being, and be held and dealt with by him upon the same Trusts and for the same Purposes as if he had been the Trustee originally appointed; and whenever any Act or Deed shall be required to be done by, or the Attendance, Assent, or Concurrence of the Heir-at-Law or legal Representative of such deceased deceased Trustee shall become necessary in order to the Conveyance, Assignment, Surrender, or other Disposition of any such Lands, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, the Secretary of Customs for the Time being shall be deemed to be the Heir-at-Law of such deceased Trustee for such Purpose. Acquisition of Lands, &c.

CCCXXXIII. The Secretary of Customs may, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Customs, (testified by Writing under their Hands and Seals,) sell, exchange, or in any Manner dispose of, as well any of the Freehold and Leasehold Lands which shall be so vested in him as also any of the Copyhold Lands which shall have been surrendered to and vested in any Person or Persons, and his, her, or their Heirs and Assigns, in trust for Her said Majesty or any of Her Predecessors, his, her, or their Heirs or Successors, for the Use and Service of Her Majesty's Customs, or any Part thereof, in such Manner, for such Considerations, and to such Persons as the Commissioners of Customs may think fit, and may purchase other Lands for the like Purposes, and afterwards sell the same, and for that Purpose may execute all such Conveyances, Assignments, and Agreements as may be necessary for effectually conveying and assigning the same. Secretary, under Authority of Commissioners, may sell or let Lands vested in him; and execute necessary Conveyances, &c.

CCCXXXIV. The Monies produced by Sales or Exchange of any of the said Lands, including the Monies already paid by way of Deposit for the Purchase of any Lands already contracted to be sold and the Residue of the Monies to be received in respect or on account of such Contract, shall be paid by the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, or the Person or Persons making such Exchange to the Receiver General of Customs for the Time being, or to such Person as the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any Two or more of them, shall appoint to receive the same, in trust for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for the Use of the said Customs; and the Receipt of the said Receiver General, or such other Person as aforesaid, for such Monies (such Receipt to be endorsed on every such Conveyance, Surrender, or Assignment,) shall effectually discharge the Purchaser or Person by whom or on whose Account the same shall be paid. Monies produced by Sale of such Lands to be paid to the Receiver General.

CCCXXXV. The Commissioners of the Treasury may, from Time to Time, by any Writing under their Hands, authorize any Person to survey and make out any Lands, not exceeding One Half Acre at any One Station, which may be wanted for the Purpose of erecting Watch-houses, Dwelling Houses, and other Buildings requisite for the Security and Protection of the Revenues of Customs and Excise, with all necessary Ways unto and from the same, such Lands being situated within Half a Mile of the Seashore or of the Tideway of any navigable River, and may authorize any Person, by Warrant to treat and agree with the Owner or Owners of or any Person or Persons interested in any such Lands as aforesaid for such Estate or Interest therein, or for the absolute Purchase thereof, or for the Possession thereof for such Term of Years as the Public Service may require. Treasury may authorize Persons to survey and mark out Lands for Watch-houses, &c.; and to treat with Owners.

CCCXXXVI. When Parties, being seised, possessed of, or entitled to any such Lands, or any Estate or Interest therein, labour under any Disability to sell, release, convey, or assign the same, or to contract for the Grant of any Lease of such Lands, either for any Term of Years or for such Periods as the Public Service shall require, the Seventh Section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (England), and the Seventh Section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (Scotland), shall apply to the Cases of the Parties so disabled or incapacitated, in whatever Part of the United Kingdom the said Lands may be situate; and the said Sections are hereby respectively made a Part of and incorporated with this Act, and shall be applicable to Parties so seised or entitled as aforesaid in any Part of the United Kingdom; and for the Purpose of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Clauses of the Lands Clauses Acts, shall mean the Person authorized as aforesaid by the Commissioners of the Treasury. Parties seised or entitled to Lands under Disability empowered to sell or convey to Treasury or Customs.

CCCXXXVII. In case any Bodies or other Persons authorized by the Clauses of the Acts lastly herein-before mentioned to sell or demise Lands so marked out as aforesaid shall for the Space of Fourteen Days (next after Notice in Writing, subscribed by such Person authorized as aforesaid shall have been given to the principal Officer or Officers of any such Body, or to such other Persons hereby authorized to contract on behalf of others or interested themselves as aforesaid, or left at his or their usual Place of Abode, if any such can after diligent Inquiry be found, and in case any such Parties shall be absent from the United Kingdom, or cannot be found after diligent Inquiry, left with the Occupier of such Land, or if there be no such Occupier shall be affixed upon some conspicuous Part of such Lands,) refuse to treat or agree, or by reason of Absence shall be prevented from treating or agreeing with such Person authorized as aforesaid, or shall refuse to accept such annual Rent or Sum as shall be offered for the Hire thereof, either for a Time certain or for such Period as the Public Service may require, then and in such Case, or in case of Disagreement between such Bodies or Persons so authorized to sell, release, grant, or demise and the Person so authorized as aforesaid by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and in case also it shall not be practicable to procure by voluntary Bargain or Sale any other Land situate and required as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for Two or more Justices to put the Officers of Customs in possession of such Lands, and for that Purpose to issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals requiring Possession to be delivered to such of said Officers as shall be named therein; and such Person so authorized as aforesaid may issue his Warrant to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place wherein such Lands shall be situate to summon a Jury, and every such Sheriff, upon Receipt of such Warrant, shall, in the Manner required by Law, summon a Jury of Twenty-four Common Jurymen to meet at a convenient Time and Place to be appointed by him for that Purpose, such Time not being less than Fourteen nor more than Twenty-one Days after the Receipt of such Warrant, and such Place not being more than Twenty Miles distant from the Lands in Bodies or Persons refusing to treat, or to accept Consideration offered, Justices and others may put Her Majesty's Officers in possession. Justices and others may have a Jury summoned.

Acquisition of Lands, &c.

in question, unless by Consent of the Parties interested, and he shall forthwith give Notice to the Commissioners of Customs of the Time and Place so appointed by him: Provided always, that nothing herein shall be construed to extend to any Garden or Pleasure Ground, or to any Land immediately contiguous to and used as the Curtilage or Homestead of any Dwelling House.

Mode of Proceeding by Jury, &c.

As to the Mode of Proceeding on the Inquiry by the Jury or Juries so summoned as aforesaid:

Incorporation of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act (England and Ireland).

CCCXXXVIII. Where the Lands the Subject of Inquiry shall be situate either in England or Ireland, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, from Section Forty to Section Sixty-eight inclusively, shall be incorporated with this Act; and for the Purpose of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, shall mean the Person authorized as aforesaid by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

Incorporation of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act (Scotland).

CCCXXXIX. Where the Lands the Subject of Inquiry shall be situate in Scotland, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (Scotland), from Thirty-eight to Sixty-eight inclusively, shall be incorporated with this Act; and for the Purpose of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of this Undertaking," wherever used in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, Scotland, shall mean the Person so authorized as aforesaid by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

Compensation to Lessees.

CCCXL. The Jury impannelled as aforesaid shall ascertain the Compensation to be paid for any such Lands, and the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation to any Lessees or Tenants at Will, or otherwise, of such Lands, and the Proportion so to be paid shall be returned on the Verdict.

Upon delivering up Lands to the Owners all Erections for the Public Service to be removed, making Compensation to Owners.

CCCXLI. In all Cases where Lands shall be taken under the Provisions of this Act for a Term of Years or for such Period as the Public Service shall require, the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any other Person so authorized as aforesaid, at any Time before the Possession of Lands shall be delivered up to the Owner thereof, or other Person acting on his Behalf, shall remove all such Buildings or other Erections which may have been erected thereon for the Public Service, and carry away the Materials thereof, making such Compensation to the Owner or Owners of such Lands or other Person or Persons acting on his Behalf, for the Damage which may have been done thereto or to the Soil thereof by the Erection of any such Buildings, or removing and carrying away the same, or otherwise, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury or other Person authorized as aforesaid shall think reasonable, and if such Owner or Owners, or other Person acting on his Behalf, shall not be willing to accept the Compensation so offered, the said Commissioners of the Treasury or other Person so authorized as aforesaid may require Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place to ascertain the Compensation which ought to be made for such Damage, and such Justices shall ascertain the same, and grant a Certificate thereof, and the Amount of Compensation so ascertained and certified shall forthwith be paid by Warrant of the Commissioners of the Treasury to the Person entitled thereto: Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to extend to alter, prejudice, or affect any Agreement which has or shall be entered into by any such Person authorized as aforesaid with any Owner of such Lands, or other Person acting on his Behalf, in relation to such Buildings or Erections.

In case of Dispute Compensation to be settled by Two Justices.

Act not to affect Agreements between the Treasury and the Owner.

Application of Purchase Money.

As to the Application of Purchase Monies, &c. for Lands purchased or taken from Parties under Disability, &c.:

Money given for Lands belonging to incapacitated Persons, &c. to be paid to the proper Officer of the Exchequer for their Use;

CCCXLII. In all Cases where any Money shall have been or shall be agreed, or shall have been or shall be found by the Verdict of any Jury to be paid for the Use or Possession of Lands taken by virtue of this Act belonging to any Person under any Disability or Incapacity, or not having the absolute Interest therein, the same shall be paid by Warrant of the Commissioners of the Treasury to the proper Officer of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively for the Time being for receiving the Monies belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, for the Use of such Person, and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to receive and give a Discharge for such Money, and upon Receipt thereof to sign a Certificate to the Barons of the said Courts of Exchequer respectively, under his Hand, signifying that such Money was received by him for the Use of such Person who shall be named in such Certificate, and the said Certificate shall be filed in the said Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, as the Case may be, and a Copy thereof, signed by such Officer, shall be read and allowed as Evidence for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, and such Officer is hereby required, upon Receipt of any such Sum of Money as aforesaid, to pay the same into the Bank of England, or Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may require, and immediately upon the filing of such Certificate the said Lands shall be vested in or to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

and upon his Certificate of Receipt, Lands may be vested in Her Majesty.

Barons of Exchequer upon Application of Parties interested may order Disposal of Money deposited.

CCCXLIII. Upon the Application by Petition of any Party making claim to the Money so deposited, or any Part thereof, or to the Lands in respect whereof the same shall have been so deposited, or any Part of such Lands, or any Interest in the same, the Barons of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin may in a summary Way, as to them shall seem fit, order such Money to be invested in the Public Funds, or may order Distribution thereof, or Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the respective Interests of the Parties making claim to such Monies or Lands or any Part thereof, and may make such other Order in the Premises as the Court shall deem fit.

On the Death or Removal of Officer of Exchequer, Stocks and Securities

CCCXLIV. Upon the Death, Removal, or Resignation of any such Officer of the said Courts of Exchequer, all Stocks and Securities vested in him by virtue of this Act shall vest in the succeeding Officer of the Exchequer for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, without any Assignment or Transfer; and all Monies paid in the said Banks respectively in pursuance of this Act, or remaining in the Hands of any

any such Officer at his Death, Resignation, or Removal, and not vested in the Funds or placed out on Securities, as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the succeeding Officer for the like Purpose for the Time being. shall vest in his Successor.

Certain Sections of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act incorporated.

CCCXLV. Sections Eighty-one, Eighty-two, and Eighty-three of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be and are hereby incorporated with this Act, so far as the same shall relate to the Conveyance or Demise of Lands in England and Ireland; and Sections Eighty, Eighty-one, and Eighty-two of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act (Scotland), shall be and are hereby incorporated with this Act, so far as the same shall relate to the Conveyance or Demise of Lands in Scotland; the Expression of "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Acts respectively, to mean the Persons so authorized as aforesaid by the Commissioners of the Treasury.

XII. Isle of Man.

AS TO THE ISLE OF MAN.

Isle of Man to be Part of United Kingdom for Purposes of this Act.

CCCXLVI. The Isle of Man shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the United Kingdom for all the Purposes of this Act, but nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect, or be construed in any way directly or indirectly to prejudice or affect, any of the Rights or Privileges legally exercised or enjoyed by the said Isle at the Time of the passing of this Act.

Goods delivered out of Charge of Customs in the Isle of Man not to be brought into Great Britain or Ireland.

CCCXLVII. No Foreign Goods upon which a higher Duty is payable on their Importation into Great Britain or Ireland than on their Importation into the Isle of Man shall, after the same have been cleared and delivered out of Charge of the proper Officer of Customs for Consumption or otherwise in the said Isle, be carried or shipped or be water-borne or be brought to any Quay, Wharf, or other Place to be shipped or water-borne to be carried from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland; nor shall any such Goods which may be brought to the said Isle, though not cleared and delivered as aforesaid, be removed or carried from thence into Great Britain or Ireland until the same shall have been duly cleared for that Purpose by the proper Officer of Customs, nor (unless reported for Removal in the same Ship and in continuation of the Voyage to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland,) until sufficient Security by Bond or otherwise shall have been given, in such Manner and on such Terms and Conditions as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, for the due Delivery thereof at some Port or Place in Great Britain or Ireland; and all Goods carried, brought, shipped, removed, or water-borne to be shipped, removed, or carried contrary hereto shall be forfeited, and every Person who shall carry, ship, bring, remove, or water-bear to be shipped, removed, or carried any Goods contrary hereto, or who shall aid or be concerned therein, shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods, or the Sum of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

Goods brought to Isle of Man but not delivered out of Charge of Customs may be brought to Great Britain or Ireland, under Conditions.

Goods, the Growth or Manufacture of Isle of Man, may be imported into Great Britain or Ireland on Certificate, &c.

CCCXLVIII. Any Goods, the Growth of the Isle of Man, or there manufactured from Materials the Growth of the said Isle, or from Materials not subject to Duties in Great Britain or Ireland, or from Materials upon which the Duty has been paid in Great Britain or Ireland and upon which no Drawback has been subsequently granted, may be brought from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland without Payment of any Duty: Provided always, that such Goods may nevertheless be charged with such Proportion of such Duties as shall fairly countervail any Duties of Excise payable on the like Sort of Goods the Produce of that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be brought, and any Articles, either wholly or in part manufactured in the said Isle from any Materials upon which a higher Duty is payable upon their Importation into the United Kingdom than on their Importation into the Isle of Man, may be brought from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland on Payment of the Duty payable on such Goods in that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be so brought.

Declaration and Certificate of Growth or Manufacture of Goods from Isle of Man.

CCCXLIX. Before any Goods shall be shipped in the Isle of Man to be carried to Great Britain or Ireland, as the Growth or Produce of that Isle, or as Manufactures of that Isle from Materials the Growth and Produce thereof, or from Materials not subject to Duty in Great Britain or Ireland, or from Materials upon which the Duties shall have been paid and not drawn back in Great Britain or Ireland, Proof shall be made by the written Declaration of some competent Person, to the Satisfaction of the Collector or Comptroller of Customs at the Port of Shipment, that such Goods (describing and identifying them) are of such Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, as the Case may be, and in such Declaration shall be stated the Name of the Person by whom such Goods are intended to be shipped, and such Person, at the Time of Shipping, (not being more than One Month after the Date of such Declaration,) shall make and subscribe a Declaration before such Collector or Comptroller, that the Goods to be shipped are the same as are mentioned in such Declaration, and thereupon the Collector or Comptroller shall, on Demand, give to the Master of the Ship in which the Goods are to be exported, a Certificate of such Proof of Produce or of Manufacture, describing the same, and setting forth the Name of the Party and of the Ship and of the Master thereof, and the Destination of the Goods.

Act not to affect Excise Drawbacks.

CCCL. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to affect the Laws and Regulations now in force respecting Duties and Drawbacks of Excise on Goods removed to the Isle of Man.

Stores of Manx Ships.

CCCLI. If any Ship or Boat bound from the Isle of Man to Great Britain or Ireland shall have on board any Stores of Spirits, Tobacco, or Tea for the Use of the Crew exceeding the Quantities specified in the following Table, such Stores, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, and also the Ship or Boat, shall be forfeited:

Treasury may restrict Imports.

CCCLII. The Commissioners of the Treasury shall and may at any Time, if they see fit, by Order under their Hands, restrict or limit the Importation into the Isle of Man of any Foreign Goods to such Quantities per Annum and in such Manner as they may deem necessary, and also determine into what Ports in the Isle of Man and from what Places such Goods may be imported.

Management of Duties.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer.

CCCLIII. The Duties of Customs payable on the Importation of Goods into the Isle of Man shall be collected, paid, recovered, and accounted for under the Management and Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs; and, except the necessary Charges of collecting, recovering, and accounting for the same, the said Duties shall from Time to Time (subject to the Deductions herein-after mentioned) be brought and paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue, and shall go to and make Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Provided always, that any of the Collectors of Customs of the said Isle shall retain, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, agreeably to such Directions as shall from Time to Time be given for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, to retain, such Sum or Sums of Money in his or their Hands as may be sufficient to defray the necessary Expenses attending the Government of the said Isle of Man and the Administration of Justice there, and other Charges incurred in the said Isle, which have heretofore been or may hereafter be deemed fit and proper Charges to be deducted from and paid out of the Duties of Customs collected in the said Isle of Man; and upon the Amount of the said Expenses and Charges being ascertained, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to direct the same to be paid out of the said Monies so retained to such Person or Persons as may be entitled to receive the same.

Part of Duties may be retained for Expenses of the Government.

Expenses of the Government, and 2,300*l.* per Annum to Harbour Commissioners of Isle of Man, to be paid by Customs.

CCCLIV. The necessary Expenses attending the Government of the Isle of Man and the Administration of Justice there, and other Charges incurred in the said Isle, which have heretofore been deemed fit and proper Charges to be deducted from and paid out of the Duties of Customs collected in the said Isle, or which may hereafter be deemed proper Charges, and also the annual Sum of Two thousand three hundred Pounds made payable by an Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-four, Section Twenty-five, to Her Majesty's Receiver General in the said Isle of Man, and to be applied for the lawful Purposes of the Harbour Commissioners therein mentioned, shall and may be retained and paid by the Collector of Customs of the said Isle, out of the Duties of Customs collected in the said Isle, as herein-before provided.

Additional Allowance for Public Works in Isle of Man.

CCCLV. In addition to the Deductions from the Customs Duties herein-before provided for, there shall be set aside annually a Sum equal to One Ninth Part of the Amount derived from such Duties, to be applied by the Commissioners of the Treasury in effecting Improvements in the Harbours and other Public Works in the Isle of Man, the necessary Repairs and Improvements in the Harbours taking Priority to other Public Works; and it shall be lawful for the Court of Tynwald from Time to Time to determine what Improvements and Public Works shall be so undertaken, the Lieutenant Governor having a Veto upon such Decision.

As to general Orders and Regulations:

General Orders to be printed.

CCCLVI. The Commissioners of Customs shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the Commencement of each Year, cause to be printed all general Orders made by them for the Regulation of the Customs during the preceding Year.

CAP. CXI.

An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other Rates and Taxes. [20th August 1853.]

7 & 8 G 4. c. 75. 9 G. 4. c. 38. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 127. 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 95. 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 80. 1 & 2 Vict. c. 57. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 79. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 62.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into execution several Acts granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, and continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions in England: And whereas another Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of the Land Tax Commissioners, and for appointing additional Commissioners, and indemnifying such Persons as have acted without due Authority in the Execution of the Acts therein recited: And whereas another Act was passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for appointing additional Commissioners to put in execution the Acts for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, and continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting an Aid by a Land Tax, and for continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting an Aid by a Land Tax, and for continuing the Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts granting a Land Tax, and Duties on Personal Estates, Offices, and Pensions: And whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other Rates and Taxes: And whereas another Act was passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other Rates and Taxes: And whereas it is expedient to appoint additional Persons to put in execution the several Acts for granting an Aid to Her Majesty by a Land Tax in Great Britain, and several other Acts for continuing or granting to Her Majesty Rates and Taxes:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Appointment of additional Commissioners.

I. That the several and respective Persons herein-after named shall and may and are hereby empowered and authorized (being duly qualified) to put in execution the said Acts, and all the Clauses, Powers, Matters, and Things whatsoever therein contained, as Commissioners in and for the several and respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, and Places of Great Britain, herein-after severally and respectively mentioned and expressed, as fully and effectually as if they had been named with the other Commissioners in the said recited Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth; (that is to say,)

[Here follow the Names of the Commissioners for England, Wales, and Scotland.]

CAP. CXII.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Hackney and Stage Carriages, also Job Carriages and Horses, and Carts let for Hire, within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Laws relating to Hackney and Stage Carriages, and Carriages and Horses let for Hire, and Vehicles drawn by Horses or other Beasts of Burden, within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis as now by Law defined, should be consolidated and amended, and that the Employment and Use of such Carriages, Horses, and Vehicles as are herein-after more particularly named and described, and the Authority to license, and the Conduct of the Proprietors, Drivers, and Attendants thereof, should be placed under the Regulation and Control of the Commissioners of Police of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Repeal of Acts.

I. From and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four the several Acts and Portions of Acts set forth in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed shall cease and determine and shall be repealed, save so far as the same or any of them may repeal the whole or any Part of any other Act or Acts, and save as to all Rules, Orders, and Regulations, or Byelaws, heretofore made in pursuance or under the Authority of said Acts or any of them, and now remaining in force, all which Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Byelaws shall remain in force until the same shall respectively be altered or repealed under the Authority of this Act, and save as to any Duties, Penalties, or Forfeitures that shall have been incurred or become payable by virtue of the said Acts or any One of them, and as to all other Matters and Things whatsoever which shall have been done or omitted either pursuant to or in violation violation of the said Acts or any of them prior to the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Acts of One Commissioner valid.

II. All Acts, Matters, and Things whatsoever which the Commissioners of the Metropolitan Police are by this Act required or empowered to execute, do, or perform shall and may be legally executed, done, or performed either by both or by One only of the said Commissioners, and whether both or only One of the said Commissioners shall be present on such Occasion; save and except the making or altering of any General Rules, Orders, Regulations, or Byelaws, and the altering of Licences, Duties, and of Fares of Carriages, under the Provisions herein-after stated, in all which Acts both Commissioners must concur.

After June 1, 1854, Licences granted under 37 G 3. c. 58., &c. to be null and void, save as to those granted for 1854.

III. From and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, all Licences theretofore granted to Persons under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-eight, and any Act amending the same, for any of the Purposes whatsoever in respect of which Duties are herein-after imposed, shall respectively cease and determine, and be utterly null and void, save as to Licences granted to Drivers and Conductors of Hackney and other public Carriages for the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners, together with the Figure or Mark of Distinction belonging thereto: Provided always, that in every Case in which the Time shall not have expired in respect of which the Rent reserved upon any such Licence shall have been paid it shall be lawful to make a Deduction from the Amount of Duty which shall in any such Case be payable under this Act by the same Person, and such Deduction shall be in the same Proportion to the Rent previously paid for the Term of Time unexpired as such Term of Time shall bear to the whole Term for which the said Rent shall have been charged, and all Proprietors of Hackney Carriages whose Licences shall be so delivered up to the said Commissioners shall be primâ facie entitled to obtain a Proprietor's Licence under the Provisions of this Act.

Reduction to present Holders of Licences upon which Fines have been paid on obtaining new Licences.

IV. Every Person who shall be possessed of any Licence to keep any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, as in this Act described, granted under any former Act, and which Licence shall be in force on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and who shall at any Time within Five Calendar Months next following the said Date apply for a new Licence under the Provisions of this Act, in lieu of such former Licence, and shall have respectively paid up the Rent reserved on such former Licence, and shall have paid all Fines and Forfeitures which may have been incurred by him under or by virtue of any former Act or Acts hereby repealed, shall be entitled, in consideration of the Fine theretofore paid on procuring such former Licence, on their First or First and further Payment of Duty in respect of such new Licence, to a Reduction in the Sum or Sums of Money to be paid equal to a Sum of Money bearing the same Proportion to the Fine paid on procuring such former Licence as the Number of Half Years remaining unexpired of the original Term by such Licence granted bears to the total Number of Half Years contained in such original Term: Provided always, that such Deduction or Deductions shall in no Case be made or allowed except when the new Licence upon which such Reduction of Duty shall be demanded shall be required for a Carriage or other Vehicle of the same Class and Description as the Carriage or other Vehicle described in the former Licence, and unless such former Licence, together with the Figure or Mark of Distinction appertaining thereto, shall be produced and delivered up to the said Commissioners, or to the Officer appointed for that Purpose, or the Non-production of same accounted for to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners.

Licence Duties to be paid as in Schedule (B.)

V. From and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four there shall be paid, as herein-after provided, in each and every Year, to the Officer duly appointed for that Purpose, for and in respect of every Licence to be granted under this Act for every Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, and Job Horse mentioned and described in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and which shall be deemed a Part of the same, the several annual Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively.

How Duties are to be applied.

VI. All Duties to be levied under this Act shall be paid to the Receiver for the Time being for the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, by all and singular the Person or Persons who shall be appointed to receive the same, at such Time or Times in each and every Year as shall be fixed and appointed by the Commissioners of Police, and shall be by him placed to the same Account and applied to the like Purposes as the other Public Monies of or belonging to the said Police District now received by and paid into the Hands of such Receiver.

The Duties fixed by this Act may be altered or abolished, with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor.

VII. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, from Time to Time, in each and every Year, to alter and diminish or to annul and abolish all or any of the several Duties, Sum or Sums of Money, specified in the said Schedule (B.), or which shall hereafter under this Act be charged as Duties for and upon the respective Hackney and Stage Carriages, Job Carriages, Job Horses, and Carts, as described in the said Schedule, but so as that in case of any Alteration of the said Duties, whether the same be by Diminution or wholly annulling the same, or whether the same shall affect all or any One or more of the said Duties, such Alteration shall be approved of by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and that wherever any of the said Duties shall be altered a Schedule of the new Duties shall, immediately after such Alteration shall have been approved of as aforesaid, be published once in the Dublin Gazette, and Three Times in any of the Newspapers published in Dublin, within Seven Days next after the Publication of the Schedule last mentioned in the Dublin Gazette; and the said last-mentioned Schedule, after the Expiration of such Period of Seven Days, shall be deemed and taken to be a Part of this Act in lieu of so much much of Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, as often as any Duties shall be altered, in the Manner herein provided.

Licence to Proprietors to be applied for by Requisition in Writing.

VIII. Before any such Licence as aforesaid shall be granted, under the Provisions of this Act, a Requisition in Writing for the required Licence, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall direct, shall be made and signed by the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company, by a public Officer thereof; and in every such Requisition there shall be truly specified and set forth whether the Licence shall be required for a Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, and if required for a Job Carriage, whether it is intended the same shall be drawn by One or more than One Horse; and there shall be also truly specified and set forth the Christian Name and Surname of every Person who shall be a Proprietor or Part Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart, Horse or Horses, in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for, or, in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company, the proper Title thereof, and in the Case of a Partnership the proper Firm thereof, and in every Case the Name of the Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor, Body Corporate, public Company, or Firm; and should such Licence be required for a Stage Carriage, there shall be set forth the fixed Route or Line of Way by which it is intended such Carriage shall proceed to its Destination; and such Requisition shall be left at such Office or Place as the said Commissioners shall direct, and shall be received as Evidence, and be deemed Proof of all Matters contained therein, as against the Party serving such Requisition; and in case any Person so applying shall wilfully neglect to specify truly in such Requisition any of the Particulars hereby required to be set forth therein, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to revoke any Licence issued on a false Requisition: Provided always, that nothing herein shall extend to subject any Cart to a Licence on account of its being employed in bringing Hay, Straw, Corn, Vegetables, or Potatoes to Market, or Manure from Town.

Not to apply to certain Carts.

Approval of Commissioners to be endorsed on the Requisition, and Duty paid before Issue of Licence.

IX. Within Ten Days after such Requisition shall have been left at such Office or Place as aforesaid the said Commissioners, unless, in pursuance of the Powers by this Act vested in them in that Behalf, they reject such Application, shall endorse or cause to be endorsed upon such Requisition their Approval of the Application thereby made; and upon Payment of the Amount of Duty chargeable for such Licence the Person applying for such Licence shall be entitled to receive the same from the proper Officer authorized in that Behalf, without further Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, except the Cost of the Dublin Plate, to be used in the Case of any Carriage or Cart, or Horse, as herein-after mentioned; and no Licence shall in any Case be issued until the Requisition so endorsed by the Commissioners or other Officer acting on their Behalf shall have been first filed in such Office or Place as the said Commissioners shall appoint.

Commissioners to grant Licences to Proprietors.

X. The said Commissioners shall and may grant Licences, under their Hands, upon the Terms and Conditions and in the Manner and Form herein-after mentioned, to keep, ply, use, or let to Hire any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, within the Limits of this Act; and every such Licence shall take Effect from the Date thereof, and shall continue in force so long as the annual Duty payable thereupon under the Provisions of this Act, to be computed from the First Day of January of each Year, shall be paid in manner as herein directed, or until the same shall be voluntarily surrendered by the Party named therein, or otherwise be determined or revoked under the Provisions of this Act; and every such Payment of Duty shall be made at an Office provided for the Purpose by the said Commissioners, in One annual Payment or in Two equal half-yearly Instalments, at a Time or Times or within a Period or Periods to be specified in such Licence as and for such Payment; and such Payment or Payments of the said annual Duty in respect of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse described in the said Licence shall be certified by the Officer duly appointed for that Purpose, whose Certificate thereof shall be received as sufficient Evidence of the Existence or Continuance in force of said Licence: Provided always, that in regard of any such Carriage it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, to refuse to grant any such Licence, or to revoke any such Licence which may have been theretofore granted, in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners, upon Inspection or otherwise, that the Carriage, in respect of which such Licence shall be applied for or granted, or any Horse or Harness used with any such Carriage, is unserviceable or unsafe, or otherwise unfit for public Accommodation or Use, or that the Person applying for or in possession of any Licence is an unfit Person to hold the same by reason of his having been convicted of any Theft or Felony, or of his having been convicted of any Assault, or of Drunkenness, or of any Breach of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Rules, Orders, or Byelaws made in pursuance thereof; but in all such Cases of Refusal or Revocation the said Commissioners shall endorse upon or annex in Writing to such Licence or the Requisition therefor the Grounds for such Refusal or Revocation: Provided also, that a Licence shall not on any Account be granted to any Person under the Age of Eighteen Years, otherwise than jointly with some Person of full Age who shall be appointed to act as Trustee, Executor, Guardian, or Administrator of the Will or Personal Estate of a Proprietor dying while licensed, and in any such Case the Trustee, Executor, Guardian, or Administrator named in the Licence shall, during the Minority of any Person or Persons named in such Licence with him, be accountable in all respects as if Proprietor of such Carriage, Cart, or Horse: Provided also, that there shall be obtained a separate and distinct Licence for using or letting to Hire every Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Horse, and Cart; but no Licence so obtained shall authorize the Use of any such Carriage or Cart in any Manner contrary to the Import of the Licence appertaining to such Carriage or Cart within the Meaning of this Act: Provided also, that in every Case in which a Licence is to be obtained the proper Duty in respect of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse, to be described therein, shall be first paid, as herein required, and shall be paid in every Year thenceforward, while in force, according to the General Regulations which the said Commissioners of Police shall require to be observed, and which they are by this Act empowered to make for the Purpose, and to prescribe in each Licence: Provided also, that every Licence to be issued under this Act shall be deemed to be an Authority only to the Person or Persons named therein, but that on the Transfer by Sale or otherwise of the Property or Ownership in any Carriage, other than a Hackney Carriage, or in any Job Horse, or Cart, for which a Licence shall be granted, or on the Admission of any Person as a Partner in the Ownership of any such Carriage, Horse, or Cart, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant, in lieu of such Licence, to any Person or Persons who shall be named in any Requisition to be addressed to them for the Purpose, a Licence to the like Effect; and that whenever it shall be agreed upon to sell or assign any licensed Hackney Carriage, or to give any Person a Share in the Ownership thereof, a Requisition for a Licence, according to such Agreement or Determination, shall be first sent to the said Commissioners, and if they shall consider the Person so proposed as Purchaser, Assignee, or Partner to be a fit Person to be licensed as a Proprietor of a Hackney Carriage, having regard to the Limitations herein made for the Purpose of preventing improper Persons from obtaining Licences, it shall then, but not otherwise, be lawful to grant, in lieu of the Licence for such Carriage then in force, a Licence to the Person or Persons named in the said Requisition; and in every such Case as aforesaid in which the Duty according to any such Licence shall have been paid for the Year or Period then present, the new Licence shall be granted without Payment of any further Duty for such Year or Period: Provided also, that in all Cases it shall be sufficient in any Proceedings under this Act to name the Proprietor or Proprietors actually licensed at the Time, and on Proof thereof such Proceedings shall extend to and include every Person concerned in the Ownership of any Carriage, Cart, or Horse, in the Use, hiring, or plying of which any Offence or Injury shall be committed.

Particulars to be specified in each Licence.

XI. There shall be specified in every such Licence to be granted as aforesaid the following Particulars, or such of them as said Commissioners shall think proper; that is to say, the true Christian Name and Surname of every Person who shall be Proprietor or Part Proprietor of the Carriage, Cart, or Horse in respect of which such Licence shall be granted, or who shall be concerned, either solely, or in Partnership with any other Person, in the keeping, using, or in any way employing such Carriage, Cart, or Horse, except in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company when it shall be sufficient to name the public Officer thereof, also the Name of the Place or Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor, with a correct Reference thereto, and the Number and descriptive Words painted or marked on the "Dublin Plate" to be delivered with such Licence, and in the Case of every Stage Carriage the Place within the Limits of this Act from which it shall first proceed on each Journey, together with the Place to which every such Stage Carriage shall so proceed, and the Route to the Destination thereof, also the greatest Number of Passengers or Persons to be conveyed by such Stage Carriage, distinguishing (when the same is intended to convey Passengers both Inside and Outside) the Number to be carried Outside from the Number to be carried in the Inside of such Carriage; and in every Licence there shall be specified a Period or Periods of Time, to be fixed by the said Commissioners, within which Payment of Duty shall be made, as herein-before required; and every Licence shall bear Date on the Day and Year during which the same shall be granted, and shall be produced to the said Commissioners at all Time and Times, and from Time to Time, as the same shall be required or ordered by the said Commissioners to be produced.

Entries of all Licences to be made in a Book to be kept in the Office of the Commissioners, and certified Extracts to be Evidence in all Proceedings for Penalties or otherwise.

XII. The Particulars of every Licence which shall be granted under any of the Provisions of this Act, and of all Endorsements thereupon, shall be entered, in such Manner and Form as the said Commissioners of Police shall direct, in a Book or Books to be kept at the Office of said Commissioners; and in all Courts, and before any Justice, and upon all Occasions whatsoever, an Extract from or a Copy of any of the Entries made or contained in such Book or Books, certified under the Hand of the principal Officer in charge thereof, in Presence of the Person who shall produce and verify the same, shall be received as Evidence and be deemed to be sufficient Proof of all Matters and Things registered and contained in any such Book relating to any such Licence as aforesaid, without requiring the Production of any such Book, or of the original Licence, or of any Requisition, Notice, or other Document upon which any such Entries may be founded, and without any further Proof than the Production of the certified Extract or Copy aforesaid.

Penalty on Persons procuring Licences in a fictitious Name.

XIII. If any Person, for the Purpose of procuring any Licence under any of the Provisions of this Act, shall use or employ any false or fictitious Name or Place of Abode, or other false or fictitious Description of any Person or supposed Person, or shall wilfully or knowingly insert or cause to be inserted in any Requisition for any such Licence, or in any such Licence, any false or fictitious Name or Place of Abode, or other false or fictitious Description of any Person or supposed Person, or shall wilfully or knowingly insert or cause to be inserted in any such Requisition or in any such Licence as aforesaid the Name of any Person as being a Proprietor or Part Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, who shall not at the Time of the Application for such Licence be in fact such Proprietor or Part Proprietor thereof respectively, the Person so offending shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof he shall forfeit such Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, or suffer an Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for such Term of Time not exceeding Two Months, and either with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit and adjudge; and the Licence shall be revoked.

XIV. As

Notice to be given of Change of Place named in Licence and Change to be endorsed.

XIV. As often as the Place named in any Licence to be granted under this Act as the Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid shall be changed, the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors thereby licensed shall, within Four Days next after such Change, give Notice thereof in Writing, signed by him, to the said Commissioners, and to be delivered at the Office which shall be appointed by them as the Place at which Licences shall be issued; and in such Notice there shall be specified the new Place of Residence or Office of Business of such Proprietor or Proprietors, and such Proprietor shall at the same Time produce such Licence at the said Office, whereupon an Officer duly authorized thereto shall endorse thereon and sign a Memorandum specifying the Particulars of such Change, and in the Case of every Stage Carriage shall in like Manner notify for Endorsement any Change required to be made in the Route of such Carriage to the Destination named therein; and if any Person named in any such Licence as the Proprietor or One of the Proprietors of any such Carriage or other Property as aforesaid shall neglect or omit to give Notice of any such Change, or to produce such Licence, in order that such Memorandum as aforesaid may be endorsed thereon, within the Time and in the Manner herein limited, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and if any of the Particulars entered or endorsed upon any such Licence, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act, shall be erased or otherwise defaced, every such Licence shall be wholly void and of none Effect.

Penalty for Neglect, 40*s*.

Commissioners to issue Plates with Licences.

XV. The said Commissioners shall, at the Time of granting a Licence for any such Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, deliver to the Person or Persons applying for such Licence a numbered Plate, upon which there shall be painted or marked, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, a Number corresponding with the Number which shall be inserted in such Licence, together with such Letter, Word, or other Device or Devices (if any) as the said Commissioners shall think fit to cause to be painted or marked thereon according to the Nature of the Licence granted; and such Plate shall be known and distinguished from all other Plates, Labels, and Marks required by this Act, or which the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to require, by the Name of the Dublin Plate.

A Fee of 1*s*. to be paid for every Dublin Plate.

XVI. There shall be charged upon and in respect of every such Plate to be issued under the Authority of this Act a Sum of One Shilling, to be paid to the Officer duly appointed to issue such Plate, and to be applied by the Receiver of the Dublin Metropolitan Police, after Payment of the Expense of such Plate, to the Funds of the Police Establishment.

Plates to be delivered up on Expiration of Licences.

XVII. Whenever any Licence granted under this Act with which a Dublin Plate is hereby directed to be delivered shall be revoked by the said Commissioners, or whenever the Amount of Duty payable in respect thereof shall not be duly paid at the Time or within the Period as herein-before required, the Licence so revoked or in respect of which the Duty shall not have been paid as aforesaid, and the Dublin Plate corresponding to the Number mentioned therein, shall be delivered up to the said Commissioners; and every Person in whose Possession the Carriage, Cart, or Horse specified in any such Licence shall be who shall neglect or refuse so to deliver up such Plate within Three Days after the Revocation of such Licence, or the Expiration of the Time or Times, Period or Periods in any Year, fixed for the Payment of the Duty in respect thereof, as aforesaid, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

New Dublin Plates to be delivered in lieu of those defaced or lost.

XVIII. Whenever the Number of any Dublin Plate shall become obliterated or defaced, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, and also whenever any such Plate shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners to have been lost or mislaid, the Person to whom the Licence relating to any such Plate shall have been granted shall surrender and deliver up such Plate (if he shall have the same in his Possession), and shall produce such Licence to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, for Endorsement, and such Person shall then be entitled to have a new Plate delivered to him in lieu of the Plate so delivered up, or lost or mislaid, upon the Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for each Plate, and such new Plate may bear the same or a different Number, as to the said Commissioners may seem fit; and in all Cases, in order to allow Time for the Manufacture or procuring of any Dublin Plate, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in their Discretion, or their proper Officer, on the Payment of the said Sum, and according to the Exigency of the Case, to grant a printed or written Permission to the Person or Persons named in the Licence relating to such Dublin Plate to use or ply for Hire without a Dublin Plate being affixed thereto, and for such Time as the said Commissioners shall deem requisite, any Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse for which such Plate shall be required: Provided always, that if any Plate which shall have been proved as aforesaid or represented to have been lost or mislaid shall afterwards be found, the same shall forthwith be delivered up to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer; and if any Person into whose Possession any such Plate as last aforesaid shall be or come shall refuse or neglect for the Space of Three Days to deliver up the same to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, or if any Person licensed under the Authority of this Act shall use the Plate granted to him after the Number thereon shall be in any Manner obliterated, defaced, or obscured, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Police Officer, without Warrant, to seize and take away any such Plate, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners shall direct.

Penalty for not delivering up lost Plate when found, or for using a Plate after it has been defaced, 40*s*.

Drivers of Carriages, Carts, &c., without Plates, may be apprehended, and Carriages or Carts may be detained.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any Constable or Officer of the Dublin Police, without any Warrant for that Purpose, to apprehend, within the Limits of this Act, the Driver or other Person plying for Hire with or having the Care of any Hackney Carriage, Job or Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, on which the Plates and Marks required under the Provisions of this Act shall not be affixed, and to convey him before any Justice; and it shall also be lawful for such Constable or Police Officer to drive or take the Carriage, Cart, or Horse not having such Plates and Marks as aforesaid, or any Carriage, Cart, or Horse which shall be subject to a Licence by virtue of this Act which shall be found plying or employed contrary to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, with the Horse or Horses harnessed to such Carriage or Cart, or drawing the same, or to cause the same to be driven or taken to some Livery Stables or other Place of Safety, and there to lodge the same until the Determination of such Justice shall be known, and the Justice before whom such Driver or other Person shall be brought shall hear and determine such Offence; and in case of a Conviction, if the Penalty inflicted, together with the Costs and Expenses, and the Expenses of taking such Carriage or Cart and Horse and Horses to and keeping the same at such Yard, Livery Stables, or other Place shall not be fully paid or discharged within Five Days after such Conviction, such Carriage or Cart and Horse or Horses, and also the Harness used therewith, shall be sold, by Order under the Hand of such Justice, and the Surplus, if any, of the Produce of such Sale shall, after deducting therefrom the said Penalty, Expenses, and Costs, and the Expenses of such Sale, be rendered to the Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart.

Carriages having Dublin Plates to be deemed Hackney, &c., according to the Evidence of Plate.

XX. In any Complaint or other Proceeding for the Recovery of any Penalty incurred under this Act in respect of or with relation to any such Carriage or Cart, if Evidence shall be given that the Carriage or Cart in respect of which or in any Manner relating to which any such Proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted was seen having thereon any Dublin Plate by this Act directed to be fixed upon such Carriage or Cart respectively, or having thereon any Plate resembling or intended to resemble any such Plate as aforesaid, such Carriage or Cart shall be deemed and taken to be a Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, or Cart, according to the descriptive Letter, Word, or other Device or Devices appearing on such Plate, and such Evidence as aforesaid shall be received as sufficient Proof that such Carriage or Cart was kept for Use or let to Hire as such Carriage or Cart respectively, according to the Purport of the said Plate within the Meaning of this Act; and that in all such Proceedings as aforesaid the Person named or described in the Licence granted with or relating to the Number of the Dublin Plate fixed or placed upon such Carriage or Cart, whether such Licence shall be in force or not, shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed to be the Proprietor of such Carriage or Cart, unless the contrary be proved.

Forgery of any Licence or Dublin Plate a Misdemeanor.

XXI. If any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or shall procure to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled, any Licence to be granted as aforesaid, or any Dublin Plate by this Act directed to be provided for the Purpose of being fixed upon Hackney Carriages, Job Carriages, Stage Carriages, Carts, or Job Horses, or if any Person shall wilfully fix or place, or cause or permit or suffer to be fixed or placed, upon any Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse any such forged or counterfeited Plate as aforesaid, or if any Person shall make or cause to be made, sell, or exchange or bestow, or expose to Sale or utter, any such forged or counterfeited Plate, or if any Person shall knowingly, and without any lawful Excuse, the Proof of which shall be on the Person accused, have or be possessed of any such forged or counterfeited Plate, every Person so offending, and every Person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting any Person in committing any such Offence as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted shall be punished by Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for a Term not exceeding Two Months, and either with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for any Constable or Police Officer, without Warrant, to seize and take away any such Plate, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners of Police shall think proper.

Commissioners empowered to recall Dublin Plates for the Purpose of being changed.

XXII. Whenever, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, it shall be expedient to recall any Dublin Plate, for the Purpose of changing the same for any other Dublin Plate bearing the same or a different Number, the said Commissioners shall cause Notice to be given to the Person or to any One of the Persons to whom the Licence relating to such Plate shall have been granted, signifying that the said Commissioners do thereby recall such Plate; and the Person or Persons to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall, within One Week after such Notice, deliver up such Plate, and produce the Licence relating to the same, to the said Commissioners, or to their Officer appointed to issue Licences and Plates, and also apply to the said Commissioners for a new Plate, and thereupon the said Commissioners or such Officer shall deliver to the Person so applying for the same, at the Expense of the Applicant, a new Dublin Plate, in lieu of the Plate so recalled; and if any new Plate issued under the Provisions of this Act shall bear a Number different from the Number mentioned in the Licence belonging thereto, the said Commissioners or such Officer as aforesaid shall endorse upon such Licence a Memorandum of the granting of such new Plate, with the Number thereof, and from thenceforth such Licence shall be deemed to relate to such new Plate, in the same Manner as if the Number thereof had been originally inserted in the Body of such Licence; and if any Person shall not within One Week after Notice given to him in the Manner herein directed, deliver up the Plate mentioned in such Notice according to the Terms thereof, and produce the Licence relating to such Plate, and apply for a new Plate, and fix such new Plate upon his Carriage or Cart, as the Case may be, in such Place and Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, to revoke the Licence to which such Plate shall relate: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Commissioners that the Number upon such Plate so delivered up as aforesaid shall have been wilfully obliterated or rendered illegible by any other Means than by regular and proper Use and Wear thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to refuse to deliver any Plate in lieu of the plate so surrendered and delivered up as aforesaid, unless the Person applying for the same shall also surrender and deliver up the Licence relating to such surrendered Plate, and shall take out and pay for a new Licence relating to the Plate to be delivered in lieu thereof.

Commissioners to give Notice of Revocation of Licence.

XXIII. Whenever the said Commissioners shall revoke any Licence granted under the Authority of this Act to the Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, Job or Stage Carriage, Job Horse, or Cart, or the Licence of any Driver or Conductor licensed under this Act, they shall forthwith cause a Notice of such Revocation, in such Form as they shall think fit, and signed by any One of them, to be given to the Person named in such Licence as the Person licensed, or left for him at the Place mentioned in such Licence as the Place of his Abode; and in case he shall have quitted such Place, or the same shall be a false or fictitious Place of Abode, then the said Commissioners shall cause such Notice to be posted up in some public Place at the Office appointed for the Issue of such Licences, which shall be deemed a good and sufficient Notice of such Revocation to all Intents and Purposes.

Plates may be seized where the Licence is discontinued or revoked, or where the same are used without Licence.

XXIV. In any Case where any such Licence shall have been discontinued or revoked, or where any such Licence shall have become null and void, under the Provisions of this Act, and the numbered Plate or Figure in respect of the same shall not have been delivered up to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, or where any Hackney Carriage, Job or Stage Carriage, Horse, or Cart Plate shall have been recalled by the said Commissioners, and the same shall not have been delivered up as by Law required, and in any Case where any Hackney Carriage or other such Plate shall be in the Possession of or be used by any Person who shall not have a Licence in force relating to the same, it shall be lawful for any Constable to seize and take away any such Plate, wheresoever the same may be found, in order to deliver the same to the said Commissioners; and for the Purpose of seizing and taking away any such Plate, or any forged or counterfeit Plate, it shall be lawful for any such Constable to stop any Carriage or Horse upon which the same may be; and any Person who shall molest, obstruct, or hinder any such Constable in seizing or endeavouring to seize or take away any such Plate shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds; and if in any such Case where any such Plate shall be found in the Possession of any Person who shall not have a Licence in force relating to the same it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that the said Plate is or was so possessed by such Person for the Purpose of being used, or that such licensed Person had parted with the same for the Purpose of being used by any other Person, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, and also in any Case where any Plate shall have been recalled as aforesaid and not delivered up, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper, to revoke the Licence to which such Plate shall relate.

Penalty for obstructing Officer, 5*l*.

Licences may be revoked in certain Cases.

No Person to let to Hire any unlicensed Carriage, &c.

XXV. It shall not be lawful for any Person to use or let to Hire any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, at any Place within the Limits of this Act, unless such Person shall have a Licence in force for the same under the Hands or Hand of the said Commissioners or One of them, nor unless there shall be fixed on such Carriage and Cart, and upon the Harness of every such Job Horse respectively, in such Place and Manner as the said Commissioners shall in relation thereto respectively from Time to Time order and direct, the Dublin Plate belonging to or corresponding with every such Licence respectively, and likewise all and every such other Plates, Labels, and Marks as the said Commissioners shall think proper to be fixed, painted, or marked thereon, pursuant to the Provisions hereinafter in that Behalf contained; and if any Person shall use or let to Hire, or shall be concerned, as Proprietor or Part Proprietor, in using or letting to Hire, at any Place within the Limits of this Act, any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or any Job Horse, without having a Licence in force for the same or without having paid the annual Duty for such Licence, in manner as by this Act provided, or without having such Plate fixed as aforesaid, such Person shall forfeit as a Penalty for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every Carriage, Cart, or Horse so used or let to Hire as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall interfere with the Power herein-before given to the said Commissioners, at their Discretion, to grant a written or printed Permission to any Person to use or ply for Hire any Carriage, Cart, or Horse without a Dublin Plate being affixed thereto, where such Permission shall be deemed necessary by the said Commissioners: Provided also, that it shall not be necessary in any Case where any Carriage, and Horse or Horses, are used or let for Hire, that there shall be a Licence for such Carriage or for such Horse or Horses separate and distinct from each other respectively, but that One Licence shall be deemed sufficient to authorize the using and letting for Hire of any such Carriage and Horse or Horses.

Penalty on keeping for Use, or letting to Hire, any Hackney, &c. Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse, without Licence.

Property left in licensed Carriages to be deposited at Police Station.

XXVI. The Proprietor or Driver of every Carriage licensed under the Provisions of this Act, wherein any Property whatever shall be left by any Person hiring or using the same, shall, within Twenty-four Hours next after the same shall have been so left, restore such Property, in the State in which the same shall have been found, to the Owner thereof, or if the Owner cannot be traced within said District, shall convey the Property to the Office of the said Commissioners, or if found in any Carriage usually employed in conveying Passengers to and from the Stations of the Dublin and Kingstown Railway outside the City of Dublin, thence to the Police Station nearest to the Railway Station at which such Carriage shall take up and set down Passengers, and shall in such Places respectively deposit such Property; and if any Proprietor or Driver shall make any Default herein he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and such further Sum as shall, in the Judgment of the Justice before whom Complaint shall be made, appear to be a reasonable Compensation for such Property, if the same shall not be restored, and which Compensation shall be recoverable in like Manner as a Penalty under this Act, and be payable to the Owner of the Property detained; and when any such Property shall be found and duly deposited as aforesaid, the Officer receiving the same shall forthwith give an Acknowledgment to the Depositor, and make an Entry and Return thereof, according to the Regulations of the said Commissioners, which they are hereby required to make, for the Custody, Restoration, or Disposal of all such Property; and the Property so deposited shall be returned to the Person who shall prove Ownership to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, such Person previously paying all Expenses incurred, together with such Sum to the Person who shall have been actually driving the Carriage, or shall have been employed in or about it, and, having found the Property, shall deposit the same as herein directed; as with reference to the Value of the Property the said Commissioners shall award: Provided always, that if any Property so found and deposited shall not be claimed by some Person proving Ownership as aforesaid within One Year after the Date of Deposit (the Property having been advertised in such Manner as the said Commissioners may direct), such Property shall be, in default of such Claim within the Time so limited, sold or otherwise disposed of, and the Proceeds thereof paid over to the said Receiver, to be carried to the Account of Monies for defraying the Expenses of the Police Establishment of the said District of Dublin Metropolis, after deducting such Sum as the Commissioners may award to the Person who shall have been actually driving the Carriage, or shall have been employed in or about it, and having found the Property shall deposit the same as herein directed: Provided also, that nothing herein shall be deemed to extend to Property found in a Stage Carriage at any Place not within the Limits of this Act.

Commissioners may regulate the Route and Conduct of Persons driving Carriages, Cattle, &c. during the Hours of Divine Service.

XXVII. On the Application of the Minister or Churchwardens of any Church, Chapel, or other Place of Public Worship within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis to the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make Orders for regulating the Route and Conduct of Persons who shall drive any Carriage, Cart, or other Vehicle, within such Parish or Place, during the Hours of Divine Service on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving; and any Orders which shall be so made shall be printed and affixed on or near the Church, Chapel, or Place of Public Worship to which the same shall refer, and in some conspicuous Places leading to and contiguous thereto, and elsewhere, as the said Commissioners shall direct; and every Breach of any such Order shall be deemed a separate Offence.

Commissioners to make Regulations for preventing Obstructions by Carriages, &c. in the Phœnix Park, &c.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and as Occasion may require to make Regulations for the Route to be observed by all Carriages, Carts, or other Vehicles, Horses, and Persons, and for preventing disorderly Conduct, Contention, Obstruction, or accidental or intentional Damage within Her Majesty's Park of the Phœnix, or upon the Roads, Thoroughfares, and Passages therein or thereto adjoining, and also to give Directions to the Constables of the said District for keeping Order, and for preventing Obstructions of the Roads and Thoroughfares in the immediate Neighbourhood thereof, and in any Case when the said Roads or Thoroughfares may be thronged, or may be liable to be obstructed, and for preventing disorderly Conduct, Contention, Obstruction, or accidental or intentional Damage in the said Park of the Phœnix.

Commissioners may make Regulations for preventing Obstructions in the Streets, &c.

XXIX. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and as Occasion shall require to make Regulations for the Route to be observed by all Carriages, Carts, or other Vehicles, or Horses and Persons, and for preventing Obstruction of the Streets and Thoroughfares within the said District, and also to give Directions to the Constables for keeping Order, and for preventing any Obstruction of the Thoroughfares in the immediate Neighbourhood of any Place or Places of public Resort, and in any Case when the Streets or Thoroughfares may be thronged or may be liable to be obstructed.

Proof of Publication of Rules sufficient Notice to all Persons concerned.

XXX. Proof upon Oath that a Copy of any such Regulations made by the Commissioners has been published in any daily Newspaper in the City of Dublin, or that such Regulations have been printed and posted in the Vicinity of any public Place to which the same shall refer, previously to the Time fixed for the Observance of same, shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of such Regulations, and of all Persons concerned having Notice thereof.

When Proprietors not liable to Penalties for deviating from Route.

XXXI. No Proprietor of any Stage Carriage duly licensed to carry Passengers for Hire shall be liable to any Penalty for any Deviation from the Route or Line of Route specified in his Licence which the Driver of such Stage Carriage shall make by virtue of any Regulations or Direction made or given by the said Commissioners.

Compensation for Hurt or Damages.

XXXII. In every Case where any Hurt or Damage shall have been caused by the Negligence, wilful Misbehaviour, or other Misconduct of the Driver of any Carriage or Vehicle of any Kind whatsoever, or of the Person in charge thereof, or in charge of any Horse within the Limits of this Act, every Person so offending shall further pay such a Sum as shall appear to the Justice to be a reasonable Compensation to the Person so aggrieved or injured, and the Evidence of such Person shall be admitted in proof of the Offence: Provided always, if the Person so aggrieved or injured shall have been the only Witness examined in proof of the Offence, such Sum so ordered as Compensation shall be paid and applied in the same Manner as a Penalty, and in default of Payment of such Penalty and of such Compensation, if ordered, together with the Costs attending such Conviction, immediately or within such Time as such Justice shall appoint, such Justice shall and may commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, to be there imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Months, unless such Penalty, together with the Costs and Compensation, if ordered, be sooner paid; and every such Offender shall and may by the Authority of this Act, with or without any Warrant, be apprehended by any Person who shall see such Offence committed, and shall be immediately conveyed or delivered to a Constable, in order to be conveyed before some Justice.

Penalty on Persons acting as Drivers, &c. without having Licence and Badge;

XXXIII. It shall not not be lawful for any Person to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or of any Job Horse, or as Driver or Conductor of any Stage Carriage, whether such Person shall or shall not be the Proprietor of such Carriage or Horse within the Limits of this Act, unless in each Case such Person shall have a Licence so to do, and a numbered Badge granted to him under the Authority of this Act and remaining in force; and every Person who shall act as such Driver or Conductor ductor without such Licence and Badge, and also every Person to whom a Licence and Badge shall have been granted who shall sell or exchange, bestow or transfer, or let upon hire such Licence, or permit any other Person to use or wear such Badge, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and every Proprietor who shall knowingly suffer any Person not duly licensed under the Authority of this Act to act as Driver of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or as Conductor of any Stage Carriage of which he shall be the Proprietor, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall subject to any Penalty any Proprietor who shall employ any unlicensed Person to act as such Driver or Conductor as aforesaid for any Time not exceeding Twenty-four Hours, or any unlicensed Person who shall be so employed for the said Time, upon Proof being adduced by the Proprietor to the Satisfaction of the Justice before whom such Proprietor, Driver, or Conductor shall be required to attend to answer for such Offences respectively that such Employment was occasioned by unavoidable Necessity; and that every Proprietor who shall so employ such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, and every such unlicensed Driver or Conductor, shall be subject to all the Powers, Provisions, and Proceedings of and under this Act for any Act done by such Driver or Conductor during such Employment in like Manner as if such Driver or Conductor had been duly licensed.

and on Proprietors suffering Persons to act as Drivers or Conductors not being licensed.

Proviso as to Persons being employed temporarily.

Proprietors to be summoned to appear and produce Drivers and their Licences, &c.

XXXIV. When any Complaint, verbal or written, shall be made before any Justice against the Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or of any Job Horse or Horses, or any Person having the Care thereof or plying for Hire therewith respectively, for any Offence committed by him against any of the Provisions of this Act, such Justice shall forthwith summon the Proprietor of such Carriage, Cart, Horse or Horses, and by the said Summons require the said Proprietor personally to be and appear, and to produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the Licence and Badge (if any) theretofore granted to said Driver, to answer such Complaint, and for such Purpose every Proprietor who shall obtain any Licence under this Act, and who shall permit or employ any licensed Person to act as a Driver of any such Carriage or Horse, or as a Conductor of any such Stage Carriage, shall require to be delivered to him and shall retain in his Possession the Licence of such Driver or Conductor while such Driver or Conductor shall remain in his Service; and if any such Proprietor being duly summoned shall neglect or refuse personally to appear, or to produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the said Licence and Badge, according to the Exigency of such Summons, without a reasonable Excuse to be allowed by the Justice before whom he and the said Driver ought to appear according to such Summons, such Proprietor shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and so from Time to Time as often as he shall be so summoned until such Driver or other Person so complained against shall be produced by him to answer such Complaint: Provided always, that if such Proprietor shall neglect or refuse to appear or produce such Driver or other Person so complained against, together with the said Licence and Badge, in obedience to any Summons requiring him so to do, without a reasonable Excuse to be allowed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to hear and determine the said Complaint in the Absence of the said Proprietor and Driver or other Person complained against, or either of them, and upon Proof of such Offence by the Oath of One or more than One credible Witness to give Judgment against such Proprietor for a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, and thereupon the said Justice is required to cause a Return of the said Judgment to be made forthwith to the said Commissioners, or to a Person duly authorized by them to receive the same.

Justices to determine Disputes between Proprietors and Drivers.

XXXV. In case of any Dispute between the Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse kept for Use or let to Hire within the Limits of this Act, and the Driver of any such Carriage, Cart, or Horse, or any Person having the Care thereof, or plying for Hire therewith, respectively, as to any Matter relating to or connected with the Business or Employment of such Driver or Proprietor, then upon Complaint made before any Justice by such Proprietor against such Driver or other Person as aforesaid, or by such Driver or other Person as aforesaid against such Proprietor, such Justice shall inquire into and determine the same, and shall award and order such Compensation, whether the same shall be demanded by way of Wages or otherwise, to be made to either Party as to such Justice shall seem proper; and in case of Nonpayment of the Amount of the Compensation so ordered by such Justice within Seven Days after the same shall be so awarded, such Justice shall cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Party refusing or neglecting to make Payment thereof.

Agreements between Drivers, &c. and Proprietors to be in Writing.

XXXVI. It shall not be lawful either in any Court of Law or before any Justice to enforce the Payment of any Sum of Money claimed from any Driver or Conductor by any Proprietor on account of the Earnings of any Hackney Carriage or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Stage Carriage, or by reason of any Neglect or personal Misconduct of such Driver or Conductor, unless under an Agreement in Writing which shall have been signed by such Driver or Conductor in the Presence of a competent Witness.

Proceedings with respect to Licences on quitting Service.

XXXVII. When any licensed Driver or Conductor shall leave the Service of any Proprietor, such Proprietor shall, upon Demand thereof, return to him his Licence: Provided always, that if the said Proprietor shall have any Complaint against the said Driver or Conductor, it shall be lawful for such Proprietor to retain the Licence for any Time not exceeding Two Days after the Demand thereof, and within that Time to apply to the Police Court of the District in which the said Proprietor shall dwell for a Summons against him; and the said Proprietor at the Time of applying for the Summons shall deposit the Licence with the Clerk of such Police Court or Justice; and in case any Proprietor who, upon Demand thereof, shall have refused or neglected to deliver to any Driver or Conductor his Licence, Licence, shall not within Two Days, exclusive of Sunday, or any Day on which the Police Court shall not sit, apply for such Summons, and deposit the Licence as aforesaid, or shall not appear to prosecute his Complaint at the Time mentioned in the Summons, it shall be lawful for such Driver or Conductor to apply at the same Police Court, or to some Justice as aforesaid, for a Summons against such Proprietor; and upon hearing and deciding the Case the Justice, if he shall think there was no just Cause for detaining the Licence, or that there has been needless Delay on the Part of the Proprietor in bringing the Matter to a Hearing, shall have Power to order the said Proprietor to pay such Compensation to the said Driver or Conductor as the said Justice shall think reasonable, and Payment of such Compensation shall be enforced in the same Manner as any Penalty may be enforced under the Provisions of this Act; and the Justice shall cause the Licence to be delivered to the said Driver or Conductor, unless any Misconduct shall be proved against him by reason whereof the Justice shall think that such Licence shall be revoked or suspended; and so long as any Proprietor shall neglect to apply for such Summons and deposit the Licence after such Demand thereof as aforesaid, any Justice may in like Manner from Time to Time order Compensation to be paid by him to the same Driver or Conductor; and no Proprietor shall, under any Pretence or by virtue of any Claim whatever, retain beyond the Time aforesaid the Licence of his Driver or Conductor.

Driver to deliver a Ticket to Hirer of Carriage.

XXXVIII. Every Driver of a Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act shall, on each Occasion when such Carriage shall be hired, deliver, if required, to the Hirer thereof a Card, on which shall be printed, in legible Letters and Figures, the Words "Hackney Carriage," and the Number of the Dublin Plate fixed on such Hackney Carriage, or such other Words or Figures as the said Commissioners of Police may direct.

Penalty on Drivers of Hackney Carriages refusing to hire, or exacting more than legal Fare.

XXXIX. If the Driver of any Hackney Carriage shall, on Tender of the legal and proper Fare, refuse to go with any Person desirous of hiring such Carriage to any Place within the Limits of this Act, or to any Place within Ten Statute Miles of the General Post Office in the City of Dublin, or shall, when conveying any Person for Hire, occupy more than Ten Minutes in performing the Distance of any One Mile, except by the express Desire of such Person, or in case of Accident or Obstruction, or if the Driver of any Hackney Carriage shall exact or demand for the Hire thereof more than the legal and proper Fare, the Person so offending in any Case shall forfeit for such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Hackney Carriages found in any Street to be deemed plying for Hire.

XL. Every Carriage having thereon the Dublin Plate required by this Act to be fixed on Hackney Carriages which shall be found standing in any Street or Place within the Limits of this Act, or within Ten Statute Miles of the General Post Office in the City of Dublin, having a Horse harnessed thereto, and being equipped for Use, shall, unless actually hired, or unless such Driver have a reasonable Excuse to be allowed by the Justice before whom the Matter shall be brought in question, be deemed to be plying for Hire, although such Hackney Carriage shall not be on any Standing or Place usually appropriated for the Purpose of Hackney Carriages standing or plying for Hire; and the Driver of every such Hackney Carriage which shall not be actually hired shall be obliged and compelled to go with any Person desirous of hiring such Hackney Carriage to any Place within the Limits of this Act, or to any Place within Ten Statute Miles of the General Post Office in the City of Dublin; and upon the hearing of any Complaint against the Driver of any such Hackney Carriage who shall refuse Hire on Tender of the legal Fare he shall be obliged to adduce Evidence of having been and of being actually hired at the Time of such Refusal, and in case he shall fail therein he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Driver refusing Fare, Penalty 40*s*.

Compensation to be made to Party improperlysummoned for refusing to hire.

XLI. If the Driver of any Hackney Carriage shall in civil and explicit Terms declare to any Person desirous to hire such Hackney Carriage that it is actually hired, and shall afterwards, notwithstanding such Reply, be summoned to answer for his refusal to carry such Person in or upon the said Hackney Carriage, and shall upon the hearing of the Complaint produce sufficient Evidence to prove that such Hackney Carriage had been previously hired by an actual and bonâ fide Engagement for a Period of Time then to come, which Engagement could not have been fulfilled if the Carriage had been let to Hire to the Person so complaining, and it shall not appear that the said Driver used uncivil Language, or that he improperly conducted himself towards the Person complaining, or in case such Person so complaining shall not appear at the Time and Place specified in such Summons for the hearing thereof, the Justice before whom such Complaint shall be heard or such Default of Appearance shall be made shall order the Person who shall have summoned such Proprietor or Driver to make to him such Compensation for his Loss of Time in attending to make his Defence to such Complaint as such Justice shall deem reasonable, and in default of Payment thereof within Seven Days after the making of such Order shall cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person adjudged to owe such Compensation.

Penalty for demanding, in any Case, more than Sum agreed for.

XLII. If the Proprietor of any Hackney Carriage, or any Person usually acting for the Proprietor or the Driver of such Carriage, shall agree beforehand with any Person requiring such Carriage to accept any Sum less than the proper Rate of Fare allowed by Law, and such Proprieter, Person, or Driver shall nevertheless exact or demand subsequently for the said Carriage on such Occasion more than the Sum agreed for, the Proprietor, or if such Exaction or Demand shall be made by the Driver, then the said Driver, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for such Offence.

Agreement to pay to Driver more than legal fare not binding.

XLIII. No Agreement whatever made with the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage for the Payment of more than his proper Fare as fixed or limited by Law shall be binding or held to authorize any Overcharge whatsoever; and in case any Person shall be required to pay and shall pay to the Extra Sum so paid may be recovered.

the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage, whether in pursuance of an Agreement or not, any Sum exceeding the proper Fare, the Person paying the same shall be entitled, on Complaint made against such Proprietor or Driver before any Justice, to recover back the Sum paid beyond the proper Fare; and moreover such Proprietor or Driver shall forfeit, as a Penalty for such Exaction, a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and in default of the Repayment thereupon of such Excess of Fare, or of Payment of the said Penalty, the Amount of such Excess and of such Penalty or of both, as the Case may be, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Proprietor of such Hackney Carriage: Provided always, that if the Exaction in any such Case shall appear to have been made by a Driver he shall be responsible to the Proprietor for the Amount of the Exaction and the Penalty, which shall be recoverable from him in the Manner herein-before provided for Recovery by Proprietors of Penalties paid for Drivers.

Drivers not to charge more than Sum agreed for, when the Distance stated shall be exceeded without Direction.

XLIV. It shall and may be lawful for any Person to require the Driver of any Hackney Carriage to drive such Hackney Carriage for a stated Sum of Money a Distance, in the Discretion of the Driver, the Fare for which shall be the Worth or Value of the Sum so stated, without specifying any Place at which he is to stop; and in case the said Driver shall exceed such Distance without Authority or Direction for so doing, and shall exact or demand more than the Sum for which he was so engaged to drive, he shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for such Offence.

Deposit to be made for any Hackney Carriage kept waiting.

XLV. When any Hackney Carriage, hired and taken to any Place, shall be required to be kept there in waiting, it shall be lawful for the Driver to demand and receive a reasonable Sum as a Deposit, over and above the proper Fare for driving to such Place, which Sum so demanded and received shall be accounted for by the Driver when such Hackney Carriage shall be finally discharged; and if any such Driver shall refuse to remain in waiting on Payment of the Fare earned and the Tender of a Deposit sufficient to pay the further Fare for a specified Time of waiting; or shall after receiving a Deposit go away, or permit such Hackney Carriage to be driven or taken away, without the Consent of the Person making such Deposit, before the Expiration of the Time for which the Sum so deposited shall be a sufficient Compensation, according to the Fares then by Law payable, or if any Driver, on the final Discharge of such Hackney Carriage, shall refuse to refund any Portion of such Deposit which may exceed the Fare ultimately payable, in addition to the original Fare paid upon the making of such Deposit, he shall in any of such Cases forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed an Authority to any Person to detain a Hackney Carriage beyond such Period of Time as shall be fixed by the Commissioners of Police in any Rule, Order, or Byelaw to be made under the Direction of this Act.

Carriages may ply on Sundays, and shall be then subject to all the Regulations in force.

XLVI. It shall be lawful for the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage which shall be licensed under the Authority of this Act to stand and ply for Hire with such Carriage, and to drive the same, on the Lord's Day, any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and that such Proprietor or Driver who shall so stand and ply for Hire as aforesaid shall be liable and compellable to do the like Work on the Lord's Day as by this Act liable or compellable to do as such Proprietor or Driver on any other Day of the Week.

Persons refusing to pay for any Carriage or Cart, &c., or for Damage, may be committed.

XLVII. If any Person shall refuse or omit to pay the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Carriage, Cart, or Job Horse the Sum justly due for the Hire of such Carriage, Cart, or Horse, or if any Person, either by himself or by the Negligence or Misconduct of any Person in his Employment, shall break, deface, or in any Manner injure any such Carriage or Cart, or the Harness thereof, or shall injure any Horse used with any such Carriage or Cart, or shall injure any Job Horse, in either Case the Person so offending shall, on Conviction before a Justice, forfeit such Sum as to the said Justice shall seem reasonable for any and every such Offence; and it shall be lawful for any Constable of Police, upon a Charge of any such Offence, to apprehend and hold to Bail to appear before a Justice the Person so charged; and upon Proof upon Oath before such Justice of the Nonpayment of the proper Fare, or of any Injury or Loss so suffered through the Negligence or Misconduct of such Person, the said Justice shall adjudge the Sum to be paid, and shall award reasonable Satisfaction to the Party so complaining or injured for his Fare or for the Damage suffered, with Compensation for his Loss of Time in attending to make and establish such Complaint; and if the Sum awarded shall not be thereupon paid, or if the Offender shall not also pay at the same Time the Sum which shall be awarded as Satisfaction to the Owner or Driver, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit the said Offender to Prison, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless the Amount of the said Fine and Satisfaction shall be sooner paid; and it shall also be lawful for such Justice, if he shall think fit, to order such Offender to be kept to Hard Labour during such Imprisonment.

Commissioners, with Consent of Recorder of the City of Dublin, may alter Fares of Hackney Carriages.

XLVIII. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, as often as they shall consider it expedient so to do, to vary and alter each or any of the Rates and Fares now by Law payable for the Use of Hackney Carriages, and to fix and appoint the Rates and Fares to be taken and demanded for the Use of Hackney Carriages to be licensed under this Act, and to increase or diminish the same; provided that every such Alteration, whether by way of Increase or Diminution, shall be approved of by the Recorder of the City of Dublin, and shall be published in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to any Alteration which shall be made in the Duties to be taken under this Act.

Commissioners to appoint or alter Places for XLIX. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to order and direct the Route of Hackney Carriages, when proceeding from One Stand to another, and from Time to Time to appoint proper Places or Stations within the Limits of this Act, where Hackney Carriages, Stage Carriages, and Carts

Carts licensed for that Purpose may stand for Hire; and from Time to Time to alter any Stands or Stations, and to limit the Number of Hackney Carriages, Stage Carriages, and Carts to stand in each of such Places, and to direct and regulate the Spaces and Intervals to be left between the Carriages and Carts at such Stands and Places, and in all respects to regulate the Manner in which Carriages and Carts shall stand thereat respectively; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to inspect or cause to be inspected by such Person or Persons as they shall appoint in that Behalf all such Carriages and Carts to be licensed under this Act, and the Horses and Harness employed to draw such Carriages and Carts respectively, at such Times and Places as the said Commissioners shall for that Purpose appoint, and to that End require that all Carriages and Carts, Horses and Harness, to be inspected as aforesaid, shall be produced before them or before such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, at such Times and Places as they shall direct; and in case any Person shall refuse or neglect to obey or comply with any Order or Direction made or given by the said Commissioners in pursuance of the Powers hereby vested in them, every Person so offending shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Carriage Stands, and limit the Number of Carriages at each.

L. It shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time and at all Times to make such General Rules, Orders, and Byelaws for the better ordering and regulating of all and singular the Persons, Carriages, Carts, and Horses required to be licensed under this Act, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners may be required for public Propriety, Safety, Accommodation, or Convenience, and from Time to Time to alter, vary, amend, or repeal all or any of such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws; provided that such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, when so made or altered, shall not be repugnant to the Provisions of this Act; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to fix and ordain therein such reasonable Penalties and Forfeitures as to them may seem fit for all Offences against and Breaches of such Rules, Orders, or Byelaws, and to subject Offenders against same to Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the Breach of any such Rule, Order, or Byelaw, there to be kept (either with or without Hard Labour) for any Time not exceeding Thirty Days; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in their Discretion, to make void or suspend the Licence or Licences of every Offender who shall be convicted of any Offence against the same, unless the Magistrate before whom such Conviction shall be had against such Offender shall at the Time of such Conviction state in Writing on his Licence that such Punishment as he has adjudged against such Offender shall be "without Prejudice to his Licence:" Provided always, that such new Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, and every Alteration, Amendment, and Repeal of the same, shall be approved of by the Recorder of the City of Dublin, and that after such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, or any Alterations, Amendment, or Repeal of the same, shall have been so made and approved of, the same shall be published in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to any Alterations which shall be made in the Duties to be paid under this Act; and all such Rules, Orders, and Byelaws, and every Alteration, Amendment, and Repeal of the same, when approved of as aforesaid, shall be good and valid, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were particularly mentioned, expressed, and enacted in this present Act.

Commissioners to make Rules for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages and Conduct of Drivers, &c.

LI. Every Driver or Conductor authorized by any Proprietor to act as Driver of any Hackney Carriage as aforesaid, or as Driver or Conductor of any Stage Carriage, who shall suffer any other Person to act as Driver of such Hackney or other Carriage, or as Driver or Conductor of such Stage Carriage, without the Consent of the Proprietor thereof, and also every Person, whether duly licensed or not, who shall act as Driver or as Conductor of any such Carriage without the Consent of the Proprietor thereof, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and every Driver or Conductor charged with such Offence who, when required by any Justice so to do, shall not truly make known the Name and Place of Abode of the Person so suffered by him to act as Driver or Conductor without the Consent of the Proprietor, and also the Number of the Ticket of such Person (if licensed), shall be liable to a further Penalty of Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for any Police Constable, without any Warrant for that Purpose, to take into Custody any Person unlawfully acting as a Driver or as a Conductor, and to convey him before any Justice, to be dealt with according to Law, and also, if necessary, to take charge of the Carriage and every Horse in charge of such Person, and to deposit the same in some Place of safe Custody until the same can be applied for by the Proprietor.

Penalty on Person acting as Driver, whether licensed or not, without Consent of Proprietor.

LII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any Male Person more than Sixteen Years of Age, on producing a satisfactory Certificate of Ability to drive, and of good Character, a Licence to act as Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Stage Carriage, or Job Carriage, or Horse, and also to grant to any such Male Person, upon the Production of a Certificate of good Character, a Licence to act as Conductor of any Stage Carriage; and for every such Licence and for every Renewal thereof there shall be paid the Duty appropriated thereto in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and there shall be specified in it the proper Name and Surname, Place of Abode, Age, and Description of the Person to whom such Licence shall be granted; and every such Licence shall bear a distinctive Number, and be dated on the Day upon which the same shall be granted, and shall thence continue in force until voluntarily surrendered by the Party named therein, or until otherwise determined or revoked under the Provisions of this Act, and except for the Time (if any) during which the same shall be suspended by the said Commissioners or by any Justice; and in every such Licence there shall be specified a Period within which the same shall while in force be surrendered annually at the Office which the said Commissioners shall appoint, for the Purpose of the same being renewed or re-granted: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to refuse to grant any such Licence or Renewal thereof, or to revoke any such Licence, in case it shall appear that the Person applying for or in Commissioners to grant Licence to act as Driver, &c., on Production of Certificate.

What shall be specified in the Licence.

in possession of such Licence is an unfit Person to hold the same, by reason of his having been convicted of any Theft or Felony, or of his having been convicted of any Assault, or of Drunkenness, or of any Violation of this Act, or the Rules and Regulations or Byelaws relating to Hackney Carriages: Provided also, that it shall not be necessary for the Guard of any of Her Majesty's Mails to obtain a Licence under this Act.

Drivers, &c. applying for Licences to sign Requisition for the same.

LIII. Before any such Licence as last aforesaid shall be granted or renewed a Requisition for the same, in such Form as the said Commissioners shall prescribe for that Purpose, and accompanied (except in Cases of Renewal) with such Certificate as herein-before is required, shall be made and signed by the Person to whom such Licence is requested to be granted, and in every such Requisition there shall be truly specified and set forth the proper Name and Surname and Place of Abode and Age of the Person applying for such Licence, with all such further Particulars as the Commissioners may require; and if any Person applying for, and procuring or attempting to procure, any such Licence as last aforesaid, or any Renewal thereof, shall make or cause to be made any false Representation in any such Requisition as aforesaid, or if he shall not truly answer all Questions which shall be demanded of him in relation to such Application for a Licence or Renewal, or if any Person to whom Reference shall be made shall in regard to such Application wilfully or knowingly make any Misrepresentation with the Intention of deceiving the said Commissioners, each and every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon Proof of any such Offence, to revoke any Licence which shall have been granted upon any such false Representation; and it shall be also lawful for the said Commissioners to proceed for recovering of such Penalty before any Justice at any Time within One Calendar Month after the Commission of the Offence, or during the Currency of the Licence so improperly obtained.

Persons making false Representations to forfeit 40s., and Licence may be revoked.

Licences may be revoked or suspended by Justices.

LIV. It shall be lawful for any such Justice before whom any Driver or Conductor shall be convicted of any Offence, whether under this Act or any other Act, or under any Rule, Order, or Byelaw duly made by the said Commissioners as herein-before provided, if such Justice, in his Discretion, shall think fit, to revoke the Licence of such Driver or Conductor, and also any other Licence which he shall hold under the Provisions of this Act, or to suspend the same for such Time as the Justice shall think proper; and if any Driver or Conductor complained of shall be adjudged guilty of the Offence alleged against him, the Justice before whom he shall be convicted shall in every Case endorse upon the Licence of such Driver or Conductor the Nature of the Offence and the Penalty or other Punishment which shall be so inflicted; and if the said Licence shall not be produced, on Demand thereof, it shall be lawful for the Justice to detain in Custody such Driver or Conductor until the Proprietor or Person in whose Possession such Licence shall then be shall deliver up the same, or until such Proprietor or Person shall be summoned in manner as herein-before directed; and the Justice shall forthwith send such Licence, and the Badge thereunto belonging, to the Commissioners, who shall cancel such Licence if it has been revoked by the Justice, or if it has been suspended shall at the End of the Time for which it shall have been suspended re-deliver such Licence, with the said Badge, to the Person to whom it was granted.

Abstract of Laws and Badge to be delivered to Drivers, &c. with Licence.

Badge to be worn by Drivers, &c.

Penalty for Neglect, or refusing Inspection of Badge, 40s.

LV. The said Commissioners shall at the Time of granting any such Licence cause to be delivered to the Driver or Conductor to whom the same shall be granted an Abstract of any Law, Byelaw, and Regulations in force specifically relating to such Employment, and of the Penalties for any Misconduct therein, and also such Badge of Distinction as the said Commissioners shall cause to be provided and shall require to be worn; and every such Driver or Conductor shall at all Times during his Employment, and when he shall be required to appear before any Justice, wear such Badge in such Manner as shall be required by any Rule, Order, or Byelaw made in relation thereto, so that the Number thereon shall be distinctly visible and legible; and if any licensed Driver or Conductor shall act as such or shall attend before any Justice, without having and wearing such Badge in manner aforesaid, or shall when thereunto required refuse to produce such Badge for Inspection, or to permit any Person to note the Number thereon, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Licences and Badges to be surrendered on Discontinuance of Licence.

Penalty for wearing a Badge without having a Licence.

LVI. If in any Year any such Licence as last aforesaid shall not be renewed within the Period specified therein for the Purpose, or shall be revoked for any of the Causes herein-before mentioned, the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall deliver up such Licence and the Badge belonging thereto to the said Commissioners, or the Officer appointed by them for that Purpose; and if after such Licence shall have been revoked, or shall not have been renewed in any Year within the Period prescribed for the Purpose, such Person shall use or wear the Badge thereto belonging, or shall neglect or refuse for the Space of Three Days to deliver the same and the Licence to the said Commissioners, or the Officer appointed by them for that Purpose, or if any Person shall use or wear or detain any Badge without being named and described in a Licence in force relating thereto, he shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and so from Time to Time until such Badge shall be delivered up in manner herein specified; and it shall be lawful for any Constable to seize and take away any Badge so worn unlawfully, wheresoever the same may be found, and thereupon deliver the same to the said Commissioners.

New Badges to be delivered in lieu of defaced or lost Badges.

LVII. Whenever the Number of any Badge shall become obliterated or defaced, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, and also whenever any Badge shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners to have been lost or mislaid, the Person to whom the Licence relating to any such Badge shall have been granted shall produce such Licence to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, and in the Case of a Badge with the Number obliterated or defaced shall at the same Time

Time deliver up such Badge, and such Person shall then be entitled to have a new Badge delivered to him in lieu of the Badge so lost or mislaid or delivered up, upon the Payment of the Sum of Two Shillings, to be applied as aforesaid: Provided always, that if any Badge which shall have been proved as aforesaid to have been lost or mislaid shall afterwards be found, the same shall forthwith be delivered up to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer; and if any Person into whose Possession any such Badge as last aforesaid shall come shall neglect for the Space of Three Days or refuse to deliver up the same to the said Commissioners or their proper Officer, to be disposed of as the said Commissioners may think proper, or if any Person licensed under the Authority of this Act shall use or wear the Badge granted to him after the Number thereon shall be in any Manner obliterated, defaced, or obscured, so that the same shall not be distinctly visible and legible, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Penalty for not delivering up lost Badge when found, or for wearing a Badge after it has been defaced, 40*s*.

LVIII. If any Person shall forge or counterfeit, or shall cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled, any Licence or Badge by this Act directed to be provided for each Driver or Conductor as aforesaid, or if any Person shall sell or exchange or expose to Sale, or utter or bestow, any such forged or counterfeited Licence or Badge, or if any Person shall knowingly and without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused) have or be possessed of such forged or counterfeited Licence or Badge, knowing such Licence or Badge to be forged or counterfeited, every Person so offending, and every Person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting, or assisting any Person committing any such Offence as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted shall be punished by Imprisonment in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for a Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, and either with or without Hard Labour, as the Court shall think fit; and it shall be lawful for any Person to detain any such Licence or Badge, or for any Constable to seize and take away any such Licence or Badge, in order that the same may be produced in Evidence against such Offender, or be disposed of as the said Commissioners shall think proper.

Forgery of Licence or Badge, or knowingly uttering a forged Licence or Badge, a Misdemeanor.

LIX. As often as any Driver or Conductor, if licensed under this Act, shall change his Place of Abode, he shall, within Four Days next after such Change, give Notice thereof in Writing signed by him to the said Commissioners, specifying in such Notice his new Place of Abode, and shall at the same Time produce his Licence to the said Commissioners, or to an Officer appointed by them for that Purpose, who shall endorse thereon a Memorandum specifying the Particulars of such Change; and if any such Driver or Conductor shall make any Change as aforesaid, and shall neglect or omit to give Notice of such Change, or to produce his Licence, in order that such Memorandum as aforesaid may be endorsed thereon, within the Time and in the Manner herein limited and directed, he shall forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and in case any of the Particulars entered or endorsed upon any Licence in pursuance of this Act shall be erased or otherwise defaced, every such Licence shall be wholly void and of none effect.

Notice to be given by Drivers of any Change of Abode to be endorsed on Licence. If not given, to forfeit 40*s*.

LX. It shall not be lawful for any Person to carry about on any Carriage or on Horseback or on Foot, in any Thoroughfare or public Place within the Limits of this Act, to the Obstruction or Annoyance of the Inhabitants or Passengers, any Picture, Placard, Notice, or Advertisement, whether written, printed, or painted upon or posted or attached to any Part of such Carriage, or on any Board or otherwise.

Advertising Vehicles, &c. prohibited.

LXI. All Duties, Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or which may be incurred under any of the Provisions of this Act, or under any Byelaw, Order, Rule, or Regulation made pursuant thereto, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money whatsoever which may be payable or recoverable thereunder in the Nature of Compensation or Damages, Costs, Expenses, or otherwise, wheresoever the Contract, Offence, Act, or Matter by which the same may have originated or become payable or recoverable shall be committed or done, or have happened or terminated, may be inflicted by or be sued for and recovered before any One or more of the Divisional Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, whether the Subject Matter of the Complaint preferred before him in relation thereto took place within the Limits of this Act or beyond the same; and One or more of the said Justices shall attend for the Purpose of hearing and determining Complaints respecting the Premises at such Place or Places within the said Police District, or for any Division thereof, although the same may not be One of the Divisional Offices of Police for the District, and at such Time or Times, as shall be appointed for the Purpose by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or according to any general Directions to be from Time to Time given by the Chief or Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant; and in case of any Dispute between the Hirer and Driver of any Hackney Carriage, the Hirer may require the Driver forthwith to drive to the nearest Metropolitan Police Court, where Complaint may be made to the Magistrate then sitting, who shall hear and determine the same, without requiring any Summons to be issued for that Purpose; and if such Dispute should arise at a Time when the Police Court shall not be open, the Hirer may require the Driver to drive to the nearest Police Station, where the Complaint shall be entered, and Notice given to both Parties that the Matter in Dispute shall be heard by the Magistrate at his next Sitting; and it shall be lawful for any Divisional Justice by whom any Person shall be convicted of any Offence under this Act, or under the Byelaws, Orders, or Regulations made pursuant thereto, to lessen the Penalty or Term of Imprisonment in such Manner as he may think fit.

Infliction of Penalties and Recovery of Fines, &c.

Offences, wheresoever committed, to be cognizable by Divisional Justices.

In case of Disputes the Hirer may require the Driver to drive to a Police Court, &c. or to a Police Station.

Power to mitigate Penalties.

LXII. In every Case where there shall be more than One Proprietor of any Hackney or other Carriage as aforesaid, or Stage Carriage, or Job Horse, or Cart, it shall be sufficient in any Information, Summons, Order,

Providing for Cases where there are more

Proprietors than One.

Order, Conviction, Warrant, or any other Proceeding under the Provisions of this Act, to name One of such Proprietors, without reference to any other or others of them, and in the Case of a Body Corporate or public Company the public Officer thereof, and to describe and proceed against him as if he were sole Proprietor.

Fees to Justices.

LXIII. Such Fees as are contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed marked (E.), and no other or greater Fees, shall be taken by any Justice for any Business done or Proceedings had before him under this Act.

Service of Summons.

LXIV. Any Summons issued by any Justice requiring the Appearance of any Defendant, or of any Witness or other Person with reference to any Information, Complaint, or other Proceeding pending for the Recovery of any Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money, or otherwise howsoever under this Act, shall be deemed to be well and sufficiently served in case either the Summons or a Copy thereof shall, Forty-eight Hours at least before the Time appointed for the Hearing of the Complaint, or other the Cause of such Summons, be served personally on any such Person as aforesaid, or be left at his usual or last Place of Abode, or at his Counting-house or Office, or other Place of Business, or (in case such Person be a licensed Proprietor of a Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Job Horse, Stage Carriage, or Cart,) at the Place registered as aforesaid as the Place of Abode or Business of such Proprietor, as the Case may be; and if such Place cannot be found, or if such Proprietor shall not be known thereat, then such Summons shall be deemed to be well and sufficiently served, if the same or a Copy thereof be fixed up in some conspicuous Place in the public Office or Place appointed for the hearing of Causes under this Act within the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis: Provided always, that in all Cases in which the Places of Abode, Counting-house, Office, or other Place of Business of such Proprietor shall be at a greater Distance than Two Miles from the General Post Office, such Proprietor shall be required, prior to the Issue of any Licence to him under this Act, to specify in his Application for the same a Place of Address within the Municipal District of the City of Dublin; and every Summons as aforesaid, or a Copy thereof, shall be deemed well and sufficiently served if served personally upon the known or reputed Driver of such Proprietor, or left at the usual Place of Abode of any such Driver, or if left at such Place of Address of such Proprietor, Forty-eight Hours at least before the Time appointed for the hearing of the Complaint or other Cause of Summons.

Informants or Complainants not disqualified from being Witnesses.

Respondents also competent.

LXV. Upon the Trial or Hearing of any Information or Complaint exhibited or made under any of the Provisions of this Act, or under any Rule, Order, or Byelaw made in pursuance thereof, any Informant or Complainant or other Person shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be a competent Witness, notwithstanding that he may be entitled to any Part of any pecuniary Penalty or to any pecuniary Compensation or Reward on the Conviction of any Offender upon any such Information or Complaint, or liable to any Police Rate or Tax; provided nevertheless, that it shall also be lawful to and for the Divisional Justice by and before whom any Information or Complaint is to be determined, if in his Discretion he shall think fit so to do, to admit the Respondent or Party accused in any such Case to be examined upon Oath, and give Evidence touching the said Complaint and the Matters relating thereto.

Penalty on Witnesses neglecting to attend or refusing to give Evidence.

LXVI. If any Person who shall be summoned as a Witness to give Evidence before a Justice touching the Matters alleged in or relating to any Information, Complaint, or other Proceeding depending before such Justice under the Authority of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to appear before such Justice at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse, to be allowed by such Justice, or if any Person so summoned shall appear and refuse to be examined and give Evidence before such Justice touching the Matters aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and if any such Witness or any Complainant shall make any Statement in Evidence which shall be proved to be untrue, and to be a wilful and known Misrepresentation of the Circumstances or Occurrences connected with the Complaint, Information, or other Proceeding depending before such Justice, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to commit the Person so offending to Prison for any Period not exceeding Two Calendar Months, with or without Hard Labour, as the said Justice shall direct: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent a Prosecution for Perjury against any such Witness or Complainant, if such Justice shall so direct; and if any Complainant, Witness, Defendant, or other Person shall, by any disrespectful or disorderly Conduct before the said Justice, in the Use of violent, abusive, or indecorous Language, to whomsoever applied, or of any Imprecation, Threat, or slanderous Imputation, or of any menacing Gesture, or of any Act, Gesture, or Language tending to provoke a Breach of the Peace, or of any other Means of Disturbance or Disorder, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to inflict for every such Offence a Fine not exceeding Forty Shillings, and in default of immediate Payment thereof to commit the Person so offending to Prison for any Period not exceeding Seven Days.

Justices empowered to award Compensation to Persons for Loss of Time in attending to answer unfounded Complaints.

LXVII. If any Person shall be summoned or brought before any Justice to answer any Complaint made against him by any Person, other than a Police Officer or Constable, touching or concerning any Offence committed or alleged to have been committed by the Person so summoned or brought before such Justice against the Provisions of this Act, or any Byelaw, Order, Rule, or Regulation made pursuant thereto, and such Complaint or Information shall afterwards be withdrawn, or quashed, or dismissed, or if the Defendant shall be acquitted of the Offence charged against him, it shall be lawful for the said Justice, if he shall think fit, to order and award that the Person making such Complaint shall pay to the Defendant such Costs for making or preparing for his Defence, and also such Compensation sation for the Loss of his Time, and for the Time of his Witnesses (if any), in attending the said Justice, touching or concerning such Complaint or Information, as to the said Justice shall seem reasonable; and in default of immediate Payment of the Sum so awarded it shall be lawful for the said Justice to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person ordered to pay the Sum so awarded, together with the Costs of such Distress and Sale; and if Goods and Chattels of such Person sufficient to answer the Sum so awarded, with such Costs as aforesaid, cannot be found, then it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit such Person to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless the Sum so awarded, together with all Costs and Expenses, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

Penalty on false Oaths.

LXVIII. If any Person or Persons who shall take any Oath in pursuance of this Act shall wilfully swear falsely therein, and shall be thereof lawfully convicted, by Verdict or Confession, any such Person so offending shall for any such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Pains, and Disabilities as Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are or shall be liable to by any Law then in force in Ireland; and if any Person or Persons shall procure or suborn any other Person to take such false Oath, and shall be thereof convicted, by Verdict or Confession, (whether the Person having taken such false Oath shall be previously convicted or not,) any such Person so procuring or suborning shall for every such Offence incur and suffer such Penalties, Forfeitures, Pains, and Disabilities as Persons convicted of Subornation of Perjury are or shall be liable to by any Law then in force in Ireland.

Appeal.

LXIX. In case any Person or Persons who shall be refused a Licence, or whose Licence shall be revoked under the Provisions of this Act, or against whom any Information or Complaint shall have been exhibited under this Act, shall feel aggrieved by such Refusal or Revocation, or by the Judgment given upon such Information or Complaint, where such Judgment shall be for the Payment of any penal or other Sum exceeding Twenty Shillings, or for any Term of Imprisonment exceeding One Month, but in no other Case, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons, upon giving such Notice as herein-after mentioned, to appeal therefrom to the Recorder of the City of Dublin at his next Sessions, or if there be not One Week between the Time of such Refusal, Revocation, or Adjudication and the next Sessions, then to the next succeeding Sessions after the Expiration of such Week to be holden in and for the said County of the City of Dublin; and it shall be lawful for the said Recorder to hear, adjudge, and finally determine such Appeal; and if upon any such Appeal any Defect in Form shall be found in any Part of such Proceedings, every such Defect of Form shall and may thereupon be immediately rectified and amended by Order of such Recorder, anything in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that such Refusal or Revocation of any such Licence shall be valid until the final Decision of any such Appeal.

Defects of Form cured upon Appeal.

No Appeal allowed unless Notice thereof given.

LXX. No such Appeal as aforesaid shall be allowed unless the Party or Parties Appellant shall, within Forty-eight Hours after such Refusal or Revocation, or the giving of the Judgment appealed against, give Notice in Writing of such Appeal to the Secretary of the said Commissioners or to the Clerk of the Justice from whose Judgment such Appeal shall be made, and shall in due Time lodge such Notice at the Office or with the Clerk of the Peace at such General or Quarter Sessions as aforesaid respectively at which such Appeal is to be finally adjudged and determined.

Execution shall not be stayed unless the Party convicted shall give Security by Recognizance to prosecute Appeal.

LXXI. No Appeal shall stay or prevent the Execution of any Warrant or Process on any Conviction, unless the Party convicted shall before the convicting Justice or Justices enter into a Recognizance, with Two sufficient Sureties, in a Sum equal to double the Amount of the Penalty or Penalties in which the said Party shall have been convicted, and of the Costs awarded, if any, which Recognizance shall be conditioned that the Party so appealing shall personally appear at the proper General Quarter Sessions, and abide the Judgment of the Court thereupon, and pay such Costs, if any, as shall be by the Court awarded, which Recognizance such Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized to require and take of the Party convicted entering into such Recognizance; and the Justice who shall take such Recognizances is also hereby required to bind the Person who shall make the Charge on which such Judgment shall have been given in a Recognizance conditioned that he shall appear at such General or Quarter Sessions aforesaid, then and there to give Evidence against the Person so charged, and to in like Manner bind any other Person who shall have any Knowledge of the Circumstances of such Offence; and every such Witness, on producing a Certificate of his being so bound over under the Hand of such Justice, shall be allowed Compensation for his Time and Trouble and Expenses in attending such Appeal, which Compensation shall be paid by the Treasurer of the County in like Manner as in Cases of Felony, according to and under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and sixteen: Provided always, that in case such Appeal shall be dismissed and such Conviction affirmed, the reasonable Expenses of all such Witnesses attending as aforesaid, to be ascertained by the Court, shall be paid by the Appellant or Appellants, and the Recognizance or Recognizances so entered into as aforesaid shall be estreated, unless such Expenses are so paid by such Appellant or Appellants; and it shall not be necessary, at the hearing of such Appeal, to return or produce to the Court of Quarter Sessions any Record of the Conviction of the Defendant or Appellant before any Divisional Justice, but it shall be deemed sufficient for the Clerk of the convicting Justice to attend at such Court of Quarter Sessions, and produce the Book containing the Entry of such Conviction; and such Clerk shall enter in such Book the Judgment of said Court of Quarter Sessions in reference to such Appeal, and thereupon such Judgment shall be held to be final and conclusive between the Parties to such Appeal.

LXXII. Upon

Court of Quarter Sessions, on Appeal, to examine only the Evidence before given, &c.

LXXII. Upon every such Appeal as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Court of General or Quarter Sessions to re-hear upon Oath the Merits of the Case whereon the original Judgment appealed against shall have been given, and to reverse or confirm in the whole or in part the Judgment appealed against, or to give such new or different Judgment as they in their Discretion shall in that Behalf think fit; and such Court shall in such new or different Judgment have the same Power of mitigating as is herein-before by this Act given to Justices in Judgments given by them: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Court as aforesaid, at its Discretion, to state specially the Facts of any Case on which such Appeal shall be made, for the Opinion of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland.

Court to adjudge Costs in case of Dismissal or Abandonment of Appeal.

LXXIII. When any Appeal under this Act shall be dismissed, or the Adjudication appealed against shall be affirmed, or such Appeal shall be abandoned, it shall be lawful for the Court to which such Appeal shall have been made or intended to be made to adjudge and order that the Party appealing shall pay such reasonable Costs as shall in the Opinion of such Court be meet, to be recovered in like Manner as the Penalties given by this Act are recoverable.

In what Manner Goods distrained shall be sold.

LXXIV. In all Cases where any Goods or Chattels distrained or otherwise seized or taken under any of the Provisions of this Act shall be sold for the Purposes thereof, the same shall be sold by public Auction, and Notice of the Time and Place of such Sale be given to the Owner of such Goods or Chattels, or left at his last known Place of Abode or of Business, Five Days at the least prior to such Sale: Provided always, that if the Owner of any such Goods or Chattels shall give his Consent in Writing to the Sale thereof at any earlier Period than is by this Act or shall be by any such Notice appointed for such Sale, or in any other Manner than is by this Act directed, it shall be lawful to sell such Goods and Chattels according to such Consent; provided also, that if the Owner of such Goods or Chattels shall at any Time before Sale thereof pay or tender to the Person who by any Warrant or other Process shall be directed or authorized to cause such Goods or Chattels to be sold the Sum which shall by such Warrant or Process be required to be levied or raised by the Sale of such Goods or Chattels, together with all reasonable Costs and Expenses incurred, no Sale of such Goods or Chattels shall be made.

Justices may issue Warrants to apprehend in certain Cases.

LXXV. It shall be lawful for any Justice, upon any Complaint being lodged before him under the Provisions of this Act against the Proprietor or Driver of any Hackney Carriage, Job Carriage, Stage Carriage, Job Horse, or Cart, to issue a Warrant for the Apprehension of such Proprietor or Driver, or a Summons for his Appearance to be examined touching the said Complaint, or to answer the same, as to such Justice shall seem fit.

Persons obstructing the Execution of this Act to be committed until duly discharged.

LXXVI. If any Person or Persons whatsoever shall assault, molest, resist, or obstruct the said Commissioners, Divisional Justices, or any of them, or any Person acting under the Authority of them or any of them, in the Execution of his or their Duty under this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, Divisional Justice or Justices, or Persons so acting under his or their Authority, and for all and every Person or Persons acting in his or their Aid and Assistance, to arrest all and every Person or Persons so offending, and him, her, or them to convey before any One of the said Divisional Justices, or, if apprehended in the Night-time, to lodge him, her, or them in the Station House or other Place for safe Custody until the Morning, and then to carry and convey such Person or Persons before any One or more of the said Divisional Justices; and such Justice or Justices shall and may, if upon due Examination he or they shall find Cause, commit every such Person to Gaol, there to remain until he, she, or they shall be delivered by due Course of Law.

Distribution of Penalties.

LXXVII. All pecuniary Penalties which shall be recovered before any Justice under the Provisions of this Act shall respectively be divided and distributed in manner following; (that is to say), One Moiety thereof to the said Receiver of the said Police District of Dublin Metropolis, to be placed by him to the Account of the Public Monies of the Revenue of the Metropolitan Police District, and to be applied accordingly, and the other Moiety thereof to the Person who shall give Information of the Offence and prosecute the Offender: Provided nevertheless, that in case the Person who shall so give Information and prosecute shall be at the Time of the Commission of the Offence, or of the hearing of the Complaint, employed in the Dublin Metropolitan Police Service, the whole Penalty so forfeited shall be paid to the said Receiver for the Purposes aforesaid.

Limitation of Actions.

LXXVIII. Any Action or Prosecution which shall be brought or commenced against any Person for anything done in pursuance or under the Authority of this Act shall be commenced and prosecuted within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought and tried in the District, County, or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and Notice in Writing of such Action, and the Cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant One Calendar Month at least before the Commencement of the Action; and the Defendant in such Action may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and any other Matter or Thing in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Cause of Action shall appear to arise from any Matter or Thing done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act, or if any such Action shall be brought after the Expiration of such Three Calendar Months, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, or if Notice of such Action shall not have been given in manner aforesaid, or if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action commenced, or if a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court after such Action commenced by or on behalf of the Defendant, the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant; or if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue any such Action, or if, on Demurrer or otherwise, Judgment shall be given given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall recover his full Costs of Suit as between Attorney and Client, and shall have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant may have for Costs of Suits in other Cases at Law; and although a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be had shall signify his Approbation of the Action, and of the Verdict obtained thereupon.

Security to be given by Officers, &c. employed under this Act.

LXXIX. Every Officer employed under the said Commissioners who in the Execution of his Duty shall be engaged in the Receipt of Money payable in pursuance of this Act shall, in respect of any Money to be received by him under this Act, and any other Act in the Execution of which he shall be employed, give Security in such Amount as the said Commissioners, with the Approval of the said Chief or Under Secretary, shall direct, in like Manner and Form as is required to be given by each Clerk of Petty Sessions under the Provisions of "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851."

Interpretation of certain Words in this Act.

LXXX. And be it enacted, That the Words and Expressions herein-after mentioned shall in this Act and the Schedules thereto annexed (except where the Nature of the Provisions or the Context of the Act shall exclude such Construction) be interpreted as follows; that is to say, the Words "Commissioners of Police" shall be understood to mean the Justices of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis for the Time being, appointed by virtue of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Police in the District of Dublin Metropolis; the Word "Justice" shall be understood to mean any of the Divisional Justices duly appointed for the Police District of Dublin Metropolis; CAP. CXIII.

An Act to amend the Procedure in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland.

[20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to simplify and amend the Course of Procedure as to the Process, Practice, Pleadings, and Evidence in the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland, so as to 'make the same less dilatory and expensive, and to prevent substantial Justice from being defeated by 'reason of the Variety of Forms of Action, and the Technicalities and Prolixity of Pleadings, and the 'unnecessary Length of Records, and to consolidate the Provisions of several Statutes and Rules of 'Court relating to such Proceedings:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Commencement of Act.

I. The Provisions of this Act shall come into operation on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Short Title of Act.

II. In citing this Act in any Instrument, Document, Pleading, Proceeding, or Act of Parliament, it shall be sufficient Designation to use the Expression "The Common Law Procedure Amendment Act (Ireland), 1853."

Repeal of former Acts.

III. From and after the Commencement of this Act, the several Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, so far as the said Acts or Parts of any Act relate to Personal Actions or Actions of Ejectment in the Superior Courts of Law in Ireland, and no further or otherwise, and to the Extent to which such Acts or Parts of Acts are by such Schedule expressed to be repealed, are hereby repealed, except as to anything done before the Commencement of this Act, and except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting and continuing any Proceeding heretofore taken upon any Action brought before the Commencement of this Act, and except as to the Recovery or Application of any Penalty for any Offence which shall have been committed before the Commencement of this Act.

With respect to the Interpretation of Words in this Act:

Interpretation of Terms.

IV. In the Construction of this Act the Word "Court" shall be understood to mean any One of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Dublin in which any Action is brought; and the Word "Judge" shall be understood to mean a Judge or Baron of any of the said Courts; and the Word "Master" shall be understood to mean a Master of any of the said Courts; and the Word "Action" shall be understood to mean any Personal Action brought in any of the said Courts; and no Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, nor the Islands of Man, Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, nor any Islands adjacent to any of them, being Part of the Dominions of Her Majesty, shall be deemed to be "beyond the Seas" within the Meaning of this Act; and the Word "County" shall be taken to extend to and include, where necessary and consistent, any City, County of a City, or County of a Town or City, and County of any Place, as the Case may be; and the Word "Party" or "Person" shall extend to and include any Corporation or other public Body; and the Word "Affidavit" shall include an Affirmation or Declaration made by any Person who is empowered to give Evidence by Affirmation or Declaration in lieu of Oath; and no Provision requiring the Affidavit of or any Act to be done by the Attorney, or the Signature of Attorney or Counsel, or Service on the Attorney, shall apply to Cases where the Plaintiff or Defendant shall sue or defend in Person, but all such Acts shall be done by and Notices given to the Party so suing or defending in Person; and wherever in this Act, in describing or referring to any Person or Party, Matter or Thing, any Word importing the Singular Number or Masculine Gender is used, the same shall be understood to include and shall be applicable to several Persons and Parties as well as One Person or Party, and Females as well as Males, and Bodies Corporate as well as Individuals, and several Matters and Things as well as One Matter or Thing, unless it otherwise be provided, or there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

Form of Action and Commencement.

With respect to the Forms of Action, and the Manner of commencing them:

Special Forms of Personal Actions abolished.

V. The special Forms of Personal Actions heretofore used shall not be necessary, and it shall be sufficient in the Summons and Plaint hereinafter mentioned to state a Cause or Ground of Action good in Substance, according to the Provisions of this Act, without framing the Statement in any particular Form, as formerly used or known, such as of Assumpsit, Account, Debt, Covenant, Detinue, Trespass, Trespass on the Case, Trover, or Replevin.

One Form of Personal Action and Action of Ejectment.

VI. The Right to recover any Debt or Damages or Personal Chattel, in respect of any Matter of Contract or of Tort, or Taking or Detention, which might have been heretofore the Subject of any Action of Debt, Covenant, Assumpsit, Account, Trespass, Trespass on the Case, Trover, Replevin, or Detinue, shall and may be enforced in an Action to be called a "Personal Action;" and all Actions of "Ejectment" shall henceforth be commenced and prosecuted in the Manner herein-after provided.

Court to have like Jurisdiction as heretofore.

VII. The Court, or any Judge thereof, shall have and exercise, in and about any Matter brought before such Court or Judge, in any such Personal Action or Action of Ejectment, under the Provisions of this Act, the same Jurisdiction, Power, Authority, and Discretion, to all Intents and Purposes, as such Court or Judge could have exercised in an Action for the same Purpose instituted in the Manner heretofore used; and all Orders and Judgments of the said Court or Judge may be enforced by the same Process, and shall be subject to Review by a Court of Error, in the same Manner in all respects, except as herein provided, as if the same had been made in an Action instituted as heretofore used.

Actions to be commenced by Writ of Summons and Plaint.

VIII. All such Personal Actions, whether brought by or against any Person entitled to the Privilege of Peerage or of Parliament, or of the Court in which the Action shall be brought, or of any other Court, or to any other Privilege, or by or against any Corporation or incorporated Body or Company, or by or against any other Persons, shall be commenced by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, according to the Form marked No. 1. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, and which shall be called a "Writ of Summons and Plaint," and shall be authenticated by the Common Seal of the said Superior Courts, to be thereunto set by the Clerk of the Writs, who shall not be required to sign such Writ, but shall enter the Particulars thereof in the Book to be kept for that Purpose, at the Time of sealing thereof, and such Writ shall bear Date of the Day on which it shall be sealed, and may be sued out at any Time, notwithstanding any Privilege.

Residence and Description of Parties to be mentioned in Writ.

IX. In every such Writ of Summons and Plaint, and Copy thereof, the Names of the Plaintiff and Defendant, the Place of Residence of the Plaintiff, and the Place of Residence or supposed Residence or last known Residence of the Defendant, and such Designation or Description of the Parties respectively as the Plaintiff or his Attorney may be able to give, shall be mentioned, and such Writ shall contain the Names of all the Defendants, and shall not contain the Name or Names of any Defendant or Defendants in more Actions than One.

Form of Plaint.

X. Such Summons and Plaint shall contain a true and succinct Statement of the Plaintiff's Cause or Causes of Action, and if the Plaintiff shall sue, or the Defendant be sued, otherwise than in his own Right, shall also state the Character in which and the Title by which he sues, or in respect of which the Defendant is sued, and shall also state the Relief which the Plaintiff requires, and the Venue or County in which he proposes to have any Issues in Fact tried.

Particulars of Demand and Credits to be endorsed.

XI. The Particulars of the Plaintiff's Demand, where the same shall be a liquidated or Money Demand, and of all Credits to which the Defendant may be entitled, and of the Balance, if any, claimed by the Plaintiff, shall be endorsed on the Summons and Plaint, and on the Copies thereof for Service, unless a detailed Statement of the said Particulars shall have been furnished to the Defendant previously, in which Case it shall be sufficient to make reference to the Statement so furnished, and to mention the Balance claimed to be due on Foot thereof, or unless the said Demand shall consist of so many Items or Particulars that they cannot be conveniently endorsed thereon, in which Case the Plaintiff shall cause Particulars engrossed on Parchment to be annexed to said Summons and Plaint, and Copies thereof, on Parchment or Paper, to be annexed to the Copies of such Summons and Plaint intended for Service, to be incorporated therewith by proper Reference, and shall cause the same to be served on the Defendant, together with the Summons and Plaint, and such Endorsement or Paper annexed shall be considered as Particulars of Demand, and no further or other Particulars need be delivered, unless ordered by the Court or a Judge.

Writ to be endorsed with Name and Abode of Attorney, or of Plaintiff in Person.

XII. Every Writ of Summons and Plaint shall contain or be endorsed with the Name and Place of Abode of the Attorney actually suing out the same, and in case no Attorney shall be employed to issue the Writ, then it shall contain or be endorsed with a Memorandum expressing that the same has been sued out by the Plaintiff in Person, mentioning the City, Town, or Parish, and also the Name of the Street and Number (if any) of the House of such Plaintiff's Residence, and also, in case the said Plaintiff shall not reside in the City of Dublin, mentioning some Place in the said City at which the Debt may be paid, and all Notices and other Proceedings in the Cause may be served.

Attorney, on Demand, to declare whether Writ issued by his Authority, and to declare Name and Abode of Plaintiff.

XIII. Every Attorney whose Name shall be mentioned in or endorsed on any Writ of Summons and Plaint issued by Authority of this Act shall, on Demand in Writing made by or on behalf of any Defendant, declare forthwith whether such Writ has been issued by him or with his Authority or Privity, and if he shall answer in the Affirmative, then he shall also, in case the Court or a Judge shall so order, declare in Writing, within a Time to be allowed by such Court or Judge, the Profession, Occupation, or Quality, and Place of Abode of the Plaintiff, on pain of being guilty of a Contempt of the Court into which such Writ shall be returnable; and if such Attorney shall declare that the Writ was not issued by him or with his Authority or Privity, all Proceedings upon the same shall be stayed, and all further Proceedings taken thereupon, without Leave of the Court or a Judge, shall be deemed irregular, and may be set aside accordingly.

Duplicates of Plaint.

XIV. One Duplicate or more of such Summons and Plaint shall be sealed with the Seal of the said Superior Courts, by the said Clerk of the Writs, on Application of the Plaintiff or his Attorney.

Writs for Commencement of Actions to be issued in rotation for the several Courts.

XV. All Writs of Summons and Plaint for the Commencement of Actions in the said Courts shall, by the Clerk of the Writs, be entered and appropriated to the several Superior Courts of Law in rotation by Twenty-fives, that is to say, the First Twenty-five for the Queen's Bench, the Second Twenty-five for the Common Pleas, and the Third Twenty-five for the Exchequer, and so on in continuous Rotation of Twenty-fives for the several Courts, so as to produce and keep up an equal Distribution of such Writs; and all subsequent Proceedings in any Action so commenced shall be had and taken in the Court to which the said Writ shall be in the Course of Rotation appropriated, and shall be the Business of the said Court and the Offices thereof: Provided always, that no Objection on the Ground of any Privilege possessed or claimed by any Defendant to be sued in any particular Court shall be valid in any such Action.

No Objection on ground of Privilege to be valid.

No Writ of Summons to be invalid on account of verbal

XVI. No Writ of Summons and Plaint issued under the Authority of this Act, or Copy thereof, shall be treated or considered as invalid on account of any verbal or technical Error or Omission in the same, or in any Endorsement on the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Superior Courts of Law respectively, or any Judge thereof, to decide and determine, on any Application respecting such Error or Omission, what is a verbal or technical Error or Omission in any such Writ or Copy, and to amend or authorize the Amendment thereof, or to set aside the same as irregular; but all Errors or Omissions which have not a manifest Tendency to mislead the opposite Party shall in all Cases be deemed merely verbal or technical. or technical Error or Omission.

or

'And whereas the Disuse of the technical Forms of Action heretofore used may give rise to Doubts 'respecting the Validity of Warrants of Attorney and other Writings wherein Reference is made to such 'Forms of Action, and also as to the Operation of Statutes of Limitation and other Statutes wherein 'Actions are described or referred to by the like technical Forms; and it is expedient that such Doubts 'should be precluded by express Enactment:' Be it therefore enacted as follows: To prevent Doubts from Abolition of Forms of Action.

XVII. Nothing in this Act contained shall interfere with or affect the Provisions of any Act relating to the Arrest of any Defendant on Mesne Process or before Judgment. Arrest on Mesne Process.

XVIII. Warrants of Attorney and other legal Documents of every kind, wherein Reference is made to any particular Form of Action, may be acted upon and enforced by signing Judgment or otherwise, in the Form or Manner authorized by this Act, instead of the Form and Manner agreed upon between the Parties thereto. Warrants of Attorney and other Writings to remain in force.

XIX. All Statutes relating to Actions, or the Pleadings or other Proceedings therein, or preliminary to the bringing of the same, not hereby repealed, or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall apply and be in force with reference to Actions brought after the Commencement of this Act, notwithstanding that such Actions or the Causes thereof may be described or expressed therein by reference to any particular Form of Action hereby abolished, or that some particular Form or Cause of Action be required to be specified or contained in the said Pleading or Proceeding. Statutes relating to Actions to remain in force.

With respect to the Period of Limitation within which Personal Actions shall be brought: Limitation of Action.

XX. All Actions for Rent upon an Indenture of Demise, all Actions upon any Bond or other Specialty, or upon any Judgment, Statute Staple, Statute Merchant, or Recognizance, shall be commenced and sued within Twenty Years after the Cause of such Actions or Suits, or the Recovery of such Judgment, but not after; all Actions grounded upon any Lending or Contract, expressed or implied, without Specialty, or upon any Award, where the Submission is not by Specialty, or for any Money levied on Fieri facias; all Actions of Account or for not accounting, other than for such Accounts as concern the Trade of Merchandise between Merchant and Merchant, their Factors or Servants; all Actions for direct Injuries to Real or Personal Property; Actions for the taking away, Detention, or Conversion of Property, Goods, and Chattels; Actions for Libel, malicious Prosecution and Arrest, Seduction, Criminal Conversation; and Actions for all other Causes which would heretofore have been brought in the Form of Action called Trespass on the Case, except as herein-after excepted, shall be commenced and sued within Six Years after the Cause of such Actions, but not after; and all Actions for Assault, Menace, Battery, Wounding, and Imprisonment shall be commenced and sued within Four Years after the Cause of such Actions, but not after; and all Actions for Words, and for Penalties, Damages, or Sums of Money given to the Party grieved, by any Statute now or hereafter to be in force, shall be commenced and sued within Two Years after the Words spoken or the Cause of such Action or Suit, but not after; and with respect to every Cause of Action not herein specifically provided for, being the Subject Matter of a Personal Action, such Actions in respect thereof shall be brought within the same Period of Limitation now applicable thereto, notwithstanding that such Cause of Action may be described or expressed in such Statutes by reference to any particular Form of Action: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall alter the Period of Limitation of any Action given by any Statute where the Time for bringing such Action is or shall be by any Statute specially limited. Limitation of certain Actions.

XXI. If in any of the said Actions Judgment be given for the Plaintiff, and the same be reversed by Error, or a Verdict pass, or upon Judgment by Default, Damages be assessed for the Plaintiff, and upon Matter alleged in Arrest of Judgment the Judgment be given against the Plaintiff that he take nothing by his Plaint, in all such Cases the Party Plaintiff, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, as the Case shall require, may commence a new Action or Suit from Time to Time within the Period of Limitation herein-before provided for in such Action, or within a Year after such Judgment reversed or Judgment given against the Plaintiff, and not after. Limitation after Judgment arrested or reversed.

XXII. If any Person that is or shall be entitled to any such Action is or shall be at the Time of any such Cause of Action accrued within the Age of Twenty-one Years, a Married Woman, of unsound Mind, or beyond the Seas, then such Person shall be at liberty to bring the same Action, so as he commence the same within such Time after the Cessation of such Disability or his Return from beyond the Seas, as other Persons having no such Impediment should, according to the Provisions of this Act, have done; and if any Person or Persons against whom there shall be any such Cause of Action is or shall be at the Time such Cause of Action accrued beyond the Seas, then the Person entitled to any such Cause of Action shall be at liberty to bring the same against such Person, within such Time as is before limited, after the Return of such Person from beyond the Seas. Remedy for Disabilities.

XXIII. If any Acknowledgment shall have been or shall be made, either by Writing signed by the Party liable by virtue of any Indenture, Specialty, Judgment, Statute Staple, or Statute Merchant, or Recognizance, or his Agent, or by part Payment or part Satisfaction on account of any Principal or Interest being then due thereon, it shall be lawful for the Person entitled to bring his Action for the Money remaining unpaid, and so acknowledged to be due, within Twenty Years after such Acknowledgment by Writing, or part Payment or part Satisfaction as aforesaid, or in case the Person entitled shall at the Time After Acknowledgment or part Payment on account of Specialty, Judgment, Recognizance, &c.

Time of such Acknowledgment be under such Disability as aforesaid, or the Party making such Acknowledgment be at the Time of making the same beyond the Seas, then within Twenty Years after such Disability shall have ceased as aforesaid, or the Party shall have returned from beyond the Seas, as the Case may be; and the Plaintiff in any such Action on any Indenture, Specialty, Judgment, Statute Staple, or Statute Merchant, or Recognizance, may rely on such Acknowledgment, and that such Action was brought within the Time aforesaid, in answer to a Plea of this Statute.

After Acknowledgment or part Payment in respect of Liabilities on Simple Contract.

XXIV. In Actions grounded upon any Simple Contract no Acknowledgment or Promise shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of a new or continuing Contract, whereby to take any Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions, or to deprive any Party of the Benefit thereof, unless such Acknowledgment or Promise shall be made or contained by or in some Writing to be signed by the Party chargeable thereby; and where there shall be Two or more Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators of any Contractor, no such Joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the Benefit of this Act so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only of any written Acknowledgment or Promise made and signed by any other or others of them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away or lessen the Effect of any Payment of any Principal or Interest made by any Person whomsoever.

Indorsement of Payment not to take Case out of Statute.

XXV. No Endorsement or Memorandum of any Payment written or made upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other Writing, by or on behalf of the Party to whom such Payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of such Payment so as to take the Case out of the Operation of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Limitation of Actions.

As to Debts alleged by way of Set-off.

XXVI. This Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the Case of any Debt alleged by way of Set-off on the Part of any Defendant.

Memorandums not to require Stamps.

XXVII. No Memorandum or other Writing made necessary by this Act shall be deemed to be an Agreement within the Meaning of any Statute relating to the Duties on Stamps.

Continuance of Writs.

With respect to the Duration and Continuance of Writs to prevent the Operation of any Statute of Limitation:

Renewal of Writs of Summons to save the Statute of Limitation, and for other Purposes.

XXVIII. No Writ of Summons and Plaint shall be in force for the Purpose of Service for more than Six Calendar Months from the Day of the Date thereof, including the Day of such Date; but if any Defendant therein named shall not have been served therewith, the original or duplicate Writ of Summons and Plaint may be renewed at any Time before its Expiration for Six Calendar Months from the Date of such Renewal, and so from Time to Time during the Currency of the renewed Writ, by being marked with the Common Seal of the Superior Courts, with a Memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the Date of the Day, Month and Year of such Renewal: Provided always, that no Writ of Summons and Plaint so renewed shall be available to prevent the Operation of any Statute whereby the Time for the Commencement of the Action may be limited, unless such Renewal shall be had by Leave of the Court or a Judge on an Affidavit to satisfy the said Court or a Judge that reasonable Diligence was used to effect Service thereof.

Renewal of Writs issued before this Act.

XXIX. Where any Writ of Summons shall have been issued in any Action before and shall be in force at the Commencement of this Act, such Writ may, at any Time before the Expiration thereof, be renewed under the Provisions of and in the Manner directed by this Act; and where any Writ of Summons, or Capias ad respondendum issued in continuation of a preceding Writ, according to the Provisions of an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty the Queen, shall be in force and unexpired, or where One Calendar Month next after the Expiration thereof shall not have elapsed at the Commencement of this Act, such continuing Writ may, without being returned non est inventus, or entered of Record, according to the Provisions of the said Act of Her Majesty the Queen, be filed in the proper Office of the Court within One Calendar Month next after the Expiration of such Writ, or within Twenty Days after the Commencement of this Act; and the original Writ of Summons or Capias in such Action may thereupon, but within the same Period of One Month next after the Expiration of the continuing Writ, or within Twenty Days after the Commencement of this Act, be renewed, under the Provisions of and in the Manner directed by this Act; and every such Writ shall after such Renewal have the same Duration and Effect for all Purposes, and shall, if necessary, be subsequently renewed, in the same Manner as if it had originally issued under the Authority of this Act.

Production of renewed Writ Evidence of Commencement of Action.

XXX. The Production of the Writ of Summons and Plaint, purporting to be marked with the Common Seal of the said Superior Courts, and initialed by the said Officer, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient Evidence of its having been so renewed, and of the Commencement of the Action as of the First Date of such renewed Writ, for all Purposes whatsoever.

Service of Writs.

With respect to the Service of such Writs of Summons and Plaint:

Writ may be served in any County.

XXXI. The Writ of Summons and Plaint may be served in any Place or County in which the Defendant may be found within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and not out of said Jurisdiction, unless by an Order of the Court or Judge; and the Person serving the same is hereby required, on the Day of such Service, or at latest on the Day next after, to endorse on the Writ the Place and Day of the Month and Week of the Service thereof, otherwise the Plaintiff shall not be at liberty, in case of no Appearance and Defence, to proceed under this Act; and every Affidavit of Service of such Writ shall mention the Day on which such Endorsement was made.

Service of Summons in ordinary Cases.

XXXII. Service of any Writ of Summons and Plaint on the Defendant shall be effected either by Delivery of a Copy of such Writ to the Defendant in Person, if it be reasonably practicable, and in other Cases, Cases, and where it shall appear by the Affidavit of Service herein-after mentioned that such Defendant is personally within the Jurisdiction, and that due and reasonable Diligence has been exercised in endeavouring to effect such Personal Service, and without Effect, in such Case it shall be sufficient to make Service of such Writ by leaving such Copy at the Defendant's House or Place of Residence, or at his Office, Warehouse, Counting-House, Shop, Factory, or Place of Business, with the Wife, Child, Father, Mother, Brother, or Sister of the Defendant, or with any Servant or Clerk of the Defendant, (the Person with whom such Copy shall be left being of the Age of Sixteen Years or upwards,) and showing to such Person the Original or duplicate Original of such Summons and Plaint.

Service on Corporations.

XXXIII. Service of any such Writ of Summons and Plaint issued against a Corporation Aggregate may be effected either by Delivery of a Copy of such Writ to the Mayor or other Head Officer in Person, or to the Town Clerk, Treasurer, or Secretary of such Corporation; and Service of any such Writ issued against the Inhabitants of a Barony, Half Barony, or other like District may be effected by Delivery of such Copy to the Acting High Constable thereof, or any One of the Acting High Constables thereof, in Person; and Service of any such Writ issued against the Inhabitants of any County or any City or Town, or the Inhabitants of any Franchise, Liberty, City, Town, or Place, not being Part of a Barony or other like District, may be effected by Delivery of a Copy thereof to some Peace Officer or other known and responsible Officer thereof, in Person; and if any such Defendants shall not appear and take Defence according to the Exigency of such Writ, in due Time after such Service thereof, upon Affidavit made as herein-after provided of such personal Service of such Writ, and of the Publication of the Notice herein-after provided, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to proceed thereon as is herein-after provided: Provided always, that in all such Cases a sufficient Notice of the issuing of the Writ shall be given in the Dublin Gazette, and in One of the local Newspapers of the County, City, or District in which the Defendant or Defendants, or the Officer or Agent to be served, shall reside, the Days for filing an Appearance and Defence to run in such Cases from the Day of the Publication of such Notice in the Gazette or Newspaper, whichever shall be the latest.

Courts may direct Substitution of Service.

XXXIV. In case it shall be made to appear by Affidavit, to the Satisfaction of the Court in which the Action is attached, or, in Vacation, of any Judge of any of the said Courts, that any Defendant in any Summons and Plaint, the Cause of Action in respect of which the same shall have issued having arisen within the Jurisdiction of the Court, has not been served with the Writ of Summons and Plaint in the Manner herein-before prescribed, and has not, according to the Exigency thereof, appeared and taken Defence to the Action, and that due and proper Means were used to serve such Writ in the Manner aforesaid, or that such Defendant is out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, and can be properly served through or upon any Agent or Representative, or any Manager of the Real or Personal Estate of such Defendant within such Jurisdiction, or has removed to avoid Service, or on any other good and sufficient Grounds, it shall be lawful, upon an Application made at any Time while the said Writ shall be in force, for such Court or Judge to authorize such Substitution of Service through the Post Office, or in such Manner and with such Extension of Time for Service and Defence as to them or him shall seem fit; and the Taxing Officer shall allow reasonable Costs on such Proceedings for substituting Service or effecting such Service as the Court shall have directed or deemed good; and in default of an Appearance and Defence by such Defendant in due Time it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to proceed thereon as is herein-after provided.

Affidavit of Service of Process.

XXXV. An Affidavit of the Service of the Writ of Summons and Plaint in the Manner herein-before prescribed, or in the Manner directed by any such Order for Liberty to substitute Service as aforesaid, shall be made and filed in the Office of the Pleadings Assistant of the Court in which the Action shall be depending, in case it shall become necessary to mark Judgment by Default.

Affidavits in certain Cases may be sworn before a Consul.

XXXVI. Any Affidavit to be used in any of the said Courts may be sworn before any Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent for the Time being appointed by Her Majesty at any Foreign Port or Place; and every Affidavit so sworn by virtue of this Act may be used and shall be admitted in Evidence, saving all just Exceptions, provided it purport to be signed by such Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, upon Proof of the official Character of the Person appearing to have signed the same; provided, that if any Person shall forge the Signature of any such Affidavit, or shall use or tender in Evidence any such Affidavit with a false or counterfeit Signature thereto, knowing the same to be false and counterfeit, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall, upon Conviction, be liable to Transportation for Seven Years, or to Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Three Years nor less than One Year, with Hard Labour; and every Person who shall be charged with committing any Felony under this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in the County or Place in which he shall be apprehended or be in Custody; and every Accessory before or after the Fact to any such Offence may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and, if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence laid and charged to have been committed, in any County or Place in which the principal Offender may be tried; provided also, that if any Person shall wilfully and corruptly make a false Affidavit before such Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or Consular Agent, every Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Perjury, in like Manner as if such false Affidavit had been made in Ireland before competent Authority, and shall and may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and if convicted, sentenced, and his Offence may be laid and charged to have been committed, in any County or Place in which he shall be apprehended or be in Custody, as if his Offence had been actually committed in that County or Place.

With

Filing of Plaint.

With respect to the Filing of the Summons and Plaint:

Filing Plaint.

XXXVII. The original or duplicate Summons and Plaint, or a Copy thereof and of the Endorsements thereon, and of the said Particulars, certified by the Attorney for the Plaintiff to be a correct Copy, shall, in order to enforce a Defence thereto within the Period of Time in such Writ mentioned, Four Days at least before the Time for Pleading thereto has expired, be filed with the Pleadings Assistant of the Court in which the Action shall be depending, and such Document shall be deemed to be a Pleading of the Plaintiff, and in lieu and stead of a Declaration; provided, however, that no Summons and Plaint, or Duplicate or Copy, shall be filed as a Pleading, unless the same shall be on Parchment, and sufficiently legible, and in a fit State and Form to be received as a Pleading of the Court; provided also, that in case such Summons and Plaint shall not be filed within the Time aforesaid, it shall be sufficient, for the Purpose of enforcing a Defence thereto after the Filing of the same, to give Notice of the Filing to the Defendant, and such Defendant shall have Eight Days from the Service of such Notice to file his Defence thereto; but in no Case shall the Plaintiff be at liberty to proceed to enforce a Defence after the Expiration of Six Months from the Service of such Summons and Plaint.

Rule for Costs of not filing Summons and Plaint.

XXXVIII. In case the Plaintiff shall neglect to file the original or duplicate Summons and Plaint, or Copy thereof, within Two Months after the Service thereof on the Defendant, unless the Time for filing such Summons and Plaint shall have been extended, such Defendant may, on an Affidavit of the Service thereof and a Certificate of no Summons and Plaint, or Copy, filed, enter a Rule that the Plaintiff do file his Summons and Plaint within Four Days after the Service thereof, or pay to the Defendant such Sum as shall be fixed by the Taxing Officer, subject to the Approval of the Three Chief Judges of the said Courts, as and for his Costs occasioned by being served with such Summons and Plaint, and such Order shall be in lieu and stead and have the Effect of a Judgment of Non Pros for not declaring; and in case the Plaintiff shall, after the Entry of such Rule, file his Summons and Plaint, or Copy, he shall pay to the Defendant his Costs occasioned thereby, upon Demand, not exceeding the Sum of One Pound, or in default thereof the Defendant may obtain a Rule for the Payment of such Sum and the Costs of such Rule.

Appearance and Defence.

With respect to the Appearance and Defence to the Summons and Plaint:

Appearance and Defence to be filed together.

XXXIX. The Defendant may, within the Time specified in the said Summons and Plaint, or within Eight Days from the Service of the Notice of filing the said Summons and Plaint in manner aforesaid, or at any Time before Judgment, or within such Time as the Court or a Judge may permit, file with the Pleadings Assistant an Appearance and Defence or Demurrer to the said Writ of Summons and Plaint; and such Defence may be according to the Form No. 2. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, and shall contain at Foot thereof the Name and registered Residence of the Defendant's Attorney, where the same is pleaded by Attorney, and where it is pleaded in Person the Residence of the Defendant, and in case such Residence shall not be in the City of Dublin, shall specify by the Name of the Street and Number of the House some Place within the said City whereat all Notices and Papers relating to the Suit may be served and delivered for the Defendant.

Defence by way of Set-off.

XL. In any Case in which there are mutual Debts between the Plaintiff and Defendant, or if either Party sue or be sued as Executor or Administrator where there are mutual Debts between the Testator or Intestate and either Party, One Debt may be set off against the other, and such Matter may be pleaded in bar of the Action, or of the further Maintenance thereof, or so much of the Debt as it covers, and the Account upon which it became due shall be alleged as in a Summons and Plaint for the same Debt.

Particulars of Set-off to be endorsed.

XLI. In case the Defence shall insist upon any Payment or Set-off, the full Particulars of the same shall be endorsed on the said Defence and on the Copies for Service, unless they are so many that they cannot be conveniently introduced therein, in which Case they shall be annexed thereto and incorporated therewith by a proper Reference.

Rule to plead abolished.

XLII. No Rule to plead shall be necessary, and the Requisition to plead contained in the Summons and Plaint shall be sufficient for that Purpose.

Time for pleading, where Defendant is within Jurisdiction, to be Twelve Days.

XLIII. Where the Defendant is within the Jurisdiction, the Time for Appearance and Defence to the Summons and Plaint shall be Twelve clear Days from the Days of the Service thereof, exclusive of Holidays, or Eight Days from the Service of a Notice of filing the Summons and Plaint, whichever Period shall last expire, unless the Court or a Judge shall extend the Time; and the Days for appearing to said Summons and Plaint shall run as well in Vacation as in Term Time, excepting the Days from the First Day of August to the Twentieth Day of October inclusive.

Time for pleading after Amendment.

XLIV. Where an Amendment of any Summons and Plaint hereby directed to serve as a Declaration is allowed, no new Requisition to plead thereto shall be necessary, but the Defendant shall be bound to plead to the amended Pleading within the Time specified in the original Requisition, or within Two Days after Notice of the Amendment, whichever shall last expire, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge; and in case the amended Summons and Plaint had been pleaded to before Amendment, and is not pleaded to de novo within Two Days after Notice of the Amendment, or such other Time as the Court or a Judge shall allow, the Defence originally pleaded thereto shall stand and be considered as pleaded in answer to such amended Summons and Plaint.

Copies to be served.

XLV. Notice of filing such Defence, together with a correct Copy thereof, shall be served on the Plaintiff's Attorney, or on such Plaintiff in case no Attorney shall be employed, and such Defence shall be considered as filed as on the Day on which such Notice and Copy shall be served, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

XLVI. The Further Particulars.

XLVI. The Court or a Judge may, in any Case, by an Order made on Motion, direct a further or more detailed Particular of the Items of Demand or Credits referred to in any Summons and Plaint, or of any Payments or Set-off referred to in any Defence, to be furnished; and in any Action for an Injury to Person or Property, the Court or a Judge may order Plans of the Place in which the Injury is alleged to have been committed, or as to which any Justification is pleaded, to be given or exchanged between the Parties; and the Court or a Judge may extend the Time for pleading or making up the Issue, in consequence of the Necessity of such Particulars or further Particulars, on such Terms as shall appear to be just; and where any Party shall require to amend his Particulars, he shall apply to the Court or a Judge for the Purpose.

Inspection and Examination of Premises or Chattels may be ordered by the Court on behalf of either Party.

XLVII. In any Case in which it shall appear to the Court or Judge that it would be necessary, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Truth of any Matter in dispute between the Parties in the Action, that an Inspection or Examination of any Premises or Chattels in the Possession or Power of either Party, and in respect of which or some Right or Injury connected with which the said Action shall be brought, should be had by the opposite Party, his Attorney, Agent, Witnesses, or by the Jury, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to order that the Party in whose Possession or Power the same shall be shall permit an Inspection and Examination of the said Premises or Chattels by the Jury, or by such Person or Persons on behalf of the Party applying, and at such Times and under such Regulations, as to the said Court or Judge shall seem fit.

Form of Pleading.

With respect to the general Form and Character of Pleadings:

No Pleading after Defence.

XLVIII. There shall be no further Pleading after the Defence, except a Demurrer to the Defence or a Replication to a Defence of Set-off or Plea of Matter occurring subsequently to the Commencement of the Action, unless by the special Leave of the Court or a Judge on an Application to allow such further Pleading, which shall only be allowed in case the real Question or Questions, whether of Fact or Law, between the Parties cannot conveniently be raised and put in Issue by the Amendment of the previous Pleadings.

Replication and subsequent Pleadings.

XLIX. Every Replication and subsequent Pleading shall be pleaded, and Notice of the Filing, with a Copy thereof, shall be served, and the Particulars of any Payments relied upon shall be endorsed or annexed thereto in a similar Manner to that herein-before prescribed in respect of the Defence, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto.

Appointing next Friend for Plaintiff being a Minor or Lunatic.

L. In any Case in which the Plaintiff shall be a Minor or Lunatic, and before the filing of the Summons and Plaint as a Pleading, a Consent in Writing, signed by some fit and proper Person, to act as next Friend to such Minor or Lunatic, together with an Affidavit to verify the Signature of such Person, shall be lodged in the Office of the Clerk of the Rules, who shall thereupon enter a Rule that such Person shall be at liberty to sue as next Friend for such Minor or Lunatic, and the Name of such next Friend shall be mentioned in the said Summons and Plaint as next Friend to said Minor or Lunatic: Provided always, that the Court or a Judge shall and may alter or discharge such Rule in case it shall seem necessary or proper.

Appointing a Guardian for Defendant being a Minor or Lunatic.

LI. In any Case in which a Defendant served with any Summons and Plaint shall be a Minor or Lunatic, the like Proceeding shall be taken to appoint a Guardian to defend for such Minor or Lunatic before filing any Defence or Demurrer, and the Name of the Person so appointed shall be mentioned in the Defence as Guardian to such Minor or Lunatic.

Security for Costs, when and how to be obtained.

LII. Any Defendant served with any Writ of Summons and Plaint in any Action shall thereupon be deemed to be in Court for the Purpose of making Application to the Court or a Judge to compel the Plaintiff to give Security for Costs, and for other like Purposes: Provided that no Order for Security for Costs shall be made by reason of any Plaintiff being resident out of the Jurisdiction of the Court, at the Instance of any Defendant, unless upon a satisfactory Affidavit that such Defendant has a Defence upon the Merits.

Forms in Schedule may be adopted.

LIII. The Forms of Pleading contained in the Schedule C. to this Act annexed shall be sufficient in the Cases to which they apply, and these and the like Forms may be used, with such Modifications as may be necessary to meet the Facts of the Case; but nothing herein contained shall render it erroneous or irregular to depart from the Letter of such Forms, so long as the Substance is expressed without Prolixity.

Different Causes of Action may be joined, but separate Trials may be ordered.

LIV. Causes of Action, of whatever Kind, (except in Ejectment,) may be joined in the same Summons and Plaint, provided they be by and against the same Parties and in the same Rights, except as hereinafter mentioned; but the Court or a Judge shall have Power to prevent the Trial of different Causes together, if such Trial would be inexpedient, and to order separate Records to be made up and separate Trials had.

Joinder of Claims by Husband and Wife, with Claims in right of Husband.

LV. In any Action brought by Husband and Wife for any Cause of Action accruing in respect of the Wife and in respect of which she is necessarily joined as Co-Plaintiff, it shall be lawful for the Husband to add thereto Claims in his own Right, and separate Actions brought in respect of such Claims, if in the same Court, may be consolidated, if the Court or a Judge shall think fit; provided that in the Case of the Death of either Plaintiff such Suit, so far only as relates to the Causes of Action, if any, which do not survive, shall abate.

Form and Nature of Defence and subsequent Pleadings.

LVI. The Defence and Replication and subsequent Pleadings, if any, shall state all Facts which constitute the Ground of the Defence or Reply in ordinary Language, and without Repetition, and as concisely as is possible consistent with Clearness; and if such Defence or subsequent Pleading is only applicable applicable to a Portion of the preceding Pleading, the Portion to which it is applicable shall be shortly referred to.

Several Matters may be pleaded at any Stage of the Pleadings.

LVII. The Plaintiff in any Action may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, plead in answer to the Defence or the subsequent Pleading of the Defendant as many several Matters as he shall think necessary to sustain his Action; and the Defendant in any Action may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, plead in answer to the Summons and Plaint or other subsequent Pleading of the Plaintiff as many several Matters as he shall think necessary for his Defence, upon an Affidavit of the Party making such Application or his Attorney, if required by the Court or a Judge, to the effect that he is advised and believes that he has just Ground to traverse the several Matters proposed to be traversed by him, and that the several Matters sought to be pleaded as aforesaid by way of Confession and Avoidance are respectively true in Substance and in Fact.

Certain Defences may be pleaded together without Leave.

LVIII. The following Defences, or any Two or more of them, may be pleaded together as of course, without Leave of the Court or a Judge; that is to say, a Defence denying any Contract or Debt alleged in the Declaration, a Defence of Tender as to Part, a Defence of the Statute of Limitations, Set-off Bankruptcy of the Defendant, Discharge under an Insolvent Act, Plenè administravit, Plenè administravit præter, Infancy, Coverture, Payment, Accord and Satisfaction, Release, a Denial that the Property an Injury to which is complained of is the Plaintiff's, Leave and Licence, Son assault demesne, and any other Pleas which the Judges of the said Superior Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chief Judges of the said Courts shall be Three, shall by any Rule or Order to be from Time to Time by them made in Term or Vacation order or direct.

Double Pleas and Demurrer.

LIX. The Defendant may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, plead and demur, or the Plaintiff may reply and demur, to the same Portion of the Summons and Plaint or Defence at the same Time upon an Affidavit by the Party pleading, or his Attorney, if required by the Court or a Judge, that he is advised and believes all the Objections raised by Demurrer are good and valid Objections in Law, and it shall be in the Discretion of the Court or a Judge to direct which Issue, whether of Fact or Law, shall be first disposed of.

Costs of several Issues.

LX. The Costs of every Issue, whether of Fact or Law, shall follow the Finding or Judgment upon such Issue, and be adjudged to the successful Party, whatever may be the Result of the other Issues; and the Costs of all Issues found for the Defendant shall be deducted from the Plaintiff's Costs, if the Defendant shall proceed with due Diligence to tax the same; and the Costs of all Issues found for the Plaintiff shall be deducted from the Defendant's Costs, if the Plaintiff shall proceed with due Diligence to tax the same; and if said Costs so to be deducted shall not in either Case be taxed in Time for the Purpose of deducting the same from the Costs of the opposite Party they shall be separately recoverable by Execution, when taxed and ascertained.

Forms and Fictions abolished.

LXI. No useless Form or Fiction, such as Express Colour or Special Traverse, shall be used, nor shall it be necessary to allege any Matter that need not be proved, regard being had to the Substance and Ground of the Action or Defence.

Venue to be stated only in Margin of Summons and Plaint.

LXII. The Venue in any Personal Action may, except as herein-after stated, be laid in any County which the Plaintiff thinks proper, and the Name of such County shall be stated in the Margin of the Summons, and shall be taken to be the Venue intended by the Plaintiff, and no Venue shall be stated in the Body of the Summons or in any subsequent Pleading; provided it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to order such Venue to be changed by an Amendment of such Summons and Plaint to any other County or County of a City or Town in which the Trial can be more conveniently or properly had, on special Grounds only, and not merely because the Cause of Action accrued in any particular Place or County.

Setting out of Deeds in Pleading.

LXIII. It shall not be necessary for any Party, in his Summons and Plaint or Defence or other Pleading, to set forth more of any Deed or Document than such Parts thereof as are material to his Action or Defence, or the Purport and Effect thereof; and it shall not be necessary to make Profert of such Deed or Document, and if Profert be made it shall not entitle the opposite Party to crave Oyer of or to set out upon Oyer such Deed or other Document.

Production, Inspection, and Copy of Deeds

LXIV. When any Party shall rely on any Deed or Document, or any Portion thereof, in his Pleading, the said Deed or Document shall be produced upon every Trial and Argument in the Cause, unless its Nonproduction can be satisfactorily excused; and in default thereof it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge before whom such Trial or Argument shall be had to exclude the said Party so in default from all Benefit or Advantage of the said Deed or Document, or to make such Order for the Postponement of the Trial or Argument, and the Payment of the Costs occasioned by the said Postponement, as shall seem to be just; and the opposite Party shall be at liberty, by Notice in Writing, to demand of the Party so relying on the said Deed or Document an Inspection or Copy, or both an Inspection and Copy of the same, including the Names of the Witnesses by whom it was attested, if any, and any Endorsement or Defeasance thereon, and the Production of it for the Purpose of its being stamped, if necessary, and also the Production, Inspection, or Copy of any other Deed or Instrument whereof Inspection could be obtained by a Bill of Discovery; and such Copy, when furnished, shall be certified to be a correct Copy by the Attorney furnishing the same; and in case such Copy shall not be delivered, or such Inspection or Production shall not be granted, the Party demanding the same shall be at liberty to apply to the Court or a Judge for an Order for such Copy or Inspection or Production, or Copy and Inspection and Production, as such Judge shall think fit, but such Demand, Notice, or Order shall in no Case operate as a Stay of Proceedings, except when a special Order shall be made by a Judge to that Effect.

LXV. In

Summons and Plaint for Libel or Slander.

LXV. In Actions of Libel and Slander the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to aver that the Words or Matter complained of were used in a defamatory Sense, specifying such alleged defamatory Sense, without any prefatory Averment to show how such Words or Matter were used in that Sense.

Performance of Conditions precedent may be averred generally.

LXVI. The Plaintiff or Defendant in any Action may aver Performance of Conditions precedent generally, and the Defendant shall not deny such Averment generally, but shall specify in his Pleading the Condition or Conditions precedent the Performance of which he intends to contest.

The Process or Adjudication of an inferior Jurisdiction may be pleaded generally.

LXVII. In pleading any Process, Decree, Judgment, or Adjudication of a Court or Officer of special or inferior Jurisdiction it shall not be necessary for the Party pleading or relying on such Process or Adjudication to state in his pleading the Facts or Matters conferring Jurisdiction on such Court or Officer to entertain the Question, or issue such Process, or make such Adjudication, but the same respectively may be stated in such pleading to have been duly entertained or made by such Court or Officer; and if such Statement be controverted, the Party so pleading or relying on such Process, Decree, Judgment, or Adjudication shall on the Trial establish by Proof the Facts and Matters necessary to confer Jurisdiction on such Court or Officer to entertain the Question, or issue such Process, or make such Adjudication so pleaded as aforesaid.

Facts not traversed admitted.

Character of Assignees to be taken as admitted, unless denied.

LXVIII. All Facts stated in any Summons and Plaint, and not denied in the Defence, shall be deemed to be admitted for the Purpose of the Suit; and in Actions by and against Assignees of a Bankrupt or Insolvent Debtor, or Executors or Administrators, or Persons authorized by Act of Parliament to sue or be sued as nominal Parties, the Character in which the Plaintiff or Defendant is stated to sue or be sued shall not in any Case be considered as in Issue, unless specially denied.

General Issue by Statute abolished.

LXIX. So much of any Act of Parliament as entitles or permits any Person to plead the General Issue only, and to give special Matter in Evidence, without pleading the same, is hereby repealed, except as to pending Actions: Provided always, that in any Case in which a Defendant by any Act of Parliament is now enabled to plead a Plea of Tender or other Matter, together with a Plea of the General Issue, such Defendant may plead the like Matter separately or with any Defence under this Act.

Defence by way of Denial to traverse some particular Fact.

Defences which admit a Contract in Fact.

LXX. In Actions upon Contract, every Defence by way of Denial must traverse some One or more than One material Matter of Fact, as, for instance, the drawing, or making, or endorsing, or accepting, or presenting, or Notice of Dishonour of a Bill or Note; and every Defence which admits a Contract in Fact, but relies upon Matter of Avoidance or Discharge, or Illegality on the Ground of Fraud or otherwise, as, for instance, Infancy, Coverture, Release, Payment or Performance, Illegality of Consideration, either by Statute or Common Law, drawing, endorsing, accepting Bills or Notes by way of Accommodation, Set-off, mutual Credit, Misrepresentation, Concealment, Deviation, shall be so expressly pleaded.

Pleas in Actions for Wrongs.

LXXI. In Actions for Wrongs, Defences by way of Denial shall take issue on some One or more than One material Matter of Fact alleged in the Summons and Plaint; and all Defences which admit the Matter complained of, but rely on Matter of Avoidance, Excuse, or Justification, shall be so expressly pleaded.

Defence of Matter subsequent to Action.

LXXII. A Defence arising after the Commencement of the Action shall be pleaded according to the Fact; and any Defence which does not state whether the Matter therein relied upon arose before or after Action shall be deemed to be a Defence of Matter arising before Action.

Defence of Matter subsequent to last Pleading, how to be pleaded.

LXXIII. In Cases in which a Plea Puis darrein continuance has heretofore been pleadable in Banco or at Nisi Prius, the same Defence may be pleaded with an Allegation that the Matter arose after the last Pleading, and such Defence may, when necessary, be pleaded at Nisi Prius; but no such Defence shall be allowed unless accompanied by an Affidavit stating that the Matter thereof arose within Eight Days next before the pleading of such Defence, unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order.

Payment not to be proved in Reduction of Amount.

LXXIV. Payment, whether before Action brought or when made into Court, shall not in any Case be allowed to be given in Evidence in reduction of the Amount to be recovered without being pleaded.

Payment of Money into Court.

LXXV. Any Defendant, in any Personal Action whatsoever, except Actions for Assault and Battery, false Imprisonment, Libel, Slander, malicious Arrest or Prosecution, Criminal Conversation, or debauching the Plaintiff's Daughter or Servant, and in any Proceeding by Scire facias or Writ of Revivor to have Execution of any Judgment, may pay into Court a Sum of Money by way of Compensation or Amends, or in discharge of the Plaintiff's Demand, or upon any Defence of Tender; and such Payment shall be made by lodging the Money in the Bank of Ireland on behalf of the Defendant who shall make such Lodgment, with the Privity of the Master of the Court, and to the Credit of the Cause; and such Master, on the Certificate of such Lodgment being delivered to him, shall give a Receipt for the Amount in the Margin of the Defence.

Drawing Money so lodged.

LXXVI. At any Time before Verdict or Judgment for the Defendant, or peremptory Order for Payment of Costs for not proceeding to Trial, the Plaintiff may, in any Case in which Money has been lodged in Court in discharge of the Plaintiff's Demand, or on a Defence of Tender, apply to the Master of the Court to draw on the Bank of Ireland in favour of the Plaintiff for the Sum lodged by the Defendant; and the said Master, on being satisfied by Affidavit or otherwise that a Verdict or Judgment, or peremptory Order for such Payment as aforesaid, for the Defendant has not been had, shall thereupon draw accordingly; but after Verdict or Judgment or peremptory Order aforesaid for the Defendant, the Money shall remain in Court to answer the Defendant's Costs, and the Plaintiff shall not be at liberty to draw the same unless by Order of the Court on Motion.

Taxation of Costs where Money accepted in full Satisfaction.

LXXVII. In case the Plaintiff shall accept the Amount lodged in full Satisfaction of his Demand, the Receipt for the Money given to the Master shall state that it has been so accepted, and the Plaintiff's Costs of Suit shall be taxed and ascertained by the proper Officer; and in case of Nonpayment thereof within within Forty-eight Hours after Taxation and Demand the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter a peremptory Order for Payment of his Costs of Suit so taxed, and for such further Sum as shall be fixed by the Taxing Officer, subject to the Approval of the Three Chief Judges of the said Courts, as and for his Costs of obtaining such Order.

Issue to try Sufficiency of Payment when declined.

LXXVIII. In case the Plaintiff declines to accept the Sum paid into Court to satisfy the Claim of the Plaintiff in respect of the Matter to which the Plea is pleaded, the Sufficiency of the Payment shall be tried upon the Issue raised for that Purpose by the said Defence, and in case of such Issue being found for the Defendant the Defendant shall be entitled to Judgment and his Costs of Suit.

Certain Defences not objectionable.

LXXIX. Any Defence which shall be good in Substance shall not be objectionable on the Ground of its treating the Summons and Plaint as framed either for a Breach of Contract or for a Wrong.

With respect to Objections to Pleadings for formal and other Matters:

Objections by Demurrer.

Objections by Demurrer.

LXXX. Either Party may object by Demurrer to the Pleading of the opposite Party, for that such Pleading does not set forth sufficient Ground of Action, Defence, or Reply, as the Case may be; and every such Demurrer shall state concisely and explicitly the legal Points or Objections to be relied on, and may be according to the Form No. 3. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed; and to such Demurrer there shall be no further Pleading.

Pleadings good in Substance sufficient.

LXXXI. No Objection by way of General or Special Demurrer for formal Matter only shall be allowed, and no Pleading shall be deemed insufficient for any Defect which could heretofore be objected to only by Special Demurrer; and wherever Issue shall be joined on any Demurrer the Court shall proceed and give Judgment according to the very Right of the Cause, without regarding any Imperfection, Omission, Defect in or Lack of Form; and every Summons and Plaint and Defence or other Pleading which shall, with reasonable Clearness and Distinctness, state all such Matters of Fact as are necessary to ground the Action, Defence, or Reply, as the Case may be, shall be sufficient, and it shall not be necessary that such Matters shall be stated in any technical or formal Language or Manner.

Judgment on Demurrer final.

LXXXII. Judgment on Demurrer for the Defendant, and also for the Plaintiff, in all Cases in which the Action is for a liquidated or Money Demand, shall be final, unless the Court shall give Liberty to amend the Pleading demurred to, or to plead de novo on the Argument of the Demurrer, or by any subsequent Order.

Pleadings framed to embarrass may be amended.

LXXXIII. If any Pleading or Demurrer be so framed as to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair Trial of the Action, the opposite Party may apply to the Court or a Judge to strike out or amend such Pleading, and the Court or a Judge shall make such Order respecting the same, and also respecting the Costs of the Application, as to such Court or Judge shall seem fit.

Joinder of Parties.

With respect to the Joinder of Parties to Actions:

Nonjoinder or Misjoinder of Parties.

LXXXIV. No Plea in Abatement for the Nonjoinder of any Person as a Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, shall be filed without the Leave of the Court, but such Defect, or the Misjoinder or Misnomer of any Party, may be pointed out by either Party by Notice before the Trial, and such Notice may be followed by a summary Application to the Court or a Judge in respect thereof; upon which Application the said Court or a Judge may make such Order therein, and touching the Costs thereof, as shall seem to be just.

Amendment before Trial of Nonjoinder or Misjoinder of Plaintiff.

LXXXV. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, at any Time before the Trial, to order that any Person or Persons not joined as Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the Action shall be so joined, or that any Person originally joined as Plaintiff shall be struck out of the Pleadings in the Action, if it shall appear to such Court or Judge that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment, and that the Person to be added consents, either in Person or by Writing under his or her Hand, to be so joined, or that the Person to be struck out was originally introduced without his or her Consent, or that he or she consents in the Manner aforesaid to be so struck out; and such Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as to the Amendment of the Pleadings, Postponement of the Trial, and otherwise, as to the Court or Judge shall seem proper; and when any such Amendment shall have been thereby made, the Liability of any Person who shall have been made Co-Plaintiff shall, subject to any Order to the contrary, be the same as if such Person had been originally joined in such Action.

Amendment at Trial.

LXXXVI. In case it shall appear at the Trial of any Action that there has been a Misjoinder of Plaintiffs, or that some Person or Persons not joined as Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ought to have been so joined, and the Defendant shall not at or before the Time of Pleading have given Notice in Writing that he objects to such Misjoinder or Nonjoinder, specifying therein the Name or Names of such Person or Persons, such Misjoinder or Nonjoinder may be amended by the Court or the Judge or presiding Officer at the Trial, by an Order endorsed on the Abstract of Nisi Prius or Writ of Inquiry, signed by any Member of the Court, or by the said Judge or Officer, if it shall appear to such Court, Judge, or Officer that such Misjoinder or Nonjoinder was not for the Purpose of obtaining an undue Advantage, and that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment, and that the Person or Persons to be added consent, either in Person or by Writing under his, her, or their Hand or Hands, to be so joined, or that the Person or Persons to be struck out were originally introduced without his, her, or their Consent, or that such Person or Persons consent in manner aforesaid to be so struck out in the Manner aforesaid; and such Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as the Court, Judge, or Officer shall think proper; and when any such Amendment shall be made the Liability of any Person or Persons who shall be added as a Co-Plaintiff or Co-Plaintiffs shall, subject to any Order to the contrary, be the same as if such Person or Persons had been originally joined in such Action.

LXXXVII. In

Upon Notice of Nonjoinder of Plaintiffs, Proceedings may be amended.

LXXXVII. In case such Notice be given by the Defendant of the Nonjoinder of a Person as Co-Plaintiff, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter a Side-bar Order, to amend the Summons and Plaint, and other Proceedings, by adding the Name or Names of the Person or Persons named in such Notice, and to proceed in the Action, on Payment of the Costs of and occasioned by such Amendment only; and in such Case the Defendant shall be at liberty to plead de novo when he has pleaded already, and shall have Four Days from the Service of the Notice of such Amendment for the Purpose of pleading as aforesaid.

Proceedings when Nonjoinder of Defendant objected to.

LXXXVIII. Upon any Objection for Nonjoinder of a Defendant being taken by Plea in Abatement, or by Motion to the Court in consequence of such Nonjoinder, it shall be competent to the Plaintiff to show that such Person so omitted is not a necessary Party, or is not resident within the Jurisdiction of the Court, or has been discharged by Bankruptcy or Insolvency, or that the Statute of Limitations would be a Bar to any Action against him.

Upon Notice of Nonjoinder of Defendants Proceedings may be amended.

LXXXIX. In any Action on Contract where the Nonjoinder of any Person or Persons as a Co-Defendant or Co-Defendants has been objected to by Notice or Plea in Abatement, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to enter a Side-bar Order to amend the Writ of Summons and Plaint by adding the Name or Names of the Person or Persons named in such Notice as Joint Contractors, and to serve the amended Writ upon the Person or Persons so named in such Notice, and to proceed against the original Defendant or Defendants, and the Person or Persons so named in such Notice, provided that the Date of such Amendment shall, as between the Person or Persons so named in such Notice and the Plaintiff, be considered for all Purposes as the Commencement of the Action.

Subsequent Proceedings against the Persons named in a Notice for Nonjoinder of Defendant.

XC. In all Cases after such Notice of Objection or Plea in Abatement in respect of the Nonjoinder of a Party as Defendant, and Amendment in pursuance thereof, if it shall appear upon the Trial of the Action that the Person or Persons so named in such Notice was or were jointly liable with the original Defendant or Defendants, the original Defendant or Defendants shall be entitled, as against the Plaintiff, to the Costs of such Notice and Amendment; but if at such Trial it shall appear that the original Defendant or any of the original Defendants is or are liable, but that One or more of the Persons named in such Notice is or are not liable as a contracting Party or Parties, the Plaintiff shall nevertheless be entitled to Judgment against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall appear to be liable, and every Defendant who is not so liable shall have Judgment, and shall be entitled to his Costs as against the Plaintiff, who shall be allowed the same, together with the Costs of the Notice and Amendment, as Costs in the Cause against the original Defendant or Defendants who shall have so objected to the Nonjoinder of such Person: Provided always, that any such Defendant who shall have so objected shall be at liberty on the Trial to adduce Evidence of the Liability of the Defendants named by him in such Notice.

Misjoinder of Defendants may be amended before or at the Trial.

XCI. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge in the Case of the Joinder of too many Defendants in any Action on Contract, at any Time before the Trial, to order that the Name or Names of One or more of such Defendants be struck out, if it shall appear to such Court or Judge that Injustice will not be done by such Amendment; and the Amendment shall be made upon such Terms as the Court or Judge by whom such Amendment is made shall think proper; and in case it shall appear at the Trial of any Action on Contract that there has been a Misjoinder of Defendants, such Misjoinder may be amended, as a Variance, at the Trial, in like Manner as the Misjoinder of Plaintiffs has been herein-before authorized to be amended, and upon such Terms as the Court, or Judge or other presiding Officer, by whom such Amendment is made, shall think proper.

Special Cases.

And for the Determination of Questions raised by Consent without pleading, be it enacted as follows:

Questions of Law raised by Consent without pleading.

XCII. The Parties may, after Writ issued, and at any Stage of the Proceedings before Judgment, by Consent and Order of a Judge, state any Question or Questions of Law in a Special Case for the Opinion of the Court, without any further Pleading.

Agreement as to Error and Payment of Money and Costs, according to Judgment upon Special Case.

XCIII. The Parties may, if they think fit, enter into an Agreement in Writing, which shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty, and which shall be embodied in the said or any subsequent Order, that Error may or may not be brought upon the Judgment of the Court on such Special Case, and that upon the Judgment of the Court being given in the Affirmative or Negative of the Question or Questions of Law raised by such Special Case, a Sum of Money, fixed by the Parties, or to be ascertained by the Court, or in such Manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by One of such Parties to the other of them, either with or without Costs of the Action, such Agreement to be filed in the Master's Office within Ten Days after the making thereof; and the Judgment of the Court may be entered for such Sum as shall be so agreed or ascertained, with or without Costs, as the Case may be, and Execution may issue upon such Judgment forthwith, unless otherwise agreed, or unless stayed by Proceedings in Error.

Proceedings in Error upon Special Case.

XCIV. In case it is not agreed that Error may not be brought upon the Judgment of the Court upon such Special Case, either Party may take such Judgment into a Court of Error, in the same Manner, and with all such Proceedings and Consequences, as to Bail, Costs, Restitution, and otherwise, as in the Case of Error brought upon an ordinary Judgment, and the Court of Error before which such Judgment shall be brought shall have the same Power to proceed and give Judgment upon the Question or Questions of Law raised by the Special Case as the Court in which the original Judgment shall have been given.

Costs to follow the Event unless otherwise agreed.

XCV. In case no Agreement shall be entered into as to the Costs in any such Special Case, the Costs shall follow the Event, and be recovered by the successful Party, who shall have Execution for the same. With Judgment by Default.

With respect to Judgment by Default and to Judgment on Demurrer for the Plaintiff, and the Mode of ascertaining the Amount to be recovered thereupon:

Final Judgment may be marked where Demand liquidated.

XCVI. No Rule to compute shall be necessary or used; but where the Plaintiff's Claim is for a Debt or liquidated Demand in Money, with or without Interest, arising upon a Contract, express or implied, in default of such Defence or Demurrer filed within the Time aforesaid by the Defendant, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff, on filing an Affidavit of the Service of the Writ of Summons and Plaint in the Manner herein-before prescribed, or of such substituted Service as may be authorized as aforesaid, and of the Notice of filing the Summons and Plaint, if any, and Certificate of no Defence filed, to sign final Judgment in the Form No. 4. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, on which Judgment no Proceeding in Error shall lie, for any Principal Sum not exceeding the Sum claimed by the said Writ, with legal Interest thereon, and a Sum for Costs, to be fixed by the Taxing Master of the said Superior Courts, subject to the Approval of the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, and the other Two Chief Judges of the said Courts, unless the Plaintiff claims more than such fixed Sum, in which Case the Costs shall be taxed in the ordinary Way; but no Costs of such Taxation shall be allowed unless the Costs so taxed shall exceed the Sum so settled and approved of; and the Plaintiff may, upon such Judgment, issue Execution: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to let in the Defendant to defend upon such Terms as to such Court or Judge shall seem proper.

Where only some of the Defendants take Defence.

XCVII. In any Action brought against Two or more Defendants, where the Claim is for a Debt or liquidated Demand in Money, with or without Interest, as last aforesaid, if One or more of such Defendants only shall appear to defend or demur, and another or others of them shall not appear to defend or demur, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to sign Judgment against such Defendant or Defendants only as shall not have appeared to defend or demur, and before Issue joined against the other Defendant or Defendants to issue Execution thereupon, in which Case he shall be taken to have abandoned his Action against the Defendant or Defendants who shall have defended or demurred; or the Plaintiff may, before issuing such Execution, proceed against such Defendant or Defendants as shall have filed a Defence or Demurrer, stating, by way of Suggestion, the Judgment obtained against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall not have filed a Defence or Demurrer, in which Case the Judgment so obtained against the Defendant or Defendants who shall not have taken Defence or demurred shall operate and take effect in like Manner as a Judgment by Default obtained before the Commencement of this Act against One or more of several Defendants in an Action of Debt before the Commencement of this Act.

Inquiry of Damages before the Master, where the Claim is Matter of Calculation.

XCVIII. In default of such Defence or Demurrer filed as aforesaid, and in case of Judgment for the Plaintiff on Demurrer, where the Plaintiff's Claim is not for a Debt or liquidated Demand in Money, but it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that the Amount of Damages sought to be recovered by the Plaintiff, although not liquidated in its Nature, is substantially a Matter of Calculation, it shall not be necessary to issue a Writ of Inquiry, but the Court or a Judge may direct that the Amount for which final Judgment is to be signed shall be ascertained by the Master of the Court on Affidavit or by oral Evidence and the Attendance of Witnesses; and the Production of Documents before such Master may be compelled by Subpœna, in the same Manner as before a Jury upon a Writ of Inquiry; and it shall be lawful for such Master to adjourn the Inquiry from Time to Time as Occasion may require: Provided always, that in case the said Master upon any such Reference shall think it proper to have any Fact controverted on the Reference tried by a Jury, in such Case the said Master may sign a Requisition to that Effect, entitled in the Cause, and direct the same to be delivered to the Sheriff of the County of the City of Dublin Two Days before the Time when such Jury shall be required, and the Jurors shall be summoned and taken from the List of Persons liable to serve as Jurors in the County of the City of Dublin, and the Sheriff shall cause so many of the Jurors as in his Opinion he shall deem sufficient to be summoned, but not less than Six, and such Persons shall attend, and either Party shall be entitled to his lawful Challenge against all or any of the said Jurors, and a Jury consisting of not less than Three shall be returned to try such Fact or Facts as shall seem doubtful to such Master, who shall proceed to make his Report on the Verdict of such Jury as he shall see fit, and such Jury shall be sworn and paid as a Common Jury at Nisi Prius; and the Master shall endorse upon the Rule or Order for referring the Amount of Damages to him the Amount found by him, and shall deliver the Rule or Order, with such Endorsement, to the Plaintiff, and such and the like Proceedings may thereupon be had as to Taxation of Costs, signing Judgment, and staying the signing thereof, and otherwise, as upon the Finding of a Jury upon a Writ of Inquiry.

Master shall examine the Affidavits of Service.

XCIX. It shall be the Duty of the Master of the Court, before he permits any such Judgment by Default to be marked, to see that a proper Affidavit of the Service of the Writ of Summons and Plaint has been filed, and that according to such Affidavit Service of such Writ has been effected in the Manner prescribed by this Act, or in the Manner substituted by the Order of the Court or a Judge as aforesaid.

Ordinary Writ of Inquiry in other Cases.

C. In Default of such Defence or Demurrer, and in case of Judgment for the Plaintiff on Demurrer, when the Plaintiff's Demand is not for a Debt or liquidated Sum in Money, and where the Amount of Damages sought to be recovered cannot be calculated as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff to issue a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff of the proper County, or other Person thereunto lawfully authorized, and such Inquiry shall be holden at the Chief Town in the County, or such other Place as shall be agreed on between the Sheriff and the Party delivering the Writ to him, who shall have Ten Days Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of holding such Inquiry; and Notice of the holding of such such Inquiry shall also be given by the Plaintiff to the Defendant, or if Judgment be given on Demurrer to his Attorney, Ten Days before the holding of same; and the said Writ of Inquiry may be made returnable and be returned on any Day certain in Term or in Vacation, to be named in such Writ, and upon the Return thereof, and without any Rule for Judgment thereon, the Costs may be taxed and Judgment signed and Execution issued forthwith, unless the Sheriff or other Officer before whom such Writ shall be executed shall certify under his Hand upon such Writ that Judgment ought not to be signed until the Defendant or Plaintiff shall have had an Opportunity to apply to the Court to set aside the Execution of such Writ of Inquiry, or unless One of the Judges of the said Superior Courts of Law shall think fit to order the Judgment to be stayed until a Day to be named in such Order; provided that where a Writ of Inquiry shall have been sped before a Judge, the Proceedings from the Finding to issuing Execution shall be the same as in the Case of ordinary Trials at Nisi Prius.

Inquiries may be holden before Master of the Court when Venue in Dublin.

CI. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, in any Case in which the Venue in the Action shall be laid in the County or County of the City of Dublin, instead of a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff to ascertain the Amount of Damages, to direct that the Amount for which final Judgment shall be marked shall be ascertained by the Master of the Court, and thereupon such Damages shall be ascertained by the Master in like Manner as such Damages have been heretofore ascertained under Writ of Inquiry by the Sheriff; and for such Purpose it shall be the Duty of the Sheriff to summon Jurors to attend before the said Masters, who shall have the like Jurisdiction and Authority as have been heretofore exercised by Sheriffs in holding such Inquiries: Provided always, that whenever there is any such Trial by Jury Six Jurymen shall be impannelled and sworn as Occasion shall require to give their Verdict according to the Evidence, and the Verdict of the said Jurymen shall, if unanimous, be sufficient; and it shall be lawful for the Master to adjourn such Inquiry from Time to Time as Occasion may require; and the Master shall endorse on the Rule or Order of Reference the Finding of the said Jury, and shall deliver the same to the Plaintiff, and such and the like Proceedings may thereupon be had as to Taxation of Costs, signing Judgment, and otherwise, as upon a Finding of a Jury upon a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff.

Issues and Abstract for Nisi Prius.

With respect to the Settlement of the Issues and Abstract for Nisi Prius:

Abstract of Issues for Nisi Prius to be settled by a Judge.

CII. After Defence or last subsequent Pleading filed, and together with the Notice of Trial, the Plaintiff's Attorney shall furnish to the Defendant's Attorney a Draft of the Abstract of the Pleadings and of the Issues in Fact to be tried at Nisi Prius, according to the Form No. 5. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed; and in case the Defendant shall not return the same, approved of, within Four Days from the Delivery thereof, the Plaintiff may take out a Summons to settle the same before a Judge, who shall, subject to an Appeal to the Court, settle the same, and shall have Power to adjudicate on the Costs of such Settlement; and such Abstract, so agreed upon or settled, shall be lodged with the Pleadings Assistant of the Court, and an Engrossment of such Abstract, so agreed on or settled, and prepared by the Plaintiff's Attorney, shall be in place of the Record of Nisi Prius, and the Postea and all other Proceedings at the Trial shall be endorsed thereon, and shall be returnable in the like Manner as heretofore in respect of the Nisi Prius Record.

Time for Notice of Trial and Inquiry.

CIII. Ten Days Notice of Trial or Inquiry shall be given, and shall be sufficient in all Cases, whether at Bar or Nisi Prius, in Town or Country, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge; and the Expression "Short Notice of Trial" in any Order or Consent shall be taken to mean Four Days.

Notice of Countermand.

CIV. A Countermand of Notice of Trial or Inquiry may be given Four Days before the Time mentioned in the Notice, unless Short Notice of Trial or Inquiry has been given, and then Two Days before the Time mentioned in the Notice of Trial or Inquiry, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, or by Consent.

Costs of the Day.

CV. A Rule for Costs of the Day for not proceeding to Trial or Inquiry pursuant to Notice, or not countermanding in sufficient Time, may be drawn up on Affidavit, without Motion, at any Time within One Month after the Day of Trial or Inquiry fixed by the Notice of Trial or Inquiry, and if such Rule be not entered within said Period such Costs shall be Costs in the Cause; provided however that such Rule shall, so long as it remains in force, be an Answer to any Application in respect of any Default in proceeding to Trial.

Default in going to Trial.

With respect to Default in not proceeding to Trial:

Order for Costs for not proceeding to Trial.

CVI. The Plaintiff shall proceed to Trial within Three Terms from that in which, or the Vacation of which, the Defence or other subsequent Pleading is filed; and in default thereof the Defendant may enter a Rule that the Plaintiff do proceed to Trial at the Assizes or Sittings next after the Expiration of Twenty Days from the Service of such Rule, and that in default the Defendant shall be dismissed with his Costs of the Suit; and if the Plaintiff neglects to proceed to Trial in pursuance thereof, the Defendant, on filing an Affidavit of the Service of such Rule, and that the Plaintiff has failed to proceed to Trial in pursuance thereof, may enter a peremptory Order for the Payment of his Costs of the Suit, which Order shall be in lieu and shall have the Effect of a Judgment as in case of a Nonsuit; and the Defendant on producing such Order shall have the Pleadings in the Cause removed into the Office of the Master of the Court for the Purpose of having Execution thereon, and shall have Execution accordingly; provided, however, that the Court or a Judge shall have Power to extend the Time for proceeding to Trial, with or without Terms.

CVII. Nothing

Defendant's Right to try upon Default of the Plaintiff.

CVII. Nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of a Defendant to take down a Cause for Trial, after Default by the Plaintiff to proceed to Trial as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Defendant, after such Default, to proceed to have the Abstract of the Issues settled in the same Manner as the Plaintiff might have done.

Notice of Trial by Defendant.

CVIII. When a Defendant shall be entitled to go to Trial as aforesaid, he may proceed without any Rule or Order for that Purpose, and the same Notice of Trial shall be given as in ordinary Cases, and if Abstracts are entered for Trial both by the Plaintiff and the Defendant, the Defendant's Abstract shall be treated as standing next in order after the Plaintiff's Abstract in the List of Causes, and the Trial of the Cause may take place accordingly.

Jury Process.

With respect to Juries and Jury Process:

Precept by Judges to summon Jurors for Civil as well as Criminal Trials.

CIX. No Jury Process shall be necessary or used in any Action; but the Precept issued by the Judges of Assize to the Sheriff to summon Jurors for the Assizes shall direct that the Jurors be summoned for the Trial of all Issues, whether civil or criminal, which may come on for Trial at the Assizes, and the Jurors shall thereupon be summoned in like Manner as at present.

A printed Panel to be prepared, and annexed to the Abstract.

CX. A printed Panel of the Jurors summoned shall, Seven Days before the Commission Day, be made by the Sheriff, and kept in the Office of the Returning Officer in Dublin for Inspection; and a printed Copy of such Panel on Parchment shall be delivered by the Sheriff to any Party requiring the same, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling, and such Copy shall be annexed to the Abstract for Nisi Prius.

Sheriffs of Dublin to summon Common Jurors, and prepare a Panel to be annexed to the Abstract.

CXI. The Sheriffs of the County and County of the City of Dublin respectively shall, pursuant to a Precept under the Hand of a Judge of any of the said Superior Courts, and without any other Authority, summon a sufficient Number of Common Jurors for the Trial of all Issues in the Superior Courts of Common Law and the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court in like Manner as before this Act; and Seven Days before the First Day of each Sittings a printed Panel of the Jurors so summoned for the Trial of Causes at such Sittings shall be made by such Sheriff, and kept in his Office for public Inspection; and a printed Copy of such Panel shall be delivered by the said Sheriff to any Party requiring the same, on Payment of a Fee of One Shilling, and a Copy on Parchment shall be annexed to the Abstract for Nisi Prius; and the said Precept shall and may be in like Form as the Precept issued by the Judges of Assize, and One thereof shall suffice for each Term and after Sittings, and for all the Superior Courts and the said Consolidated Nisi Prius Court; and it shall be the Duty of the said Sheriffs respectively to apply for and procure such Precept to be issued in sufficient Time before each Term to enable them to summon the Persons in manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the several Courts or any Judge thereof at any Time to issue such Precept or Precepts to summon Jurors for disposing of the Business pending in such Courts and in the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court, and to direct the Time and Place for which such Jurors shall be summoned, and all such other Matters as to such Court or Judge shall seem requisite.

Special Jurors summoned to try all Special Jury Cases.

CXII. The Precept issued by the Judges of Assize, and by the Judge of any of the said Superior Courts for Cases in the County and City of Dublin, as aforesaid, shall direct the Sheriff to summon a sufficient Number of Special Jurymen to be mentioned therein, not exceeding in Country Cases Forty-eight in all, to try the Special Jury Causes at the Assizes, or in the several Superior Courts of Common Law in Dublin respectively; and the Persons summoned in pursuance of such Precept shall be the Jury for trying the Special Jury Causes at the Assizes or after Sittings respectively, subject to such Right of Challenge as the Parties are now by Law entitled to in the like Cases, and subject to the like Liability as to the Payment of the Costs of obtaining such Special Jury; and a printed Panel of the Special Jurors so summoned shall be made, kept, delivered, and annexed to the Abstract of Nisi Prius, in like Time and Manner and upon the same Terms as herein-before provided with reference to the Panel of Common Jurors; and upon the Trial the Special Jury shall be balloted for and called in the Order in which they shall be drawn from the Box, in the same Manner as Common Jurors; provided that the Court or a Judge, in such Case as they or he may think fit, may order that a Special Jury be struck according to the present Practice, and such Order shall be a sufficient Warrant for striking such Special Jury, and making a Panel thereof for the Trial of the particular Cause.

Mode of obtaining a Special Jury.

CXIII. The Plaintiff in any Action, except for the Replevin of Goods, shall be entitled to have the Cause tried by a Special Jury, upon giving Notice in Writing to the Defendant at such Time as would be necessary for a Notice of Trial of his Intention that the Cause shall be so tried, and the Plaintiff in an Action for the Replevin of Goods, and the Defendant in other Cases, shall be so entitled, on giving the like Notice, within Six Days before the First Day of the Assizes or after Sittings respectively; provided that the Court or a Judge may at any Time order that a Cause shall be tried by a Special Jury, upon such Terms as they or he shall think fit.

Remedy for Delay by Notice of Trial by Special Jury.

CXIV. Where the Defendant in any Case, or Plaintiff in an Action for the Replevin of Goods, gives Notice of his Intention to try the Cause by a Special Jury, the Court or a Judge, if satisfied that such Notice is given for the Purpose of Delay, may order that the Cause be tried by a Common Jury, or make such other Order as to the Trial of the Cause as such Court or Judge shall think fit.

Notice to Sheriff of Trial by Special Jury.

CXV. Where Notice has been given to try by Special Jury, either Party may, Six Days before the First Day of the Sittings in Dublin, or Commission Day of the Assizes, give Notice to the Sheriff that such Action is to be tried by a Special Jury; and in case no such Notice be given, or the Notice has not been given in sufficient Time, no Special Jury need be summoned or attend, and the Cause may be tried by a Common Jury, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge.

CXVI. A Writ

View to be by Rule.

CXVI. A Writ or Clause of View shall not be necessary or used, but whether the View is to be had by a Common or Special Jury it shall be sufficient to obtain a Rule of the Court or a Judge's Order directing a View to be had, and directing the Sheriff to have Six or more of the Jurors named in the Panel chosen by Consent, or, if the Parties cannot agree, nominated by the proper Officer of the Court at the Place in question some convenient Time before the Trial; and the Viewers shall have the Place shown to them by Two Persons to be named in the Order, and to be appointed by the Court or a Judge; and the Sheriff, upon Request, shall deliver to either Party the Names of the Viewers, and shall also return their Names to the Registrar, for the Purpose of their being called as Jurymen upon the Trial.

Proceedings before Jurors so returned same as before this Act.

CXVII. The Jurors whose Names are contained in such Panel as aforesaid shall be the Jurors to try the Causes at the Assizes and Sittings for which they shall be summoned respectively; and all such Proceedings may be had and taken before such Juries in like Manner and with the like Consequences in all respects as before or in respect of any Jury summoned in pursuance of any Writ or Writs of Venire facias juratores, Distingas juratores or Habeas corpora juratorum, before this Act, and also in respect of Persons summoned to appear upon such Juries, and in the event of an insufficient Attendance of Persons summoned and competent to act as Jurors.

Evidence.

With respect to Matters of Evidence and the Admission of Documents, be it enacted as follows:

Admission of Documents.

CXVIII. Either Party may call on the other Party, by Notice, to admit any Document, or a Copy thereof, saving all just Exceptions; and in case of Refusal or Neglect to admit within a reasonable Time, the Costs of proving the Document or Copy shall be paid by the Party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the Result of the Cause may be, unless at the Trial the Judge shall certify that the Refusal to admit was reasonable; and no Costs of proving any Document or Copy shall be allowed unless such Notice be given, except in Cases where the Omission to give the Notice is, in the Opinion of the Taxing Officer, a Saving of Expense.

Proof of Admissions.

CXIX. An Affidavit of the Attorney in the Cause, or his Clerk, of the due Signature of any Admissions, made in pursuance of such Notice, and annexed to the Affidavit, shall be in all Cases sufficient Evidence of such Admissions.

Proof of Notice to produce.

CXX. An Affidavit of the Attorney in the Cause, or his Clerk, of the Service of any Notice to produce, in respect of which Notice to admit shall have been given, and of the Time when it was served, with a Copy of such Notice annexed to such Affidavit, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Service of the Original of such Notice, and of the Time when it was served.

Bills of Exceptions.

With respect to Bills of Exception, be it enacted as follows:

Bill of Exceptions not to set forth Pleadings.

CXXI. Every Bill of Exceptions may be according to the Form No. 6. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed; and it shall be lawful, by Consent of the Parties, or Order of the Judge, to incorporate any Deed or Document therewith, by an appropriate Reference to such Deed or Document, without setting forth the same.

Judgment.

With respect to the Form and Manner of entering Judgment:

Judgment not to be arrested on technical Grounds.

CXXII. No Judgment shall be arrested or stayed or reversed by reason of any Imperfection, Omission, Defect in or Lack of Form in any Summons and Plaint, Defence, or other Pleading or Proceeding, nor by reason that the Venue is misplaced, or the Trial had in a wrong County or Place, nor by reason of any Misnomer of any of the Jurors who tried the Case in Name, Surname, or Addition, so as it appear to the Court to be the same Man that was meant to be returned, nor by reason that the Plaintiff or Defendant, being under the Age of Twenty-one Years, did sue or defend by Attorney.

Entry of Judgment on the Roll unnecessary for Execution.

CXXIII. It shall not be necessary, before issuing Execution upon any Judgment under the Authority of this Act, to enter the Proceedings upon any Roll, but on producing, and lodging with the proper Officer, a Certificate of the Name, Description, and Address of the Parties, an Entry shall be made in the Judgment Book, signed by the Master, shortly stating the Nature of the Judgment, and thereupon the Costs shall be taxed, and Execution issued, according to the Practice heretofore used, and the Effect of every such Entry of a Judgment shall be the same as that of a Judgment in an Action in the Form heretofore used; and such Entry in the said Judgment Book shall contain a Reference to the Number of the Roll on which such Judgment shall be enrolled, and shall contain a Column in which any Satisfaction of the said Judgment may be afterwards entered, if necessary.

When Judgment to be made up, Summary of Pleadings to be lodged, and Judgment marked thereon.

CXXIV. When it shall be required to sign any Judgment, the Attorney requiring the same shall deliver to the proper Officer a correct Summary or Recital of the Proceedings, briefly stating the several Pleadings, and the Nature thereof, written fairly on Parchment, and signed by the Attorney, and thereupon the Officer shall take off from the Pleadings File the several Pleadings in the Cause in which such Judgment shall be required to be made up, and shall place them, together with the said Summary prefixed, in consecutive Order upon the File of Judgments, in the Manner now used, or as may be hereafter directed by any General Order of the Judges, there to be kept as the permanent Records of the Court, and shall upon the said Summary give the proper Award of Judgment; and it shall in all Cases of enrolling Judgments be sufficient to place on the Roll a correct Copy of the said Summary or Recital of the Proceedings according to Fact, together with the Award of Judgment in proper Form, with a Reference to the original Pleadings on the Judgment File, whereby the same may be immediately found and inspected; and no Judgment so enrolled under the Authority of this Act shall be liable to be disturbed on the Ground of Error, on account of any Omissions hereby authorized: Provided always, that that if it shall be deemed necessary, for the Prosecution of any Proceeding in Error or for any other Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Court to order that the whole or any Part of the Pleadings shall be transcribed upon the Roll, and the same shall be transcribed by the proper Officer accordingly.

Judgment without Distinction between Debt or Damages.

CXXV. In all Actions where the Plaintiff recovers a Sum of Money, the Amount which he is entitled to may be awarded to him by the Judgment generally, without any Distinction being therein made as to whether such Sum is recovered by way of a Debt or Damages.

Award of Costs in vexatious Actions.

CXXVI. In all Actions for a Trespass on Lands or Tenements, Assault and Battery, or for Slander, the Plaintiff in such Action, in case the Jury shall find the Damages to be under the Value of Forty Shillings, shall not recover or obtain more Costs of Suit than the Damages so found shall amount unto, unless the Judge at the Trial shall certify under his Hand, on the Back of the Abstract for Nisi Prius, that the Assault and Battery was sufficiently proved by the Plaintiff against the Defendant, or that the Freehold or Title of the Land mentioned in the Plaint was chiefly in question, or that the Trespass was voluntary or malicious.

Execution.

With respect to Execution:

Execution after Trial.

CXXVII. A Plaintiff or Defendant, having obtained a Verdict or Nonsuit in a Cause tried out of Term, shall be entitled, without any Rule on the Postea or Inquisition, to mark Judgment and to issue Execution in Fourteen Days, and in a Cause tried in Term in Four Days, unless the Judge who tries the Cause, or some other Judge, or the Court, shall order Execution to issue at an earlier or later Period, with or without Terms; and it shall be lawful for the said Judge before whom the Trial has been had, or any other Judge, or the Court, to make such Order accordingly: Provided that, notwithstanding any Judgment signed or recorded or Execution issued by virtue of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Action shall have been brought to order such Judgment to be vacated, and Execution to be stayed or set aside, and to enter an Arrest of Judgment, or grant a new Trial or new Writ of Inquiry, as Justice may appear to require, and thereupon the Party affected by such Execution shall be restored to all he may have lost thereby in such Manner as upon the Reversal of a Judgment by a Proceeding in Error, or otherwise as the Court may think fit to direct.

Execution may issue to any County.

CXXVIII. Any Writ of Execution, except a Writ of Habere facias possessionem, or other Writ of Possession, may be directed, in the first instance, to the Sheriff of any County, or County of a City, or other Shrievalty, as the Party suing out the same may think fit, without Reference to the County in which the Venue is laid, and without any Suggestion of the issuing of a prior Writ into such County.

Execution to issue for the Amount really due.

CXXIX. When any Execution is demanded, the Party demanding the same shall lodge with the Officer required to issue such Writ a Certificate signed by the Party or his Attorney containing such Sum as the Party demands to be in good Conscience due to him after all just and equitable Deductions, which Certificate shall be filed in the Office, and the Sum mentioned therein entered in the Book wherein Executions are entered, and also in the Body of the said Execution that shall issue, as the Sum to be levied on Foot of the Sum adjudged by the Judgment or Order of the Court; and if the Party at whose Suit such Execution issues shall appear wilfully, fraudulently, and maliciously to have overcharged the Party against whom such Execution issues, in such Case he shall forfeit to the Party grieved Treble Damages.

Expenses of Execution.

CXXX. In every Case of Execution, the Party entitled to Execution may levy the Poundage Fees and Expenses of the Execution by Law payable over and above the Sum recovered.

Sheriff empowered to seize Money, Bank Notes, &c., and to pay Money or Bank Notes to Execution Creditor.

CXXXI. Under any Writ of Fieri facias may be seized and taken any Money or Bank Notes (whether of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, or of any other Bank or Bankers), and any Cheques, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bonds, Specialties, or other Securities for Money, belonging to the Person against whose Effects such Writ of Fieri facias shall be sued out; and the Sheriff or other Officer shall pay or deliver to the Party suing out such Execution any Money or Bank Notes which shall be so seized, or a sufficient Part thereof, and shall hold any such Cheques, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Bonds, Specialties, or other Securities for Money as a Security or Securities for the Amount by such Writ of Fieri facias directed to be levied, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied and raised, and may sue in the Name of such Sheriff or other Officer for the Recovery of the Sum or Sums secured thereby, when the Time of Payment thereof shall have arrived; and the Payment to such Sheriff or other Officer by the Party liable, with or without Suit, or the Recovery and levying Execution against the Party so liable, shall discharge him to the Extent of such Payment, or of such Recovery and Levy in Execution, as the Case may be, from his Liability on any such Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Bond, Specialty, or other Security; and such Sheriff or other Officer may and shall pay over to the Party suing out such Writ the Money so to be recovered, or such Part thereof as shall be sufficient to discharge the Amount by such Writ directed to be levied; and if, after Satisfaction of the Amount so to be levied, together with Sheriff's Poundage and Expenses, any Surplus shall remain in the Hands of such Sheriff or other Officer, the same shall be paid to the Party against whom such Writ shall be so issued: Provided that no such Sheriff or other Officer shall be bound to sue any Party liable upon any such Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Bond, Specialty, or other Security, unless the Party suing out such Execution shall enter into a Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, for indemnifying him from all Costs and Expenses to be incurred in the Prosecution of such Action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the Amount of such Bond or the Sufficiency of such Sureties, or such Amount and such Sufficiency, to be determined by the Master of the Court in which such Action shall be brought, or, if the Court shall so order, by a Commissioner of such Court authorized to take Special Bail, and the Expense of such Bond to be deducted out of any Money to be recovered in such Action.

CXXXII. If

Attachment of Government and Public Stock and Shares.

CXXXII. If any Person against whom such Judgment shall be entered as aforesaid shall have any Government Stock, Funds, or Annuities, or any Stock or Shares in any public Company in Ireland, whether incorporated or not, and standing in his own Name and in his own Right, or in the Name of any Person in trust for him, or any Interest in the Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce of such Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on Application of the Party having recovered such Judgment, to make an Order ex parte in the Form No. 7. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, to attach such Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, and such Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce shall be attached in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or any public Company, to answer the Purposes of such Execution, and such Stock, Funds, Annuities, and Shares shall not be suffered to be transferred, nor shall such Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce be paid, until such Order of Attachment shall be withdrawn or discharged or disposed of, and no Disposition in the meanwhile of such Debtor shall be valid or effectual as against such Party recovering such Judgment and obtaining such Order of Attachment.

Order for Transfer and Payment.

CXXXIII. A Copy of such Order of Attachment shall be served on the Debtor or his Attorney or Agent, and unless the said Debtor or some other Person interested shall within the Space of Twenty Days from the Service of such Order of Attachment and Copy, or from the Date of the last Service, or such other Time as the Court or a Judge may think reasonable, show sufficient Cause to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if he shall so think fit, on Proof of the Service of such Order of Attachment and Copy, to make an Order on all Persons, Corporations, and public Companies whose Act or Consent is thereto necessary, to transfer the said Government Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares belonging to the said Judgment Debtor, and standing in his own Name, or in the Name of any Trustee for him for his own Benefit, into the Name of the said Sheriff or other Officer as aforesaid, or to make Payment of such Dividends, Interest, and annual Produce to said Sheriff, and all such Persons whose Act or Consent is so necessary as aforesaid are hereby required to obey such Order, and are indemnified for all Things done or permitted pursuant to such Order: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for such Court or a Judge, on the Application of the Debtor or any Person interested, to discharge or vary such Order for Attachment, and to award such Costs, on such Application, as to the said Court or a Judge shall seem just.

Charging Order on contingent and future Interests.

CXXXIV. If such Debtor shall have an Interest in any such Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, or the Dividends, Interest, and annual Produce thereof, not vested or in possession, but contingent or in remainder or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on a like Application, to be made by the Party obtaining such Judgment, to make an Order ex parte that such Stock, Funds, Annuities, Shares, Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce, or a competent Part thereof, shall stand charged with the Payment of the Amount for which such Judgment shall have been recovered, and Interest on so much as shall remain unsatisfied, unless satisfactory Cause shall be shown to the contrary by the said Debtor or some other Person interested, within a Time to be named in said Order, and a Copy of such Order shall be served on the Debtor or his Attorney or Agent; and unless Cause shall be shown to the contrary within the Time specified in such Order, or such Time as the Court or a Judge may think proper, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if it shall so think fit, on Proof of the Service of such Order, to make same absolute; and such Order shall entitle the Creditor to all such Remedies as he would have been entitled to if such Charge had been made in his Favour by the Debtor: Provided that such Court or a Judge shall, on the Application of such Debtor, or any Person interested, have full Power to discharge or vary such Order, and to award such Costs, upon such Application as the Court or a Judge may think fit.

Order in respect of Money in Name of Accountant General.

CXXXV. If such Debtor shall have an Estate or Interest in any Stock, Funds, Annuities, or Shares, or Money, which shall be standing in the Name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or of the Court of the Commissioners for the Sale of Incumbered Estates in Ireland, or of the Master of any such Superior Court of Common Law, or in the Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make such Order as to such Stock, Funds, Annuities, Shares, and the Dividends, Interest, and annual Produce thereof, as if the same had been standing in the Name of a Trustee for such Judgment Debtor; but no such Order shall prevent the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland or any such public Company from permitting any Transfer of such Stock, Funds, Annuities, and Shares, or Money, or the Payment of the Dividends, Interest, or annual Produce thereof, in such Manner as the said Court of Chancery, or the Commissioners for the Sale of Incumbered Estates in Ireland, or the Court of Common Law may direct: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the said Court of Chancery or Court of Common Law, or the said Court of the Commissioners for the Sale of Incumbered Estates, on the Application of the Judgment Creditor, to make such Order in respect of same as shall be just.

Execution against Beneficed Clergymen.

CXXXVI. Where to a Writ of Fieri facias issued against a Beneficed Clergyman the Sheriff shall have returned Nulla bona, and that the Defendant is a Beneficed Clerk having no Lay Fee, the Plaintiff may as of course issue a Writ of Execution De bonis ecclesiasticis, directed to the Bishop of any Diocese in which the Defendant may have a Benefice, and at any Time after a Writ of Execution De bonis ecclesiasticis shall have been delivered to any Bishop the Plaintiff may apply to the Court by Motion for an Order that the Bishop do certify what has been done under the Writ, and that the Sequestrator do account; and where, in obedience to any such Writ of Fieri facias, De bonis ecclesiasticis, a Sequestration of the Ecclesiastical Benefice shall be issued by any Bishop, it shall be lawful for any Court in which any Judgment shall be had against the same Defendant, and Execution issued and returned Nulla bona, to make an Order extending the said Sequestration to the Matter of the said last-mentioned Judgment, without any further Writ or Proceeding; and the said last-mentioned Creditor shall have the Benefit of such Sequestration, and with Priority as from the Date of such Order of Extension, as if it were a Sequestration issued at his own Instance.

Return of Devastavit not to be made but on Finding of Jury.

CXXXVII. No Sheriff or other Officer shall return a Devastavit against any Defendant, being an Executor or Administrator, in any Action, but upon an Inquisition taken on the Oaths of Twelve lawful Men of his County, to whom Challenge may be taken; and the Plaintiff shall give the Defendant Ten Days previous Notice of the taking of such Inquisition, and of the Time and Place of taking same; and upon the Return of such Devastavit the Plaintiff shall be entitled to immediate Execution De bonis propriis, without further Rule or Judgment.

Detainer of a Prisoner in Execution.

CXXXVIII. It shall not be necessary in any Case to sue out a Writ of Habeas corpus ad satisfaciendum to charge in Execution any Person already in the Prison of the Court, but such Person may be so charged in Execution by a Side-bar Order upon an Affidavit that Judgment has been signed and is not satisfied, and the Service of such Order upon the Keeper of the Prison for the Time being shall have the Effect of a Detainer.

Discharge of a Prisoner from Execution.

CXXXIX. A Plaintiff or Defendant arrested under any Writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum shall be entitled to his Discharge from such Arrest, on Payment or Tender to the opposite Party or his Attorney in the Cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose Custody such Person may be under such Writ, of the Amount directed to be levied by such Writ.

Sheriff or Gaoler may discharge Prisoner by Authority of Attorney in the Cause.

CXL. A written Order under the Hand of the Attorney in the Cause, by whom any Writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued, shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or Person in whose Custody the Party may be under such Writ in discharging such Party, unless the Party for whom such Attorney professes to act shall have given written Notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or Person in whose Custody the opposite Party may be, but such Discharge shall not be a Satisfaction of the Debt, unless made by the Authority of the Creditor; and nothing herein contained shall justify any Attorney in giving such Order for Discharge without the Consent of his Client.

Renewal of Execution.

CXLI. A Writ of Execution, after the Commencement of this Act, if unexecuted, shall not remain in force for more than One Year from the Date of such Writ, unless renewed in the Manner herein-after provided, but such Writ may at any Time before its Expiration be renewed by the Party issuing it for One Year from the Date of such Renewal, and so on from Time to Time during the Continuance of the renewed Writ, by being marked with the Seal of the Court, and with a Memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the Date of the Day, Month, and Year of such Renewal, such Seal to be provided and kept for that Purpose in the Office of the Master of the Court out of which such Writ issued, or by such Party giving a written Notice of Renewal to the Sheriff, signed by the Party or his Attorney, and bearing the like Seal of the Court, and Memorandum signed or initialed by the Officer as aforesaid; and a Writ of Execution so renewed shall have Effect and be entitled to the same Priority as the original Writ would have had: Provided, however, that no Writ of Habere shall be renewed without the special Leave of the Court or a Judge.

Production of renewed Writ Evidence of Renewal.

CXLII. The Production of a Writ of Execution, or of the Notice renewing the same, purporting to be marked with such Seal, and initialed as aforesaid, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient Evidence of its having been so renewed.

Satisfaction of Judgments by Party.

CXLIII. When any Party who shall have recovered Judgment in any of the said Courts, or his personal Representative or legal Assignee, shall be willing to cause an Entry of Satisfaction thereof, or a Memorandum of part Payment, to be entered on the Record, such Party shall execute a Satisfaction Piece according to the Form No. 8. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed (which Satisfaction Piece shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty); and such Satisfaction Piece shall be executed in the Presence of One Witness, who shall attest by Affidavit the Execution of the same; and thereupon it shall be lawful for any Attorney of the said Court employed for that Purpose to require the proper Officer to enter Satisfaction or a Memorandum of part Payment on the Record of such Judgment; and such Officer shall, on having such Satisfaction Piece verified as aforesaid, and such Requisition lodged with him, enter such Satisfaction or a Memorandum of part Payment on the Record accordingly.

Court may order Satisfaction to be entered on Judgment fully paid.

CXLIV. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to order a Memorandum of Satisfaction to be entered upon the Record of any Judgment, Judgment Roll, or Judgment Book, if it shall clearly appear to the said Court or Judge that the Debt or Damages for which the said Judgment was obtained have been fully satisfied and discharged.

Assignment of Breaches.

With respect to the Assignment and Suggestion of Breaches on Covenants and Agreements for Payment of any penal Sum:

Assignment of Breaches on penal Covenant.

CXLV. In any Action on any Bond, Covenant, or Agreement for Payment of any penal Sum for Nonperformance of any Covenant or Agreement contained in any Deed or Writing, and whether accompanied by Warrant of Attorney or not, the Plaintiff may assign One or more than One Breach of such Covenant or Agreement in his Summons and Plaint.

Damages on Breaches to be ascertained.

CXLVI. In all such Actions as last aforesaid the Jury or the Master shall ascertain the Damages in respect of such Breach or Breaches as shall be proved or admitted, and Judgment shall be entered for the full Amount of such Penalty, with an Award of the Payment of the Damages assessed, if any; and in case the Defendant shall pay into Court to the Credit of the Cause the Damages so assessed by the Jury or the Master, with the Costs of Suit, a Stay of Execution shall be entered on the Record of such

Judgment

Judgment for that Time; and in case the Plaintiff shall be paid or satisfied the said Damages so assessed, or the penal Sum aforesaid, at the Election of the Defendant, with the Costs of Suit aforesaid, and of Execution, the Defendant shall be discharged from such Execution entirely, or for that Time, and for the Amount so paid according as the Case may be, and such Discharge may be entered on the Record of said Judgment; but in case the said Damages do not amount to the said penal Sum, such Judgment shall still remain in full Force as a further Security to answer the Plaintiff, his Executors and Administrators, all such Damages as may be afterwards sustained by reason of any further Breach of any Covenant or Agreement in said Deed or Writing, as far as the Remainder of such penal Sum, after the Payment of the Damages formerly recovered out of the same, will reach.

Suggestion of further Breaches and Execution on same.

CXLVII. In all such Actions as last aforesaid, in case Judgment shall pass for the Plaintiff, and the full Amount thereof and the Costs of Suit shall not have been paid or levied, and afterwards any further Breach or Breaches shall happen, the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to file One or more than One Suggestion of such Breaches in the Form No. 9. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and such Suggestion shall be pleaded to, and the Truth of the Matters therein suggested shall be tried and Damages awarded, and Judgment and Execution shall be given in like Manner, as if the same were on Summons and Plaint; and upon Payment or Satisfaction of such further Damages and Costs further Proceedings shall be stayed for that Time; and so from Time to Time, as often as Occasion may require, on every new Breach, the said Judgment may be resorted to, so far as aforesaid, and no further; and upon Payment or Satisfaction made to the full Amount of said penal Sum and Costs as aforesaid the said Defendant, his Body, Lands, and Goods, shall be discharged of all Execution in respect of the same.

Proceedings to revive.

And with respect to the Time within which Execution may be issued, and the Proceedings for the Revival of Judgments and other Proceedings by and against Persons not Parties to the Record, be it enacted as follows:

Execution without Revival.

CXLVIII. Writs of Execution may be issued, at any Time within Six Years after the Recovery of the Judgment, by or against the Plaintiffs or Defendants, or the Survivors of them, without any Revival of such Judgment.

Judgment to be revived by Suggestion.

CXLIX. In case it shall become necessary to revive a Judgment by reason of Lapse of Time or of a Change, by Death or otherwise, of the Parties entitled or liable to Execution, the Party alleging himself to be entitled to Execution may apply to the Court or a Judge, on an Affidavit ascertaining the Amount due, for Leave to enter a Suggestion upon the Record of the Judgment to the Effect that it manifestly appears to the Court that such Party is entitled to have Execution of the Judgment for the said Sum, and to issue Execution thereupon for the same, such Leave to be granted by the Court or a Judge upon such Terms and in such Manner as to the Court or a Judge shall seem fit.

Application for Suggestion.

CL. Upon such Application, in case it manifestly appears that the Party making the same is entitled to Execution, the Court or Judge shall allow such Suggestion as aforesaid to be entered in the Form No. 10. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and Execution to issue thereupon for the Amount actually due, and shall order whether or not the Costs of such Application shall be paid to the Party making the same; and in case the said Costs shall be so ordered to the Party making the Application they shall be Costs in the Cause; and in case it does not manifestly appear, the Court or Judge shall refuse such Application, with or without Costs: Provided nevertheless, that in such last-mentioned Case the Party making such Application shall be at liberty to proceed by Revivor or Action upon the Judgment.

Writ of Revivor, and Proceedings thereunder.

CLI. In all Cases in which it shall become necessary to revive a Judgment the Party alleging himself to be entitled to Execution may sue out a Writ of Revivor, and such Writ of Revivor shall be directed to the Party called upon to show Cause why Execution should not be awarded for the Amount claimed to be due, and shall bear Date on the Day of its issuing, and after reciting the Reason why such Writ has become necessary it shall call upon the Party to whom it is directed to appear, within Eight Days after Service thereof in the Court out of which it issues, to show Cause why the Party at whose Instance such Writ has been issued should not have Execution against the Party to whom such Writ is directed for the Amount claimed to be due, and shall give Notice that in default of Defence the Party issuing such Writ may proceed to Execution for such Amount, together with the Costs of such Proceeding; and such Writ may be in the Form No. 11. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and may be served in any County, and otherwise proceeded upon, whether in Term or Vacation, in the same Manner as a Writ of Summons and Plaint; and the Venue in such Writ may be laid in any County, and the Pleadings and Proceedings thereupon, and the Rights of the Parties respectively to Costs, shall be the same as in an ordinary Action, so far as the same may be applicable.

Plea of Payment of Judgment.

CLII. In any Action on a Judgment, or in any Proceeding by Writ of Revivor to revive a Judgment, or to have Execution for the Sum remaining due and unsatisfied on Foot of such Judgment, if the Defendant hath paid the Money due on such Judgment or the Balance claimed on Foot of same, such Payment shall and may be pleaded in bar of any such Action or Proceeding by Writ of Revivor.

Writs of Scire facias in other Cases.

CLIII. All Writs of Scire facias issued out of any of the Superior Courts of Law at Dublin, against Bail on a Recognizance; against Members of a Joint Stock Company or other Body upon a Judgment recorded against a public Officer or other Person sued as representing such Company or Body, or against such Company or Body itself; by or against a Husband to have Execution of a Judgment for or against a Wife; for Restitution after a Reversal in Error, or for Recovery of Land taken under an Elegit, or for

Execution

Execution against a personal Representative on a Judgment of Assets quando acciderint, shall be dated, directed, and proceeded upon in like Manner as Writs of Revivor.

As to Writ of Revivor.

CLIV. A Writ of Revivor to revive a Judgment less than Ten Years old shall be allowed without any Rule or Order; if more than Ten Years old, not without the Order of the Court or a Judge.

Death, Marriage, Bankruptcy.

With respect to the Effect of Death, Marriage, and Bankruptcy upon the Proceedings in an Action:

Action not to abate by Death.

CLV. The Death of a Plaintiff or Defendant shall not cause the Action to abate, but it may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Proceedings on Death of One of several Plaintiffs or Defendants.

CLVI. In case there be Two or more Plaintiffs or Defendants, and One or more of them shall die, if the Cause of Action shall survive to the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or against the surviving Defendant or Defendants, the Action shall not be thereby abated; but such Death being suggested upon the Record, the Action shall proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff or Plaintiffs against the surviving Defendant or Defendants.

Proceeding in case of sole Plaintiff.

CLVII. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or sole surviving Plaintiff, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, and the Action shall thereupon proceed; and if such Suggestion be made before the Trial the Truth of the Suggestion shall be tried thereat, together with the Title of the deceased Plaintiff, and such Judgment shall follow upon the Verdict in favour of or against the Person making such Suggestion as if he were originally the Plaintiff.

Proceeding upon Death of sole or sole surviving Defendant.

CLVIII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or sole surviving Defendant, where the Action survives, the Plaintiff may file a Suggestion of the Death, and that a Person named therein is the Executor or Administrator of the Deceased, and may thereupon serve such Executor or Administrator with a Copy of the Summons and Plaint and Suggestion, and with a Notice, signed by the Plaintiff or his Attorney, requiring such Executor or Administrator to file a Defence within Twelve Days after Service of the Notice, inclusive of the Day of such Service, and that in default of his so doing the Plaintiff may sign Judgment against him as such Executor or Administrator; and the same Proceedings may be had and taken thereon after such Notice as upon a Writ against such Executor or Administrator in respect of the Cause for which the Action was brought; and in case the Plaintiff shall have issued his Summons and Plaint, but the Defendant shall not have pleaded before the Death, the new Defendant shall plead at the same Time to the Summons and Plaint and Suggestion; and in case the Defendant shall have pleaded before the Death the new Defendant shall be at liberty to plead to the Suggestion only by way of Denial, or such Plea as may be appropriate to and rendered necessary by his Character of Executor or Administrator, unless, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, he should be permitted to plead fresh Matter in answer to the Summons and Plaint, and in case the Plaintiff shall recover he shall be entitled to the like Judgment in respect of the Debt or Damages sought to be recovered, and in respect of the Costs prior to the Suggestion; and he shall be entitled in respect of the Costs of the Suggestion and subsequent thereto to the same Judgment as in an Action originally commenced against the Executor or Administrator.

Death between Verdict and Judgment.

CLIX. The Death of either Party between the Verdict or Nonsuit and the Judgment shall not hereafter be alleged for Error, so as such Judgment be entered within Two Terms after such Verdict or Nonsuit.

Death after interlocutory and before final Judgment.

CLX. If the Plaintiff in any Action happen to die after an interlocutory Judgment and before a final Judgment obtained therein, the said Action shall not abate by reason thereof, if such Action might be originally prosecuted or maintained by the Executor or Administrator of such Plaintiff; and if the Defendant die after such interlocutory Judgment and before final Judgment therein obtained, the said Action shall not abate, if such Action might be originally prosecuted or maintained against the Executor or Administrator of such Defendant; and the Plaintiff, or if he be dead after such interlocutory Judgment, his Executors or Administrators, shall and may have a Writ of Revivor, in the appropriate Form No. 13. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, against the Defendant, if living after such interlocutory Judgment, or if he be dead, then against his Executors or Administrators, to show Cause why Damages in such Action should not be assessed and recovered by him or them; and if such Defendant, his Executors or Administrators, shall not appear and defend at the Return of such Writ, or shall not show or allege any Matter sufficient to arrest the final Judgment, a Writ of Inquiry of Damages shall be awarded, or the Amount for which final Judgment is to be signed shall be referred to the Master, as herein-before provided; and upon the Return of the Writ, or Delivery of the Order with the Amount endorsed thereon to the Plaintiff, or his Executors or Administrators, final Judgment shall be given for the said Plaintiff, his Executors or Administrators, prosecuting such Writ of Revivor against such Defendant, his Executors or Administrators respectively.

Marriage not to abate Action.

CLXI. The Marriage of a Female Plaintiff or Defendant shall not cause the Action to abate, but the Action may notwithstanding be proceeded with to Judgment; and such Judgment may be executed against the Wife alone, or, by Suggestion or Writ of Revivor pursuant to this Act, Judgment may be obtained against the Husband and Wife, and Execution issue thereon; and in case of a Judgment for the Wife recovered before or after her Marriage in an Action commenced by her when sole, upon which she would be entitled to Execution if she had continued sole, Execution may be issued thereupon by the Authority of the Husband without any Writ of Revivor or Suggestion; and if in any such Action the Wife shall sue or defend by Attorney appointed by her when sole, such Attorney shall have Authority to continue the Action or Defence, unless such Authority be countermanded by the Husband, and the Attorney changed according to the Practice of the Court.

to

Bankruptcy and Insolvency of Plaintiff, when not to abate Action.

CLXII. The Bankruptcy or Insolvency of the Plaintiff in any Action which the Assignees might maintain for the Benefit of the Creditors shall not be pleaded in bar to such Action, unless the Assignees shall decline to continue, and give Security for the Costs thereof, upon a Judge's Order to be obtained for that Purpose, within such reasonable Time as the Judge may order, but the Proceedings may be stayed until such Election is made; and in case the Assignees neglect or refuse to continue the Action, and give such Security within the Time limited by the Order, the Defendant may, within Eight Days after such Neglect or Refusal, plead the Bankruptcy or Insolvency.

Arrest of Judgment.

With respect to the Proceedings upon Motions to arrest the Judgment, and for Judgment non obstante veredicto:

Upon Motion in arrest of Judgment or for Judgment non obstante veredicto, Suggestion of Facts.

CLXIII. No Judgment shall be arrested, nor shall Judgment be given non obstante veredicto, by reason of the Non-averment of any alleged material Fact or other Cause, unless the Party insisting on the Objection shall satisfy the Court that there has been an Omission of some substantial Matter of Fact whereby the said Party may have been prejudiced in the Merits of his Case, and in such Case the Party whose Pleading is alleged or adjudged to be therein defective may, by Leave of the Court, suggest the Existence of the omitted Fact or Facts, or other Matter, which, if true, would remedy the alleged Defect; and such Suggestion may be pleaded to by the opposite Party within Eight Days after Notice thereof, or such Time as the Court or a Judge may allow; and the proceeding to Trial of any Issue joined on such Suggestion shall be the same as in an ordinary Action.

Costs to follow Result of Issue.

CLXIV. If the Fact suggested be admitted or found to be true, the Party suggesting shall be entitled to the like Judgment as he would have been entitled to if such Facts or Allegations had been originally stated in the Pleading, and proved or admitted at the Trial, together with the Costs of and occasioned by the Suggestion and Proceeding thereon, but if such Fact or Facts be found to be untrue, the opposite Party shall be entitled to his Costs of and occasioned by the Suggestion and Proceeding thereon, in addition to any other Costs to which he may be entitled.

Costs of abortive Issues.

CLXV. Upon an Arrest of Judgment, or Judgment non obstante veredicto, the Court shall adjudge to the Party against whom such Judgment is given the Costs occasioned by the Trial of any Issues of Fact arising out of the Pleading for Defect of which such Judgment is given upon which such Party shall have succeeded; and such Costs shall be set off against any Money or Costs adjudged to the opposite Party, and Execution may issue for the Balance, if any.

Error.

With respect to Proceedings in Error:

Error to be brought within Six Years.

CLXVI. No Judgment in any Action shall be reversed or avoided for any Error or Defect therein, unless the Proceedings in Error be commenced, or brought and prosecuted with Effect, within Six Years after such Judgment signed or entered of Record, or within Six Years after the Time when this Act shall have come into operation.

Error may be brought by legal Representative of a deceased Party.

CLXVII. If any Person is or shall be entitled to bring Error as Heir or personal Representative of any Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, such Person may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, which Suggestion shall be embodied in the Memorandum of Error herein-after mentioned, and shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside on Application to the Court or a Judge, on Motion, if untrue, and the like Proceedings in Error may thereupon be taken at the Suit of such legal Representative.

Proviso for Disabilities.

CLXVIII. If any Person that is or shall be entitled to bring Error as aforesaid is or shall be, at the Time of such Title accrued, within the Age of Twenty-one Years, Feme Covert, non compos mentis, or beyond the Seas, then such Person shall be at liberty to bring Error as aforesaid, so as such Party brings or commences and prosecutes the same with Effect within Six Years after coming to or being of full Age, Discovert, of sound Memory, or Return from beyond the Seas; and if the opposite Party shall at the Time of the Judgment signed or entered of Record be beyond the Seas, then Error may be brought, provided the Proceedings be commenced and prosecuted with Effect within Six Years after the Return of such Party from beyond Seas.

Writ of Error abolished.

CLXIX. A Writ of Error shall not be necessary or used in any Action, and the Proceeding to Error shall be a Step in the Cause, and shall be taken in manner herein-after mentioned; but nothing in this Act contained shall invalidate any Proceedings already taken or to be taken by reason of any Writ of Error issued before the Commencement of this Act.

Error in Law how brought.

CLXX. Either Party alleging Error in Law may deliver to the Master of the Court a Memorandum in Writing in the Form No. 12. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, entitled in the Court and Cause, and signed by the Party or his Attorney, alleging that there is Error in Law in the Record and Proceedings, whereupon the Master shall file such Memorandum, and deliver to the Party lodging the same a Note of the Receipt thereof; and a Copy of such Note, together with a Statement of the Grounds of Error intended to be argued, may be served on the opposite Party or his Attorney.

Error no Supersedeas till Service of the Copy of the Note and Ground of Error.

CLXXI. Proceedings in Error in Law shall be deemed a Supersedeas of Execution from the Time of the Service of the Copy of the Note of the Receipt by the Master of the Memorandum alleging Error, together with the Statement of the Grounds of Error intended to be argued, until Default in putting in Bail, or Affirmance of the Judgment, or Discontinuance of the Proceedings in Error, or until the Proceedings in Error shall be otherwise disposed of without a Reversal of the Judgment; provided that if the Grounds of Error shall appear to be frivolous the Court or a Judge upon Motion may order Execution to issue.

CLXXII. Upon

Bail in Error.

CLXXII. Upon any Judgment given or to be given in any of the said Superior Courts of Common Law in any Personal Action or Ejectment, Execution shall not be stayed or delayed by Proceedings in Error, or Supersedeas thereupon, without special Order of the Court or a Judge, unless the Person in whose Name such Proceedings in Error be brought shall, within Four clear Days after lodging the Memorandum alleging Error, or after the signing of the Judgment, whichever shall last happen, or before Execution executed, be bound with Two, or, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, more than Two sufficient Sureties, such as the Court wherein such Judgment is or shall be given, or a Judge, shall allow of, unto the Party for whom any such Judgment is or shall be given, by Recognizance, to be acknowledged in the same Court, in double the Sum adjudged to be recovered by the said Judgment, except in Case of a Penalty, and in case of a Penalty in double the Sum really due, and double the Costs, and in the Case of a Plaintiff in double the Costs adjudged to be paid to the Defendant, and also, except in case of Error brought by a Defendant in Ejectment, and in such Case in double the yearly Value of the Property adjudged to be recovered and double the Costs, to prosecute the Proceedings in Error with Effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the said Judgment be affirmed, or the Proceedings in Error be discontinued by the Plaintiff therein,) all and singular the Sum or Sums of Money and Costs adjudged or to be adjudged upon the former Judgment, and all Costs and Damages and Interest to be awarded on such Writ of Error, or on any further Writ returnable into Parliament, for the delaying of Execution, and also the Mesne Rates of such Lands, if any be adjudged in any Action to be brought for the same, and give Notice thereof to the Defendant in Error or his Attorney.

Suggestion of Joinder in Error.

CLXXIII. The Assignment of and Joinder in Error in Law shall not be necessary or used, and instead thereof a Suggestion to the Effect that Error is alleged by the one Party and denied by the other may be entered on the Judgment Roll in the Form No. 13. contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; provided that in case the Defendant in Error intends to rely upon the Proceeding in Error being barred by Lapse of Time, or by Release of Error, or other like Matter of Fact, he may give Four Days written Notice to the Plaintiff in Error to assign Error as heretofore, instead of entering the Suggestion, and shall plead thereto within Eight Days the Bar by Lapse of Time, or Release of Error, or other like Matter of Fact, upon which such Proceedings may be had as heretofore.

Entry of Suggestion to be made by Plaintiff in Error.

CLXXIV. The Suggestion last aforesaid shall be entered by the Plaintiff in Error within Ten Days after the Service of the Note of the Receipt of the Memorandum alleging Error, or such other Time as the Court or a Judge may order; and in default thereof, or of Assignment of Error in Cases where an Assignment is required, the Defendant in Error, his Executors or Administrators, shall be at liberty to sign Judgment of Non-pros.

Error by One of several Persons.

CLXXV. In case Error be brought upon a Judgment given against several Persons, and One or some only shall proceed in Error, the Note of the Receipt of such Memorandum shall state the Names of the Persons by whom the Proceedings are taken; and in case the other Persons against whom Judgment has been given decline to join in the Proceedings in Error, the same may be continued, and the Suggestion last aforesaid entered, stating the Persons by whom the Proceedings are brought, without any Summons and Severance; or if such other Persons elect to join, then the Suggestion shall state them to be and they shall be deemed as Plaintiffs in Error, although not mentioned as such in the previous Proceedings.

Judgment Roll to be brought into Court of Error.

CLXXVI. Upon such Suggestion of Error alleged and denied being entered, the Cause may be set down for Argument in the Court of Error in the Manner heretofore used; and the Judgment Roll shall, without any Writ or Return, be brought by the Master into the Court of Error in the Exchequer Chamber, before the Judges of the said Court, on the Day of its Sitting, at such Time as the Judges shall appoint, either in Term or in Vacation; and the Court of Error shall and may thereupon review the Proceedings, and give Judgment as they shall be advised thereon; and such Proceedings and Judgment as altered or affirmed shall be entered on the original Record; and such further Proceedings as may be necessary thereon shall be awarded by the Court in which the original Judgment was given: Provided, however, that in case of Error to the High Court of Parliament, a Transcript of the Record shall be prepared and forwarded in the Manner heretofore used.

Jurisdiction of Courts of Error.

CLXXVII. Courts of Error shall have Power to quash the Proceedings in Error in all Cases in which Error does not lie, or where they are taken against good Faith, or in any Case in which Proceedings in Error might heretofore have been quashed by such Courts; and such Courts shall in all respects have such Jurisdiction over the Proceedings as over the Proceedings in Error commenced by Writ of Error, and shall be enabled to give the like Order for Payment of Interest for Delay of Execution in giving any Judgment of Affirmance.

Court of Error to have like Powers with Court below.

CLXXVIII. Courts of Error shall in all Cases have Power to give such Judgment and award such Process of Repleader and Writ of Inquiry as the Court from which Error is brought ought to have done, without regard to the Party alleging Error.

Proceedings in Error in Fact.

CLXXIX. Either Party alleging Error in Fact may deliver to the Master of the Court a Memorandum in Writing in the Form No. 14. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, entitled in the Court and Cause, and signed by the Party or his Attorney, alleging that there is Error in Fact in the Proceedings, together with an Affidavit of the Matter of Fact in which the alleged Error consists, whereupon the Master shall file such Memorandum and Affidavit, and deliver to the Party lodging the same a Note of the Receipt thereof; and a Copy of such Note and Affidavit may be served on the opposite Party or his Attorney; and such Service shall have the same Effect, and the same Proceedings ceedings may be had thereafter, as heretofore had after the Service of the Rule for Allowance of a Writ of Error in Fact.

Plaintiff may discontinue Proceedings in Error.

CLXXX. The Plaintiff in Error, whether in Fact or Law, shall be at liberty to discontinue his Proceedings by giving to the Defendant in Error a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Plaintiff in Error or his Attorney, stating that he discontinues such Proceedings, and thereupon the Defendant in Error may sign Judgment for the Costs of and occasioned by the Proceedings in Error, and may proceed upon the Judgment on which the Error was brought.

Defendant may confess Error, and consent to Reversal of Judgment.

CLXXXI. The Defendant in Error, whether in Fact or Law, shall be at liberty to confess Error, and consent to the Reversal of the Judgment, by giving to the Plaintiff in Error a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Defendant in Error or his Attorney, stating that he confesses the Error, and consents to the Reversal of the Judgment, and thereupon the Plaintiff in Error shall, on an Affidavit of the Service of such Notice, be entitled to and may forthwith sign a Judgment of Reversal.

Death of Plaintiff in Error no Abatement.

CLXXXII. The Death of a Plaintiff in Error after Service of the Note of the Receipt of the Memorandum alleging Error, with a Statement of the Grounds of Error, shall not cause the Proceedings to abate, but they may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Death of One of several Plaintiffs in Error.

CLXXXIII. In case of the Death of One of several Plaintiffs in Error, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Proceedings may be thereupon continued at the Suit of and against the surviving Plaintiff in Error, as if he were the sole Plaintiff.

Death of sole Plaintiff or of all the Plaintiffs in Error.

CLXXXIV. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or of all the Plaintiffs in Error, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff or of the surviving Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside on Application to the Court or a Judge on Motion, if untrue, and the Proceedings may thereupon be continued at the Suit of and against such legal Representative of the Plaintiff in Error; and if no such Suggestion shall be made, the Defendant in Error may proceed to an Affirmance of the Judgment according to the Practice of the Court, or take such other Proceedings thereupon as he may be entitled to.

Death of Defendant in Error no Abatement.

CLXXXV. The Death of a Defendant in Error shall not cause the Proceedings to abate, but they may be continued as herein-after mentioned.

Death of One of several Defendants in Error.

CLXXXVI. In case of the Death of One of several Defendants in Error, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Proceedings may be continued against the surviving Defendant.

Proceedings upon Death of sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Error.

CLXXXVII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Error, the Plaintiff in Error may proceed, upon giving Ten Days Notice of the Proceedings in Error, and of his Intention to continue the same, to the Representatives of the deceased Defendants, or if no such Notice can be given, then, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, upon giving such Notice to the Parties interested as he or they may direct.

Marriage not to abate Proceedings in Error.

CLXXXVIII. The Marriage of a Female Plaintiff or Defendant in Error shall not abate the Proceedings in Error, but the same may be continued in like Manner as herein-before provided with reference to the Continuance of an Action after Marriage.

Injunctions to have a specific Operation.

CLXXXIX. In case any Action, Suit, or Proceeding in any of the said Superior Courts of Law or in a Court of Equity shall be commenced, sued, or prosecuted in disobedience of any Writ of Injunction, Rule or Order of the Court of Chancery or of any of the Superior Courts of Law, upon Production of such Writ of Injunction, Rule or Order, to the Court in which such Action, Suit, or Proceeding shall be commenced, prosecuted, or taken, or any Judge thereof, the said Court or a Judge shall stay all further Proceedings contrary to such Injunction, Rule or Order, and thenceforth all further and subsequent Proceedings shall be utterly null and void: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to vary or abridge the Liability of any Person commencing, suing, or prosecuting such Action, Suit, or Proceeding, contrary to such Injunction, Rule, or Order aforesaid, to any Attachment, Punishment, or other Proceeding to which such Person shall or may be liable in case of Contempt of the Court of Chancery or Superior Court of Law aforesaid, in regard to the commencing, suing, or prosecuting such Action, Suit, or Proceeding.

General Matters.

With respect to general Matters connected with the Action:

Pleadings dated of Time of pleading.

CXC. Every Defence and Demurrer and other Pleading shall be entitled of the proper Court, and of the Day of the Month and the Year when the same was pleaded, and shall be entered on the Abstract for Nisi Prius, and on the Judgment Book or Roll under the Date of the Day of the Month and the Year when the same respectively took place.

Writs to be tested and returnable in Vacation as well as in Term.

CXCI. Every Writ of any Description whatsoever to be hereafter issued out of the said Superior Courts of Common Law or the Court of Exchequer Chamber may be issued and tested or made returnable on any Day, not being One of the Days hereby appointed as Holidays, whether such Day shall be in Term Time or Vacation, and every such Writ so issued, tested, or returnable shall be of the like Validity, Force, and Effect as if the Day of the issuing, testing, or Return of such Writ were actually a Day in Term: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Process and Practice of the Revenue Side of the Court of Exchequer.

Rules shall issue and run in Vacation as well as in Term Time.

CXCII. Every Rule or Order in the said Superior Courts and the Court of Exchequer Chamber may be made, entered, or issued on or as of any Day except the Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, whether such Day shall be in Term Time or Vacation; and the Days limited for Compliance with such Rules or Orders shall, with the Exception of the Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, and of the Days between the First Day of August and Twentieth Day of October, run in Vacation as well as in Term Time.

Court on Motion may order a fixed Sum to be paid in lieu of taxed Costs.

CXCIII. In all Cases upon interlocutory Applications where the Court or a Judge shall deem it proper to award Costs to either Party, it shall be optional with the Court or Judge either to refer the Costs to the Taxing Officer to be taxed, or by the Order direct the Payment of a Sum in gross in lieu of taxed Costs, and also to direct by and to whom such Sum in gross shall be paid.

Action of Ejectment.

With respect to the Action of Ejectment:

Ejectment to be commenced by Writ of Summons and Plaint.

CXCIV. Where any Party shall claim Possession of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and shall be desirous of proceeding by Ejectment for the Recovery of the same in any of the said Superior Courts of Law, such Party shall commence any Action for such Purpose by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, which Writ shall be directed to the immediate Tenant or any One Tenant in possession, as Defendant, with the addition of the Words "and all Persons concerned," and shall, in addition to any Particulars herein-before required, contain the Description of the Property sought to be recovered with reasonable Certainty, and the County, Barony, or Parish in which the same is situated: Provided, however, that no Want of "reasonable Certainty" in the Description of the Property, or Part of it, in the Summons and Plaint or Copy, shall nullify them, but shall be Ground for an Application to the Court or a Judge for better Particulars of the Land claimed, which the Court or a Judge shall have Power to give in all Cases, upon the Application of any Person named as a Defendant or interested in the Lands claimed or supposed to be claimed.

Form and Duration of Writ of Summons in Ejectment.

CXCV. The Writ of Summons and Plaint in Ejectment shall state the Names of all the Persons in whom the Title is alleged to be, and command the Persons to whom it is directed to appear, within Twelve Days after the Service thereof, in the Court into which such Writ is returnable, to defend the Possession of the Property sued for, or such Part thereof as they may think fit; and the Writ shall be dated and endorsed, and continue in force, and be renewed, and shall be filed after Service thereof, in like Manner as herein-before enacted with reference to the Writ of Summons and Plaint in a Personal Action; and in Cases of Ejectment on the Title it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff by such Writ to claim Damages for the Loss of the Mesne Rates and Profits of the Lands sought to be recovered; and in case of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent such Writ shall be endorsed with the full Particulars of the Rent due, and of all Credits to which the Defendant shall be justly entitled, and may be in the Form No. 15. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and the same Proceedings may be had to ascertain whether the Writ was issued by the Authority of the Attorney whose Name was contained in, or endorsed thereon, and who and what the Plaintiffs are, and their Abode, and as to staying the Proceedings upon Writs issued without Authority, as in the Case of Writs in Personal Actions.

Trial may be ordered to take place in any County.

CXCVI. The Venue shall be laid in the County in which the Lands are situate, but the Court or a Judge may, on the Application of either Party, order that the Trial shall take place in any County or Place other than that in which the Venue is laid; and such Order being suggested on the Abstract, the Trial may be had accordingly.

Service of Ejectment.

CXCVII. The Writ shall be served in the same Manner as an Ejectment has heretofore been served, or in such Manner as the Court or a Judge shall order; and in case of vacant Possession, by posting a Copy thereof upon the Door of the Dwelling House or other conspicuous Part of the Premises.

Form of Defence in Ejectment.

CXCVIII. Every Defence to a Summons in Ejectment on the Title shall be in the Form No. 16. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and every Defence to an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall set forth the substantial Ground of the Defence, as, for Example, whether the Title of the Plaintiff as Landlord is disputed, or the Fact of the Rent being due if in Dispute; and such Defence shall be endorsed with the Particulars of any Payments made, and may be according to the Form No. 17. in the said Schedule B.

Partial Defence.

CXCIX. Any Person taking Defence as aforesaid to an Ejectment on the Title shall be at liberty to limit his Defence to a Part only of the Property mentioned in the Writ, describing that Part with reasonable Certainty, otherwise the Defence shall be deemed to apply to the whole; but a Defence to an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall be a Defence for all the Lands and Premises in the Summons mentioned; and in case a Defendant shall desire to take Defence for Part only of the Premises, upon the Ground that such Part was not included in the Lease or other Instrument sought to be evicted, he shall make a special Application to the Court for that Purpose.

Defence of Persons not named or in possession.

CC. Any other Person not named in or served with such Writ shall, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, be allowed to defend, on filing an Affidavit showing that he is in possession of the Land, either by himself or his Tenant; and the Court or a Judge shall have Power to strike out or confine any Defence set up by a Person not in possession by himself or his Tenants.

Judgment by Default for Want of Defence.

CCI. In case no Defence be filed within the Time appointed, or if the Defence filed be limited to Part only, the Plaintiff shall, on filing an Affidavit of the Service of the Summons and Plaint, be at liberty to sign a Judgment that the Plaintiffs shall recover Possession of the Land, or of the Part thereof to which the Defence does not apply; and such Judgment, if for all, may be in the Form No. 18. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, without any Award of Costs, but without

Prejudice

Prejudice to the Plaintiff's Right to have the Costs taxed by the proper Officer, and to proceed by Action for Recovery of Mesne Rates and Costs, or either of them; and the said Judgment for Part may be in the Form No. 19. contained in the said Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and a Memorandum of such Judgment shall be recited in the Abstract for Nisi Prius or Judgment thereafter to be made up.

Abstract of Issues.

CCII. In case a Defence shall be filed, an Abstract of the Issue for Nisi Prius may at once be made up by the Plaintiffs or their Attorney, setting forth the Writ, and stating the Fact of the Defence, with its Date, of each of the Persons taking Defence, so that it may appear for what Defence is made; and such Abstract may be in the Form No. 20. contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and such Abstract shall be lodged with the Pleadings Assistant in the Manner herein-after provided; and the Question at the Trial, except in the Case herein-after mentioned, shall be whether the Statement of the Title of the Plaintiffs in the Summons and Plaint is true or false, and if true, then which of the Plaintiffs is entitled, and whether to the whole or Part, and if to Part, then to which Part of the Property in question, and whether to any, and, if any, to what Damages by way of Compensation for Loss of Mesne Rates and Profits; and upon the Trial of any Issue in an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent the Amount of the Rent due to the Plaintiff shall be found by the Jury.

Proof of Title.

CCIII. The Proof of Title in any One or more of several Plaintiffs in Ejectment shall be sufficient to entitle a Verdict to be entered for such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and it shall not be necessary to produce or prove upon any Trial of an Ejectment the Affidavit of Service of the Writ of Summons.

Verdict when Title appears to have expired before Trial.

CCIV. In case the Title of the Plantiff shall appear to have existed as alleged in the Writ at the Time of Service thereof, but it shall also appear to have expired before the Time of Trial, the Plaintiff shall, notwithstanding, be entitled to a Verdict, according to the Fact that he was so entitled at the Time of bringing the Action and serving the Writ, and to a Judgment for his Costs of Suit.

Nonappearance at Trial.

CCV. If the Defendant appears, and the Plaintiff does not appear at the Trial, the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited; and if the Plaintiff appears, and the Defendant does not appear, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to a Verdict, without any Proof of his Title, and in case of Ejectment on the Title shall be entitled to prove the Amount of Damages sustained by reason of the Loss of the Mesne Rates and Profits, and in case of an Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent shall be entitled to prove the Amount of Rent actually due, and to have a Verdict for the same.

Ascertainment of Rent.

CCVI. In Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, where Judgment shall have gone by Default, or the Defendant shall not appear at the Trial, it shall be sufficient for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of the Rent due, and to satisfy the Provisions of the Statutes with respect to the ascertaining the Rent, that an Affidavit of the Plaintiffs, or One of them, or their or his Agent, to the Effect that an Amount of Rent not less than One Year's Rent, and specifying the same, was due at the Time of the Commencement of the Action, after all just Allowances shall have been made.

Judgment and Execution upon finding for Plaintiff.

CCVII. Upon a Verdict for the Plaintiff, Judgment may be signed, and Execution issued for the Recovery of Possession of the Property, or such Part thereof as the Jury shall find the Plaintiff entitled to, and in case of an Ejectment on the Title for such Damages for Loss of Mesne Rates and Profits as shall be found by the said Jury, and in case of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent for Recovery of so much Rent as shall be found to be due, and Costs, within such Time, not exceeding the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict, as the Court or Judge before whom the Cause is tried shall order, and if no such Order be made, then on the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict, or within Fourteen Days after such Verdict, whichever shall first happen.

Judgment and Execution upon finding for Defendant.

CCVIII. Upon a Verdict for the Defendants, or any of them, or upon a Nonsuit, Judgment may be signed, and Execution issue for Costs against the Plaintiffs named in the Writ, within such Time, not exceeding the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict or Nonsuit, as the Court or Judge before whom the Cause is tried shall order, and if no such Order be made, then on the Fifth Day in Term after the Verdict or Nonsuit, or within Fourteen Days after such Verdict, whichever shall first happen.

Execution in Ejectment.

CCIX. Upon any Judgment in Ejectment there may be either One or several Writs of Execution for the Recovery of the Possession, and for the Damages or the Rent ascertained to be due, and Costs, at the Election of the Plaintiff.

Defence by joint Owners.

CCX. In case of such an Action being brought by some or One of several Persons entitled as Joint Tenants, Tenants in Common, or Coparceners, any Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener in possession may set forth in his Defence that he is such Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener, and defends as such, and admits the Right of the Plaintiff to an undivided Share of the Property, stating what Share, but denies any actual Ouster of him from the Property, and upon the Trial of such an Issue the additional Question of whether an actual Ouster has taken place shall be tried.

Judgment against joint Owners.

CCXI. Upon the Trial of such Issue as last aforesaid, if it shall be found that the Defendant is Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener with the Plaintiff, then the Question whether an actual Ouster has taken place shall be tried, and unless such actual Ouster shall be proved the Defendant shall be entitled to Judgment and Costs; but if it shall be found, either that the Defendant is not such Joint Tenant, Tenant in Common, or Coparcener, or that an actual Ouster has taken place, then the Claimant shall be entitled to such Judgment for the Recovery of Possession and Costs.

Action not to abate by Death.

CCXII. The Death of a Plaintiff or Defendant in Ejectment shall not cause the Action to abate.

Suggestion of Death of Plaintiff.

CCXIII. In case the Right of a deceased Plaintiff shall survive to another Plaintiff, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff; and if such a Suggestion shall be made before the Trial, then the Plaintiff shall have a Verdict, and recover such Judgment as aforesaid, upon its appearing that he was entitled to bring the Action either separately or jointly with the deceased Plaintiff.

Death before Trial of Plaintiff where Right does not survive.

CCXIV. In case of the Death before Trial of One of several Plaintiffs whose Right does not survive to another or others of them, where the legal Representative of the deceased Plaintiff shall not become a Party to the Suit in the Manner herein-after mentioned, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but shall only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed at the Suit of the surviving Plaintiff for such Share of the Property as he is entitled to, and Costs.

Death of sole Plaintiff where Right does not survive.

CCXV. In case of the Death of a sole Plaintiff or before the Trial of One of several Plaintiffs whose Right does not survive to another or others of them, the legal Representative of such Plaintiff may, by Leave of the Court or a Judge, enter a Suggestion of the Death, and that he is such legal Representative, and the Action shall thereupon proceed; and if such Suggestion be made before the Trial the Truth of the Suggestion shall be tried thereat, together with the Title of the deceased Plaintiff, and such Judgment shall follow upon the Verdict in favour of or against the Person making such Suggestion as herein-before provided with reference to a Judgment for or against such Plaintiff; and in case such Suggestion in the Case of a sole Plaintiff be made after a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and before Execution, executed by Delivery of Possession thereupon, and such Suggestion be denied by the Defendant within Eight Days after Notice thereof, or such further Time as the Court or a Judge may allow, then such Suggestion shall be tried, and if upon the Trial thereof a Verdict shall pass for the Person making such Suggestion he shall be entitled to such Judgment as aforesaid for the Recovery of Possession, and for the Costs of and occasioned by such Suggestion, and in case of a Verdict for the Defendant such Defendant shall be entitled to such Judgment as aforesaid for Costs; and in case the said Suggestion shall not be denied within the Time aforesaid the said personal Representative shall, on producing an Affidavit of the Service of the Notice, be entitled to proceed to Judgment and Execution in his own Name.

Death of One of several Plaintiffs after Verdict.

CCXVI. In case of a Verdict for Two or more Plaintiffs, if One of such Plaintiffs die before Execution executed, the other may, whether the legal Right to the Property shall survive or not, suggest the Death in manner aforesaid, and proceed to Judgment and Execution for Recovery of Possession of the Entirety of the Property and the Costs; but nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of the legal Representative of the deceased Plaintiff, or the Liability of the surviving Plaintiff to such legal Representative; and the Entry and Possession of such surviving Plaintiff under such Execution shall be considered as an Entry and Possession on behalf of such legal Representative in respect of the Share of the Property to which he shall be entitled as such Representative, and the Court may direct Possession to be delivered accordingly.

Death of One of several joint Defendants.

CCXVII. In case of the Death before or after Judgment of One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defend jointly, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue, and the Action may proceed against the surviving Defendant to Judgment and Execution.

Upon Death of all the Defendants before Trial.

CCXVIII. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Ejectment before Trial, a Suggestion may be made of the Death, which Suggestion shall not be traversable, but only be subject to be set aside if untrue; and the Plaintiffs shall be entitled to Judgment for Recovery of Possession of the Property, unless some other Person shall take Defence within a Time to be appointed for that Purpose by the Order of the Court or a Judge, to be made upon the Application of the Plaintiffs; and it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, upon such Suggestion being made, and upon such Application as aforesaid, to order that the Plaintiffs shall be at liberty to sign Judgment within such Time as the Court or a Judge may think fit, unless the Person then in possession, by himself or his Tenant, or the legal Representative of the deceased Defendant, shall within such Time defend the Action; and such Order may be served in the same Manner as the Writ; and in case such Person shall take Defence, the same Proceedings may be taken against such new Defendant as if he had originally appeared and defended the Action; and if no Defence be made, then the Plaintiff shall be at liberty to sign Judgment pursuant to the Order.

Death before Trial of Defendant in Ejectment who defends for Part.

CCXIX. In case of the Death before Trial of One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defends separately for a Portion of the Property for which the other Defendant or Defendants do not defend, the same Proceedings may be taken as to such Portion as in the Case of the Death of a sole Defendant, or the Plaintiffs may proceed against the surviving Defendants in respect of the Portion of the Property for which they defend.

Death of Defendant defending separately for Property, in respect of which others also defend.

CCXX. In case of the Death before Trial of One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defends separately in respect of Property for which surviving Defendants also defend, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, at any Time before the Trial, to allow the Person at the Time of the Death in possession of the Property, or the legal Representative of the deceased Defendant, to defend, on such Terms as may appear reasonable and just, upon the Application of such Person or Representative; and if no such Application be made or Leave granted, the Plaintiff suggesting the Death in manner aforesaid may proceed against the surviving Defendant or Defendants to Judgment and Execution.

Death of all Defendants after Verdict.

CCXXI. In case of the Death of a sole Defendant or of all the Defendants in Ejectment, after Verdict, the Plaintiffs shall nevertheless be entitled to Judgment as if no such Death had taken place, and to proceed by Execution for Recovery of Possession, without Suggestion or Revivor, and to proceed for the Recovery

Recovery of the Costs in like Manner as upon any other Judgment for Money against the legal Representatives of the deceased Defendant or Defendants.

Plaintiff may discontinue by Notice.

CCXXII. The Plaintiff in Ejectment shall be at liberty at any Time before Verdict or Judgment against him to discontinue the Action as to One or more of the Defendants, by giving to the Defendant or his Attorney a Notice, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Plaintiff or his Attorney, stating that he discontinues such Action; and thereupon the Defendant to whom such Notice is given shall, by filing an Affidavit of the Service of such Notice, be entitled to and may forthwith sign Judgment for Costs in the Form No. 21. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and any One of several Plaintiffs desirous to discontinue may apply to the Court or a Judge to have his Name struck out of the Proceedings, and an Order may be made thereupon upon such Terms as to the Court or Judge may seem fit, and the Action shall thereupon proceed at the Suit of the other Plaintiffs.

Defendant may confess the Action.

CCXXIII. A sole Defendant or all the Defendants in Ejectment shall be at liberty to confess the Action as to the whole or Part of the Property, by giving to such Plaintiff a Consent for Judgment, headed in the Court and Cause, signed by the Defendant or Defendants, such Signature to be attested by his or their Attorney; and thereupon the Plaintiff may forthwith sign Judgment and issue Execution for the Recovery of Possession and Costs in the Form No. 22. contained in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and in case One of several Defendants in Ejectment, who defends separately for a Portion of the Property for which the other Defendant or Defendants do not defend, shall be desirous of confessing the Plaintiff's Title to such Portion, he may give a like Consent for Judgment to the Plaintiff; and thereupon the Plaintiff may forthwith sign Judgment and issue Execution for the Recovery of Possession of such Portion of the Property, and for the Costs occasioned by the Defence relating to the same, and the Action may proceed as to the Residue.

Confession by One Defendant.

CCXXIV. In case One of several Defendants in Ejectment who defends separately in respect of Property for which other Defendants also defend shall be desirous of confessing the Plaintiff's Title, he may give a like Consent for Judgment; and thereupon the Plaintiff may sign Judgment against such Defendant for the Costs occasioned by his Defence, and may proceed in the Action against the other Defendants to Judgment and Execution.

Effect of Judgment in Ejectment.

CCXXV. The Effect of a Judgment in Ejectment under this Act shall be the same as that of a Judgment in an Action of Ejectment heretofore used.

Inquiry as to Mesne Rates after Writ of Error.

CCXXVI. If the Judgment in Ejectment shall be affirmed by the Court of Error, or the Proceedings in Error be discontinued by the Plaintiff therein, it shall be lawful for the Court wherein Execution ought to be granted, upon such Affirmation or Discontinuance, upon the Application of the Plaintiff, to issue a Writ to inquire as well of the Mesne Profits as of the Damage by any Waste committed after the First Judgment in Ejectment, which Writ may be dated on the Day on which it shall issue, and be returnable immediately after the Execution thereof, and upon the Return thereof Judgment shall be given, and Execution awarded for such Mesne Profits and Damages, and also for Costs of Suit.

General Provisions to apply to Ejectments.

CCXXVII. All other Provisions herein contained shall extend to Ejectments, mutatis mutandis, unless where the same shall not be applicable, or where the Subject Matter thereof shall have been herein otherwise provided for.

Action for Replevin of Goods.

With respect to the Proceedings for Recovery of Goods and Chattels by way of Replevin:

Action for Replevin to be commenced by Writ of Summons and Plaint.

CCXXVIII. Where any Party whose Goods or Chattels have been taken or distrained shall dispute the Validity of such Taking or Distress, and shall be desirous of proceeding for the Recovery of such Goods and Chattels in any of the said Superior Courts, such Party may commence a Personal Action for the Recovery of the Goods or Chattels so taken or distrained by a Writ of Summons and Plaint, which Writ of Summons shall, in addition to any Particulars herein-before required in an ordinary Writ of Summons, state the Particulars of the Property taken or distrained, and the Place where such Taking, Seizure, or Distress shall have been made, and shall be served by delivering a Copy or Copies thereof to the Defendant or Defendants, or to any Agent or other Person acting for him or them in making such Seizure or Distress, or in keeping the Goods and Chattels so taken or distrained, in the Manner herein-before provided in respect of an ordinary Writ of Summons.

Plaintiff may sue out also a Writ of Replevin.

CCXXIX. When any such Personal Action shall have been so commenced it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff therein to sue out of the Court in which such Action shall be instituted a Writ, to be called a Writ of Replevin, in the Form No. 23. in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed, directed to the Sheriff of the County in which such Goods and Chattels shall be under Seizure or Distress, requiring him to replevy the said Goods and Chattels, and the said Sheriff shall and he is hereby required, upon good Security (by the Bond of the Plaintiff, and Two responsible Persons as Sureties, conditioned as usual in such Cases,) being given to him, in double the Amount of the Value of the Property taken or distrained, to execute such Writ, and to return the said Writ, with a correct and proper Statement endorsed thereon of the Manner in which the same shall have been executed, or the Cause why the same has not been executed, to the Court out of which the same shall have issued, within Eight Days, exclusive of any Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, next after such Writ shall have been delivered to him: Provided always, that the Value of the Property so taken or distrained shall be ascertained by the said Sheriff in like Manner as the Value of Goods distrained is now ascertained by Law by the Sheriff in taking Security in Replevins, and that the said Bonds shall be assignable by the Sheriff under like Circumstances and in like Manner, and shall be available to the Assignee thereof, as by Law now or hereafter authorized in respect of Replevin Bonds.

CCXXX. If

If Plaintiff in Replevin be non-prossed or nonsuited, Defendant entitled to Judgment and Execution for his Rent.

CCXXX. If the Plaintiff in any such Action for Replevin of a Distress made for Rent shall be non-prossed for not filing his Summons and Plaint as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Defendant to file a Suggestion in the Nature of a Plaint for Rent, and praying the Court to inquire the Cause of the Distress; and thereupon, or in case Judgment be given for the Defendant on Demurrer, it shall be lawful for the Court to issue a Writ of Inquiry to the Sheriff of the County wherein the Distress was taken, or to the Master of the Court, to inquire touching the Amount of Rent in arrear at the Time of such Distress being taken, and the Value of the Goods or Chattels distrained, and such Inquiry shall be taken in the Manner herein-before provided upon Judgment by Default; and upon the Return of such Inquisition the Defendant shall have Judgment and Execution to recover against the Plaintiff the Arrears of Rent in case the Goods and Chattels shall amount to the Value, and in case they shall not amount to that Value then for so much as the Value of the said Goods and Chattels shall amount to, with his Costs of Suit in that Behalf incurred; and in case the said Plaintiff shall be nonsuit after Issue joined, or if the Verdict shall be given against the Plaintiff, then the Jurors empannelled to try such Issue shall, at the Prayer of the Defendant, inquire the Amount of the Rent due, and the Value of the Goods and Chattels distrained, and the Defendant shall have Judgment and Execution for such Arrears, or so much thereof as the Value of the Goods and Chattels distrained shall amount unto, together with his Costs of Suit in that Behalf incurred.

Amendment.

With respect to the Power of Amendment, so as to enable the said Courts and the Judges thereof to prevent the Failure of Justice by reason of Mistakes and Objections of Form:

Amendment.

CCXXXI. It shall be lawful for the Superior Courts of Common Law, and every Judge thereof, and any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, at all Times to amend all Defects and Errors in any Writ, Pleading, Record, or other Proceeding in Civil Causes, whether there is anything in Writing to amend by or not, and whether the Defect or Error be that of the Party applying to amend or not; and all such Amendments may be made in such Manner as shall be thereby directed, and with or without Costs, and upon such Terms as to the Court or Judge may seem fit; and all such Amendments as may be necessary for the Purpose of determining in the existing Suit the real Question in controversy between the Parties shall be so made; and when such Amendment shall be made at Nisi Prius or upon any Inquiry, the Order shall be endorsed on the Abstract or Writ, and all Pleadings or other Records of the Court which it may be necessary to amend in conformity therewith shall be amended accordingly.

Regulation of Business.

With respect to the general Regulation of Business in the said Superior Courts of Law:

Holidays.

CCXXXII. The following, and none other, shall be observed and kept as Holidays in the said Superior Courts and the Offices thereof, and the Court of Exchequer Chamber, and in the Office of Registrar of Judgments; that is to say, every Sunday, Christmas Day, and the Seven Days following that Day, Good Friday, Easter Eve, Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, Whit Monday and Whit Tuesday, any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, and when they do not occur in Term Time the Day appointed to be kept as the Birthday and the Day of the Accession of Her Majesty the Queen or of any of Her Successors; and the said Holidays shall not be reckoned or included in any Notices or other Proceedings, except Notices of Trial and Notices of Inquiry in any of the said Courts; and Sunday shall not be reckoned or included in any Notice or Proceeding whatsoever; and where the last Day included in any such Notice of Trial or Notice of Inquiry shall happen to fall on any of the Days hereby appointed to be observed and kept as Holidays, in such Case the following Day, or, when there shall be consecutive Holidays, the Day following the last of such Holidays, shall be considered as the last of such Days; and the Days from and including the First Day of August to the Twentieth Day of October inclusive, in each Year, shall not be reckoned Days within which any Summons and Plaint, Defence, or other Pleading should be filed, nor shall any such Pleading be filed or received upon such Days except a Plea of Confession or Consent for Judgment.

General Rules may be made by the Judges.

CCXXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or any Seven or more of them, whereof Two shall be Chief Judges, from Time to Time to make all such General Rules and Orders for the effectual Execution of this Act, and for establishing a simple Code of Practice, Pleading, and Evidence in the said Courts, and in the Court of Error, in accordance with the Intention and Object of this Act, and for apportioning the Costs of Issues, and for fixing the Costs to be allowed for and in respect of the Matters herein contained, or prescribed by such General Orders, and the Performance thereof, and for the Purpose of enforcing Uniformity of Practice and Pleading in the said Courts and the Offices thereof, and of ensuring, as far as may be practicable, an equal Division of the Business amongst the said Courts, as in their Judgment shall be necessary or proper, and for that Purpose to meet from Time to Time as Occasion may require; and all such Rules and Orders as they shall so make shall be valid and effectual, and shall be observed in each of the said Courts and the Offices thereof, until varied or altered by the like Authority, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and any Expenses which the Judges shall certify (as now required with reference to incidental Expenses) to have been properly incurred in giving Effect to the Provisions of this Act shall be charged and paid in like Manner and as Part of the incidental Expenses of the said Courts: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the Authority or limit the Jurisdiction of the said Courts, or the Judges thereof, to make Rules or Orders, or otherwise to regulate and dispose of the Business therein.

Consolidated Court of Nisi Prius for the Trial of Issues

CCXXXIV. The Nisi Prius Courts of the said Superior Courts of Common Law sitting at Dublin shall continue to be consolidated, and there shall be but One Common Court of Nisi Prius for the Trial at Dublin of Issues in Fact arising in any of the Courts, except as herein-after provided, which Court of Nisi Nisi Prius shall consist of One Judge or Baron of either of the said Superior Courts, to be chosen for that Purpose by the said Judges and Barons according to such Arrangement as they shall think proper, and in such Order of Rotation that each Court shall by One of its Judges or Barons take the Duty in Turn by Terms, and all Jurors, Witnesses, and other Persons shall be summoned or required to attend, and shall give their Attendance at or for the Trial of any Cause depending in any such Court, before such Judge as shall be sitting for the Trial thereof by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that all Causes intended to be tried at any Sittings at Nisi Prius at Dublin shall be entered for Trial with the Registrar of the Chief Judge of that Court of which One of the Judges is to sit, and all other Process and Proceedings for or relating to the Trials thereof shall be made and issued as herein-before required, but nevertheless the Trial of every Cause which shall be tried by virtue of this Act shall be entered and made of Record, as having been had and made before the Judge before whom such Cause shall happen to have been actually tried.

arising in any of the Superior Courts.

CCXXXV. Such Consolidated Nisi Prius Court shall sit continuously, or by Adjournment, as Occasion may require, on the Second Day of each Term, and thence continuously until the End thereof, or so much longer as may be necessary for the Completion of any Trial then in progress before the said Court; and Notice of Trial may be served for any Day within the said Period, subject, however, to such Regulations as to the Class of Cases to be tried in the said Court, or otherwise, as is herein-after expressed, or as the Judges, or any Seven of them, of whom Two shall be Chief Judges, may by any General Order make from Time to Time in that Behalf: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the Duty of the Chief Judge of each Court, as now discharged, of sitting after Term for the Trial of Issues at Nisi Prius, but that each of the said Chief Judges, or some other Judge of the Court in his Stead, shall, notwithstanding the Sittings at Nisi Prius herein provided, sit after Term as heretofore, for the Trial of any Issues at Nisi Prius arising in his Court which shall be entered as heretofore for such after Sittings; and provided also, that if any Issue or Issues entered for Trial in the said Consolidated Nisi Prius Court shall remain undisposed of at the Termination of the Sittings of the said Court for any Term, the same shall be transferred to and be deemed to have been entered for such after Sittings, and shall be taken up and disposed of respectively by the Chief Judge of the Court in which such Issues respectively shall have arisen as if the same had been originally entered for such after Sittings.

Such Court to sit continuously.

CCXXXVI. The Duty of attending such Consolidated Nisi Prius Court as Clerk of Nisi Prius shall be discharged by the Town Registrar of the Chief Justice or Chief Baron of the Court to which the Judge sitting at Nisi Prius shall belong; and if it shall happen that such Sitting at Nisi Prius shall not have terminated at any Time when the Chief Justice or Chief Baron shall require the Attendance of his said Registrar for the Purpose of such Nisi Prius Sittings in his own Court as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Nisi Prius Judge to require the Attendance of any of the Assistants or Clerks belonging to his Court who can at such Time be spared from his Office Duties, to act as his temporary Clerk of Nisi Prius; and the Lords Chief Justices and Chief Baron, or any Two of them, shall, in case of a Vacancy in the Office of Crier, appoint a fit and proper Person to act as Crier of the said Nisi Prius Court, who shall be paid such Salary as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct, the same to be charged and included in the quarterly Accounts of incidental Expenses of the said Courts respectively, in like Manner and Proportions as the Salary of the Court Keeper of the Nisi Prius Court and other incidental Expenses common to the Three Courts are now charged.

Officers of Consolidated Nisi Prius Court.

CCXXXVII. The following shall, until otherwise provided by any General Order made as aforesaid, be the Class of Cases to be tried in the Consolidated Nisi Prius Court:

Actions for Rent; Actions on Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes; Actions of Debt upon and to revive Judgments; Actions for Use and Occupation; Goods sold and delivered; Goods bargained and sold; Work and Labour; Money lent, Money paid, Money had and received, and on Account stated; Ejectments for Nonpayment of Rent, and against overholding Tenants, whether on Notice to quit or otherwise.

Cases to be tried in Consolidated Nisi Prius Court.

CCXXXVIII. Every Judge of the said Superior Courts of Common Law shall have full Power and Jurisdiction to sit in Dublin, as well in Term as in Vacation, for the Trial of Issues in Fact arising in any of the said Courts, and to transact in Chambers or elsewhere such Business depending in any of the said Courts as relates to Matters over which the said Courts have a common Jurisdiction, and as may, according to the Course and Practice of the Courts, be transacted by a single Judge.

Judges of either Court may do Business depending in any of the Courts.

CCXXXIX. The said Superior Courts shall and may, at their Discretion, hold Sittings in Banco in Time of Vacation for the Purpose of disposing of Business therein pending and undecided in such Courts respectively, and such Sittings in Vacation may be holden by virtue of a Rule or Order of the said Courts respectively, to be made in or out of Term, whereof a Week's Notice (in such Form as the said Courts respectively shall direct) shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, and affixed in some conspicuous Place at the Entrance of such Court respectively making such Order; and that all Judgments to be pronounced at such Sittings in Banco, and all Rules and Orders in respect thereof to be made by virtue of this Act, shall have the same Effect to all Intents and Purposes as if they had been pronounced or made in Term Time.

Courts may hold Sittings in Vacation.

Alteration of Forms.

CCXL. Such new or altered Writs and Forms of Proceedings may be issued, entered, and taken as may by the Judges of the said Courts, or any Seven or more of them, of whom Two shall be Chief Judges,

New Forms of Writs and other Proceedings.

Judges, be deemed necessary or expedient for giving Effect to the Provisions herein-before contained, and in such Forms and such Variation from the Forms in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed as the Judges of such Courts respectively shall from Time to Time think fit to order; and such Writs and Proceedings shall be acted upon and enforced in such and the same Manner as Writs and Proceedings of the said Courts are now acted upon and enforced, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit; and any existing Writ or Proceeding the Form of which shall be in any Manner altered in pursuance of this Act shall nevertheless be of the same Force and Virtue as if no Alteration had been made therein, except so far as the Effect thereof may be varied by this Act.

Schedules.

Schedules to form Part of Act.

CCXLI. The Schedules to this Act annexed shall be deemed to be a Part of this Act, and the Forms therein given may be used with such Modification and Departures as the particular Facts of the Case may render necessary, but no verbal or technical Error or Omission in the following of the same shall be fatal; and all Departures, Errors, or Omissions, which have not a manifest Tendency to mislead or prejudice the opposite Party in the Merits of his Case, shall be deemed to be technical and immaterial.

Schedule of Law Fund Duties.

CCXLII. The several Duties set forth in the Schedule D. to this Act annexed shall be the respective Law Fund Duties on the Proceedings in Actions in the said Superior Courts of Law in Ireland, and shall be in lieu and stead of the existing Duties in respect of the same Subject Matter; and the like Penalties, Forfeiture, and Remedies for the Enforcement and Recovery of the same, shall attach upon the said Duties as previously existed in respect of the Law Fund Duties heretofore in force.

Schedule of Fees and Costs.

CCXLIII. The several Fees mentioned and set forth in the Schedule E. to this Act annexed shall be the Fees chargeable against any Party, Plaintiff or Defendant, in respect of the specified Items of Proceedings to which the same shall be applicable until the same shall be altered or amended by any General Rule of the Judges under the Powers herein-before given; and the said Judges are hereby required, by a General Order, to settle a Schedule of Fees to be allowed in Taxation of Costs of Proceedings under this Act, having regard to the said Schedule E. to this Act annexed: Provided always, that in case the Plaintiff in any Action of Contract (except for Breach of Promise of Marriage) shall recover, exclusive of Costs, less than Twenty Pounds, or in any Action for any Wrong or Injury disconnected with Contract (except Replevin, or for Slander, Libel, malicious Prosecution, Seduction, or criminal Conversation,) a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, the Plaintiff in any such Action shall be entitled to no more than One Half of the ordinary Costs, unless the Action has been brought for the Purpose of trying a Right to Property more extensive than the Sum sued for.

FORMS OF PROCEEDINGS.

No. 1.—Summons and Plaint in Personal Actions.

Court of Queen's Bench,

Victoria, &c. &c. to the said Richard Roe, greeting.

John James of Westmoreland Street, in the City of Dublin, Grocer, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, of Mallow, in the County of Cork, Esquire, Executor of Henry Roe, Defendant.
County of the City of Dublin.

Richard Roe, the Defendant, is summoned to answer the Complaint of John James, who complains, That the Defendant is Executor of Henry Roe, deceased, of Mallow, in the said County of Cork, and that, as such Executor, he is indebted to the Plaintiff in the Sum of £140 on account of Goods sold and delivered by the Plaintiff to the said Henry Roe of the Value of £140, the Particulars of which are endorsed hereon [or annexed hereto].

And the Plaintiff prays Judgment against the said Defendant to recover the said Sum of £140 [and Interest thereon], and his Costs of Suit.

Therefore the Defendant is hereby required to appear in the said Court, within Twelve Days after the Service hereof, and answer the said Complaint, or in default thereof Judgment shall be given according to Law.

Witness the Lord Chief Justice and other Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin.

Dated Monday, the 20th Day of January 1854.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, Attorney for the Plaintiff,

No. 2.—Appearance and Defence.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Saturday, the 30th Day of January 1854.

John James, Plaintiff,
Richard Roe, Executor of Henry Roe, Defendant.

The said Richard Roe appears and takes Defence to the Action of the said John James, and says that the Goods sold and delivered to Henry Roe were of the Value of £80, and no more; and that the said Sum of £80 has been paid by the Defendant to the Plaintiff, and is sufficient to satisfy the Plaintiff's Demand, and therefore he defends the Action.

No. 3.—Demurrer to a Plaint or Defence.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Saturday, the 26th Day of February 1854.

John James, Plaintiff,
Richard Roe, Executor of Henry Roe, Defendant.

The said Richard Roe,, the Defendant, appears and says, that the Summons and Plaint does not disclose any Cause of Action good in Substance, because that no sufficient Consideration for the alleged Promise of the Defendant as Executor of the said Henry Roe is stated therein, to render the said Defendant liable to pay the Debt of the said Henry Roe.

EDWARD MOLONEY, Attorney for the Defendant,
No. 14, Capel Street, Dublin.

No. 4.—Judgment by Default for Want of Defence.

Court of Queen's Bench, on Monday, the 20th Day of June, A.D. 1854 (Day of signing Judgment).

County of the City of Dublin.

John James, by William Thompson, his Attorney, sued out a Writ of Summons and Plaint against Richard Roe, claiming the Sum of £140 for Debt on account of a Bill of Exchange drawn by Henry Jasper, dated the 15th Day of October 1853, and endorsed by the said Richard Roe.

And the said Richard Roe has not appeared to take Defence; but the Service of such Writ and the Contents of said Plaint have been duly verified.

Therefore it is considered that the said John James do recover against the said Richard Roe the Sum of £140, together with for Costs.

No. 5.—Abstract for Nisi Prius.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Monday, the 20th Day of March, A.D. 1854.

County of Sligo, to wit.

John James, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, Defendant.

Whereas John James, the Plaintiff, has sued Richard Roe, the Defendant, and demanded the Sum of £150 as the Price and Value of 130 Barrels of Wheat sold and delivered to the Defendant;

And the said Richard Roe has taken Defence, and admits the Delivery of the Wheat, but has alleged that he paid the Sum of £130 to the Plaintiff before the Commencement of this Action, and that such Payment was a full Satisfaction of the Value of said Wheat, and that said Wheat was not sound and merchantable at the Time of its Delivery to the Plaintiff:

Therefore let the Jury try—

1st. Whether the said Wheat was sound and merchantable at the Time of its Delivery.

2d. Whether the Value of said Wheat exceeded the Sum of £130.

ROBERT JONES, Attorney for Plaintiff.
HENRY GREEN, Attorney for Defendant.

No. 6.—Bill of Exceptions.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Monday, 20th Day of July, 1854.

John James, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, Defendant.

The Issues in Fact in the annexed Abstract of Nisi Prius having come be tried by a Jury on this Day, the Plaintiff produced and examined as a Witness one G. H. to prove the Fact of [&c. &c.]; and the said G. H. deposed that [&c. &c.], which Evidence the Defendant objected to as not being legal Evidence

Evidence of the Fact; and the Plaintiff insisting to the contrary the Judge at Nisi Prius admitted the Evidence to be received accordingly, and therefore the Defendant excepts, and prays that his Exception shall be placed upon the Record for the Examination of the Court above.

L.P., Judge.

No. 7.—Order of Attachment of Stock.

Court of Queen's Bench,
Monday, 20th Day of June 1854.

John James, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, Defendant.

By the Right Honourable Mr. Justice Moore.

It appearing to the Court that the Plaintiff hath recovered Judgment against the Defendant in the Sum of £300, and that such Judgment is still unsatisfied; and it also appearing that the Defendant is possessed of a Sum of £200 Government 3½ per Cent. Stock, standing in his own Name in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland;

The said Sum of £200, and all Dividends thereon, are hereby attached to answer the said Debt until further Order; and the said Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland are hereby ordered and required not to suffer the same, or any Part thereof, to be transferred, paid, or dealt with until further Order.

Richard Moore, Justice.
Christopher Duff, Clerk of the Rules.

No. 8.—Satisfaction Piece, Affidavit, and Requisition to enter Satisfaction on Judgment.

A.B. Plaintiff.
C.D. Defendant.

I A.B. of did obtain a Judgment in the Court of as of Term 18 Roll No. against C.D. for the Sum of which said Judgment has been fully satisfied and discharged; and I hereby consent that Satisfaction be entered on the Record of said Judgment.

Dated this Day of 18 .

No. 9.—Suggestion of Breaches.

Queen's Bench,
Monday, the 20th Day of June 1854.

John James, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, Defendant.

And now on this Day the said John James, the Plaintiff, comes and informs the Court that after the Recovery of the said Judgment, and on the 1st Day of April 1853, another half-yearly Gale of the said Annuity, amounting to the Sum of £100, became due and payable to the Plaintiff, and that the Defendant has neglected and refused to pay the same, in breach and violation of the Conditions of the said Bond upon which the Plaintiff recovered such Judgment, and therefore the Plaintiff prays Execution of the said Judgment for the further Sum of £100.

No. 10.—Suggestion for Execution against the Judgment Debtor.

John James, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, Defendant.

And now, on the 26th Day of June 1854, it is suggested, and manifestly appears to the Court, that the said A.B. [or C.D., as such Executor of the last Will and Testament of the said A.B. deceased, or as the Case may be,] is entitled to have Execution of the Judgment aforesaid against the said E.F. [or against G.H., as Executor of the last Will and Testament of the said E.F., as the Case may be]: Therefore it is considered by the Court that the said A.B. [or C.D., as such Executor as aforesaid, or as the Case may be], ought to have Execution of the said Judgment against the said E.F. [or against G.H., as such Executor as aforesaid, or as the Case may be.]

In the Queen's Bench,

Victoria, &c. &c. to the said Richard Roe, greeting.

County of Clare.
John James, Plaintiff.
Richard Roe, Defendant.

Richard Roe, the Defendant, is summoned to appear and show Cause wherefore Edward Jones, Executor of the said John James, shall not * have Execution against the said Richard Roe, of a Judgment whereby John James, on the 1st Day of June 1850, in the said Court of Queen's Bench, recovered against the said Richard Roe the Sum of £300, and of which Sum the said Edward Jones alleges that there remains due and unsatisfied the Sum of 100*l.*

Therefore the said Richard Roe is hereby required to appear in the said Court within Eight Days after the Service hereof, and show Cause wherefore Execution should not be had accordingly; or in default thereof the said Edward Jones may proceed to Execution for said Sum of £100 and his Costs.

Witness the Lord Chief Justice and other Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin.

Dated Monday, the 26th Day of April 1854.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, Attorney for the said Edward Jones,
No. 12, Clare Street, Dublin.

No. 11 A.—Like in case of Interlocutory Judgment.

[*Proceed as in last Form to the Asterisk , and then as follows:]—assess and recover [or recover] the Damages in respect of a Judgment whereby the said John James on the 1st Day of June 1850, in the said Court of Queen's Bench, was adjudged in that Behalf entitled, and which Inquiry of Damages as yet remains to be made [if the Case be so].

Therefore the said Richard Roe is hereby required to appear in the said Court within Eight Days after the Service hereof, and show Cause wherefore the said Assessment should not be made [if not made] and Recovery had as aforesaid, or in default thereof the said Edward Jones may proceed to assess and recover [or to recover] such Damages against the said C.D.

Witness, the Lord Chief Justice and other Justices of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Dublin.

Dated Monday the 4th Day of April 1854.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act to extend the Municipal Boundaries of the Borough of Belfast, and to reduce the Scale of rating upon certain Property within the said Borough. [20th August 1853.]

3 & 4 Vict. c. 108. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 93. 8 & 9 Vict. c. cxlii.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland, which Act was 'amended by another Act passed in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her present Majesty, for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland: And whereas a Local and Personal Act was passed in the 'Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of Her said Majesty, intituled An Act for the Improvement of the Borough of Belfast, which last-recited Act was amended by the Local and Personal Acts following, 'that is to say, Ninth and Tenth Victoriæ, Chapter Two hundred and ninety-four, Tenth and Eleventh 'Victoria, Chapter Two hundred and fifty-four, and Thirteenth and Fourteenth Victoria, Chapter One 'hundred and eight; and the said several Acts are now in operation in the Borough of Belfast: And 'whereas it is expedient that the Boundaries of the said Borough, as defined by the said first-recited 'Act, should be extended, and that the Boundaries of the several Wards into which the same is divided 'should be altered, and that the maximum Scale of rating upon Property above the annual Value of Eighty 'Pounds liable to be rated under the said thirdly-recited Act should be reduced: And whereas the same 'cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Title of Act.

I. In citing this Act for any Purpose it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Belfast Borough Extension Act, 1853."

Limits of the Borough altered and extended.

II. So much of the said firstly-recited Act as relates to the Boundaries of the Borough of Belfast, and to the Boundaries of the Wards into which the said Borough is divided, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof the Boundaries of the said Borough, and of the Five Wards into which the same is divided, shall for the Purposes of this Act be according to the Description of such Boundaries respectively set forth in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed; and all the Houses, Lands, and Hereditaments within the Boundaries therein specified shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be Parts of the said Borough, to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Boundaries had been fixed and specified in the said firstly-recited Act, and in the Construction of the Description of such Boundaries the Rules in the said last-mentioned Act contained shall be observed.

Acts in force relating to Belfast to apply to the Borough as extended by this Act.

III. All the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Acts and of all other Acts altering, amending, or enlarging the same or any of them, shall, so far as they are now in force and are unrepealed by and are not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, extend and apply to the Borough of Belfast, and to the several Wards thereof, and to the Inhabitants of the said Borough as extended and defined by this Act.

Provisions as to buying and selling outside the Borough.

IV. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful, within so much of the Manor of Belfast as lies beyond the Boundaries of the said Borough as defined by the said first-recited Act, for any Person to sell or expose for Sale any Butter, Milk, Eggs, Poultry, Fruit, Fish, or Vegetables for the domestic Consumption of the Buyer at or near to the Premises of either the Owner of such Commodity or of the Person to whom the same may be sold or offered for Sale.

Repeal of so much of 8 & 9 Vict. c. cxlii. as enables the Council to rate Property exceeding 8*l.* annual Value at 4*s.* 6*d.* in the Pound.

Rate on such Property not to exceed 3*s.* in the Pound.

V. So much of the said thirdly-recited Act as authorizes the Council, once in every Year, to be computed from the First Day of January in each Year, or oftener if they shall think it necessary, to make One or more Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, upon the Occupiers of all Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Quays, Wharfs, and other Hereditaments within the Limits of the said Act exceeding Eighty Pounds annual Value, so as such Rates or Assessments do not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Four Shillings and Sixpence in the Pound on the annual Value of the same, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof, it shall be lawful for the Council, once in every Year, from and after the Commencement of this Act, to be computed from the First Day of January in each Year, or oftener if they shall think it necessary, to make One or more Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, upon the Occupiers of all Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Quays, Wharfs, and other Hereditaments within the Limits of the Borough for the Time being, exceeding Eighty Pounds annual Value, so as such Rates or Assessments do not exceed in any One Year the Sum of Three Shillings in the Pound on the annual Value of the same; and the said last-mentioned Rate, and the other Rates authorized to be levied by the said last-mentioned Act and not hereby repealed, shall be diminished or varied in the Proportions, and applied in the Manner, and be subject to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed to extend to repeal, alter, or in any Manner affect the Provisions of the said recited Acts or any of them relating to the making, collecting, and recovering of the Rates thereby authorized, save as to the Rate by this Act repealed, and that all such Provisions, and all other Provisions therein contained relating to the Rates or Exemption from Rates shall extend and apply to the Rate hereby authorized to be made in lieu of the Rate so repealed as aforesaid.

VI. Provided

VI. Provided always, That so long as any Demesne situate within the said Borough shall be of an Extent of not less than Forty Acres, and shall be in the Occupation of the Owner thereof or his Undertenant, and in which Streets shall not have been laid out and formed, and on which Dwelling Houses shall not have been built, the Owner or Tenant of such Demesne shall not be rated in respect of such Demesne, or in respect of any Mansion House or other Building situate therein and occupied therewith, unless such Tenant or Owner shall by Notice in Writing require to be rated in respect of such Demesne and Mansion House under the said recited Acts or any of them: Provided also, that until such Tenant or Owner shall be so rated, he shall not be placed upon any Burgess List or Burgess Roll to be formed under the firstly or secondly recited Acts, or either of them, in respect of such Demesne, or in respect of such Mansion House or other Building, or be liable or entitled to fill any Office, or to vote in any Election under the said Acts, or either of them, in respect of such Premises as aforesaid. Exempting Demesnes in certain Cases from Payment of Rates.

VII. Nothing in the said recited Acts or in this Act contained shall in any Manner prevent or hinder the burning of Bricks or Lime, or the building of Kilns for such Purpose, within any Part of the Borough as defined by this Act which shall not for the Time being be lighted and watched under the Provisions of the said thirdly-recited Act. Not to prevent burning Bricks, &c. in Places not lighted and watched.

VIII. The Provisions in the said Local and Personal Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Victoria, Chapter Two hundred and fifty-four, Section Thirty-seven, contained, relating to the Royal Belfast Academical Institution and the Belfast Academy, shall extend and apply to the Queen's College at Belfast, and to the Belfast District Lunatic Asylum and the Grounds attached thereto, and to the College erected for the Education of Ministers in connexion with the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and to the Court House and Gaol of the County of Antrim, and to the Lands held with such Court House and Gaol, so long as the same shall be held and occupied by the Grand Jury of the said County for County Purposes. Extending 10 & 11 Vict. c. celiv. s. 37. to Queen's College and Court House and Gaol of Antrim.

IX. That the Roman Catholic Seminary, situate upon the Turnpike Road leading to Antrim, shall for the Purposes of this Act be considered within the Boundaries by this Act authorized; and that the Provisions in the said last-mentioned Act contained relating to the Royal Academical Institution and the Belfast Academy shall also extend and apply to the said Roman Catholic Seminary at Belfast. Roman Catholic Seminary to be exempt from Effect of Act.

X. That in construing the Seventy-second Section of the said recited Act, Eighth and Ninth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and forty-two, the Words "formed or set out" shall be held to mean formed or set out for building. As to Meaning of certain Words in 8 & 9 Vict. c. cxlii. s. 72.

XI. That no House or Building hereafter to be built, rebuilt, or new roofed in or near any Street within the Limits of this Act shall, without the Permission of the Council, be thatched wholly or in part, and in case any such House or Building shall be so thatched without such Permission as aforesaid the Owner thereof shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings for each and every Month during which the same or any Part thereof shall continue to be thatched. No House to be thatched without Permission of Council.

XII. This Act shall commence and have effect on and from the First Day of December next after the passing of this Act. Commencement of Act.

XIII. The Costs, Charges, and Expenses of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act, or preparatory or incident thereto, shall be paid and discharged by the Treasurer of the Borough of Belfast out of the Borough Fund. Expenses of Act.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to amend certain Provisions of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, in respect of the Transmission of certified Copies of Letters Patent and Specifications to certain Offices in Edinburgh and Dublin, and otherwise to amend the said Act. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend certain Provisions of the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, in respect of the Transmission of certified Copies of Letters Patent and Specifications to certain Offices in Edinburgh, and Dublin, and otherwise to amend the said Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 15 & 16 Vict. c. 83.

I. Section Thirty-three of the said Act, and such Part of Section Twenty-eight of the said Act as directs that in case Reference is made to Drawings in any Specification deposited or filed under the said Act an extra Copy of such Drawings should be left with such Specification, shall be repealed. Sect. 33. and Part of Sect. 28. of recited Act repealed.

II. The Commissioners shall cause true Copies of all Provisional Specifications left at the Office of the Commissioners to be open to the Inspection of the Public, at such Times, after the Date of the Record thereof respectively, as the Commissioners shall by their Order from Time to Time direct. Copies of Provisional Specifications to be open to Inspection.

III. A true Copy, under the Hand of the Patentee or Applicant, or Agent of the Patentee or Applicant, of every Specification and of every Complete Specification, with the Drawings accompanying the same, if any, shall be left at the Office of the Commissioners on filing such Specification or Complete Specification. Copy of Specification, &c., under Hand of Patentee, &c. to be left.

IV. Printed or Manuscript Copies or Extracts, certified and sealed with the Seal of the Commissioners, of Letters Patent, Specifications, Disclaimers, Memoranda of Alterations, and all other Documents recorded and filed in the Commissioners Office, or in the Office of the Court of Chancery appointed for the filing of Specifications, shall be received in Evidence in all Proceedings relating to Letters Patent for Inventions in all Courts whatsoever within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Channel Islands, and Isle of Man, and Her Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad, without further Proof or Production of the Originals. Copies or Extracts of Letters Patent, &c., to be received in Evidence.

V. Certified printed Copies, under the Seal of the Commissioners, of all Specifications and Complete Specifications, and Fac-simile printed Copies of the Drawings accompanying the same, if any, Disclaimers, and Memoranda of Alterations filed or hereafter to be filed under the said Patent Law Amendment Act, shall be transmitted to the Office of the Director of Chancery in Scotland and to the Enrolment Office of the Court of Chancery in Ireland within Twenty-one Days after the filing thereof respectively, and the same shall be filed in the Office of Chancery in Scotland and Ireland respectively, and certified Copies or Extracts from such Documents shall be furnished to all Persons requiring the same, on Payment of such Fees as the Commissioners shall direct; and such Copies or Extracts shall be received in Evidence in all Courts in Scotland and in Ireland respectively in all Proceedings relating to Letters Patent for Inventions, without further Proof or Production of the Originals. Certified printed Copies of Specifications, &c. under Seal of Commissioners, to be sent to Director of Chancery in Scotland and Court of Chancery in Ireland, which shall be Evidence.

VI. Wher

Lord Chancellor, in certain Cases, may seal Letters Patent after the Expiration of provisional Protection.

VI. Where Letters Patent have not been sealed during the Continuance of the provisional Protection on which the same is granted, provided the Delay in such sealing has arisen from Accident, and not from the Neglect or wilful Default of the Applicant, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall think fit, to seal such Letters Patent at any Time after the Expiration of such provisional Protection, whether such Expiration has happened before or shall happen after the passing of this Act, and to date the sealing thereof as of any Day before the Expiration of such provisional Protection, and also to extend the Time for the filing of the Specification thereon; and where the Specification, in pursuance of the Condition of any Letters Patent, has not been filed within the Time limited by such Letters Patent, provided the Delay in such filing has arisen from Accident, and not from the Neglect or wilful Default of the Patentee, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall think fit, to extend the Time for the filing of such Specification, whether the Default in such filing has happened before or shall happen after the passing of this Act: Provided always, that, except in any Case that may have arisen before the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to extend the Time for the sealing of any Letters Patent, or for the filing of any Specification, beyond the Period of One Month.

Removing Doubts as to Provision of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 83. respecting the making and sealing of new Letters Patent for a further Term.

VII. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Provision of the Patent Law Amendment Act, '1852, for the making and sealing new Letters Patent for a further Term, in pursuance of Her Majesty's 'Order in Council, in the Cases mentioned in Section Forty of the said Act, extends to the making and 'sealing of new Letters Patent in the Manner by such Act directed where such new Letters Patent are 'granted by way of Prolongation of the Term of Letters Patent issued before the Commencement of the 'said Act: And whereas it is expedient that such new Letters Patent granted by way of Prolongation 'shall be granted according to the Provisions of the said Patent Law Amendment Act:' Be it declared and enacted, That where Her Majesty's Order of Council for the sealing of new Letters Patent shall have been made after the Commencement of the said Act, the said Provision of the said Act for making and sealing in manner aforesaid of new Letters Patent shall extend, and shall as from the Commencement of the said Act be deemed to have extended, to the making and sealing in manner aforesaid of new Letters Patent for a further Term, as well where the original Letters Patent were made before as where such original Letters Patent have been issued since the Commencement of the said Act.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 83. and this Act to be construed as One.

VIII. This Act, and the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, shall be construed together as One Act.

CAP. CXVI.

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia; and to authorize the Employment of the Non-commisssioned Officers. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, 'Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Corn- 'wall and Devon, when disembodied, in Great Britain and Ireland, and for making in certain Cases 'Allowances of Reduced Pay to Subaltern Officers and Surgeons Mates and Assistant Surgeons of the 'Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Devon and Cornwall, while disembodied, and Allowances to 'Adjutants, Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, and Serjeant Majors of the Regular Militia who 'have been or may be reduced, and to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters disabled after long 'Service:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Secretary-at-War to issue the Money required for Pay of Regular Militia.

I. The Secretary-at-War for the Time being shall cause to be issued and paid the whole Sum required for the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland (when disembodied), in the Manner and for the several Uses herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) for the Pay of the said Regular Militia at the daily Rates following; (that is to say,)

Rates of Pay.

For each Adjutant of Infantry, Eight Shillings, and of Artillery, Nine Shillings:

For each Serjeant Major of Infantry, where One is appointed in Corps consisting of Two or more Companies, One Shilling and Tenpence, and of Artillery, Three Shillings:

For each Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps whose Establishment exceeds Four Companies) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence; and to the Serjeant performing the Duty of both Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps consisting of Four Companies or less) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence:

For each Serjeant of Infantry, One Shilling and Sixpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Twopence:

For each Drummer, Trumpeter, or Bugler above Sixteen Years of Age, One Shilling, and under Sixteen Years of Age, Tenpence:

Rates of Pay when absent on Furlough.

Provided always, that when any Serjeant Major or Serjeant shall be absent on Furlough or Licence he shall during such Absence receive Sixpence per Diem less than the above-mentioned Rates respectively:

Clothing.

And also for the Clothing of the Regular Militia (when disembodied), in Cases in which full Clothing shall be provided by the Colonel or Commandant, at the Rate of Five Pounds Twelve Shillings and One Penny

Penny for each Serjeant Major, Three Pounds for each Serjeant, and Two Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sevenpence for each Drummer, and so in proportion in the Cases in which only Part of the Clothing shall be provided by the Colonel or Commandant, together with the actual Expense of Package and Carriage, and such Charges for altering and fitting the Clothing as shall have been sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War: Provided always, that Serjeant Majors, Serjeants, and Drummers on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of England and Wales, and such Serjeant Majors and Serjeants as were serving on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Ireland and Scotland, on the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and shall be resident at Head Quarters, shall be entitled to be clothed once in Two Years; and that such as shall have been subsequently appointed to serve or promoted on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Ireland and Scotland shall be entitled to be clothed once in Four Years:

Contingent Fund.

And also at Rates varying from Two Shillings to Sixpence per Annum for each Private Man for defraying the contingent Expenses of each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, when enrolled.

Adjutant, &c. to reside where the Secretary-at-War shall appoint.

II. Except when employed as herein-after provided, every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer on the Staff of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, shall reside in such Places as shall be sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War; and every such Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer shall forfeit his Pay for any Period during which he shall be absent, except when employed as herein-after provided, or when absent by Leave from the Colonel or Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, which Leave shall not, except in case of certified Sickness, extend beyond Three Calendar Months in One Year, nor to a greater Proportion than One Third of the Non-commissioned Officers at the same Time.

Adjutants and Non-commissioned Officers of Militia may be employed in their Counties.

III. Every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, and not called out for Training or Exercise, shall be liable to be employed within the County to which the Regiment, Battalion, or Company of the said Militia Staff belongs, under the Officers appointed to pay and superintend the Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, in such Manner as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may determine.

Adjutant to have Charge of the Arms and Clothing, and to issue the Money for contingent Expenses on an Order signed by the Colonel.

Balance to form a Stock Purse.

IV. The Adjutant of each Regiment of Militia shall have the Charge and Care of the Arms, Accoutrements, Great Coats, Clothing, Necessaries, and other Stores thereof, under the Superintendence of the Colonel or Commandant, and shall, out of the Allowance directed by this Act to be issued and paid for defraying the contingent Expenses of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, from Time to Time issue and pay such Sums of Money as may be necessary for the Repair of Arms, and other usual contingent Expenses, upon an Order in Writing signed by the Colonel or other Commandant, and after Payment of such Sums as aforesaid he shall Three Times in the Year make up Accounts of all such Money, and of the Expenditure thereof, showing the Balance remaining in his Hands (which said Balance shall form a Stock Purse for the Use of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps), and shall transmit the same to the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, to be by him examined, allowed, and signed; and the said Accounts, so allowed and signed, shall be the proper Vouchers and Acquittal of such Adjutant for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

In Absence of the Adjutant, the Serjeants to be under the Command of the Serjeant Major.

V. In the occasional and unavoidable Absence of the Adjutant from the City, Town, or Place where the Disembodied Staff is quartered, or during any Vacancy in the Appointment of Adjutant, the Serjeants shall be under the Command of the Serjeant Major, or of some Serjeant who shall be appointed by the said Adjutant, with the Approbation of the Colonel or other Commanding Officer, to act as Serjeant Major during the Absence of such Adjutant; and the said Serjeant Major or acting Serjeant Major shall render the same Returns and perform such other Acts as are by Law required from the Adjutant.

Militia when called out for Training, &c. entitled to Pay.

VI. The Officers and Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the Regular Militia shall, for the Period or Periods during which they shall be called out for the Purpose of Exercise or Training, be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances as the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the Militia when embodied.

Volunteers attached to Regiments of the Line to be subject to the Mutiny Act.

VII. Volunteers may, with the Sanction of the Secretary-at-War, when attached to Regiments of the Line to qualify themselves for the Permanent Staff, either as Serjeants or Drummers, be allowed Pay whilst so under Instruction, but while they remain so attached they will be under the Command of the Officer commanding the Regiment of the Line equally with the Soldiers of that Regiment, and will be subject to the Provisions of the Mutiny Act.

Allowances to Subalterns and Surgeons Mates and Assistant Surgeons.

VIII. 'And whereas it is expedient to grant Allowances to certain Officers of the said Militia Forces 'of Great Britain and Ireland while disembodied, under certain Regulations:' The following Allowances shall be made and paid, to the Amount, under the Restrictions, and in the Manner herein-after expressed, to every Subaltern Officer and Surgeon's Mate in Great Britain, and to every Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon in Ireland, who held a Commission in the Militia of Great Britain or Ireland, and was serving therein, when the Corps was last disembodied, and also to every Supernumerary Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon of any Regiment of Militia in Ireland which was augmented during the War, and which has been reduced to its original Establishment; (that is to say,)

To a Lieutenant, Two Shillings and Sixpence per Diem:

To an Ensign, Two Shillings per Diem:

And to a Surgeon's Mate or Assistant Surgeon, Two Shillings and Sixpence per Diem:

Rank of certain Officers.

Provided always, that for the Purposes of this Act all Officers of the Militia serving with the Rank of Captain Lieutenants shall be deemed to be Lieutenants, and all Officers serving with the Rank of Second Lieutenant

Lieutenant shall be deemed to be Ensigns; and that the Supernumerary Subalterns and Assistant Surgeons of Regiments of Militia in Ireland as aforesaid shall be deemed to have belonged to such Regiments when they were last disembodied, and to have continued to serve therein from that Time.

Certain Persons not entitled to Allowances.

IX. Provided also, no Person who is or shall during the Continuance of this Act become possessed of such an Estate or Income as would by Law qualify him to hold the Commission of Captain of a Company in the said Militia, or who is or shall be appointed Adjutant in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, nor any Officer on Full Pay of the Navy, Army, or Marines, shall have or be in any way entitled to the said Allowances, or any Part or Share thereof.

A Declaration to be taken to entitle Officers, &c. to such Allowances.

X. The Subaltern Officers, Surgeon's Mates, and Assistant Surgeons of the Militia, who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle themselves thereto, take and subscribe a Declaration before some One of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the United Kingdom, Notary Public, or other Officer now by Law authorized to administer or receive such Declaration, or before some One of Her Majesty's Ministers, Secretaries of Embassy, of Legation, or Consuls abroad, in the Words or to the Effect following; (videlicet,)

Form of Declaration.

'I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I belonged to the of Militia when the same was disembodied, and that I have continued to serve therein from that Time until the Day of inclusive, as a [Lieutenant, Ensign, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, as the Case may be]; and that I was not, in my own Right or in the Right of my Wife, during any Part of the Period for which I now claim to receive my Allowance, (that is to say,) from the Day of to the Day of both inclusive, in the actual Possession and Enjoyment or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of such an annual Value above Reprises as would qualify me to hold a Commission of Captain of a Company in the Militia; that I was not in Holy Orders; that I have not during the above Period held the Appointment of Adjutant, Surgeon, Paymaster, or Quartermaster in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia; that I did not hold or enjoy, nor did any Person for me hold or enjoy, during the said Period, any Place, Office, or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under the Crown or any other Government, besides the Allowance of a Day now claimed, except my Half Pay as a [of the Army or Navy or Marines, or of a Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, as the Case may be,] and any Pay and Allowances from the to the both Days inclusive, during which Period the Corps was assembled for Training and Exercise.'

Which Declaration, so taken and subscribed, shall be produced to the Paymaster General of Her Majesty's Forces by the Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon claiming the Allowance.

Secretary-at-War may place certain Officers unfit for Duty upon a retired Allowance.

XI. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to place any such Lieutenant, Ensign, and Surgeon's Mate of the Militia of Great Britain, or Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia of Ireland, when unfit for further Duty, upon a retired Allowance equal to and instead of the Allowance granted on the disembodying of the Militia at the Termination of the War; and all such Subalterns, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, to entitle them to the Receipt of such retired Allowance, shall make and subscribe the following Declaration; (videlicet,)

Form of Declaration.

'I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I formerly served as a in the Militia; that I am not in Holy Orders; and that from the Day of to the Day of I did not hold or enjoy any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under her Majesty, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, besides my Allowance of per Diem as a of the said Militia, except my Half Pay or Civil Pension as a .'

Allowances to Officers reduced in 1829.

XII. The Allowances granted to certain Paymasters, Surgeons, and Quartermasters of the Militia of Great Britain and Ireland, on their being reduced, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, shall be issued and paid under the Restrictions and in the Manner herein-after expressed, during the Continuance of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to place any such Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster, when unfit for further Duty, upon a retired Allowance equal to and instead of his reduced Allowance.

A Declaration to be taken by Officers claiming the said Allowances.

XIII. Every Paymaster, Surgeon, and Quartermaster of Militia, who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowances, shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle himself thereto, take and subscribe a Declaration before some One of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom, or Notary Public, or other Officer now by Law authorized to administer or receive such Declaration, or before some One of Her Majesty's Ministers, Secretaries of Embassy, of Legation, or Consuls abroad, in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

Form of Declaration.

'I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I was serving as [Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster, as the Case may be,] in the of Militia at the Reduction of the Staff of the said Militia in One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine; and that I was not in Holy Orders during any Part of the Period for which I now claim to receive an Allowance, that is to say, from the Day of One thousand eight hundred and to the Day of One thousand eight hundred and ; and that I did not hold or enjoy, nor did any Person for me hold or enjoy, during any Part of the said Period, any Place, Office,

'or

'or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under the Crown or any other Government, besides the 'Allowance of a Day now claimed, except my Half Pay as a [of 'the Army or Navy or Marines, or of a Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, as the Case may 'be], and except my Pay and Allowances from the to the both Days 'inclusive, during which Period the Militia was assembled for Training and Exercise.'

Which Declaration, so taken and subscribed, shall be produced to the Paymaster General of Her Majesty's Forces by the Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster claiming the Allowance: Provided always, that any Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster receiving such Allowance, and being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or Navy or Marines, shall, notwithstanding such Militia Allowance, be entitled to receive such Half Pay or Allowance.

Out-Pension to Reduced Non-commissioned Officers, &c. not to be received while serving.

XIV. 'And whereas certain Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers of the Militia of the United 'Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland have, on the Reduction of the Establishment of the Disembodied 'Staff, been placed on the Out-Pension, although not unfit for further Service:' No Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer so placed on Pension shall be entitled to receive the said Pension for any Period during which he shall be receiving Pay in the Militia.

Subalterns, Mates, &c. to attend the Exercise, &c.

XV. Every Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster on the reduced Allowance, and every Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia, who shall be entitled or claim to be entitled to any Allowances as aforesaid, shall regularly attend the Exercise and Training of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs during the whole of the Time it shall be assembled for that Purpose, and shall during the said Time punctually do and perform his Duty as a Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, on pain of forfeiting the said Allowance, as well as all Arrears of the said Allowance and of Pay; and a Certificate of his having so attended and performed his Duty, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he may belong, shall be transmitted to the Paymaster General by the Officer claiming the Allowance: Provided always, that in case any such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon claiming to be entitled to such Allowance shall by his Commanding Officer be permitted or suffered, for any special Cause or unavoidable Necessity, to be absent during the whole or any Part of such Exercise, for which Purpose it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer to grant such Leave of Absence, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, who may be so permitted to be absent, and have such Leave in Writing, to demand and receive the said Allowances and every Part thereof in like Manner as if he had attended during the whole of the said Exercise: Provided always, that the Reason for such Absence, as well as the Duration thereof, shall be carefully and truly specified in a Certificate (in lieu of that before mentioned) to be signed by the Commanding Officer, and to be furnished as soon as conveniently may be to the Paymaster General.

Commanding Officers may grant Leave of Absence.

If the Regiment be not called out before Time fixed for Payment, Allowance to be paid, on making the Declaration, without Certificate of Attendance.

XVI. Provided always, in case any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall not, before the Time fixed for the Payment of the said Allowances, be called out for the Exercise and Training thereof, every Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon belonging to any such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, and coming within the aforesaid Benefits of this Act, who shall have made and subscribed the Declaration herein-before mentioned before any Justice of the Peace or other Person as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the said Allowance as if he had regularly attended the Exercise and Training of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps during the whole of the Time by Law appointed for that Purpose, and as if a Certificate of such Attendance, signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, had been furnished.

Allowances to be paid quarterly.

XVII. Upon such Declarations and Certificates as aforesaid, or where any Regiment of Militia shall not have been called out to their Exercise as aforesaid, upon the said Declarations being produced to the Paymaster General, the Paymaster General shall pay to the said Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons their respective Allowances above mentioned for the usual quarterly or other proper Periods, without any Deduction whatsoever, except Income Tax.

On Neglect of Attendance, Subalterns, &c. shall forfeit Allowance.

XVIII. The Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, Subaltern Officers, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons of Militia, entitled or claiming to be entitled to the aforesaid reduced or disembodied Allowances, shall at all Times be liable to serve in the respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps to which they belong whenever the same shall be embodied and called out upon active Service; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to attend when called upon, on such Occasion, or on such other Occasions as may be required in pursuance of the Laws in force respecting the Militia when disembodied, every such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, and Assistant Surgeon shall, on such Neglect or Refusal being certified to the Secretary-at-War, and in respect of the Militia of Great Britain, to the Lord Lieutenant of the County, by the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon shall belong, forfeit his Claim to the said Allowance and every Part thereof, and shall also be considered as having resigned and vacated his Commission to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Allowance not to be paid while the Militia embodied.

XIX. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle any Paymaster, Surgeon, Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon as aforesaid to the said Allowance Allowance or any Part thereof during the Time the Militia to which he belongs shall be embodied or assembled for Training and Exercise.

Persons on Half Pay, or entitled to Allowance as having served in the Army or Navy, empowered to receive Pay, &c. during Training.

XX. Provided always, That any Person being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or being entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces or Navy or Marines, and serving in the Militia, may receive the Pay and Allowances by this Act directed to be paid to the Field Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, Adjutants, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, when assembled for annual Training; and the receiving any such Pay and Allowances by any such Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Quartermaster, Surgeon, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, shall not prevent such Person on Half Pay, or being entitled to any such Allowance, from receiving his Half Pay or such Allowance: Provided always, that such Person shall, in the Declaration to be taken for the Receipt of the Half Pay or such Allowance, declare that he has received or is entitled to such Militia Pay and Allowances, and shall specify the Militia Rank which entitles him to the same.

Adjutants, &c., Non-commissioned Officers, or Privates, not to lose their Right to Chelsea or Kilmainham Pensions, &c.

XXI. Provided always, That no Adjutant, Quartermaster, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private Man in the Regular Militia, entitled to receive any Chelsea or Kilmainham Pension or Allowance on account of Service in the Regular Army, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the Regular Militia; nor shall any Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon forfeit or lose his Right to receive any such Chelsea or Kilmainham Pension or Allowance by reason of his receiving the Allowance by this Act granted to him when disembodied.

Allowance to be made for Medicines.

XXII. There shall be granted for each Regiment of Regular Militia, when disembodied, a Sum of Money after the Rate of One Guinea for every One hundred Men of each such Regiment, for the Expense of necessary Medicines for the sick Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men of such Regiment, during the Period or Periods of Assembly for Exercise or Training, and also an Allowance of Twopence per Week for each of the Non-commissioned Officers and their Families of each Regiment on the Disembodied Staff at Head Quarters, for the Expense of necessary Medicines and Attendance given to the said Non-commissioned Officers and their Families while such Regiment is not called out for Training and Exercise.

Adjutants appointed before 24th Dec. 1814 entitled to receive, after a Service of 20 Years, if unfit for further Service, an Allowance of 8*s.* per Day; provided they do not hold certain other Appointments.

XXIII. Every Adjutant of Regular Militia appointed as such before the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, who shall have served faithfully, either in Her Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Twenty Years in the whole, whereof Ten shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, and who shall be by Age or Infirmity rendered unfit for further Service, shall, on producing to the Secretary at-War a Certificate of such Service of Twenty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon obtaining an Order from the Secretary-at-War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive, and the Paymaster General shall pay to such Person, an Allowance at the Rate of Eight Shillings per Diem: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty or any other Government; and that no Person who before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine held any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under the Crown, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, shall receive any Part of the said Allowance for any Time during which he held such Civil Place or Employment, except in the Cases in which the Emoluments of such Civil Place or Employment shall not exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance, and unless in such excepted Cases the Royal Consent to the holding of such Civil Place or Employment shall have been signified through the Secretary-at-War; and that no Person appointed on or after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine to any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, shall receive any Part of the said Allowance for any Time during which he shall hold such Civil Place or Employment: Provided always, that any Adjutant appointed after the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, who shall have served faithfully, either in Her Majesty's Regular Forces or in the Regular or Local Militia, for the full Term of Thirty Years in the whole, whereof Fifteen shall have been in Service as an Adjutant of Regular Militia, and who shall be by Age or Infirmity rendered unfit for further Service, shall, upon producing to the Secretary-at-War a Certificate of such Service of Thirty Years as aforesaid from the Commanding Officers of the different Corps to which he shall have belonged, and upon an Order from the Secretary-at-War founded upon such Certificate, be entitled to receive an Allowance at the Rate of Six Shillings a Day, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Conditions as the aforesaid Allowance of Eight Shillings: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay or Out-Pension by reason of receiving such Allowance of Eight Shillings or Six Shillings a Day as aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay or Out-Pension as well as such Allowance: Provided always, that in Cases of very long and meritorious Services it shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to extend to any Adjutants appointed between the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen and the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three the Terms, either in whole or in part, herein-before prescribed for the Retirement of Adjutants appointed before the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

Adjutant appointed since 24th Dec. 1814 entitled to receive, after Thirty Years Service, &c., an Allowance of 6*s.* per Day.

Right to Half Pay reserved.

Certain Terms extended to Adjutants in Cases of long and meritorious Services.

XXIV. And

Allowances to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters.

XXIV. 'And whereas certain Allowances have been granted in pursuance of former Acts to Adjutants, 'Surgeons, and Quartermasters of Regular Militia who have by Age or Infirmity been rendered unfit for 'further Service:' Such Allowances shall be issued and paid, during the Continuance of this Act, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions as the Allowances granted by this Act to Adjutants who shall by Age or Infirmity be rendered unfit for further Service: Provided always, that no Person receiving such Allowance shall by reason thereof forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled.

Reduced Adjutants to receive 4s. per Day till 31st July 1854.

XXV. In case any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall have already ceased and determined or been reduced in its Establishment, or shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment during the Continuance of this Act, the Sum of Four Shillings per Diem shall be paid to such Person as was or shall be actually serving as Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps at the Time of Reduction, from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, or from the Time such Regiment shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment, (as the Case may be,) to the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Conditions as the Allowances granted by this Act to Adjutants who shall by Age or Infirmity be rendered unfit for further Service: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay of the Navy, Army, Marines, or Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, by reason of receiving such Allowance as last aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Right to Half Pay reserved.

Adjutants and Serjeant Majors entitled to Allowance under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 44.

XXVI. 'And whereas certain Adjutants and Serjeant Majors are entitled to and have received certain 'Allowances in consequence of having been reduced under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-'ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, which Allowances have been continued, 'and as to such Adjutants augmented to Four Shillings per Diem:' All such Adjutants and Serjeant Majors shall be entitled to receive and shall receive such Allowance from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three to the Thirty first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Allowances granted to Adjutants who have been appointed since 24th Dec. 1814, &c. on Completion of certain Periods of Service.

XXVII. The following Allowances shall be granted and paid, under the Restrictions and Limitations herein-after expressed, to Adjutants of the Militia of Great Britian and Ireland who have been appointed since the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and who shall hereafter be appointed, on the Completion of the following Periods of Service in Her Majesty's Regular Forces and in the Militia, if unfit for the Performance of the Duties of their Commissions; (that is to say,)

To every Adjutant who shall have completed in the Service a Period of, (videlicet,)

Fifteen Years, of which Five Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Three Shillings per Diem:

Twenty Years, of which Seven Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Four Shillings per Diem:

Twenty-five Years, of which Ten Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Five Shillings per Diem:

Thirty Years, of which Fifteen Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Six Shillings per Diem:

No Adjutant whose Commission bears Date between 24th Dec. 1814 and 9th July 1823 excluded.

Right to Half Pay and Pension reserved.

Provided always, that no such Adjutant whose Commission bears Date between the Twenty-fourth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fourteen and the Ninth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-three shall be excluded from the Operation of the Authority vested in the Secretary-at-War to determine certain Cases of Adjutants of long and meritorious Services; provided also, that such Adjutants shall retain any Right they may have to Half Pay or to Out-Pension, notwithstanding the Grant of such retired Allowance as aforesaid; and all such Allowances shall be granted upon the Production to the Secretary-at-War of a Certificate of such Service and Disability; and the Paymaster General shall pay to such Adjutant the above Allowance, subject to the same Limitations and Restrictions in respect to the holding of any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under the Crown, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, as attach to other Adjutants to whom retired Allowances have been or shall be granted.

Reduced Adjutants may take such Allowance with any Pay or other Allowance under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 44. and 26 G. 3. c. 107.

Proviso.

XXVIII. Every reduced Adjutant entitled to any Allowance granted under the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, and continued by any subsequent Act or by this Act, may receive such Allowance, together with any Full Pay, Half Pay, or Allowance which was tenable together with such reduced Allowance under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or under the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall be entitled to receive any Allowance under this Act during the Time he shall hold any Military Office of Profit under Her Majesty, other than such as aforesaid, or under any other Government, or any Civil Office or Employment under Her Majesty, or any other Government, otherwise than according to the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Allowances granted to Adjutants on account of Age or Infirmity.

Restrictions as to Allowances to reduced Adjutants of the Local Militia.

XXIX. 'And whereas certain Allowances have been granted to reduced Adjutants of the Local 'Militia:' The said Allowances shall be issued and paid during the Continuance of this Act in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions as the Allowances of the Paymasters, Surgeons, and Quartermasters

Quartermasters of the Regular Militia who were reduced in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine: Provided always, that in the Cases in which any such Local Militia Adjutants have been permitted to receive the said Allowances whilst holding any Civil Offices under the Crown, to which Offices they had been appointed previously to the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it shall be lawful to continue the Payment of the said Allowances under the same Regulations and Restrictions as those under which the Permission was originally granted.

Allowance to Adjutant for his Residence and Accommodation in Ireland. Allowance for Hire of House or Place for depositing Arms and Stores of the Militia in Ireland.

XXXVII. In all Cases where any Place provided under an Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia, for the Purpose of keeping therein the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging to any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, when not embodied, and the Hire or Cost of which Place may have been paid or is payable out of the County Rates by the Treasurer of the County in which such Place is situated, is or may become from any Cause insecure, insufficient, or unfit for the safe Custody of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores; or in case the Public Service or Convenience require the Site of the same to be changed, or in case no such Place has been provided, the Deputy Lieutenants of such County, at any General Meeting duly convened for this Purpose, upon the Representation of the Lord Lieutenant of such County, and the Colonel or Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of the County within which such Place is or is proposed to be situated, to the Effect that no such Place has been provided under the aforesaid Act, or that the Place provided is unfit, or insecure, or inefficient, and upon Evidence thereof, may and are hereby required to provide a suitable and secure Place, or to enlarge or alter and make secure and convenient the Place already provided, for the Purpose of keeping in proper Order and in safe Custody therein the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging to any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia of the County within which such Place is or is to be provided, and the Purchase, Hire, or Cost of which Place, in case the same shall be approved by the Lord Lieutenant and Colonel or Commandant of the Militia of such County, Riding, or Place, and the necessary Cost of Fuel for keeping it dry, shall be paid for by the Treasurer of such County, Riding, or Place, out of the County Rates: Provided always, that with a view to such safe Custody the Place so altered, enlarged, or provided shall contain an Orderly and Guard Room, and Quarters for the Serjeant Major, and such Proportion of the Non-commissioned Officers of the permanent Staff as may be a sufficient Guard for such Arms, being not less in any Case than One Half of the whole Number, nor less than Six, except in Corps consisting of less than Three Companies in which Corps all the Staff shall be provided with Quarters, and there shall be also provided a sufficient Yard or Parade Ground wherein the Men may be mustered for the Issue and Return of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores. Providing Place for Arms, &c. 42 G. 3. c. 90.

XXXVIII. For the Purpose of spreading over a Term of Years the Expense of altering, enlarging, or providing such Place, Orderly Room, and Quarters, the Justices of the County, Riding, or Place, or the major Part of them, such major Part not being less than Five, upon Representation from the Treasurer of the County, may borrow, on the Mortgage of the Rates of such County, Riding, or Place, all or any of the Money necessary for the Purpose of defraying such Expenses, and such Money may be so raised at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, and any such Mortgage shall be executed by the Chairman and Two or more other Justices present at the Time of making such Mortgage; and every such Mortgage shall be effectual for securing to the Person advancing the Sum of Money in such Mortgage expressed to be advanced, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, the Repayment thereof, with Interest for the same, after such Rate and at such Time and in such Manner as in such Mortgage provided; and every Person to whom any such Mortgage is made, his Power to borrow Money for providing Places for Stores, &c.

his Executors or Administrators, is hereby empowered, by endorsing his or their Name or Names on such Mortgage, to transfer the same, and his and their Right to the Principal Money and Interest thereby secured; and every Assignee of any such Mortgage, his Executors and Administrators, may in like Manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the Persons to whom such Mortgages or such Transfers thereof are made, their Executors and Administrators, shall be Creditors upon the Rates and Funds thereby expressed to be mortgaged in an equal Degree one with another, and shall not have any Preference or Priority other than is provided under the Powers of this Act.

Justices to provide annually for Payment of Interest on Mortgages, and not less than One Thirtieth Part of the Principal.

XXXIX. The said Justices shall in every Year charge the Rates of such County with the Sum for the Time being required to pay the Interest of the Money borrowed on any Mortgages under this Act, or such of them as for the Time being remain unpaid, and also with the Payment of a further Sum, not less than One Thirtieth Part of the whole of such Mortgages at the Time of the same being first made, and such Sums shall be applied under the Direction of the said Justices in discharge of the Interest on the said Mortgages or such of them as for the Time being remain unpaid, and of so many of the Principal Sums owing on the said Mortgages for the Time being remaining unpaid, as such Sums after Payment of the Interest as aforesaid will extend to discharge, until the whole of the Principal Monies for which such Mortgages shall have been made, and the Interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged; and the said Justices are hereby required to fix One or more Days in each Year on which such Payment shall be made, and shall make Orders for Assessments in due Time, so as to provide for such Payments being regularly made; and the said Justices shall, by Agreement with the Parties, or others advancing any Money for the Purposes of this Act, determine the Order or Priority in which the several Sums advanced shall be respectively discharged.

Power to raise Money to pay off Sums already borrowed.

XL. It shall be lawful for the Justices of the County for which such Monies shall have been borrowed (with the Consent of the Parties to whom the same shall be owing) to pay off the Monies so borrowed, and to raise and borrow the Monies necessary for that Purpose, and also to repay the said last-mentioned Monies and the Interest thereof, under the Powers of this Act, as if such Monies were borrowed under the Powers herein-before contained, but so, nevertheless, that all Monies borrowed shall be discharged within Thirty Years from the Time of first borrowing the same.

Sale of Place which is not required.

XLI. In all such Cases as aforesaid the Persons or Person in whom such Place which may have become insecure, insufficient, unfit, or inconvenient as aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid may be vested, upon Service upon them or him of an Order made at any Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, setting forth that another and more convenient and proper Place has been provided for the Purpose aforesaid, whereby the Place so purchased for the Purpose aforesaid has become useless, shall proceed forthwith, in such Manner as they shall think best, to sell and convey and assure the same to any Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, freed and discharged from the Uses or Trusts to which it had theretofore been liable and subject, and give Receipts and Acquittances for the Purchase Money or Purchase Monies thereof, and shall, upon Receipt of the Money arising therefrom, after deducting thereout all Costs and Charges attending such Sale or Sales, pay the same unto the Treasurer of such County, Riding, or Place, to be by him applied and paid towards the Cost of such Place to be so purchased as aforesaid, or the fitting up the same, and in case no such Place shall be so purchased, then toward the Expenses of fitting up such Place which may be so hired as aforesaid for the Purposes aforesaid, and the Residue of such Purchase Money (if any) shall be invested in the Public Funds, and the Interest thereof applied in aid of the Rate of such County or Riding, according as the Justices of the same in Quarter Session assembled may direct; and no Person purchasing any Place so sold as aforesaid shall be bound to inquire whether any of the Circumstances have arisen under which it has been determined to sell the same as aforesaid, nor shall he be bound to see to the Application or Nonapplication of his, her, or their respective Purchase Monies; and when and as soon as the Persons or Person in whom such Place shall have been so vested as aforesaid shall have paid to the said County Treasurer the clear Proceeds arising from such Sale or Sales, and shall have procured from such Treasurer his Receipt for the same, then and from thenceforth such Persons or Person shall be forthwith discharged from all Liability, Claim, or Demand in respect of the said Place so vested in him or them for the Purposes aforesaid, and also from all Liability, Claim, or Demand in respect of the Proceeds arising from the Sale of such Place; and such Receipt shall be a Bar to the Claim of any Person or Persons whatsoever in such County, Riding, or Place, or any Person or Persons claiming under them any Right, Title, or Estate to such Place or the Proceeds thereof.

Permanent Staff to be billeted.

XLII. Innkeepers and others who, according to the Provisions of the Mutiny Act, are liable to have Soldiers billeted upon them, shall in like Manner be subject to have the Permanent Staff of the Militia, when disembodied, billeted upon them, and in default of their providing convenient Lodging with Fire and Candle as prescribed in the Ninety-fourth Section of the Forty-second George the Third, Chapter Ninety, shall be liable to the Penalties imposed upon Civil Subjects offending against the Laws relating to Billets prescribed by the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion.

All Things in this Act relating to Counties, &c. shall extend to Ridings, &c.

XLIII. All Things in this Act contained relating to Counties, and to Regiments of Militia respectively, shall be construed to extend to all Ridings, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, and to all Battalions, Corps, and independent Companies respectively, and to the Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon.

Continuance of Act.

XLIV. This Act shall take effect and continue in force from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax in Great Britain. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to restrict the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax in Great Britain to Persons having an Estate or Interest in the Lands or Hereditaments whereon such Land Tax is charged:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Redemption of Land Tax restricted to Persons having an Interest in the Property.

I. From and after the passing of this Act the Redemption and Purchase of Land Tax in Great Britain shall be subject to the Provisions herein-after contained: No Body Politic or Corporate, nor any Person whatever, shall be entitled to redeem or purchase any Land Tax, except such Bodies Politic and Corporate and Persons respectively having an Estate or Interest in the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whereon such Land Tax is or shall be charged, and to whom Preference in the Redemption of Land Tax was given for a limited Period by the Act passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and sixteen.

Land Tax redeemed to merge in the Estate.

II. Upon the Completion of any Contract entered into after the passing of this Act for the Redemption of Land Tax, and upon the Transfer or Payment of the Consideration for the same, the Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments comprised in such Contract shall be wholly freed and exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Assessments thereof, and from any yearly Term, Rent, or Rentcharge in respect of any Consideration for such Contract.

CAP. CXVIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Seventh Year of Her Majesty for the better Apprehension of certain Offenders. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Thirty-four, "for the better Apprehension of certain Offenders," it is provided, that it shall not be lawful for any Person to endorse his Name upon any such Warrant as therein mentioned, for the Purpose of authorizing the Apprehension of any Person under that Act, unless it shall appear upon the Face of the said Warrant that the Offence which the Person for whose Apprehension the said Warrant has been issued is charged to have committed is such that, if committed within that Part of Her Majesty's Dominions where the Warrant is so endorsed, it would have amounted in Law to a Treason, or some Felony such as the Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled have not Authority to try in England under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to define the Jurisdiction of Justices in General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or unless the Depositions appear sufficient to warrant the Committal of such Person for Trial: And whereas it is expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to Persons charged with any Felony:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the recited Enactment shall hereafter be read and construed as if the Words "such as the Justices of the Peace in General or Quarter Sessions assembled have not Authority to try in England under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to define the Jurisdiction of Justices in General and Quarter Sessions of the Peace," had been omitted therein.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 34.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 38.

Recited Act extended to all Felonies.

CAP. CXIX.

An Act for the Suppression of Betting Houses. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS a kind of Gaming has of late sprung up tending to the Injury and Demoralization of improvident Persons by the opening of Places called Betting Houses or Offices, and the receiving of Money in advance by the Owners or Occupiers of such Houses or Offices, or by other Persons acting on their Behalf, on their Promises to pay Money on Events of Horse Races and the like Contingencies:' For the Suppression thereof, be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

No House, &c. to be kept for Purpose of Owner or Occupier betting with other Persons.

I. No House, Office, Room, or other Place shall be opened, kept, or used for the Purpose of the Owner, Occupier, or Keeper thereof, or any Person using the same, or any Person procured or employed by or acting for or on behalf of such Owner, Occupier, or Keeper, or Person using the same, or of any Person having the Care or Management or in any Manner conducting the Business thereof betting with Persons resorting thereto; or for the Purpose of any Money or valuable Thing being received by or on behalf of such Owner, Occupier, Keeper, or Person as aforesaid as or for the Consideration for any Assurance, Undertaking, Promise, or Agreement, express or implied, to pay or give thereafter any Money or valuable Thing on any Event or Contingency of or relating to any Horse Race, or other Race, Fight, Game, Sport, or Exercise, or as or for the Consideration for securing the paying or giving by some other Person of any Money or valuable Thing on any such Event or Contingency as aforesaid; and every every House, Office, Room, or other Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, is hereby declared to be a common Nuisance and contrary to Law.

Betting Houses to be Gaming Houses within 8 & 9 Vict. c. 109.

II. Every House, Room, Office, or Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, shall be taken and deemed to be a common Gaming House within the Meaning of an Act of the Session holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and nine, "to amend the Law concerning Games and Wagers."

Penalty on Owner or Occupier of Betting House.

III. Any Person who being the Owner or Occupier of any House, Office, Room, or other Place, or a Person using the same, shall open, keep, or use the same for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, or either of them; and any Person who being the Owner or Occupier of any House, Room, Office, or other Place shall knowingly and wilfully permit the same to be opened, kept, or used by any other Person for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them; and any Person having the Care or Management of or in any Manner assisting in conducting the Business of any House, Office, Room, or Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them, shall, on summary Conviction thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, be liable to forfeit and pay such Penalty, not exceeding One hundred Pounds, as shall be adjudged by such Justices, and may be further adjudged by such Justices to pay such Costs attending such Conviction as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable; and on the Nonpayment of such Penalty and Costs, or in the first instance, if to the said Justices it shall seem fit, may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Six Calendar Months.

Penalty on Persons receiving Money on condition of paying Money on Event of any Bet.

IV. Any Person, being the Owner or Occupier of any House, Office, Room, or Place opened, kept, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, or either of them, or any Person acting for or on behalf of any such Owner or Occupier, or any Person having the Care or Management or in any Manner assisting in conducting the Business thereof, who shall receive, directly or indirectly, any Money or valuable Thing as a Deposit on any Bet on condition of paying any Sum of Money or other valuable Thing on the happening of any Event or Contingency of or relating to a Horse Race or any other Race, or any Fight, Game, Sport, or Exercise, or as or for the Consideration for any Assurance, Undertaking, Promise, or Agreement, express or implied, to pay or give thereafter any Money or valuable Thing on any such Event or Contingency, and any Person giving any Acknowledgment, Note, Security, or Draft on the Receipt of any Money or valuable Thing so paid or given as aforesaid purporting or intended to entitle the Bearer or any other Person to receive any Money or valuable Thing on the happening of any such Event or Contingency as aforesaid, shall, upon summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay such Penalty, not exceeding Fifty Pounds, as shall be adjudged by such Justices, and may be further adjudged by such Justices to pay such Costs attending such Conviction as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable; and on the Nonpayment of such Penalty and Costs, or in the first instance if to such Justices it shall seem fit, may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Calendar Months.

Money so received may be recovered from Persons receiving the same.

V. Any Money or valuable Thing received by any such Person aforesaid as a Deposit on any Bet, or as or for the Consideration for any such Assurance, Undertaking, Promise, or Agreement as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been received to or for the Use of the Person from whom the same was received, and such Money or valuable Thing, or the Value thereof, may be recovered accordingly, with full Costs of Suit, in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

This Act not to extend to Stakes due to Owners winning a Race.

VI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any Person receiving or holding any Money or valuable Thing by way of Stakes or Deposit to be paid to the Winner of any Race, or lawful Sport, Game, or Exercise, or to the Owner of any Horse engaged in any Race.

Penalty on Persons exhibiting Placards or advertising Betting Houses.

VII. Any Person exhibiting or publishing or causing to be exhibited or published any Placard, Handbill, Card, Writing, Sign, or Advertisement whereby it shall be made to appear that any House, Office, Room, or Place is opened, kept, or used for the Purpose of making Bets or Wagers, in manner aforesaid, or for the Purpose of exhibiting Lists for betting, or with Intent to induce any Person to resort to such House, Office, Room, or Place for the Purpose of making Bets or Wagers, in manner aforesaid, or any Person who, on behalf of the Owner or Occupier of any such House, Office, Room, or Place, or Person using the same, shall invite other Persons to resort thereto for the Purpose of making Bets or Wagers, in manner aforesaid, shall, upon summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds, and may be further adjudged by such Justices to pay such Costs attending such Conviction as to the said Justices shall seem reasonable; and on the Nonpayment of such Penalty and Costs, or in the first instance if to such Justices it shall seem fit, may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months.

Penalties and Costs may be levied by Distress.

VIII. If any Person convicted under this Act on Information before Justices shall be adjudged to pay any Penalty, or any Costs and Charges attending the Conviction, and shall fail to pay such Penalty or Costs, the same may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of One of the convicting Justices: Provided always, that if any Person shall be committed to Prison for default of Payment of any Penalty and Costs, then the Costs alone may be levied by Distress as aforesaid.

Application of Penalties.

IX. One Half of every pecuniary Penalty which shall be adjudged to be paid under this Act shall be paid to the Informer, and the remaining Half shall be applied in aid of the Poor Rate of the Parish in which the Offence shall have been committed, and shall be paid for that Purpose to the Overseer or other Person authorized to receive Poor Rates in such Parish, or if the Place wherein the Offence shall have been been committed shall be extra-parochial, then the Justices by whom such Penalty shall be adjudged to be paid shall direct such remaining Half thereof to be applied in aid of the Poor Rate of such extra-parochial Place, or, if there shall not be any Poor Rate therein, in aid of the Poor Rate of any adjoining Parish or District.

On Neglect to prosecute any Summons Justices may authorize some other Person to proceed.

X. In case any Person who shall have laid any Complaint or Information in respect of any Offence against this Act shall not appear at the Time at which the Defendant may have been summoned to appear, or at any Time to which the Hearing of the Summons may have been adjourned, or, in the Opinion of any Justices having Authority to adjudicate with respect to the Offence charged in such Information or Complaint as aforesaid, shall otherwise have neglected to proceed upon or prosecute such Information or Complaint with due Diligence, it shall be lawful for such Justices to authorize any other Person to proceed on such Summons instead of the Person to whom the same may have been granted, or, if such Justices think fit, to dismiss the Summons already granted, and authorize any Person to take out a fresh Summons in respect of the Offence charged in such Information or Complaint, in like Manner as if the previous Summons had not been granted.

Justices may authorize Search of suspected Houses.

XI. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon Complaint made before him on Oath that there is reason to suspect any House, Office, Room, or Place to be kept or used as a Betting House or Office, contrary to this Act, to give Authority by special Warrant under his Hand, when in his Discretion he shall think fit, to any Constable or Police Officer, to enter, with such Assistance as may be found necessary, into such House, Office, Room, or Place, and, if necessary, to use Force for making such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to arrest, search, and bring before a Justice of the Peace all such Persons found therein, and to seize all Lists, Cards, or other Documents relating to racing or betting found in such House or Premises; and any such Warrant may be according to the Form given in the First Schedule annexed to the before-mentioned Act "to amend the Law concerning "Games and Wagers."

Commissioner of Police may authorize Superintendent of Police to enter and search suspected Houses.

XII. If any Superintendent belonging to the Metropolitan Police Force shall report in Writing to the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis that there are good grounds for believing and that he does believe that any House, Office, Room, or Place within the Metropolitan Police District is kept or used as a Betting House or Office, contrary to this Act, it shall be lawful for either of the said Commissioners by Order in Writing to authorize the Superintendent to enter any such House, Office, Room, or Place, with such Constables as shall be directed by the Commissioner to accompany him, and, if necessary, to use Force for the Purpose of effecting such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and to take into Custody all Persons who shall be found therein, and to seize all Lists, Cards, or other Documents relating to racing or betting found in such House or Premises.

Appeal to Quarter Sessions.

XIII. Any Person who shall be summarily convicted under this Act may appeal to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, provided that such Person at the Time of the Conviction give Notice of his Intention to appeal, and shall at the Time of such Conviction, or within Forty-eight Hours thereafter, enter into a Recognizance with Two sufficient Securities conditioned personally to appear at the said Session to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Court at such Session, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the last-mentioned Court awarded; and it shall be lawful for the Magistrate or Justices by whom such Conviction shall have been made to bind over any Party who shall have made Information against the Party convicted, and any Witnesses who shall have been examined, in sufficient Recognizances to attend and be examined at the hearing of such Appeal; and every such Witness, on producing a Certificate of being so bound under the Hand of the said Magistrate or Justices, shall be allowed Compensation for his or her Time, Trouble, and Expenses in attending the Appeal, which Compensation shall be paid in the first instance by the Treasurer of the County or Place in like Manner as in Cases of Misdemeanor under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in England; and in case any such Appeal shall be dismissed and the Order or Conviction affirmed, the reasonable Expenses of all such Witnesses attending as aforesaid, to be ascertained by the Court, shall be repaid to the said Treasurer by the Appellant.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 28.

No Objection in Matter of Form, and Certiorari taken away.

XIV. On any such Appeal no Objection shall be allowed to the Information whereon the Conviction has taken place, or to such Conviction, on any Matter of Form or on any Insufficiency of Statement, provided it shall appear to the Justices in Quarter Sessions that the Defendant has been sufficiently informed of the Charge intended to be made against him, and that such Conviction was proper on the Merits of the Case; and no Information, Conviction, or Judgment of the Justices in General or Quarter Sessions shall be removed by Certiorari into the Court of Queen's Bench.

Distress not unlawful for Want of Form.

XV. When any Distress shall be made for any Money to be levied by virtue of the Warrant of any Justice under this Act, the Distress shall not be deemed unlawful, nor shall any Party making the same be deemed a Trespasser, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Information, Summons, Warrant of Apprehension, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such Party be deemed a Trespasser from the Beginning on account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by him, but all Persons aggrieved by such Defect or Irregularity may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage by an Action on the Case in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record.

Tender of Amends, &c.

XVI. No Plaintiff shall recover in any Action for any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding made or committed in the Execution of this Act, or in, under, or by virtue of any Authority hereby hereby given, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on behalf of the Party who shall have committed such Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding before such Action brought, and in case no Tender shall have been made it shall be lawful for the Defendant in any such Action, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall depend, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall think fit, whereupon such Proceeding, Order, and Adjudication shall be had and made in and by such Court as in other Actions where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Limitation of Actions.

XVII. No Action, Suit, or Information, or any other Proceeding, of what Nature soever, shall be brought against any Person for anything done or omitted to be done in pursuance of this Act, or in the Execution of the Authorities under this Act, unless Notice in Writing shall be given by the Party intending to prosecute such Suit, Information, or other Proceeding to the intended Defendant One Calendar Month at least before prosecuting the same, nor unless such Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding shall be brought or commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Act or Omission complained of, or in case there shall be a Continuation of Damage then within Three Calendar Months next after the doing such Damage shall have ceased.

Interpretation of Terms.

XVIII. In Ireland the Term "Metropolitan Police Force," and the Terms "Commissioners of the Police of the Metropolis," and the Terms "Metropolitan Police District" shall mean and include respectively the Dublin Metropolitan Police Force, the Commissioners of Police of Dublin Metropolis, and the Police District of Dublin Metropolis.

Commencement of Act.

XIX. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Not to extend to Scotland.

XX. This Act shall not extend to Scotland.

CAP. CXXI.

An Act for providing Places of Confinement in England or Wales for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by Section Ten of an Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-four, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty from Time to Time, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Places of Confinement within England or Wales, either at Land, or on board Vessels to be provided by His Majesty in the River Thames or some other River or within the Limits of some Port or Harbour of England or Wales, for the Confinement of Male Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, which should be under the Management of a Superintendent and Overseer to be appointed by His Majesty; and that it should be lawful for One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to direct the Removal of any Male Offender who should be under Sentence of Death, but who should be reprieved, or whose Sentence should be respited during His Majesty's Pleasure, or who should be under Sentence or Order of Transportation, to any of the Places of Confinement so appointed; and by the said Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty to appoint a Superintendent of the said Places of Confinement, and, in case it should be deemed expedient, also an Assistant or Deputy to such Superintendent, at One or more of the said Places of Confinement, and also an Overseer of each such Place of Confinement: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-six, it was enacted, that upon the next Vacancy in the Office of Superintendent of Convicts in England under Sentence or Order of Transportation, so much of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth as provides for the Appointment of such Superintendent by Her Majesty, or any Overseer or Assistant or Deputy to such Superintendent, should be repealed, and that all Male Offenders in England under Sentence or Order of Transportation should be thenceforth in the Custody and Management of such Person or Persons as should be for that Purpose appointed by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, not altered by the Act now in recital, with respect to the Superintendent and Overseer having Custody of any Offenders under the said Act, should apply to the Persons severally having the Custody and Management of such Offenders under the said Act now in recital: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-nine, all such of the Powers and Duties theretofore vested in and to be performed by the said Superintendent of Convicts as by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty were transferred to the Person or Persons having the Custody and Management of such Offenders as aforesaid under that Act, were by the Act now in recital transferred to the Directors of Convict Prisons to be appointed thereunder, and all or any of the Powers and Duties of the said Superintendent of Convicts thereby transferred to the said Directors were thereby authorized to be exercised and performed by any One of such Directors: And whereas it is expedient that Places of Confinement should be appointed in England or Wales for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows;

5 G. 4. c. 84.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 26.

13 & 14 Vict c. 39.

Provisions for and concerning Appointment of Places of Confinement in England for Male Convicts under Sentence or Order of Transportation extended to Females.

I. All the Powers and Provisions contained in Section Ten of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, authorizing the Appointment by Her Majesty from Time to Time of Places of Confinement as therein mentioned for Male Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and concerning the Removal to or from and Confinement in such Places of Confinement of Male Offenders in the Cases therein mentioned, shall extend and be applicable to and for the Appointment by Her Majesty of like Places of Confinement for Female Offenders under Sentence or Order of Transportation, and the Removal to or from and Confinement in such Places of Female Offenders in the like Cases; and all the Provisions now in force of the Acts herein recited, and of any other Act, concerning or relating to the Regulation and Government of the Places of Confinement appointed under the Authority contained in Section Ten of the said Act of the Fifth Year of King George the Fourth, and the Custody, Treatment, Management, and Control of or otherwise in relation to the Offenders confined therein, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of the Places of Confinement appointed under this Act, and the Female Offenders to be confined therein.

CAP. CXXII.

An Act to render valid certain Marriages in the Church of the Holy Trinity in the Township of Hulme and Parish of Manchester in the County of Lancaster. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS the Church of the Holy Trinity in the Township of Hulme and Parish of Manchester in the County of Lancaster was erected and built some time in or about the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-three, and was duly consecrated for the Performance of Divine Service therein: And whereas under and in pursuance of the Powers given by the Act passed in the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for Marriages in England, the Lord Bishop of Manchester has, by a Licence under his Hand and Seal bearing Date the Twenty-eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, authorized the Solemnization of Marriages in the said Church: And whereas before the Date of the said Licence divers Marriages had been solemnized in the said Church by the Minister thereof and by other Clergymen, under the Opinion that according to the Terms of the Sentence of Consecration of the said Church, or otherwise, Marriages might be lawfully solemnized therein, and Entries of the said Marriages so solemnized had been from Time to Time made in Register Books kept at the said Church, in compliance with the Provisions concerning Registry of Marriages: And whereas it is expedient to remove all Doubts arising from the Circumstances aforesaid touching the Validity of the Marriages so as aforesaid solemnized in the said Church:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That—

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 85.

Marriages solemnized in Holy Trinity Church, Hulme, declared valid.

I. All Marriages heretofore solemnized in the said Church and the Publication of Banns in such Church previous to any such Marriage, shall be and be deemed to have been as good, valid, and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if such Marriages had been solemnized and such Publication of Banns had taken place in the Collegiate or Cathedral and Parish Church of Manchester.

Ministers having solemnized Marriages indemnified.

II. No Minister who has solemnized any of the said Marriages shall be liable to any Ecclesiastical Censures, or to any other Proceedings or Penalties whatsoever, by reason of his having so as aforesaid solemnized the same respectively.

Registers to be Evidence.

III. The Registers of the Marriages so solemnized as aforesaid, or Copies of such Registers, shall be received in all Courts of Law and Equity as Evidence of such Marriages respectively, in the same Manner as Registers of Marriages in Parish Churches, or Copies thereof, are by Law receivable in Evidence.

CAP. CXXIII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Investments of Friendly Societies. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by the Acts now in force relating to Friendly Societies such Societies are authorized and required to invest their Funds in the Manner and upon the Securities mentioned in the said Acts: And whereas it is expedient to grant other Facilities for investing their Funds to such Societies:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Friendly Societies may invest their Funds otherwise than as required by 13 & 14 Vict. c. 115.

I. Any Friendly Society duly established under any Act of Parliament, and which is empowered by its Rules to assure to or on the Death of any Person a Sum exceeding Two hundred Pounds, or to grant an Annuity on any Life exceeding Thirty Pounds per Annum, may invest the Funds of such Society after the passing of this Act, not only in the Manner and upon the Securities mentioned in the Twelfth Section of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, but also upon the Security of any Rates, Tolls, Duties, Assessments, Bonds, Debentures, or other Securities of any Body or Company incorporated by Act of Parliament or Charter which such Body or Company is authorized by such Act or Charter to raise, levy, or mortgage, or on the Security of any Policy or Policies of Assurance effected upon a Life or Lives of adequate Value.

Societies not to invest under this Act and with National Debt Commissioners.

II. If any such Society shall invest any Portion of its Funds which may now by Law be invested with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in any of the Securities enumerated in this Act, it shall not be lawful for such Society to invest thereafter any further Portion of the Funds of such Society with the said Commissioners.

If Societies have no Account with said Commissioners, none to be opened.

III. No such Friendly Society which previously to the passing of this Act has not opened an Account with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall be allowed, after the passing of this Act, to invest its Funds or any Part thereof with the said Commissioners.

CAP. CXXIV.

An Act to continue Appointments under the Act for consolidating the Copyhold and Inclosure Commissions, and for completing Proceedings under the Tithe Commutation Acts.

[20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS under an Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Fifty-three), "to consolidate and continue the Copyhold and Inclosure Commissions, and to provide for the Completion of Proceedings under the Tithe Commutation Acts," certain Powers of appointing Commissioners and other Officers as therein mentioned are limited to continue for Two Years next after the Day of the passing of that Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no Commissioner or other Officer or Person appointed or continued under that Act is to hold his Office for a longer Period than Two Years next after the Day of the passing of that Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the Powers of the said Act should be continued as herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: The Powers of appointing Commissioners and other Officers limited to continue as aforesaid by the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty shall be further continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and the Period limited for the holding of Office under the said Act shall in like Manner be extended until the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 53.

Powers of Appointment of Commissioners, &c. under 14 & 15 Vict. c. 53. continued for One Year.

CAP. CXXV.

An Act to continue and amend the Metropolitan Sewers Acts. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, "to consolidate and continue in force for Two Years, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Metropolitan Commissions of Sewers," and such Act has been amended by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-three, and has been further amended and has been continued by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-five, and an Act of the last Session, Chapter Sixty-four, and now stands continued until the Seventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three: And whereas it is expedient to continue the said Acts for such Period as herein mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

11 & 12 Vict. c. 112. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 93. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 75. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 64.

I. The said first-mentioned Act as amended by the other Acts herein-before mentioned shall continue in force until the Seventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in like Manner as if the Time so limited had been the Time originally limited by the said firstly-mentioned Act for the Continuance thereof.

Metropolitan Sewers Acts continued till 7th August 1854.

II. 'And whereas by the said first-recited Act it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the Purpose of defraying any Expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the Execution of the said Act, to borrow and take up at Interest, on the Credit of all or any of the Rates authorized to be made or collected under the said Act, any Sums of Money necessary for defraying such Expenses, and for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of any Sums so borrowed, together with such Interest as therein-before mentioned, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over to the Persons by or on behalf of whom such Sums shall be advanced, the respective Rates upon the Credit of which such Sums shall be borrowed; and by the said secondly-recited Act the said Commissioners may, for raising Money for the Purposes of the said Acts, grant Annuities for Lives or Years, to be paid out of the said Rates: And whereas the Commissioners have, in pursuance of the Powers vested in them by and under the said herein-before recited Acts, borrowed, on the Security of the said Rates, Sums amounting in the whole to the Sum of Thirty-eight thousand eight hundred Pounds, which Sums have been appropriated for the Purposes of the said Acts, and are still due and owing; and there is now due and owing by the said Commissioners, in respect of certain Securities made and entered into before the issuing of the First Commission under the said first-recited Act, the Sum of Sixty thousand eight hundred and thirteen Pounds One Shilling and Fourpence, making together the Sum of Ninety-nine thousand six hundred and thirteen Pounds One Shilling and Fourpence: And whereas it is expedient that the Amount of the Money borrowed, raised, and taken up, and to be borrowed, raised, and taken up on the Security of the Rates by the said recited Acts and this Act authorized to be made, and of the Money so due and owing in respect of the said Securities, should be limited:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Sum of Three hundred thousand Pounds, including therein the said Sum of Ninety-nine thousand six hundred and thirteen Pounds One Shilling and Fourpence so due and owing by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, shall be the Limit and Extent of the Debt due and owing on the Security of the said Rates at any One and the same Period of Time: Provided always, that in case the whole or any Part of the said Debt shall at any Power to borrow.

Time be called in or required to be paid off and discharged, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time to borrow and take up, on the Security of the said Rates, any Sum or Sums in lieu of so much of the said Debt as shall have been so called in or required to be paid off and discharged; but so that, after Payment or Satisfaction of the Money so called in or required to be paid off and discharged, the said Limit of Three hundred thousand Pounds shall not be exceeded; and in estimating the Amount of Money at any Time due and owing upon the Security of the said Rates, the Amount due in respect of every Annuity granted by the said Commissioners, and then subsisting, shall be reckoned at the just Value of such Annuity, according to the Number of Years then remaining unexpired of the Term for which, or (as the Case may be), the increased Age of the Person upon whose Life the same shall have been granted.

Persons lending Money.

III. No Person lending Money to the Commissioners shall be bound to see or obliged to inquire whether the Money so lent is required for the Purposes of the said recited Acts or this Act, nor to see to the Application of the Money so lent, but the Order of the Commissioners for borrowing such Money, and the Entry upon the Register of the Mortgage or Annuity which shall or may have been granted for securing the Payment thereof, shall be binding and conclusive upon all Parties.

Securities to continue valid.

IV. Notwithstanding any Act shall not pass for the Renewal or Continuance of the said Acts, and this Act, or in case a Commission or Commissions of Sewers for the Limits aforesaid shall not be issued, all Mortgages and Annuities which shall or may have been granted under the Authority of the said Acts or this Act, and which shall for the Time being be existing and unredeemed, shall be and continue valid and in full force, and shall be and continue charged on the Districts upon which the same were originally charged; and the Justices of the Peace for the several Counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Essex, in Quarter Sessions assembled, shall as to the Parts within the Limits of the Commission or Commissions aforesaid subject to their respective Jurisdictions, make, collect, demand, and levy, and exercise all and every the Powers and Authorities for and with reference to the making, demanding, collecting, and levying all and every such Rate and Rates, for the Payment of the Principal Money borrowed under the Authority of the said Acts and this Act, and Interest thereof, and the borrowing of Money to pay off Mortgages and Annuities, as the said Commissioners might or could do or have done in case such Commission were then in existence and the said recited Acts had been renewed or continued.

Saving as to certain Provisions of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 93.

V. Provided always, That this Act shall not be taken to abridge the Continuance of so much of the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty as will not expire on or before the said Seventh Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

CAP. CXXVI.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders of the General Board of Health for Accrington, Bangor, and Uxbridge, and to provide for conducting the First Election of a Local Board of Health at Elland. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS the General Board of Health have, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, made, published, and deposited, according to the Provisions of that Act, certain Provisional Orders contained in the Schedule annexed; and it is expedient that the said Orders should be confirmed: And whereas a Provisional Order applying the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Elland was duly confirmed by "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1853 (No. 1.)" in which Order David Meredith, Clerk, and George Bayldon Baker were respectively named to conduct the First Election of a Local Board for the said District and discharge the other Duties pertaining to such Election: And whereas the said David Meredith has died before the Time appointed for such Election, and the said George Bayldon Baker has left the said District, so as to be unable to conduct the said Election and perform the said Duties, by reason of which no such Election has or could legally have taken place:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Persons to conduct First Election of the Local Board of Health for Elland.

I. The Reverend Edward Sandford of Elland shall be substituted for David Meredith, Clerk, and Charles Musgrave Norris Esquire, of Elland aforesaid, for George Bayldon Baker, to conduct the First Election of the Local Board for the District of Elland, and to perform all Duties appertaining thereto, under the Public Health Act, and the Day of such First Election shall be the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, anything in the "Public Health Supplemental Act, 1853 (No. 1.)" contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Provisional Order applying the said Public Health Act to the said District shall be construed as if the Names of the said Edward Sandford and Charles Musgrave Norris stood in the Place of those of the said David Meredith and the said George Bayldon Baker respectively, in the Provisional Order herein-before recited.

Certain Provisional Orders of the General Board of Health confirmed.

II. The Provisional Orders of the General Board of Health contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall from and after the passing of this Act, so far as they are authorized by the Public Health Act, (except as to the Words in the Section, Number 2, in the Provisional Order in the said Schedule applying the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Bangor, "That from and after the Day "appointed by the Act of Parliament confirming this present Order for the First Election of the Local "Board of Health for the District hereby constituted," which Words shall be omitted from the said Order,) be absolute and be as binding and of the like Force and Effect as if the Provisions of the same had been expressly enacted in this Act.

III. The

III. The First Election of the Local Board of Health for the District of Accrington in the County of Lancaster, for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, shall take place on the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three. First Election of Local Board for Accrington.

IV. The First Election of the Local Board of Health for the District of Uxbridge in the County of Middlesex, as constituted by the Provisional Order contained in the Schedule hereunto annexed, for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, shall take place on the Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three. First Election of Local Board for Uxbridge.

V. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with the Public Health Act, and shall be as if this Act and the Public Health Act were One Act. Act incorporated with Public Health Act.

VI. In citing this Act in any other Act of Parliament, or in any Proceeding, Instrument, or Document whatsoever, it shall be sufficient to use the Words and Figures "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1853 (No. 2.)" Short Title of Act.

SCHEDULE.

ACCRINGTON.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the District of Accrington in the County of Lancaster.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS, upon the Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Townships of Old and New Accrington in the County of Lancaster, (the Number of such Petitioners greatly exceeding Thirty in the whole,) the General Board of Health, appointed for the Purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the Provisions of that Act, directed Benjamin Herschell Babbage, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the same Act, to visit the said Townships, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses, as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Townships for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Townships, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing Municipal, Parochial, or other Local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the Act:

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the said several Matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of that Act:

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice stating that within the Time directed by the said Act written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act:

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Townships of Old and New Accrington might advantageously be included in One District, the said Board caused William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the aforesaid Act, to visit the Parts within the Boundaries so proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act, and to make further Inquiry and Report thereon according to the Provisions of that Act:

And whereas the said last-mentioned Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and Report according to the Directions of the said Board:

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice stating that within the Time directed by the said Act written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said further Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been required by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act:

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to a District comprising the Townships of Old and New Accrington, such Townships being the Parts within and with respect to which the said Inquiry and further Inquiry have been made:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order, under our Hands and Seal, order and direct:—

1. That from and after the Day fixed for the First Election and Selection of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order, the Public Health Act, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers,

Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area, Places, and Parts of Places comprised within the said Townships of Old and New Accrington in the County of Lancaster, and such Area, Places, and Parts of Places shall be and constitute a District, for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health, to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of Eighteen Persons, the whole of whom shall be elected for the whole of the said District.
3. That One Third of the said Members shall go out of Office on the 1st Day of September in each Year subsequently to that in which the First Election of the said Local Board shall take place.
4. That every Person shall, at the Time of his Election as Member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in Office by virtue of such Election, be resident as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seised and possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Value or Amount of not less than Five hundred Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of some Parish, Township, or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon the net annual Value of not less than Fifteen Pounds.
5. That at the First Election of Members of the said Local Board, Robert Hargreaves of Bank House, Accrington, shall have the Powers and perform the Duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to any Election by Owners of Property and Ratepayers, and shall perform all other Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said First Election; and in case the said Robert Hargreaves, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such Powers or Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then James Grimshaw, Plantation Mills, Accrington, shall exercise and perform such of the said Powers and Duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
6. That the Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle him to vote at the said First Election shall be given to the said Robert Hargreaves at the Court House, or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said James Grimshaw, at the Court House.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Twenty-third Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

(Signed) SHAFTESBURY.
(L.S.) EDWIN CHADWICK.

BANGOR.

Provisional Order for altering the Boundaries of the District of Bangor in the County of Carnarvon, as constituted for the Purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS by Order of Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, bearing date the 14th Day of August 1850, and made under the Provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848, the said Public Health Act has been duly applied to the Parliamentary Borough of Bangor in the County of Carnarvon, and within the Boundaries of the same Borough, as fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to settle and describe the Divisions of Counties and the Limits of Cities and Boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the Election of Members to serve in Parliament:"

And whereas it appears to the General Board of Health appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, that the Boundaries of the said District, as determined by the said Order, should be altered and amended in the Manner prescribed by the said Act:

And whereas the said General Board have, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, directed Thomas Webster Rammell, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said District, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Boundaries, not being the Boundaries of the said Borough so fixed as aforesaid, which might most advantageously be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act:

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said further Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the said Matter with respect to which he was directed to inquire:

And whereas Copies of the Report on such further Inquiry, accompanied by a Notice stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act:

And whereas the Alteration of the Boundaries of the said District cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said General Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, order and direct as follows; that is to say:—

That

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order—

1. The Boundary of the said District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act shall be the Boundary described in the Schedule to this Order, and marked by the dotted Lines referred to as the "Existing Boundary of Borough," and "Proposed Extended Boundary" in the Plan appended to and forming Part of the Report of the said Superintending Inspector on such further Inquiry as aforesaid.
2. That from and after the Day appointed by the Act of Parliament confirming this present Order for the First Election of the Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area comprised within the Boundary aforesaid; and that the Parts within the said Boundary shall be and constitute a District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly, under the Name of the "Bangor District."
3. The present Local Board of Health for the Time being for the District of Bangor, as originally constituted by the herein-before recited Order in Council, shall, from and after the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, be the Local Board of Health for the District constituted by this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same.
4. At every Election of Members of the said Local Board which shall take place after the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the Members to be elected shall be elected for the whole of the District constituted by this Order, and by the Votes of Owners of and Ratepayers in respect of Property situate within the said District; and any Person residing in the said District, or within Seven Miles thereof, may be elected a Member of the said Local Board; but the Number and Qualification of such Members, and the Day of such Election, shall remain as fixed by the herein-before recited Order in Council, bearing Date the 14th Day of August 1850.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The Boundary of the District of the Local Board of Health of Bangor, constituted by the preceding Order, commences at the extreme North-western Point of the present District, being on the Sea Shore at or near Low-water Mark, and thence the Line runs Westward along the Sea Shore as far as the Old Bangor Ferry Road; thence in a South-eastern Direction along the Left-hand Side of that Road, as far as Penychwintan; thence along the Left-hand Side of the Road, passing by the Glanadda Brewery to the Junction of that Road with the Turnpike Road leading from Bangor to Carnarvon; thence across such Turnpike Road, and along the Left-hand Side of the Road leading to Pentir, as far as the Cross Road at Minffordd; thence along the Left-hand Side of such Cross Road to the Road leading from Bangor to Glasynfryn; thence Southward along the Left-hand Side of that Road as far as the nearest Road leading down to the River Cegin; thence along the Left-hand Side of that Road, and across the River Cegin; thence Northward, along the Right Bank of the River Cegin, as far as the Intersection by that River of the present Boundary; and thence towards the Sea Shore along the present Boundary to the first-mentioned Point.

UXBRIDGE.

Provisional Order for altering the Boundaries of the District of Uxbridge in the County of Middlesex, as constituted for the Purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS by a Provisional Order of the General Board of Health, bearing Date the 23d Day of July 1849, made under the Provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848, and confirmed by the Public Health Supplemental Act, 1849, the said Public Health Act has been duly applied to the District of Uxbridge in the County of Middlesex:

And whereas it appears to the General Board of Health appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, that the Boundaries of the said District, as determined by the said Order, should be altered and amended in the Manner prescribed by the said Act:

And whereas the said General Board have, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said District, and to make further public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses, as to the altered Boundaries which might most advantageously be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act:

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said further Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the said Matter with respect to which he was directed to inquire:

And whereas Copies of the Report on such further Inquiry, accompanied by a Notice stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted

omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act:

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the Boundaries of the said District should be altered, as recommended by the said Superintending Inspector, but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said General Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, order and direct as follows; that is to say:

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order—

1. The Boundary of the said District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act shall be the Boundary described in the Schedule to this Order.
2. That from and after the Day appointed by the Act of Parliament confirming this present Order for the First Election of the Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every Part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire Area comprised within the Boundary aforesaid; and that the Parts within the said Boundary shall be and constitute a District for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly, under the Name of the "Uxbridge District;" and the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order shall be and the same is hereby declared to be void and of none Effect, except as to the Re-enactment of any Part of any Local Act repealed by such Order, but that for Purposes of such Repeal the said Order shall continue effectual.
3. That from and after the Day fixed for the First Election of a Local Board of Health for the District hereby constituted by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the existing Local Board of Health for the District of Uxbridge, as constituted by the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, shall be dissolved, and the Powers, Authorities, and Duties of the Members of the said Board shall wholly cease and determine; and those of their Treasurer, Clerk, Surveyor, Inspector of Nuisances, Collector, or other Officers shall cease and determine from any Time appointed by the Local Board to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same.
4. That the Local Board of Health for the District to be constituted by this Order, and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, shall consist of Eighteen Persons, to be elected for the whole of the said District by the Owners of and Ratepayers in respect of Property within the said District.
5. That every One of the Eighteen Persons so to be elected as last aforesaid shall at the Time of such Election, and so long as he shall continue in Office by virtue of such Election, be resident as in the Public Health Act is required, and be seised or possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Value or Amount of not less than Five hundred Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of some Parish, Township, or Place, of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Thirty Pounds.
6. That One Third of the Members of the said Local Board shall go out of Office on the Day after the Expiration of a Year from the Day fixed by the Act of Parliament confirming this Order for the First Election of a Local Board for the District hereby constituted, and so on yearly; but in case the Day so appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a Day appointed for a public Fast or Thanksgiving, then such One Third shall go out of Office on the Day next following.
7. That at the First Election of the Members of the said Local Board Thomas Hurry Riches of Uxbridge shall have the Powers and perform the Duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the said Public Health Act, in relation to the Election by Owners of Property and Ratepayers, and shall perform all other Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said First Election; and in case the said Thomas Hurry Riches, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such Powers or Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Charles Woodbridge of Uxbridge shall exercise and perform such of the said Powers and Duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
8. That the Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election, shall be given to the said Thomas Hurry Riches, at the Office of the present Local Board of Health at Uxbridge; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Charles Woodbridge at the same Place.
9. That from and after the Day fixed for the First Election of a Local Board for the District hereby constituted by the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all Lands, Buildings, Works, Rates, Tolls, Duties, and Hereditaments, Utensils, Materials, Books, Plans, Maps, Deeds, Effects, Contracts, Papers, Monies, and Securities for Money, and all other Property and Estate whatsoever, belonging to or vested in the Local Board of Health elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, shall be transferred to, vested in, belong to, and be recovered by the Local Board of Health to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, as fully as the same would or could have belonged to, been vested in, or recovered by the the firstly herein-before mentioned Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, be held by the Local Board of Health to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, upon the same Trusts, and for the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes as the same were or would be held by the said firstly herein-before mentioned Local Board.

10. That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all Bonds, Mortgages, Annuities, Contracts, Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, made, given, contracted, or payable by the Local Board of Health elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, shall be paid and satisfied by the Local Board to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would or ought to have been charged or chargeable in respect of the same, if this Order had not been made; and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, have the same Priority, and be paid and satisfied within the same Times, and be recovered from the said last-mentioned Local Board as the same might have been recovered from the firstly herein-before mentioned Local Board.

11. Provided always, that this Order shall not annul, defeat, lessen, or otherwise prejudicially affect any Rate, Assessment, Imposition, Composition, Charge, Purchase, Sale, Conveyance, Grant, Demise, Lease, Mortgage, Annuity, Assignment, Bond, Contract, Covenant, Agreement, Security, Matter, or Thing whatsoever before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order made, entered into, or done under or by virtue or in pursuance of the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, or with reference to the Purposes of the same; but, notwithstanding this Order, all such Acts, Deeds, Matters, and Things shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, for, against, and with reference to the Local Board of Health to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, as if the same had been made, entered into, or done by, to, or with reference to that Board instead of the Members of the Local Board elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, and may be proceeded on and enforced in the same Manner in all respects as if the Local Board to be elected under this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same, instead of the Local Board elected under the firstly herein-before mentioned Provisional Order, had been party or privy to the same, and had been named or referred to therein.

Given under our Hands and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

CAP. CXXVII.

An Act to reduce the Duties payable in respect of Hackney Carriages used in the Metropolis, and to amend the Laws relating to the granting of Licences and Payment of Duties in respect of Metropolitan Stage and Hackney Carriages, and to make Provision as to the Charge for the Hire of Hackney Carriages in certain Cases. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce the Duties now payable in respect of Hackney Carriages used in the Metropolis:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Repeal of Duties in respect of Hackney Carriages in the Metropolis.

I. From and after the respective Times herein-after appointed in that Behalf the Duties granted and now payable under the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two; (that is to say,) for and upon every Licence to keep, use, employ, and let to hire any Hackney Carriage within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London the Duty of Five Pounds, and for and in respect of every such Licence as aforesaid weekly and every Week during the Continuance thereof the Sum of Ten Shillings, shall respectively cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed; save and except as to any of the said Duties which shall have been charged or incurred on or before the said respective Times, and any Arrear thereof, and as to all Fines and Penalties incurred or which may be incurred in respect of the said Duties or Arrears or in relation thereto; all which said Duties and Arrears, Fines and Penalties, so excepted as aforesaid, shall respectively be sued for and recovered, levied, paid, and applied in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Grant of new Duties on Hackney Carriages in lieu of Duties repealed.

II. In lieu of the said Duties hereby repealed there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid, from and after the respective Times herein-after appointed in that Behalf, unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of every Hackney Carriage which shall be kept, used, or let to hire within the Limits of this Act as herein-after defined the several Duties following; (that is to say,)

	£	s.	d.
For and upon every Licence to be taken out yearly to keep, use, and let to hire any such Hackney Carriage	1	0	0
And for and in respect of every such Hackney Carriage as aforesaid, weekly and every Week, where the Licence for such Carriage shall authorize the using and letting to hire of the same on every Day of the Week, the Sum of — Weekly Duty.	0	7	0
And where such Licence shall authorize the using and letting to hire of such Carriage on every Day of the Week except Sunday, the Sum of	0	6	0

Commencement of Repeal and Grant of Duties.

III. The Repeal of the said several existing Duties, and the Grant in lieu thereof of the said several new Duties by this Act, shall respectively commence and take effect from and after the respective Times following; (that is to say,) as to the said several weekly Duties payable in respect of every such Hackney Carriage as aforesaid from and after the Tenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and as to the said Duty for and upon every such Licence as aforesaid from and after the passing of this Act.

Duties granted to be Duties of Excise under the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

IV. The said Duties by this Act granted shall be denominated and deemed to be Duties of Excise, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the Time being; and all Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties contained in or enacted by any Act or Acts in force for levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby repealed or any other Duties of Excise, or otherwise in relation thereto in all Cases not herein expressly provided for, and so far as the same are not superseded or expressly repealed by and are consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, shall be duly observed, applied, practised, and put in execution for the granting of Licences under this Act, and for charging, raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Directions, Fines, Forfeitures, feitures, and Penalties were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties hereby granted.

Licences granted under 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 22. to cease, and Hackney Carriages to be licensed under this Act.

V. From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three every Licence granted and in force under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-two, or any subsequent Act or Acts amending or altering the same, to keep, use, employ, and let to hire any Hackney Carriage at any Place within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, shall cease and determine; and no Hackney Carriage shall be kept, used, employed, or let to hire at any Place within the said Distance or within the Limits of this Act without a Licence authorizing the same granted under this Act.

Persons possessed of Licences in force to keep Hackney Carriages to have new Licences granted to them in exchange.

VI. Provided always, That every Person who shall be possessed of any Licence or Licences granted to him to keep, use, or let to hire any Hackney Carriage within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall be entitled, upon Production of the proper Certificate or Certificates required by Law in that Behalf, to have the same or any less Number of new Licences granted to him under this Act without Payment of the Duty by this Act imposed on every such Licence, provided he shall produce and deliver up to the proper Officers of Excise authorized to grant Licences under this Act the said Licence or Licences of which he shall be so possessed, together with the numbered Plate or Plates appertaining thereto, and shall apply for such new Licence or Licences within the Period of One Calendar Month next after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and such Person shall also be entitled, upon Production of such Certificate or Certificates as aforesaid, to have such Licence or Licences renewed under this Act without Payment of the said Duty imposed thereon until the First Monday in the Month of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

Commencement and Termination of Licences.

VII. Every Licence which shall be granted under this Act to keep, use, and let to hire any Hackney Carriage shall have effect and continue in force from the Day of the Date thereof until the Day hereinafter appointed for the Expiration thereof; and every such Licence which shall be granted before the Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall expire on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; and every such Licence which shall be granted upon or at any Time after the said Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four shall expire on the First Sunday in the Month of January in the Year next following that in which such Licence shall be granted; and every such Licence shall be renewed from Year to Year on Payment of the Duty by this Act chargeable thereon.

A proportionate Part only of the yearly Duty to be charged on Licences before 2d Jan. 1854.

VIII. Provided always, That for and upon every such Licence as aforesaid which shall be taken out after the passing of this Act, and before the Second Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, there shall be charged and paid in respect of the Portion of a Year for which the same will be granted One Fourth Part only of the annual Duty by this Act charged on a yearly Licence.

Renewal of Licences.

IX. Every Person who shall be desirous of renewing any such Licence shall give Notice in Writing Twenty-one Days at least before the Expiration of the current Licence to him granted of his Intention to renew the same to the proper Collector, Supervisor, or other Officer authorized to grant such Licences; and where such Notice shall have been given the new Licence shall bear Date on the Day next after the Day of the Expiration of the former Licence, but if such Notice shall not have been given the Licence shall bear Date on the Day of the Application for the same.

Numbered Plate to be delivered up on Expiration of Licences, or in default Duty to continue payable.

X. Provided always, That whenever any Licence granted under this Act shall cease or expire or be discontinued, the Person to whom such Licence shall have been granted shall, within Three Days next after the Expiration or Discontinuance thereof, deliver up to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or to the proper Officers or One of them, by whom such Licence was granted, the numbered Plate mentioned in such Licence, or in default thereof such Person shall continue to be subject and liable to the Payment of the weekly Duty chargeable under this Act in respect of the Hackney Carriage mentioned in such Licence; and such Person shall be charged with the said Duty accordingly to the Time of delivering up the said Plate; and such Duty shall be recoverable by the same Ways and Means as if such Licence had continued in force.

Numbered Plates on Hackney Carriages not licensed to be used on Sundays to be distinguished from those on Carriages licensed to be used on every Day of the Week.

XI. The numbered Plates to be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be fixed on Hackney Carriages not authorized by Licence to be used or let to hire on Sundays, shall be distinguished in such Manner as the said Commissioners may think proper from the numbered Plates to be fixed on Hackney Carriages authorized by Licence to be used and let to hire on every Day of the Week; and if any Hackney Carriage which shall be authorized by Licence to be used or let to hire on every Day of the Week except Sunday shall be used or let to hire on any Sunday, or if any Hackney Carriage shall be used or let to hire on Sunday having fixed or placed thereon any such numbered Plate as aforesaid provided for any Hackney Carriage not authorized to be used or let to hire on Sunday, every such Hackney Carriage shall be deemed to be used and let to hire without a Licence in that Behalf; and the Owner of such Hackney Carriage, if there shall be no such Plate as aforesaid fixed or placed thereon, or the Person to whom such Plate (if any be fixed or placed thereon) shall have been delivered, with any Licence relating thereto, shall be deemed to be the Person using and letting to hire such Hackney Carriage without having a Licence in force so to do, and shall incur and be liable to the Penalty imposed by Law in that Behalf.

1 & 2 W. 4. c. 22. 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 120.

XII. 'And whereas, under and by virtue of the Laws in force, Licences for or in respect of Hackney 'Carriages and for or in respect of certain Stage Carriages are required to be granted at the Chief 'Office of Inland Revenue, and the Duties payable in respect of such Hackney Carriages and Stage

'Carriages respectively are required to be paid at the said Chief Office, and it is expedient to make 'other Provision in that Behalf:'

Where Licences for Hackney and Metropolitan Stage Carriages are to be granted and the Duties paid.

It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from Time to Time to order and direct that all or any of such Licences as aforesaid shall be granted, and that the Duties payable in respect of all or any of such Hackney Carriages and Stage Carriages as aforesaid respectively shall be paid, at such Place or Places within the Limits of this Act as the said Commissioners shall deem to be most proper and convenient for the Purpose, anything in any former Act or Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

1s. a Mile to be paid for every Mile beyond the Circumference of a Circle 4 Miles from Charing Cross.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the Driver of any Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act to charge One Shilling per Mile for every Mile (or Part of a Mile) which he shall be required to drive beyond the Circumference of a Circle the Radius of which shall be Four Miles from Charing Cross, provided such Carriage shall be discharged beyond such Circumference, anything contained in the Thirty-third Chapter of an Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, or in the Schedule thereto, notwithstanding.

6d. in addition to Fare for each Person above Two for the whole Hiring.

XIV. Whenever more than Two Persons shall be conveyed by any Hackney Carriage drawn by One Horse only, a Sum of Sixpence for each Person above the Number of Two shall be paid for the whole Hiring in addition to the Fare now directed to be paid for Two Persons under the said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-three; and Two Children under Ten Years old shall be considered as One Adult Person for the Purposes of this Clause.

As to Hackney Carriage hired by Time.

XV. When any Hackney Carriage within the Limits of this Act hired for a Fare to be paid according to Time shall be hired or used by the Hirer thereof for any longer Time than One Hour, Sixpence shall be paid for every Fifteen Minutes, or any Portion of Fifteen Minutes not completed, above One Hour.

Proprietors of Hackney Carriages withdrawing Carriages from Hire beyond a certain Time liable to a Penalty.

XVI. The Proprietor of every Hackney Carriage or Metropolitan Stage Carriage licensed to ply for Hire within the Limits of this Act who shall withdraw his Carriage from Hire for Two consecutive Days, or for any Two Days in One Week, without just Cause, of which the Magistrate before whom the Complaint is heard shall be the Judge, shall be liable to a Penalty of a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings in respect of every Carriage for each Day he shall so withdraw the same, and the Licence of such Proprietor shall be suspended or recalled and taken away at the Discretion of the said Commissioners of Police: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Proprietor, upon giving Ten Days Notice to the Commissioners of Police, to withdraw his Carriage from Hire.

"The Limits of this Act" defined.

XVII. The Limits of this Act shall be deemed to be and to include every Part of the Metropolitan Police District and the City of London; and all Provisions of any former Act in force referring to Hackney Carriages licensed under the said Act of the First and Second Years of His late Majesty, or to Hackney Carriages kept, used, employed, or let to hire within the Distance of Five Miles from the General Post Office in the City of London, or to any Act, Matter, or Thing committed or done in relation to such Hackney Carriages within the said Distance, shall from and after the passing of this Act be deemed to refer and apply to Hackney Carriages licensed under this Act, or to Hackney Carriages kept, used, employed, or let to hire within the Limits of this Act, and to any Act, Matter, or Thing committed or done in relation to Hackney Carriages within the said Limits.

None but Officers of Inland Revenue or of the Metropolitan Police to prosecute before Justices for Penalties.

XVIII. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Person other than the Solicitor or some other Officer of Inland Revenue, or some Officer of the Metropolitan Police, to inform or prosecute before any Justice of the Peace for the Recovery of any Penalty imposed by or incurred under any Act or Acts now in force, or this Act, for or on account of the keeping, using, or letting to hire by any Person of any Hackney Carriage at any Place within the Limits of this Act without having a Licence in force so to do, or without having the proper numbered Plate properly placed and fixed upon such Hackney Carriage in the Manner required by Law.

CAP. CXXVIII.

An Act to abate the Nuisance arising from the Smoke of Furnaces in the Metropolis and from Steam Vessels above London Bridge. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to abate the Nuisance arising from the Smoke of Furnaces in the 'Metropolis and from Steam Vessels above London Bridge:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Furnaces in the Metropolis to consume their own Smoke.

I. From and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four every Furnace employed or to be employed in the Metropolis in the working of Engines by Steam, and every Furnace employed or to be employed in any Mill, Factory, Printing House, Dyehouse, Iron Foundry, Glasshouse, Distillery, Brewhouse, Sugar Refinery, Bakehouse, Gasworks, Waterworks, or other Buildings used for the Purpose of Trade or Manufacture within the Metropolis, (although a Steam Engine be not used or employed therein,) shall in all Cases be constructed or altered so as to consume or burn the Smoke arising from such Furnace; and if any Person shall after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four within the Metropolis use any such Furnace which shall not be constructed so as to consume or burn its own Smoke, or shall so negligently use any such Furnace as that the Smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt, or shall carry on any Trade or Business which shall occasion any noxious or offensive Effluvia, or otherwise annoy the Neighbourhood or Inhabitants, without using the best practicable Means for preventing or counteracting such Smoke or other Annoyance, every Person so offending, being the Owner or Occupier of the Premises, or being a Foreman or other Person employed by such Owner or Occupier, shall upon a summary Conviction for such Offence before any Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay a Sum not more than Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, and upon a Second Conviction for such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, and for each subsequent Conviction a Sum double the Amount of the Penalty imposed for the last preceding Conviction: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend or apply to any Glass Works or Pottery Works established and existing within the Metropolis before the passing of this Act, with the Exception however of all Steam Engine Furnaces and Slip Kiln Furnaces employed in and belonging to such Works respectively, to which Furnaces the Provisions of this Act shall extend and apply.

Steam Vessels on the Thames above London Bridge to consume their own Smoke.

II. From and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four every Steam Engine and Furnace used in the working of any Steam Vessel on the River Thames above London Bridge shall be constructed so as to consume the Smoke arising from such Engine and Furnace; and if after the said First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four any Steam Engine or Furnace by which any Steam Vessel shall be worked while the same shall be above London Bridge shall not be constructed so as to consume or burn its own Smoke, or such Steam Engine or Furnace which shall be so constructed shall be wilfully or negligently used so that the Smoke arising therefrom shall not be effectually consumed or burnt, the Owner or Master or other Person having Charge of such Vessel shall, on a summary Conviction for such Offence before any Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay any Sum not greater than Five Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings, and upon a Second Conviction for such Offence a Sum of Ten Pounds, and upon every other subsequent Conviction for such Offence a Sum double the Amount of the Penalty imposed for the last preceding Conviction.

Penalty not to attach where only Fuel not emitting Smoke is used.

III. Provided always, That the Words "consume or burn the Smoke" shall not be held in all Cases to mean "consume or burn all the Smoke," and that the Justice or Justices before whom any Person shall be summoned may remit the Penalties enacted by this Act if he or they shall be of opinion that such Person has so constructed or altered his Furnace as to consume or burn as far as possible all the Smoke arising from such Furnace, and has carefully attended to the same, and consumed or burned as far as possible the Smoke arising from such Furnace.

Constables may be empowered to enter and inspect Furnaces and Steam Engines.

IV. If the Owner or Occupier of any Premises or the Commander of any Steam Vessel to which the Provisions of this Act shall apply shall refuse to allow their Premises or Steam Vessel to be inspected by a Person duly authorized by the Commissioners of Police for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for any Constable authorized by Warrant under the Hand of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or (in the Metropolitan Police District) by the Order in Writing of the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, or (in the City of London or Liberties thereof) by the Order in Writing of the Commissioner of Police of the said City and Liberties, with or without any Assistant, to enter into and upon any Building or Premises in the Metropolis in which any Furnace may be, or in which such noxious Trade or Business may be carried on, or into any Steam Vessel on the River Thames between London Bridge and Richmond Bridge, and to examine into the Construction of such Furnace, into the Manner of carrying on such Trade or Business, or into the Construction of the Steam Engine and Furnace by which such Vessel shall be worked; and any Person obstructing any such Constable or his Assistant in the Execution of any such Warrant or Order shall, upon a summary Conviction for such Offence before any Justice or Justices, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

No Information to be laid except by Authority of Secretary of State or Police Commissioners.

V. Provided always, That no Information shall be laid against any Person for the Recovery of any Penalty under this Act, except by the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in the Metropolitan Police District by the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis, or in the City of London or Liberties thereof by the Commissioner of Police of the said City and Liberties respectively acting under the Orders and Directions of such Secretary of State.

Definition of Metropolis. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85.

VI. In this Act the Expression "the Metropolis" shall have the same Meaning and Construction as is assigned to such Expression for the Purposes of the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-five, "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis."

Not to affect certain Local Acts.

VII. Nothing in this Act shall be held to alter or repeal any of the Provisions of the City of London Sewers Act, 1851, or of the Whitechapel Improvement Act, 1853.

Penalties recoverable under 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

VIII. All Penalties by this Act imposed shall be recoverable according to the Provisions of the Act of the Twelfth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three.

CAP. CXXIX.

An Act further to amend the Law relating to Pilotage. [20th August 1853.]

Union of Trinity House and Cinque Port Pilots.

"WHEREAS it is expedient that the Right of piloting Ships Outwards from the Port of London, and the Right of piloting Ships Inwards to the same Port, should be vested in One Body of Pilots, and that such Pilots should be subject to uniform Authority and Control:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

So much of 6 G. 4. c. 125. as relates to

I. So much of the Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, as relates to the Society or Fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle

of

Cinque Port Pilots, and 9 G. 4. c. 86., repealed.

of Thanet, or to the Pilots of the said Society or Fellowship, commonly called the Cinque Port Pilots, and the whole of the Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-six, shall be repealed, save as herein-after mentioned.

Power to the Trinity House to license Pilots for the Passage from Dungeness Inwards as well as Outwards.

II. It shall be lawful for the Trinity House, after such Examination and in such Manner as by the Second Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth is provided in respect of the Pilots to be licensed under the Authority therein contained, to license Pilots as well for the Purpose of conducting Vessels from or by Dungeness up the Rivers Thames and Medway to London Bridge and Rochester Bridge, and all the Channels, Creeks, and Docks of the same, and from the South Buoy of the Brake Westward as far as the West End of the Owers, as for the Purpose of conducting Vessels within the Limits and in the Manner within and in which Pilots may be licensed to act under the said Second Section of the said last-mentioned Act; and all the Provisions of the said Act and of any other Act now in force, and all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances, applicable to Pilots licensed under the said Section, shall be applicable to Pilots licensed under the Authority of this Act to the same Extent and in the same Manner as if such last-mentioned Authority had been contained in the said Section; and no Licences granted by any other Corporation, Body, or Persons to pilot any Vessels Inwards or Outwards within the Limits aforesaid shall be of any Force or Effect whatever: Provided always, that no such Licence shall be granted until Three Months after the Regulations herein-after provided to be made by the Trinity House shall have been published and sent to the Court of Loadmanage, and to the Society or Fellowship of Cinque Port Pilots.

Present Cinque Port Pilots to be competent to pilot Vessels either Inwards or Outwards within the Limits for which they are now licensed,

III. All Cinque Port Pilots duly licensed and authorized before this Act comes into operation to pilot any Vessels from Dungeness or the Downs up the Rivers Thames or Medway shall, notwithstanding the Repeal and Enactment herein-before contained, be authorized to pilot the like Vessels within the same Limits and in the same Manner within and in which they might have lawfully piloted the same before the passing of this Act according to the Terms of their existing Licences, and shall also by virtue of such existing Licences (without any Licence from the Trinity House in that Behalf) be authorized to pilot the like Vessels down the said Rivers Thames and Medway, or from those Rivers to the Downs or Dungeness, or from the West End of the Owers to the South Buoy of the Brake, within the Limits within which such existing Licences authorize them to act in piloting such Vessels from the Downs to the said Rivers, and up the same, or from the South Buoy of the Brake to the West End of the Owers; and it shall be lawful for the Trinity House by a supplemental Licence to authorize any such Cinque Port Pilot to pilot any Vessels in any Parts of the Rivers Thames and Medway or in any of the Seas or Channels leading to or from such Rivers to which his existing Licence may not extend, after Examination in respect of the further Limits within which he is to be so licensed to act, and upon the Payment of such Fee, if any, as the said Trinity House may, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, appoint for the Purpose; and such supplemental Licence shall be taken to be Part of and to be held upon the same Conditions and subject to the same Regulations in all respects as such existing Licence.

The above-mentioned Cinque Port Pilots to be subject to the same Rules, &c. as Trinity House Pilots.

IV. The said Cinque Port Pilots who have been so licensed as aforesaid before this Act comes into operation shall be subject to all the Provisions of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and Twenty-five, and of any other Act now in force, which relate to Pilots licensed by the Trinity House (except such of them as are contained in the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth), and shall likewise be subject to the Government and Regulations of the Trinity House, and to all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances duly issued by it for the Purpose of insuring the good Conduct and constant Attendance of Pilots upon their Duty, and to such Penalties as may be duly annexed to the Breach of the said Regulations, Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Ordinances, in the same Manner and to the same Extent in and to which Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House are subject thereto.

Present Trinity House Pilots may pilot Ships Inwards within the Limits of their Licences.

V. All Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation by the said Trinity House to pilot any Vessels upon the Rivers Thames and Medway, or from London Bridge to the Downs, or from the Isle of Wight to London Bridge, shall be authorized to pilot the like Vessels from or by Dungeness up the Rivers Thames and Medway, and from the South Buoy of the Brake to the Westward to the End of the Owers, or within such or so much of the same Limits as under their present Licenses they might act within in piloting such Vessels down the said Rivers or Outwards or to the Westward: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any Privilege of piloting above Gravesend and Stangate Creek respectively upon any Pilots by whatever Authority they may be licensed, except with the Concurrence of the Trinity House in the Case of each Pilot.

Power to the Trinity House to make Regulations for a constant Supply of Pilots at Dungeness.

VI. A sufficient Number of duly qualified Pilots shall always be ready to take charge of Vessels coming from the Westward past Dungeness; and the Trinity House shall make such Regulations with respect to the Body of Pilots under its Control as may be necessary in order to provide for an unintermitted Supply of Pilots for such Vessels, and to insure their constant Attendance upon and due Performance of their Duty, both by Night and Day, whether by cruizing between the South Foreland and Dungeness, or by going off from Shore upon Signals made for the Purpose, or by both of such Means, or by any other Means, and whether in rotation or otherwise, as the said Trinity House may think fit; and if any Pilots affected by the said Regulations, or any Masters or Owners or Insurers of Ships, being not less than Six in Number, consider themselves aggrieved by such Regulations, or by any Defect or Omission therein, they may appeal to Her Majesty in Council, and Her Majesty in Council may thereupon revoke or alter any of such Regulations, or may make Additions thereto, in such Manner as, having regard to the Object of this Enactment and to the Interests of the Persons concerned, may appear to be just and expedient, and every Order so made shall be conclusive in the Matter.

Union of Trinity House and Cinque Port Pilots.

VII. Every Master or other Person in command of any Vessel coming from the Westward and bound to any Place in the Rivers Thames and Medway (unless she has a duly qualified Pilot on board or is exempted from compulsory Pilotage), shall, on the Arrival of such Vessel off Dungeness, and thenceforth until she has passed the South Buoy of the Brake, or a Line to be drawn from Sandown Castle to the said Buoy, or until a duly qualified Pilot has come on board, display and keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot; and if any Pilot duly qualified for the Passage to be made by such Vessel is within Hail, or is approaching and within Half a Mile, and has the proper distinguishing Flag flying in his Boat, such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall, by heaving-to in proper Time or shortening Sail, or by any practicable Means consistent with the Safety of his Vessel, facilitate such Pilot getting on board, and shall give the Charge of piloting his Vessel to such Pilot; or if there are Two or more of such Pilots offering at the same Time, to such One of them as may according to the Regulations for the Time being in force be entitled or required to take such Charge; and if any such Master or other Person as aforesaid fails to display or keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot in manner herein-before required, or to facilitate any such duly qualified Pilot as aforesaid getting on board as herein-before required, or to give the Charge of piloting his Vessel to such Pilot as herein-before mentioned in that Behalf, he shall forfeit double the Sum which might have been demanded for the Pilotage of his Vessel, such Sum to be paid to the Trinity House, and to be recoverable in the same Manner in which Forfeitures are recoverable under the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth.

Vessels coming past Dungeness not having a Pilot already on board, to take the first qualified Pilot who offers.

Penalty on Masters failing to display the usual Signal for a Pilot.

VIII. Until any such Alteration as herein-after provided for be made, the Rates and Prices to be demanded and received by all Pilots performing the Duties hitherto performed by Cinque Port Pilots shall be such Rates and Prices as have immediately before this Act comes into operation been lawfully demanded and received by such last-mentioned Pilots; and it shall be lawful for the said Trinity House to increase, reduce, alter, or modify all or any of the said Rates or Prices, or to substitute other Rates or Prices in lieu thereof, with the same Consent, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions with, in, and subject to which the Trinity House is empowered to increase, reduce, alter, and modify the Rates and Prices to be demanded and received by Pilots licensed by it, or to substitute other Rates and Prices in lieu of such last-mentioned Rates and Prices, but so that in no Case shall any higher Rate be imposed or demanded than might have been imposed or demanded if this Act had not passed.

Rates to be demanded for Duties hitherto performed by Cinque Port Pilots.

IX. All Rates and Prices which may be lawfully demanded or received by the said Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, or by any other Pilots licensed by or under the Government of the Trinity House, shall be recoverable in the same Manner in which Rates and Prices lawfully demanded or received by Pilots licensed by the Trinity House under the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth are by that Act made recoverable; and all Rates or Prices which may be lawfully demanded or received by any Pilots under the Government of the said Trinity House for the Pilotage of Foreign Vessels, the Owners, Masters, Agents, or Consignees of which claim, by virtue of any Treaty of Reciprocity, to be entitled to the Privileges of British Vessels, shall be recoverable from the same Persons, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions from whom and in and subject to which Pilotage Rates on British Vessels are recoverable under the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Sections of the said Act.

Existing Cinque Port Pilots to have same Remedies for the Recovery of Rates as Trinity House Pilots.

Rates on Foreign Vessels claiming Benefit of Reciprocity Treaties.

X. All Property of every kind, whether real or personal, which may belong to or be held by the Court of Loadmanage or the said Society of Cinque Port Pilots, or any Branch thereof, or any Officer of the said Society, or any other Person as Trustee for the said Society, or any Branch thereof, or which may be legally applicable for the Benefit of the said Society or of the Members thereof, or for any Purposes connected with Pilotage, (including a Piece of Land near Dover which was by Indentures of Lease and Release, dated respectively the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Days of August One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, conveyed to Trustees therein named, upon certain Trusts, for the Poor of the Trinity House of Dover,) shall, upon the passing of this Act, belong to and become vested in the Trinity House of Deptford Strond; and the said Trinity House shall have Power to sell the same or any Part thereof as Occasion may require, and to give full Discharges for the Purchase Money of any Part thereof which may be sold; and all Monies which if this Act had not passed would have been paid for any Purpose connected with the Relief or Benefit of Cinque Port Pilots, their Appointees, Widows, or Issue, either in respect of surplus Duties on Foreign Vessels, or by way of Fees or Contributions from Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, and all Sums which would if this Act had not passed been payable by such Pilots as Trinity Money or Clerks Fees, and all Penalties or Fines payable by or in respect of such Pilots, shall, save as such Contributions, Trinity Money, or Clerks Fees may be varied or remitted under the Regulations to be made and approved as herein-after mentioned, and save also such of the said Contributions as may cease by reason of any such Purchases or Commutations of Claims as herein-after provided for, be paid to the Trinity House, and the said Property and Monies shall be carried to and form Part of the Pilotage Funds of the Trinity House.

Property of Society of Cinque Port Pilots to be transferred to Trinity House.

Payments to Cinque Port Pilots Fund to be made henceforth to the Trinity House.

XI. The said Trinity House shall, out of their said Pilotage Fund, pay all Debts, if any, lawfully and properly incurred by the said Court of Loadmanage before this Act comes into operation, and also such Compensation or Superannuation Allowances (if any) as the Board of Trade may in its Discretion allow to any Persons now in the Employ or Service of the Court of Loadmanage, or of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, or of the Society of Cinque Port Pilots, who may be deprived of Salaries or Emoluments by reason of the passing of this Act, so that no such Compensation or Superannuation Allowance shall exceed Trinity House to pay Debts and to settle the Claims of Persons now in receipt of Relief, and of existing Cinque Port Pilots.

Union of Trinity House and Cinque Port Pilots.

exceed the Proportion of Salary or Emoluments which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four; and may in the next place, subject to the Regulations to be made and approved as herein-after mentioned, either purchase out of the said Funds the Claims of all or any of the Persons who, but for the passing of this Act, would have been in the Receipt of Pensions or other Relief either out of the said Cinque Port Pilots Fund, or under any Byelaws of the said Society now in force, or who have already paid Widows Dues, or have otherwise contributed to the Relief of superannuated Cinque Port Pilots, or of the Widows, Appointees, or Issue of Cinque Port Pilots, such Purchases to be made upon such Terms as may be determined by the said Regulations, or may, subject as aforesaid, continue to pay out of the said Funds Pensions or other Relief to all or any of the Persons who might if this Act had not passed have received the same out of the said Funds, or under any Byelaws of the said Society now in force, such Pensions or other Relief to be of such Amount as may be determined by the said Regulations to be made and approved as herein-after mentioned; and the Trinity House may, subject to such Regulations, make Arrangements for enabling any Person who, but for the passing of this Act, would be entitled to a Pension or other Relief under the Byelaws of the said Society of Cinque Port Pilots now in force, or any Cinque Port Pilot licensed before this Act comes into operation, to purchase an Interest in the said Trinity House Pilots Fund; and the Terms of such Purchase, including the Amount and Nature of such Interest, and the Consideration payable for the same, shall be determined by such Regulations as aforesaid; and every Cinque Port Pilot who chooses to make such Purchase shall thereafter pay to the said Trinity House the same Contributions, whether by way of Poundage or otherwise, as are for the Time being payable by Pilots licensed by the Trinity House.

Trinity House may enable existing Cinque Port Pilots to purchase an Interest in the Trinity House Pilots Fund.

As to Charges on Trinity House Pilotage Fund, and its future Management.

XII. The said Trinity House shall also out of their said Pilotage Funds pay all such Superannuation Allowances or other Relief to Pilots licensed by them before this Act comes into operation, or to the Widows and Children of such Pilots, as might have been payable by the said Trinity House if this Act had not passed; and, subject to the Charges aforesaid, the said Trinity House Pilots Fund shall be chargeable in the first instance with such Expenses as the said Trinity House may duly incur in the Performance of its Duties in respect of Pilots and Pilotage, so nevertheless that no Superannuation Allowance to any Person in the Employ of the said Trinity House which is included in such Expenses shall exceed the Proportion of his Salary which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four, or under any other Act for regulating such Superannuation Allowances for the Time being in force; and, subject thereto, the said Trinity House Pilots Fund shall be administered by the said Trinity House for the benefit of such Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House after this Act comes into operation as are incapacitated for the Performance of their Duty by reason of Age, Infirmity, or Accident, and of the Widows and Children of Pilots so licensed, or of such incapacitated Pilots only, upon such Conditions and under such Regulations as the said Trinity House, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, may think fit to adopt; and if it appears to the said Trinity House that the Contributions for the Time being payable to the said Trinity House Pilots Fund are insufficient to enable them to grant Allowances of proper and adequate Amount, it shall be lawful for the said Trinity House, with such Consent and subject to such Regulations as aforesaid, from Time to Time to increase and alter the Amount of the annual Contribution, or of the Poundage upon the Sums earned by Pilots, which under the Fourth Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, Pilots licensed by the said Trinity House are required to pay to the said Pilotage Fund.

Recital of Principles upon which Claims of Cinque Port Pilots are to be settled.

XIII. 'And whereas it is intended that Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, 'their Widows and Appointees, shall, as a Body, receive, under the Provisions herein-before contained, 'Benefits equal in Amount to the Benefits which they might lawfully and properly have received out of 'the several Funds and Payments so transferred to the Trinity House as aforesaid if this Act had not 'passed: And whereas it has been estimated that the Funds and Payments so transferred, including the 'Principal as well as the Interest of the said Funds, would, if duly applied, be sufficient to carry the said 'Intention into effect: but in consequence of the numerous Contingencies involved it is impossible to 'calculate with Certainty the Amount which will be necessary for that Purpose, or to determine with 'Precision the Manner in which such Amount shall be applied, and it is therefore expedient that all due 'Claims of the said Cinque Port Pilots, their Widows, Appointees, and Issue, should be provided for by 'the said Trinity House out of their General Pilotage Funds as herein-before provided, and that the Board 'of Trade and the Trinity House should be intrusted with such Powers as are necessary for settling the 'said Claims, and for carrying into effect the Provisions herein-before contained in respect thereof:' Be it enacted, That for the Purpose of carrying the said Intention and Provisions into effect the said Trinity House may, with the Approval of the Board of Trade, from Time to Time make Regulations for altering and determining the Payments and Contributions to be made by Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, and for settling, purchasing, and commuting the Claims of Persons now in receipt of Relief from the said Cinque Port Pilots Fund, and of the said Cinque Port Pilots licensed before this Act comes into operation, their Widows, Appointees, and Issue, and for determining the Terms and Conditions on which such Settlement is to be made, and in framing such Regulations due Regard shall be had to the Intention herein-before expressed; and the said Trinity House may also, with such Consent as aforesaid, from Time to Time make Regulations for the future Management of the Trinity House Pilots Fund, and also for the Management and Maintenance of any Pilot Boats or Trinity House, with Consent of Board of Trade, may make Regulations for settling the above Claims.

Cutters

Cutters belonging to the said Cinque Port Pilots, or to any Pilots for the Time being under the Government of the said Trinity House, and for the Distribution of the Earnings (if any) of such Boats or Cutters, and for the Succession to, Purchase of, or Transfer of any Interests therein; and all such Regulations, after being approved of by the Board of Trade, shall be binding upon all Parties.

Licensing Masters and Mates.

Power to the Board of Trade to examine and grant Pilotage Certificates to Masters and Mates on the Pilotage Authorities refusing to do so under 12 & 13 Vict. c. 88.

XIV. 'And whereas by the Act of the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter 'Eighty-eight, Provision was made for enabling a Master or Mate to pilot his own Vessel without the 'Assistance of a licensed Pilot upon his passing an Examination before or under the Direction of the 'proper Pilotage Authorities, and obtaining a Certificate as therein mentioned, but the Institution of such 'Examination was left to the Option of the said Authorities: And whereas it is expedient to extend and 'amend the Provisions of the said Act:' Be it enacted, That if upon Complaint to the Board of Trade it appear to such Board that any such Authority as aforesaid have without reasonable Cause refused or neglected to examine any Master or Mate who has applied to them for the Purpose, or after he has passed have without reasonable Cause refused or neglected to grant him a Certificate, or that the Examination of any such Master or Mate has been unfairly or improperly conducted, or that any Terms imposed or sought to be imposed by such Authority are unfair or improper, the Board of Trade may, if in their Judgment the Circumstances appear to require it, appoint Persons to examine such Master or Mate, and if he be found fit to pilot his Vessel within the Limits for which he is examined, may grant him a Certificate setting forth the Limits and the Vessel for which he is certified, upon such Terms and Conditions, and subject to such Regulations, as such Board may think fit; and such Certificate shall be in force for One Year, and may be renewed from Year to Year either by the said Authorities in the Manner and upon the Terms in the said Act mentioned, or by the Board of Trade, if such Board so think fit, such Renewal to be indorsed on the said Certificate either by such Person as the Board of Trade may appoint for the Purpose, or in the Manner by the said Act provided as to the Certificates therein mentioned; and all Certificates granted under this Act shall have the same Effect as Certificates granted under the said last-recited Act.

Fees to be paid upon such Licences and the Renewals thereof.

XV. All Masters or Mates to or for whom any such Certificates as aforesaid are granted or renewed by any Pilotage Authority shall pay to such Authority, or as it may direct, such Fees upon their respective Certificates and upon the Renewals thereof as may from Time to Time be fixed for that Purpose by the said Authority, with the Consent of Her Majesty in Council; and all Masters and Mates to or for whom any such Certificates are granted or renewed by the Board of Trade shall pay to such Board or as it may direct such Fees upon their Certificates and upon the Renewals thereof as may be fixed by such Board, so nevertheless that in the Case of Certificates granted or renewed by the Board of Trade such Fees shall in no Case be less than the Fees payable by the Pilots in the same District upon their Licences and the Renewal thereof; and such Fees shall in the Case of Certificates and Renewals granted by Pilotage Authorities be applicable either to paying the Expense of the Examinations, or any other general Expenses connected with Pilotage incurred by such Authorities, or to the Pilots Superannuation Fund (if any), or otherwise for the Benefit of the Pilots licensed by such Authorities, as such Authorities may think fit; and such Fees shall in the Case of Certificates granted or renewed by the Board of Trade be applicable to the Expense of the Examinations, and the Surplus (if any) shall be applied for the Benefit of the Pilots of the Port or District in such Manner as such Board may think fit.

Power to withdraw Certificates.

XVI. If at any Time it appears to the Board of Trade or to any Pilotage Authority that any Master or Mate to whom a Certificate has been granted by such Board or Authority under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act or of this Act has been guilty of Misconduct, or has shown himself incompetent to pilot his Vessel, such Board or such Authority (as the Case may be) may thereupon withdraw his Certificate, and such Certificates shall thenceforth cease to be of any Effect whatever.

Returns and Accounts.

Pilots to make Returns of their Earnings to the Bodies by whom they are licensed.

XVII. 'And whereas it is expedient to make Provision for ascertaining and making public the 'Amount of Pilotage Rates levied on Shipping, with other Particulars relating to Pilotage:' Be it enacted, That every Person duly authorized or licensed to act as a Pilot shall, before the Thirty-first Day of January in each Year, give to the Pilotage Authority by whom he is so authorized or licensed a full Account of all Sums of Money earned by him as a Pilot in the course of the preceding Year, with the Names and Descriptions of the Vessels in respect of which, and a Statement of the Services by means of which, the same have been earned; and if any such Pilot upon being applied to for such Account fail to deliver the same within One Month after such Application, the Pilotage Authority by whom he has been licensed or authorized is hereby empowered and required to withdraw his Licence, or to deprive him of his Authority to act as Pilot, until the said Account is delivered.

Pilotage Authorities to make full Returns to the Board of Trade of various Particulars connected with Pilotage.

XVIII. Every Pilotage Authority shall deliver periodically to the Board of Trade, in such Form and at such Times as it may require, Returns of the following Particulars with regard to Pilotage within the Port or District under the Jurisdiction of such Authority; that is to say,

All Byelaws, Regulations, Orders, or Ordinances relating to Pilots or Pilotage for the Time being in force:

The Names and Ages of all Pilots or Apprentices licensed or authorized to act by such Authority, and of all Pilots or Apprentices acting either mediately or immediately under such Authority, whether so licensed or authorized or not:

The Service for which each Pilot or Apprentice is licensed:

The Rates of Pilotage for the Time being in force, including therein the Rates and Descriptions of all Charges upon Shipping made for or in respect of Pilots or Pilotage:

Returns and Accounts.

The total Amount received for Pilotage, distinguishing the several Amounts received from British Vessels and from Foreign Vessels respectively, and the several Amounts received in respect of different Classes of Vessels paying different Rates of Pilotage, according to the Scale of such Rates for the Time being in force, and the several Amounts received for the several Classes of Service rendered by Pilots; and also the Amount paid by such Vessels (if any) as have before reaching the Limits of Pilotage Water if Outward-bound, or their Port of Destination if Inward-bound, to take or pay for Two or more Pilots, whether licensed by the same or by different Pilotage Authorities; together with the Numbers of the Vessels of each of the several Classes paying such several Amounts as aforesaid:

The Receipt and Expenditure of all Monies received by or on behalf of such Authority, or by or on behalf of any Sub-Commissioners appointed by them, in respect of Pilots or Pilotage:

And shall allow the Board of Trade, or any Persons appointed by such Board for the Purpose, to inspect any Books or Documents in its or their Possession relating to the several Matters herein-before required to be returned to the Board of Trade.

If any of the local Authorities fail to give the required Returns, they may be deprived of their Authority, and the Power of appointing Pilots shall vest in the Trinity House.

XIX. If any of such Pilotage Authorities as aforesaid (other than the said Trinity House or Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage appointed by it) fail to deliver to the Board of Trade the periodical Returns herein-before required within One Year of such Time as may be fixed by that Board for the Purpose, or if any of such Authorities do not allow the said Board, or any Persons who may be appointed by it for the Purpose, to inspect any Books or Documents in their Possession relating to the Matters herein-before required to be returned by them, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to direct that all the Rights and Powers of such Authorities in respect of Pilotage shall cease or be suspended during such Time as Her Majesty may direct; and thereupon the said Trinity House shall thereafter or during such Time as such Suspension may continue have and exercise the same Powers of appointing Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage and of licensing Pilots, and of establishing and altering Rates of Pilotage, within the District within which the Authority so making Default has previously appointed or licensed Pilots, as the said Trinity House is by the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, authorized to exercise in all Ports or Places in England for which no particular Provision is made by any Act of Parliament or Charter for the Appointment of Pilots, and shall also during such Time as aforesaid have and exercise the same Rights, Title, and Powers to and in respect of any Pilotage Funds or other Pilotage Property which the said Pilotage Authorities would or might have had or exercised if not so suspended as aforesaid.

Such Returns to be laid before Parliament.

XX. The Board of Trade shall, without Delay, cause the several Returns herein-before required to be made to such Board to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Power to make Alterations.

XXI. 'And whereas it is expedient to give Facilities for amending the System of Pilotage, and for 'reducing or otherwise altering the Rates payable in respect thereof:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Regulation or Byelaw made with the Consent of Her Majesty in Council, from Time to Time to do all or any of the following Things in relation to Pilots and Pilotage within their respective Districts; viz.

Pilotage Authorities, with Consent of Her Majesty, may—

Fix and alter Qualifications of Pilots:

To determine the Qualifications to be required from Persons applying to be licensed as Pilots, whether in respect of their Age, Skill, Time of Service, Character, or otherwise, and from Time to Time to alter any Regulations for the Time being in force with respect to such Qualifications:

Make and alter Regulations for the Government of Pilots, and of certificated Masters and Mates:

To make and from Time to Time to alter Regulations for the Government of the Pilots licensed by them, and for insuring the good Conduct of such Pilots, and their constant Attendance on and effectual Performance of their Duty either at Sea or on Shore, and for licensing and regulating Pilot Boats; and to make, and from Time to Time to alter, the Terms, Conditions, and Regulations upon which such Certificates as herein-before mentioned are granted by such Pilotage Authority to Masters and Mates; and for punishing any Breach of such Regulations as aforesaid committed by such Pilots or by such Masters and Mates by the Withdrawal or Suspension of their Licences or Certificates, as the Case may be, or by the Infliction of Penalties, to be recoverable summarily before Two Justices, so that no such Penalty be made to exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and so that every such Penalty be capable of Reduction at the Discretion of the Justices by whom the same is inflicted:

Alter and reduce Rates of Pilotage:

To fix and from Time to Time to alter the Rates and Prices or other Remuneration to be demanded and received by Pilots licensed by such Authority, or to substitute other Rates and Prices in lieu of those for the Time being demanded or received, or to alter the Mode of remunerating Pilots, in such Manner as such Authority may, with such Consent as aforesaid, think fit, so that no higher Rates or Prices be demanded or received from the Masters or Owners of Ships than the Rates and Prices which might, if this Act had not passed, have been demanded or received:

Make and extend Exemptions from compulsory Pilotage:

To exempt the Masters of any Ships or Vessels, or of any Classes of Ships or Vessels, from being compelled to employ Pilots, and to annex any Terms or Conditions to such Exemptions, and from Time to Time to revoke and alter any Exemptions so made, and to revise and extend any Exemptions now existing by virtue of any Act of Parliament or Charter, upon such Terms and Conditions and in such Manner as such Authority, with such Consent as aforesaid, may think fit:

Arrange the Limits of Pilotage Districts.

To make such Arrangements with any other Pilotage Authority in the same or any neighbouring Port or District for altering the Limits of their respective Districts, and for extending the Powers of such neighbouring Authority or the Privileges of the Pilots licensed by such Authority or any of them to all or any Parts of its own District, or for limiting its own Powers or the Privileges of its own Pilots

or

or any of them, or for sharing the said last-mentioned Powers and Privileges with the said other Authority and the Pilots licensed by it, as may appear to such Pilotage Authorities to be desirable for the Purpose of facilitating Navigation, or reducing Charges on Shipping:

Power to make Alterations.

And every Regulation or Byelaw duly made by any Pilotage Authority in exercise of the Powers hereby given to it, and with such Consent as aforesaid, shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding any Act of Parliament, Rule, Law, or Custom to the contrary.

XXII. In Ports, Places, or Districts for which no Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage have hitherto been appointed, no such Sub-Commissioners shall hereafter be appointed without the Consent of Her Majesty in Council, and no Pilotage District under the Jurisdiction of any Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage shall hereafter be extended without such Consent.

No new Sub-Commissioners to be appointed, or Pilotage District extended, without Consent.

XXIII. So much of the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-five, as provides that no Byelaws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, or Ordinances to be made by the Trinity House as therein mentioned shall have Force or Effect before they have been examined, sanctioned, and approved by the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench or of the Common Pleas, shall be repealed; and all Byelaws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, or Ordinances hereafter made by the Trinity House, in exercise of the Powers contained in the said Act or in this Act, shall be submitted to Her Majesty in Council for Approval, and shall, if so approved, but not otherwise, have the Force and Effect of Law.

Trinity House Regulations to be approved by Her Majesty in Council instead of by a Chief Justice under 6 G 4. c. 125.

XXIV. Every Order in Council made in pursuance of the Provisions herein-before contained shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as possible after the making thereof.

All such Orders to be laid before Parliament.

Miscellaneous.

XXV. This Act shall, so far as the Context and Subject Matter admit, extend to all Ports and Districts in Great Britain or Ireland or the Ise of Man, or in the Rivers thereof respectively, or in the Seas or Channels adjacent thereto respectively, in which any Masters of Vessels are compelled by Law to employ Pilots, or in which any Persons are licensed or authorized to act as Pilots by or under the Authority of Law, or in which the Rates or Prices to be demanded or received for Pilotage Services are fixed by Law or under Authority derived from Law.

Places, &c. to which the Act is to extend.

XXVI. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions in this Act shall have the Meanings hereby assigned to them, if not inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter; that is to say,

Interpretation of Terms.

The Expression "Board of Trade" shall mean the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the Consideration of Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations:

The Word "Trinity House" shall mean the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Guild, Fraternity, or Brotherhood of the Most Glorious and Undivided Trinity and of Saint Clement in the Parish of Deptford Strond in the County of Kent, commonly called the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond:

The Expression "Pilotage Authority" shall include the said Trinity House, and all other Bodies or Persons authorized to appoint or license Pilots, or to fix or alter Rates of Pilotage, or to exercise any Jurisdiction in respect of Pilotage:

The Expression "Cinque Port Pilots" shall mean the Pilots of the Society or Fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet.

XXVII. This Act shall come into operation on the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Time of Commencement.

XXVIII. This Act may be cited as the "Pilotage Law Amendment Act, 1853."

Short Title.

XXIX. No Provision contained in the First Section of an Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-eight, and no Order or Certificate duly made and issued by virtue thereof, shall cease or become void by reason of the passing of this Act.

Proviso as to 3 & 4 Vict. c. 68. s. 1.

CAP. CXXX.

An Act to amend the Acts for promoting the Drainage of Lands and Improvements in connexion therewith in Ireland. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to promote the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion with such Drainage, in Ireland, which Act was amended by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-nine, and an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Four, and an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-six, and an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine: And whereas various Works for the Drainage of Lands, and Improvement of Navigation and Water Power in connexion therewith, in Ireland, have been undertaken and carried on by the Commissioners appointed to act in execution of the said Acts both under the ordinary Provisions and the Provisions for summary Proceedings in the said Acts respectively contained: And whereas in many Instances the Estimates of the Expenses of such Works respectively have been exceeded, and many of the said Works are still unfinished, and in certain Cases the Assents requisite to authorize the Charge on the Lands to be improved, of the Sums necessary for completing the proposed Works have not been obtained: And whereas Inquiries have been already made under the 5 & 6 Vict. c. 89. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 69. 9 & 10 Vict. cc. 4. and 86. 10 & 11 Vict. c. 79.

'Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in relation to certain of the said Works 'now remaining unfinished, and the said Commissioners have directed like Inquiries in relation to 'others of the said Works: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Comple- 'tion of the said Works, or such of them as upon the Inquiries already made as aforesaid, or upon the 'Inquiries to be hereafter made in relation thereto, the said Commissioners of the Treasury may think 'fit, and with such Modification (if any) as to them may seem proper, and that such Commissioners 'should be authorized to direct where they see fit that the Expense of such Works to be charged against 'the Proprietors of Land should be limited to such Amount as between such Proprietors and the Public 'may appear to the said Commissioners to be just, and that the said Acts should be amended as herein- 'after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Treasury may give Directions concerning Completion of Works.

I. The said Commissioners of the Treasury may authorize and direct the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland to cause to be completed the Works commenced under the Provisions of the said Acts or any of them, or such of the same Works or such Parts thereof respectively as, upon the Inquiries already made as aforesaid, or to be hereafter made under the Directions of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, such Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit, and with any Modifications or Alterations which to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may appear expedient, or to make and execute any other Works which to them may seem fit for effecting all or any of the Objects intended to be effected by the said Works; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall, without any Assents or further Assents of Proprietors, Notice, or other Preliminary or Proceeding by the said Acts required to be given or taken before the Execution of any Works, have full Power and Authority to cause to be executed or completed the Works so authorized and directed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to be completed or executed, and for that Purpose to do and execute all Acts, and exercise all Powers and Authorities by the said Acts or this Act given for the Execution of any Work, and in and by an Award to be made in relation to such Works in manner provided by the said Acts upon the Completion of Works authorized to be executed thereunder to provide for the Repayment of the Amount of all Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred under the said Acts and this Act, or any of them, in relation to such Works (inclusive of Interest on Money borrowed), or such lesser Sum as under the Provision herein-after contained may be authorized in this Behalf, with Interest from the Date of such Award as provided by the said Acts, any Provision in the said Acts or any of them requiring or concerning Assents or any other Provisions therein to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Treasury may reduce the Amount to be charged against Proprietors of Lands.

II. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, where, upon any Inquiries made or to be made as aforesaid, it appears to them just that the Proprietors to be charged under the Award in relation to any Works to be executed or completed as aforesaid, or which have been completed before the passing of this Act, and in relation to which an Award has not yet been made, should be relieved from a Portion of the Amount of the Expenses incurred in relation to such Works, to authorize and direct the said Commissioners of Public Works in and by their Award to be made under the said Acts or any of them to charge upon the Lands made liable under such Award in respect of such Works such lesser Sum than the full Amount of the Expenses of and incidental to such Works (inclusive of Interest on Money borrowed) as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may, under the Circumstances of each Case, appear just; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to direct that the Rate of Interest which shall be charged in such Award on the Sum or Sums payable thereunder shall be Four Pounds per Centum per Annum: Provided always, that in all Cases the whole Amount of the Purchase Money or Compensation payable in respect of Land taken for or injuriously affected by any Works commenced and completed or executed under the said Acts or this Act shall be included in and charged under the Award to be made in relation to such Works.

Treasury to cause Reports on Inquiries to be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, and Notice of Deposit published, and until Directions of the Treasury are given, Works may be continued as if this Act had not been passed.

III. Provided also, That before the said Commissioners of the Treasury give any Authority or Direction, in pursuance of the foregoing Provisions, to the said Commissioners of Public Works for the Execution or Completion of any Works, or as to the Amount of Principal Money to be charged under any Award as aforesaid, the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall cause a Copy of any Report which may have been made to them in pursuance of any Inquiries to be hereafter made under their Directions as aforesaid in relation to such Works or the Amount to be charged under such Award, to be deposited by the said Commissioners of Public Works with the Clerk of the Peace of each County in which the District shall be situate, who is hereby required to receive the same, and all Persons shall have Liberty to inspect the same on the Payment of Sixpence for each Inspection; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury shall limit a Time, not less than Twenty-one Days from the Time of the Publication of Notice of such Deposit, within which Objections to such Report may be made; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall cause Notice of such Deposit, of the Time so limited for making Objections to such Report, and of the Manner in which such Objections are to be transmitted to the said Commissioners of the Treasury, to be forthwith published in some Newspaper circulating in such District: Provided also, that until Directions shall be given by the said Commissioners of the Treasury in relation to any Works now in progress, nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to prevent the said Commissioners of Public Works from proceeding with such Works in like Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Power to Treasury to reduce Amount

IV. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, if they see fit, (upon the Recommendation of the said Commissioners of Public Works, or of such Persons as may be appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to make Inquiries for the Purposes of this Provision,) in any Case where where a final Award has been already made, whether the same has been enrolled or not, to reduce the total Amount of Principal Money charged upon the Lands under such Award, and also, if they see fit, where the Rate of Interest charged by such Award exceeds Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, to reduce such Interest to that Rate, and to direct the said Commissioners of Public Works to make a rateable Reduction in the respective Portions of such Amount charged by the said Award upon the several Lands charged thereunder, and for that Purpose to make such Alteration in the Amount or Duration of the Instalments payable under such Award, or as well in the Duration as in the Amount thereof, as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit, and where the said Commissioners of the Treasury so direct, to reduce the Rate of Interest to be thereafter payable in respect of the Sums charged under such Award to such Rate as aforesaid, and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall make such Reduction accordingly, and shall forthwith proceed to frame and settle a supplemental or new Award in conformity with the Directions of the said Commissioners of the Treasury without any Meeting, Notice, or other Proceeding previously to finally settling the same, and such supplemental or new Award shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of Her Majesty's Court of Chancery in Ireland, and a Copy thereof deposited with the Clerk of the Peace in manner directed by the said Acts concerning the final Award of the Commissioners, and a Copy of such supplemental or new Award certified by the proper Officer of the said Rolls Office shall be Evidence thereof: Provided always, that in case any Proprietor shall, under the Provisions of the said Acts, have paid off the Principal Sum charged upon his Lands by any such Award, he shall be entitled to the Benefit of any Reduction so directed by the Commissioners of the Treasury as aforesaid, and to be reimbursed accordingly.

charged under existing Awards.

V. All supplemental or new Awards to be made as aforesaid, when enrolled as aforesaid, shall be binding and conclusive, and, subject to the Provision lastly herein-before contained, all final Awards heretofore made or purporting to have been made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, and enrolled as by the said Acts required, shall be and be deemed to have been valid and binding and conclusive.

Awards when enrolled to be conclusive.

VI. Anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works, by and with the Sanction and Direction of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, from Time to Time to pay off all or any of the Certificates or Debentures heretofore issued and granted under the said Acts or any of them, on giving a Notice in the Dublin Gazette of their Intention so to do, and fixing a Day not sooner than Two Months from the Date of such Notice in which the Certificates or Debentures therein referred to shall be paid off; and from and after the Day in such Notice mentioned for the Payment of any such Certificates or Debentures the Interest on the Principal Money secured thereby shall cease and determine.

Commissioners may pay off Debentures on Notice.

VII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury where, under the Provisions of this Act, they authorize the Reduction of the Amount to be charged under any Award to be hereafter made, or the Amount charged under any Award already made, to direct so much of the Monies which may be payable in respect of any Loan or Loans made by the said Commissioners of Public Works for the Purposes of any Works under the said Acts or this Act as may be equal to the Sums by which the Amount charged or to be charged under such Award shall be reduced, shall be remitted and cease to be payable.

Treasury may remit Amount not charged against Proprietors.

VIII. Provided always, That where the reduced Amount which may be charged by any Award made under the Provisions of this Act may be less than the Monies which may be secured and remain unpaid on the Certificates or Debentures issued in respect of the Expenses of the Works to which such Award relates, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause to be paid off such Certificates or Debentures, or so much of the Monies secured thereby as will reduce the Amount which shall remain owing thereon to or below the Amount charged by such Award.

Saving for Creditors.

IX. The Commissioners shall cause detailed Accounts in Writing of the several Sums received by them as such Commissioners, and of the Sums expended by them, and the Mode of such Expenditure, and of the several Works made or in progress under the said Acts or this Act, to be made up to the Thirty-first Day of December in each Year, and such Accounts shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Thirty Days thereafter if Parliament be then sitting, or within Thirty Days after the First Meeting of Parliament subsequent to the Thirty-first Day of December; and the Commissioners shall, as often as they shall be required so to do by the Commissioners of the Treasury, transmit to them Accounts made up to such Period as such last-mentioned Commissioners shall direct, and shall also transmit to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, Accounts of the Receipt of Monies which shall come to their Hands under the said Acts or this Act, and of its Application and Expenditure, for the Purpose of Examination and final Audit.

Commissioners to account and report annually to Parliament.

X. The several Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall be repealed, except as to anything heretofore done, and except so far as the Provisions so repealed may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting any Proceedings heretofore taken.

Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule to this Act repealed.

XI. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury from Time to Time to appoint Two or more Persons as Occasion shall require to be Arbitrators for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, and to remove, where such Commissioners see fit, any Person so appointed.

Treasury to appoint Persons as Arbitrators.

XII. The said Commissioners are hereby authorized to purchase any Lands which they shall think it necessary or proper to purchase for accomplishing any of the Purposes of the said Acts and of this Act, making such reasonable Satisfaction and Recompence to the Persons entitled to or interested in such Land as shall be settled and ascertained in manner herein-after mentioned.

Commissioners may purchase Lands for Works.

XIII. The

Notice to be given to Proprietors and Occupiers of Land with respect to Purchase or Compensation.

XIII. The said Commissioners of Public Works shall cause Notices in Writing, specifying therein with reasonable Certainty the Quantity of Land taken or required to be taken, or injured or liable to be injuriously affected, and the Nature of the Injury that may be done or proposed to be done thereto, to be delivered to or left at the usual Places of Abode of the Proprietors or Occupiers, or reputed Proprietors or Occupiers, and all Persons interested, (where the same may be known to the Commissioners,) of and in all such Land as may be or have been taken or required to be taken for, or be or have been injured or liable to be injuriously affected by, the Works made or proposed to be made under the said recited Acts and this Act, requiring such Proprietors, Occupiers, or other Persons, on or before a Day to be named in such Notice, to prefer their respective Claims to such Commissioners for the Value of such Land, or the Compensation to be allowed for any Loss, Damage, or Injury, together with a short Statement or Particulars of the Title of the Party making such Claim thereto, and that in case the Commissioners and the Parties making such Claim shall not agree as to the Amount thereof, that a Meeting will be held by the Arbitrator to be nominated for the Purpose as herein-after mentioned for inquiring into all such Claims; and the said Commissioners shall, if they see fit, cause a like Notice to be published in some Newspaper circulating in the County or Counties in which such Land as aforesaid shall be situate.

Arbitrator to be appointed where Parties do not agree.

XIV. In all Cases in which any Corporation, Trustee, or other Person interested in or authorized by the said recited Acts to contract for, sell, and convey any Lands, shall neglect or refuse to treat or not agree with the Commissioners, or by reason of Absence or Disability cannot agree or be not found or known, or shall not prove a clear Title to the Land or to the Estate or Interest which such Corporation, Trustee, or Person shall claim therein, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners to nominate One of the Persons so appointed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury Arbitrators as aforesaid to be an Arbitrator for the Purpose of ascertaining the Purchase Money or Compensation (if any) to be paid for or in respect of the Lands, or any Loss, Damage, or Injury thereto, mentioned in any such Notice so given by the Commissioners.

Arbitrator may call for Papers, &c. and examine Witnesses.

XV. Such Arbitrator may call for the Production of any Documents in the Possession or Power of the Commissioners, or of any Party making any Claim under the Provisions of this Act, which such Arbitrator may think necessary for determining any Question or Matter to be determined by him under this Act, and may examine any such Party and his Witnesses; and the Witnesses for the Commissioners or the Proprietors of Lands within the District referred to in any such Notice, on Oath, and administer the Oaths necessary for that Purpose.

Arbitrator to make a Declaration.

XVI. Before any Arbitrator shall enter upon any Inquiry he shall in the Presence of a Justice of the Peace make and subscribe the following Declaration; that is to say,

'I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I will faithfully and honestly, and to the best of my 'Skill and Ability, hear and determine the Matters referred to me under the Provisions of the Act '(naming this Act). 'A.B.

'Made and subscribed in the Presence of '

And such Declaration shall be annexed to the Award when made, and if any Arbitrator having made such Declaration wilfully act contrary thereto he shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Documents to be delivered to Arbitrator, and Parties to be summoned to attend.

XVII. Upon Nomination of any such Arbitrator as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall deliver to the Person so nominated a Copy of the Notice given by them, together with a Map (if any) of the Premises referred to in the said Notice, and all Claims sent in to the Commissioners pursuant to such Notice, and such other Documents as the Commissioners shall think necessary, and thereupon such Arbitrator shall issue his Summons to all Parties concerned in the Matter so referred to his Arbitration, requiring them to attend before him at a Place and on a Day to be fixed by him in such Summons, not earlier than Fourteen Days from the Date thereof, and shall inquire and adjudicate on such Matter, and proceed to make his Award in the Premises as herein-after provided.

Arbitrator to adjudicate upon Claims and make his Award.

XVIII. The Arbitrator shall at the Time and Place mentioned in such Summons (and whether the Parties summoned, or any of them, attend before him or not,) proceed to inquire into and adjudicate upon the Value of the Lands required for the Purposes of the said Acts and this Act, or in respect of which a Claim for Compensation may be made for any Injury thereto, and the several Interests in such Lands in respect of which no Agreement shall have been come to between the Commissioners and the Parties entitled thereto, and the Purchase Money to be paid for such Lands, and the Compensation to be paid for Injury to any Lands injuriously affected by the Execution of the Works of the Commissioners; and the Arbitrator shall, after due Inquiry and Examination, frame a Draft Award setting forth the Price or Compensation to be paid by the Commissioners in respect of the several Interests in the Lands so required or injuriously affected, and also what Abatement (if any) shall be made in the Rents payable out of the Land named and described in the Award, or any Land held under the same Lease or Instrument in conjunction therewith; and where any Inquiry relates not only to the Value of the Lands to be purchased, but also to Compensation claimed for Injury done or to be done to any Lands, the Arbitrator shall award separate and distinct Sums to be paid for the Purchase of such Lands, or of any Interest therein, to which the Inquiry may relate, and for the Damage (if any) to be sustained by reason of the severing of the Lands taken from the other Lands, or otherwise injuriously affecting such other Lands by the Exercise of the Powers of the Commissioners; and such Draft Award and Copies thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of every County in which such Lands or any Part thereof may be situate; and the Arbitrator shall cause Notice of such Award to be given to all Persons entitled to Payment or Compensation under the same, or who shall have been heard before such Arbitrator as Claimants for Compensation, tion, and shall in such Notice appoint a Time and Place or Times and Places for holding a Meeting or Meetings to hear Objections against such Draft Award (the first such Meeting to be not earlier than Fourteen Days after the last Day of giving such Notice), and shall hold such Meeting or Meetings accordingly, and thereat hear and determine any Objections which may then and there be made to such Draft Award by any Person interested therein, or adjourn the further Hearing thereof, if the Arbitrator see fit, to a future Meeting, and may take any Measures which he may deem proper for ascertaining the Value of any such Lands or Interests as aforesaid, or the Justice or Propriety of any other Matter of such Draft Award, and may from Time to Time, if he see Occasion, appoint and hold further Meetings for hearing and determining Objections to such Draft Award, of which further Meetings when not holden by Adjournment Notice shall be given in manner herein-before directed; and when the Arbitrator has heard and determined all such Objections, and made such Inquiries as he may think necessary in relation thereto, and made such Alterations (if any) as he may deem proper in the Draft Award, he shall make his Award under his Hand and Seal accordingly; and every such Award shall be binding and conclusive, subject to the Provisions concerning Traverse herein-after contained, upon all Persons whomsoever; and no such Award shall be set aside for Irregularity in Matter of Form; and every such Award shall be deposited with the Commissioners, and a Copy thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for every County in which such Lands or any Part thereof may be situate; and the Commissioners shall thereupon, in all Cases where it shall appear to them necessary so to do, require all Persons claiming to have any Right to or Interest in the Lands, the Price or Compensation to be paid in respect of which is ascertained by such Award, to deliver to the Commissioners, on or before a Day to be named by them (such Day not to be earlier than Fourteen Days from the Date of such Requisition), a short Abstract of the Title to the Interest in respect of which the Award is made, and such Abstract shall be paid for by the Commissioners, and all Sums so paid shall form Part of the Expenses incidental to the Execution of the Works in the District to which the Arbitration may relate.

Remuneration of Arbitrator.

XIX. The Salary or Remuneration, travelling and other Expenses of the Arbitrator, including all Costs reasonably and properly incurred by him, shall be paid by the Commissioners, and the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall from Time to Time be included in and form Part of the Expenses incidental to the Execution of the Works in the Districts in relation to which such Expenses shall be incurred, and shall be defrayed accordingly.

Arbitrator may direct by whom Costs to be paid.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Arbitrator, where he thinks fit, on the Application of the Commissioners or of the Claimant, to adjudicate by whom the Costs of such Arbitration shall be borne, and to certify the Amount of the Costs properly payable to the Party entitled thereto in relation to the Arbitration, and the Amount of the Costs so certified shall be paid by the Commissioners or the Claimant as the said Arbitrator may award.

Party dissatisfied with Award may enter a Traverse.

XXI. Where the Party named in any Award under the Provisions herein-before contained (or any Party claiming under the Party so named) shall be dissatisfied with the Amount in such Award stated to be payable, it shall be lawful for such Party, at the Assizes for the County in which the Lands are situate, or where the Lands are situate in the County of Dublin, or County of the City of Dublin, in the Term next following the making of the Award, or where such Assizes are holden or such Term begins within less than Thirty Days after the making of the Award then at the next subsequent Assize or in the next subsequent Term (as the Case may be), upon giving Fifteen Days Notice in Writing previously to such Assizes or Term respectively to the Secretary of the Commissioners of the Amount intended to be claimed, to have a Traverse for Damages entered in the Crown Book in respect of such Claim, and which Traverse shall be entered as follows: "In the Matter of Traverser, the Proprietors of "Lands in the Drainage District of Respondents," and thereupon such Traverse shall be tried in like Manner, and like Proceedings shall be had and subject to the like Provisions, as far as the same can be applied, as in the Case of Traverses entered for Damages under the Acts for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to the Presentment of Public Monies by Grand Juries in Ireland: Provided always, that the Sum to be awarded or allowed as the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of the Trial of every such Traverse for Damages shall in no Case exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, and further, that no Party shall have any other Remedy for the Purpose of impeaching the Amount of any Price or Compensation ascertained by any such Award as aforesaid other than by means of such Traverse as aforesaid, anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that the Jury which shall try such Traverse shall be sworn a true Verdict to give whether any and what Damages will be sustained by the Traverser, regard being had to the Value of the Lands of such Traverser required, and to the Injury to any Lands of such Traverser injuriously affected by the Works of the Commissioners, and also regard being had in Cases of Mills or Factories to any Benefit resulting or which may result from any Improvement which shall be effected by the Execution of the Works in the Water Power of or Constancy of Supply of Water to such Mill or Factory, or by Relief from Back Water afforded to it.

Commissioners may convene a Meeting of Proprietors for electing a Standing Committee.

XXII. For the Purpose of the Protection of the Interests of the Proprietors in any Drainage District it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to call a Meeting of the Proprietors of the Land included in such District to make Choice of a Standing Committee to represent such Proprietors on any Arbitration, Trial of Traverse, or Proceeding under the said Acts or this Act, and such Meeting shall be convened by not less than Fourteen Days Notice in some Newspaper circulating in the County or Counties in which such District may be situate, and at such Meeting the Proprietors then present, or their known Agents, or such of the said Proprietors or Agents as may represent the greater Portion of the Lands belonging to the whole Number of Proprietors, who or whose Agents shall be present at such Meeting, shall elect not less less than Three nor more than Thirteen Persons from among the Proprietors of Land in such District, or their known Agents, to be such Committee as aforesaid, and the Names of the Persons so elected shall be certified to the Commissioners under the Hand of the Chairman or Person presiding at such Meeting, and shall be transmitted to the Commissioners at their Office in Dublin, and there preserved; and any Document purporting to be a Copy of any such Certificate, signed by the Commissioners or their Secretary for the Time being, shall be received in Evidence as a true Copy of such Certificate, and of the Validity of the Original of which the same purports to be a Copy, and of the due Election according to this Act of the Persons named therein.

In case of Default of Proprietors, Commissioners may appoint such Committee.

XXIII. In case of Default on the Part of the Proprietors to meet, pursuant to such Notice as aforesaid, or at such Meeting to elect such Committee as aforesaid, or in case such Certificate as aforesaid of such Election be not transmitted to the Commissioners within Seven Days after the Time appointed for such Meeting, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they see fit so to do, by Writing under their Hands, to appoint such Committee as aforesaid; and any Document purporting to be a Copy of any such Appointment, signed by the Commissioners or their Secretary for the Time being, shall be received in Evidence of such Appointment and of the Validity thereof.

Committee may appear upon Arbitration, Trial of Traverse, &c.

XXIV. In case any Member of a Standing Committee appointed as aforesaid shall die, resign, or become incapable to act, it shall be lawful for a Majority of the surviving or continuing Members of such Committee to appoint a Person to act in the Place and Stead of such Member so dying, resigning, or becoming incapable to act, and in default of such Appointment for the Space of Two Months it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to appoint a Person instead of the Member so dying, resigning, or becoming incapable to act.

On Neglect of Committee, Commissioners may appoint a Person to represent them.

XXV. The Commissioners or their Secretary shall, upon any Summons or Notice being served on or given to them or him in relation to any Arbitration, Traverse, or other Proceeding under the said Acts or this Act, forthwith communicate the same to the Committee elected or appointed for the District as herein provided; and such Committee may appear upon such Arbitration, or the Trial of such Traverse, or such other Proceeding, by any Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent to be appointed by them for such Purpose.

Filling up Vacancies in Committee.

XXVI. Upon any Arbitration or the Trial of any Traverse or other Proceeding under the said Acts or this Act, in case the said Committee neglect to appoint a Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent to represent them on such Arbitration, Trial of Traverse, or other Proceeding, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they see fit, to appoint some Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent for that Purpose.

Expenses of employing Counsel, &c., to be Part of the Expenses in the District.

XXVII. The Expenses attending the Employment of any Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent, or any Clerk, appointed by any such Committee as aforesaid, or by the Commissioners as herein-before provided, when taxed and ascertained by the Commissioners, may be paid by them, and the same shall form Part of the Expenses incidental to the Works in the District in respect of which such Employment may take place, and be paid for accordingly.

Receipt to be given for Purchase Money or Compensation, and Receipt for Purchase Money to operate as a Conveyance.

XXVIII. Anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding, in every Case in which any Monies are paid by the Commissioners under the Provisions of the said Acts or this Act for such Purchase or Compensation as aforesaid, the Party receiving such Monies shall give to the Commissioners a Receipt for the same; and such Receipt for any Purchase Money shall have the Effect of a Grant, Release, and Conveyance of all the Estate and Interest of such Party, and of all Parties claiming under or through him, in the Lands in respect of which such Monies are paid, so as such Receipt shall have an ad valorem Stamp of the same Amount impressed thereon in respect of the Purchase Monies mentioned in such Receipt (but exclusive of the Amount of Compensation for Damage by Severance or other Injury) as would have been necessary if such Receipt had been an actual Conveyance of such Estate or Interest, every such Receipt to be prepared by and at the Costs of the Commissioners, and be charged and defrayed in like Manner as the Purchase Money or Compensation for which such Receipt shall be given.

Provisions concerning Compensation for Land to extend to Interference with Mills, &c.

XXIX. The Provisions herein contained for ascertaining the Amount of Purchase or Compensation Money to be paid in respect of Land taken for or injuriously affected by any Works made under the said Acts and this Act, shall extend and be applicable to and for the ascertaining the Amount of Purchase Money, Satisfaction, or Compensation, or Damages to be paid for or in respect of any Mill, Dam, River, Water Power, or other Matter or Thing which the Commissioners are by the said Acts or this Act authorized to purchase or interfere with for the Purpose of any Works executed by them.

Power of Entry for executing Works pending Proceedings for Purchase or ascertaining Compensation.

XXX. For the Purposes of the said Acts and of this Act the Commissioners, or any Engineer, Workman, or other Person authorized by them, at any Time pending the Purchase or ascertaining of the Price or Compensation of any Land, Mill, or Hereditament, and after Three Days previous Notice in Writing given to the Party in Occupation, may enter upon and into such Land, Mill, or Hereditament for the Purpose of executing any Works by the said Acts or this Act authorized, or doing any other Act, Matter, or Thing required in the Opinion of the Commissioners for carrying fully into effect the Purposes of the said Acts or of this Act.

Power to dig for Materials.

XXXI. The Commissioners, or any Engineer, Workman, or other Person authorized by them, after Three Days previous Notice in Writing given to the Party in Occupation, may enter into and search for, dig, take, and carry away Materials out of any Land for the Purpose of executing or repairing any Works, making such Compensation for the Surface Damage done to the Proprietors, Lessees, or Occupiers of such Lands according to their respective Interests therein as shall be agreed on; but in all Cases where the Commissioners shall take Materials from an open Quarry bonâ fide demised to any Person, with Liberty to raise, sell, and dispose of the Materials therein, the Value of such Materials shall be paid for by the Commissioners as shall be agreed on; and in case of Dispute concerning the Amount of such Compensation for Damages, or the Value of such Materials, such Compensation or Value shall be settled, on a Summons to be issued for that Purpose by the Party claiming such Compensation or Value by any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for such County in which such Land is situate at Petty Sessions; and Service of such Summons on the Engineer of the Commissioners in charge of the Works in the District for the Purpose of which such Materials shall be taken shall be sufficient: Provided always, that no such Summons shall issue or be proceeded on until the whole Extent of the Damage to be done by the Commissioners, or the whole of the Materials to be taken by them, shall be ascertained.

Summary Proceedings to be deemed to authorize Interference with Mills.

XXXII. It is hereby declared, that all the Provisions contained in the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Four, and of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine, respecting the summary Course of Procedure by the said Acts provided, shall be deemed to authorize and justify and to have authorized and justified the Commissioners in interfering and dealing with all Mills and Factories, and the Water Power thereof, according to the said summary Course of Procedure by the said Acts provided, in such Manner as by the Commissioners may be or have been considered requisite for enabling them to carry on the Works under the said Acts and this Act, and for the due Execution thereof: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prejudice or affect any Proceedings in any Court of Law or Equity had or commenced before the passing of this Act.

Remedy by summary Application to the Court of Chancery in the event of Commissioners failing to secure the due Amount of Water Power to the Owner of any Mill or Factory.

XXXIII. Any Person interested in any Mill or Factory permanently affected or proposed to be permanently affected by anything done or proposed to be done under the Provisions of the said Acts or of this Act may apply by Petition in a summary Way to the Court of Chancery, complaining that the due Amount of Water Power has not been properly secured to or for such Mill or Factory, or that any Act has been done or has been threatened or proposed to be done by the Commissioners, or by any Person acting or pretending to act under the Provisions of this Act, by which permanent Injury has been or may be sustained by such Mill or Factory, or by such Person so interested in respect thereof, and whether the Act complained of has been authorized by this Act or otherwise, and thereupon such Court shall make such Order directing such Proceedings as shall seem proper before One of the Masters of such Court in relation to the Matter of the said Petition; and upon the Report of such Master it shall be lawful for such Court to direct such Works to be made by such Commissioners as to such Court of Chancery shall seem necessary or proper, and to make from Time to Time such further or other Order, whether for Compensation to any Party interested in such Mill or Factory, or for restraining the Commissioners or any other Person from doing any Act or otherwise, as to such Court shall seem just, and to issue any Writ or Writs of Injunction for any of the Purposes aforesaid for which the same may be required, and such Court shall have Power to award Costs to either Party: Provided always, that such Petition shall be presented within Six Months after the Act complained of.

Commissioners and Trustees may proceed for Maintenance Rates.

XXXIV. The Commissioners and the Trustees having the Maintenance of any Works executed under the said Acts or this Act shall have the same Powers, Rights, and Remedies to enforce Payment of the Rates at any Time heretofore or hereafter to be imposed by the Commissioners or such Trustees under the Powers of the said Acts as are in and by the said Acts given to the Commissioners for Recovery of the Sums or Instalments charged under their final Award; and the Trustees in all Cases where it may be necessary to take any Proceedings in Recovery of any such Rate or otherwise may sue in the Names of Two of them.

Rents may be increased by separate Instrument.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners where they see fit, on determining, under the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, the Amount of increased Rent to be paid in respect of any Land drained or improved as therein mentioned, to signify their Decision by a separate Instrument.

Parties entitled to Purchase Money, Compensation, or Damages to have same ascertained as herein provided.

XXXVI. In all Cases where any Person shall consider himself entitled to be paid Compensation or Damages for or by reason of any Act or Omission by or on the Part of the Commissioners, or for or by reason of any Works or Acts whatsoever done or professed to be done by the Commissioners under the Authority or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Acts or of this Act, such Person (save as hereinbefore provided) shall not be entitled to proceed at Law or in Equity for or in respect of the same, but the Right to such Compensation or Damages, and the Amount thereof, shall be ascertained in the Manner herein-before provided, and not otherwise, anything in the said Acts contained notwithstanding.

Commissioners may remove any insufficient Bridge, erecting a temporary Bridge.

XXXVII. Anything in the said first-recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding, if any existing Bridge, Culvert, or Archway for the Discharge of Water under any public Road shall in the Opinion of the Commissioners be insufficient for the free Discharge of such Water, and shall by reason of such Insufficiency cause or tend to cause the flooding of any Land to be drained or improved by the Works of the Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to take down and remove such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, the Commissioners constructing a temporary Bridge, Culvert, or Archway in the Place of that so to be taken down and removed, and supporting and maintaining the same for the Space of Twelve Months, the Expense of the taking down and Removal of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and constructing, supporting, and maintaining such temporary Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, to form Part of the Costs of the Works in the District within which any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway may be situate: Provided always, that before proceeding to remove any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway the Commissioners shall cause Thirty-one Days Notice to be given to the County Surveyor of the County or of each County (if more than One) in which such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall be wholly or in part situate, stating the Intention of the Commissioners to remove such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and communicating communicating such precise Information, including a detailed Plan and Cross Section of the River or Stream over which a new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway is to be built, as may be requisite to show the Dimensions of the Waterway of such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, for the Purpose of enabling the County Surveyor to prepare a proper Plan, Specification, and Estimate for such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and the Surveyor of any such County to whom such Notice shall be given shall at the next Assizes after the Receipt of such Notice lay the same, together with a proper Plan, Specification, and Estimate for such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, before the Grand Jury of such County.

Grand Jury to present for new Bridge.

XXXVIII. The Grand Jury of the County in which any such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall be required to be built or constructed is hereby authorized and required (without any Application to Presentment Sessions) to present the Amount necessary for the building of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway according to such Plan, Specification, and Estimate as aforesaid, or such other Plan, Specification and Estimate as such Grand Jury may approve, and the Grand Jury of such County shall thereupon appoint a Committee of not less than Three or more than Five Persons, any Three of whom shall be a Quorum, to contract and agree with any Party or Person willing to undertake the building of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, or the said Grand Jury may authorize and direct that the said Bridge, Culvert, or Archway may be built and constructed, out of the Money so presented, under the immediate Superintendence and Direction of the County Surveyor of such County.

Where any new Bridge, &c. is formed over a Stream between Two Counties, each to pay equal Moieties.

XXXIX. Where any such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall be over any River or Stream forming a Boundary between Two Counties, the same shall be built or constructed at the Expense of such Two Counties in equal Moieties; and the Grand Jury of each such County shall (without any Application to Presentment Sessions) present the Moiety of the Sum necessary for building or constructing such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and appoint a Committee, as herein-before provided in the Case of One County; and the Committees so appointed shall meet and act as a joint Committee, for the Purpose of contracting as aforesaid for the building or constructing of such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, at the joint Expense of the said Counties, as aforesaid; and in case both or either of such Grand Juries shall neglect to make such Presentment and appoint such Committees as aforesaid, or in case both or either of such Committees shall neglect to contract for the Construction of such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, or if from any other Cause such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway shall not be built or constructed within Twelve Months after such Notice by the Commissioners to the Surveyor of each County, as herein-before provided, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to have such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway built in such Manner as to them shall seem sufficient, and by a Certificate under their Hands and Seals to signify to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each such County the Amount of the Moiety of the Expenses incurred by them in building or constructing such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway, and the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each such County shall lay such Certificate before the Grand Jury of such County at the Assizes to be held for such Counties respectively next after the Receipt of such Certificate, and thereupon the Grand Jury of each such County shall (without any Application to Presentment Sessions) present the Amount mentioned in such Certificate, to be levied off such County immediately after such Assizes, and to be paid to the Commissioners; and in case the Grand Jury of any such County shall neglect or refuse to present the Sum so mentioned in such Certificate the Judge of Assize shall make an Order directing that the Treasurer for such County shall insert such Sum in his Warrant, and the same shall be levied off such County in the same Manner as if the same had been presented by such Grand Jury.

Foregoing Provisions applicable where Bridges have been already removed.

XL. In all Cases where before the passing of this Act any Bridge, Culvert, or Archway has, in the Execution of any Works under the said Acts, been removed by the Commissioners, and a new permanent Bridge, Culvert, or Archway has not been built or constructed or commenced, the Commissioners shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, give Notice to the County Surveyor of any or every County in which any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway so removed was wholly or in part situate, containing the like Information, for the building or constructing of such new Bridge, Culvert, or Archway as herein-before required in the Case of a Bridge, Culvert, or Archway hereafter removed; and the Provision herein-before contained for rebuilding or re-constructing any Bridge, Culvert, or Archway upon Notice of any existing Bridge, Culvert, or Archway being about to be removed, shall be applicable for the rebuilding or Re-construction of any such Bridge, Culvert, or Archway so already removed as aforesaid.

Trustees having Maintenance of Works to appoint a Superintendent.

XLI. For the Purpose of more effectively preserving and maintaining the Works executed by the Commissioners under the said Acts, the Trustees for the Time acting under the said Acts for such Purposes in any District shall meet in the Month of February in every Year, and at such other Times as they think fit, and shall appoint the County Surveyor or any other competent Person to be the Superintendent of the Works in such District, at such Salary, to be paid out of the Rates imposed by such Trustees, as they may think proper, and such Superintendent shall, in the Month of February in each Year, and from Time to Time as Occasion may require, report to the said Trustees the State of the whole of the principal Rivers and Main Drains forming Part of the Works improved or executed in such District, and whether any and what Repairs or Works are necessary for cleansing and preserving the same, and shall generally direct the carrying into effect of such Works as the Trustees may from Time to Time direct and approve for the Purposes aforesaid.

Proprietors or Occupiers may complain to Superintendent.

XLII. In case any Proprietor or Occupier of Land within any such District shall complain to such Superintendent of any Injury to the Works or Obstruction to the free Discharge of the Waters in such District, it shall be lawful for the Party so complaining to require such Superintendent to examine into the Matter so complained of, and to make his Report to the Trustees thereon; and thereupon it shall be be lawful for the Trustees or any Two of them, if they see fit, on receiving such Report, to require that such Injury shall be remedied or such Obstruction removed by such Superintendent.

Parties may appeal to Petty Sessions.

XLIII. In case the Trustees shall decline or refuse to have the necessary Works executed for the Removal of such Injury or Obstruction, it shall be lawful for the Party complaining to apply in a summary Way to the Justices assembled at the next Petty Session for the District in which the Cause of Complaint may arise, and thereupon such Justices shall proceed to hear the Matter of such Complaint and make such Order thereon as to such Justices shall seem proper, and thereby (if they see fit) to authorize and require such Superintendent to remove such Injury or Obstruction, and thereupon such Superintendent shall remove the same in like Manner as if the same had been authorized and directed by the said Trustees.

Acts to be construed as One Act.

Interpretation of "the Commissioners."

XLV. The several Acts mentioned in this Act and this Act shall be construed together as One Act; and the several Words and Expressions to which an extended Signification is given in the said Acts, or any of them, shall have the like Signification in this Act; and (save where such Construction would be inconsistent with the Context) the Expression "the Commissioners," where used in this Act, shall mean the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland.

Short Title.

II. This Act may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping Law Amendment Act, 1853."

Commencement of Act.

III. This Act shall come into operation on the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Light Dues and other Dues on Shipping.

6 & 7 Vict. c. lvii. (Local and Personal), 13 & 14 Vict. c. 93., 14 & 15 Vict. c. 96., 14 & 15 Vict. c. 79.

IV. 'And whereas the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of 'Dublin Corporation receive, under various Acts of Parliament, Grants, and Charters, certain Light-'house Tolls, and the said Trinity House, in respect of their exclusive Right of supplying Vessels in the 'River Thames with Ballast, receive certain Ballastage Rates under the said Act of the Seventh Year 'of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-seven: And whereas the Board of Trade receive certain Fees 'and other Payments under "The Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," "The Mercantile Marine Act 'Amendment Act, 1851," and "The Steam Navigation Act, 1851:" And whereas the Trinity House 'have, so far as relates to the said Tolls and Rates so received by them, agreed that the Account thereof 'shall be kept at the Bank of England, and that certain Regulations shall be adopted for the Purpose of 'reducing the same from Time to Time as the Requirements of the Services for which they are levied 'will permit, and for the Purpose of subjecting the Receipt and Expenditure thereof to effective Super-'vision and Control: And whereas it is expedient that the whole of the aforesaid Tolls, Rates, Fees, 'and Payments should be made subject to similar Regulations with a view to the Supervision and 'Control of the Receipt and Expenditure thereof, and to the Application thereof to the several Services 'in respect of which they are paid, and to the Reduction thereof respectively whenever Circumstances 'will permit:' Be it enacted, That all Lighthouse Tolls received by or on account of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively, and all Ballastage Rates received by the Trinity House, and all Fees or Payments received by the Board of Trade under the several Acts herein-before mentioned in that Behalf, shall be carried to One aggregate Fund, to be called "The Mercantile Marine Fund;" and such aggregate Fund shall be applicable to the Purposes of the Services in respect of which the said Tolls, Rates, Fees, and Payments are levied, and to the Execution of Works necessary or expedient for permanently reducing the Expense of such Services, and, save as herein-after specially mentioned, to no other Purposes whatever.

Light Dues payable to Trinity House, Northern Light Commissioners, and Ballast Board, and Ballast Rates of Trinity House to form the Mercantile Marine Fund.

Account of the said Fund to be kept by Her Majesty's Paymaster General.

V. An Account of the said Fund, to be entitled "The Mercantile Marine Fund Account," shall be opened with Her Majesty's Paymaster General; and the said Paymaster General shall keep separate Accounts of the several Monies so received as aforesaid by the said several Bodies respectively, and shall also keep separate Accounts of the Monies received by the Trinity House for Lighthouse Tolls and Ballastage Rates respectively, and shall keep the Accounts of all Monies received by the Trinity House in such Names as the Trinity House may from Time to Time appoint; and all Monies received on account of such Tolls, Rates, Fees, or Payments as aforesaid after the Time at which this Act comes into operation, and all Cash Balances arising from such Tolls, Rates, Fees, or Payments which at that Time are in the Hands of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, the Port of Dublin Corporation, or the Board of Trade, shall, as the Board of Trade may direct, either be applied to defray Expenses, or be remitted to the said Paymaster General to be placed to the Credit of the said Mercantile Marine Fund Account; and all Investments arising from any such Tolls as aforesaid which at the Time when this Act comes into operation are in the Hands of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses or of the Port of Dublin Corporation shall be sold, and the Produce thereof shall be applied and remitted in like Manner; and all Monies so remitted shall, so far as regards the Application thereof, be treated as forming One aggregate Fund, and shall be from Time to Time transferred and applied as the Board of Trade may direct for all or any of the Purposes specified in this Act.

Establishments for Lighthouses and Ballastage charged on the Mercantile Marine Fund to be fixed by Her Majesty in Council.

VI. Her Majesty may from Time to Time, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, fix the Establishments to be maintained by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively on account of the Services of Lighthouses, and to be maintained by the Trinity House on account of the Services to which the said Ballastage Rates are to be applied aforesaid, or the annual or other Sums to be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of such Establishments; and if it appears that any Part of the Establishments of the Trinity House, or of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or of the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively is maintained for the Purposes of this Act, and also for other Purposes, to fix and from Time to Time alter the Portion of the Expense of such Establishments to be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund; and no Increase of any Establishment or Part of an Establishment so fixed shall be made without the Consent of the Board of Trade.

Estimates, &c. to be approved by Board of Trade.

VII. The Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively shall from Time to Time submit to the Board of Trade Estimates of all Expenses in respect respect of the Services aforesaid, other than the Establishment Expenses for the Time being allowed by Order in Council as aforesaid; and shall also, whenever in providing for any sudden Emergency it is necessary to incur Expense in respect of such Services without waiting until an Estimate can be sanctioned, as soon as possible send to the Board of Trade a full account of such Expense; and the Board of Trade shall consider and may approve such Estimates and Accounts, either with or without Variation.

Light Dues and other Dues on Shipping.

No Expense to be allowed unless sanctioned by Board of Trade.

VIII. No Expense of the said Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or the Port of Dublin Corporation in respect of the said Services shall be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, or allowed in Account, other than the Sums so allowed for Establishment Expenses as aforesaid, or included in Estimates of Accounts approved by the Board of Trade.

For the Purpose of erecting and repairing Lighthouses, &c., Treasury may advance Money.

IX. For the Purpose of the Erection and Repairs of Lighthouses, and of other extraordinary Expenses connected with the said Services or any of them, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are authorized from Time to Time, upon the Application of the Board of Trade, to advance out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom such Sums of Money, upon such Terms, and at such Rate of Interest as they may think fit, and to pay the same into the said Mercantile Marine Fund Account, so nevertheless that the whole Sum for the Time being due in respect of such Advances shall never at any One Time exceed Two hundred thousand Pounds; and upon any Advance being so made, the Sum so advanced and the Interest shall be a Charge on the said Mercantile Marine Fund, and upon the Tolls, Rates, Fees, and Payments so to be carried thereto as aforesaid; and the Board of Trade shall make such Provision for the Repayment thereof out of the said Fund, either by forming a Sinking Fund or otherwise, as the said Commissioners may require; provided that no such Advance shall prevent any lawful Reduction of any of the said Tolls, Rates, Fees, or Payments if such Reduction be assented to by the said Commissioners.

Power to Board of Trade to borrow Money on the Credit of the Fund.

X. The Board of Trade may also, for the Purpose last aforesaid, raise Money by mortgaging the said Mercantile Marine Fund, and the several Tolls, Rates, Fees, and Payments so to be carried thereto as aforesaid, or any of them, or any Part thereof, to any Body Corporate or Person; and every such Mortgage shall be in such Form, and under the Hand and Seal of such Person or Persons, as the President of the said Board for the Time being may direct; and no Body Corporate or Person lending Money upon any such Mortgage shall be bound to see to the Purpose for which the same is raised, or to the Mode in which it is applied.

Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix Tolls to be taken for new Lighthouses.

XI. Upon the Erection of any new Lighthouse Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix such Toll in respect thereof to be paid by the Master or Owner of every Ship which passes the same or derives Benefit therefrom as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from Time to Time alter the Amount thereof; and such Toll shall be paid and collected in the same Manner, by the same Means, and subject to the same Conditions in, by, and subject to which the Lighthouse Tolls mentioned in the Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, are paid and collected.

Provisions for existing Debts and Charges.

XII. All Debts and Liabilities which have been duly incurred or undertaken by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively, before the passing of this Act, and which are such as if this Act had not been passed ought to have been paid out of the said Tolls and Rates, shall be paid or provided for out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund; and all Expenses of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, in respect of any charitable or other Pensions, Superannuations, or other Allowances which have been lawfully granted or allowed by them respectively before the passing of this Act, and which are such as if this Act had not been passed ought to have been paid out of the said Tolls and Rates, shall be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund during the respective Lives or Continuance in Office of the Persons receiving the same, or other Periods for which the same may have been granted or allowed; and if it appear that any Debts or Liabilities so incurred as aforesaid, or any of the Expenses in respect of charitable or other Pensions, and Superannuation or other Allowances, are Debts, Liabilities, or Expenses which if this Act had not been passed would have been paid partly out of the said Tolls and Rates and partly from other Sources, such Part thereof as the Board of Trade shall under the Circumstances of the Case think just shall be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund; and the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively shall submit to the Board of Trade Statements of all such Debts and Liabilities, and of all such Expenses or Parts of Expenses in respect of charitable or other Pensions, Superannuations or other Allowances, as are to be paid out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, and also Estimates of the Sums which may be from Time to Time required to provide for the same; and no Payment in respect of any such Debt, Liability, or Expense shall be made out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund unless provided for by such Estimates, and approved by the Board of Trade.

Power to commute Pensions and grant Superannuation Allowances.

XIII. The Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation may from Time to Time, with the Sanction of the Board of Trade, commute any charitable or other Pensions or other Allowances payable out of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, or grant Superannuations or Compensations to Persons whose Salaries may be charged on the said Fund, and who may be discharged or may retire, so nevertheless that no Superannuation Allowance or Compensation to any Person so discharged or retiring shall exceed the Proportion of his Salary which might be granted under similar Circumstances to a Person in the Public Civil Service under the Act of the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-four, or under any other Act for regulating such Superannuation Allowances or Compensations for the Time being in force; and such Commutations,

Superannuations,

Light Dues and other Dues on Shipping.

Superannuations, and Compensations shall from Time to Time be included in the Estimates to be submitted as aforesaid, and paid out of the said Fund.

Application of Ballastage Rates.

XIV. 'And whereas the Monies arising from Ballastage Rates are derived from local Sources, and it 'is expedient that the same should be applied for local Purposes:' Be it enacted, That, subject to the Payment of such Proportion of the Debts, Liabilities, and Expenses herein-before mentioned as may in the Opinion of the Board of Trade be fairly chargeable thereon, such Monies shall be applicable only to Services performed for the Purpose of supplying Ballast to or providing for the Safety or Convenience of such Ships as navigate the said River Thames, and the Seas and Channels leading thereto between Orfordness on the North and Dungeness on the South: Provided that if, in addition to the Duties hitherto performed in consideration of the said Ballastage Rates, the Trinity House, at the Request or with the Consent of the Owners or Masters of or Agents for any Ships, undertake to place Ballast on board thereof, or to unload Ballast therefrom, they shall be entitled to charge for such additional Duties such reasonable additional Rate per Ton for Ballast so placed on board or unladen as Her Majesty by Order in Council may from Time to Time approve.

Light Dues, &c. to be revised by Her Majesty in Council.

XV. Her Majesty may, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, from Time to Time, as Circumstances may appear to Her Majesty to permit, reduce all or any of the said Tolls or Rates received by the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, and may also from Time to Time increase or vary any of such Tolls or Rates; so that no Toll or Rate levied under any Authority existing at the Time of the passing of this Act be made to exceed the Amount which might have been demanded or received in respect thereof if this Act had not passed.

Fees received by the Board of Trade to be applied only in Payment for Services.

XVI. Subject to all Liabilities duly incurred or undertaken by or with the Sanction of the Board of Trade before the passing of this Act, such Part of the said Mercantile Marine Fund as arises from Fees and Payments received by the Board of Trade under the Acts herein-before mentioned in that Behalf shall be applied exclusively in or towards the Payment of Expenses duly incurred in carrying on the several Services herein-before mentioned, and for no other Purpose whatever; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade from Time to Time to reduce or alter the said Fees in such Manner as such Board may think fit, so that no Fee be demanded of greater Amount than could have been demanded if this Act had not passed.

Trinity House, &c. to account for Receipt and Expenditure to the Board of Trade.

XVII. The Sixty-second Section of the Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, shall be repealed; and the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation shall respectively account to the Board of Trade for their Receipts from the said Tolls and Rates so received by them as aforesaid, and for their Expenditure as regards Expenses paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund, in such Form, and at such Times, and with such Details, Explanations, and Vouchers, as the Board of Trade may require, and shall, when required by the said Board, permit all Books of Accounts kept by or under their respective Direction to be inspected and examined by such Persons as the said Board may appoint for that Purpose.

Accounts of Mercantile Marine Fund to be audited by Commissioners of Audit.

XVIII. The Board of Trade shall render to the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts periodical Accounts of the whole of the Receipts and Expenditure of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, such Accounts to be signed and declared to by the Accountant appointed by the Board of Trade for that Purpose; and in case of Default it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to make or direct such Allowance as under the Circumstances of the Case they may think fit in respect thereof.

Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

XIX. The Board of Trade shall as soon as practicable after the Meeting of Parliament in every Year cause the Account of the Mercantile Marine Fund for the then preceding Year to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Board of Trade may appoint Persons to inspect Lighthouses.

XX. The Board of Trade may, upon Complaint to the Effect that any Lighthouse under the Management of the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or the Port of Dublin Corporation, or any Work connected therewith, is inefficient, or improperly managed, or unnecessary, authorize Persons to inspect the same; and every Person so authorized may enter and inspect the same accordingly, and make such Inquiries in respect thereof, and of the Management thereof, as he may think fit; and all Officers and others having the Care of such Lighthouses or concerned in the Management thereof, shall furnish all such Information and Explanations in relation thereto as he may require; and the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, and their respective Officers, shall at all Times give to the Board of Trade all such Returns, Explanations, or Information in relation to such Lighthouses and the Management thereof, and in relation to the several Services aforesaid, as such Board may from Time to Time require.

Section 43. of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 79. repealed, and Trinity House, with Sanction of Board of Trade, to make Suggestions and give Directions to the other Lighthouse Boards.

XXI. The Forty-third Section of the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, shall be repealed; and the Trinity House may, with the Sanction of the Board of Trade, exercise the Powers given to them by the Forty-second Section of the same Act, and may further, with such Sanction as aforesaid, direct the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses and the Port of Dublin Corporation respectively to erect any new Lighthouse, and to continue, remove, or alter any Lighthouse on or near the Coasts and Islands within their respective Jurisdictions, in such Manner as the Trinity House may think fit and as the Board of Trade may approve: Provided always, that the said Trinity House, on making Application to the Board of Trade to give their Sanction to any Directions or Suggestions proposed by the said Trinity House under the said Act of the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-nine, or under this Act, shall give Notice to the said Commissioners sioners or Corporation respectively of such their Application, by causing written Notice of the said Application and a Copy of the said proposed Directions or Suggestions to be left at the Office of the said Commissioners in Edinburgh, or at the Office of the said Corporation in Dublin, as the Case may be, and that after Opportunity has been afforded to the said Commissioners or Corporation respectively to submit their Observations, if they see fit, with respect to such Application to the said Trinity House, (a Copy of which Observations the said Commissioners and Corporation respectively may, if they see fit, transmit to the Board of Trade,) then if the said Trinity House, with the Concurrence of the Board of Trade, shall adhere to their said Directions or Suggestions, it shall be the Duty of the said Commissioners and Corporation respectively, and they are hereby required, to carry into effect within a reasonable Time thereafter any Directions or Suggestions proposed by the said Trinity House and sanctioned by the Board of Trade as aforesaid.

Property used for the Purpose of the said Services to be exempt from all Rates and Taxes.

XXII. All Lighthouses and Lighthouse Tolls, and all other Fees or Payments accruing to or forming Part of the said Mercantile Marine Fund, and all Premises or Property belonging to the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, the Port of Dublin Corporation, or the Board of Trade, which are used or applied for the Purpose of any of the Services for which such Tolls, Fees, and Payments are received, shall be exempted from all public, parochial, or local Taxes of every Kind; and the Ships of the said Trinity House, Commissioners, and Corporation shall be privileged to enter or resort to all Ports, Piers, or Harbours in the United Kingdom and Isle of Man, without Payment of any Tolls, Dues, or Rates for the same.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 19. to apply to Land purchased for Lighthouses.

XXIII. The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, shall apply to all Lighthouses erected by the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses under any Powers given to them by any Act or Acts of Parliament, and to any Land which by any such Act or Acts they may be empowered to purchase; and all the Provisions of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act shall, so far as the same are in their Nature applicable thereto, apply to such Lighthouses and Land, and shall be construed as if the same were incorporated with the special Act or Acts by which such Powers as aforesaid are given.

Dues levied on Ships not to be sold or charged without Consent of the Board of Trade.

XXIV. No Dues, Tolls, Rates, or Charges, of what Nature soever, levied or leviable, or hereafter to be levied or leviable, on any Ships, or on any Goods carried in any Ships, in any Port of Great Britain or Ireland for any Purpose whatever, shall be sold, mortgaged, or charged in any Manner or for any Purpose without the Consent of the Board of Trade first obtained, such Consent to be signified by Writing under the Hand of One of the Secretaries or Assistant Secretaries to such Board; and any Sale, Mortgage, or Charge of any such Dues, Tolls, Rates, or Charges made after the passing of this Act without such Consent shall be absolutely void, except in the following Cases; that is to say, in the Case of any Sale, Mortgage, or Charge of any Dues, Tolls, Rates, or Charges levied for the Use of any Dock or other Undertaking intended solely for the Benefit of Shipping, where the Monies raised by the Sale, Mortgage, or Charge are to be applied exclusively for the Purposes of the Undertaking for the Use of which such Dues, Rates, Tolls, or Charges are levied or leviable, in the Case of any Mortgage or Charge made under the Authority of any Act of Parliament for the Purpose of raising Money to pay the Costs of any Work constructed or duly contracted for before the passing of this Act; and in the Case of any Mortgage or Charge made or continued under any Powers of reborrowing or continuing Money on Mortgage or Bond given by any Act of Parliament for the Purposes of any Work so constructed or contracted for as aforesaid.

Board of Trade Accounts.

Certain Sections of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 93. and 14 & 15 Vict. cc. 96. and 102 repealed.

XXV. The Eighteenth, One hundred and seventeenth, and One hundred and eighteenth Sections of "The Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," the Twenty-ninth and Thirty-first Sections of "The Mercantile Marine Act Amendment Act, 1851," and the Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Thirty-sixth, Fifty-first, and Fifty-sixth Sections of "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," shall be repealed.

Penalties under Merchant Seamen's Act to be paid into Exchequer.

XXVI. All Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures which under "The Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," "The Mercantile Marine Act Amendment Act, 1851," "The Steam Navigation Act, 1851," and "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," are made payable to the Board of Trade or as it may direct, shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in such Acts contained, be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Mode of dealing with Wages, &c. of deceased Seamen.

XXVII. In Cases of Wages or Effects of deceased Seamen received by the Board of Trade under "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," to which no Claim is substantiated within Six Years after the Receipt thereof by such Board, it shall be in the absolute Discretion of such Board, if any subsequent Claim is made, either to allow or to refuse the same; and the Board of Trade shall from Time to Time pay any Monies arising from the unclaimed Wages and Effects of deceased Seamen, which in the Opinion of such Board it is not necessary to retain for the Purpose of satisfying Claims, into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct, and such Monies shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Property belonging to Merchant Seamen's Fund to be paid into Exchequer.

XXVIII. All Monies which under "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," now are or may hereafter become Part of or applicable to the Purposes of the General Fund therein mentioned, shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct; and all Property, not being Money so forming Part of or being applicable to the Purposes of the said Fund as aforesaid, shall be sold, and the Produce thereof shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in like Manner; and all Monies so paid into the Board of Trade Accounts.

Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Expenses of Merchant Seamen's Fund to be provided for by annual Vote.

XXIX. The several Payments and Expenses which by the said "Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," are charged partly on the said General Fund therein mentioned, and partly on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall, except as regards the Payment to the Seamen's Hospital Society herein-after mentioned, be provided for by annual Votes of Parliament.

Gross Sum to be paid to Seamen's Hospital Society in lieu of annual Payments.

XXX. In lieu of the Payments heretofore made to the Seamen's Hospital Society under the said Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall and they are hereby authorized, immediately on the passing of this Act, to direct the Payment to such Society, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kindom, of the Sum of Two thousand three hundred and fifty-one Pounds Five Shillings; and the said Commissioners shall also, at the End of each Year, direct Payment to such Society out of the said Consolidated Fund of an annual Sum equal in Amount to the Sum paid into the Exchequer in the same Year on account of Fines or Penalties inflicted under the Twenty-second Section of the Act of the Eighth Year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twelve, to be applied by such Society according to the Directions contained in the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Nine.

Manning.

Part of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 29. as to manning repealed.

XXXI. So much of the Act of the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Twenty-nine, as requires every British Ship to be navigated by a Master who is a British Subject and by a Crew of whom the whole or such Proportion as therein mentioned are British Subjects, shall be repealed.

Declaration to be made by Transferees of British Ships for the Purpose of proving themselves to be British Subjects.

XXXII. Whenever any Share or Shares in any British registered Ship is or are transferred to any Purchaser or Purchasers, unless such Ship is thereupon registered de novo, each such Transferee shall make and subscribe the following Declaration; (that is to say,)

'I [or we] [Name or Names of the Transferee or Transferees] do truly declare, That I [or we] am [or are] bonâ fide a British Subject [or British Subjects]. And I [or we] do further truly declare, that no Foreigner hath directly or indirectly any Interest whatever in the Share [or Shares] within transferred to me [or us].

'Declared before me this Day of 18 .

'Signature _____ { Collector, Comptroller, or Justice of the Peace, as the Case may be.'

And each such Transferee shall, if he resides at any Port or within Five Miles of the Custom House of any Port, make and subscribe the same before the Collector or Comptroller of such Port, and if he resides elsewhere, before some Justice of the Peace; and such Declaration shall be indorsed on the Bill of Sale or other Instrument of Transfer; and no such Bill of Sale or Instrument of Transfer as aforesaid shall be registered unless such Declaration has first been duly indorsed thereon and subscribed as herein-before required.

Ships unduly assuming British Character may be seized and brought in for Adjudication.

XXXIII. 'And whereas it is expedient to prevent the undue Assumption of the British Flag and 'National Character:' Be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons use the British Flag and assume the British National Character on board any Ship, owned in whole or in part by any Persons not being entitled by Law to own British Ships and navigate them under British Colours and Papers, for the Purpose of making such Ship appear to be a British Ship, it shall be lawful for any Officer on Full Pay in the Naval Service of Her Majesty, or any Officer of Customs, to seize and detain such Ship on the High Seas or in any British Port, and to bring her for Adjudication before the High Court of Admiralty or any Vice-Admiralty Court in Her Majesty's Dominions.

If the Simulation is proved, the Ship may be condemned.

XXXIV. If it is made to appear to such Court by competent Evidence that such Ship has been navigated under the British Flag and British Papers, though owned in whole or in part by any Person or Persons not entitled to own British Ships, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the said Court may pronounce the said Ship to be confiscated to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Volunteering into the Navy.

So much of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112. as to Wages, instead of being paid at once, to be given to the Queen's Officer on account of the Seaman, repealed.

XXXV. So much of the Fifty-first Section of the Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, as requires the proportionate Amount of the Wages of any Seaman who quits his Ship and enters Her Majesty's Naval Service, up to the Time of such Entry, to be paid to him thereupon, shall be repealed; and in all such Cases such proportionate Amount of Wages shall be paid as follows; that is to say, the Master of the said Ship shall pay the same, either in Money or by Bill drawn upon the Owner and payable at sight, to the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Ship into which the Seaman enters; and the Receipt of such Officer shall be a Discharge for the Money or Bill so given; and if such Wages are paid in Money, such Money shall be credited in the Muster Book of the Ship to the Account of the said Seaman, and if such Wages are paid by Bill, such Bill shall be sent home to the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Navy, who shall present the same or cause the same to be presented for Payment, and shall credit the Produce thereof to the Account of the said Seaman; and such Money or Produce, as the Case may be, shall be paid to the said Seaman at the Time when the Wages of the Crew of the Ship into which he enters are paid; provided that no Officer who receives any such Bill as aforesaid shall be subject to any Liability in respect thereof, except for the safe Custody thereof until sent to the said Accountant General as aforesaid; and if any such Bill is not duly paid when presented, the Seaman on whose Behalf the same is given may sue thereon, or may recover the Wages due to him by all or any of the same Means by which Wages due to Merchant Seamen are recoverable.

XXXVI. If

Volunteering into the Navy.

If new Seamen are engaged instead of the original Seamen, the Owner may apply for Repayment of the extra Expense he has been put to.

XXXVI. If in consequence of any Seaman so quitting his Ship without the Consent of the Master or Owner thereof, it becomes necessary for the Safety and proper Navigation of the said Ship to engage a Substitute or Substitutes, and if the Wages or other Remuneration paid to such Substitute or Substitutes for subsequent Service exceed the Wages or Remuneration which would have been payable to the said Seaman under his Agreement for similar Service, the Master or Owner of the said Ship may apply to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty in England for a Certificate authorizing the Repayment of such Excess; and such Application shall be in such Form, and shall be accompanied by such Documents, and by such Statements, whether on Oath or otherwise, as the Judge of the said Court may from Time to Time direct; and the said Registrar shall upon receiving any such Application give Notice thereof in Writing, and of the Sum claimed, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of the Admiralty, and shall proceed to examine the said Application, and may call upon the Registrar General of Seamen to produce any Papers in his Possession relating thereto, and may call for further Evidence; and if the whole of the Claim appears to him to be just, he shall give a Certificate accordingly, but if he considers that such Claim or any Part thereof is not just, he shall give Notice of such his Opinion in Writing under his Hand to the Person making the said Application or his Attorney or Agent; and if within Sixteen Days from the giving of such Notice such Person do not leave or cause to be left at the Office of the Registrar of the said Court a written Notice demanding that the said Application shall be referred to the Judge of the said Court, then the said Registrar shall finally decide thereon, and certify accordingly; but if such Notice be left as aforesaid, then the said Application shall stand referred to the said Judge in his Chambers, and his Decision thereon shall be final, and the said Registrar shall certify the same accordingly; and the said Registrar and Judge respectively shall in every Proceeding under this Act have full Power to administer Oaths, and to exercise all the ordinary Powers of the Court, as in any other Proceeding within its Jurisdiction; and the said Registrar or Judge (as the Case may be) may, if he thinks fit, allow, for the Costs of any Proceeding under this Act, any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for each Seaman so quitting his Ship as aforesaid; and such Sum shall be added to the Sum allowed, and shall be certified by the said Registrar accordingly.

Application to be decided on, and Certificate for Amount given.

Costs not exceeding 5*l.* per Man may be given.

XXXVII. Every Certificate so given shall be sent by Post or otherwise to the Person making the Application, his Attorney or Agent, and a Copy thereof shall be sent to the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Navy; and such Accountant General shall, upon Delivery to him of the said original Certificate, together with a Receipt in Writing purporting to be a Receipt from the Master or Owner making the Application, pay to the Person delivering the same, out of the Monies applicable to the Naval Service of Her Majesty and granted by Parliament for the Purpose, the Amount mentioned in such Certificate; and such Certificate and Receipt shall absolutely discharge the said Accountant General and Her Majesty from all Liability in respect of the Monies so paid or of the said Application.

Accountant General to pay Sums so certified.

Desertion.

Seamen imprisoned for Desertion or Breach of Discipline may be sent on board before the Termination of the Sentence.

XXXVIII. If any Seaman or Apprentice is imprisoned in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions on the Ground of his having neglected or refused to join any Ship in which he is engaged to serve, or of having deserted or otherwise absented himself therefrom without Leave, or of his having committed any other Breach of Discipline, and if during such Imprisonment, and before his Engagement is at an end, his Services are required on board his Ship, any Justice may, at the Request of the Master or of the Owner or his Agent, cause such Seaman or Apprentice to be conveyed on board his said Ship for the Purpose of proceeding on the Voyage, or to be delivered to the Master or any Mate of the Ship, or the Owner or his Agent, to be by them so conveyed, notwithstanding that the Termination of the Period for which he was sentenced to Imprisonment has not arrived.

Lascar Seamen for Australia.

Contracts may be made with Natives in India under certain Conditions binding them to go to Australia, and thence to serve in other Ships to the United Kingdom.

XL. 'And whereas it is expedient to give Facilities for obtaining Seamen in the Australian Colonies:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Master of a Ship, or any Owner of a Ship, or his Agent, to enter into Contracts with Lascars or Natives of the Territories of the East India Company, binding them to proceed to any Port or Ports in the Australian Colonies either as Seamen or as Passengers, and there to engage themselves as Seamen in any Ship bound to the United Kingdom, or to any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions; provided that every such Contract shall be in such Form, and shall contain such Provisions, and shall be executed in such Manner, and under such Conditions for securing the Return of such Lascars or Natives to their own Country and for other Purposes, as the Governor General of India in Council, or the Governors of the respective Presidencies in which the Contract is made in Council may direct; and if any Lascar or other Person who has bound himself by any such Contract is, on arriving in any of the said Colonies, required to enter into an Agreement to serve as a Seaman in any Ship bound for the United Kingdom or to any other Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, and if it is certified by some Officer appointed for that Purpose by the Governor of the said Colony that such Agreement is a proper Agreement in all respects for such Lascar or other Person to enter into, and is in accordance with the original Contract, and that the Ship to which such Agreement relates is a proper Ship for such Lascar or other Person to serve in, and is properly supplied with Provisions, and that there is not in the Opinion of such Officer any Objection to the full Performance of the said Contract, such Lascar or other Person shall be bound to enter into the said Agreement, and to serve as a Seaman in the Ship to which it relates, and shall thereupon be deemed to be for all Purposes One of the Crew of the Ship; and if he refuses to enter into such Agreement he shall, notwithstanding such Refusal, be liable to the same Consequences, and be dealt with in all respects in the same Manner, as if he had voluntarily entered into the same; and for every Lascar or other Person in respect of whom such Certificate is applied for, the Person applying for the same shall pay to such Officer as aforesaid such Fee as the Governor of the Colony may appoint.

Salvage.

As to Salvage Services rendered by Her Majesty's Ships.

XXXIX. In Cases where Salvage Services are rendered by any Ship belonging to Her Majesty, or by the Commander or Crew thereof, no Claim shall be made or allowed for any Loss, Damage, or Risk thereby caused to such Ship, or to the Stores, Tackle, or Furniture thereof, or for the Use of any Stores or other Articles belonging to Her Majesty supplied in order to effect the Salvage Service, or for any other Expense or Loss sustained by Her Majesty by reason of such Services.

Steps to be taken when Salvage Services have been rendered by Her Majesty's Ships abroad.

XLI. Whenever Services for which Salvage is claimed are rendered to any Ship or Cargo, or to any Part of any Ship or Cargo, or to any Appurtenances of any Ship, at any Place out of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Four Seas adjoining thereto, by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships, the Property alleged to be salved shall, if the Salvor is justified by the Circumstances of the Case in detaining it at all, be taken to some Port where there is either a Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Court; and within Twenty-four Hours after arriving at such Port the said Salvor and the Master or other Person in charge of the Property alleged to be salved shall each deliver to the Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge there a Statement verified on Oath, specifying, so far as they respectively can, and so far as the Particulars required apply to the Case,

a. The Place, Condition, and Circumstances in which the said Ship, Cargo, or Property was at the Time when the Services were rendered for which Salvage is claimed;

b. The Nature and Duration of the Services rendered:

And the Salvor shall add to his Statement,

c. The Proportion of the Value of the said Ship, Cargo, and Property, and of the Freight which he claims for Salvage, or the Values at which he estimates the said Ship, Freight, Cargo, and Property respectively, and the several Amounts that he claims for Salvage in respect of the same;

d. Any other Circumstances he thinks relevant to the said Claim:

And the said Master or other Person in charge of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property shall add to his Statement,

e. A Copy of the Certificate of Registry of the said Ship, and of the Indorsements thereon, stating any Change which (to his Knowledge or Belief) has occurred in the Particulars contained in such Certificate;

f. The Name and Place of Business or Residence of the Freighter (if any) of the said Ship, and the Freight to be paid for the Voyage she is then on;

g. A general Account of the Quantity and Nature of the Cargo at the Time the Salvage Services were rendered;

h. The Name and Place of Business or Residence of the Owner of such Cargo and of the Consignee thereof;

i. The Values at which the said Master estimates the said Ship, Cargo, and Property, and the Freight respectively, or, if he thinks fit, in lieu of such estimated Value of the Cargo, a Copy of the Ship's Manifest;

j. The Amounts which the Master thinks should be paid as Salvage for the Services rendered;

k. An accurate List of the Property saved, in Cases where the Ship is not saved;

l. An Account of the Proceeds of the Sale of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, in Cases where the same or any of them are sold at such Port as aforesaid;

m. The Number, Capacities, and Condition of the Crew of the said Ship at the Time the said Services were rendered;

Any other Circumstances he thinks relevant to the Matters in question;

A Statement of his Willingness to execute a Bond, in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed, in such Amount as the said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge shall fix.

Consular Officer or Judge to fix Amount for which a Bond is to be given;

XLII. The said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge, as the Case may be, shall, within Four Days after receiving the aforesaid Statements, fix the Amount to be inserted in the said Bond at such Sum as he shall to the best of his Judgment think to be sufficient to answer the Demand for the Salvage Services rendered, but so that such Sum shall never exceed One Half of the Value which he puts upon the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo, or those of them or the Parts thereof in respect of which Salvage is claimed; and the said Consular Officer or Judge may, if either of the aforesaid Statements is not delivered to him within the Time hereby required, proceed ex parte; but he shall in no Case under this Act require the Cargo to be unladen; and the said Consular Officer may in any Proceeding under this Act relating to Salvage take Affidavits and receive Affirmations.

and send Notice thereof to the Master.

XLIII. The said Consular Officer or Judge shall send Notice of the Sum which he has so fixed as aforesaid to the said Salvor and the said Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid; and upon such Master or other Person executing a Bond in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed, with the said Sum inserted therein, in the Presence of the said Consul or Judge (who shall attest the same), and delivering the same to the said Salvor, the Right of the said Salvor to detain or retain Possession of the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, or any of them, in respect of the said Salvage Claim, shall cease.

On Master executing Bond, Right of Detention to cease.

Provision for additional Security in the Case of Ships owned by Persons resident out of Her Majesty's Dominions.

XLIV. Provided, That if the Ship, Cargo, or Property in respect of which the Claim for Salvage is made, is not owned by Persons domiciled in Her Majesty's Dominions, the Right of the Salvor to detain or retain Possession thereof shall not cease unless the Master or other Person in charge thereof procures, in addition to the said Bond, such Security for the due Performance of the Conditions thereof as the said Officer or Judge considers sufficient for the Purpose, and places the same in the Possession or Custody of the said Officer or Judge, or, if the Salvor so desires, in the Possession or Custody of the said Officer or Judge jointly with any other Person whom the said Salvor may appoint for the Purpose.

XLV. The

Salvage.

XLV. The said Consular Officer or Judge shall at the earliest Opportunity transmit the said Statements and Documents so sent to him as aforesaid, and a Notice of the Sum he has so fixed as aforesaid, to the High Court of Admiralty of England, or if the said Salvor and the said Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid agree that the said Bond shall be adjudicated upon by any Vice-Admiralty Court, to such Court.

Documents to be sent to England.

XLVI. The said Bond shall bind the respective Owners of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, for the Salvage adjudged to be payable in respect of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo respectively.

Whom the Bond shall bind.

XLVII. The said Bond shall be adjudicated on and enforced by the High Court of Admiralty in England, or if the said Salvor and Master or other Person at the Time of the Execution of the said Bond agree upon any Vice-Admiralty Court, then by such Vice-Admiralty Court; and any such Vice-Admiralty Court shall and may, in every Proceeding under this Act, have and exercise all and singular the Powers and Authorities whatsoever which the said High Court of Admiralty now has or at any Time may have in any Proceeding whatsoever before it; and in Cases where any Security for the due Performance of the Conditions of the said Bond has been placed in the Possession or Custody of the said Consular Officer or Vice-Admiralty Judge, or of such Officer or Judge jointly with any other Person, they shall respectively deal with the said Security in such Manner as the Court which adjudicates on the Bond may direct.

Court in which it is to be adjudicated on.

XLVIII. The said High Court of Admiralty shall have Power to enforce any Bond given in pursuance of this Act in any Vice-Admiralty Court in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions; and all Courts in Scotland, Ireland, and the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man exercising Admiralty Jurisdiction shall upon Application aid and assist the High Court of Admiralty in enforcing the said Bonds.

Power of High Court of Admiralty to enforce Bonds.

XLIX. Any such Salvor as aforesaid of any Ship, Cargo, or Property who may elect not to proceed under this Act, shall have no Power to detain the said Ship, Cargo, or Property, but may proceed otherwise for the Enforcement of his Salvage Claim as if this Act had not been passed; and nothing in this Act contained shall abridge or affect the Rights of Salvors, except in the Cases by it provided for.

Saving Clause.

L. Whenever Services for which Salvage is claimed are rendered either by the Commander or Crew or Part of the Crew of any of Her Majesty's Ships, or of any other Ship, and the Salvor voluntarily agrees to abandon his Lien upon the Ship, Cargo, and Property alleged to be salved, upon the Master or other Person in charge thereof entering into a written Agreement, attested by Two Witnesses, to abide the Decision of the said High Court of Admiralty or of any Vice-Admiralty Court, and thereby giving Security in that Behalf to such Amount as may be agreed on by the Parties to the said Agreement, such Agreement shall bind the said Ship and the said Cargo and the Freight payable therefor respectively, and the respective Owners of the said Ship, Freight, and Cargo for the Time being, and their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, for the Salvage which may be adjudged to be payable in respect of the said Ship, Cargo, and Freight respectively to the Extent of the Security so given as aforesaid, and may be adjudicated upon and enforced in the same Manner as the Bonds above mentioned; and upon such Agreement being made, the Salvor and the Master or other Person in charge as aforesaid shall respectively make such Statements as are herein-before required to be made by them in case of a Bond being given, except that such Statements need not be made upon Oath; and the Salvor shall, as soon as practicable, transmit the said Agreement and the said Statements to the Court in which the said Agreement is to be adjudicated upon.

Voluntary Agreements may be made which shall have the same Effect as Bonds above mentioned.

LI. All Bonds, Statements, Agreements, and other Documents made or executed in pursuance of such Parts of this Act as relate to Salvage shall, if so made or executed out of the United Kingdom, be exempt from Stamp Duty, and shall be received in Evidence, though unstamped.

Documents free from Duty.

Penal Cla ses.

LII. Every Person who, in making or supporting any such Application as aforesaid to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, or who in any Proceeding under this Act in respect of Salvage, fraudulently forges, alters, or procures to be forged or altered, any Document, and every Person who in making or supporting any such Application or in any such Proceeding puts off or makes use of any such forged or altered Document, or who in making or supporting any such Application or in any such Proceeding gives or makes or procures to be given or made, or assists in giving or making or procuring to be given or made, any false Evidence or Representation, knowing the same to be false, or who in any such Declaration as herein-before required upon the Purchase of any Share or Shares in any Ship makes any false Statement or Representation, shall be punishable with Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Two Years, or, if summarily prosecuted and convicted, by Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Six Months.

Punishment for Forgery and false Representations.

LIII. All Criminal Proceedings under this Act shall be carried on in the same Manner as similar Proceedings under the said Mercantile Marine Act, 1850, and all Rules of Law, Practice, and Evidence which are applicable to such last-mentioned Proceedings shall be applicable to Criminal Proceedings under this Act.

Mode of Procedure in Criminal Cases.

Procedure in Scotland under Merchant Service Acts.

LIV. All Offences which by the Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, the Act of the Ninth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and sixteen, "The Mercantile Marine Act, 1850," "The Mercantile Marine Act Amendment Act, 1851," "The Steam Navigation Act, 1851," "The Seamen's Fund Winding-up Act, 1851," or this Act, are described as Misdemeanors, or are made punishable by Imprisonment for Periods exceeding Six Months, may, in Scotland, be prosecuted by Indictment or Criminal Letters at the Instance of Her Majesty's Advocate before

All Offences under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 112.,

8&9 Vict. c. 116., 13 & 14 Vict. c. 93. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 96., 79., & 103., punishable as Misdemeanors.

before the High Court of Justiciary, or by Criminal Libel at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the County before the Sheriff, and shall be punishable with Fine and with Imprisonment with or without Hard Labour in default of Payment, or with Imprisonment with or without Hard Labour, or with both, as the Court may think fit; and such Court may also, if it think fit, order Payment by the Offender of the Costs and Expenses of the Prosecution: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to extend to the Prosecution of Offences punishable by Transportation.

Summary Proceedings. Penalties how to be sued for.

LV. All Prosecutions, Complaints, Actions, or Proceedings, whether of a criminal or civil Nature, under any of the said last-mentioned Acts, other than Prosecutions for Offences described as Misdemeanors or punishable by Transportation, may be brought in a summary Form before the Sheriff of the County, or before any Two Justices of the Peace of the County or Burgh where the Cause of such Prosecution or Action arises, or where the Offender or Defender may be for the Time.

LVI. All Penalties imposed by the said Acts may be sued for and recovered, with the Costs of Prosecution, before the Sheriff or any Two Justices as aforesaid, at the Instance of the Party to whom such Penalty is made payable in whole or in part, with Concurrence of the Procurator Fiscal of Court, or at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of Court where such Penalty is not made payable either in whole or in part to any private Party.

Form of Complaint, &c.

LVII. All Prosecutions, Complaints, Actions, or other Proceedings under the said Act may be brought either in a written or printed Form, or partly written and partly printed, and where such Proceedings are brought in a summary Form it shall not be necessary in the Complaint to recite or set forth the Clause or Clauses of the Act on which such Proceeding is founded, but it shall be sufficient to specify or refer to such Clause or Clauses, and to set forth shortly the Cause of Complaint or Action, and the Remedy sought; and when such Complaint or Action is brought in whole or in part for the Enforcement of a pecuniary Debt or Demand, the Complaint may contain a Prayer for Warrant to arrest upon the Dependence.

Mode of requiring Appearance of Defender and Witnesses.

LVIII. On any Complaint or other Proceeding brought in a summary Form under the said Acts being presented to the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace, he shall grant Warrant to cite the Defender to appear personally before the said Sheriff or Justices of the Peace on a Day fixed, not less than Three Days after a Copy of the Complaint or other Proceeding has been served upon him, and at the same Time shall appoint a Copy of the same to be delivered to him by a Sheriff Officer or Constable, as the Case may be, along with the Citation; and such Deliverance shall also contain a Warrant for citing Witnesses and Havers to compear at the same Time and Place, to give Evidence and produce such Writs as may be specified in their Citation; and where such Warrant has been prayed for in the Complaint or other Proceeding, the Deliverance of the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace shall also contain Warrant to arrest upon the Dependence in common Form: Provided always, that Service made on any Party or Witness by leaving a Copy of Citation for him on board of any Ship to which he may belong shall be of equal Force and Effect as Service made at his Dwelling House.

Backing Arrestments.

LIX. When it shall become necessary to execute such Arrestment on the Dependence against Goods or Effects of the Defender within Scotland, but not locally situated within the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace by whom the Warrant to arrest has been granted, it shall be competent to carry the Warrant into execution on its being indorsed by the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace of the County or Burgh respectively within which such Warrant comes to be executed.

Compelling Attendance of Witnesses.

LX. That in all Proceedings under the said Acts the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace shall have the same Power of compelling Attendance of Witnesses and Havers as in Cases falling under their ordinary Jurisdiction.

Proceedings to be vivâ voce.

LXI. The whole Procedure in Cases brought in a summary Form before the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace shall be conducted vivâ voce, without written Pleadings, and without taking down the Evidence in Writing, and no Record shall be kept of the Proceedings other than the Complaint and the Sentence or Decree pronounced thereon.

Power to adjourn.

LXII. It shall be in the Power of the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace to adjourn the Proceedings from Time to Time to any Day or Days to be fixed by them, in the event of Absence of Witnesses or of any other Cause which shall appear to them to render such Adjournment necessary.

Sentence to be in Writing.

LXIII. All Sentences and Decrees to be pronounced by the Sheriff or Justices of the Peace upon such summary Complaints shall be in Writing; and where there is a Decree for Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money against a Defender, such Decree shall contain Warrant for Arrestment, Poinding, and Imprisonment in default of Payment, such Arrestment, Poinding, or Imprisonment to be carried into effect by Sheriffs Officers or Constables, as the Case may be, in the same Manner as in Cases arising under the ordinary Jurisdiction of the Sheriff or Justices: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to repeal or affect an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of William the Fourth, intituled An Act for abolishing, in Scotland, Imprisonment for Civil Debts of small Amount.

Imprisonment to be inflicted in default of Payment.

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 70.

Sentence, Penalties, &c. in default of Defender's Appearance.

LXIV. In all summary Complaints and Proceedings for Recovery of any Penalty or Sum of Money, if a Defender who has been duly cited shall not appear at the Time and Place required by the Citation, he shall be held as confessed, and Sentence or Decree shall be pronounced against him in Terms of the Complaint, with such Costs and Expenses as to the Court shall seem fit: Provided always, that he shall be entitled to obtain himself reponed against any such Decree at any Time before the same be fully implemented, by lodging with the Clerk of Court a Reponing Note, and consigning in his Hands the Sum decerned for and the Costs which had been awarded by the Court, and on the same Day delivering or transmitting through the Post to the Pursuer or his Agent a Copy of such Reponing Note; and a Certificate by the Clerk of Court of such Note having been lodged shall operate as a Sist of Diligence till the Cause shall have been reheard and finally disposed of, which shall be on the next Sitting of the Court, or on any Day to which the Court shall then adjourn it. Procedure in Scotland.

or

LXV. In all summary Complaints or other Proceedings not brought for the Recovery of any Penalty or Sum of Money, if a Defender, being duly cited, shall fail to appear, the Sheriff or Justices may grant Warrant to apprehend and bring him before the Court. Warrant to apprehend in default of Appearance.

LXVI. In all Cases where Sentences or Decrees of the Sheriff or Justices require to be enforced within Scotland, but beyond the Jurisdiction of the Sheriff or Justices by whom such Sentences or Decrees have been pronounced, it shall be competent to carry the same into execution, upon the same being endorsed by the Sheriff Clerk or Clerk of the Peace of the County or Burgh within which such Execution is to take place. Backing Sentences or Decrees.

LXVII. No Order, Decree, or Sentence pronounced by any Sheriff or Justice of the Peace under the Authority of this Act shall be quashed or vacated for any Misnomer, Informality, or Defect of Form; and all Orders, Decrees, and Sentences so pronounced shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to Suspension, Advocation, Reduction, or to any Form of Review or Stay of Execution, except on the Ground of Corruption or Malice on the Part of the Sheriff or Justices, in which Case the Suspension, Advocation, or Reduction must be brought within Fourteen Days of the Date of the Order, Decree, or Sentence complained of: Provided always, that no Stay of Execution shall be competent to the Effect of preventing immediate Execution of such Order, Decree, or Sentence. Orders not to be quashed for Want of Form; and to be final.

LXVIII. Such of the general Provisions with respect to Procedure and Penalties contained in the said last-mentioned Acts as are not inconsistent with the special Rules herein-before laid down for the Conduct of legal Proceedings and the Recovery of Penalties in Scotland, shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend to such last-mentioned Proceedings and Penalties. General Rules, so far as applicable, to extend to Penalties and Proceedings in Scotland.

The SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Act.

CAP. CXXXII.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act of the present Session for redeeming or commuting the Annuity payable to the South Sea Company and certain Annuities of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and to provide for Payments to be made under the said Act.

[20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS under the Act of the present Session of Parliament (Chapter Twenty-three), "for "redeeming or commuting the Annuity payable to the South Sea Company and certain Annuities "of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum, and for creating new Annuities of Three Pounds Ten "Shillings per Centum per Annum and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, and issuing "Exchequer Bonds," certain Periods of Time were allowed to the said South Sea Company and to the 'Proprietors of the Annuities therein mentioned to signify their Assents for the Commutation or 'Exchange of their respective Annuities into or for the new Annuities and Exchequer Bonds to be 'created and issued under the said Act: And whereas the South Sea Company have not signified any 16 Vict. c. 23.

'Assent

'Assent within the Period allowed to them as aforesaid: And whereas under the Constitution of the 'South Sea Company no Persons are capable of voting at any General Court of the Company save those 'who have Five hundred Pounds or more of the Capital Stock of the Company in their own Name and 'Right: And whereas it is expedient that the Parties interested in the Stock in respect of which no Vote 'could be given in the General Court of the Company should be enabled to commute the same as herein-'after mentioned, and that the said Company should be allowed to commute upon the like Terms such 'Sum as may be invested as a Guarantee Fund in case they should be authorized by Parliament to under-'take the Administration of private Trusts: And whereas it is necessary to provide for paying off such 'Parties as have not and shall not signify their Assent to Commutation under the said Act or this Act:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

South Sea Company may commute, according to the Provisions of 16 Vict. c. 23., or for 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent. Annuities, 1844, Annuity on their Stock belonging to Proprietors disabled from voting in General Courts.

I. If the South Sea Company shall, in pursuance of any Offer of Commutation to be made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury under the Powers of this Act, signify to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in Writing, under the Common Seal of such Company, their Assent to commute and exchange any Part or Parts of the Annuity or Interest on their Trading or Capital Stock into or for any One or more of the New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds authorized to be created and issued respectively by the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, and the Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities and New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities created under Two Acts of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapters Four and Five, or like Annuities to be created under this Act (herein-after referred to as Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities, 1844), the said Company shall be permitted to make such Commutation or Exchange accordingly, upon the Terms herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) such Commutation or Exchange into or for the said Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds respectively to be upon the Terms and subject to the Conditions upon and subject to which such Commutation or Exchange was authorized under the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, and such Commutation or Exchange into or for the said Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities, 1844, to be upon such Terms and subject to such Conditions as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may see fit to offer; provided that the said Company shall, upon signifying any such Assent as aforesaid, certify that the Annuities and Bonds respectively to be taken by them under such Commutation and Exchange will, under the Authority of an Act enabling the said Company to enter into Arrangements with the Proprietors thereof, and by virtue of Consents or Authorities previously signified under the Provisions of such Act, be appropriated in respect of Shares of their Trading or Capital Stock standing in the Names of the Accountants General of the Courts of Chancery of England and Ireland respectively, and of the Accountant in Bankruptcy in England, and of Trustees and others disabled from voting in respect of such Shares in the General Court of the said Company, or in the Names of some of the Parties aforesaid, as the Case may be.

South Sea Company, if authorized to undertake private Trusts, may commute for the Purpose of forming a Guarantee Fund.

II. In case the said South Sea Company shall by any Act of the present Session of Parliament have been authorized to undertake the Administration of private Trusts, and the said Company or the Court of Directors thereof, under their Common Seal, or under the Hands of Six of the Directors of the said Company, shall, in pursuance of any Offer of Commutation to be made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury under the Powers of this Act, signify their Assent to commute or exchange any Part of the Annuity or Interest payable on their Trading or Capital Stock, for the Purpose of the Investment of the Annuities or Bonds to be received under such Commutation or Exchange as a Guarantee Fund for such Administration of private Trusts, the said Company or such Court of Directors thereof shall be permitted to make such Commutation or Exchange accordingly into any One or more of the said Annuities and Bonds authorized to be created and issued by the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, or the said Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities, 1844, upon the same Terms and subject to the like Conditions as are herein granted in respect of the Commutation and Exchange of such other Part of the Annuity or Interest on their Trading or Capital Stock as the Company are permitted to commute or exchange.

Treasury to appoint Times within which Assents of Company to commute shall be signified, and to fix Terms of Commutation into 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent. Annuities.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any Time or from Time to Time before the Twenty-fifth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, by Warrant under their Hands to offer to the South Sea Company such Commutation as is authorized by this Act, either for the Purposes of an Appropriation of Annuities or Bonds in respect of the Shares of the Parties herein-before mentioned, or any of them, or for the Purpose of the said Guarantee Fund, and to limit the Time or respective Times with reference to the Purposes for which such Commutation is to be made, but not later in any Case than the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, within which the said South Sea Company or the Court of Directors thereof shall be permitted to signify their Assent to commute or exchange in pursuance of such Offer, and the said Commissioners shall in every such Warrant specify the Price or Rate at which Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities, 1844, may be taken by the said Company on any Commutation in pursuance of such Offer into such Annuities of any Part of the Annuity or Interest payable on their Trading or Capital Stock.

Provisions of 16 Vict. c. 23. to extend to

IV. All the Provisions of the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, in relation to the Commutation and Exchange thereby authorized, and the Stock and Exchequer Bonds to be created and issued respectively for the Purposes of such Commutation and Exchange, shall extend to the Commutation and and Exchange authorized by this Act, and to the Stocks and Exchequer Bonds to be created and issued for the Purposes of such Commutation and Exchange, save as herein expressly provided.

Commutation under this Act.

V. In case the said South Sea Company shall, under the Provisions of this Act, signify to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury their Assent to commute or exchange any Part of the Annuity or Interest payable on their Trading or Capital Stock into or for Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities, 1844, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall thereupon, by Warrant under their Hands, authorize and direct the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to enter or cause to be entered into the Name of the said South Sea Company in the Books of the said Governor and Company the Amount or Amounts of Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities, 1844, to which the said Company may be entitled under such Assent.

Treasury may give Directions for creating the 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent. Annuities to which the Company may be entitled on Commutation.

VI. The Annuities which shall be created from Time to Time as aforesaid by virtue of this Act shall be deemed and taken to be and shall from Time to Time be added to and shall form Part of the Capital of the said Three Pounds Five Shillings Annuities and New Three Pounds per Centum Annuities created under the said Acts of the Seventh Year of Her Majesty, Chapters Four and Five, and the Dividends arising thereon shall, as the same shall become due, be charged upon and issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in like Manner as the Dividends on the Annuities now forming the said Capital.

Annuities so created to form Part of the Capital of 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent. Annuities, 1844.

VII. Provided always, That a Quarter of a Year's Dividends or Interest, and no more, shall be paid on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, on any Sum or Share of the said Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum Annuities for or into which any Part of the Annuity or Interest on the Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company may have been commuted or exchanged under this Act.

On First Dividend Day only One Quarter's Dividend on 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent. to be payable.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their Hands, to direct to be charged upon and to be issued and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of the growing Produce thereof, from Time to Time, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be required for paying off any of the Proprietors of the Capital Stocks of Old South Sea Annuities, New South Sea Annuities, Bank Annuities, 1726, and Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, 1751, mentioned in the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, in respect of whose Annuities Assents to commute shall not have been signified according to the said Act, and also for paying to the said South Sea Company the Sum payable to such Company under the said Act in respect of the Amount of the Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company, or the Part thereof the Interest or Annuity on which shall not have been commuted or exchanged according to the said Act of the present Session of Parliament or this Act.

Treasury may direct the Payment of such Sum as may be required for paying off Annuities and Stock not commuted under 16 Vict. c. 23. or this Act.

IX. 'And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the Authority vested 'in them by the Third Section of the said Act, have fixed the Rate of Interest to be payable and paid on 'such Exchequer Bonds as may be issued under the Authority of the said Act at Two Pounds Fifteen 'Shillings per Centum per Annum for the Period which shall elapse from the issuing such Bonds up to the 'First Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the Bonds to carry 'Interest thereafter at the Rate of Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum as provided by the 'said Act, and have determined that such Exchequer Bonds shall, after the First Day of September One 'thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, be redeemable at Par at the Option of the Commissioners of Her 'Majesty's Treasury only so soon as Parliament shall have made due Provision in respect thereof:' Until Parliament shall have made such Provision, and such Exchequer Bonds shall be redeemed in exercise of such Option as aforesaid, the Interest thereon shall, after the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, continue to be payable out of the said Consolidated Fund at the said Rate of Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum per Annum on the same half-yearly Days and in the same Manner as from the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four to the said First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

After Exchequer Bonds become redeemable Interest to be paid on the half-yearly Days until actual Redemption.

X. Every Person who shall make, or cause or procure to be made, or shall aid or assist in making, or shall knowingly have in his Possession not being legally authorized by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and without lawful Excuse, (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused,) any Instrument having therein any Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, or Devices peculiar to and appearing in the Substance of any Paper provided or to be provided or used for Exchequer Bonds, or any Machinery for working any Threads into the Substance of any Paper, or any such Thread, and intended to imitate such Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or Devices, or any Plate peculiarly employed for printing Exchequer Bonds, or any Die peculiarly used for preparing any such Plate, or for sealing such Exchequer Bonds, or any Plate or Die intended to imitate such Plates or Dies respectively; and also every Person, except as before excepted, who shall make, or cause or procure to be made, or aid or assist in making any Paper in the Substance of which shall appear any Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or other Devices peculiar to and appearing in the Substance of any Paper provided or to be provided or used for Exchequer Bonds, or any Part of such Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or other Devices, and intended to imitate the same; and also every Person, except as before excepted, who shall knowingly have in his Possession without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused) any Paper whatever, in the Substance whereof shall appear any such Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or Devices, as aforesaid, or any Part of such Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or Devices, and intended to imitate the same, and also every Person, except as before excepted, who shall cause or assist in causing any such Words, Punishing Persons manufacturing or using Paper, Plates, or Dies intended to imitate those used for Exchequer Bonds.

Words, Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or Devices as aforesaid, or any Part of such Words' Letters, Figures, Marks, Lines, Threads, or other Devices, and intended to imitate the same, to appear in the Substance of any Paper whatever, or who shall take or assist in taking any Impression of any such Plate or Die as aforesaid, shall be guilty of Felony.

Persons unlawfully having in Possession Paper, Plates, or Dies to be used for Exchequer Bonds, guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XI. Every Person not lawfully authorized and without lawful Excuse (the Proof whereof shall lie on the Person accused), who shall purchase or receive, or take and have in his Custody, any Paper manufactured and provided by or under the Directions of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the Purpose of being used as Exchequer Bonds before such Paper shall have been duly stamped, signed, and issued for Public Use, or any such Plate or Die as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof shall, at the Discretion of the Court before whom he shall be tried, be imprisoned for any Period not more than Three Years nor less than Six Calendar Months.

CAP. CXXXIII.

An Act to suspend the making of Lists and the Ballots and Enrolments for the Militia of the United Kingdom, and to amend the Law in relation to the Militia in England.

[20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to suspend for a further Period the making of Lists and the Ballots and 'Enrolments for the Militia of the United Kingdom, and to make certain Provisions in relation to 'the Militia in England:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom suspended.

I. All General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom, save only such General Meetings as may be called under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or for the Purpose of altering, enlarging, or providing any Place for the Reception of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores belonging to the Militia, and all Proceedings relating to procuring any Returns, or preparing or making out Lists of such Militia or any Part thereof, or relating to balloting for or enrolling any Militiamen or Substitutes, or supplying any Vacancies in such Militia, save such Proceedings as are or may be directed or authorized by or under the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Fifty, as amended by the Provisions herein-after contained, shall cease and remain suspended until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Proceedings may be had during such Suspension by Order in Council.

II. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by any Order in Council to direct that any Proceedings shall be had at any Time before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid, either for the giving of Notices and making Returns and preparing Lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol Men for the filling up Vacancies in the Militia, as Her Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order all such Proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the Provisions of the Acts in force in Scotland and Ireland respectively relating to the giving Notices for and Returns for Lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of Men to supply any Vacancies in the Militia, and holding General and Subdivision Meetings for such Purpose, at such Times respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any Directions given in pursuance thereof to Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several Counties Shires, Cities, and Places in Scotland, or to the Governors and Deputy Governors of Counties and Places in Ireland; and all the Provisions of the several Acts in force in Scotland and Ireland respectively relating to the Militia shall, upon any such Order, and Direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full Force and be carried into execution at the Period specified in such Order or Direction as aforesaid, with all such Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, as fully as if such Periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such Militia.

So much of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 50. as relates to Deputy Lieutenants raising Volunteers for the Militia repealed.

III. Sections Eleven, Fifteen, and Seventeen of the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Fifty, so far as the same respectively relate to the raising and enrolling of Volunteers for the Militia by Deputy Lieutenants, and require Deputy Lieutenants to keep or cause to be kept Entries of Persons enrolled in the Militia, and to transmit Copies of such Entries to the Clerks of General Meetings, shall be repealed: Provided always, that the Deputy Lieutenants of Counties, Ridings, and Places shall severally aid the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia of their respective Counties, Ridings, or Places in raising and enrolling Volunteers for such Militia in the several Parishes where such Deputy Lieutenants may be resident, and otherwise as the Lieutenants of such Counties, Ridings, or Places may from Time to Time direct, but no General or Subdivision Meeting shall be holden for that Purpose, unless such Meeting be convened pursuant to any special Order made in this Behalf by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Notices of General and Subdivision Meetings to be sent to Deputy Lieutenants by Post in lieu of being published in Gazette and Newspapers.

IV. So much of Section Twenty-one of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, as requires Notices of the Days and Places of holding General Meetings of Lieutenancy to be given in the London Gazette and in such Newspapers as therein mentioned, shall be repealed; and Notices of such Meetings shall be sent by the Post by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the several Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Division Seven Days at the least before the Days appointed for holding such Meetings respectively; and any Notices of Subdivision Meetings required to be given to Deputy Lieutenants or others shall be sent by the Clerk of General Meetings by Post instead of being otherwise delivered or left as now by Law required.

V. No

Times and Places of Exercise to be appointed without General Meetings of Lieutenancy.

V. No General Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be holden for appointing the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militia in England, except by the special Order of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; but the Times and Places of Training and Exercise of the Militiamen serving for each County, Riding, and Place in England shall be appointed, with the Approbation of Her Majesty, by the Lieutenant of such County, Riding, or Place, or by the Vice-Lieutenant in case of the Illness or Absence of the Lieutenant, or in case of the Non-appointment of any Vice-Lieutenant, then by Three Deputy Lieutenants authorized by Her Majesty to act as or in the Place of such Lieutenant when such Lieutenant is out of Great Britian, or when there is no such Lieutenant: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the Powers vested in Her Majesty under Sections Twenty-six and Twenty-seven of the said Act of last Session.

How Notices of Times and Places of Exercise to be given.

VI. Sections Ninety and Ninety-one of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third shall be repealed, and Notices to Men who are enrolled in the Militia in England to attend Training and Exercise shall be sent, by the Order of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which such Men belong, by the Post to the Residences of the several Men as stated on their Attestations, or as subsequently notified by them, and Public Notices shall also be sent to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers of the respective Parishes, Tithings, and Places in the County, Riding, or Place for which such Men are enrolled, with Directions to cause the same to be affixed on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and Chapel in their respective Parishes, Tithings, or Places, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church; and if any Place have no Church or Chapel, then in such Manner as Public Notices are usually made known in such Places, and on the Doors or outer Walls as aforesaid of the Churches or Chapels of some Parish, Tithing, or Place adjoining; and every such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, and other Officer as aforesaid shall, within Three Days after the Receipt of any such Notice, cause the same or Copies thereof to be affixed accordingly; and any such Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer who wilfully neglects so to do shall for every such Offence, on Conviction thereof before Two Justices, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and such Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of the Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Queen Victoria, Chapter Fifty, notwithstanding any Omission in the Notices by Post; and any such Man not appearing at the Time and Place appointed in any such Notice shall be subject to be punished and dealt with accordingly.

Penalties for fraudulent Re-enlistment.

VII. Any Militia Volunteer who, before the Expiration of his Engagement as a Militiaman in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, enrols or offers to enrol himself in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, whether by the same or by different Names (save in the Way of lawful Renewal of his Engagement), shall upon a Conviction thereof, upon the Oath of One Witness, before any One Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, and in default of such Payment shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding Three Months, and shall also be liable to the Deduction out of the Bounty which he might otherwise have received in respect of his original Enlistment of a Sum equal to what he may have received upon his fraudulent Re-enlistment, and of such further Sum as the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps in which he may have originally enlisted shall think proper, or as the Secretary-at-War may from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the Expenses of his Attestation and Enrolment on such fraudulent Re-enlistment.

The Justice before whom a Militiaman is convicted of Enlistment in the Regular Forces or Re-enlistment in the Militia, to send Report of Conviction to Secretary-at-War.

VIII. The Justice before whom a Militia Volunteer shall be convicted of having enlisted into the Regular Forces of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, by which he will be subjected to a Stoppage from his Pay while serving with such Forces, or of having enrolled or offered to enrol himself in another Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, or more than once in the same Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, shall send or cause to be sent to the Secretary-at-War a Report of such Conviction, stating the Name of such Volunteer, the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia to which he belongs, the Offence of which he has been convicted, and the Sentence or Decision of the Justice thereon, and, where such Volunteer shall be imprisoned in pursuance of such Conviction, the Period when the Imprisonment will expire; and for such Report as aforesaid the Clerk of the said Justice shall be entitled to a Fee of Two Shillings and no more.

Power to discharge Men from the Militia who have enlisted in the Regular Forces.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War at any Time to discharge any Militia Volunteer upon such Conditions as he may from Time to Time direct, and such Volunteer shall have no Claim to future Pay or Bounty, or to release from future Attendance in the Militia any Volunteer who may have enlisted into Her Majesty's Regular Forces or into the Forces of the East India Company, and who has been sentenced to Imprisonment, or to Forfeiture for a Period not exceeding Eighteen Calendar Months of One Penny a Day from his Pay in such Forces; and any Man so released shall serve with the Force in which he may have enlisted in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, with the like Liabilities in all respects as any Soldier in such respective Force, and his Place in the Militia shall be supplied in like Manner as if his Term of Service as a Militiaman had expired by Efflux of Time.

Provision for withholding Payment of Bounty from Men wrongfully absent from Training.

X. Any Bounty which, under the Regulations made or to be made under the said Act of the last Session, may be payable during or in respect of Attendance at Training and Exercise shall be forfeited by any Man who wholly absents himself from such Training and Exercise without Leave lawfully granted, or Sickness, certified according to such Regulations; and any such Bounty which would otherwise be payable to any Man who partially absents himself as aforesaid without such Leave, or Sickness, certified as aforesaid, or who misconducts himself during the Training, shall be wholly withheld, or issued only in such such Manner and in such Portions as the Secretary-at-War, upon the Report of the Commanding Officer, shall determine.

Enrolment in Militia not to cause Forfeiture of any Interest in any Benefit Society.

XI. No Man by reason of his Enrolment or Service in the Militia, or in the Naval Coast Volunteers, shall lose or forfeit, or be deemed to have lost or forfeited, any Interest he may possess, or may have possessed at the Time of his so being enrolled or serving, in any Friendly or Benefit Society, any Laws, Rules, or Regulations of such Society to the contrary notwithstanding; and in case any Dispute shall arise between any such Society and any such Man by reason of such Enrolment or Service, it shall be considered as being a Dispute directed by the Rules of such Society to be decided by Justices of the Peace, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts in force relating to Friendly Societies.

Provision for Apprehension of Militiamen not attending or absenting themselves during Training.

XII. Sections One hundred and eight and One hundred and nine of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, shall be repealed; and the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall notify to the Secretary-at-War, and to the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers of the Parishes, Tithings, and Places in which Militiamen reside who have not attended Training and Exercise, or who may have absented themselves during the Time of Training and Exercise of their respective Regiments, Battalions, or Corps, the Names and Descriptions of all such Volunteers who have so absented themselves; and it shall be lawful for any Constable, Tithingman, Headborough, or Officer, or for any Officer or Soldier in Her Majesty's Service or in the Militia, to apprehend or cause any such Volunteer to be apprehended, and to bring him or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with as herein-after mentioned, if the Battalion or Corps to which he belongs has ceased Training and Exercise, or to be committed to safe Custody until an Escort can be sent for him if such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps be then out for Training and Exercise; and such Justice shall transmit an Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary-at-War, specifying whether the Deserter has been committed for Imprisonment under the aforesaid Section, or is only held in safe Custody until he can be sent to the Head Quarters of his Regiment, Battalion, or Corps for Trial; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary at-War a Report stating the Name of the Person or Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary-at-War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Person or Persons of such Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings as the Secretary-at-War may think fit.

Punishment of Men not attending, or absenting themselves during Training, and not taken till after.

XIII. Every Militiaman raised under the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Fifty, (not labouring under any certified Infirmity or Incapacity,) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised according to the Provisions of this Act (Notice having been given as hereby required), or who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Companies or any Detachment or Division thereof, shall desert or absent himself during the Time of any such Exercise, shall be deemed a Deserter, and if not taken until after the Time of such Exercise, such Deserter shall, upon Conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if such Penalty shall not be immediately paid, the Justice of the Peace shall commit such Militiaman to the House of Correction to Hard Labour or to the Common Gaol for any Period not exceeding Three Months, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

Penalty for inducing Militiamen to absent themselves, or harbouring, &c. such Men.

XIV. Any Person who by Words or other Means shall persuade any Militiaman improperly to absent himself from his Duty, and every Person who shall assist or procure any such Volunteer improperly to absent himself as aforesaid, or shall conceal, employ, or continue to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Recovery of Penalties.

XV. All Offences for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act imposed shall and may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace in or near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed, or where the Offender may at any Time happen to be; and all such Penalties and Forfeitures, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such Justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as any pecuniary Penalties may be recovered in England or Wales, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders: Provided always, that in all Cases in which there shall not be sufficient Goods whereon any Penalty or Forfeiture can be levied, the Offender may be committed and imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Six Months; which said Act shall be used and applied in Scotland and in Ireland for the Recovery of all such Penalties and Forfeitures as fully to all Intents as if such Act had extended to Scotland and Ireland; anything in the said Act, or in an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Acts regulating the Proceedings at Petty Sessions, and the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Quarter Sessions, in Ireland, to the contrary notwithstanding.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 93.

Application of certain Penalties.

XVI. One Moiety of every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed under the said Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, upon any Person duly convicted of buying, taking in exchange, concealing, or otherwise receiving contrary to Law any Militia Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, or Regimental Necessaries belonging to any Militiaman, or any Public Stores or Ammunition for the Service of the Militia, and every pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture imposed under this Act upon any Person assisting, procuring, or persuading any Militia Volunteer improperly to absent himself from his Duty, or concealing, employing, or continuing to employ any such Volunteer, knowing him to be so improperly absent, shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the other Moiety, or where the Offence shall be proved by the Person who shall inform, then the whole of the Penalty shall be paid over and applied in such Manner as the Secretary-at-War shall direct, anything in an Act passed in the Sixth Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding; and every Justice who shall adjudge any such Penalty or Forfeiture shall, within Four Days at the furthest, report the same and his Adjudication thereof to the Secretary-at-War. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76.

XVII. All Penalties imposed by this Act upon Militiamen (except the Deductions from Bounty, which shall be brought to Public Credit,) shall be paid to the Commanding Officers of the respective Regiments, Battalions, or other Bodies of Militia of the respective Counties, Ridings, or Places to which the Volunteer belongs, and shall be made and accounted for as Part of the Public Stock of such Regiment, Battalion, or other Body of Militia respectively. Application of Penalties on Militiamen.

XVIII. Section Ninety-eight of the Forty-two George the Third, Chapter Ninety, which requires Returns of the State of the Classes of the Men belonging to each Company of Militia called out to Exercise, shall be and remain suspended so long as the raising of the Militia by Ballot shall be suspended. 42 G. 3. c. 90. s. 98. suspended.

XIX. Any Militia Volunteer attached for a Time for the Purpose of Instruction to any Regiment, Battalion, or Depôt of Her Majesty's Forces shall for such Time be deemed to be under the Operation of the Mutiny Act, in the same Manner as any Soldier enlisted in such Regiment, Battalion, or Depôt. Volunteers subject to Mutiny Act.

XX. None of the Provisions of this Act, except Sections One and Two, shall extend to the Militia of Scotland or Ireland. Not to extend to Scotland or Ireland (except ss. 1. 2.)

CAP. CXXXIV.

An Act to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis. [20th August 1853.]

15 & 16 Vict. c. 85.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament "to amend the Laws concerning "the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis," and it is expedient to make better Provision for 'and in relation to Burials beyond the Limits of the said Act:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

On Representation of Secretary of State, Her Majesty in Council may restrain the opening of new Burial Grounds, and order Discontinuance of Burials in specified Places.

I. In case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the Representation of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the Protection of the Public Health the opening of any new Burial Ground in any City or Town, or within any other Limits, save with the previous Approval of One of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that Burials in any City or Town, or within any other Limits, or in any Burial Grounds or Places of Burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any Exception or Qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in such City or Town, or within such Limits, without such previous Approval, or (as the Case may require) that after a Time mentioned in the Order Burials in such City or Town, or within such Limits, or in such Burial Grounds or Places of Burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any Exceptions or Qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from Time to Time as Circumstances may require; provided always, that Notice of such Representation, and of the Time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some other conspicuous Places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, One Month before such Representation is so considered: Provided also, that no such Representation shall be made in relation to the Burial Ground of any Parish until Ten Days previous Notice of the Intention to make such Representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish.

Order not to extend to Burial Grounds of Quakers or Jews, unless expressly included.

II. No such Order in Council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any Burial Ground of the People called Quakers, or of the Persons of the Jewish Persuasion, used solely for the Burial of the Bodies of such People and Persons respectively, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such Order; and nothing in this Act shall prevent the Burial in any such Burial Ground in which for the Time being Interment is not required to be discontinued of the Bodies of such People and Persons respectively; and no such Order in Council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any non-parochial Burial Ground being the Property of any private Person, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such Order.

Burial not to take place after Order in Council for Discontinuance.

III. It shall not be lawful, after the Time mentioned in any such Order in Council for the Discontinuance of Burials, to bury the Dead in any Church, Chapel, Churchyard, or Burial Place, or elsewhere, within the Parts to which such Order extends, or in the Burial Grounds or Places of Burial (as the Case may be) in which Burials have by any such Order been ordered to be discontinued, except as in this Act or in such Order excepted; and every Person who shall, after such Time as aforesaid, bury any Body, or in anywise act or assist in the Burial of any Body, contrary to this Enactment, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Saving of certain Rights to bury in Vaults, &c.

IV. Provided always, That notwithstanding any such Order in Council, where by virtue of any Faculty legally granted, or by Usage or otherwise, there is at the Time of the passing of this Act any Right of Interment in or under any Church or Chapel affected by such Order, or in any Vault of any such Church or Chapel, or of any Churchyard or Burial Ground affected by such Order, and where any exclusive Right of Interment in any such Burial Ground has been purchased or acquired before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time, on Application being made to him, and on being satisfied that the Exercise of such Right will not be injurious to Health, to grant Licence for the Exercise of such Right during such Time and subject to such Conditions and Restrictions as such Secretary of State may think fit, but such Licence shall not prejudice or in anywise affect the Authority of the Ordinary, or of any other Person who, if this Act had not been passed, might have prohibited or controlled Interment under such Right, nor dispense with any Consent which would have been required, nor otherwise give to such Right any greater Force or Effect than the same would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Not to extend to certain Cemeteries or new Burial Grounds, &c.

V. The Provisions of this Act shall not extend to authorize the Discontinuance of Burials, or to prevent the Burial of the Body of any Person, in any Cemetery established under the Authority of any Act of Parliament, or in any Burial Ground or Cemetery to be hereafter provided with the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as herein mentioned.

New Burial Grounds not to be opened contrary to Order in Council.

VI. Where by any such Order in Council as aforesaid it is ordered that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in any City or Town, or within any Limits therein mentioned, without the previous Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, no new Burial Ground or Cemetery (parochial or non-parochial) shall be provided and used in such City or Town, or within such Limits, without such previous Approval.

Certain Provisions of Metropolitan

VII. All the Provisions contained in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-five, "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis," from Section Ten to Section

Section Forty-two (both inclusive) of the said Act, and also in Sections Forty-four, Fifty, Fifty-one, and Fifty-two of the said Act, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any Parish not in the Metropolis, and for the Purpose of providing a Burial Ground for any such Parish, or otherwise providing for the Interment of the Bodies of Persons who would have had Right of Interment in the Burial Ground of any such Parish, and generally in relation to every such Burial Ground to be so provided, and the Fees and Payments to be received in respect of Interment or other Rights therein and otherwise, as if such Sections were re-enacted in this Act, and the Words "in the Metropolis," wherever they occur in such Sections, or any of them, were omitted; and Section Forty-nine of the said Act shall extend to all Cemeteries already established and hereafter to be established under the Authority of Parliament in like Manner as to those mentioned in Schedule (B.) to that Act, and as respects the Cemeteries to which such Section is hereby extended, the same shall also apply in respect of Burials at the Expense of any Hospital or Infirmary in like Manner as to Burials at the Expense of a Union or Parish: Provided always, that in all Cases in which any Burial Board shall provide a new Burial Ground under the said Act of the last Session of Parliament or under this Act, that new Burial Ground shall be divided into consecrated and unconsecrated Parts in such Proportions, and the unconsecrated Part thereof shall be allotted in such Manner and in such Portions as may be sanctioned by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and when any Burial Board shall by virtue of Section Thirty of the said Act build on any Burial Ground provided by such Board a Chapel for the Performance of the Burial Service according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, they shall also build, on the Portion of such Ground set apart for Burials otherwise than according to the Rites of the said Church, such Chapel Accommodation for the Performance of Burial Service by Persons not being Members of the said Church as may be approved of by One of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State.

Burial Act, 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85., extended to Parishes, &c. not in the Metropolis.

Any Burial Board building a Chapel for Burials according to the Rites of the Church of England also to build a Chapel for Persons not being Members of the Church of England.

VIII. All Burials within any Burial Ground provided under the said Act of the last Session of Parliament or this Act shall be registered in a Register Book to be provided by the Burial Board providing such Ground (or where the same is provided by the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London then by such Commissioners), and kept for that Purpose according to the Laws in force by which Registers are required to be kept by the Rectors, Vicars, or Curates of Parishes or Ecclesiastical Districts in England; and such Register Book shall be so kept by some Officer appointed by the said Board or Commissioners to that Duty; and in such Register Books shall be distinguished in what Parts of the Burial Ground, and where the whole of such Burial Ground is not consecrated for Interments according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, whether in the Portion so consecrated or in the Portion not so consecrated the several Bodies (the Burials of which are entered in such Register Books) are buried; and in case such Burial Ground has been provided for more than One Parish, such Register shall be kept or indexed so as to facilitate Searches for Entries in such Books in respect of Bodies from the several Parishes; and such Register Books or Copies or Extracts therefrom shall be received in all Courts as Evidence of the Burials entered therein, and Copies or Transcripts of such Register Books, verified and signed by such Officer as aforesaid, shall be from Time to Time sent to the Registrar of the Diocese to be kept with the Copies of the other Register Books of the Parishes within such Diocese; and the said Register Books, so far as respects Searches to be made therein and Copies and Extracts to be taken therefrom, shall be subject to the same Regulations as are provided by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, so far as such Regulations relate to Register Books of Burials kept by any Rector, Vicar, or Curate.

Register of Burials to be kept in every Ground provided under 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85. or under this Act.

Entries to be Evidence.

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 86.

IX. Nothing in this Act, except the Provisions in Sections Seven and Eight, shall extend to any Parish in "the Metropolis," as defined by the said Act of the last Session, or otherwise affect the Provisions of that Act.

Act, except ss. 7. and 8., not to extend to the Metropolis.

X. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

CAP. CXXXV.

An Act to continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain, and to make further Provisions concerning Turnpike Roads in England. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for limited Times the Acts herein-after specified, and to make further Provisions concerning Turnpike Roads in England:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. Every Act now in force for regulating, making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road in Great Britain which will expire on or before the End of the next Session of Parliament shall be continued until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; except an Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, "for amending and maintaining the Road from Whitchurch to Ternhill in the County of Salop," and except as herein-after mentioned.

All Turnpike Acts expiring before End of next Session continued to 1st Oct. 1854, &c., with certain Exceptions.

II. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall continue in force until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and no longer, unless Parliament shall in the meantime continue the same respectively.

Acts in Schedule continued till 1st Nov. 1854.

III. 'And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her 'Majesty, Chapter Eighty-seven, it was enacted, that in every Case in which the Trustees or Commissioners

12 & 13 Vict. c. 87.

'sioners of any Turnpike Road should thereafter borrow, charge, or secure any Money on the Credit of 'the Tolls arising on such Road, such Trustees or Commissioners should, out of the Tolls of such Road, 'and in priority to all other Payments except such Interest as therein mentioned, set apart a Sum of 'Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Amount of Money so borrowed, charged, or secured; and 'when and so often as the Sums so set apart should amount to Two hundred Pounds, the said Trustees 'or Commissioners should apply such Sum in Payment of a proportionate Part of the Monies borowed, 'charged, or secured as aforesaid in manner therein mentioned: And whereas by the Act of the Session 'holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine, it was enacted, 'that where the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road had, before the passing of the said 'Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, borrowed, charged, or secured any Money 'on the Credit of the Tolls arising on such Road, and any such Money should remain unpaid and 'unsatisfied at the Time of the passing of the Act now in recital, such Trustees or Commissioners 'should, out of the Tolls of such Road, after Payment thereout of the Interest on any Monies owing on 'the Security of the said Tolls, and such Sums as should be required to be set apart under the said 'herein-before recited Enactment of the said Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, 'and all such other Liabilities and Expenses as therein mentioned, set apart a Sum of Five Pounds per 'Centum per Annum on the Amount of Principal Money so borrowed, charged, or secured before the 'passing of the said Act, and remaining unpaid and unsatisfied as aforesaid, or such lesser Sum as 'might from Time to Time remain after such Payment as aforesaid; and when and so often as the Sum 'so set apart should amount to the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the said Trustees or Commissioners 'should apply such Sum in or towards Payment of the Monies so borrowed, charged, or secured as 'aforesaid, and then remaining unpaid, in manner provided by the said Act of the Twelfth and Thir-'teenth Years of Her Majesty with respect to the Application of Money arising from the Sums set apart 'as therein mentioned in or towards the Discharge of Monies borrowed, charged, or secured after the 'passing of such last-mentioned Act:'

13 & 14 Vict. c. 79.

Sinking Fund may be applied in Payment of Debts before it amounts to 200*l.*, or, with Consent, Application may be postponed.

It shall be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, where it appears to them convenient so to do, to apply any Money arising from Sums set apart as required by the said recited Acts or either of them in or towards the Discharge of Debts according to the Directions of such Acts respectively, although such Monies may not amount to Two hundred Pounds, or, with the Consent in Writing of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under his Hand, to postpone such Application of such Monies until the same amount to any greater Sum than Two hundred Pounds, which the said Trustees or Commissioners, with such Consent as aforesaid, may determine.

Trustees may apply Surplus in Payment of Debts in manner provided by recited Acts with respect to Sinking Funds.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, where they have any surplus Monies applicable towards the Discharge of Principal Money secured on the Tolls of such Road beyond such Sums as under the said recited Acts or either of them, or under any Local Act, they are required to set apart or apply for that Purpose, to apply, if they think fit, such surplus Monies in or towards Payment of the Principal Money secured as aforesaid in manner provided by the said first-mentioned Act with respect to the Application of Monies arising from the Sums set apart as therein mentioned in or towards the Discharge of Monies borrowed, charged, or secured after the passing of that Act.

Power to Executors, &c. to consent.

V. All Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and all Committees of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics, who as such are for the Time being entitled to any Money charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of any Turnpike Road, may offer to accept and may accept under the said recited Acts or either of them, or this Act, or any Local Act, such Composition in respect of such Money or any Part thereof as they in their Discretion may deem expedient, and may in their Discretion accept any reduced or lower Rate of Interest in respect of such Money or any Part thereof, and also consent to or concur in the Extinction in whole or in part of any Arrears of Interest payable in respect of such Money or any Part thereof, as if they respectively were so entitled in their own Right, discharged of all Trusts in respect thereof; and all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and Committees so consenting are hereby severally indemnified for so doing.

Erroneous Reference in 14 & 15 Vict. c. 38. to Sect. 36. of 3 G. 4. c. 126. instead of Sect. 32. corrected.

VI. 'And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her 'Majesty, Chapter Thirty-eight, it was enacted, that the Words "Implements of Husbandry" in Section 'Thirty-six of Chapter One hundred and twenty-six of the Statute of the Third Year of King George 'the Fourth should be deemed to include "Threshing Machines:" And whereas Section Thirty-six of 'such last-mentioned Act was referred to by Mistake instead of Section Thirty-two of such Act:'

The said Enactment of the said Act of the Fourtteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty shall be read and construed as if Section Thirty-two of the Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, had been mentioned instead of Section Thirty-six of such Act.

Short Title.

VII. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1853."

Extent of Act.

VIII. This Act shall not apply to Ireland.

CAP. CXXXVI.

An Act for enabling Grand Juries in Ireland to borrow Money from private Sources on the Security of Presentment, and for transferring to Counties certain Works constructed wholly or in part with Public Money. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Grand Juries in Ireland to raise Money on the Security of Presentments:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Money may be raised on the Security of Presentments repayable by Instalments, with Interest.

I. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town, at any Assizes, or if in the County of Dublin at any Presenting Term, to present any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of any Public Work which by Law it is or may be competent for them to present, (the estimated Cost of which shall not be less than One thousand Pounds) in order to obtain Advances by way of Loan from Parties willing to make such Advances, and to set forth in such Presentment that such Sum or Sums of Money shall be raised and levied by half-yearly Instalments of not less than Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum of the whole Sum to be expended, and likewise to present a Sum sufficient to pay the annual Interest of such Sum or Sums to be so expended, and from Time to Time remaining due, at such Rate (not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum), and likewise to include in such Presentment a sufficient Sum to defray the Expenses attendant upon obtaining an Examination and Report for the Information and Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the Purpose hereinafter mentioned, and to set forth in such Presentment what Part thereof shall be raised upon any Barony or Baronies in such County, or on the County at large; and the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, shall and he is hereby authorized and required from Time to Time, without further Authority or Presentment in that Behalf, to issue his separate Warrant for or include in his general Warrant, at each Assizes or Presenting Term (if in the County of Dublin), such Portion or Portions of the whole Sum so presented, together with such Sum for Interest thereon, as may be necessary for the Purpose of paying the Instalments and Interest as aforesaid to any Party or Person who may, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Public Works as herein-after provided, have made any Advance on the Faith of such Presentment, and the Sum or Sums inserted in such Warrant shall be raised and levied from and off the Barony or Baronies or County at large named in such Presentment and Warrant, in like Manner, from Time to Time, and with like Remedy in case of Nonpayment, as other Monies directed by any Warrant of such Treasurer are by Law to be or may be levied; and it shall be lawful for any such Grand Jury in every such Presentment to nominate and appoint a Committee, of not less than Three or more than Five Persons, to treat and agree and contract for a Loan with any Party or Person willing to make the same on the Security of such Presentment, and for the Rate of Interest which shall be paid on any such Loan, and otherwise to carry the said Presentment into effect, and every such Presentment may be in the Form in the First Schedule to this Act annexed.

Grand Jury to appoint Committee to carry Presentment into effect.

Such Presentment to be subject to the

II. Provided however, That it shall not be lawful for any Party or Person to make any Advance on the Faith of any such Presentment until the Work for which such Presentment shall be made shall be sanctioned sanctioned and approved by the said Commissioners of Public Works, such Sanction and Approval to be signified under the Hand of the Secretary of the said Commissioners for the Time being, to the Secretary of the Grand Jury, and all Money advanced under the Authority of this Act on the Credit of any such Presentment shall entitle the Party or Person advancing the same or his legal personal Representative or Assignee to be repaid with Interest in the Manner herein-before mentioned; and such Advance shall be paid over to the County Bank to the Credit of the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, and accounted for by him in like Manner as any other Monies by him received for the Use of such County, and all Securities given by him shall extend to such Monies: Provided always, that any such Presentment as aforesaid shall be subject to the like Conditions as regards the previous Application to and Approval of the Justices and Cesspayers at Presentment Sessions, and to the like Traverse and all other Proceedings thereon, as other Grand Jury Presentments, but that after such Presentment shall be made and fiated it shall not be lawful for any Grand Jury to restrain the issuing of the Warrants which the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town ought from Time to Time to issue agreeably to the Provisions of this Act.

Approval of the Commissioners of Public Works.

III. When and so soon as any such Presentment as aforesaid shall have been duly certified by the Acting Clerk of the Crown, and the Sanction of the Commissioners of Public Works shall have been certified by the Secretary of the Grand Jury to the Committee so nominated and appointed therein, it shall be lawful for such Committee or any Three or more of them to treat, agree with, and contract for a Loan or Advance by any Party or Person willing to make the same on the Faith of such Presentment, to the Amount thereof, or such Part thereof as may be necessary, and also to agree and contract for the Rate of Interest (not exceeding the Limit aforesaid) to be paid in respect of such Loan or Advance, and the Terms of every such Contract and Agreement shall be reduced to Writing, on a certified Copy of such Presentment, and signed by the said Committee, or any Three or more of them, and by the Party or Person making such Loan or Advance, and delivered over to such Party or Person, and held by him as Security for every such Advance, until the whole of the Sum actually advanced, with Interest thereon as agreed upon, shall be fully paid off and discharged.

Committee to treat and agree for Loan.

IV. Every such Treasurer shall and he is hereby required to pay to the Party or Person who may have advanced Money on the Security of any such Presentment all and every such Sum as shall be received from the Baronial and other Collectors, by virtue of the Presentment and Warrants issued as aforesaid, until the whole Sum advanced shall be repaid, together with Interest thereon, to the Party or Person who may have advanced the same: Provided always, that all Monies in the Treasurer's Hands shall also be applicable and be applied to pay the Instalments of Principal, with Interest thereon, according to the Terms of any such Presentment and the Contract and Agreement as aforesaid, and if it shall happen that any Money shall have been raised by virtue of any such Presentment which will not be required for the Purposes for which it shall have been so raised, the same shall be carried to the Credit of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or Barony from which it shall have been raised.

Treasurer of County to pay Party advancing on the Faith of Presentment.

V. Provided always, That where under any Act of Parliament the Powers, Rights, and Duties of the Grand Jury of any County of a City or County of a Town in relation to the Appointment of Presentment Sessions, and the presenting and levying of Rates and Cesses for any Purpose, have been or shall hereafter be transferred to the Council of any Borough, the Council of such Borough shall have all the Powers and Authorities hereby vested in the Grand Jury of a County, and the Money included in any Presentment or Order to be made by such Council under this Act shall be raised in such Borough in manner by Law provided with respect to Money required for such Purposes in relation to which the Powers of the Grand Jury may be transferred as aforesaid to such Council; and the Certificate of the Town Clerk of such Borough on any such Presentment or Order shall be as effectual as the Certificate of the Acting Clerk of the Crown in the Case of a Presentment by the Grand Jury of a County.

Where the Powers of the Grand Jury for Presentment are transferred to the Council of a Borough, such Council shall have the same Powers as a Grand Jury under this Act.

VI. That in addition to the Purposes for which Grand Juries may now by Law present, it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town to present to be levied off the County at large, such Sum or Sums of Money as may be incurred in defending such County on the Trial of any Traverse or other Proceedings in which such Grand Jury may consider the Rights of the Cesspayers should be defended and protected, and also such Sums as may be necessary for any Costs incurred in the Conduct and Management of any Matter of Business which any such Grand Jury may consider right and proper for the Interests or Benefit of such County should be confided to and conducted by any Counsel, Solicitor, or Agent: Provided, however, that no such Presentment shall be made unless there shall have been laid before such Grand Jury a Bill duly taxed and certified by the proper Taxing Officer of the Costs incurred for any of the Purposes aforesaid for which such Presentment shall be required.

Grand Jury may present Expenses incurred in Matters of Business.

VII. 'And whereas under and by virtue of an Act of the Session holden in the First and Second Years 1 & 2 W. 4. c. 33.
'of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-three, an Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and 6 & 7 W. 4.
'Seventh Years of the same Reign, Chapter One hundred and eight, an Act of the Session holden in the c. 108.
'Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty, an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and 2 & 3 Vict. c. 50
'Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Three, and an Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh 9 & 10 Vict. c. 3
'Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-five, certain Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, and 10 & 11 Vict.
'other Works in Ireland have been constructed or improved by the Commissioners of Public Works in c. 75.
'Ireland wholly or in part with Public Money: And whereas, under and by virtue of the said last-
'mentioned Act, and an Order made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, dated the Sixth Day
'of February One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and published in the Dublin Gazette of

'Friday the Sixteenth of February in the same Year, several Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, 'and other Works on the Sea Coast of Ireland which within Forty-five Years before the passing of 'such Act had been made, wholly or in part, with Public Money advanced for the Improvement of the 'Fisheries, have become vested in such Commissioners, and the Counties liable to be charged with the 'Cost of the Repair and Maintenance of such Works (in case of the Insufficiency of the Tolls, Rates, or 'Rents accruing thereout,) are set forth in such Order: And whereas it is expedient to provide for the 'future Maintenance and Preservation of all the said Harbours, Piers, Quays, Landing Places, and 'Works constructed or improved by the said Commissioners of Public Works as aforesaid, and of the like 'Works which may be hereafter constructed or improved by such Commissioners under the said Acts, 'and also of the Works so vested in the said Commissioners as aforesaid, which said Harbours, Piers, 'Quays, Landing Places, and Works, heretofore constructed or improved as aforesaid, and vested in the 'said Commissioners as aforesaid, are respectively mentioned in the Second Schedule to this Act 'annexed:'

Commissioners of Public Works may transfer Harbours, Piers, Quays, &c. to Grand Juries of Counties.

It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works (by and with the Consent and Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury), by Warrant under the Hands of the said Commissioners of Public Works or any Two of them, from Time to Time to direct that any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work mentioned in the said Schedule, or which at any Time hereafter shall be erected, constructed, or made, altered or improved, by the said Commissioners of Public Works, out of the Sums of Fifty thousand Pounds and Forty thousand Pounds granted by the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, or any Land at, about, or adjoining such Harbour, Pier, Quay, or Landing Place purchased by and vested in the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the said Acts or either of them, shall be deemed and become the public Property of the County in which such Harbour Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work may be situate, and from and after the Date of any such Warrant such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, together with all Ways, Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, and such Land, shall be deemed and taken to be the public Property of such County, and be held, maintained, and preserved by the Grand Jury of the County mentioned in such Warrant in like Manner as any public or County Road or Bridge within such County the Expense of which is or may be chargeable to such County or any Barony thereof: Provided always, that nothing in this Provision contained shall in any Manner affect, alter, or abridge the Powers of the said Commissioners of Public Works under the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, or either of them, for the raising, levying, and recovering the Amount specified in any Final Award made or to be made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, and therein stated to have been advanced by way of Loan, or the Interest thereof: Provided also, that the Tolls and Rates to be levied and paid for the Use of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be from Time to Time fixed by the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; but all such Tolls and Rates shall belong to the County in which such Work may be situate, and shall be levied, collected, and applied, under the Direction of the Grand Jury of such County, and Payment thereof may be enforced by such Person as they may appoint to receive the same, in like Manner as Payment of the Tolls or Rates for the Use of such Work as aforesaid may, under the said Acts or any of them, be enforced by the said Commissioners of Public Works, or their Lessees or Officers: Provided also, that nothing in this Provision, or in any Warrant of the said Commissioners for making any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, the public Property of any such County as aforesaid, shall prevent the said Commissioners of Public Works from exercising the Powers contained in the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth and of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, in respect to the making, altering, or repealing of any Byelaws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations, as therein mentioned, or in anywise affect the Powers or Provisions of the said Acts in relation to such Byelaws, Rules, Orders, or Regulations, but such Powers may be exercised by the said Commissioners of Public Works, in respect to any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, as if no such Warrant had been executed for vesting any such Pier, Harbour, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work in any such County as aforesaid.

Nothing to alter or abridge Powers of Commissioners for recovering Monies advanced by way of Loan, and Interest thereon.

Tolls and Rates to be fixed by Commissioners of Public Works, with Approbation of the Treasury.

Nothing to affect Powers of Commissioners of Public Works to make Byelaws, &c.

Grand Jury may present for Repairs of Harbours, Piers, Quays, &c.; and enter into Contracts for Repairs of such Harbours, &c.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any County in which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work may be situate to present to be raised off the County at large, or any Barony or Baronies therein, such Sum and Sums of Money as may from Time to Time be necessary for the Repair and Maintenance of any such Work which may become the Property of any such County as aforesaid, and to contract for the Maintenance and Repair of any such Work for any Term not exceeding the Term of Seven Years, and, without any Application to Presentment Sessions, to present to be raised off such County at large, Barony or Baronies, from Time to Time for the Amount necessary to pay the Person or Persons with whom any such Contract shall be made.

Grand Jury to appoint "Harbour Constable" for enforcing Byelaws, and for Care and Conservancy of Work;

IX. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of the County in which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work may be situate to appoint, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, a proper Person, at such Salary as they may think fit, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds per Annum, for enforcing the Byelaws, Rules, Orders, and Regulations (if any) which shall or may be made by the Commissioners of Public Works respecting any such Work, and for the Purpose of settling all Disputes which may arise with respect to the Occupation or Use and the due and proper Care and Preservation of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work; and such Person so to be appointed shall be called "the Harbour Constable," and shall have, for the Purposes aforesaid or any of them, them, in addition to the Powers hereby or by any such Byelaws given, the same Rights, Powers, and Authorities as if he had been appointed to and formed Part of the Constabulary Force established in and for any County in Ireland; and it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any such County to present for the Amount of the Salary so agreed to be paid to any such Harbour Constable, without any Application to Presentment Sessions. and may present for his Salary.

X. One Half of every Sum of Money levied as a Fine or Penalty under the Provisions of the said Acts of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth and the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, or either of them, or under or in respect of any Byelaw heretofore made or which shall be made by the said Commissioners of Public Works, in respect of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Works, which shall become the Property of any such County, shall be paid to the Informer or Person who shall be the Means of bringing to Justice any Person offending against such Acts or either of them or such Byelaw as aforesaid, and the remaining Half shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County in which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be situate, to be by him brought to the Credit of such County. Application of Penalties in respect of Piers, Harbours, &c.

XI. In case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall signify to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work which may become the Property of any such County as aforesaid is not kept and maintained in good and proper Repair by the Grand Jury of the County in which any such Work may be situate, or that any sudden Breach or Damage has occurred to any such Work, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in any such Case, if they think fit, on an Estimate being laid before them by the Commissioners of Public Works or any Two of them, setting forth what Sum will be requisite and necessary from Time to Time for the Repair of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, and stating the Situation of such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, and of the Repairs required for the same, to direct that any such Sum or Sums of Money required by such Commissioners of Public Works, or any Part thereof, be advanced and paid to such Commissioners out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to be applied, under the Directions of the said Commissioners of Public Works, in the repairing of any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work. Commissioners of Public Works may execute Works of Repair of Harbours, Piers, Quays, &c. in certain Cases.

XII. Whenever any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be repaired under the Direction of the said Commissioners of Public Works, the said Commissioners or any Two of them shall certify to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland the total Amount of the Expense incurred by such Repair, and thereupon the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or in his Absence the Under Secretary, shall certify to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of any County within which any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall be situate, the Amount of Money which shall have been expended upon the Repair of such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work within any and every such County respectively out of the Advances authorized by this Act; and every such Certificate shall be laid before the Grand Jury of any and every such County at the next Assizes after the Date of such Certificate of the Chief or Under Secretary, and thereupon the Grand Jury shall present for the Amount of such Expenses as stated in such Certificate to be raised off such County at large, or any Barony or Baronies therein; and when and as soon as the Sum so to be presented as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the Treasurer of any such County, such Treasurer shall pay over the same to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland, or in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall direct. Mode of Repayment of Money expended on such Repairs.

XIII. 'And whereas in and by the said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty it was 'enacted, that the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Approval of the Commissioners 'of Her Majesty's Treasury, might, if they thought fit, out of the Funds therein mentioned, advance by 'way of Grant any Part of the Expenses of the First Repair of any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing 'Place, or other Work vested in them under such Act, and previously to such First Repair such Pro-'ceedings should be had and taken as by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty are 'required to be previously had or taken in the Case of any new Pier, Quay, Harbour, or other Work the 'Expense of which was partly to be paid by any County or District: And whereas it is expedient to 'amend the said Provision:'

So much of the said Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty as directs that, previous to such First Repair of any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work vested in the said Commissioners of Public Works, such Proceedings shall be had and taken as by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty are required to be previously had or taken in the Case of any new Pier, Quay, Harbour, or other Work the Expense of which is partly to be repaid by any County or District, shall be repealed, save as to any Matter or Thing heretofore done under such Provision. So much of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 75. as relates to Proceedings previous to First Repairs of Piers, &c. repealed.

XIV. Previously to the Time when any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work shall become the public Property of any County as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Sanction and Approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if they think fit, out of the Residue now remaining unapplied of the several Sums of Fifty thousand Pounds and Forty thousand Pounds in and by the said Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty granted for the Purposes of the said Acts, to apply such Sum of Money as may in the Opinion of the said Commissioners of Public Works be necessary for the Repair of such Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work without charging such Sum or any Part thereof on such County. Harbours, Piers Quays, &c. may be repaired by Commissioners of Public Works at any Time previous to same being transferred to the County.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 3.

XV. 'And whereas in and by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty it was 'enacted, that any Sum of Money which under the Final Award of the said Commissioners of Public 'Works should be payable by any County in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect 'of any Work under the Provisions of the said Act should be payable by the Grand Jury of such County, 'and the Secretary of the said Commissioners should certify to the Secretary of such Grand Jury the 'Amount of such Sum of Money, and the Instalments and Manner by and in which the same was 'payable under the Award of said Commissioners, and such Grand Jury was required, without Appli-'cation to Presentment Sessions, to make Presentment of the Amount of such Costs, Charges, and 'Expenses, or of the Instalments from Time to Time payable in respect thereof, as stated in such 'Certificate, together with Interest, as therein mentioned, to be raised off the County at large; and it is 'by said Act also enacted, that any Sum of Money which under such Final Award should be payable by 'any District in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work under the 'Provisions of said Act, with Interest thereon, as therein mentioned, should be charged upon the Occu-'piers of and other Persons rateable in respect of Lands and Hereditaments within such District, and 'rated as therein mentioned, and should be payable either in One Sum, or by Instalments, as specified 'in such Award, by the Ratepayers therein mentioned, the same to be assessed and levied as therein 'mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to make other Provision for the Collection and Repayment of 'all Sums which under any Final Award of the said Commissioners should be payable by any County or 'by any District in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work executed 'under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act:'

Monies payable by County or District under Award to be presented by Grand Jury.

Where any Sum of Money under the Final Award of the said Commissioners already made, or hereafter to be made, is or shall be payable by any County and District, or either of them, in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Harbour, Pier, Quay, Landing Place, or other Work, under the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, or of this Act, the same shall be payable by the Grand Jury of such County; and the Secretary of the said Commissioners shall certify to the Secretary of such Grand Jury the Amount of such Sum of Money, and the Instalments and Manner by and in which the same is payable, under the Award of the said Commissioners; and such Grand Jury are hereby required, without Application to Presentment Sessions, to make Presentment of the Amount mentioned in such Certificate to be payable at the Times and in the Manner stated in such Certificate, to be raised off the County at large and District, or either of them, as the Case may be; and in default of such Presentment, the Court, at such or the next Assizes, shall order the Amount mentioned in such Certificate to be raised off such County and District, or either of them, as the Case may be, and such Order shall have the Force and Effect of a Presentment; and the Treasurer of such County shall insert such Amount as shall be so presented or ordered as aforesaid in his Warrant or Warrants, and the same shall be applotted, raised, and levied, sued for and recovered, by such and the same Ways and Means as any Grand Jury Cess; and when and so soon as such Amount as aforesaid shall be raised and received by the Treasurer of the County, such Treasurer shall immediately pay the same to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland for the Time being, and the same shall be by him paid over and applied, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct, in discharge of the Loan mentioned in any such Award, and chargeable to such County and District, or either of them.

Monies payable under Awards by Proprietors to be paid to the Paymaster of Civil Services.

XVI. Any Sum of Money which under any such Final Award shall be payable by any Proprietor of Lands in respect of Monies advanced by way of Loan for or in respect of any Work under the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, together with Interest for such Sum, as by the said Act provided, from the Date of such Award, shall be paid and payable to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland for the Time being, and the same shall be by him paid over and applied, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct, in discharge of the Loan, and Interest thereon, chargeable on the Lands of such Proprietor, as mentioned in any such Award: Provided always, that nothing herein contained (save as lastly herein-before mentioned) shall in any Manner alter or affect the Provisions of the said Act with respect to Repayment of such Loan or the Recovery thereof in case of Nonpayment of the same.

6 G. 4. c. 101.

XVII. 'And whereas by an Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred 'and one, Provision was made for the Repair and Maintenance of certain Roads and Bridges in Ireland 'made wholly or in part at the Public Expense, and by the said Act of the First and Second Years of 'King William the Fourth the said Act of King George the Fourth, which had expired, was revived, 'and the Repair and Maintenance of such Roads and Bridges placed under the Direction of the said 'Commissioners of Public Works: And whereas the several Roads and Bridges which have been made 'by the said Commissioners of Public Works under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King 'William the Fourth, and the Acts amending the same, have hitherto been maintained by the said 'Commissioners of Public Works, and the Expenses incurred in such Maintenance have from Time to 'Time been repaid by means of Grand Jury Presentment by the Counties in which such Roads are 'respectively situate: And whereas it is expedient that the Maintenance of all the said Roads 'and Bridges should be transferred to the respective Counties in which such Roads or Bridges may be 'situate:'

Roads and Bridges hitherto maintained by Commissioners

All Roads and Bridges in Ireland heretofore maintained and repaired by the said Commissioners of Public Works, under the said Acts of the Sixth Year of King George the Fourth and the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, and also all Roads and Bridges heretofore made by the said Commissioners, Commissioners, either wholly or in part at the Public Expense, by means of free Grants, under the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, or any of the Acts amending the same, and heretofore maintained by the said Commissioners of Public Works, shall from and after the First Day of July next ensuing be considered and deemed public County Roads and Bridges the Property of the Counties in which such Roads and Bridges shall be respectively situate, and the same Roads and Bridges respectively shall be kept in repair and maintained as public County Roads and Bridges within such Counties respectively are now kept in repair and maintained: Provided always, that when any such Bridge shall be situate partly in One County and partly in another, the Expense of repairing and maintaining such Bridge shall be borne and defrayed equally between such Counties, and Presentments made accordingly.

of Public Works vested in Grand Jury.

XVIII. 'And whereas Contracts or Agreements have been entered into by the said Commissioners of 'Public Works with certain Persons for the Maintenance and Repairs of certain of the said Roads and 'Bridges, and which Contracts are still subsisting, and it is expedient to make due Provision for the 'same:'

Existing Contracts for Maintenance and Repairs of Roads and Bridges transferred to Grand Jury.

From and after the said First Day of July all the Benefit and Obligation to which the said Commissioners of Public Works may be entitled or subject under any Contract entered into with them, and then in force, for the Repair of any such Road or Bridge as aforesaid, and under any Bond or other Instrument as a Security for the Performance of any such Contract, shall, without any Act or Deed whatever to be done by the said Commissioners of Public Works or any other Person, become transferred to and vest in the Grand Jury of the County in which any such Road or Bridge to which such Contract shall relate shall be situate, and every such Contract, Bond, or other Instrument may be proceeded upon by or on behalf of such Grand Jury, or at their Instance, in the same Manner as if such Contract, Bond, or other Instrument had been entered into in pursuance of the Provisions of the several Acts relating to the Presentment of Public Monies by Grand Juries in Ireland for the Repairs of Roads or Bridges, and every Person who entered into such Contract shall be entitled to the full Benefit of such Contract, as against such Grand Jury, and the same shall be as binding on such Grand Jury as if the same were entered into with such Grand Jury, and from and after the said First Day of February the Liability of the said Commissioners of Public Works in respect to any such Contract shall cease and determine.

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 35.

XIX. 'And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of King 'William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-five, certain Roads therein mentioned or referred to, passing to, 'from, and between the General Post Office in the City of Dublin and the Harbour at Howth, were, 'with the said Harbour and other Works and Matters therein mentioned, vested in the Commissioners 'acting in execution of the said Act of the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, now 'the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, the same to be thenceforth repaired, maintained, and 'supported by the said Commissioners, as therein mentioned: And whereas it is no longer necessary or 'expedient that the said Roads should continue to be repaired and maintained by the said Commissioners 'of Public Works:'

Road from Dublin to Howth (save that Part commonly called the North Strand) vested in and to be maintained by the Trustees of the Road.

From and after the First Day of October next so much of the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth as vests in the said Commissioners of Public Works the said Road from Dublin to Howth, and enacts that the same shall be repaired, maintained, and supported by such Commissioners, and provides that Payments shall be made as therein mentioned to such Commissioners for the Repairs of such Roads, shall be repealed; and the said Road from Dublin to Howth (save that Part commonly called the North Strand, herein-after specially provided for,) shall be vested in and maintained and kept in repair by the Trustees respectively acting in execution of the several Acts passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-sixth, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, and Thirty-eighth Years of King George the Third, in the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-five, mentioned or referred to, and of the Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of King George the Third, in the same Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth also mentioned or referred to, and of any other Act or Acts of Parliament respecting the said Roads, in the same Manner, and with, subject to, and under the same Powers, Authorities, and Provisions, as if the Act of the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-four, relieving such Trustees from the Burden of the Repair of the said Road, and providing for the Repair thereof by the Commissioners therein mentioned, and any subsequent Act providing for such Repair by any other Commissioners, had not been passed.

Portion of Road from Dublin to Howth called North Strand to be deemed a public Road.

Presentment for Repairs and Maintenance thereof to be made.

XX. From and after the said First Day of October the said Road commonly called and known as the North Strand, commencing at the Circular Road near to the City of Dublin, and ending at Annesley Bridge, shall be considered a public Road within the County of the City of Dublin, and be maintained and kept in repair in like Manner and subject to the like Provisions as all other Roads being within the said County of the City of Dublin, and any Sum of Money which may appear by the Certificate of the said Commissioners of Public Works to be now due and owing to the said Commissioners for Repairs heretofore made to the said Road shall be presented for by the Council of the Borough of Dublin, in like Manner as they are now authorized to present for Monies for the Repairs of any Road within the County of the City of Dublin, to be paid to the said Commissioners of Public Works at such Times as shall be mentioned in such Certificate.

Interpretation.

XXI. The Term "Treasurer," when used in this Act, shall, as regards the County of Dublin, be held to signify the Finance Committee; and the Instalments herein directed to be raised half yearly shall, as regards the said County of Dublin, be held to signify yearly; and the Amount of each Instalment, exclusive of Interest, to be not less than Ten per Cent. of the whole Amount of the Sum presented.

CAP. CXXXVII.

An Act for the better Administration of Charitable Trusts. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to provide Means for securing the due Administration of Charitable Trusts, and for the more beneficial Application of Charitable Funds in certain Cases:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Her Majesty empowered to appoint Charity Commissioners, Secretary, and Inspectors.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and Her Successors, by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint Four Commissioners, and also One Secretary and Two Inspectors for the Purposes of this Act, and upon any Vacancy by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any Commissioner, Secretary, or Inspector under this Act, from Time to Time in like Manner to appoint another Person to succeed to such Vacancy, and until a fresh Appointment shall be made it shall be lawful for the surviving or continuing Commissioners, Commissioners, in case of any Vacancy, to act as if no such Vacancy had occurred; and Three of the said Commissioners shall hold Office during good Behaviour; and the Fourth, and every Secretary and Inspector to be appointed under this Act, shall hold Office during the Pleasure of Her Majesty.

Qualification of Commissioners.

II. The said Three Commissioners so holding Office during good Behaviour shall be paid as hereinafter mentioned, and Two at least of the said paid Commissioners for the Time being shall be Barristers-at-Law of not less than Twelve Years standing at the Time of their respective Appointments, and One of such Barristers shall be the Chief Commissioner, and shall be so called and distinguished in his Appointment.

Officers of the Board.

III. The said Commissioners, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from Time to Time appoint such Clerks and Messengers as the said Commissioners may think fit, and all Persons appointed under this Provision shall hold their Offices during the Pleasure of the said Commissioners.

Salaries.

IV. There shall be paid to the said paid Commissioners, and to the said Secretary, Inspectors, Clerks, and Messengers, such Salaries not exceeding for the Chief Commissioner the annual Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds, and for each of the other paid Commissioners the annual Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds, and for the said Secretary the annual Sum of Six hundred Pounds, and for each of the said Inspectors the annual Sum of Eight hundred Pounds, as shall be from Time to Time allowed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, who may also allow to every Commissioner, Inspector, and other Person appointed for the Purposes of this Act such reasonable Travelling and other Expenses as may be incurred by him in the Execution of his Office, and the said Salaries and Expenses, and the incidental Expenses of the said Board, shall be paid out of any Monies which may be from Time to Time provided by Parliament for that Purpose: Provided always, that after the Thirty-first day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, the said annual Salary shall be paid to One only of the said Commissioners besides the said Chief Commissioner.

No paid Commissioner, &c. to sit in House of Commons.

V. No paid Commissioner, Secretary, or Inspector to be appointed under this Act shall be capable of sitting in the House of Commons during the Tenure of his Office.

Style of Commissioners, who may sit as a Board.

VI. The said Commissioners to be appointed under this Act shall be styled "The Charity Commissioners for England and Wales," and may have and use a Seal for authenticating Documents, and such Commissioners shall sit from Time to Time as a Board for carrying this Act into execution; and any Two of such Commissioners may form a Board, and may exercise all or any of the Powers conferred on the Commissioners or the Board by this Act.

Board to frame General Minutes.

VII. The said Board shall, by General Minutes, from Time to Time prescribe Regulations for their Proceedings, and the Proceedings of their Inspectors, and concerning the Form and Manner of Applications to the said Board, and the Conditions to be performed by Applicants, and for the Guidance of Applicants in relation thereto, and all such General Minutes shall be signed by Three of the said Commissioners at the least; and Copies of all such General Minutes shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Fourteen Days after the making thereof if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days after the next Meeting thereof.

Minutes of Proceedings and Orders, &c. to be entered, and Copies of Entries signed by the Secretary to be received in Evidence.

VIII. The said Board shall cause Minutes of their Proceedings, and all Orders, Certificates, and Schemes, made or approved by them under this Act, to be entered in Books to be provided and kept for such Purpose, and all such Entries shall be signed by their Secretary, and all Copies purporting to be extracted from the Books of the said Board, and to be certified by their Secretary, of any such Minutes, Orders, Certificates, and Schemes entered as aforesaid, shall be received as Evidence of the Proceedings to which such Minutes shall relate, and of such Orders, Certificates, or Schemes, and of the making or Approval thereof (as the Case may require) by the said Board, without further Proof thereof.

Board to inquire into Condition and Management of Charities.

IX. It shall be lawful for the said Board from Time to Time, as they in their Discretion may see fit, to examine and inquire into all or any Charities in England or Wales, and the Nature and Objects, Administration, Management, and Results thereof, and the Value, Condition, Management, and Application of the Estates, Funds, Property, and Income belonging thereto; and the said Board may cause Examinations and Inquiries in relation to the Matters aforesaid to be made and prosecuted by their Inspectors, acting together or separately, in such Cases and at such Times as the said Board may think fit; and all such Inspectors shall from Time to Time report their Proceedings to the said Board.

Power to require Accounts and Statements.

X. The said Board may require all Trustees or Persons acting or having any Concern in the Management or Administration of any Charity, or the Estates, Funds, or Property thereof, to render to the said Board, or to their Inspectors, or either of them, Accounts and Statements in Writing in relation to such Charity, or the Funds, Estates, Property, Income, or Monies thereof, or the Administration, Management, and Application thereof, and may also require such Trustees and Persons to return Answers in Writing to any Questions or Inquiries addressed to them by the Direction of the said Board relating to the Matters aforesaid.

Officers having Custody of Records to furnish Copies and Extracts, if required by Board.

XI. All Officers having the Custody of Enrolments, Decrees, Reports, Records, and other Documents relating to or concerning any Charity shall furnish such Copies or Extracts as shall be required by the said Board; and every Inspector, Secretary, and other Officer of the said Board for the Time being employed for the Purposes of this Act shall be at liberty, by the Authority and under the Directions of the Board, and subject to such Regulations as the Board may make in that Behalf, to examine and search the Registers and Records of every Court of Law and Equity, and every Ecclesiastical Court, and every public Registry and Office of Records, and to take Copies of and Extracts from any Decree or Document recorded or registered or deposited therein respectively, for any Purpose contemplated by this Act, without Fee or other Payment in respect thereof.

Inspector may examine Witnesses on Oath.

XII. Any Inspector acting under the Authority of the said Board may, by Precept under his Hand, subject to such Regulations as the said Board may make in that Behalf, require any Person, being a Trustee of any Charity or otherwise acting or having any Concern in the Management or Administration of any Charity, or of the Estates, Funds, or Property thereof, or in the Receipt or Payment of the Income or Monies thereof, or deriving any Income or Stipend therefrom, to attend before such Inspector for the Purpose of being examined by him touching or relating to such Charity, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, at any Time and Place mentioned or appointed by such Precept, and to bring and produce any Deed, Paper, Writing, Instrument, or other Document, being in the Custody, Possession, or Power of such Person, and relating to such Charity, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, and may examine upon Oath all Persons attending in pursuance of such Precept, and all Persons voluntarily attending before him, and may administer such Oath: Provided always, that no Person shall be obliged to travel in obedience to any such Precept more than Ten Miles from his Place of Abode.

False Evidence a Misdemeanor.

XIII. If any Person wilfully give false Evidence upon any Examination under this Act, every Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Person refusing to render Accounts, &c. to be deemed guilty of a Contempt of Court.

XIV. If any Person from whom the said Board, or any Inspector, is authorized to require any Account or Statement or Answers to any Questions or Inquiries, or whose Attendance any Inspector is authorized to require, shall refuse or wilfully neglect to render to the said Board such Account or Statement, or to make Answers to such Questions or Inquiries, or to attend in obedience to any lawful Precept of any Inspector or to give Evidence before him, or shall wilfully alter, destroy, withhold, or refuse to produce any Deed, Paper, Writing, Instrument, or other Document which may be lawfully required to be produced before any Inspector of the said Board, every Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to have been guilty of a Contempt of the High Court of Chancery, and shall be liable to be attached and committed by such Court on summary Application by the Commissioners to the same, and shall pay the Costs of and attending such Contempt as the said Court shall direct.

Saving for Persons claiming adversely to Charities.

XV. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to give to the said Board or their Inspectors any Power of requiring from any Persons holding or claiming to hold any Property whatsoever adversely to any Charity, or free or discharged from any Charitable Trust or Charge, any Information, or the Production of any Deed or Document whatever in relation to the Property so held or claimed adversely, or any Charitable Trust or Charge alleged to affect the same.

Board to entertain Applications for their Opinion or Advice.

XVI. The said Board shall receive and consider all Applications which may be made to them by any Trustee or other Person having any Concern in the Management or Administration of any Charity, for their Opinion, Advice, or Direction respecting such Charity, or the Management or Administration thereof, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, or the Application thereof, or any Question or Dispute relating to the same respectively, and, if they so think fit, may, upon any such Application, give such Opinion or Advice as they think expedient, subject to any Judicial Order or Direction which may be subsequently made or given by any competent Court or Judge; and such Opinion or Advice shall be in Writing, signed by Two or more of the said Commissioners, and sealed with the Seal of the said Commission; and every Trustee and other Person who shall act upon or in accordance with the Opinion or Advice given by the said Board shall in respect of so acting be deemed and taken, so far as respects his own Responsibility, to have acted in accordance with his Trust; and no such Judicial Order or Direction subsequently made or given by any Court or Judge shall have any such retrospective Effect as to interfere with or impair the Indemnity by this Act given to Trustees and other Persons who have acted upon or in accordance with such Opinion or Advice of the said Board: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to indemnify any Trustee or other Person for any Act done in accordance with the Opinion or Advice of the said Board, if such Trustee or other Person have been guilty of any Fraud or wilful Concealment or Misrepresentation in obtaining such Opinion or Advice.

Persons acting on Advice of Board to be indemnified.

Notice of legal Proceedings as to any Charity by any Person, except the Attorney General, to be given to the Board.

XVII. Before any Suit, Petition, or other Proceeding (not being an Application in any Suit or Matter actually pending) for obtaining any Relief, Order, or Direction concerning or relating to any Charity, or the Estate, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, shall be commenced, presented, or taken, by any Person whomsoever, there shall be transmitted by such Person to the said Board, Notice in Writing of such proposed Suit, Petition, or Proceeding, and such Statement, Information, and Particulars as may be requisite or proper, or may be required from Time to Time, by the said Board, for explaining the Nature and Objects thereof; and the said Board, if upon Consideration of the Circumstances they so think fit, may, by an Order or Certificate signed by their Secretary, authorize or direct any Suit, Petition, or other Proceeding to be commenced, presented, or taken with respect to such Charity, either for the Objects and in the Manner specified or mentioned in such Notice, or for such other Objects, and in such Manner and Form, and subject to such Stipulations or Provisions for securing the Charity against Liability to any Costs or Expenses, and to such other Stipulations or Provisions for the Protection or Benefit of the Charity, as the said Board may think proper; and such Board, if it seem proper to them, may by such Order or Certificate as aforesaid require and direct that any Proceeding so authorized by them in respect of any Charity, shall be delayed during such Period as shall seem proper to and shall be directed by such Board; and every such Order or Certificate may be in such Form and may contain such Statements and Particulars as such Board shall think fit; and (save as herein otherwise provided) no Suit, Petition or other Proceeding for obtaining any such Relief, Order, or Direction as last aforesaid shall be entertained or proceeded with by the Court of Chancery, or by any Court or Judge, except upon and in conformity with an Order or Certificate of the said Board: Provided always, that this Enactment shall not extend to or affect any such Petition or Proceeding in which any Person shall claim any Property or seek any Relief adversely to any Charity.

Courts not to entertain Proceedings as to Charities, except upon Certificate of the Board.

XVIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Attorney General acting ex officio to make such Applications, and take and prosecute such Proceedings with respect to any Charity, in the Court of Chancery or otherwise as to him may seem fit, as if this Act had not been passed; and that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as dispensing with the Fiat or Allowance of Her Majesty's Attorney General, with respect to any Proceeding not being an Application under the Jurisdiction created by this Act where such Fiat or Allowance was necessary before the passing of this Act.

Saving for the Attorney General acting ex officio.

XIX. Provided also, That where upon any Report of any Inspector under this Act or otherwise it appears to the said Board that any Suit, Petition, or other Proceeding concerning or relating to any Charity, or the Estate, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, would be proper or expedient, it shall be lawful for the said Board by their Order to authorize or direct such Suit, Petition, or Proceeding to be commenced, presented, or taken, and to give such Directions in relation thereto as the said Board may think proper; and thereupon such Suit, Petition, or Proceeding may be commenced, presented, or taken accordingly, without any such previous Notice in Writing as herein-before mentioned; and the said Board, before giving any such Opinion, Advice, or Direction upon any such Application as aforesaid, or making any such Order or Certificate after Notice to them as aforesaid, may, where local Inquiry appears to them to be requisite, cause such Inquiry to be made by One of their Inspectors; and the said Board may, in any Case where they see fit, before acting upon the Report of any Inspector, cause such Report to be deposited for local Inspection, and give Notice of the same being so deposited, and consider any Statements or Objections which may be transmitted to them in relation thereto.

Board may, upon Report of an Inspector, authorize Proceedings where no Notice has been given to them, and may in other Cases cause local Inquiries by their Inspector.

XX. In any Case in which it shall appear to the said Board that the Institution of legal Proceedings is requisite or desirable with respect to any Charity, or the Estates, Funds, Property, or Affairs thereof, and that under the Circumstances thereof it is desirable that such Proceedings should be instituted by the Attorney General, it shall be lawful for the said Board, if they so think fit, to certify such Case, in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the said Board, to Her Majesty's Attorney General, together with such Statements and Particulars (if any) as in the Opinion of the said Board may be requisite or proper for the Explanation of such Case; and thereupon the said Attorney General, if upon Consideration of the Circumstances he think fit, shall institute and prosecute such legal Proceedings as he shall consider requisite or proper under the Circumstances of such Case, by Information or Petition in the Court of Chancery, or by Application to a Judge thereof at Chambers, or to a District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court under the Jurisdiction given by this Act.

Power for Board to certify certain Cases to the Attorney General.

XXI. If in any Case it appear to the Trustees or Persons for the Time being acting in the Administration or Management of any Charity, or the Estates or Property thereof, that any Part of the Charity Lands or Estates may be beneficially let on Building, Repairing, Improving, or other Leases, or on Leases for working any Mine, or that the digging for or raising of Stone, Clay, Gravel, or other Minerals, or the cutting of Timber, would be for the Benefit of the Charity, or that it would be for the Benefit of such Charity that any new Road or Street should be formed or laid out, or any Drains or Sewers made through any Part of the Charity Estates, or that any new Building should be erected, or that any existing Building should be repaired, altered, rebuilt, or wholly removed, or that any other Improvements or Alterations in the State or Condition of the Lands or Estates of such Charity should be made, it shall be lawful for such Trustees or Persons to lay before the said Board a Statement and Proposal in relation to any of the Matters aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Board, if they think that the Leases or Acts to which the Statement and Proposal relate (with or without Modifications or Alterations) would be beneficial to the Charity, to make such Order under their Seal for and in relation to the granting of such Leases, or the doing of any other such Acts as aforesaid, and any Circumstances connected therewith, as they may think fit, although such Leases or Acts respectively shall not be authorized or permitted by the Trust; and the said Board, by any such Order, may authorize the Application of any Monies or Funds belonging to the Charity for any of the Purposes or Acts aforesaid, and, if necessary, may authorize the Trustees to raise any Sum of Money by Mortgage of all or any Part of the Charity Estates; provided that compulsory Provisions be reserved in every such Mortgage for the Payment of the Principal Money borrowed by annual Instalments, and for the Redemption and Re-conveyance of the mortgaged Estates, within the Period of not more than Thirty Years.

Board may sanction Building Leases, working Mines, doing Repairs and Improvements; and may authorize the Application of the Charity Funds or the raising of Money on Mortgage for those Purposes.

XXII. It shall be lawful for the Board, upon Proof to their Satisfaction that any Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress or other Officer of any Charity has been negligent in performing his or her Duties, or that he or she is unfit or incompetent to discharge them properly, either from immoral Conduct, Age, or any other Cause whatsoever, to empower the Trustees of such Charity to remove such School Master or Mistress or other Officer, and to charge the Salary of his or her Successors, or any other Portion of the Revenues of the Charity, with such Retiring Pension or Allowance, if any, in favour of the Person so removed, and generally to impose such Conditions as to the said Board shall appear proper: Provided always, that where there shall be any special Visitor of the Charity, the Consent of such Visitor, in Writing under his Hand, shall be necessary in order to such Removal.

Commissioners to authorize Trustees to remove Officers.

Board may sanction Compromise of Claims on behalf of Charity.

XXIII. If in any Case it appear to the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of any Charity that any Claim or Demand or Cause of Suit against any Person in relation to such Charity may, with Advantage to the Charity, or should, under the special Circumstances of the Case, be compromised or adjusted without taking or without continuing any Proceedings at Law or in Equity, such Trustees or Persons may, or the Person against whom such Claim, Demand, or Cause of Suit exists or is alleged to exist, may, with the Consent of the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of such Charity, submit to the said Board a Statement and Proposal for such Compromise or Adjustment; and, if it appear to the said Board, after such Inquiry in relation thereto by one of their Inspectors as they may deem requisite, or otherwise, that such Proposal, either with or without any Modification, is fit and proper, and for the Benefit of the Charity, it shall be lawful for the said Board to make such Order for and in relation to such Compromise or Adjustment as they may think fit; and upon the due Performance of the Terms and Conditions of such Compromise or Adjustment as aforesaid, such Agreement shall be a final Bar to all Actions, Suits, Claims, and Demands by or on behalf of the Charity concerned therein, in respect to the Cause of Action, Suit, or Matter in respect to which such Compromise or Adjustment shall have been made.

Board, under special Circumstances, may authorize Sale or Exchange of Charity Lands.

XXIV. Upon Application to the said Board by the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of any Charity, representing to the said Board that, under the special Circumstances of any Land belonging to the Charity, a Sale or Exchange of such Land can be effected on such Terms as to increase the Income of the Charity, or would otherwise be advantageous to the Charity, such Board may, if they think fit, inquire into such Circumstances, and if after Inquiry they are satisfied that the proposed Sale or Exchange will be advantageous to the Charity may authorize the Sale or Exchange, and give such Directions in relation thereto, and for securing the due Investment of the Money arising from any such Sale, or by way of Equality of Exchange for the Benefit of the Charity, as they may think fit.

Board may authorize the Redemption of Rentcharges.

XXV. The said Board shall have Authority, upon such Application as aforesaid, to authorize the Sale to the Owners of the Land charged therewith of any Rentcharge, Annuity, or other periodical Payment charged upon Land and payable to or for the Benefit of any Charity, or applicable to Charitable Purposes, upon such Terms and Conditions as they may deem beneficial to the Charity, and to give such Directions for securing the due Investment of the Money arising from such Sale for the Benefit of the Charity, or for securing the due Application thereof to such Charitable Purposes, as they may think fit; and in like Manner the Trustees of any Charity, with the Consent of the Board, may purchase any Rentcharge or other yearly Payment to which the Charity Estate is or shall be liable.

Leases, Sales, &c. authorized by the Board to be valid.

XXVI. The Leases, Sales, Exchanges, and other Transactions authorized by such Board under the Powers of this Act shall have the like Effect and Validity as if they had been authorized or directed by the express Terms of the Trust affecting the Charity.

Trustees of Charities enabled to purchase Sites for building from Owners under Disability, &c., according to the Provisions of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

XXVII. Where any Land shall be required for the Erection or Construction of any House or Building with or without Garden, Playground, or other Appurtenances, for the Purposes of any Charity, and the Trustees of the Charity shall be legally authorized to purchase and hold such Land, but by reason of the Disability of any Person having an Estate or Interest in such Land, or of any Defect in Title thereto, a valid and perfect Assurance of the same Land cannot be made to the Trustees of the Charity in the ordinary Manner, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of the Charity, with the Sanction of the said Board (such Sanction to be certified under the Hand of their Secretary), to take and purchase such Land according to the Provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" and for that Purpose all the Clauses and Provisions of the last-mentioned Act with respect to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, and with respect to the Purchase Money or Compensation coming to Parties having limited Interests, or prevented from treating, or not making a Title, and also with respect to Conveyances of Lands, so far as the same Clauses and Provisions respectively are applicable to the Cases contemplated by this Provision, shall be incorporated in this Act, and in all Cases contemplated by this Provision, the Expression "the Special Act" used in the said Clauses and Provisions of the said "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act" shall be construed to mean this Act; and the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," used in the same Clauses and Provisions, shall be construed to mean the Trustees of the Charity in question.

In Cases of Charities the Incomes of which exceed 30 l., Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, upon Applications to them at Chambers, to have the same Jurisdiction as the Court of Chancery or Lord Chancellor now has upon Information, &c.

XXVIII. Where the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee, or any other Relief, Order, or Direction relating to any Charity of which the gross annual Income for the Time being exceeds Thirty Pounds, shall be considered desirable, and such Appointment, Removal, or other Relief, Order, or Direction might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery, in respect either of its ordinary or its special or statutory Jurisdiction, or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of Lunatics, it shall be lawful for any Person authorized in this Behalf by the Order or Certificate of the said Board, or for the Attorney General, to make Application (without any Information, Bill, or Petition,) to the Master of the Rolls or One of the Vice Chancellors sitting at Chambers, for such Order, Direction, or Relief as the Nature of the Case may require; and the Master of the Rolls or the Vice Chancellor to whom any such Application shall be made shall and may proceed upon and dispose of such Application in Chambers, save where he may think fit otherwise to direct, and shall and may have and exercise thereupon all such Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority, and make such Orders and give such Directions in relation to the Matter of such Application, as might now be exercised, made, or given by the Court of Chancery or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, in a Suit regularly instituted, or upon Petition, as the Case may require; and the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively shall, in relation to such Applications as aforesaid, and the Proceedings thereon, (subject to any Rules which may be made by the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of them or any Two of them,) have have all such Powers of directing Matters to be heard in open Court, and of ordering what Matters shall be heard and investigated by themselves and their Chief Clerks respectively, and such other Powers and Authorities as by the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty, are vested in or authorized to be exercised by them at Chambers, and the Provisions of the said Act applicable to Orders made by the Master of the Rolls or any of the Vice Chancellors at Chambers shall extend to all Orders so made under this Act: Provided always, that, save as may be otherwise provided by any Rules to be made by the Lord Chancellor, with such Advice and Consent as aforesaid, the Determinations of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively upon and in relation to such Applications as aforesaid shall not be subject to Appeal in any Case where the gross annual Income of the Charity does not exceed One hundred Pounds: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Master of the Rolls or any Vice Chancellor, where under the Circumstances of any Application as aforesaid he may so see fit, to direct that for obtaining the Relief, Order, or Direction sought for by such Application an Information, Bill, or Petition, as the Case may require, shall be filed or presented and prosecuted as now by Law required, and to abstain from further Proceeding on such Application.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 80.

Provision as to Charities within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster.

XXIX. The Jurisdiction created and given by this Act to the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellors sitting in Chambers, upon any Application to them respectively as aforesaid, shall extend concurrently to and may be exercised by the Chancellor of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, and the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine respectively for the Time being, as to every Charity within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the said County Palatine whose gross annual Income for the Time being exceeds Thirty Pounds, upon Application being made to such Chancellor or Vice Chancellor respectively; and it shall be lawful for the Chancellor of the said Duchy and County Palatine, with the Concurrence of the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine, from Time to Time to make and issue any Rules and Orders for regulating the Modes of proceeding, and the Fees to be taken in respect of Proceedings under this Act.

Provisions as to Charities over 30*l.* per Annum to extend to Charities under 30*l.* in London.

XXX. Provided always, That the Provisions of this Act applicable to any Charity the gross annual Income whereof exceeds Thirty Pounds shall extend to any Charity established or administered or applicable to or for Objects or Purposes within the City of London the gross annual Income whereof does not exceed Thirty Pounds, in like Manner as if such Income exceeded that Amount.

Lord Chancellor, with the Advice of Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, or Two of them, to make General Orders.

XXXI. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Consent of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors, or any Two of them, to make and issue General Rules and Orders for regulating the Mode and Form of Applications at the Chambers of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively under this Act, and the Proceedings thereon, and for determining in what Cases and under what Conditions and Restrictions the Determinations of the Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively upon or in relation to such Applications shall be subject to Appeal, and the Fees and Allowances to Solicitors of the Court of Chancery, and the Fees to be payable in Money or by Stamps to the Officers of the said Court in respect of such Applications and Proceedings thereon; and such Rules and Orders may from Time to Time be varied by the like Authority, and all such Rules and Orders shall be deemed General Orders of the said Court.

District Courts of Bankruptcy and County Courts to have Jurisdiction in Cases of Charities the Incomes of which do not exceed 30*l.*

XXXII. Where any Charity of which the gross annual Income for the Time being does not exceed Thirty Pounds shall be established or administered or be applicable wholly or partially to or for Objects or Purposes within the District or any Two or more of the Districts of any District Court of Bankruptcy or of any County Court or Courts holden under the Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, and the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee, or any other Relief, Order, or Direction whatsoever concerning such Charity, shall be considered desirable, and such Appointment or Removal, or other Relief, Order, or Direction, might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery in respect either of its ordinary or its special or statutory Jurisdiction, or by the Lord Chancellor intrusted with the Care and Commitment of the Custody of Lunatics, it shall be lawful for any Person authorized in this Behalf by the Order or Certificate of the said Board, or for the Attorney General, to make Application to such District or County Court, or, as the Case may be, to any One of such District or County Courts, for such Order, Direction, or Relief as the Nature of the Case may require; and such District or County Court shall entertain such Application, and shall hear the Matter in open Court, and shall give such Relief, and make such Orders and Directions in relation to the Matter of such Application, as might now be made or given by the Court of Chancery or by the Lord Chancellor, intrusted as aforesaid, in a Suit regularly instituted, or upon Petition, as the Case may require; and the Clerk of such County Court shall transmit a Copy of such Order or Direction to the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments, to be there enrolled: Provided always, that no Judge of any District or County Court shall be authorized to vary any Decree, Order, or Direction of the Court of Chancery, or of any Judge thereof, or to make or give any Order or Direction inconsistent or conflicting with any such Decree, Order, or Direction: Provided also, that where Two or more District or County Courts shall have concurrent Jurisdiction with respect to any Charity under this Act, no Application in respect of such Charity shall be made to or entertained by more than One of such District or County Courts at the same Time.

County Court Judge's Deputy not to exercise Jurisdiction.

XXXIII. The Jurisdiction hereby created and conferred on the County Courts with respect to any Charity shall not be exercised by any Deputy or other Person who may for the Time being be appointed to sit and shall be sitting for any such Judge.

Where Courts have concurrent Jurisdiction,

XXXIV. Where Two or more District Courts of Bankruptcy or County Courts shall concurrently have Jurisdiction under this Act with respect to any Charity, it shall be lawful for the said Board to order Board to direct to which Court Applications shall be made.

order to which of such Courts any Application with respect to such Charity shall be made; and every such Order shall be conclusive as to the Jurisdiction with respect to the Application referred to in such Order.

Board may direct Cases within the Jurisdiction of a District or County Court to be taken before a Judge of the Court of Chancery in the first instance.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the said Board to direct that any Application as to any Charity within the Jurisdiction of any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court shall be made before a Judge of the Court of Chancery, or as to any Charity within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, either before the Chancellor or the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine, or before a Judge of the High Court of Chancery, according to the Provisions herein contained applicable to a Charity the gross annual Income whereof exceeds Thirty Pounds, and in such Case such Application shall be made and may be heard and determined accordingly, in like Manner as if the gross annual Income of such Charity exceeded Thirty Pounds; and upon the Production of the Order or Certificate containing such Direction, or of a Copy thereof, the Application with respect to which such Order or Certificate shall have been made shall not be entertained or proceeded with by such District or County Court.

No Order of District or County Court for the Appointment or Removal of Trustees or Approval of a Scheme to be valid unless confirmed by Board.

XXXVI. Whenever any Order or Decision is made by any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court for the Appointment or Removal of any Trustee of any Charity, or approving of any Scheme for regulating or directing the Administration of any Charity, or the Estate, Funds, Property, or Income thereof, a Copy of every such Order or Decision shall immediately upon the making thereof be delivered or transmitted by the Deputy Registrar of such District Court or by the Clerk of the County Court, as the Case may be, together with all requisite Particulars, to the said Board, for the Purpose of being considered by them; and no such Order or Decision shall be valid or effectual until the same shall have been approved by the said Board, such Approval to be testified by a Certificate in Writing, signed by the Secretary of the said Board, and no such Approval shall issue from the said Board until One Calendar Month shall have elapsed after the Receipt by the Board of such Copy and Particulars.

Board, if dissatisfied with the Order of District or County Court may remit the Case for Reconsideration, or may transfer the Matter to Judge of the Court of Chancery.

XXXVII. In case any such Order or Decision as last aforesaid of any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court shall not be approved by the said Board, it shall be lawful for such Board to remit the same for Reconsideration and Decision by such District or County Court, with such Remarks and Recommendations thereon (if any) as shall seem fit and expedient to such Board, or, in the Discretion of the Board, to order and direct that the Subject Matter to which such Order or Decision relates, together with such Order or Decision, shall be submitted to the Consideration and Decision of a Judge of the Court of Chancery, and in such last-mentioned Case no further Proceedings shall be had or taken in the District or County Court with respect to the Matter in question; and in case the Order or Decision of the District or County Court, on the Reconsideration of any Order or Decision so remitted for Reconsideration, be disapproved as aforesaid by the said Board, such Board shall refer such Orders and Decisions, and the Subject Matter thereof, to a Judge of the Court of Chancery, or, as to any Charity within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, either to the Chancellor or the Vice Chancellor of the same County Palatine, or to a Judge of the High Court of Chancery; and where any Order or Decision is referred to a Judge of the Court of Chancery, or of the Court of Chancery of the said County Palatine of Lancaster, under this Provision, such Judge shall have and exercise all such Jurisdiction, Power, and Authority in relation thereto as in the Case of a Charity the gross annual Income whereof exceeds Thirty Pounds, and may make such Order in relation to the Matter of such Order or Decision as to him may seem proper.

How Orders of District or County Court under this Act to be enforced.

XXXVIII. Subject to any Orders to be made by the Lord Chancellor as herein-after mentioned, and to the other Provisions of this Act, all Proceedings to be taken in any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court, and all Orders and Directions to be made or given by any such District Court or County Court by virtue of the Jurisdiction hereby created and conferred on such Court, shall respectively be subject to the same Rules and Regulations, and have the same Effect, and be registered, enforced, and executed in the same Manner, as the other Proceedings, Orders, Judgments, and Directions of the same Court under its ordinary Jurisdiction, and it shall be lawful for any such District Court, or for any County Court, with the Consent of the Board, to rescind or vary any Order which shall have been previously made by such Court, without Prejudice to any Act or Matter in the meantime done under such Order; and for executing and putting in force any Order to be made by any County Court under this Act, every Judge of any such Court shall and may have and exercise all such Powers as by the Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, are given for enforcing the Payment of any Debt, Damages, or Costs under the said Act.

Appeal.

XXXIX. Where any Person authorized to make any Application under this Act, (other than Her Majesty's Attorney General acting ex officio,) or any other Person who may have been made a Party to any Proceeding upon any Application under this Act, is aggrieved by or dissatisfied with any Order made by any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court upon any such Application, or any Proceeding thereon, he may, within One Calendar Month after the making of such Order, give Notice in Writing to the said Court, and also to the said Board, that he is desirous to appeal against the same; and if the said Board think it reasonable and proper that such Appeal should be entertained, and give a Certificate to that Effect, such District or County Court shall suspend any Proceedings upon the Order appealed against during such Time as the Circumstances may require; and the said Board, if they so think fit, may require the Person giving any such Notice of Appeal to become bound with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Deputy Registrar of such District Court, or by the Clerk of the County Court, as the Case may be, to the Treasurers of the said Courts respectively, or such other Person as the said Board may may see fit, in such Sum as to the said Board shall seem reasonable, to pay such Costs of the Proceedings on the Appeal as shall be ordered to be paid by such Appellant, and also (if the said Board so think fit) to indemnify the Charity against the Costs and Expenses of or attending such Appeal; and every Bond executed under this Provision shall be exempt from Stamp Duty: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Attorney General (acting ex officio), at any Time within Three Calendar Months after the making of any Order by a District Court or County Court under this Act, to lodge and commence and prosecute an Appeal against such Order, without giving any such Notice or becoming bound as aforesaid, and every such last-mentioned Appeal shall thereupon be allowed by the Order of such District or County Court, and shall have such other Effect as any other Appeal under this Act.

Proceedings on Appeal.

XL. Where any Order allowing an Appeal has been made as aforesaid, the Person thereby allowed to appeal shall within Three Calendar Months present a Petition to the Court of Chancery, setting forth the Order appealed against, and the Order allowing such Appeal, and praying such Relief as the Case may require; and upon the hearing of such Petition the Court may confirm, vary, or reverse the Order appealed against, or may remit such Order to the District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court by which the same was made, with or without any Declaration or Directions of the Court of Chancery in relation thereto, or may proceed in relation to the Charity to which such Order relates as in the Case of an Application under this Act to a Judge of the Court of Chancery at Chambers, and any Judge of such Court sitting at Chambers or in open Court may make or give any such Orders or Directions in relation to the Matter of such Order as he may see fit, or the Court may make such other Order in relation to the Matter of any such Appeal as to the Court may seem just, and as might be made in the Case of a Suit regularly instituted, or a Petition, as the Case may require; and in case the Party allowed to appeal do not within such Three Calendar Months present such Petition of Appeal, the Order against which such Appeal was allowed shall be final; and in case any Costs adjudged on any such Appeal to be paid by the Party allowed to appeal be not paid, such Bond as aforesaid may be put in Suit, and the Money to be recovered on every such Bond shall be applied to indemnify the Charity Estate or the Person damnified, or otherwise in such Manner as the Justice of the Case may require, and the Court or Judge by whom such Appeal may have been heard shall think fit.

Bond to prosecute Appeal may be put in Suit.

No Chancery Judge, or District or County Court in Proceedings under this Act to try Titles, &c.

XLI. Provided always, That no Judge of the Court of Chancery, nor any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court, shall upon any Proceedings under this Act have Jurisdiction to try or determine the Title at Law or in Equity to any Real or Personal Property, or any Term or Interest therein as between any Charity, or the Trustee thereof, and any Person holding or claiming such Real or Personal Property, Term, or Interest adversely to such Charity, or to try or determine any Question as to the Existence or Extent of any Charge or Trust.

Notice to be published of Application for Schemes or Appointment or Removal of Trustees under this Act.

XLII. Before any Application shall be made to any Judge of the Court of Chancery, or to any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court, under any of the Provisions herein contained for the Establishment or Alteration of a Scheme or the Appointment or Removal of any Trustees or Trustee, Notice in Writing of such intended Application shall be given in such Form and Manner as the said Board shall have directed; and if the Order be that such Notice be affixed to or near the Door of any Parish or District Church, the Incumbent and Churchwardens of such Parish or District are hereby respectively required to allow such Notice to be affixed and to remain so affixed during such Period, not less than Fifteen Days, as the said Board shall have ordered; and in any Case in which the Order shall be that such Notice shall be affixed to any Place, Evidence that the same has been so affixed shall be deemed and taken as primâ facie Evidence, that it has remained affixed during the Period prescribed by the Board.

By whom Applications may be made.

Attorney General may petition under 52 G. 3. c. 101.

XLIII. Every Application to any Judge or Court under the Jurisdiction created or conferred by any of the Provisions of this Act, may be made by Her Majesty's Attorney General, or, subject to the Provisions aforesaid, by all or any One or more of the Trustees or Persons administering or claiming to administer, or interested in, the Charity which shall be the Subject of such Application, or any Two or more Inhabitants of any Parish or Place within which the Charity is administered or applicable; and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Attorney General for the Time being, acting ex officio, to make Application by Petition to the Court of Chancery with respect to any Charity under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and one, or under the Provisions of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed authorizing the Application to the same Court by Petition according to the Provisions of the said Act.

Statement in Certificate of Board of the Amount of Income of any Charity to be sufficient Evidence for determining the Jurisdiction or Proceedings under this Act.

XLIV. For the Purposes of determining the Jurisdiction under this Act with respect to any Charity, or the Right to appeal from the Determination of a Judge of the Court of Chancery, it shall be lawful for the said Board to declare, according to such Judgment as they may be able to form upon the Returns or Statements before them in relation to any Charity, whether the gross annual Income for the Time being of such Charity does or does not exceed Thirty Pounds or One hundred Pounds, (as the Case may require,) and a Statement in any Certificate or Order of the said Board that according to such Judgment as aforesaid the gross yearly Income of any Charity does or does not exceed Thirty Pounds or One hundred Pounds shall be sufficient Evidence of the Amount of the gross annual Income of such Charity, for the Purpose of determining such Jurisdiction or Right to appeal as aforesaid; and any Certificate or Order made by the said Board under this Act, authorizing any Proceeding or Application concerning any Charity to be taken or made to any District Court of Bankruptcy or County Court or to the Court of Chancery or any Judge thereof, shall state that the gross annual Income for the Time being of such Charity does not exceed Thirty Pounds, or does exceed Thirty Pounds (as the Case may be): Provided always, always, that where any Charity, or the Trustees thereof, in addition to the principal Endowment for its general Objects and Purposes, shall be possessed of or entitled to any other Endowment for any particular or special Object or Purpose arising out of or in its Nature or Application connected with the general Objects or Purposes of such Charity, it shall be lawful for the said Board, having regard to the Circumstances of each such Case, and to the Object and Extent of the proposed Application and Litigation, to determine whether such Endowment for such particular or special Object or Purpose should, for the Purposes of Jurisdiction and Proceedings under this Act, be considered and treated as forming Part of the general Endowment of the Charity, or as a separate or independent Charity, and such Board shall frame their Certificate or Order accordingly.

Proviso as to particular Endowments.

Lord Chancellor to make Orders for regulating Proceedings before District and County Courts.

XLV. The Lord Chancellor shall make such Orders for regulating Proceedings by and before the Judges of District Courts of Bankruptcy and County Courts under this Act, and for fixing and determining the Fees to be taken in respect of such Proceedings, as he may see fit; and, subject to such Orders, such Judges may regulate the Proceedings before them respectively so as to render them as summary and inexpensive as conveniently may be.

Reservation of Rights of Church of England with respect to Charities.

XLVI. Nothing herein contained shall diminish or detract from any Right or Privilege which by any Rule or Practice of the Court of Chancery, or by the Construction of Law, now subsists for the Preference or the exclusive or special Benefit of the Church of England, or the Members of the same Church, in settling any Scheme for the Regulation of any Charity, or in the Appointment or Removal of Trustees, or generally in the Application or Management of any Charity.

Secretary to be Treasurer of Charities; such Treasurer to be a Corporation.

XLVII. The Secretary for the Time being of the said Board shall by virtue of his Appointment be the Treasurer of Public Charities; and such Treasurer shall, for the Purposes of taking, holding, conveying, assigning, transferring, and transmitting Real Property, including Leaseholds for Lives or Years, be a Corporation Sole by the Name of "The Treasurer of Public Charities," and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession, and plead and be impleaded before all Courts, Justices, and others.

Land holden upon trust for a Charity, subject to Jurisdiction of Court of Chancery and of Judge, may be vested in Treasurer.

XLVIII. Where any Land, or any Term or Estate therein, holden upon trust for any Charity, shall be vested in any Persons other than the Persons acting in the Administration and Application of the Rents; or where there shall be no Trustees thereof, or the Trustees, or any of them, shall be unwilling to act, or it shall be uncertain in whom such Land, Term or Estate, shall be vested, or all or any of the Persons in whom such Land, Term or Estate, shall be vested, cannot be found, or shall be under Age, lunatic, or unsound Mind, (whether found such by Inquisition or not), or otherwise incapable of acting, or shall be out of the Jurisdiction or not amenable to the Process of the Court of Chancery, or where by reason of the reduced Number of Trustees or other Causes a valid Appointment of new Trustees cannot be made, or where by reason of the Expenses incident to the Appointment of new Trustees, and the Conveyance or Assignment of such Land, Term or Estate, to such new Trustees, it shall appear to the Court of Chancery, or to any Judge of such Court or of any Court having Jurisdiction with respect to such Charity under this Act, desirable so to do, such Court or Judge may order that such Land, Term or Estate, be vested in such Treasurer, and thereupon the same shall vest in such Treasurer and his Successors for all the Estate and Interest holden in trust for the Charity as aforesaid, without any Conveyance or Assurance thereof; but no such Vesting Order as aforesaid shall be made in respect of any Land, or Term or Estate as aforesaid, holden in trust as aforesaid, vested in a Corporation, without the Consent of the Corporation; and no such Vesting Order shall take effect in respect of any Copyhold Land without the Consent of the Lord of the Manor; and the Court of Chancery, or such Judge, may direct such periodical or other Payment, as such Court or Judge may think fit, to be made to the Lord of the Manor, in compensation for Fines or other Profits which would have become due upon Death or Admittance of Tenants.

Proviso.

Orders may be made re vesting Land, &c. in the Trustees of the Charity.

XLIX. It shall be lawful for any Court or Judge by whom respectively any such Vesting Order may have been made, or for any other Court or Judge having Jurisdiction in the Matter, if it shall so seem fit to such Court or Judge, from Time to Time to order that all or any Part of the Land, Term or Estate, which shall for the Time being be vested in the said Treasurer by virtue of any such Vesting Order as aforesaid, shall be devested, and that the same shall be vested in the acting Trustees or Trustee for the Time being of the Charity; and such last-mentioned Order shall operate to vest such Land, Term and Estate, in the Trustees or Trustee therein named without any Conveyance or Assurance.

Treasurer to be a Bare Trustee.

L. Subject to the Orders and Directions of the Court of Chancery or of any such Judge, such Treasurer shall be deemed a Bare Trustee, and shall permit the Persons acting in the Administration of the Charity to have the Possession, Management, and Control of the Trust Estates, and the Application of the Income thereof, as if the same had been vested in them.

Judge may order Trustees, &c. holding Stock, &c. belonging to a Charity subject to his Jurisdiction to transfer same to official Trustees.

LI. The Secretary for the Time being of the said Board, and such other public Officer or Officers as the Lord Chancellor shall appoint, shall be official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and where Trustees or other Persons having in their Names, or in the Name of any deceased Person of whom they are Representatives, in the Books of the Bank of England, or of the East India or South Sea Company, or of any other public Company, any Annuities, Stock, or Shares, or holding any Government or Parliamentary or other Securities in trust for any Charity, shall be desirous to transfer or deposit the same to or with the said official Trustees in trust for such Charity, or where any Persons shall be desirous of transferring or depositing as aforesaid any Annuities, Stocks, Shares, or Securities for discharging any Legacy or Charge given or made to or for the Benefit of any Charity, or where it shall appear to the Court of Chancery, or to any Judge of such Court, or of any District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court having Jurisdiction under this Act, that any Annuities, Stock, Shares, or Securities held in trust for any Charity

Charity ought, for the Purpose of Security or convenient Administration, to be transferred or deposited as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Court or Judge to order the Transfer or Deposit of such Annuities, Stocks, Shares, or Securities to or with such official Trustees.

Secretary to keep separate Accounts of Funds of each Charity.

LII. The Secretary of the said Board shall keep separate Accounts of the Annuities, Stock, Shares, and Securities belonging to each separate Charity, and the said official Trustees shall pay the Dividends or Interest or Income thereof to the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of such Charity, or otherwise dispose thereof, and transfer such Annuities, Stock, Shares, or Securities (when Occasion shall require), as the Court of Chancery, or any Judge of such Court, or of any District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court having Jurisdiction under this Act, or other lawful Authority, shall direct.

Deeds, &c. may be deposited in Repository provided by Board.

LIII. It shall be lawful for any Trustees or other Persons having the Custody of any Deeds or Muniments of or relating to such Charity to deposit the same for Security in a Repository which may be provided by the said Board, subject to any Regulations to be made by the said Board under this Act.

Power to Board to frame Schemes for the Appropriation of Charitable Property to varied Trusts.

LIV. Where upon the Application of any Trustees or other Persons concerned in the Management or Administration of any Charity, or interested in the Benefits thereof (and after such Examination or Inquiry as the Board may think necessary in relation thereto), or upon any Report of an Inspector, or Information otherwise obtained by the said Board under this Act, with relation to any Charity, it shall appear to the said Board to be desirable to have a new Scheme for the Application or Management of the Charity, and such new Scheme as contemplated or considered desirable by the Board cannot be, or it shall in the Opinion of the Board be doubtful whether it can be carried into complete effect by the Court of Chancery, or by any District or County Court under the Jurisdiction created by this Act, or otherwise than by the Authority of Parliament, it shall be lawful for the said Board in every such Case provisionally to approve and certify such new Scheme in the Manner and subject to the Regulations herein-after mentioned.

Notice to be given before Approval of Schemes, and Objections may be submitted for the Consideration of the Board.

LV. One Month at least before any such new Scheme shall be so provisionally approved, Notice thereof shall be given in such Manner as the Board may in each Case consider proper or expedient for ensuring due Publicity, and every such Notice shall contain such Particulars of the proposed Scheme as the said Board think fit, and as shall be deemed by the said Board sufficient to show the Nature of such Scheme, and where the Nature thereof cannot conveniently be shown in the said Notice, such Notice shall refer to some convenient Place within the Parish or District, and to the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments, where a Copy of the proposed Scheme shall be deposited and may be inspected, and every such Notice shall require any Objections to such Scheme to be stated or transmitted to the said Board or their Secretary within One Month from the Time when the Notice shall have been given.

Board may alter or modify or approve of Schemes.

LVI. If after such Notice as aforesaid any Objections or Suggestions shall be made, the Board shall consider the same, and may thereupon, if to them it shall seem fit, alter or modify the Scheme according to any such Objections or Suggestions; and after all such Objections and Suggestions, if any, have been disposed of, or if no such Objections or Suggestions shall have been made, the Board, in case they shall not think fit to refer such Scheme to an Inspector under the Provision next herein-after contained, may proceed to approve such Scheme, and to certify the same in manner herein-after mentioned.

The Matter of Schemes may be referred to an Inspector for local Inquiry.

LVII. Upon the Requisition of any Person interested in the Charity in question (in case the said Board after due Consideration shall be of Opinion that there are sufficient Grounds for complying with such Requisition), or in any other Case, if the said Board shall consider it desirable, the Matter of any Scheme in question may be referred by the said Board to One of their Inspectors, and such Inspector shall thereupon proceed to make a local Inquiry and Examination into the Matter of the Scheme in question, and for the Purposes of such Inquiry, such Inspector may hold a Sitting or Sittings in some convenient Place in the Parish or One of the Parishes or the District to or in which respectively the Charity in question is wholly or partially situated or is administered, and may take and receive any Evidence and Information, and hear and inquire into any Objections or Questions relating to the Scheme or Charity in question, and may from Time to Time adjourn any such Sitting, and public Notice shall be given by such Inspector of every such Sitting (except an adjourned Sitting) Fourteen Days at the least before the holding thereof, in such other Mode as in the Judgment of the said Board shall be sufficient to ensure Publicity.

Inspectors to report the Result of Inquiry to the Board.

LVIII. Every Inspector to whom any such Matter shall be referred shall report in Writing to the said Board the Result of his Inquiry, and whether in his Opinion the Scheme in question should be approved with or without any Alteration or Modification thereof, and such Report shall specify or indicate the Alterations (if any) which such Inspector shall consider desirable, with the Reasons for the same and also the Nature of the Objections (if any) which shall have been made to the Scheme, and the Opinion of the said Inspector thereon, and the said Board shall consider such Report, and if, as the Result of such Report or after further Inquiry, they shall be satisfied therewith, they may proceed to approve the Scheme in question either with or without any Alteration, and to certify the same in manner herein-after mentioned.

Schemes when approved to be certified by the Board.

Copy of such Certificate to be deposited in the Parish or District and Notice given.

LIX. Every Scheme to be approved by the said Board shall be certified by them, and for that Purpose shall be embodied in a Certificate to be made by the said Board, and sealed with their Seal; and in every Case a Copy of such Certificate shall be deposited in some convenient Place within the Parish or One of the Parishes or the District in which the Charity in question shall wholly or partially be situated or administered, and at the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments, and a Notice shall also be given, in such Manner as the Board shall direct, which Notice shall refer to the Certificate so deposited, and shall state the Intention of the Board to proceed with the Scheme thereby certified.

LX. The

Annual Report to be laid before Parliament, which shall set forth all the Schemes approved.

LX. The said Board shall in the Month of February in every Year make a Report to Her Majesty of all their Proceedings during the preceding Year up to the Thirty-first Day of December then last, and such Report shall, within Fourteen Days after the making thereof, be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, or otherwise within Fourteen Days after the Meeting thereof; and in such Report the said Board shall specially distinguish and set forth in full all the Schemes (if any) approved by them under the Provisions lastly herein-before contained, together with the Grounds of such their Approval, and the Objections (if any) which have been made thereto, and all Proceedings had in respect of such Objections and the Grounds on which any such Objections have been over-ruled; and in case it shall be enacted by any Act of Parliament that any such Scheme or Schemes so certified shall be confirmed and take effect, either with or without any Alterations or Modifications thereof respectively, every such Act shall be deemed a Public General Act.

Accounts of Trustees of Charities to be delivered to the Clerks of County Courts, Clerks of the Peace, and to the Board.

LXI. The Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of every Charity shall, in Books to be kept by them for that Purpose, regularly enter or cause to be entered full and true Accounts of all Money received and paid respectively on account of such Charity, and on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, or on or before such other Day as shall or may be fixed and appointed for that Purpose by the said Board, shall cause a Statement in Writing to be made of the Income and Revenues, whether actually paid or then due, and the actual Receipts and Expenditure of such Charity for the Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December then next preceding, or on some other convenient Day to be fixed and appointed for that Purpose by the said Board, and also a Balance Sheet containing a clear Statement of the Balance of such Account, which Statement and Balance Sheet respectively shall be certified under the Hand of some One or more of such Trustees or Persons (and audited by the Auditor of such Charity, if any there be); and as to every Charity whose gross annual Income for the Time being shall not exceed Thirty Pounds, every such Statement and Balance Sheet respectively, or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively, shall be delivered or sent by such Trustees or Persons free of Charge to the Clerk of the County Court or some one of the County Courts (if more than One) to whose Jurisdiction such Charity may be subject under this Act (in case such Charity be subject to the Jurisdiction of any County Court under this Act), or if such Charity be not subject to the Jurisdiction of any County Court, then to the Clerk of the County Court for the District or any One of the Districts (if more than One) wherein or nearest adjoining whereto such Charity is established, or the Property thereof (in whole or in part) is situate or administered and distributed; and as to every Charity whose gross annual Income for the Time being shall exceed Thirty Pounds, every such Statement and Balance Sheet or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively (unless the said Board shall otherwise direct), shall be delivered or sent free of Charge to the Clerk of the Peace for the County or the Division of the County, or some One of the Counties or Divisions of Counties (if more than One) in which the Charity is established, or the Property thereof is wholly or partially situated or administered and distributed; and every such Statement and Balance Sheet, or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively, shall be kept and registered without Fee or Reward by the Registrar of County Courts Judgments or the Clerk of such County Court, and the Clerk of the Peace of such County or Division respectively, and shall be open to the Inspection of all Persons, at all seasonable Hours, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling to the Registrar or Clerk for every such Inspection; and any Person may require and have a Copy of any such Statement and Balance Sheet, or of any Part thereof, paying therefor to such Registrar or Clerk after the Rate of Twopence for every Seventy-two Words or Figures; and a Duplicate or Copy of every such Statement and Balance Sheet to be made according to the foregoing Provision, so certified and audited as aforesaid, shall be delivered or transmitted, through the Post or otherwise, free of Charge, by such Trustees or other Persons, to the said Board, on or before the said Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, or such other Day as may be fixed and appointed by the said Board as aforesaid; and the said Board may from Time to Time by any Order direct that the Statement and Balance Sheet, or a Duplicate or true Copy thereof respectively, of the Accounts of any Charity whose gross annual Income exceeds Thirty Pounds shall be delivered or sent to the Clerk of the County Court in the same Manner as if the Income of such Charity did not exceed Thirty Pounds; and the said Board may make and give such further and other Orders and Directions in relation to the Delivery and Publication of such Accounts, and the Form thereof, as they may think fit, which Directions and Orders shall be obligatory on and obeyed by all such Trustees and Persons as aforesaid.

Exemptions from the Operation of Act.

LXII. This Act shall not extend to the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, London, or Durham, or any College or Hall in the said Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, and Durham, or to any Cathedral or Collegiate Church, or to any Building registered as a Place of Meeting for Religious Worship with the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, or Marriages in England and Wales, and bonâ fide used as a Place of Meeting for Religious Worship; nor shall this Act, for the Period of Two Years from the passing thereof, extend or be in any Manner applied to Charities or Institutions, the Funds or Income of which are applicable exclusively for the Benefit of Persons of the Roman Catholic Persuasion, and which are under the Superintendence or Control of Persons of that Persuasion, nor shall this Act extend or be applied to the Commissioners of Queen Anne's Bounty, or to the British Museum, or to any Friendly or Benefit Society, or Savings Bank, or any Institution, Establishment, or Society for religious or other charitable Purposes, or to the Auxiliary or Branch Associations connected therewith, wholly maintained by voluntary Contributions, or any Bookselling or Publishing Business carried on by or under the Direction of any Society wholly or partially exempted from this Act, so far as such Business is or shall be carried carried on by means of voluntary Contributions only, or the Capital or Stock of such Business; and where any Charity is maintained partly by voluntary Subscriptions and partly by Income arising from any Endowment, the Powers and Provisions of the Act shall, with respect to such Charity, extend and apply to the Income from Endowment only, to the Exclusion of voluntary Subscriptions, and the Application thereof; and no Donation or Bequest unto or in trust for any such Charity as last aforesaid, of which no special Application or Appropriation shall be directed or declared by the Donor or Testator, and which may legally be applied by the governing or managing Body of such Charity as Income in aid of the voluntary Subscriptions, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction or Control of the said Board, or the Powers or Provisions of this Act; and no Portion of any such Donation or Bequest as last aforesaid, or of any voluntary Subscription, which is now or shall or may from Time to Time be set apart or appropriated and invested by the governing or managing Body of the Charity, for the Purpose of being held and applied or expended for or to some defined and specific Object or Purpose connected with such Charity, in pursuance of any Rule or Resolution made or adopted by the governing or managing Body of such Charity, or of any Donation or Bequest in aid of any Fund so set apart or appropriated for any such Object or Purpose as aforesaid, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction or Control of the said Board or the Powers or Provisions of this Act; and nothing in this Act shall subject the Funds or Property of any Missionary or other similar Society, or the Missionaries, Teachers, or Officers of such Society, or of any Branch thereof, which Funds or Property shall not be within the Limits of England or Wales, to the Jurisdiction of the said Board: Provided always, that the said Exemption shall not extend to any Cathedral, Collegiate, Chapter, or other Schools.

Provisions as to Charities supported partly by voluntary Subscriptions.

LXIII. It shall be lawful for any of the Charities exempted from the Operation of this Act, by Order or Resolution duly made in conformity with the Constitution or Rules of such Charity (and which in that Case only shall be binding), to apply by Petition to the Commissioners to have the Benefit of this Act either generally or as to any of the Provisions herein contained; and such Petition shall be under the Seal of such Charity if incorporated, and if not, then under the Hands of the major Part of the Trustees and governing Body of such Charity; and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to make an Order in conformity with such Application, and such Charity shall thenceforth be entitled to and be bound by all the Provisions of this Act, if admitted generally thereto, or by such of the Enactments thereof as shall be mentioned and specified in such Order of the Commissioners, but in either Case in the same Manner as if such Charity had not been exempted from this Act, or such Exemption had not extended to the Enactments specified in such Order.

Exempted Charities may petition Commissioners to have Benefit of Act.

LXIV. Provided also, That if any Question or Dispute shall arise among the Members of any Charity exempted from the Operation of this Act in relation to any Office, or the Fitness or Disqualification of any Trustee or Officer, or his Election or Removal, or generally in relation to the Management of the Charity, it shall be lawful for Two Thirds of the Members present at any Special Meeting, duly convened by Notice for the Purpose in the same Manner in which Meetings of such Charity are by the Rules thereof appointed to be held and convened, to refer such Question or Dispute to the Arbitration of the Commissioners, who shall accept such Reference and act therein as Arbitrators, and their Award shall be final, and may be made a Rule of Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery.

Disputes among Members of exempted Charities may be referred to Arbitration of Commissioners.

LXV. The legal Estate in all Lands which at the Time of the passing of the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, was vested in the Body Corporate of any Borough which became subject to the Provisions of the said Act, or in any One or more of the Members of such Body Corporate, in his or their Corporate Capacity, solely or together with any Person or Persons elected solely by such Body Corporate, or solely by any particular Number, Class, or Description of Members of such Body Corporate, in whole or in part in trust or for the Benefit of any Charitable Uses or Trusts whatsoever, and which legal Estate shall not have been since duly conveyed or assured to and vested in the Trustees appointed by the Lord High Chancellor under the Provisions of the said Act, or such of them as shall be surviving and continuing Trustees, or otherwise lawfully conveyed, aliened, or disposed of by such Body Corporate or Member or Members thereof, shall from and immediately after the passing of this Act, and without any actual Conveyance, Assignment, or other Assurance thereof, be vested in the Trustees so appointed, or such of them as shall be surviving and continuing Trustees under such Appointment as aforesaid, according to the respective Estates and Interests therein, and subject to such and the same Charges and Incumbrances and upon such and to the same Trusts as the same were respectively subject to previously to such vesting; and in every Case, upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of any of the Trustees, and upon any Appointment of any new Trustee or Trustees respectively, the legal Estate in the same Lands, and in all other Lands subject to any such Charitable Uses or Trusts which may for the Time being be vested in the Trustees or any of them, or in any Persons or the Heirs or Devisees of any Person who may have died, resigned, or been removed, shall vest in the Persons who after such Death, Resignation, or Removal, and such Appointment of such new Trustee or Trustees respectively, shall continue or be the Trustees for the Time being, without any Conveyance or Assurance whatsoever.

Legal Estate of Lands now vested in Municipal Corporations on Charitable Trusts to be vested in Trustees. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76.

'WHEREAS by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, bearing Date the Eighth Day of September, in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament therein referred to, Her said Majesty did appoint that all Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, therein mentioned or referred to, should be One Body Corporate, by the Name of "The Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery:" And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, Chapter Twenty-eight, it was enacted, that after Midsummer One thousand seven hundred and thirty-three the One Fourth Part of the Stock therein mentioned, amounting to Three million six hundred and sixty-two thousand seven hundred and seventy-five Pounds Seventeen Shillings and One Farthing, should continue and be in the said Company as a Trading or Capital Stock in their own Right: And whereas, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Twenty-three, the said Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company which was subscribed by them for the public Use, and which now amounts to Three million six hundred and sixty-two thousand seven hundred and eighty-four Pounds Eight Shillings and Sixpence, will, on or by the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, be paid off and redeemed or commuted: And whereas by the said Letters Patent it was ordained that no Person or Persons should be capable of being an Elector to vote at any General Court of the said Company who should not, at the Time of such General Court, have in his, her, or their own Name and Right, and for his, her, or their own Use, and not in trust for any other, the Sum of One thousand Pounds or more Share or Interest in the Capital Stock of the said Company; and by the said Act of the Sixth Year of King George the Second the Amount of Qualification was reduced to the Sum of Five hundred Pounds of the said Stock; and by reason of such Provisions all fiduciary Proprietors of Shares in the said Trading or Capital Stock, and all Proprietors of less Stock than Five hundred Pounds, were incapable of signifying, through the said Company, their Assent to commute and exchange their respective Shares of the Annuity or Interest now payable on the said Trading or Capital Stock into any One or more of the Annuities of New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, into which the said Annuity or Interest is authorized to be commuted or exchanged by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, Chapter Twenty-three: And whereas the said Company have not, within the Time limited by the said Act, signified their Assent to commute and exchange the Annuity or Interest now payable on the said Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company, or any Part thereof, into any One or more of the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, upon the Terms and Conditions in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient, in case Parliament should offer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury should be authorized by Parliament to offer, such Commutation or Exchange as herein-after mentioned, that the said Company should be enabled to accept the same; but this Purpose cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, in manner following; (that is to say,)

I. It shall be lawful for the said Company, and they are hereby authorized, to accept by way of Commutation or Exchange to accept from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in case Parliament should certain Proprietors, to accept Government Securities, in lieu of Money, for Shares of such Proprietors of Stock redeemed by Parliament.

should offer, or such Commissioners should be authorized by Parliament to offer, such Commutation or Exchange, in lieu of the Money which under the Provisions of the said Act will, by reason of such Non-assent by the said Company, be payable on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in respect of the Annuity or Interest on such Part of the Trading or Capital Stock of the said Company as shall, at the Time of the Authority herein-after mentioned being given by the respective Proprietors thereof, be standing in the Books of the said Company in the Names of, or be held by, such respective Proprietors of the said Capital Stock as are herein-after empowered to and as shall authorize the Assent thereto in manner herein-after mentioned, such One or more of the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Exchequer Bonds, and any other Parliamentary or Government Stocks, Funds, or Securities, if any there be, which Parliament or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may be authorized by Parliament to offer for this Purpose, as such respective Proprietors shall assent to receive; the said New Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, and such Bonds respectively, to be accepted upon the Terms and subject to the Conditions upon and subject to which, under the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, the same might have been taken in Commutation or Exchange, under an Assent signified within the Time by the said Act limited; and such other Stocks, Funds, or Securities, if any, to be accepted upon such Terms, and subject to such Conditions, as Parliament, or the said Commissioners under the Authority of Parliament, shall offer, and the said Company shall, in pursuance of such Assent, accept on behalf of such Proprietors: Provided that the respective Proprietors in respect of whose Shares of the said Trading or Capital Stock the said Company shall propose to accept such Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, or Securities, as aforesaid, do, either in Person or by some Agent or Agents duly authorized for that Purpose, and within such Time as may be limited by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Writing under the respective Hands of such Proprietors, or the Hand or Hands of such Agent or Agents respectively, authorize the said Company, in manner herein-after mentioned, to assent to such Commutation or Exchange.

Securities received in Commutation to be held for those Proprietors who authorize such Commutation.

II. After such Commutation or Exchange as aforesaid shall have taken place, the Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, or Securities received on such Commutation or Exchange shall be held by the said Company in lieu of the Shares of the Annuity or Interest on the said Trading or Capital Stock in respect whereof such Commutation or Exchange shall be made, and shall be appropriated and divided by the said Company amongst or held by the said Company on behalf of the Persons only in whose Names respectively the respective Shares of the said Trading or Capital Stock the Annuity or Interest on which is so commuted or exchanged were standing, or by whom the same were held, at the Time of such Commutation or Exchange, and so that each Proprietor so authorizing such Assent, or his Executors or Administrators, or his or their Assigns in case of any Transfer of such Share or Shares subsequent to such Authority being given, may have his or their Share of the said Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, or Securities, received in Commutation or Exchange as aforesaid, placed to his or their Credit in the Books of the said Company, in like Manner in every respect as if such Shares of the said Annuity or Interest on the said Trading or Capital Stock had been paid off or redeemed in Money under the Provisions of the said Act of the present Session, Chapter Twenty-three, exclusive of such Proprietors of the said Trading or Capital Stock as shall not assent to such Commutation or Exchange; and, subject thereto, such Annuities, Bonds, Stocks, Funds, and Securities shall be deemed to be Part of the Capital Stock of the said Company.

Power to Accountants General in Chancery and Accountant in Bankruptcy to authorize Commutation.

III. It shall be lawful for the Accountants General of the Courts of Chancery in England and Ireland respectively, and for the Accountant in Bankruptcy in England, to authorize the said Company, on behalf of any Suitor or Suitors, or others interested in the said Trading or Capital Stock standing in the Names of such Accountants General and Accountant respectively, to assent to such Commutation or Exchange as aforesaid; and General or Special Orders may be made in a summary Way upon Application of Suitors or Persons interested or otherwise, by the Courts of Chancery in England and Ireland, and by the Court of Bankruptcy in England respectively, for directing the said Accountants General and Accountant respectively as to authorizing or not authorizing such Assent, and otherwise in relation thereto; and the said Accountants General and Accountant respectively shall be fully indemnified against all Actions, Suits, or Proceedings for or in respect of any Act, Matter, or Thing done by them respectively in pursuance of this Act: Provided always, that where the beneficial Interest in the Stock in respect of which any such Assent is required is vested in any Person or Persons competent to assent to the Commutation or Exchange thereof, the Court of Chancery and Court of Bankruptcy respectively shall not make any Order directing the said Accountant General or Accountant in Bankruptcy to authorize the Company to assent to such Commutation or Exchange, except on the Application or with the Consent of the Person or Persons beneficially entitled as aforesaid.

Power to Executors, and all others disabled from voting at General Courts of the Company, to authorize Commutation.

IV. It shall also be lawful for all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, and Trustees, and all Committees of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics who as such shall have the Control over any Share or Shares of the said Trading or Capital Stock, standing either in their own Names, or in the Name or Names of any Testator or Intestate, Infant, Idiot, or Lunatic, or of any other Person or Persons, and for all other Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, disabled from voting in respect of their respective Shares of the said Trading or Capital Stock at the General Courts of the said Company, to authorize the Assent to such Commutation or Exchange by the said Company as aforesaid; and all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and Committees authorizing such Assent shall be severally and respectively indemnified in respect thereof: Provided always, that an Authority to assent, for the Purposes aforesaid, signed by by One of such Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, or Committees, for and on behalf of himself and the others or other of them, shall be sufficient, and shall be binding and conclusive upon the others and other of them, and shall be acted upon by the said Company as if the same had been signed by the whole of such Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, and Committees, unless some One or more of them shall give Notice to the said Company, previous to the Expiration of the Time given for signifying such Authority, of his, her, or their Dissent thereto: Provided also, that in all Cases in which any Trustee, Executor, or Administrator shall hold or be entitled to any Share or Interest in the said Capital Stock upon trust for or for the Benefit of any Person having a limited Interest or under legal Disability, no such Trustee, Executor, or Administrator shall be at liberty to authorize the said Company to assent to receive, in lieu of his Share or Interest in the said Annuity or Interest on the said Capital Stock, the aforesaid Stock of Three Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum Annuities, without the Consent in Writing of all Persons beneficially interested in such Share or Interest, if competent and willing to consent; but if such Persons shall not agree, or if any of the Parties shall be under legal Disability, or if the Trust be such that Persons yet unborn may become interested under the same, then and in any or either of such Cases every such Trustee, Executor, or Administrator shall be at liberty to authorize the Commutation of such Share or Interest so held by him in such Manner only as a Judge of the Court of Chancery in England or Ireland or of the Court of Session in Scotland shall direct; provided also, that all Applications for such Purpose as last aforesaid, and every other Application by this Act authorized to be made to the Courts of Chancery in England and Ireland respectively, and to the Court of Session in Scotland, may be heard and disposed of in such Manner, on the Attendance of such Parties, and on such Evidence, as the Judge shall think fit, who shall have Power to direct in what Way the Costs and Expenses of such Applications respectively shall be borne and defrayed.

Powers to Courts of Chancery, &c.

V. This Act shall be and is hereby declared to be a full and complete Indemnity and Discharge to the said South Sea Company, their Directors, Officers, and Servants, and every of them, for all Things done or permitted to be done pursuant thereto, and the same shall not be questioned or impeached in any Court of Law or Equity whatsoever to their Prejudice or Detriment.

AN

INDEX TO THE STATUTES

OF

THE UNITED KINGDOM,

VOLUME THE TWENTY-FIRST,

Containing the Acts passed 15 & 16 Vict. and 16 & 17 Vict. (1852, 1853.)

☞ In this Index the Acts which relate to Ireland or Scotland exclusively are classed under those General Heads; but arranged in Sub-divisions according to the several Subjects, with References to and from other Parts of the Index.

The Local Acts are inserted under that general Title, and are referred to in the Roman Numerals, by which their Series is distinguished in the respective Sessions. They are sub-divided into those that relate to Bridges, Canals, Docks, Ferries, Harbours, Piers, Ports, and other Works of the like Nature, to Companies, to the Draining and Inclosing of Lands, to Railways and Turnpike Roads, to the Improvement of Towns, and to Miscellaneous Subjects.

The Acts commonly called Estate Acts will be found under the Title Private Acts.

Minute References are also made from one Head to another; and from the various Heads under which the Subject may be looked for, to the Head under which the Statute is actually entered.
